Chapter 351: News of the Blood Soul Flame

“Buzz Buzz!”

While Lin Mo was speaking, the Blood Soul Flame fluctuated, as if it was emitting a joyful expression, with a hint of urging.

Seeing this, Lin Mo looked around. After finding no abnormalities, he chose to leave.

This was the location of the Blood Soul Flame, and he had Li’ Die’s aura. No wonder he could pass through unimpeded.

He had obtained a great harvest this time. He had obtained 37 drops of ten-thousand-year-old earth milk.

Most importantly, the Nirvana Fire Stone had already recovered. Moreover, because it had been recovered by the ten-thousand-year-old earth milk, there was a bit of primal chaos qi lingering around it.

He took out a spatial talisman in his hand. After crushing it, Lin Mo was successfully transported to the top of the crack.

Suddenly, a chill suddenly came from behind him, and a living being pounced on him.

The wind howled, bringing with it a cold aura.

Lin Mo’s Kun Peng Wings flapped. He quickly dodged, and when it looked back, it was shocked.

There was a group of creatures that looked like beastmen. Their bodies were snow-white, and they had sharp claws, ferocious fangs, and empty eyes. They looked like walking corpses.

However, the auras on their bodies were all very powerful. When their auras spread out, it made people’s hearts palpitate.

Other than that, there was also a spatial fluctuation. The space around these beastmen was sealed.

Lin Mo was astonished. These lifeforms were very strange. They had signs of life, but they were like puppets.

These beastmen attacked Lin Mo, but it seemed like they couldn’t leave the crack. As soon as they appeared, the power on their bodies rapidly dissipated, and after a dozen seconds, they were all reduced to ashes.

In the end, these beastmen dispersed, turning into a pile of white powder.

“What a strange spell.”

Looking at the powder, Lin Mo was extremely shocked. Before this, these were still a group of monsters with astonishing strength...

The reason why he was able to descend was because of the permission of the Blood Soul Flame...

After some investigation, he discovered that as long as someone entered the crack and entered a certain range, some spell runes would be activated.

These runes would form some powerful monsters that would guard this place and not allow anyone to come near.

Lin Mo scanned his surroundings and found some hidden runes on some cliffs. They were extremely profound, and he couldn't see anything abnormal...

"It's the method of the technique. It surpasses the method and is weaker than the Dao..."

He muttered to himself. He knew very little about the technique. Although he had the incomplete technique of an archaic divine beast, he could only use it.

If he wanted to comprehend it, he simply couldn't. This wasn't something he could come into contact with at his level...

Now, he was facing a problem.

"I don't know what the Bloody Soul Flame's goal is in finding Lil' Die. I still have to investigate it from many sources..."

He felt that his knowledge was too little. If he didn't know the Bloody Soul Flame's goal, it would be great if Bai Luo was here...

He returned along the way and found traces of many mercenary groups, asking for information.

This surprised him because the Blood Soul Flame appeared again. It was not far away in the valley. However, when everyone discovered it, the Blood Soul Flame had already left.

These people didn't give up and continued to search. In the end, they provoked a Nirvana Realm demonic beast and half of their men were killed.

The remaining experts fled in panic and didn't dare to stay.

"What did you say? The people from the Divine Secrets Holy Land said that they found traces of the Blood Soul Flame through the prophecy?" Lin Mo was shocked.

On the way, he got to know a few people and travelled together to inquire about the news.

The Divine Secrets Holy Land, the strongest Holy Land in the Eastern Continent, sent people to meet the Emperor and tell him the specific news of the Blood Soul Flame.

This place was not simple. It was said that the origin of the great chaos had come from the Divine Secrets Holy Land...

"Crown Prince Jiang Cheng had once gone to the Divine Secrets Holy Land for training and was hailed as the strongest genius in the eastern continent..." Lin Mo recalled a legend.

These were all disadvantageous to him. Compared to the other princes, the crown prince's advantage was too great.

If the crown prince received the support of the Divine Secrets Holy Land, then the entire Yanhuang Divine Dynasty would definitely fall into his control.

After all, the strength of the Divine Secrets Holy Land was not weaker than that of the Yanhuang Divine Empire. It was not something that other sacred lands could compare to.

Not long after, Lin Mo returned to the Imperial City. He went to the Purple Moon Palace through the teleportation array and flipped through Jiang Xiyue's books.

He found a lot of information about the Blood Soul Flame, but it was all ambiguous. He did not know if it could be trusted.

Most importantly, he did not find any connection between the Blood Soul Flame and the Huancai Fire Demon.

The only similarity was that they were both born from nature.

"Sigh, I still can't find anything..." Lin Mo was helpless. He searched Jiang Xiyue's library for five days but couldn't find any clues. On the contrary, Lin die came out of seclusion.

Ever since she went to refine the blood spirit crystal, she had been in seclusion and didn't make any movements.

After such a long time, she finally came out of seclusion.

"Big Brother..."

Just as Lil' Die came out of closed-door cultivation, she saw Lin Mo who was guarding outside and immediately pounced over happily.

Her little head rubbed against Lin Mo's chest. Lin Die was extremely excited and actively reported the results of her cultivation to Lin Mo. .

"Yes, the 20th tier of the Dragon Transformation Realm is not bad. However, you have to stabilize your realm properly from now on."

Lin Mo nodded. Lil Die had made great progress. She had gone through another metamorphosis.

