

“Just wait and see!” Chen Hao said with a smile.

Currently, there were many cars parked in front of this group’s office building.

There was Li Wenyang’s father, Li Dahai, the current deputy minister, Yang Dong, as well as the other assistant managers of the investment company, Li Nian and the rest.

They all got out of an RV in a well-behaved manner.

Of course, Li Zhenguo and Zhao Zixing had also arrived.

Currently, both of their faces were showing a hint of dissatisfaction.

If Young Master Chen had not messaged them yesterday and told them about the problems in the company, the two of them would not have known about what was happening until now.

Their profits had been swallowed up by these few people, including some other people in different departments.

After Li Zhenguo received Chen Hao's phone call yesterday, he immediately summoned all of the perpetrators and interrogated them for the whole night.

Today, he obeyed Young Master Chen's command and brought them all to the company.

In front of the company doors, two people were waiting. It was a man and a woman.

"Li Wenyang, why did you ask me to come here? How am I even supposed to know where your father is? I don't even know what's going on in the company!" The woman said, annoyed.

"Jiang Xueqing, don't be that way. Just help me out here, I—Damn, isn't that my dad? He's here!" The man was obviously Li Wenyang.

After his father had been taken away by those people, he hadn't returned for the whole night.

This morning, Li Wenyang had been pestered by his mother to go to the company and ask around.

But even then, he couldn't find any clues.

After hearing that Jiang Xueqing had gone to the company's headquarters a few times, he decided to call her and asked her to accompany him in his search.

Right as they were discussing, he finally caught a glimpse of his dad.

"Dad, what happened?" After running over, he saw how regretful his father looked and asked in concern.

"Son, go home first. It's none of your business here. Young Master Chen wants to see us, so you should head back now," Li Dahai said with a face full of pain.

"Huh? Young Master Chen? He's here in Ping An County?" Once they heard Li Dahai's words, both Li Wenyang and Jiang Xueqing were taken aback.

"Yes." Li Dahai nodded.

“Let’s go. Don’t make Young Master Chen wait too long for all of you,” Li Zhenguo said mildly.

“Yes, President Li.” The group of people responded with pale faces.

After that, they went upstairs.

“Something must have happened to my dad. I’ve never seen him like this! I must follow him and check up on him!” Li Wenyang said.

As for Jiang Xueqing, she hadn’t wanted to give any more attention to Li Wenyang after what happened when Xu Xin’s mother treated them to a meal. But now, she wanted to catch a glimpse of what Young Master Chen looked like above everything else.

That was why she agreed to go upstairs with Li Wenyang.

In the Marketing Department, everyone was already in an uproar.

Almost all of the workers were standing up, watching as their corridors filled with people walking back and forth.

The corridor was filled with all of the higher-ups in the company, including all of the executives.

No one knew what had happened.

No one dared to ask either.

They all just stared in surprise.

Just then, the elevator doors opened.

Li Zhenguo and the rest stepped out of the elevator with some people, then led them to the printing room.

“Look, look! That’s the president of the company, Li Zhenguo! He’s the second-in-command! And that’s Zhao Zixing next to him, also the second-in-command of the company. They’re all here!”

“Yeah! Isn’t that Deputy Minister Yang and Assistant Manager Li behind them? What’s going on? That looks like Li Dahai from Furniture City!”

“Could it be that there’s something wrong with the company? There are so many executives, and even President Li is here!”

“Something must have happened! We just don’t know what it is!”

The crowd discussed among themselves fervently.

Wang Meina drank her tea as she stood by the side, watching.

Right then, she saw a familiar face emerging from the elevator.

She quickly waved her hand and said softly, “Jiang Xueqing! Over here!”

“Wang Meina!”

Jiang Xueqing walked over with Li Wenyang in tow.

“Why are you guys here? Did you catch wind of what happened? And who’s this? Jiang Xueqing, is this your boyfriend?” Wang Meina smiled after seeing Li Wenyang behind Jiang Xueqing.

