

“Yeah, what is it, Chen Hao?”

Mr. Fan asked Chen Hao from the other end of the line.

“Mr. Fan, I know you can’t allow us to help in this case, but I hope you can help us. What I will say now is very important, and you’d better believe me if you want to crack this case and arrest the Fire Ghost King,” Chen Hao told Mr. Fan seriously.

Upon hearing that, Mr. Fan had no choice but to oblige. “Sure. Tell me how I can help you.”

Mr. Fan had decided to take a risk and help Chen Hao solve the case and capture the Fire Ghost King.

“I’ll tell you when we meet. Mr. Fan, go to the population record office; we will meet there,” Chen Hao told Mr. Fan before he hung up.

Half an hour later, Chen Hao’s team met up with Mr. Fan at the Celestial Continent’s population record office. “Why are we meeting here, Chen Hao?” Mr. Fan was puzzled.

“Mr. Fan, I need you to go inside and get us the information about the Fire Ghost King’s family. I want everything about his family as well as the extended members,” Chen Hao didn't answer that question, and instead he told Mr. Fan what he needed.

"No problem," Mr. Fan agreed to that request without any hesitation, as he knew Chen Hao had his own purpose for doing this. Following that, Mr. Fan then went into the office. Chen Hao had asked for his help because all the records inside could only be accessed by someone of Mr. Fan's status, and about an hour later, he came out with a thick stack of records, handing them over to Chen Hao when they got into the car.

"Everything about the Fire Ghost King's family is here. There's also all the details about his parents and his grandparents. Take a look." Mr. Fan reported to Chen Hao, thereupon the latter took the documents over without any hesitation and began going through it as fast as possible.

"Did you find out anything?" Mr. Fan had to ask, as he would feel uncomfortable if he had unanswered questions, but Chen Hao ignored him as he kept on reading through the records. It took a while before he stop to take out something and handed it to Mr. Fan. Mr. Fan took it, noticing that it was a record belonging to an old woman called Feng Yunxiang. Feng Yunxiang was Fire Ghost King's grandmother, but she had passed away a few years ago, and the latest record was written two years ago. “What... What does this prove?” Mr. Fan was confused.

Chen Hao quickly told Lei Lie about Feng Yunxiang’s address. “Lei Lie, use your GPS and check if Feng Yunxiang’s home has the same coordinates as the number the Fire Ghost King left behind,” Chen Hao quickly requested this from Lei Lie who was in the backseat. Lei Lie immediately whipped out his tablet to check, realizing then that the number the Fire Ghost King left behind were actually coordinates, and that it was his grandmother’s—Feng Yunxiang—address.

“It’s exactly as you thought, Mr. Chen. The numbers match up with the coordinates,” Lei Lie quickly told Chen Hao and Mr. Fan what he found, and they looked at each other in realization about what these numbers revealed. This couldn’t be a coincidence, so that meant the Fire Ghost King probably hid in this place, and the clue of numbers he left on purpose could lead them to where he was, but it could also be where the next victim would appear. Mr. Fan mulled it over for a bit before flooring the accelerator and sped forward, as they had to go to Feng Yunxiang’s home on the double.

“Mr. Chen, do you think the Fire Ghost King is really there?” On the way, Lei Lie asked Chen Hao doubtfully.

Chen Hao looked concerned, thereupon he shook his head. "I can't be sure, since Fire Ghost King is a meticulous man who does things in unorthodox ways. This set of numbers can only tell us where the next victim will be, not the spot where Fire Ghost King is hiding." Lei Lie nodded to show that he understood the answer. After more than forty minutes of driving, Chen Hao and his team arrived at Feng Yunxiang's home.

Feng Yunxiang was living in a remote village, and as Chen Hao and his little gang walked on the village street, they didn't see anyone around. Most of the houses' doors around them were closed; it was obvious that they were deserted for a long time, since nobody would live in a remote, rundown village.

The economy was booming now, and everyone was happy to live in better houses and lead better lives, hence nobody would choose to suffer in a place like this.

Their team finally came across a person after walking around for a while. Since that person was wearing very simple—even worn down—clothes, he was probably a farmer in this village. "Mister!" Mr. Fan quickly called out to the old man.

The old man was surprised to see Chen Hao and his team, as he didn't expect any outsiders to come to this village. "And you are?" The old man looked at Mr. Fan fearfully.

"Don't worry, Mister. I'm from the military aircraft department. May I ask if you know where Feng Yunxiang lives?" Mr. Fan introduced himself before asking the old man.

The old man let down his guard when he heard that Mr. Fan was a part of the military aircraft department. "Who did you just say?" the old man asked again.

"Feng Yunxiang! Granny Feng Yunxiang!" Mr. Fan yelled Feng Yunxiang's name twice.

"Oh, Feng Yunxiang? B-But, she's been dead for years. Why are you looking for her?" The old man realized who they were looking for, and so he reminded Mr. Fan about Feng Yunxiang's passing, but Mr. Fan and the others had already known about this.

"I know about that, Mister. We just want to go to her home to take something," Mr. Fan told the old man.

"Sure, let me lead the way," the old man agreed to Mr. Fan's request readily.

"Oh, that's great! Thank you, Mister!" Mr. Fan was delighted by that offer, and he took it happily, since it was a great thing that someone was willing to guide them, as they didn't have to look everywhere for her home. Under the old man's guidance, Chen Hao and his team soon arrived at Feng Yunxiang's home.

Feng Yunxiang's home was a dilapidated wooden house, and even the door was shut tight. "Mr. Chen, I don't think Fire Ghost King is hiding in here. It's too rundown, and it's creepy," Lei Lie told Chen Hao after a glance at the house.

“Ha ha, Lei Lie, don’t forget that Fire Ghost King is no longer human and is even more terrifying than a ghost now. Do you think he’d be afraid and hide here?” Chen Hao chuckled and reminded Lei Lie.

Upon hearing that, Lei Lie felt that it indeed made sense.

“Well, you take your time. I’ll be leaving then,” the old man said to Mr. Fan and the others.

“Sure. Thank you, mister!” Mr. Fan hastily thanked him.

“No worries,” the old man replied, waving a dismissive hand.

After the old man had left, Chen Hao and the others stood in front of the wooden house, at a loss. They didn’t know what to do as they couldn’t enter the wooden house before them nor did they know how to gain entry.

“Mr. Chen, Mr. Fan, what should we do now? Should we kick the door in?” Lei Lie asked, looking at Chen Hao and Mr. Fan.

“Hey, no way! Breaking and entering is a crime!” Mr. Fan castigated him immediately.

Chapter 901 Anything Amiss?

Although Feng Yunxiang was gone, this house still belonged to her, so they couldn't just break in.

"What should we do, then? We don't have the key," Lei Lie sighed helplessly.

"Let's wait until night comes and see if we can await Fire Ghost King's appearance," Chen Hao then suggested.

As per his suggestion, the three of them waited there. As they waited, a few hours passed. They waited until 8:00 at night, but Fire Ghost King never did appear.

Meanwhile, the entire place had already plunged into total darkness and stillness; the vast darkness on all sides could truly evoke extreme fear within a person. With the exception of Chen Hao, Lei Lie and Mr. Fan both shivered and clutched their clothes tightly.

"Mr. Chen, we've waited here for so long that it's pitch dark now. Are we still going to wait?" Lei Lie asked, looking at Chen Hao.

"That's right. Chen Hao, why don't we return to the car? At least, it'll be better than weathering the freezing cold here,” Mr. Fan, who was beside him, hastily looked at him and suggested.

When Chen Hao heard that, he nodded in acquiescence.

Seeing that he had agreed, elation filled Mr. Fan and Lei Lie at that moment.

Then, the three of them stood up at once and made to leave.

At this precise moment, a glimmer of light shone through the trees.

When the light shone through, it immediately caught their attention and had them on guard. Immediately, they crouched again.

“Are you all here, young men?”

Shortly after, the voice of the old man earlier rang out in the air.

Chen Hao and the others breathed a sigh of relief when they heard his voice. They were wondering who it was, but it turned out to be the old man earlier.

They then stepped out from the shrubs.

“Mister, it’s so late. Why are you still out and wandering about?” Mr. Fan asked, looking at the old man in puzzlement.

“I noticed that you’ve all been staying here the entire time, so I came to check on you!” the old man replied, smiling at Mr. Fan.

“We’re fine. We’re waiting for someone here,” Mr. Fan quickly explained to the old man in hopes that he wouldn’t notice anything amiss.

Sigh. “It’s so late now. I’m sure the person won’t be coming. Come with me to my place to stay the night,” the old man sighed, then suggested to Chen Hao and the others.

Upon hearing that, Mr. Fan immediately turned around to look at Chen Hao to see what he thought of it.

Glimpsing his gaze, Chen Hao nodded slightly.

At this moment, they had no other choice but to go to the old man’s house to stay the night as it wasn’t safe out there considering how dark it was, and who knew what existed out there.

After the conversation, Chen Hao and the others went with the old man and left the wooden house.

The old man then brought them to his house. His house wasn't very rundown, and from the looks of it, it had been renovated previously.

"Mister, are you the only person living in this village now?" Mr. Fan asked upon reaching the old man's house, curious.

"Haha..." The old man chuckled.

"Yes. The others have long since moved to the city. I live alone here," the old man replied after chuckling for a while.

"Why don't you go and live in the city, then, mister? It's much more comfortable living in the city," Mr. Fan continued asking.

Sigh. "I'm all alone without family or children, so I don't want to go and live in the city. It's quite nice living here. I'm used to it," the old man explained with a bitter smile.

His words carried a wealth of sadness.

That was no wonder since not having a family at such an advanced age would be very pitiful indeed.