"By the way, Lil' Die, do you know about the Blood Soul Flame?" Lin Mo asked.

He had searched for five days and found nothing. There was nothing he could do now.

"Blood Soul Flame? What's That?" Lin Die raised her head with a puzzled look on her face.

This was the first time she had heard of the so-called Blood Soul Flame.

"The blood spirit crystal you refined earlier was produced from the Blood Soul Flame. Didn't Xiyue tell you?" Lin Mo was confused.

Lin Die shook her head and said, "Sister Xiyue only gave me one blood spirit crystal and told me to go into seclusion."

She curled her lips in dissatisfaction and looked at Lin Mo. why didn't she tell her anything...

After chatting with Xiao Die for a while, Lin Mo took out a drop of ten-thousand-year-old earth milk and let Lil' Die drink it.

"Big Brother, what treasure is this? It's so powerful..." After Lin die drank it, she felt the surging power in her Dantian and was shocked beyond words.

"Ten-thousand-year-old earth milk. After drinking it, it can subtly improve one's physique. You take good care of it in the Purple Moon Palace. I'll take my leave first."

Lin Mo gently rubbed Lin Die's head and stood up to bid her farewell.

Since Lil' Die didn't know the effect of the Blood Soul Flame on her, he had to find someone new to ask.

However, the Blood Soul Flame was so precious that it was impossible for ordinary people to know.

Perhaps the people of the Divine Secrets Holy Land would know, but obviously they wouldn't tell him.

Moreover, if he really went to ask, he might expose Lil' Die's information and attract prying eyes.

"Go ask Senior Luo," Lin Mo said to himself. He also sent some ten-thousand-year-old earth milk to Jiang Xiyue and returned the Nirvana Fire Stone.

Without alerting anyone, Lin Mo used the spirit-holding technique and announced to the public that he was in seclusion. Then, he quietly left Purple Moon Palace.

He returned to Yue Xuan through the teleportation formation, put on his bamboo hat, and left the imperial city quietly.

Chapter 352: The Mysterious Holy Land of Divine Secrets

With the cover of the spirit-holding spell, no one could follow Lin Mo. however, because there were many mercenary groups in the mountain range, Lin Mo was delayed for some time. It was only three days later that he arrived at the place where the Flame God Army was stationed.

There were still people exploring and looking for clues in this dangerous place.

Lin Mo quietly went deep into the place. Using the memories that Jiang Xiyue had taken her through, he smoothly arrived at the central area.

"She hasn't come out of seclusion yet?"

In a corner, a ball of golden light was extremely quiet. There were no fluctuations emitted from it.

However, if one were to seriously comprehend it, one would be able to feel that there was an extremely mysterious aura being released from it.

"I've seen it. Palace master has obtained a great fortune. When she comes out of seclusion again, her strength should be able to reach the 31st tier of the Dragon Transformation Realm."

Luo Haoyu said. He did not know what Jiang Xiyue had eaten, but he could vaguely guess it.

According to the aura that the flame divine army had sensed before, it must be the true dragon bloodline.

Although he did not know why he had another true dragon bloodline, he was very happy that Jiang Xiyue's talent could be improved.

"It's improved so much?" Lin Mo was shocked. Jiang Xiyue was just a little over 20 years old.

An ordinary person might not be able to reach the 31st tier of the Dragon Transformation realm in their lifetime, but she was already close to it...

"That's right. Besides, there's a dragon's aura around the palace master that's repelling us. It's very extraordinary," Luo Haoyu said.

Hearing that, Lin Mo tried to walk forward. A Faint Dragon's roar was heard slowly.

"You can't resist it. Otherwise, it'll affect your highness," Luo Haoyu reminded.

The dragon's aura was protecting Jiang Xiyue, preventing anyone from getting close.

Although he could use his powerful strength to force his way over, it was hard to say whether it would affect her.

"Roar!"

As Lin Mo got closer, the dragon's roar became more intense. The dragon's aura came pressing down, trying to push Lin Mo back.

This was subconscious protection, and it was not aggressive.

However, in the next moment, the black hole in Lin Mo's Dantian revolved, and the endless dragon's aura was swallowed.

"Huh?"

Luo Haoyu was the first to sense that something was wrong. He wanted to stop Lin Mo, but he did not know what to do.

He looked at Lin Mo. At this moment, the latter had already arrived in front of the Golden Ball of light.

"Xiyue, I brought you something good," Lin Mo said with a smile.

Although Jiang Xiyue might be in a deep sleep right now, he did not mind. He took out the Nirvana Fire Stone.

"Buzz Buzz."

As soon as the Nirvana Fire Stone appeared, the rich nirvana liquid bloomed.

The place where Jiang Xiyue was was instantly melted into a huge pit by the Hot Nirvana Liquid.

The golden ball of light fell and merged into the Nirvana liquid.

"How is this possible?"

Behind them, Bing Xin, Luo Haoyu, and even the flame god Army soldiers who were watching from afar were all dumbfounded.

That was because what Lin Mo had taken out was the treasure that he had taken away previously.

The treasure that could maintain the life force of the entire danger zone.

Initially, when Lin Mo said that it could be repaired, they didn't think much of it, thinking that he was just bluffing.

However, from the looks of it now, something didn't seem right...

"How did he do it?" Bing Xin couldn't believe it as she muttered.

"Don't ask me, this old man really wants to know too..." Luo Hao Yu shook his head bitterly. This was simply unimaginable.