“He’s not my boyfriend. As for what happened here, I was just planning to ask you about it! All of the executives from the company headquarters are here. Who knows what they’re here for?”

“Sigh, we can only wait and see!”

Wang Meina shook her head as she didn’t know either.

Knock! Knock!

What about Chen Hao?

At this moment, a bunch of knocks sounded from outside his door.

Chen Hao yelled for them to come in as he sat with his legs crossed.

The door opened, and Li Zhenguo and Zhao Zixing brought Li Dahai and the others into the room.

“Huh? What?” Wang Junsheng was shocked.

The people in front of him were not just anyone. They were people who were directly involved in the matter.

Even Li Dahai had been called over.

As for the people in charge of dealing with them... weren't they President Li and General Manager Zhao?

"W-What..." Wang Junsheng, Wang Kang, and Liu Yanan were lost for words.

"General Manager Zhao, President Li!" They quickly greeted the two of them.

"Young Master Chen, we've brought everyone involved," Li Zhenguo came forward and said in a low tone.

"Young Master Chen?"

"Damn, he's Young Master Chen?"

Right at that moment, everyone was frozen in shock.

Among them, Wang Junsheng and Liu Yanan were the most stupefied.

“Y-Young Master Chen?” Liu Yanan started to feel like she couldn’t catch her breath.

“Ah, since everyone is here now, then can Team Leader Wang please tell me how I’m supposed to sign this contract?” Chen Hao smiled lightly.

“I...” Wang Junsheng gulped.

His mind was currently as blank as a piece of paper.

He had everything planned for today, but never in his wildest dreams could he have imagined that the one he had been scheming against was Young Master Chen himself.

Things might have been fine if he hadn’t schemed, but he was dead this time.

F*ck, who could have expected that this person was Young Master Chen?

Wang Junsheng looked at Liu Yanan, dumbfounded.

But how could Liu Yanan even bother paying attention to Wang Junsheng now?

She asked in shock, "President Li, what did you just call him? Did you call Chen Hao 'Young Master Chen?'"

"Hmph, nonsense! Step aside!" Li Zhenguo ordered.

"Young Master Chen, what do we do now? This printing room is a bit too small for our meeting!" Zhao Zixing said.

"You're right, it is a bit too small. Bring everyone to the meeting room instead and properly investigate what's going on!" Chen Hao said.

Li Zhenguo brought all of them to the meeting room as he was told to.

Even as they walked out of the door, Liu Yanan was still staring at Chen Hao with a complicated gaze, obviously in disbelief.

However, Chen Hao was no longer looking at her.

He got up and walked out as well.

“They’re coming out!”

The people outside immediately quietened down.

When they saw Chen Hao walking out after everybody else, Wang Meina and the others got a shock.

“Chen Hao, come here!”

Wang Meina gestured for Chen Hao to come over. After the ticket incident, Wang Meina was on decent terms with Chen Hao.

Chen Hao came over.

What he didn’t expect was for both Jiang Xueqing and Li Wenyang to be here in the company.

“Chen Hao? Why are you here?” Jiang Xueqing said in surprise.

“You two know each other? Chen Hao is my colleague! He just started working here,” Wang Meina said with a smile.

“Chen Hao, so you’re working here now!”

Apart from feeling pleasantly surprised that Chen Hao here, Jiang Xueqing was also feeling a hint of a different emotion.

As for Li Wenyang, hatred was written all over his face.

“Hmph. Wang Meina, you should let Chen Hao take care of you more from now on. He was our high school classmate and he’s pretty talented!” Li Wenyang said sarcastically.

“I see, so you were classmates. Not bad. Chen Hao is definitely talented, haha!”

“Chen Hao, tell us! What’s going on? What happened to Wang Junsheng and the others?” A crowd of girls rushed toward Chen Hao.

“Also, Jiang Xueqing said that Young Master Chen would be here today, but we haven’t seen him. Which one of them is Young Master Chen?” Wang Meina asked.

The crowd was rife in confusion.

“Young Master Chen, everyone is in the meeting room. Will you be heading over now?”

Just then, Li Zhenguo’s voice sounded from right behind Chen Hao...