However, perhaps this was the old man's destiny—to live deep in the mountains for his entire life. Nevertheless, to grow roots and live in the same place for one's entire lifetime was also a blessing.

"Oh yes, young man, who are you waiting for here?" the old man then asked Mr. Fan again.

"Mister, do you know that Feng Yunxiang had a grandson named Fire Ghost King?" Mr. Fan asked the old man after hesitating for a moment.

When the old man heard that, he was momentarily stunned before replying, "Yes. Fire Ghost King, yes? That man is quite a good man. He was the one who paid to have my house renovated. He was very filial back then; sometimes, he came and lived with his grandmother, and on occasion, came to my place to play. But... after his grandmother had passed away, he never came back again.” As the old man was speaking, he sighed.

“Oh, really? Mister, did you notice anything amiss recently? Or did you hear any noises from Feng Yunxiang’s wooden house?” Mr. Fan then asked the old man.

Since this old man knew Fire Ghost King, there must be something more to the coordinates that he left.

“I didn’t hear any noises. I pass by the wooden house every day on my way up and down the mountain, but I’ve never heard any noises.” the old man told Mr. Fan.

“You’re asking so many questions. What happened? What happened to Fire Ghost King?” the old man demanded, confused.

“No, no. Mister, we’re his friends, but we haven’t been able to find him recently, so we came here to see if he’s here,” Mr. Fan hurriedly made up an excuse to the old man.

“Oh, I see.” When the old man heard that, he didn’t suspect anything but merely nodded in acceptance of the excuse.

It was now past midnight, and Chen Hao and the others were in the house.

Tonight, however, none of them went to sleep.

It wasn't that they didn't want to sleep, but they dared not sleep.

After all, they didn't know what would happen if they did go to sleep nor did they know if Fire Ghost King would put in an appearance.

Creak.

At this precise moment, they heard the sound of a door being opened.

After the sound of the door opening, the sound of it closing followed immediately.

Chen Hao and the others looked out at once, but they only saw the old man. Holding a basket in his hand, the old man left the house and headed toward the wooden house that belonged to Fire Ghost King's grandmother, Feng Yunxiang.

Upon seeing this, they exchanged glances simultaneously. They were extremely curious about why the old man went out in the middle of the night with a basket. There must be a secret behind this.

After that, the three of them left the house at once and stealthily followed the old man.

After following him all the way, they saw him coming to a stop at the wooden house. He then took a key out of his pocket and unlocked the lock on the wooden house. After unlocking it, he carefully looked around. It was only after he was certain that there was no one else that he relaxed his guard, pushed open the door, and walked in.

Chen Hao and the others then promptly strode forward and stopped before the wooden house.

"Mr. Chen, it looks like this old man must be hiding something from us. After all, he has a key to this wooden house!" Lei Lie whispered to Chen Hao.

Now, the truth had finally come to light. It was apparent that this old man's identity wasn't that simple; he must have some kind of relationship with Fire Ghost King.

"Lei Lie, Mr. Fan, go and find a place to hide somewhere. I'll go inside and take a look," Chen Hao then said to Lei Lie and Mr. Fan.

Upon hearing Chen Hao's words, Lei Lie and Mr. Fan had no objections, so they nodded in acquiescence. Then, they quickly went over to the shrubs nearby and hid.

Meanwhile, Chen Hao walked over to the side of the wooden house alone and sat upright. Then, he did an astral projection. Naturally, he wouldn't enter in person as that would only alert them to his presence, and the old man would surely find him out.

After performing the astral projection, he entered the wooden house right away and started searching the place.

When he came to the second floor, he heard the old man's voice, and he seemed to be speaking to someone. Very quickly, after the old man had finished speaking, Fire Ghost King's voice rang out. As soon as he heard it, he knew that Fire Ghost King was indeed hiding here.

The only thing that surprised him was the fact that the old man hid it so well when he actually had some kind of relationship with Fire Ghost King.

“Fire Ghost King, those three people looking for you must be up to no good, yes?” the old man asked Fire Ghost King.

Fire Ghost King, who was sitting on a chair, snorted. “Humph. Those three people want to capture me. It seems that they are very smart indeed since they actually found this place!”

“It’s not that we’re smart, but the clue you left was too obvious, Fire Ghost King.” Chen Hao’s voice rang out just as Fire Ghost King uttered those words, and he appeared before them.

“Chen Hao!”

Seeing Chen Hao, Fire Ghost King was incensed. He roared in rage and lunged at Chen Hao, wanting to tear him into pieces.

However, Chen Hao reacted very quickly, sending Fire Ghost King flying with just a kick; he was half human and half ghost now, so he was not at all afraid of him. Today, this matter must end here.

“Fire Ghost King, I definitely won’t allow you to escape today!” Chen Hao declared, glaring at him furiously.

After saying that, he flung out the Spirit Locking Chain in his hand, and the chain swiftly bound Fire Ghost King.

However, Fire Ghost King was no easy prey either. He morphed into black mist and charged at Chen Hao.

Meanwhile, Chen Hao drew his Star Abyss Sword, and with a swing of the sword, a rush of Soul Spirit blasted at Fire Ghost King.

At this moment, when the old man saw this, he immediately rushed forward and shielded the black mist so that the Soul Spirit wouldn't hurt Fire Ghost King.

Hiss!

The Soul Spirit pierced the old man's body while Fire Ghost King's black mist wrapped around him at the same time. Then, the black mist absorbed the old man's soul as well as his lifeblood and spiritual energy, turning him into a corpse immediately.

This greatly shocked Fire Ghost King as he never thought it would end like this nor did he expect the old man to shield him from Chen Hao's attack.

"Fire Ghost King, you've killed another innocent person!" Chen Hao bellowed, infuriated upon seeing what had happened.

Just as he said that, he decided to use his forbidden skill to obliterate Fire Ghost King once and for all.

At this time, Fire Ghost King was in a trance, rooted to the ground motionlessly as though he had really lost his soul.

"Be obliterated!" Chen Hao roared in anger and threw the Star Abyss Sword in his hand at him.

When the Star Abyss Sword struck Fire Ghost King's body, it suddenly emanated a very bright light that swallowed him whole.

"Ahh!" Fire Ghost King screamed.

In the next instance, he turned into a pile of ashes.

Finally, Chen Hao had killed Fire Ghost King; finally, he had avenged the villagers of Luoyue Village.

When they heard the commotion in the house, Mr. Fan and Lei Lie burst in and dashed up to the second floor.

Upon seeing the old man's corpse and the pile of ashes on the ground, they were both shocked to the core.

"Wh... what happened here?"

However, they didn't see any sign of Chen Hao.

A few seconds later, Chen Hao climbed the stairs to the second floor.

"Hmm? Chen Hao, why did you come in from the outside? Hadn't you already entered the house?" Mr. Fan asked in surprise, staring at him.

"I've killed Fire Ghost King!" Chen Hao said to Mr. Fan, pointing at the pile of ashes on the ground without answering his question.

Staring at the pile of ashes on the ground, astonishment was written all over Mr. Fan's face.

"You... are you saying that this was Fire Ghost King?" Mr. Fan clarified, a trace of disbelief in his voice.

Chen Hao nodded, then turned and left.

Mr. Fan and Lei Lie exchanged a glance, but they didn't say anything further. They simply hurried after him and left as well.

After leaving the wooden house, Chen Hao and the others returned to their car at once. After getting into the car, they then started the engine and left the village.

Now, Fire Ghost King was finally dead, and Chen Hao could finally breathe easy.

"Mr. Fan, please drive us back home. Thank you for your hard work these past few days. This matter is now settled!" Chen Hao said to Mr. Fan, who was driving.

Upon hearing that, Mr. Fan nodded as he naturally understood what he meant.

"Thank you, Chen Hao!" Mr. Fan thanked him.

If Chen Hao hadn't discovered this vital clue this time, they would never have stumbled upon this place nor would they have found Fire Ghost King, not to mention eliminate him.

Although Mr. Fan was in the military aircraft department, he agreed with Chen Hao's action. After all, Fire Ghost King deserved to die.

Until the next morning.

Just as Chen Hao and Lei Lie were still sleeping, the sound of the doorbell woke them up.

Lei Lie sleepily walked out of the room, went to the door and opened it.

As soon as he had opened it, he saw a few people in uniform. From the insignia on their uniform, they were people from the military aircraft department.

“Is Mr. Chen and Mr. Lei in?”

An inspector walked in, looked at Lei Lie and asked.

Lei Lie nodded and replied. “I am Lei Lie. What’s the matter?”

“Take him away!”

Hearing Lei Lie’s words, the inspector immediately barked an order to the two inspectors behind him, who came forward to grab him and take him outside.

“Hey! What are you guys doing?” Lei Lie suddenly shouted.

The commotion immediately woke Chen

Hao, Zhen Ji, and Zhou Nuo.

The three of them hurriedly came out from the room.

“Who are you guys?” after Chen Hao came out, he looked at the man in front of him curiously and asked.

“You must be Mr. Chen. We suspect that you had something to do with the death of Mr. Fan, so you have to go back with us for further investigation!” the inspector took out a warrant and told Chen Hao.

“Wait, what did you say? Mr. Fan is dead?” Chen Hao felt a shockwave course through his body after he heard the news.

This news completely caught Chen Hao by surprise.

Mr. Fan was still alive when we parted this morning. How could he suddenly pass away? This is too peculiar for words.

“Mr. Chen, we hope that you can cooperate with us!”

This inspector obviously knew Chen Hao’s identity, so he still looked at Chen Hao and reminded him in a very gentle tone.

“Alright, but please let me get dressed and I will go with you!”

Naturally, Chen Hao did not have any opinion and agreed to it directly.

After that, Chen Hao and Lei Lie changed their clothes and left with the men from the military aircraft department.