They had never even heard of such a treasure.

However, they knew that it was at least at Earth rank 5 and above. Recovering it was easier said than done.

The reality before their eyes made it hard for them to calm down. However, they had no choice but to accept this reality.

Lin Mo had really recovered this treasure. Furthermore, it looked even more powerful than before. The energy within was extremely dense.

"This is the ten-thousand-year-old earth milk. One drop is enough to transform you. Cultivate well..."

Lin Mo smiled faintly and took out a jade bottle. He dripped a drop of the ten-thousand-year-old earth milk onto the ball of light that Jiang Xiyue had turned into.

Just as it dripped, wisps of chaotic energy surrounded Jiang Xiyue and enveloped her.

In an instant, the golden ball of light disappeared. Jiang Xiyue's aura became weaker and weaker until it was finally undetectable.

After doing all this, he retreated. With the Nirvana Fire Stone and a drop of ten-thousand-year-old Earth Milk, Jiang Xiyue would definitely be able to achieve the most perfect transformation.

"What did you do after that?"

Seeing Lin Mo Retreat, Luo Haoyu hurriedly asked.

Originally, they could still sense Jiang Xiyue's aura, but now it was blocked by the primal Chaos Qi.

Without a doubt, all of this was related to the drop of liquid that Lin Mo dropped.

"Earth rank 7, ten-thousand-year-old Earth milk. This drop is for Elder Luo." Lin Mo smiled and took out a jade bottle, handing it to Luo Hao Yu.

ten-thousand-year-old Earth Milk!

These words kept echoing in Luo Hao Yu's mind, and he looked at Lin Mo without saying a word for a long time.

Even though the royal family had earth grade treasures, they didn't have many, and they were all rank 1 and 2.

Now that Lin Mo had taken out a 7th tier Earth grade treasure, he was even so generous as to give him a drop...

"Where did you get it from?" Luo Haoyu stretched out his hand, wanting to take it but hesitating.

This gift was too heavy. Furthermore, this drop of ten-thousand-year-old earth milk was very helpful to his subsequent cultivation. The most suitable ones were only Lin Mo and Jiang Xiyue. Other than that, Lin Die was also suitable.

A person like him who had lived for more than half his life had already missed the golden age of training.

"Elder Luo, please accept it. I've heard from Xiyue that you're the only top-notch expert by her side. How could she miss you if she has a treasure?"

Lin Mo stuffed the ten-thousand-year-old Earth milk into Luo Haoyu's hands and said.

This made Bing Xin, who was watching from the side, extremely envious.

An earth grade 7 treasure. Not to mention seeing it, she hadn't even heard anyone mention it before because it was too precious.

"This... Many thanks to little friend Lin Mo. ."

Luo Hao Yu trembled as he put away the ten-thousand-year-old Earth Milk, unable to hide the excitement in his heart.

He was certain that as long as he consumed this drop of ten-thousand-year-old earth milk, his strength would increase.

Whether it was in terms of lifespan or talent, perhaps he would be able to break through to a higher realm through cultivation in the future.

"Elder Luo, you don't have to stand on ceremony. It just so happens that this junior still has some questions to ask." Lin Mo said.

He and Luo Hao Yu came to the top of a volcano and asked about the Blood Soul Flame.

"Oh, little friend, are you interested in the Blood Soul Flame?"

Luo Hao Yu was not surprised. This kind of precious treasure that was born naturally was indeed worth pursuing.

"To be honest, I've seen the Blood Soul Flame. This ten-thousand-year-old Earth milk was obtained from it."

Lin Mo did not hide anything and told the truth of what he knew.

“What did you say?” Luo Hao Yu was shocked and looked at Lin Mo in disbelief.

He did not expect Lin Mo to be so lucky to be able to see the Blood Soul Flame.

Furthermore, not only did he not die, he could even obtain some benefits...

“I’ve read many ancient books and know many mysterious treasures. However, I know very little about the Blood Soul Flame...”

Luo Haoyu shook his head. He told Lin Mo that it was actually very simple to know about the Blood Soul Flame.

Didn’t the people from the Divine Secrets Sacred Land come to the Imperial City? As long as they were willing to pay a visit, they would definitely know more than he did.

“What does the Divine Secrets Holy Land do?”

Lin Mo asked. Before he came here, he had already heard about the Devine Secrets Holy Land.

Chapter 353: Feasting

However, he knew very little. He only knew that the Divine Secrets Holy Land was the strongest holy land in the eastern continent.

At the same time, it was also the only force among the ten great holy lands that was not weaker than the four great divine dynasties.

The other Holy Lands depended on the divine dynasties to survive, while the Divine Secrets Holy Land was an existence on equal footing with the divine dynasties.

“The reason why the Divine Secrets Holy Land is so powerful is because they are proficient in the art of calculation. They are known to be knowledgeable about the past, present, and future.”

“The reason why they are here this time is probably because the emperor invited them here to calculate the information about the blood soul flame.”

“If it’s not necessary, I advise you not to get involved...”Luo Haoyu reminded him.

Both he and Jiang Xiyue were the crown prince’s eyesores.

If they were to jump too much, they might be killed.

“Know everything about the past, present, and future. Is that true?”Lin Mo didn’t quite believe it.

Could the people from the divine secrets sacred land calculate that he didn’t belong to this world? Could they calculate that he had a system?

He believed that they couldn’t, because he didn’t believe it. He didn’t believe that anyone could really know everything about the past, present, and future.