Rate the Translation to Get 2 Pearls.

Wait! I Have Something to Say!

Send a Gift to the Writer!

“Young Master Chen?” Jiang Xueqing and Li Wenyang were stunned.

Everyone in the Marketing Department was taken aback.

“Alright, I’ll go over right now!” Chen Hao answered.

“Chen Hao, y-you’re Young Master Chen?” Jiang Xueqing asked in surprise.

Xu Xin’s mother had joked about it when she treated Jiang Xueqing and the others to a meal. She had said that Chen Hao might be Jin Ling’s Young Master Chen.

At the time, Jiang Xueqing had gotten a shock, too.

She had thought about it. She was so familiar with Chen Hao. How could he possibly be Young Master Chen, currently one of the richest young masters to their understanding?

But right now, after hearing President Li call out this name, Jiang Xueqing’s mind went blank.

Oh my god, Chen Hao was the Young Master Chen?

“Yup!” Chen Hao nodded at Jiang Xueqing with a faint smile.

After that, he left under the startled gaze of the workers.

As for Li Wenyang, he had originally been brought in by Jiang Xueqing to look for his father. But now, his eyes were empty as he collapsed onto a seat nearby.

“Damn, Chen Hao really is a rich second generation heir! He’s also our Chairman! No wonder he had so many concert tickets. I told you guys, he’s not just an average man! But still, I never expected him to be our Chairman!” After Chen Hao left, everyone in the Marketing Department started to go wild.

Luckily we didn’t offend our Chairman! Some girls thought in fear.

In general, the atmosphere was now extremely strange.

Everyone was utterly flabbergasted.

As for Wang Junsheng and the others, it wasn't hard to settle this issue.

They didn't just confess to the things they did, but had also exposed a few other people from other departments that hadn't been discovered.

Most of the culprits were people from Ping An County of Jin Ling City.

That was easy to settle, too. All of them were just handed straight to the police to be dealt with.

Liu Yanan had looked at Chen Hao with a complicated expression many times as they were being taken away, and she looked like she wanted to ask him for help. But Chen Hao had paid zero attention to her.

He had already given her a chance.

Since you used our relationship to set me up, then don't blame me for not standing up for you now.

This incident was finally over.

“Young Master Chen, there’s only four more days left until your birthday. How do you want to spend it? Miss Chen Xiao also called me, saying that since it’s your first birthday after leaving the poor life, we must have a proper celebration for you!” Li Zhenguo said once they reached downstairs.

“How else can I spend it? Uncle and Aunt Wu have always celebrated it with me, and things won’t be different this year. I still want to spend it at home, but this time, you all should join as well. There will be about twenty of us, and it’s already the biggest crowd I’ve ever had for a birthday celebration, hehe!” Chen Hao laughed.

Chen Hao didn’t have many true friends apart from Li Xiao, who had been his close friend ever since they were young.

He didn’t have any money or power, so who would want to hang around a poor loser like himself?

That was why Chen Hao didn’t invite many people for this birthday party.

Apart from Li Zhenguo, Zhao Zixing, Bai Xiaofei and Ling Yiyi, he also invited Li Xiao and Su Ting.

Gathering these people who usually hung out together was a pretty good idea.

Chen Hao didn't want to spread the word around too much.

After that, Chen Hao kept his things and prepared to return to town.

As for Zhao Zixing, he was looking rather uneasy.

Li Zhenguo had noticed it early on, but he only asked now, "Zhao Zixing, did you have something that you didn't tell Young Master Chen?"

Zhao Zixing scratched his head anxiously. "I told everyone about Young Master Chen's birthday being four days from now! But Young Master Chen just said he wanted to celebrate it subtly!"

“What?! You told everyone about it?” Li Zhenguo said, his face full of shock...

At five in the evening, Chen Hao flagged down a taxi to send him back to the small town.

Chen Hao could definitely return now in an extravagant manner. Even if he wanted to arrange for a procession to send him home, it wouldn't be a problem.