Chen Hao sat in the car silently for the entire journey.

Chen Hao really did not expect Mr. Fan’s death. He also had no idea how he died.

There must be something extraordinary behind all this.

Soon, Chen Hao and Lei Lie were taken to the military aircraft department where they were each brought inside an interrogation room for interrogation.

After a while, two inspectors came in and sat down.

“Mr. Chen Hao, where did you go with Mr. Fan last night? What did you do?”

One of the inspectors looked at Chen Hao and asked.

“Mr. Fan and I went to the hometown of the Fire Ghost King yesterday!” Chen Hao answered.

“What time did you come back?” the inspector asked again.

“Around two o'clock in the morning. Mr. Fan drove the two of us home. After that, he left by himself,” Chen Hao looked at the inspector and replied earnestly.

“Have you been at home since you went back? Didn't you go out?” The inspector continued to ask.

Chen Hao frowned.

“You'd better not waste time on the two of us. Do you think we killed Mr. Fan? What's more, there must be a surveillance video of the street where the accident happened. Why don't you go and have a look at it?” Chen Hao did not want to continue to answer the questions, so instead he asked the inspector.

The inspector was taken aback by Chen Hao's questions and was immediately speechless.

Indeed, what Chen Hao said was reasonable.

In fact, they just wanted to bring Chen Hao and Lei Lie in to understand the situation

There was no evidence to prove that the two of them had killed Mr. Fan.

But last night, apart from Chen Hao and Lei Lie, there was no one else who had come into contact with Mr. Fan.

They had also seen the surveillance video.

When something happened to Mr. Fan, there was no one around, no car, and even Mr. Fan was all alone in the car.

This meant that it was a completely mystifying accident.

In the surveillance video, Mr. Fan's car had just suddenly tumbled out of control.

It was not until noon that Chen Hao and Lei Lie were released.

After leaving the military aircraft department, the two men directly returned to the headquarters by car.

"Mr. Chen, how do you think Mr. Fan died?" Lei Lie looked at Chen Hao curiously and asked on the way back.

Chen Hao looked dignified. He was also uncertain about this, but he knew that it was not as simple as it seemed.

“Do you think that the Fire Ghost King is not dead yet?”

The next second, Lei Lie had a bold idea.

Chen Hao thought that it was unlikely for that to happen. The Fire Ghost King died in front of my eyes. How could he still be alive?

“Let's go back first. Maybe it was just an accident!” Chen Hao reminded Lei Lie.

Soon, both of them reached the headquarters.

“Chen Hao, Lei Lie, you two are back! Are you alright?”

Zhen Ji quickly came out and asked caringly when she saw that the both of them were back.

Zhen Ji and Zhou Nuo were worried when they saw both of them being taken away by the military aircraft department.

But now, to see that the two people had returned unharmed, both of them let out a sigh of relief.

"We're fine. It's just a normal investigation!"
Chen Hao explained to Zhen Ji while smiling.

"By the way, did you find the Fire Ghost King this time?"

Zhen Ji took a glass of water and handed it to Chen Hao.

Chen Hao took the glass, drank a sip of water, and then replied, "Yes, I've killed him!"

Hearing Chen Hao's words, Zhen Ji immediately felt relieved.

This was because the demon killer, the Fire Ghost King, was finally dead.

Then, Zhen Ji asked Chen Hao curiously. "About the death of Mr. Fan... What's going on? I just read the news and there's word that the death of Mr. Fan seems very bizarre! It doesn't seem to be done by a human being!"

"No idea. When we came back last night, he was still in good condition, and nothing special happened along the way." Chen Hao said with a heavy expression.

Everything is really odd.

"Sigh..." Zhen Ji sighed heavily when she heard Chen Hao's words,

Knock! Knock! Knock!

Just then, there was a knock at the door of the headquarters.

"Lei Lie, go and check it out!" After hearing the sound, Chen Hao ordered Lei Lie.

Lei Lie got up and went to the door. He saw that the man standing at the door was a delivery boy.

After opening the door, he walked out.

"Hello, is Mr. Chen here? There is a parcel for him. Please sign here!"

The delivery man said to Lei Lie with a smile.

"Ok." Lei Lie responded directly before signing and receiving the parcel.

"Mr. Chen, you have a parcel!" Lei Lie came back and told Chen Hao.

"A parcel for me?"

Chen Hao was puzzled when he heard that. I didn't buy anything recently, so why is there a parcel for me?

The parcel was a small square box.

Chen Hao shook the box, but he couldn't tell what was inside the parcel.

"Check who sent it to you!"

Zhen Ji, who was sitting at one side, reminded Chen Hao.

Chen Hao quickly checked the sender and address, and found that there was no information on the parcel other than the receiver's name and address.

This immediately raised the doubts of Chen Hao and the rest. Who would send this parcel to Chen Hao? And what's in the parcel?

Chen Hao was not in a hurry to open the parcel. He thought there must be something wrong with the parcel. Who knew what was inside the parcel.

"Take a few steps backward," Chen Hao reminded the three of them.

Hearing Chen Hao's words, the three others immediately stood up and walked to the back.

Chen Hao picked up a blade, aimed at the parcel and slashed a hole.

When the blade cut the box, it immediately popped open.

Chen Hao took a wary look again. After confirming that there was nothing wrong with the parcel, his worry eased and he motioned to the others behind him.

Lei Lie and the others stood at Chen Hao's side again.

"Mr. Chen, what's in it?" Lei Lie looked at Chen Hao curiously and asked.

Chen Hao put down his blade, picked up and put the parcel on the table before opening it.

There was only a purple envelope in it.

"It's another purple letter!" Lei Lie exclaimed when he saw the envelope.

This purple envelope would always appear when the Fire Ghost King was still alive. He didn't expect that it would appear again after the Fire Ghost King had died.

"Mr. Chen, isn't the Fire Ghost King dead? Why does this purple envelope still appear?" Lei Lie looked at Chen Hao and asked curiously.

Chen Hao's brows were knitted together and his expression was incomparably serious.

He felt that this matter was not simple as it seemed, as if everything was not over yet.

“Come on, let’s go to the courier!” Chen Hao immediately responded and raised the suggestion to Lei Lie.

Chen Hao then left the headquarters with Lei Lie and went to the courier. He wanted to find out who had sent this parcel to him.

Soon, they arrived at the courier.

After they reached the courier, Chen Hao found the person in charge of the company.

“Hello, I'd like to ask who sent this parcel?” Chen Hao handed the parcel in his hand to the person in charge and asked.

The person in charge took the box and said something that surprised Chen Hao and Lei Lie.

“This box is not from our company, and the packaging is not ours too!” the person in charge told Chen Hao.

“Pardon me? Did you say that it’s not your company’s box? How can this be possible? It was sent by a courier of your company just now," Lei Lie quickly looked at the person in charge and said.

The person in charge took both of them inside the headquarters when he saw that Chen Hao and Lei Lie didn't believe him.

"See, our company uses this kind of packaging, so this box is not from our company at all!" the person in charge pointed to the box on the ground and explained to Chen Hao.

This made Chen Hao and Lei Lei very puzzled.

If the parcel was not sent by this company, where did the parcel come from?

"Can I see the courier who sent it to our address just now?" Chen Hao proposed to the person in charge again.

"Alright. No problem!" The person in charge was also very nice and agreed to it immediately.

Soon, the person in charge called the courier out to meet them both.

"Lei Lie, is it him?" Chen Hao looked at the courier in front of him and asked.

“Yes, that's right! It's from him!” Lei Lie nodded his head firmly.

“W-W-What’s wrong? Is there anything wrong, gentlemen?”

The courier in front of them looked at Chen Hao and Lei Lie doubtfully. He did not understand what was going on.

“Let me ask you this—this parcel was sent by you just now. Where did you get this?” Chen Hao stared at the courier in front of him and asked.

The courier took a look at the parcel in Chen Hao's hand.

“Yes, it was sent by me. I was also curious at that time why there is only the receiving address but no mailing address and sender, in addition to the different packaging. No one paid attention to me even though I had asked about it for a long time, so I just delivered it according to the address!”

The courier admitted that it was delivered by him, but he did not know who the sender was.

Hearing this, Chen Hao and Lei Lie looked at each other at the same time.

The trail had ended again. They couldn't find the sender.

"Alright, sorry for the trouble and thank you!" Chen Hao left with Lei Lie after he thanked the courier.

"Chen Hao, do you think that the Fire Ghost King is really dead?" Sitting in the car, Lei Lie looked at Chen Hao and asked again.

"No way he is alive! I saw the Fire Ghost King die in front of me. How could he still be alive?" Chen Hao denied this idea outright. He refused to believe that the Fire Ghost King was still alive.

"Then this..."

"Come on, let's go back and study what's in that purple envelope!"

Chen Hao could only choose to study the purple envelope first.

If Chen Hao guessed correctly, there would be some numbers on it, just the same as before.

After they were back at the headquarters, Chao Hao immediately opened the purple envelope and started reading.

After taking a look at it, Chen Hao was thrown off balance, for it was not a number, but a hexagram.

“It's a picture? It's different from before!”

Seeing this, Lei Lie immediately exclaimed. His face was full of disbelief. It seemed that this time was not the same as before.

Looking at the pattern of the hexagram, all of them fell into deep thought.

Lei Lie immediately went on the internet to find any information about the hexagram.

“Mr. Chen, these are all the information about the hexagram; you can have a look at it!” Lei Lie handed the tablet in his hand to Chen Hao and said.

Chen Hao immediately took over the tablet and started reading.

After reading for a while, Chen Hao's look suddenly darkened.

However, just then, Chen Hao's mobile phone rang.

Chen Hao took out his mobile phone and found it was from an unknown number.

After a moment's hesitation, he answered the phone.

