

The Pinnacle of Life –

Chapter 0643

Upon hearing her sister's words, Claire felt very upset. When she saw her eldest daughter, Dorothy, come back with the divorce certificate in her hands yesterday, she felt elated and jumped in joy. However, not long after, she saw Lush Cosmetics' advertisement.

Initially, she didn't feel much about it.

'Isn't it just a cosmetic product? What's so great about it, there are all kinds of cosmetic products in the world. Even if they could film a better advertisement and invite a more renowned celebrity for the endorsement, that's only because of investing much money in it. Tons of products had lots of money spent in the early stages, and didn't they also end in a dismal state at the end?'

Therefore, she thought, 'That silly hag, Brittany, she's just daydreaming. She even wants to use three months to destroy Rockefeller Group, but that's a big company with a market value of three hundred billion dollars. What a load of hot air!'

Moreover, she secretly rejoiced in the fact that after the divorce, that trashy Alex would no longer rely on her family. When they went bankrupt later and were poor enough to sleep rough on the streets, that wouldn't have anything to do with them. On the other hand, she could find an ideal husband for Dorothy.

With Dorothy's title as the CEO of Assex Constructions and her perfectly beautiful face, Claire would definitely be able to find a perfect son-in-law for her.

However...

She was a little worried about her personal gains and losses right now.

In her heart, she thought, 'That trashy Alex, he couldn't possibly have experienced a turn of fortune, right?'

However, out loud, she said, “Oh, Lush Cosmetics? It’s not anything great at all. My friend gave it to me some time ago, but I didn’t see anything special about it. So, I just put it there since I didn’t feel like using it.”

Adrianna jumped up immediately and rushed over to pick up the bottle of Lush Cosmetics product. After opening it for a look, it was indeed untouched. She smiled as she said, “Sis, since you don’t want to use it, then give it to me. Anyway, your family is rich now, even Dorothy has the entire Assex Constructions in her hands, that’s great!”

Claire was a bit reluctant to give it to her, but she had already spoken her words and she couldn’t take back her words. So, she said, “Take it, take it. It’s not like it’s worth a lot of money anyway.”

Sharpay, who was standing aside, said, “Auntie really is rich and powerful now. Even your aura seems different, and there’s overbearing aura spilling over. Even this Lush Cosmetics Cream that costs 280,000 dollars is not valuable.”

“How much did you say this bottle costs?!” Claire’s eyes widened, and she almost jumped out from her seat. Her mind was buzzing from the information, and it almost couldn’t process what she had just heard.

Sharpay repeated, “280,000 dollars.”

Claire’s face paled as she gnawed on her lips. Although she was astonished, she was extremely reluctant to admit to any mistake, so she forced a pretentious smile on her face. “Where did you hear these rumors? It must be a gimmick by the manufacturers. If it’s really that expensive, only idiots would go and buy it!”

Adrianna rolled her eyes and said, “Sis, since you already said you’ll give it to me, don’t go asking for it back now.”

Claire waved her hand. “Do I look like that sort of petty person? But is it really worth 280,000 dollars?”

Sharpay said, “Yes! You can’t get this anywhere right now, and only our salon is selling it right now, with a fixed price of 280,000 dollars. Furthermore, you must have a membership card to be eligible to use it.”

“Your salon?” Claire was surprised.

Adrianna smiled. “Sis, you probably don’t know this, but our Sharpay is now working at City Salon. It’s a high-end place, and people who go there are super rich women. If you know any one of them, you might have a chance to get to know Mr. Perfect whatsoever from them!”

“Aren’t there only women going to the salon?”

“Social circles are different, they’d obviously also know men!”

Claire was a little speechless, but then she kept thinking about the matter of Lush Cosmetics in her heart and continued to ask Sharpay more about some things. When Sharpay answered her questions, her eyes nearly popped out of her head.

There was another product from Lush Cosmetics, its price was even more expensive than the Lush Cosmetics Cream. One bottle was sold for 380,000 dollars.

She exclaimed in shock, “Has she gone crazy from all the thinking she’s done? 380,000 dollars for one bottle of freckle cream, who in the world would buy it?”

Sharpay shook her head. “Auntie, you don’t know about that? Those are really people who buy the products, and they are rich people. Lush Cosmetics is walking the premier, luxury route, and they’re not producing products that can be afforded by the ordinary masses. Just compare it to buying a car. You could buy one for two hundred thousand dollars, but why would anyone spend millions or tens of millions to buy a luxury car?”

“The Lush Acne Cream can remove the spots on your face in three days, and there are no side effects.”

“If you were to have a surgery done, not only will it be expensive, but it will also be dangerous. Which one do you think the people would choose?”

“Those standing in line to buy the products don’t want much.”

“The salon’s membership card income alone has exceeded 500 million dollars these recent days... I heard that the salon’s owner is actually a man, and he’s not really old. I also heard he’s a highly eligible bachelor.”