Perhaps they could calculate what had happened in the past.

But regarding the future, who could truly calculate it? Perhaps they could only have a rough idea, but it was impossible to calculate the exact details.

For example, they could know that there would be great chaos in the eastern continent, but they couldn't predict what kind of chaos it would be...

"It's a little exaggerated. For mortals, they might really be able to predict that person's life."

"However, for cultivators, they shouldn't be able to. They can only make a simple prediction."

Luo Haoyu explained. However, this was already very powerful. Who could predict the future? It was already rare to be able to calculate one or two things...

"Alright, I'll go and ask..."

Lin Mo nodded. After chatting with Luo Haoyu for a while, he bade farewell and left.

However, he did not return immediately. Instead, he searched the mountain range, creating a message for others that he was out to look for the Blood Soul Flame.

Five days later, Lin Mo returned to the Imperial City. Just as he arrived, Huixiang sent a message saying that the warehouse had piled up quite a number of treasures and that they could participate in the auction...

"What did you say? The auction items sent by the Crown Prince and the Sacred Land of Divine Secrets?"

Lin Mo was stunned. This was a little interesting.

The crown prince's treasures were not being sold by his own business group, but he was giving him the benefits instead...

What was he thinking?

"What kind of treasures do you have?"

Huixiang hesitated for a moment before saying, "This is a list. The owner will know once you take a look."

She handed over a list and a storage ring.

Ever since the warehouse was stolen, she had not let go of any treasures in the warehouse. She had always carried all the treasures that she had bought with her.

Lin Mo accepted all of them and looked at the list.

"Spirit Rank 1, Golden Light Flower."

"Spirit Rank 2, Radiant Sun Fruit."

"..."

"Spirit Rank 5, Green Tuckahoe Pill."

“Spirit Rank 6, wind and cold attribute cultivation method, wind frost art.”

“Spirit rank 7, heavenly reflection fruit...”

After roughly looking at the list, Lin Mo’s mouth twitched. This was enough to hold a large-scale auction.

“Even the heavenly reflection fruit, he’s really willing to...”

Lin Mo was a little speechless. He even felt that there was something wrong with the crown prince.

If all of these treasures were auctioned off, he would be able to earn at least 100 million middle grade spirit stones.

A 5% commission would be a net income of 5 million. This was even after excluding the possibility of him auctioning off the rebate system...

“Who cares? Treasures that are delivered to our doorstep, don’t waste them...”

Lin Mo curled his lips. He couldn’t be bothered with the crown prince’s intentions. After all, he had the rebate system, so he wouldn’t lose anything.

“When will you set the auction date?” Lin Mo asked.

“Tomorrow Night...” Huixiang said.

The crown prince and the Sacred Land of Divine Secrets had already urged her to hurry up with the auction.

Helpless, she could only arrange the auction first. The invitation had already been sent out.

“Alright, Tomorrow Night. There’s still some time...”

Lin Mo nodded and got someone to send the invitation over. He invited the Crown Prince and an elder from the sacred land of divine secrets to come over as guests.

After some thought, he decided to set the location at the restaurant under Yue Xuan’s banner.

The Red Dust restaurant was Yue Xuan’s property. However, it was managed by someone and there was no auction, so Lin Mo didn’t pay much attention to it before.

After booking the room, Lin Mo asked Huixiang to make the arrangements. At the same time, he went to Purple Moon Palace to invite the powerhouse that Jiang Xiyue was supporting to come out.

There were so many treasures, and Tang Chen wasn’t around. Although Yue Xuan had a large array, someone still had to be in charge.

If they were to cause trouble at Yue Xuan’s headquarters, Jiang Xiyue would lose all her face.

No matter how much she retaliated, it would be useless.

“Owner, the crown prince has always wanted to rope you in. Now that you’ve invited him to a banquet, what about the palace master?”

Huixiang reminded in a low voice. She was promoted by Tang Chen and allowed by Jiang Xiyue to manage Yue Xuan, so she was naturally loyal.

She felt that it was necessary to remind Lin Mo of what he had done.

“Why? Are you worried that I’ll betray you?” Lin Mo felt that it was a little funny.

At the same time, he nodded slightly. At least Jiang Xiyue’s subordinates did not have any soft bones.

“Just do as you’re told. As for what happened here, you can report it truthfully.”

Lin Mo smiled. Anyway, even if Jiang Xiyue knew what he did, she would not care. At most, she would just ask and see what benefits she could get from inviting the crown prince to a banquet...

“Yes!”

Huixiang nodded and left. After hesitating for a moment, she took out a jade talisman and crushed it...

Lin Mo saw everything she did and couldn’t help but nod again.

The purpose of inviting the Divine Secrets Holy Land was naturally to ask about the blood soul flame.

After all, to outsiders, he was often out looking for the Blood Soul Flame.

Since that was the case, inviting the divine armament sacred land to ask about the blood soul flame seemed to be a matter of course.

Lin Mo returned to the backyard and finished his work in the pergola that he often stayed in. He closed his eyes to rest.

In his mind, the blacksmith master’s inheritance that the system had given him appeared.

Other than that, he also saw some methods of making spatial magic tools. Every single one of them was very precious.

“With my current strength, forging a rank 6 spatial magic tool shouldn’t be a problem.”

Lin Mo muttered to himself. He didn’t know much about the laws of space.