"Hello, who is it?" Chen Hao asked the person at the other end of the phone in a deep voice once the call went through.

"Mr. Chen, I believed you've received my present!" A man's sinister voice sounded from the other end of the phone.

Chen Hao immediately frowned when he heard this voice.

"Who are you?" Chen Hao asked the man who was on the other end of the phone.

"Haha, relax. I'm just a nobody and I want to play a game with you!" The man on the other end of the phone laughed wickedly and replied to Chen Hao. He did not tell Chen Hao his identity.

"Games?Hmph! I don't have the time to play with you! If you want to prank me, I'm sorry, you have the wrong person!" Chen Hao sneered after he heard that.

"Mr. Chen, who's that?" Lei Lie looked at Chen Hao and asked.

"Beats me. It was a man. He is the one who sent this envelope and claimed that he wants to play a game with me. He must be mad!" Chen Hao replied angrily.

The situation is so urgent now, yet he wants to play a game with me! Chen Hao didn't want to pay much attention to it.

It made them feel restless as they thought the Fire Ghost King was still alive.

Chen Hao didn't have the intention to know the identity of this man either.

Listening to Chen Hao's reply, Lei Lie and the others stopped asking. They thought it might just be a prank.

However, things were not as simple as Chen Hao thought it would be.

Chen Hao went to buy something with Lei Lie the other day.

It had been a long time since they had taken a break. Hence, they were thinking of buying some ingredients to cook a fine meal for everyone.

Chen Hao and Lei Lie went to the supermarket and both of them came back with two huge bags of groceries.

Bang! Suddenly, a thundering sound could be heard from a distance out of a sudden.

A powerful collision overturned the whole area at once. Countless cars and shop windows were shattered by the explosion.

Chen Hao and Lei Lie were knocked down to the ground by the explosion, and all the things in their hands fell and scattered onto the ground.

A car not far away from them had blown up.

"Mr. Chen! That's our car!" Lei Lie immediately called out to Chen Hao when he looked at the car at the heart of the explosion after he came to.

Chen Hao quickly got up and walked over to have a look.

After taking a glance, it was indeed his car.

At this time, the car was totally ruined, the flames devouring it fiercely.

Soon, the rescue team from the military aircraft department and fire brigade rushed to the scene to check the car and put out the fire.

On the other hand, Chen Hao and Lei Lie were brought back to the military aircraft department again.

"We have looked into the matter. Your car has been installed with a kind of detonator. The firefighters found some debris at the scene. It seems that someone deliberately installed it in your car. It's a blessing that both of you were not in the car when it exploded and you were able to escape from death!" An inspector came in with the documents in his hand and looked at the both of them while explaining to them.

"Do you have any idea of the suspect who did this?" the inspector asked.

Chen Hao was stunned after listening to the question. He then replied, "I've no idea. It might just be a prank!"

Chen Hao and Lei Lie would never believe that it was a prank, let alone the supervisor.

However, Chen Hao didn't want the military aircraft department to interfere in this case. There was no doubt that this matter was related to the man who called them last time.

At this very moment, Chen Hao was about to explode with rage.

He never expected that he would be attacked by the man. If that was the case, Chen Hao would never let him go.

Not long after that, Chen Hao and Lei Lie left the military aircraft department after completing the investigation procedures and went back to their house in a cab.

Seeing that both of them had come back home safely, Zhen Ji breathed a sigh of relief.

Zhen Ji and Zhou Nuo were so worried and agonized as soon as they knew about the explosion of Chen Hao's car.

Ring! Just then, Chen Hao's phone rang.

Chen Hao knew at once that it was from that strange man.

Chen Hao picked up the phone instantly. "You b*stard! What do you think you're doing? I'll definitely kill you if I find you!" Chen Hao scolded madly at the man through the phone.

"Hehe, Mr. Chen, don't be angry. I was just playing a small prank on you. I thought you didn't believe in the game, right?" The man from the other side of the phone smiled as he replied to Chen Hao in an eerie voice.

*A small prank? It was a huge explosion! And this b*stard claims that it was just a small prank!* Chen Hao couldn't take it anymore.

"What the hell is your game?" Chen Hao questioned the man through the phone after calming himself down.

"Hehe! Mr. Chen, I know your ability and I admire that. Hence, you are the only candidate to play this game with me."

"Do you still remember the purple envelope I have given to you? There is a hexagram on it. Each edge of the hexagram refers to a different area respectively. An incident will happen in each area. It may involve a person or an object. It's up to you to figure it out. Oh yes, there is always victory and loss in a game. If you win the game, I'll tell you the location to rescue the hostage in that area. Of course, the hostage will be killed once you lose the game!" the man explained the rules of the game to Chen Hao.

"You b*stard! What if I say no?" Chen Hao yelled angrily.

"Hahaha! Mr. Chen, I believe that you have experienced the impact of the explosion. If you turn down my invitation, you won't know where the next explosion will be. And you are the one who has to take the blame for the death caused by the explosion as their blood is on your hands!" The man laughed boisterously and said after listening to Chen Hao's words.

"Alright, Mr. Chen, the ball is in your court. Someone will send a new envelope to you tomorrow morning. It's up to you if you want to join the game!" the strange man reminded Chen Hao and hung up right after that, not giving Chen Hao any chance to make a response.

Chen Hao tossed his mobile phone aside furiously.

"Chen Hao, what does he want to do, actually?" Lei Lie frowned while he asked.

"It seems that we have no choice but to join his game!" Chen Hao was helpless and had no choice but to compromise and play the game.

In addition, he had absolutely no idea about the identity of this strange man. Hence, Chen Hao could only find the clues according to what he said.

From the conversation just now, Chen Hao knew that the man must have abducted some people as his hostages. If Chen Hao refused to play the game, those hostages would be in danger for sure. In that case, Chen Hao would really become a sinner.

That night, Chen Hao didn't sleep at all. It was a wakeful night for him.

Early the next morning, Chen Hao went to the headquarters alone.

Upon reaching the entrance of the headquarters, he saw an envelope placed in front of the headquarter's door. It was the familiar purple envelope.

Immediately, he took the envelope and entered the headquarters to check what was inside.

There was a phrase written in the envelope—cascading down from heaven.

Chen Hao was puzzled while looking at the phrase. Is this the only clue that he gave? What does this phrase mean? What is he trying to tell me?

Then, Chen Hao switched on his laptop and searched for every piece of information related to the phrase.

Chapter 905 It's Not Over Yet

Still, he couldn't figure out the meaning behind it.

Beep! Just then, Chen Hao's notification ringtone sounded.

Chen Hao quickly took out his mobile phone. It was the news notification.

“Waterfall! Cascading down from heaven... Does he mean this waterfall?” Chen Hao looked at the news and figured it out at once.

After thinking about it for a moment, Chen Hao quickly got up to lock the door of the headquarters and drove toward the direction of the newly-found waterfall in Celestial Continent.

Chen Hao’s instincts told him that it wasn’t a coincidence. The clue that was given to him by the strange man must be related to the things that would happen around him, so the phrase written in the envelope was probably referring to this place.

It was very likely that a hostage was held in this place.

After driving for half an hour, Chen Hao finally arrived at Orient Peak in Celestial Continent.

The new waterfall was found at Orient Peak, the largest mountain range in the whole Celestial Continent. Plenty of visitors came to visit every year.

Chen Hao immediately went to Orient Peak, following the crowd and heading over to the new waterfall.

After walking for a while, Chen Hao came to the place where the waterfall was found. The waterfall was dozens of meters high, but it wasn't cascading down from heaven, obviously. Chen Hao knew that it was impossible to find a waterfall which cascaded down from heaven in the real world; the phrase was just a metaphor.

There were numerous people gathering around the waterfall to enjoy the majestic view. However, Chen Hao was the only one who was searching for something.

At this time, Chen Hao discovered a shady trail on the left of the waterfall. It looked very mysterious and very narrow, only wide enough for one person to pass through.

He felt that the trail was not as it seemed and immediately followed the path.

After a few moments, Chen Hao arrived at a huge grotto.

"Help!" Just then, a scream for help could be heard coming from inside the grotto.

Chen Hao heard the cry at once and quickly reacted. It was a woman's voice; it sounded very anxious, which showed that she must have been in great danger.

Without any hesitation, Chen Hao instantly rushed toward the direction of the voice.

Soon, he reached the origin of the cry.

As soon as he arrived, he saw a woman whose hands and feet were tied to a stone pillar. Droplets of water trickled onto the stone pillar in a thin stream.

The woman was soaked and both her eyes were red. Apparently, she had been held captive here for a long time.

Chen Hao went to her without further ado.

“Help me!” The woman was overjoyed when she saw the arrival of Chen Hao, and she yelled for help.

Chen Hao took out a blade from his pocket and cut the rope which bound the woman.

After being released, the woman threw herself into his arms.

“Miss, how long have you been stuck here?” Chen Hao quickly asked her.

She only shook her head and replied, “I don’t know. I was hit by someone suddenly when I was walking home last night. I found myself here as soon as I woke up.”

Chen Hao frowned at once after listening to her words.

“Did you encounter anything strange on the way home last night?” he asked again.

The woman shook her head once again. “No. I get off work around eight every night. I always go home by myself by bus.” a confused expression on her face, the woman looked at Chen Hao and explained, having no idea what had happened to her last night.

Meanwhile, Chen Hao noticed there was a purple envelope in between the stones.

Chen Hao went over immediately and took the purple envelope down.

“Huh? Why is there an envelope here?” The woman asked in doubt when she saw the envelope.

“Miss, you’re safe now, but it’s better for you to make a report at the military aircraft department. Please be careful next time and take care!” Chen Hao reminded her so that she wouldn’t feel suspicious about the matter.

