

The Pinnacle of Life – Chapter 1166

Therefore, purely speaking from the path of medicine, the Immortal Doctor's inheritance had more advantages in treating human beings. Of course, Alex had Cheryl intervene in this matter because he wanted to cultivate her.

Very quickly, Cheryl checked Sky's pulse. She frowned for a long time before she finally came up with a feasible treatment plan.

Alex added his opinion from other perspectives.

With the two combined efforts, Sky's injuries could be healed within three days.

Sky's face was pale. He clasped his hands together and said, "Thank you, Brother Alex. Thank you, Miss Cheryl!"

Alex smiled and said, "You were injured this time, more or less, because of me. How about this? Once we go back, I'll make you a pill that'll help temper your foundation. It should be able to help you repair it and restore your martial arts, as well as take you further in the future."

"What pill is that?" Sky was stunned.

"Even if I told you now, I won't be able to explain it clearly in just a short period!" Alex said. "You'll know when the refining is successful. But, you have to prepare the materials yourself. I'm very poor, and I can't afford the materials!"

Sky rolled his eyes discreetly. 'You are poor? I suppose there isn't a single rich man in the Divine Constabulary.'

However, he still said excitedly, "Alright, thank you, bro!"

Zachary licked his lips, then walked over to Alex and said in a low voice, “Alex, this pill, can it really restore the cultivation foundation in a person?”

Alex nodded. “That’s right. As long as your foundation is still there and not completely destroyed and the meridians still exist, the pill will be effective. But, the process is not an easy one, and it’s excruciating!”

“Then... Could you see if I can also use it?” Zachary asked.

“Huh? Uncle Xavier, you have a problem with your foundation, too?”

“That’s exactly it! If you have any request at all, Alex, just tell me, and I’ll do everything in my power to fulfill it.”

“Uh, I don’t need anything at the moment. I’ll make a list of the materials I need when the time comes, and you can also take a copy of it.”

The matter was settled like that.

The next step was to deal with the problem of the poison that was produced here in Ganoderma.

However, Zachary tugged at Alex and said, “Alex, a man like Shaun, is an extremely narrow-minded man, and he will come back for revenge! What I meant previously was for you to hide your strength so that you won’t catch his attention! Then, when the year end competition arrives, we’d take him down in one fell swoop so that he wouldn’t be able to make any further waves. But now, I’m worried that he will make trouble for you, which might be detrimental to you.”

“As to him openly attacking you and Sky today, will the president of the Divine Constabulary just leave it alone?” Alex asked.

Zachary sighed. “The president has not shown his face for a long time. It’s rumored that he’s in retreat to break through a new realm. But, there are also rumors that he’s seriously ill and doesn’t have much longer left. That’s the reason why the higher-ups in the Divine Constabulary are so much in chaos right now. Shaun is gathering his cliques within the Divine Constabulary and is hiding the truth from the masses!”

“There’s another thing. Soraya Melvis is the President’s granddaughter,” Sky said. “Soraya listens and obeys Shaun. So, the other two Guardians, as well as the other senior officials in the Divine Constabulary, would always be a little closer to Soraya because of the respect they have toward the President.”

Cheryl disapproved of Soraya and said, “That woman, she doesn’t even know how to be grateful.”

Alex said calmly, “You guys don’t have to worry. If this Shaun dares to come to trouble me, I don’t mind just getting rid of him!”

Zachary looked at Alex, then at the blood on his clothes. Although he didn’t say anything, he was still concerned on the inside. Especially because Shaun had managed to break through again just now.

However, he wasn’t aware that Shaun’s injuries were much more serious than Alex’s.

Alex had been injured because of the spiritual tool’s counterattack, and it hadn’t been Shaun’s true strength. As for Shaun, with his spiritual tool destroyed, the repercussions were much more serious. At this time, he had run less than five kilometers before he fell to the ground, coughing up blood.

Soraya turned pale with fright. “Brother Baker, are you alright?”

“I’m fine, I just need to rest awhile, and it’ll be okay,” Shaun said.

“I didn’t expect that Alex would be so powerful that even you are not a match for him,” Soraya said.

““Bullsh*t! What’s so great about him?” Shaun’s eyes were dark. “He’s just a psychic, and I had accidentally got caught up in his skills. When I’m sufficiently prepared, I will cut down that sh*tty head of his.”
