

The Pinnacle of Life – Chapter 1158

Alex smiled and said, “It turns out that the secret is hidden here.”

“Huh ? What secret ?”

The material of the plaque itself was quite peculiar. It was made of a kind of dark wood with faint aroma that wouldn't rot for thousands of years. This piece of wood alone was worth a lot of money, and was a thousand times more expensive than the most expensive fragrant rosewood in the market right now.

However, the real secret was hidden beyond that point. Alex reached out his finger and directly dug into that point.

Finally, he dug out an emerald green bead.

“This... This is...”

Cheryl looked at the bead in shock.

Alex felt the fluctuation of the essence on the head for a bit and said, “This should be the Bead of Origin from the Immortal Doctor's Legacy. But, there's just too little essence inside it. This bead is from the remote past, I'm afraid it doesn't have any Legacy's energy anymore.”

Cheryl had a blank look about this matter.

Although she had heard of the legacy, it was just a bead. How would it pass on the legacy ?

At this time, Alex slowly inserted a little of his own spiritual power into the bead, and a magical scene unfolded. As a green light flashed on the bead, a shadow floated out from it, forming a human shaped figure in the end.

The figure had white hair, white beard and a hair bun while wearing a long, ancient white robe. He had the demeanor of a transcendent being, as if he were an old sage dressed in white robe at a sacred mountain from the ancient times.

He also looked inexplicably familiar.

Then, Alex suddenly recalled that at the Triangle River Delta Medical Exchange, Levi Bayer had used a mountain spirit to take the appearance of the Immortal Doctor, Doctor Guilherme Extraordinaire, which looked similar to the man he was looking at right now.

“The Immortal Doctor, Guilherme Extraordinaire?”

The old man’s phantom suddenly turned towards Alex and knelt down in the next instant.

He said, “I, Guiherme Extraordinaire, hereby greet you, Young Master!”

Of course, he was just a soul at this moment. Moreover, he was still in a state of soul remnant, and it was impossible for him to speak. So, he used the way souls communicated, and directly conveyed the content of his words to Alex.

That was telepathic communication.

Now that Alex possessed spiritual consciousness, he could also do it without speaking.

“Young Master? Why do you call me Young Master? Are you really the previous generation’s Immortal Doctor, Guilherme Extraordinaire?”

“If no other person has inherited the Origin of the Immortal Doctor’s Legacy, then I should be the previous generation’s Immortal Doctor! Young Master, I can feel your spiritual powers. It’s the unique method of gathering spiritual power from the Ultimate Book of Medicine. Only those with authentic Rockefeller bloodline legacy can do it! So, you must be the Young Master that I have been waiting for for many years!"

When he said that, Guilherme bowed down again as his face was full of excitement. "What a blessing from Heaven The lineage of the Ultimate Book of Medicine hasn't died out, and the day I have been waiting for has finally come. From now on, I'll serve Young Master without leaving your side even for a moment."

Alex was deeply shocked.

If this old fart really stayed with him every single moment, how would he secretly meet the beautiful women? 'What should I do if I were to have erectile dysfunction from being frightened by you, till I have psychological trauma?'

He didn't want an old man who followed him all the time!

He shook his head. "You need to pass the Immortal Doctor's Legacy to her! Rumor has it that you founded Ganoderma in the past, and she's an heir of Ganoderma. There are no Immortal Doctors in the world currently, and she's a doctor with a benevolent heart. She's more suitable than me to acquire the legacy Because I've already gotten a bloodline legacy."

Only then did Guilherme turn to look at Cheryl. "She... Could she be Young Madam?"

Alex nodded slowly and said, "From now on, you'll concentrate on assisting her, how about it?"

Guilherme thought about it for a while before saying, "I will follow Young Master's orders!"

Then, he turned around and bowed down to Cheryl.

In the next instant, the energy from the emerald green bead continuously transmitted into the center of Cheryl's eyebrows.