The woman nodded when she heard his words, and then left the grotto quickly.

After that, Chen Hao opened the purple envelope in his hand.

As he opened the envelope, he saw two sentences—Mr. Chen, congratulations on finding the first hostage. Hurry up and get to the next location to save the second hostage.

There was something else written below the sentences—dig in the earth deep enough and you'll find the treasure.

It's another weird statement, Chen Hao frowned and pondered. It seemed like the strange man only gave a short phrase or statement as the clue every time.

However, this statement was evident. Chen Hao immediately thought of the bank.

The 'treasure' might be referring to gold or money.

Since it was related to gold or money, no doubt that it would be at a bank.

It indicated that the next hostage was held in a bank.

However, there were so many banks in the Celestial Continent. How could he figure out which bank it was in such a short time?

Out of frustration, he could only leave the place and go back to the headquarters to discuss with Lei Lie.

Just when he got into the car, he received a call from the strange man.

“Mr. Chen, it seems that you’ve saved the first hostage. If my guess is correct, you have already seen the clue of the second hostage’s location on the purple envelope, haven’t you?” the man asked Chen Hao in a creepy tone.

“B*stard! I warn you, your dirty trick will not succeed. I swear I’ll catch you!” Chen Hao scolded the man angrily and hung up the phone call directly. He didn’t want to waste time talking nonsense to the man.

Soon, Chen Hao drove back to his headquarters.

After his car was bombed last time, Chen Hao had to drive Zhen Ji’s car in the meantime.

When he went back, Lei Lie and the others were waiting for him in the headquarters.

“Mr. Chen, you’re back! Where did you go early in the morning?” Lei Lie stood up at once and asked curiously as soon as he saw Chen Hao came back.

The three of them woke up and didn't see Chen Hao this morning, so they knew for sure that Chen Hao must have been somewhere by himself.

"Dig in the earth deep enough and you'll find the treasure. Lei Lie, search for any information related to this statement online now!" Chen Hao ordered without answering Lei Lie's question.

"Roger!" Lei Lie responded right away and sat in front of the computer to start searching for the information.

"Chen Hao, what happened?" Zhen Ji walked to Chen Hao's side and looked at him puzzledly as she asked.

Chen Hao then took out the envelope from his pocket and gave it to Zhen Ji.

Zhen Ji was surprised when she took a look at the envelope. "I know where the location is. It refers to the Land Tax Building. I remember there is a bank over there!"

Chen Hao reacted right away after listening to her words.

"Let's go!" Chen Hao tapped on Lei Lie's shoulder and said.

Then, Chen Hao quickly left his headquarters with Lei Lie. They went into their car and drove to the direction of the Land Tax Building.

Chen Hao trusted Zhen Ji's words. He believed that the second hostage was likely in that place.

Chapter 907 The Trapped Woman

“Chen Hao, what’s wrong?” along the way, Lei Lie asked curiously, staring at Chen Hao in the car.

“Do you still remember the phone call from yesterday?” Chen Hao gave Lei Lie a look before asking.

Lei Lie nodded.

“Of course I do! The person said he wanted to play a game with you; could this be the game?” Lei Lie immediately caught on to what Chen Hao was implying and asked.

“That’s right! The game that the person spoke about is to save the hostages. There are 6 hostages in total. I’ve already saved one this morning so this will be the second hostage!” Chen Hao explained.

Lei Lie’s facial expression turned to one of surprise when he heard Chen Hao. So that was why he didn’t see Chen Hao this morning. It was unbelievable that he had already gone out to save a hostage.

“The clue to the second hostage is the phrase, ‘Dig in the earth deep enough and you’ll find the treasure’. My guess is that the second hostage is at the bank!” Chen Hao analyzed the second clue.

Chapter 907 The Trapped Woman

As they discussed, the both of them had reached the Land Tax Building.

After getting out of the car, Chen Hao and Lei Lie started looking around.

Just like what Zhen Ji had told them, they found a bank here.

However, the bank was closed because it was a weekend today. Only the ATM room at the side was still operating.

“Mr. Chen, the bank is closed. What should we do?”

Lei Lie asked Chen Hao while he stared at the bank.

“I’m sure about this! The man must have known that the bank would be closed so there’s a high chance that the second hostage wouldn’t actually be inside of the bank but outside of it, which means...”

“The ATM room!” Chen Hao and Lei Lie exclaimed at the same time.

Then, the both of them dashed toward the ATM room nearby.

Chen Hao and Lei Lie immediately started

Chapter 907 The Trapped Woman

searching once they entered the place.

"I don't see the hostage, Mr. Chen! There isn't anything weird here. Could it be that we were wrong?" Lei Lie frowned and questioned after searching for a while.

"It can't be. I trust Zhen Ji's judgment!"

Chen Hao denied Lei Lie's inference.

He felt that the second hostage must be here; they just hadn't found them yet.

Luckily it was a weekend so there weren't many people around.

Knock! Knock! Knock!

Right then, they heard loud knocking sounds.

"Mr. Chen, the sound came from the third ATM!" Lei Lie listened closely before telling Chen Hao.

Then, the both of them went closer to the third ATM.

Chen Hao squatted down in front of the ATM and observed it.

"H-Help..."

Chapter 907 The Trapped Woman

Suddenly, they heard weak cries of help coming from the card insert slot.

“Mr. Chen, you’re right! Someone’s inside!” Lei Lie immediately exclaimed in shock.

“Lei Lie, contact the military aircraft department now and get someone to open up this ATM!” Chen Hao instructed anxiously.

“Alright!”

Lei Lie didn’t hesitate to agree after hearing Chen Hao’s orders as he immediately fished his phone out to contact the military aircraft department.

The people from the military aircraft department reached the venue around half an hour later along with workers from the bank.

Most of them were shocked when they found that someone was locked in the ATM.

After ten minutes, the ATM was finally broken open.

To everyone’s surprise, a woman, who was one of the workers in the bank, was found in the opened ATM.

She was immediately sent to the hospital upon her rescue.

After some investigation by the military aircraft department, they found out that the back of the ATM had been welded. It seemed like this was not a coincidence.

“Huh? Is this an envelope?”

Right then, one of the supervisors found a purple envelope hidden in the ATM.

Chen Hao immediately came over to take the envelope from the supervisor when he heard him.

The supervisor did not say anything about it.

After all, Chen Hao was already a famous person among the military aircraft department. All of them were aware of it so none of them was bothered by Chen Hao.

Then, Chen Hao left the bank and went back to the car along with Lei Lie.

Once he got into the car, Chen Hao immediately opened the envelope.

However, there wasn't any letter this time. Instead, they found a pink hair clip.

Chapter 907 The Trapped Woman

“Huh? Is this a woman’s hair clip? Why is this here?” Lei Lie wondered out loud when he saw the hair clip.

Chen Hao fell into deep thought as well. Why is the hint this time so different from last time? This is a complete change!

Both of them couldn’t come up with anything after pondering for a while so they had to leave and go back to the office.

Maybe they should let the women interpret things like these instead. Maybe Zhen Ji and Zhou Nuo would have more insight and a different perspective toward things like this.

Back at the office, Chen Hao showed Zhen Ji the hair clip.

“Look at this, Zhen Ji. Where can you get this hair clip?” Chen Hao looked at Zhen Ji and asked.

Zhen Ji took the hair clip from him.

After examining it for a while, Zhen Ji frowned.

Then, she brought the hair clip with her to her laptop and started searching on the internet.

“I found it! This is a hair clip specially made for bank workers. It is given to every bank worker!" Zhen Ji informed Chen Hao.

Chapter 907 The Trapped Woman

Lei Lie immediately came to a realization upon hearing this.

"Mr. Chen, I remember now! I saw this hair clip on the woman that we rescued just now! I remember that there was a similar one on the other side of her head. So that's why I found this hair clip so familiar!" Lei Lie reminded Chen Hao.

"Are you sure? Are you sure that you are not mistaken?" Chen Hao reconfirmed with Lei Lie again.

Lei Lie nodded firmly before answering, "Of course I'm sure! I won't be wrong!"

"Come! Let's go to the hospital now!" Chen Hao urged Lei Lie after hearing his words of confirmation.

Then, the both of them dashed out of the office and rushed to the hospital.

"This isn't over yet! The second hostage might still be in danger. The ATM was just the man's first move!"

Chen Hao immediately caught on to what Lei

Chapter 907 The Trapped Woman

Lie was saying. He knew that this wouldn't end so easily.

It seemed like they were still in the second stage and hadn't reached the third stage yet.

This meant that Chen Hao had to protect the second hostage's safety and prevent her from getting into danger.

"This man is so terrible! How could he toy with us like this?!" Lei Lie cursed under his breath.

The both of them reached the hospital in no time and started searching for the woman in the hospital.

After asking around, they found out that the woman had just left the hospital.

Chapter 908 Getting Teased

Chen Hao dashed out of the hospital and started looking at the surroundings of the hospital when he heard them.

Right at this moment, a black car dashed past Chen Hao and Lei Lie, almost knocking into the both of them.

“Hey, don’t you know how to drive?!” Lei Lie cursed in the black car’s direction after he came to his senses.

However, Chen Hao spotted the purple envelope on the ground and hurried over to pick it up.

When he opened the envelope, Chen Hao could see a line of words written on the letter.

“The game has officially started!”

“That b*stard!” Chen Hao crumpled the letter into a ball as he cursed.

He knew that he was one step too late. The black car just now was the key to this—the purple envelope had been thrown out from the black car.

“Quick, Lei Lie. We need to catch up with the black car!” Chen Hao yelled out to Lei Lie before rushing to his car.

Chapter 908 Getting Teased

Flooring the gas pedal, the car sped off to catch up with the black car that had already disappeared into the distance.