Moreover, he didn’t plan to comprehend the laws of space just to forge a spatial magic tool. He would just let nature take its course.

Right now, he was already very familiar with the understanding of the flame laws. The more he comprehended, the more shocked he was.

In a short period of time, he shouldn’t be able to comprehend other laws.

Of course, the laws in the devouring God body were an exception. This was something he was born with. As the devouring God body devoured, it would gradually show itself.

After looking at the forging method for a while, Lin Mo ordered people to find the materials. He took out the DAO Flame and started to burn it.

After a series of experiments, Lin Mo failed a few times. In the end, he actually managed to forge a rank 7 spatial magic tool...

Demon Refining Bowl, a spatial magic tool that could store living things. It could sustain life for three hours, and life within the bowl would die completely within four hours.

"There are some limitations, but overall, it's not bad. It has a miraculous effect on exploring secret realms..." Lin Mo nodded in satisfaction.

After carefully studying the demon refining bowl, Lin Mo put it away. The agreed time was also at night. Looking at the Darkening Sky, Lin Mo got up and left.

The crown prince and the Sacred Land of divine secrets should have left as well...

Chapter 354: I've Spent Too Much Money

Everyone in the world knew that the red dust house was owned by Jiang Xiyue. It was mostly used to entertain important guests.

Usually, those who could come in to spend money were not ordinary people.

At a glance, the decorations in the building were very luxurious. There were some potted plants around, and the spiritual herbs were planted inside.

A maid walked over, dressed in a long dress. She bowed respectfully and said, "Lord Lin, please come with me."

The maid of the red dust house was even more beautiful than the maid of Yue Xuan's headquarters. She moved lightly with her lotus steps, exuding a graceful grace.

The Red Dust House's interior was very large. Even Lin Mo was taken aback. To be decorated so extravagantly, it must have consumed a lot of financial resources.

No wonder he had accidentally heard that some noble families would come to places similar to the red dust house for banquets.

Such extravagant spending was enough to satisfy their vanity.

Lin Mo was now the Master of the Moon Pavilion. When the pavilion master heard that Lin Mo was coming, he immediately arranged for the best private room.

Under the guidance of the maid, Lin Mo walked through the corridors and came to the depths.

The private room was very large. The crown prince and the elders of the Divine Secrets Holy Land had not arrived yet.

Lin Mo sat on the soft sofa, as if his entire body was going to sink in, and he felt extremely comfortable.

A jar of spirit wine brewed from spirit rank spirit herbs was brought up. This type of spirit wine could be considered top notch even within the imperial city.

Normally, even the heads of some large clans wouldn't be willing to drink it.

Lin Mo lifted the lid, poured himself a cup, and slowly tasted it.

The fragrance of the wine lingered on his lips and teeth, and the fragrance of the wine revolved around Lin Mo's body. Before long, a cup of wine was downed.

At this moment, there was also a knock on the door. Other than that, there were also respectful voices.

"Greetings, Your Highness the Crown Prince!"

"..."

The door opened. The crown prince was dressed in white, and there was a young man beside him. There was a hint of arrogance between his brows.

The two of them walked in. The crown prince smiled at Lin Mo and sat across from him.

The crown prince had a smile on his face. Ever since Lin Mo had invited him to a banquet, he had been unable to suppress the excitement in his heart.

That's right. When the people from the Divine Secrets Holy Land had arrived at the imperial city, he had looked for them and asked them how he could rope Lin Mo in.

After some calculations, he had come to the conclusion that he should participate more in Lin Mo's auction...

This made them puzzled.

However, out of his trust in the Divine Secrets Holy Land, he endured the pain and did as he was told. Although it would help Jiang Xiyue's power, he wasn't worried.

The truth made him happy. Lin Mo had failed to find the blood soul flame, so when he heard the news, he invited him to a banquet.

The crown prince smiled and said, "Brother Lin, you're too polite. Just find an inn. There's no need to come to the red dust house."

Lin Mo smiled and said, "Your Highness, since you're taking care of my business, I naturally have to entertain you well."

The crown prince nodded and smiled, "Then I'll have to trouble brother Lin to spend the money. The red dust restaurant's expenses are very expensive. Even I only come once on my birthday..."

Lin Mo picked up the wine jar and poured wine for the crown prince and the young man beside him.

After the dishes and wine were served, Lin Mo raised his glass and asked, "Oh right, I have yet to ask, what is this brother's name?"

He looked at the middle-aged man. This was the person he wanted to invite.

In order to find out about the Blood Soul Flame, he had spent a lot of effort...

“Li Long.” The young man raised his wine cup and drank it in one gulp. He spoke his name as if he was a man of few words.

“Brother Lin, don’t blame him. Senior brother Li has such a personality. He doesn’t like to communicate with others.” The crown prince quickly tried to smooth things over.

He jokingly said, “Oh right, brother Lin, you should host the auction tomorrow. If not, then I won’t Go and watch.”

“That depends on the situation. You know, I’ve been looking for news about the Blood Soul Flame recently.” Lin Mo said with a faint smile.

Couldn’t the crown prince conceal his intention to rope him in? It was too obvious...

“Is it still for my father’s bounty?” The crown prince asked.

The current bounty had already changed. Not only was it the blood spirit crystal, but it could also be added with a spirit rank 8 magic tool.

If one didn’t want a magic tool, they could also exchange it for a cultivation technique or martial arts.

As long as it was something that the palace treasury had, they could give it, provided that the information was valid...