However, Uncle Wu's family did not know about Chen Hao being Young Master Chen.

If he went back that way, first of all, it would be too grand of an affair, and Chen Hao did not like feeling like he was showing off.

Secondly, he would have to explain to Uncle Wu and the rest of the family about everything, including the money he used to pay for Uncle Wu's hospital bill as well as his own true identity, even though he had nothing left to hide from the two elders.

That was why it was better for him to return to his old home in a more subtle manner.

On the way, he saw that the roads were all being paved.

Chen Hao was clear that even his own little town was about to start undergoing developments.

“Young man, do you live in this town?” The driver asked with a smile. He was a middle-aged man who seemed to enjoy striking up conversations.

Chen Hao nodded.

“Congratulations, young man! Your whole town is about to start undergoing some serious developments, and almost everyone will have opportunities now. They aren’t just distributing houses, but are also supplying the people with demolition fees. They have also created many jobs! You look like a college student, so you’re going to have plenty of chances to develop your career here in the future!”

“Yeah, that sounds pretty good!”

As they chatted along the way, they arrived at Chen Hao's house in no time.

They called it a town, but actually, Chen Hao's old home was in a small village within the town.

It was considered a town village.

In the village, there were many families who owned mills and made a living selling tofu skin and tofu.

Before, whenever he returned to the village, the most attractive thing about it was how the air was filled with the fragrance of soybeans.

However, when he returned to the village this time, the fragrance he was looking forward to had reduced by a significant amount.

"Wow, the university student has returned!"

"Why haven't you brought a girlfriend back home?"

"Chen Hao, have you gotten a job? A university student like you should be able to find a good job, right?"

The moment he stepped into the village, a bunch of villagers came forward and started bombarding him with questions.

"Not yet!" Chen Hao said with a smile.

"Hmph, I think it's useless for him to have gone to university! He can't even measure up to those that dropped out of school to work starting from a young age!" Some women said contemptuously.

People should be more careful of what they say.

Chen Hao didn't hang around to talk.

After a turn, he reached his house.

He took out his key to open the door, but realized that the locks had been changed and he could no longer open the door.

"What's going on?" Chen Hao said unhappily.

"Hehe, it's you, Chen Hao! You're back!" At that moment, a woman walked out of Uncle Wu's house, which was next to Chen Hao's. She was Uncle Wu's second daughter-in-law, Sun Hongxia.

She was chewing on sunflower seeds as she walked toward Chen Hao.

"Aunty, who changed the locks of my house?" Chen Hao asked with a bitter smile.

He had met Sun Hongxia before, and he had greeted her when they were at the hospital.

She was a gold-digger. She would only take advantage of others, and she was not willing to suffer on anyone's terms.

"Ah, I was the one who changed them. Why?" Sun Hongxia said.

"Then what about my house keys?" Chen Hao asked.

"Hehe, what do you mean by 'your house'?" Chen Hao, do you know who this house belongs to? Hmph! I know exactly what you came back to do. You heard that our houses were being demolished and you wanted to come back to claim some of that money, right? I'm telling you, forget it! This house is mine! It's written clearly on the deed!" Sun Hongxia said with a completely different attitude.

Of course Chen Hao knew what she was talking about.

He had heard his father talk about it before.

At first, when his parents moved to this village, Uncle Wu owned two houses. One was their own house, and the other was this one.

Then, his parents had bought one of the houses with their own money.

To be honest, twenty years ago, there was no such thing as a proper deed.

At the time, they had just signed a simple contract.

What was more, it was signed when his father and Uncle Wu were having drinks.

After so many years, he had no idea where his father had put the contract.

At that time, no one had imagined that anyone from Uncle Wu's family would try to snatch the house back forcefully.

That was the thing.

Sun Hongxia had also heard about the demolition of their houses. That was why she wanted to have this house for her own, so that she could receive the demolition fees of almost a couple hundred thousand.

"Chen Hao, you're back! Don't listen to your aunt's nonsense. This house belongs to your family, and no one can take it from you!"

Right at that moment, Uncle Wu heard the commotion and walked out...