Unfortunately, no matter how fast Chen Hao went, they had no chance of catching up with the black car anymore. They had completely lost it.

“What do we do now, Mr. Chen?” Lei Lie asked Chen Hao curiously in the car.

They had completely gone passive, getting led by the nose by the unknown man. They were always one step behind him.

Beep beep beep!

Right then, Chen Hao’s phone rang.

Chen Hao didn’t hesitate as he accepted the phone call and growled at the man on the other side of the phone. “What do you want, you b*stard? Are you toying with me?”

“Hahaha! Mr. Chen Hao, it seems like you aren’t as calm as I imagined. Aggressiveness is not your style, no?” the man broke in laughter and mocked Chen Hao.

“Hmph! Don’t get too cocky now. I will catch you myself!” Chen Hao wasn’t one to back down either

Chapter 908 Getting Teased

r as he gave a cold snort and threatened.

“Oh, yeah? We shall see if you can do that then. Moonlight Rooftop at 7 tonight. If you don’t show up, that woman might die for real!” the man threatened Chen Hao again before hanging up.

Moonlight Rooftop was one of Celestial Continent’s observation decks that allowed people to gaze at Celestial Continent’s full scenery. It only opened at night.

Since the man had set the location there, it must have meant that something was going to happen there.

Chen Hao had no choice but to oblige to his wishes.

Time passed in a blink of an eye. Chen Hao and Lei Lie arrived at Moonlight Rooftop in the evening and sat in the car while they waited for night to arrive.

At 7 p.m. sharp, Moonlight Rooftop finally opened and the crowd started swarming in. In no time, the entire place was full to the brim of people.

Most of them were here to enjoy the scenery. It was an understatement that the beautiful night view of Celestial Continent was one that many looked forward to.

Chapter 908 Getting Teased

However, it was different for Chen Hao and Lei Lie. They were here for a rescue operation.

When they reached the rooftop, they immediately started searching for signs of the woman.

However, they did not find any leads even after a thorough search.

“Mr. Chen, do you think that he’s toying with us again?” Lei Lie frowned as he voiced out his doubt.

Chen Hao didn’t reply to Lei Lie’s question.

However, he finally noticed something out of place after a while.

“Follow me, Lei Lie!” Chen Hao exclaimed before they ran toward another place.

They sprinted madly before stopping near a hanging platform.

“There!” Chen Hao looked up and pointed at the hanging platform before exclaiming.

It was obvious that there was a woman laying

Chapter 908 Getting Teased

on the hanging platform, her hair hanging down.

They knew without a doubt that the woman must have been the bank staff that they had rescued previously.

It seemed like she had been caught again by the unknown man after leaving the hospital.

Right then, a figure appeared at the rockery on the other side. The figure stood motionless on the rockery, like he was studying Chen Hao and Lei Lie.

“Lei Lie, go rescue the woman. I’ll go after the man!” Chen Hao instructed Lei Lie before sprinting toward the figure by the rockery.

Chen Hao believed that the figure must have been the mastermind behind all this.

He caught up to the figure in no time.

“Get back here!” Chen Hao bellowed at the man.

Immediately, the man stopped in his tracks and turned around to face Chen Hao.

“Mr. Chen Hao, we finally meet again!” the man greeted Chen Hao, his voice chillingly eerie.

Chapter 908 Getting Teased

“Tell me, who are you?!” Chen Hao questioned.

“Haha! Me? I’m just a dead man!” the man answered.

Then, he lifted his hood and revealed his true identity to Chen Hao.

Chen Hao was taken aback when he laid eyes upon the man.

The man did not have a face. His entire face was smooth and blank, devoid of any facial features. It was certainly a gruesome sight.

If any ordinary man saw this, they would have fainted from the sight.

“You’re not human!” Chen Hao pointed at the man and exclaimed.

“Well, I never said that I was one. Half alive and half dead—aren’t you the same anyway? I’m someone who is long gone, drowned to death!” The man chuckled coldly.

“What do you mean? What do you want me for?” Chen Hao asked, confused.

“My name is Guo Yun, I was drowned in a river 3 years back. The one who drowned me was none other than Fire Ghost King group’s chairman, Fire Ghost King. I resent that the Fire Ghost King died by your hands instead of mine, so now I'm after you." Guo Yun explained, staring intently at Chen Hao.

Chapter 908 Getting Teased

Chen Hao finally understood what happened. It seemed like he was targeted due to Fire Ghost King.

"You should be grateful that I killed Fire Ghost King then. I've taken revenge for you!" Chen Hao exclaimed.

"Haha!" Guo Yun chuckled coldly again.

"No! I should have killed him with my own two hands! No one is allowed to kill him before me! No one!" Guo Yun roared, directing his rage at Chen Hao.

Chen Hao could clearly see how much hatred Guo Yun bore toward Fire Ghost King, not even wanting to let him off the hook even when he was already dead.

"What do you want now, then? Fire Ghost King is dead!" Chen Hao questioned.

"Although he's dead, you're still alive, am I right? Since you're responsible for his death, killing you would just be like killing him then!" Guo Yun declared coldly.

Chapter 909 Enrouting

“Oh? So you want to kill me now? Do you think that you are capable of doing so?” Chen Hao asked Guo Yun after a momentary pause, disdain written on his face.

To Chen Hao, Guo Yun couldn't even come close to being called his opponent. Forget killing him, he wasn't even capable of hurting him.

“Yes, I can't kill you. However, I can kill someone else!” Guo Yun mused and chuckled eerily.

Then, he sprinted toward Chen Hao.

Chen Hao reacted immediately by drawing his Star Abyss Sword and swinging it at Guo Yun.

However, Guo Yun disappeared right in front of Chen Hao.

When Chen Hao finally reacted, he had completely lost sight of Guo Yun. It seemed like he had already made his escape.

However, Chen Hao knew that something would happen soon. This wasn't the end between Guo Yun and him. Instead, it was just the start of it all.

On their way back.

Chapter 909 Enrouting

Chen Hao and Lei Lie sat in the car, the latter still buzzing with excitement.

“Mr. Chen, why are you so great at this?!” Lei Lie asked as he stared at Chen Hao with a face full of admiration.

“Am I?” Chen Hao humbly asked in rhetoric.

These were only small matters that could be solved in no time to Chen Hao. There wasn't any need to brag about them.

The Chen Hao of the past would have been worried if he was capable enough.

However, he was different now. People like Zhang Hu didn't scare him anymore.

“Of course you are! Oh my God! Mr. Chen, you can take down more than 10 people on your own! Moreover, your speed is insane! I can't even see when you strike!”

Previously, Lei Lie could only feel a gush of wind passing by him.

Then, a silhouette dashed past him at the speed of the light. Right after he blinked from surprise, Zhang Hu and his men had all been taken down, Chen Hao the only one still standing.

Chapter 909 Enrouting

Lei Lie was really impressed by it. He felt that Chen Hao was really a legendary being and that following him was a correct choice.

“Nah, they’re just too weak!” Chen Hao answered humbly.

“Oh, by the way, Lei Lie, what do you have that they want so badly?” Chen Hao asked Lei Lie curiously. This was something that had been on Chen Hao’s mind for a while now.

“Well, about that...” Hearing Chen Hao’s question, Lei Lie hesitated. He didn’t know if he should tell Chen Hao about it.

“It’s fine if you can’t tell me. I won’t force you!”

Chen Hao didn’t want to force Lei Lie into telling him, seeing that he was still hesitating.

Chen Hao felt like what Lei Lie had with him must be very precious and unique. If it weren’t so, he wouldn’t have been so nervous and hesitant.

“No, it’s fine. Mr. Chen, it’s just that this thing that I have in my hands right now is too special, so I’m afraid that it might cause trouble to you as well.” Lei Lie explained to Chen Hao.

It wasn’t that he didn’t want to tell Chen Hao

Chapter 909 Enrouting

about it; it was just that he didn't want to cause Chen Hao any more trouble.

If something really happened because of it, he would blame himself for it.

However, what Lei Lie said spiked Chen Hao's curiosity even more.

"Now you're making me even more curious. Just tell me. Don't worry, I am way more capable than you imagine. Maybe I could even help you with it. After all, it is risky for you to bear with this burden all on your own, right?" Chen Hao tried advising Lei Lie.

"Alright, since you put it this way, I'll tell you then."

Lei Lie decided to tell Chen Hao about his secret since he felt that Chen Hao sincerely cared about him.

Screech!

Chen Hao immediately slammed on the brakes and brought the car to a halt.

Lei Lie slowly retrieved a wooden box from his backpack.

On top of the wooden box was a carving that looked like a spider.

When Lei Lie opened the wooden box, a black pearl could be seen sitting inside.

“This is the pearl!” Lei Lie stated as he passed him the wooden box.

Taking the wooden box over, Chen Hao stared intently at the black pearl in the box.

Right then, a glint of red light flashed inside the black pearl.

Chen Hao and Lei Lie gave each other a look upon seeing the red flash.

Indeed, the both of them had seen the red light.

“Where did you get this?” Chen Hao asked Lei Lie after pausing a little.

“I found it by the stream during an outdoor trip by chance,” Lei Lie answered.

“However, Zhang Hu and the others found out about it later on and kept forcing me to give it up,” Lei Lie added.

“Did anything weird happen after you took it back with you?” Chen Hao continued probing.

Lei Lie fell deep into his thoughts at this.

After a while, he finally recalled something.

“I remember now! This black pearl flashed a bright red light when I came back once. It was so bright that I thought it might explode. However, it soon stopped and never flashed red again,” Lei Lie told Chen Hao about his past experience with the black pearl.

“So it was the red flash that both of us saw just now?”

“Yeah, that’s right. That’s the red flash. According to your analysis, what do you think this black pearl is?” Lei Lie asked Chen Hao curiously.