“Give it up, the bounty will be cancelled very soon,” Li Long said at this moment.

“Seeing that you’re hosting a banquet, I’ll tell you the truth. The Holy Maiden of the Divine Secrets Holy Land has already met the emperor and used the heaven’s projection algorithm to calculate the location of the Blood Soul Flame.”

Li Long said, telling Lin Mo not to waste his efforts and to properly manage the auction.

“That’s a pity.” Lin Mo sighed, poured himself a cup and drank it in one gulp.

“Haha, Brother Lin, don’t be disappointed. If you really want the blood spirit crystal, you can come find me. With our relationship, it’s not impossible to give you one.”

The crown prince smiled and advised Lin Mo. The Blood Soul Flame was hard to find, so it was not a shameful thing to not be able to find it.

The banquet continued. Lin Mo was full from wine and rice, and was extremely satisfied with the dishes of the red dust restaurant.

He didn’t stand on ceremony and ordered all the expensive dishes and wine, warmly entertaining Li Long and the crown prince.

This made Li long feel a little unnatural. He had clearly come here arrogantly, but in the end, he couldn’t resist the temptation and enjoyed them together.

During this period of time, Lin Mo had also successfully gotten what he wanted.

There was a lot of information regarding the Blood Soul Flame, and it was extremely rare. It was Li long who had divined it for him on the spot.

“Brother Lin, don’t worry. I can’t calculate the future of a diviner or anything like that, but what’s the use of a type of natural treasure? Its properties are simply easy to calculate,” Li Long said with his tongue hanging wide open.

The wine here was brewed using spirit rank spirit herbs, and it contained rich spirit energy.

The three of them were currently drunk.

However, after getting what they wanted, Lin Mo didn’t care anymore. After all, he didn’t have any enmity with the Divine Secrets Holy Land, so he just wanted to treat them to a meal...

After finishing their meal, the crown prince and Li Long left, leaving Lin Mo alone in the private room.

He opened the jade talisman that Li Long gave him, and what was written on it was everything about the blood soul flame.

It couldn’t be said to be complete, but it was very detailed.

The reason for the birth of the Blood Soul Flame was written in it. It was actually born from the aura of chaos. It was a well-deserved innate spiritual item.

Anyone who could tame it could basically be said to have half a foot on the path to Immortal Ascension.

As long as one’s talent was not ruthless, one would definitely be able to accomplish great things.

Of course, the Blood Soul Flame’s intelligence was not low either. Some of the Blood Soul Flames even possessed intelligence that was not inferior to humans...

Unfortunately, there was still no mention of any connection between the Blood Soul Flame and the Huan Cai Fire Demon.

“Let’s auction it off and see how detailed the rebate is...”

Lin Mo nodded his head and didn’t stay any longer. He called for a maid to clean up the dishes.

His mind was also a little groggy. With so much spirit energy in his stomach, even the god devouring body wouldn’t be able to withstand it.

The spirit energy in his body was abundant and warm, and he really wanted to fall asleep.

However, his muddled state didn’t last for long before he was awakened by the servant girl’s shock.

Lin Mo’s exclamation immediately resounded throughout the entire private room...

“What did you say? You Ate 1,100,000 middle-grade spirit stones for this meal?”

Chapter 355: The White Tiger Marquis surrenders

Even though the owner didn't ask for any spirit stones from him, the look in his eyes was filled with resentment.

A million middle-grade spirit stones were gone just like that. Anyone would feel sorry for him.

Lin Mo felt extremely sorry for him. No wonder the wine contained so much spirit energy. It was actually so expensive...

Lin Mo slept through the night and only woke up the next afternoon.

The spiritual energy accumulated in his body had already been absorbed, and his cultivation realm had also been stabilized.

"It's not unreasonable for it to be a little more expensive..." Lin Mo muttered to himself. He would have to invite Bai Luo to taste it some other day.

She would definitely pay attention to the happenings at the Red Dust Restaurant.

As the sun set, the Yue Xuan auction was held as scheduled, and the crowd swarmed over one by one.

What shocked Lin Mo even more was that a guest had arrived the day before the auction.

"Greetings, Lord White Tiger Marquis." Huixiang, who was behind Lin Mo, bowed.

Lin Mo also looked at the White Tiger Marquis in surprise.

This person's aura was a little strong, and the faint dragon aura that he emitted made Lin Mo even more certain.

The person in front of him had already refined the true dragon bloodline.

"Senior, have you refined the true dragon bloodline? How is it? Is this spirit stone worth it?" Lin Mo said with a faint smile.

The White Tiger Marquis was able to obtain such benefits from devouring such a level of true dragon bloodline. His strength was almost on par with Luo Haoyu's.

On the other hand, Jiang Xiyue had devoured the true dragon's heart blood. Other than that, she also had many natural treasures, blood spirit crystals, ten-thousand-year-old Earth Milk, and the help of the Nirvana Fire Stone.

She was afraid that when she came out of seclusion, she would have accumulated enough to successfully break through the Nirvana Realm...

"There's no need to thank me for my great kindness. If there's anything you need in the future, just say the word. If I say no, my Dao heart will collapse and my strength will regress and die."

The White Tiger Marquis said straightforwardly. This determination surprised even Lin Mo.

"Senior, have you thought about it?" Lin Mo asked.

Originally, he had wanted to obtain the friendship of the White Tiger Marquis. In the future, if there was a need, he would be able to request his help and the White Tiger Marquis would not reject it.

