

The Pinnacle of Life –

Chapter 0597

“Ellington?” Zendaya said in shock.

She really didn't expect Ellington of all people to hire someone to assault her... This is exactly why one shouldn't judge a book by its cover.

Ellington seemed like a gentleman, acting as if he was the warmest guy on earth. Despite this, he turned out to be such a cruel and evil person when he was away from the public eye.

‘Is he the devil?’

She hugged Alex tightly, her gorgeous, trembling body pressed onto his. She was extremely terrified of what might've happened.

‘If Alex didn't come back to save me, what was waiting for me after getting kidnapped?’

‘It would be living hell. Even if I didn't die, I would rather I did!’

“When you were trying to assault a woman like Zendaya, what were you even thinking? Why didn't you think of letting her go then? It's too late to beg for mercy now!” Alex shook his head gently.

With this, he slapped the underling on the top of his head and released a flow of Chi into his body, shattering his soul.

The guard was now the only one left, he was kneeling on the floor, trembling vigorously.

An upsetting stench came from his pants, he had wet himself.

Watching this guard, Alex shook his head gently again as he let out a deep sigh.

The guard immediately groveled to Alex's feet. "Good sir, please, please let me go! I'm begging you! I didn't do anything, I really didn't!"

Alex continued to stare at him. "Do you know that every human has moral boundaries? You're a security guard, yet you didn't do anything when you knew that a tenant's life was in danger. You even tried to join in. Tell me, don't you deserve death more than anyone here?"

The guard froze in place, his face filled with terror.

"Rest in peace, you have friends on the road to hell." Alex didn't show any mercy.

After that, he placed a finger onto the guard's forehead. At that moment, Alex could imagine just how much misery Zendaya would be in if he didn't rush back. He could imagine just how heartless of a beast this guard would become as well.

He knew that death was the least brutal punishment this guard could receive.

"Are you alright?" Alex turned around and asked Zendaya.

Zendaya wiped her tears off. Noticing that Dorothy was still passed out, she flung herself into Alex's arms and sobbed uncontrollably.

At a time like this, Alex didn't have the heart to push her away. However, the three were in a very uncomfortable position right now.

A few minutes later, Zendaya calmed herself down and stared into his eyes. "If you didn't come back, I would've been raped. I would have no choice but to choose death then. If that were to happen, would you still remember me?"

Alex replied, “Don’t overthink.”

Zendaya shook her head. “I’m not overthinking. I just feel like we really are the living embodiment of the saying ‘right person wrong time’.”

As she spoke, she unintentionally released a strong flow of mental power, filling the room.

Alex froze, he felt extremely heartbroken. It was as if he was losing the love of his life to death. He hugged Zendaya tightly and kissed her passionately on the lips.

After a long while, they parted.

Alex snapped back to reality. “Sorry, I couldn’t control myself.”

Zendaya was blushing as she shook her head. “I should be the one who’s apologizing. I didn’t expect Ellington to do this, he even got your wife involved... If this was a sin, I’d rather bear it on my own.”

Alex placed Dorothy down and took a glance at the corpses on the ground. “It’s fine, let’s not talk about this, we have to deal with these corpses first.”

He immediately called Anna.

Anna was Zendaya’s friend, hence she rushed over to deal with this as soon as she heard the news.

The two girls hugged each other tightly upon her arrival.

Anna said, “Zendaya, don’t you worry. How dare that bastard Ellington hire someone to assault you? I won’t let him get away with this, leave it to me!”