Chen Hao shook his head slightly. He didn’t know what the black pearl was as well.

However, he could sense dark energy coming from this black pearl. He knew this pearl was nothing good.

Chen Hao shut the wooden box after staring at it for a while longer and returned the box to Lei Lie.

“You should take care of this well, Lei Lie. I’ll get someone to check it out for you when we get back. I'll make sure to find out the origin of this pearl!" Chen Hao reassured.

Lei Lie nodded with understanding as well.

"Alright, I'll follow what you've said. I'll make sure to take good care of it!"

Then, Lei Lie placed the wooden box back into his bag.

After that, Chen Hao started his car engine and they enroute back to the office again.

Zhen Ji had already prepared everything that the three of them needed back in the office.

"Chen Hao, all the equipment is ready." Zhen Ji reported.

"Alright. We shall head out right in the morning tomorrow!" Chen Hao turned to face Zhen Ji and Lei Lie before announcing.

Chapter 910 Rainbow Village

“Alright!”

The both of them agreed without any objection.

Everything was still unknown regarding their quest this time. They weren't sure of what they might encounter this time around.

All they could do was adopt measures appropriate to the actual situation when the time came.

Of course, Zhen Ji and Lei Lie felt much more at ease with Chen Hao's presence. At least they knew that Chen Hao would never put them in harm's way.

The three of them excused themselves early to rest that night.

After all, they must get enough rest and be in their best condition for their new adventure tomorrow.

The three of them headed out early the next day.

Chen Hao had planned their journey with the map that Mr. Shen had given him.

Firstly, they must drive to Rainbow Village.

Chapter 910 Rainbow Village

It would take about two days for them to drive all the way from their city to Rainbow Village. Hence, they could only rest on the go.

They started their journey at eight in the morning as they sped off toward Rainbow Village.

Zhen Ji sat shotgun while she scanned through the book—‘Yin and Yang’—that Lei Lie had borrowed.

“This book never specified its author!” Zhen Ji noticed after reading it for a moment and reminded Lei Lie and Chen Hao.

“Yeah. I noticed it as well. Is it possible that they forgot to put it in during publishing?”

Lei Lie noticed this earlier as well but he didn’t ponder too much about it.

Now that Zhen Ji raised questions regarding it again, he made a bold guess.

“No way. Books like these would need to undergo strict review before they can be published. Missing out the name of the author is something unacceptable for the reviewers.” Zhen Ji overruled the possibility of Lei Lie’s guess.

“I feel like there’s another possibility to this. What if the author of this book is too unique, so they chose not to attach his name to the book?” At this moment, Chen Hao told them about his deductions.

“Yeah, I think that would be more likely!” Zhen Ji agreed with Chen Hao’s deduction.

“But, Mr. Chen, if the author’s identity is that sacred, wouldn’t that make this book sacred as well? Why was it published then?” Lei Lie asked curiously.

“The book can still be published; it’s the author’s identity that must be kept secret. There must be something to this that they don’t want us to know about,” said Zhen Ji as she felt a sense of curiosity and a slight chill down her spine at the same time.

“By the way, Zhen Ji, is there anything in this book about the Evil Blood Token from the Evil Blood Clan?” Right then, Chen Hao asked Zhen Ji as if he had thought of something.

Upon hearing that, Zhen Ji immediately flipped through the pages and started searching.

After looking for a while, she found what she was looking for.

Chapter 910 Rainbow Village

"It's really here! The Evil Blood Token is the Evil Blood Clan's secret weapon that can be used to control all souls and spirits," Zhen Ji read the paragraph on the Evil Blood Token aloud for Chen Hao.

Chen Hao nodded after listening to her explanation.

It seemed like what Mr. Fan told him was real.

"Mr. Chen, is the purpose of our trip this time to look for the Evil Blood Token?" Being clever as well, Lei Lie immediately connected the dots and asked Chen Hao.

Zhen Ji turned to stare at Chen Hao upon hearing Lei Lie's question.

Chen Hao did not bother denying it. "Yeah, you're right. Our plan to go to Extreme Yin Land this time is to find the Evil Blood Clan's territory and get the Evil Blood Token."

Of course, Chen Hao wouldn't try to hide where they were going from them.

"However, this sceptre isn't something that can be easily obtained. The book says that many have sacrificed themselves trying to get the Evil Blood Token," Zhen Ji warned worriedly.

Chapter 910 Rainbow Village

“You’re not wrong, but I believe that we will get the Evil Blood Token,” Chen Hao assured confidently.

What others’ couldn’t get didn’t mean that he couldn’t as well.

After all, his technique now was very different than that of his back then.

Moreover, with Chen Hao’s capability now, he was definitely qualified to get the Evil Blood Token.

After two days on the road, the three of them finally reached Rainbow Village.

Chen Hao got Zhen Ji to book a hotel for the night before preparing for their journey tomorrow.

Zhen Ji then found an upscale hotel before checking all of them in.

After settling their luggages, all three of them headed downstairs to prepare for dinner.

“Miss Zhen, Mr. Chen, you guys go ahead first. I’m going to use the restroom first. Just order whatever you want; I’m not picky.”

Right after they got into the restaurant, Lei Lie

Chapter 910 Rainbow Village

clutched his stomach and frowned before running toward the restroom.

Chen Hao and Zhen Ji didn't think too much about it, thereafter the waiter came to take their orders.

Around 10 minutes after, Lei Lie finally came back.

However, he looked skittish as he anxiously went back to his seat next to Chen Hao and Zhen Ji.

Chen Hao was confused when he noticed Lei Lie's anxious expression.

"What's wrong, Lei Lie? Why are you so anxious after going to the restroom?" Chen Hao asked.

"Mr. Chen, Miss Zhen, j-just now w-when I was in the restroom..." Lei Lie was so out of breath that he couldn't continue.

"Have a sip of water first. Don't rush," Zhen Ji passed Lei Lie a glass of water and advised him to calm down.

Lei Lie took a sip of his water, trying to suppress his uneasiness and calm himself down.

Chapter 910 Rainbow Village

“Okay, so this is what happened just now. I overheard two men talking in the toilet just now, and they also mentioned the Evil Blood Clan throughout their conversation. It seems like they came here for the Evil Blood Clan too,” Lei Lie whispered.

The both of them started taking sweeping looks around them upon hearing Lei Lie’s words.

After making sure that no one was around them and that they were safe, they turned back to face Lei Lie.

“Lei Lie, are you sure you didn’t mishear anything?” Chen Hao needed reconfirmation from Lei Lie. After all, they shouldn’t be joking around with things like this.

“No way, I’m sure I didn’t mishear them. It’s true —those two men mentioned the Evil Blood Clan!” Lei Lie confirmed with a firm expression.

Seeing his expression, both Chen Hao and Zhen Ji didn’t hesitate to trust him.

It seemed like they weren’t the only ones looking for the Evil Blood Clan.

“Do you still remember what the both of them look like?” Chen Hao pondered for a moment before asking Lei Lie again.

Chapter 910 Rainbow Village

Immediately, Lie Lei started scanning his surroundings.

After searching for a while, he finally managed to spot the two men that he ran into in the restroom.

“There!” Lei Lie subtly pointed at a table near them. There were four men at the table, and all of them were clad in black clothing. At a glance, they didn’t look like good people at all.

Chapter 911 The Evil Blood Token

“Take a seat first. I'll go have a look at it,” Chen Hao said to Lei Lie and Zhen Ji. Then, he stood up and walked to the table where the four men were sitting.

Chen Hao deliberately picked up a plate and went near them to take some food.

Just then, Chen Hao intentionally knocked over the glass on the table.

The glass fell to the ground and all the water in it spilled out.

“I-I-I am sorry!” Chen Hao quickly picked up the glass and apologized to the four men.

“It’s okay. Please be careful,” one of the men said nonchalantly as he reached out his hand to take the cup from Chen Hao.

However, Chen Hao noticed something—a tattoo on the man’s wrist.

Then, Chen Hao returned to his table and sat down again.

As soon as he sat down, Chen Hao's face turned a little gloomy.

Zhen Ji noticed something wrong with Chen Hao's expression and she immediately asked,

“Chen Hao, what's the matter? Is there something wrong?”

Chen Hao spoke in a low voice, “Well, they are not ordinary people. They are the members of the Hunter Association!”

“The Hunter Association? I didn't expect them to come too!” After hearing this, Zhen Ji was also shocked.

“Mr. Chen, Miss Zhen, what's the Hunter Association?” Lei Lie, who was at the side, asked curiously.

“The Hunter Association is an organization which specializes in hunting ghosts and spirits. They have special equipment to detect the existence of ghosts and spirits.”

“If these people are here to find the territory of the Evil Blood Clan, they must be after the Evil Blood Token.”

Chen Hao immediately knew the purpose of these Hunters.

If the Evil Blood Token fell into the hands of the Hunter Association, the consequences would be unimaginable. They would be able to rule and control all the ghosts and spirits in the world. Things would really be out of control then.

Therefore, Chen Hao could never let them succeed.

Zhen Ji then immediately proposed to Chen Hao, "What shall we do now? Do you want to kill them?"

Chen Hao shook his head.

"No, it's just four Hunters. If we act rashly, I'm afraid it will ignite revenge from the whole Hunter Association. That'd not be good for us. We'd better watch them secretly first." He immediately rejected Zhen Ji's suggestion and made a decision.

Hearing Chen Hao's words, Zhen Ji could only do as he said.

After dinner, the three of them went back to their rooms to have a rest.

Although the purpose was to rest, Chen Hao was not idle. His soul went out of his body, and directly went into a state of astral projection.

After projecting his soul, Chen Hao immediately flew out to start his search.