Who would have thought that the White Tiger Marquis would actually stand on their side?

Furthermore, he had even made an oath. If he returned, his dao heart would suffer a problem, and he might even die a tragic death.

“You might not be able to imagine what benefits you have brought me. I have thought it through. You can tell the eighth princess that I will continue my closed door cultivation.”

After the White Tiger Marquis finished speaking, he planned to leave.

“Senior, please wait a moment. There’s an auction tonight. You can participate in it. If you see anything, feel free to place a bid.”

Lin Mo spoke out to stop him. It just so happened that there weren’t many people overseeing this place.

Even though he had invited an elder from the Purple Moon Palace, he didn’t mind having one more.

The White Tiger Marquis Thought for a moment before nodding his head. He didn’t refuse.

After letting Huixiang bring the White Tiger Marquis to arrange a private room, Lin Mo walked out from the backstage and walked onto the auction stage.

The moment he appeared, the noisy atmosphere in the hall quieted down.

“Welcome to the Yue Xuan auction. I am Lin Mo, the auctioneer of this auction.”

“There are a lot of treasures today. Everyone will definitely have an eye-opening experience. Don’t miss out, guests who have the money.”

Lin Mo was becoming more and more familiar with the techniques of the auction. A few simple sentences had already stirred up the excitement of the auction.

Looking at the crowd that was discussing fervently below, Lin Mo waved his hand and a maid walked up from behind.

“Let’s welcome our first item for today’s auction.”

The red cloth was lifted by Lin Mo. Lying on the silver plate was a pale yellow chrysanthemum with golden patterns on its petals.

“This is Jinrui Chrysanthemum. It has the effect of refining a golden body, and at the same time, it has the effect of increasing one’s Qi and blood. If an old senior were to consume it, he would be able to extend his life by a hundred years.”

“Spirit rank 5, Jinrui Chrysanthemum. Starting bid, 400,000 middle-grade spirit stones.”

As he spoke, Lin Mo dropped his hammer and announced the start of the auction.

Meanwhile, the crowd below exploded. This was a good item.

Especially for some old men and women, their eyes were wide open.

Most of these people were people who didn’t have much time left. Now that they saw a treasure that could extend one’s lifespan, all of them were eager to bid.

Even in the private room, there were a few people who were tempted. Extending one's lifespan was too rare.

"Four hundred and ten thousand."

"Four hundred and twenty thousand."

"Four hundred and fifty thousand."

The price began to rise, and there were people bidding one after another. This kind of good treasure naturally made the wave of auctions even more intense.

Some people wanted to use it to refine a golden body to make themselves stronger, and these were mostly middle-aged men and young men.

In the end, the auction price was fixed at seven hundred and twenty-five thousand middle-grade spirit stones.

The bidder was an old man in the hall. He was as thin as a stick, and his aura was very weak.

This was already a person who had half a foot in the coffin.

Seeing this, everyone felt relieved. He was about to die of old age, no wonder he was fighting so hard for it.

"Alright, Congratulations to this guest for successfully bidding for Jin Rui Ju at the price of 25,000 mid-grade spirit stones."

Lin Mo dropped the auction hammer, and the old man couldn't wait to take out the spirit stones, wanting to make a deal on the spot.

He didn't refuse, and got the maid to bring the Jinrui Chrysanthemum down.

[Congratulations, host, for successfully auctioning the spirit rank 5 Jinrui Chrysanthemum]

[You have successfully triggered 2,000 times the profit from the auction]

[Congratulations, host, for successfully obtaining the spirit rank 7 Heavenly Golden Chrysanthemum]

The effects of this heavenly golden chrysanthemum were the same as that of the Jinrui Chrysanthemum, and the strength of the golden body refined was about the same. However, it could extend one's lifespan by 500 years, and that was the most precious thing about it.

"Those old seniors who can provide for Xiyue..."

Lin Mo muttered to himself. It would be a bit of a waste for him to devour such a treasure. After all, he didn't need a golden body, nor did he need to extend his lifespan.

After taking a brief look, Lin Mo waved his hand, and a maid immediately walked up with a silver plate.

Due to the crown prince and the Divine Secrets Holy Land, he had a lot of items up for auction. Therefore, unless it was a treasure that he wasn't clear about, he had neglected the part where he showed it to the guests in the private room.

“Many people have welcomed the starting items, and Lin Mo has also used this to auction off some low-level treasures.”

Due to this, he had obtained a lot of high-quality items that returned a profit, allowing his collection to once again become rich.

A full hour had passed, and Lin Mo didn't fail to auction off a single item, which made him very satisfied.

“This next item is a little special. I've set a price for it at Spirit Rank 1. I wonder if any of you are interested.”

Lin Mo smiled as a maid walked up from behind.

The red cloth was lifted, and on the silver plate lay a bamboo slip that didn't have any spiritual energy fluctuations.

“Hehe, I'm ashamed to say this. A while ago, I often went out to look for information on the Blood Soul Flame. I was a little greedy, and my goal was to offer a reward...”

Lin Mo's straightforward words caused everyone below to chuckle.

However, no one said anything. Even a prince would be tempted by such a reward, much less Lin Mo.

Naturally, no one doubted or ridiculed Lin Mo's actions.

“Finally, hard work pays off. I found quite a bit of information about the Blood Soul Flame and summarized it.”