Just as he expected, at this time, the four black shadows attracted Chen Hao's attention. It seemed that they were the four Hunters he had met at the restaurant that evening.

Although it was in the middle of the night, the four Hunters still sneaked out of the hotel and walked into the dark.

Chen Hao was certain that things were not that simple, so he decided to follow them.

After a few minutes, the four Hunters came into a forest.

There was a mysterious man in a hooded cloak standing in the woods, waiting for the arrival of the four Hunters.

"Sir!" The four Hunters walked toward the cloaked man and greeted respectfully.

Chen Hao, who was hiding in the dark and looking at all this, was also a little surprised.

I didn't expect that the cloaked man is the leader of the Hunter Association. It seems that this time the Hunter Organization is out in large numbers; even the leaders have come in person.

"You have not been found out, have you? Your identity has not been revealed, has it?" the cloaked man asked the four Hunters in a cold voice.

“Don't worry, sir. We are well concealed and have not been found out!” one of the Hunters replied.

“Tomorrow, you will leave for Phosphate Rock Mountain rightway. I will go there first tonight. Remember, protect your identity at all costs!” The cloaked man gave his orders to the four Hunters.

“Yes, sir!” the four Hunters answered in sync.

With that, the cloaked man jumped out and quickly disappeared into the night.

Chen Hao was also slightly surprised when he saw this. He felt that the leader of the Hunter Association was certainly capable.

Now it seemed that it was how he had expected. The Hunter Association is also after the Evil Blood Token of the Evil Blood Clan.

Chen Hao and his friends' second destination was Phosphate Rock Mountain, and the Hunter Association was also heading to the same place. It seemed that the two sides would meet there.

The Cultivators and the Hunters were two different identities and associations.

To be blunt, they did not interfere with each other.

However, there was no such thing as minding their own business when profit was involved.

Since Chen Hao, Lei Lie, and Zhen Ji as well as the Hunter Association were all aiming for the Evil Blood Token, both sides would have to fight for it.

Just when the four Hunters were ready to leave, Chen Hao decided to take the initiative to kill the four Hunters in silence at this time. This way, the three of them could have fewer enemies in Phosphate Rock Mountain.

After thinking about it, Chen Hao immediately flew down and landed in front of the four Hunters, revealing himself

Boom!

Chen Hao landed an attack that immediately sent the four Hunters flying.

However, this hit did not kill the four Hunters.

“A ghost spirit!” the four Hunters exclaimed at the same time. They did not expect to encounter a ghost spirit here.

Since Chen Hao's current state was a ghost spirit, so he was not in his real body.

“Let’s attack together!” one of the Hunters roared angrily.

The four Hunters took out the daggers they brought along with them and attacked Chen Hao at the same time.

The strength of the Hunters was still much stronger than ordinary people. After all, they were people who hunted ghosts and spirits.

But they were very different from the Cultivators.

Chen Hao was not afraid of these four people as he was much faster than them and swiftly dodged their attacks.

In a blink of an eye, Chen Hao appeared in front of one of the Hunters and reached out to grapple his throat with one hand and squeezed it tightly.

Crack!

The crisp sound of a bone snapping echoed.

Chapter 911 The Evil Blood Token

Yes, Chen Hao had easily broken the Hunter's neck.

Later, Chen Hao threw the body of the Hunter aside as if he was throwing a piece of garbage.

Witnessing the death of their teammate, the other three were dumbfounded. They didn't expect Chen Hao to be so powerful.

Chapter 912 Decisiveness

“What kind of monster are you? How could you be so powerful? We do not have any grudges against you, so why do you want to kill us?” another Hunter pointed at Chen Hao and asked.

In reality, they did not do anything at all, yet they were ambushed by Chen Hao. Hence, they were feeling really puzzled about this.

“Haha! There is no reason for it! I don’t need a reason to kill you all!” Chen Hao replied coldly.

Hah! How could he tell them his reasons and goals? He would never reveal his identity.

With that, Chen Hao made his move.

In the blink of an eye, the rest of the three Hunters were eliminated with ease by Chen Hao, not knowing who he was even until their death.

After he eliminated all four Hunters, he began searching their bodies.

Finally, he found the Hunter Association’s token, which represented the Hunter Association’s identity.

As long as you were a member of the Hunter Association, you would have a token.

Chapter 912 Decisiveness

Chen Hao kept the four tokens, then left the scene in a hurry.

He believed that these four corpses would be discovered by someone tomorrow.

However, no one would know that this was his doing. That was because he did not leave a single trace of evidence behind, for he had used his powers as the True God when he laid his hands on them.

Moreover, with those four tokens, it would make their journey to Phosphorous Rock Mountain smoother. At least, they would not be easy targets for the Hunter Association.

Just like that, he managed to achieve his aim by underhanded means.

After he went back to the hotel, he returned back to his physical body, thereupon he closed his eyes and slept.

The next morning, Chen Hao got up early.

The three of them checked out of their hotel and sat inside the car.

“Here you go!”

The moment he got into the car, Chen Hao gave the Hunter Association tokens he got yesterday to Lei Lie and Zhen Ji.

“What is this?” Lei Lie asked curiously.

“This is the token of the Hunter Association! How did you get this?!” Zhen Ji looked at Chen Hao in surprise. In that instant, she seemed to guess something.

“Last night, I snatched these tokens from the four Hunters so that it would be more convenient for us to enter Phosphorous Rock Mountain; it would make it difficult for the Hunter Association to notice us. Moreover, it could help us conceal our identity as well.”

Chen Hao then narrated the events that transpired last night.

After they listened to his explanation, Zhen Ji and Lei Lie finally knew that Chen Hao had gone to deal with the four Hunters yesterday without anyone’s knowledge.

“Mr. Chen, what you mean to say is, with this token, we can assume the identity of the Hunters, right?” Being a quick thinker, Lei Lie was able to explain the reason behind Chen Hao’s actions.

“You are very clever. This is what we call, ‘To achieve one's aim by underhanded means'!"

Chen Hao smiled knowingly as he praised Lei Lie.

With that, Chen Hao started the engine of the car, then floored the accelerator and sped toward Phosphorus Rock Mountain.

Phosphorus Rock Mountain was a famous area in Rainbow Village.

There were a lot of phosphates here, which could be used to make a variety of chemicals or even decorations. Hence, the local people chose to make their fortunes through mining phosphate.

It was a two hour car journey from Rainbow Village to Phosphorous Rock Mountain.

Therefore, when Chen Hao and his entourage reached there, it was already twelve in the afternoon—just in time for lunch.

Chen Hao parked the car at a parking lot. Then, he brought both of them out to the restaurant to have their lunch.

"Mr. Chen, there are phosphates everywhere! It's all over the floor!" exclaimed Lei Lie as he looked at Chen Hao in surprise.

“Of course! Rumor has it that the phosphates here bring riches to the locals. Moreover, it is inexhaustible. After they have finished mining one area, another area would spring up after a while. Isn’t it amazing?” Chen Hao explained the mysteries of Phosphorous Rock Mountain as he looked at Lei Lie.

“If it is that amazing, then we can rely on this to make our fortune as well, right?” When Lei Lie heard Chen Hao’s words, he quickly made a suggestion.

Chen Hao and Zhen Ji shook their heads at the same time. They felt that Lei Lie’s mind seemed to be constantly preoccupied with money.

“Do you really think it is that easy? For an outsider, if you were to touch the phosphates, I am afraid that you would be beaten up by the local folks here. So, you can forget about this idea,” Chen Hao kindly reminded Lei Lie.

These phosphates were the properties of the local people. How could they bear to watch as an outsider snatched away the goose that laid the golden eggs? They were definitely not willing to part with it.

“Hehe! I was just throwing out some ideas.” Lei Lie scratched his head as he smiled, thereafter he remained silent.

As a matter of fact, money wasn't an issue for Chen Hao right now.

The money that he owned was enough to last him an eternity. In a manner of speaking, he did not have to worry about whether he had enough money to use.

After all, the main reason they came here wasn't because of the money; they were here for the Evil Blood Token.

At this time, a group of men in black entered the restaurant that the three of them were dining in.

When they saw them entering, Chen Hao and his group immediately became vigilant.

That was because they were none other than the people from the Hunter Association. Every single one of them had the tattoo of the Hunter Association on their arms, hence they were easily recognizable.

"Mr. Chen, are they from the Hunter Association?" Lei Lie asked Chen Hao in a whisper.

Chen Hao nodded his head in disbelief as he replied, "That's right! They are from the Hunter Association; you can identify them by the tattoo on their arms.”

He did not expect to meet the people from the Hunter Association here. How extremely unfortunate!

“Let’s keep a cool head. We cannot let them figure out our true identities!” Chen Hao did not forget to remind Lei Lie and Zhen Ji.

Both of them nodded their heads. Lei Lie lowered his head as he did not dare to look up to take a peek; he was afraid that somebody would notice something strange about him.

Soon, their food was served, thereupon they quickly forced it down their throats.

However, not long after they had started eating, they could feel the Hunters staring at them. Moreover, they were discussing something amongst themselves.

When Lei Lie noticed their gaze, he panicked.

“Mr. Chen! Mr. Chen! They are looking at us! What should we do? We won’t be exposed, right?” Lei Lie asked Chen Hao worriedly.

“Don’t panic! Stay calm!” Chen Hao glared at Lei Lie and motioned for him to stay calm.

Chapter 912 Decisiveness

The more dangerous the situation was, the more they had to stay calm. They absolutely could not let the Hunters notice that something was wrong with them.

Following that, one of the Hunters stood up and approached them. Then, he stood in front of their table.

“Hey, gorgeous! What are you doing here?” the Hunter asked Zhen Ji as he bent forward, directly ignoring Chen Hao and Lei Lie.