“However, I don't have much hope left. I'll be going into closed-door cultivation next. Therefore, I plan to auction off the information about the Blood Soul Flame.”

Chapter 356: Great Sun Lightning Art

After Lin Mo finished speaking, in the private room at the very front, the crown prince was slightly stunned before he let out a soft laugh.

He looked at Li Long, who was as still as a mountain beside him.

He knew how Lin Mo had obtained this information regarding the Blood Soul Flame.

However, he did not expect that after Li Long's reminder, Lin Mo would really give up on the search for the Blood Soul Flame and stop the damage in time...

“He can bend and stretch, he's neither arrogant nor impetuous. This Lin Mo, in terms of temperament, I'm inferior to him...”

At this moment, Li Long opened his eyes and looked at Lin Mo on the viewing platform.

He didn't have any objections towards Lin Mo's auction. After all, Lin Mo had invited him to a banquet to receive this news. How he dealt with it was up to him.

“What? News about the Blood Soul Flame?”

“This Lin Mo is really amazing. He’s even able to detect such news. It’s unbelievable.”

“Yeah, but he seems to be giving up. He said that he’s going into seclusion. Is that true?”

Some people were puzzled. Lin Mo had investigated for so long and finally concluded the information with great difficulty. Now, he was actually planning to sell it?

“I believe that the Jingdou Dao conference is about to begin. All the geniuses choose to go into seclusion and rarely go out.”

“That’s true. Lin Mo is the only genius on the ranking list who is still running around...”

Some people could not help but look at Lin Mo with pity.

It was no secret that Lin Mo was the eighth princess’ hanger-on.

However, the other princes were recruiting hangers-on by giving them resources, nurturing them well, and winning over the hearts of the people.

However, the eighth princess, Jiang Xiyue, did not do that. She only gave the title of the owner of the month pavilion and did not give any benefits...

Blood Spirit Crystals, enlightenment stones, and even the bloodline of the true dragon, she would rather sell them than give them to Lin Mo...

“I heard that Lin Mo is very close to the crown prince recently, and he even had a meal at the Red Dust Restaurant Yesterday...”

“Shut up, is this something that can be discussed...”

Looking at the chaotic discussions below, Lin Mo wasn’t angry at all. He knocked on the auction hammer to signal for everyone to keep quiet.

“Alright, the information regarding the Blood Soul Flame isn’t complete. The starting bid is 10,000 middle-grade spirit stones.”

That’s right, it was only 10,000 middle-grade spirit stones. He didn’t even expect anyone to bid for it.

Even if someone were to bid for it, he would still be happy.

That was because what he really wanted was the system’s return on the profits from the auction.

Right now, he urgently wanted to know the information regarding the Blood Soul Flame. He wanted to know the relationship between it and the Huan Cai Fire Demon.

If it didn’t work here, he could only look for Bai Luo.

This would cause further delay.

Moreover, he could only look for Bai Luo by himself. Others might not be able to find him...

“Eleven thousand middle-grade spirit stones...”

After a short silence, a middle-aged man opened his mouth.

He was a mercenary who often wandered in the mountains. During this period of time, he had been looking for the Blood Soul Flame.

Right now, he was extremely conflicted about obtaining the news.

If the news wasn't of much help, he would suffer a loss. Although 10,000 mid-grade spirit stones wasn't enough to bankrupt him, it was enough to make his heart ache.

"11,000 mid-grade spirit stones, is there anyone else who wants to bid?"

Lin Mo knocked on the auction hammer and looked down, but no one stood up to bid.

Clearly, they also felt that Lin Mo's news about the Blood Soul Flame wasn't too reliable.

"11,000 middle-grade spirit stones going once!"

"... twice!"

"Three times!"

"Deal."

Seeing that no one had any reaction, Lin Mo couldn't be bothered to waste any more time. He quickly shouted three times before announcing the deal.

[Congratulations to host for successfully auctioning the incomplete information of a Spirit Rank 1 Blood Soul Flame]

[Successful triggering of 5,000 times auction return]

[Congratulations to host for obtaining the complete information of the Blood Soul Flame]

The complete information, the complete information of the Blood Soul Flame, was finally obtained.

Lin Mo was overjoyed. After waiting for so long, he was finally able to obtain the relevant information. It was truly not easy.

However, the bamboo slip in the system space was very large. It was likely that there was a lot of information recorded within it. Now was not the time to look at it.

The auction continued. It was still some low level treasures that had been purchased during this period of time. Lin Mo had taken them all out and auctioned them off in one go.

The auction continued for six hours. Although there were people bidding, the prices weren't very high.

Not to mention the distinguished guests in the private rooms, even the people in the front of the all didn't participate in the competition.

Occasionally, they would see those who were interested and participate.

"Haha, everyone, are you feeling bored? The following items might be able to cheer you all up."

Looking at the cold atmosphere of the auction hall, Lin Mo's words instantly roused the spirits of the silent crowd.

Were the low-level treasures finally auctioned off? That's right, the auction was nearing its end, it was time for the high-level treasures to appear.

"Let's welcome the next item in the auction."

Lin Mo waved his hand, and a female attendant walked up with a silver plate in her hands.

The red cloth was lifted by him, and everyone's gaze landed on the silver plate at the same time, only to see a scroll on it.

Just by looking at it, traces of lightning flashed.

Compared to the items auctioned earlier, this was a true treasure.

"Spirit rank 5 body tempering technique, Great Sun Lightning Art."

"This Great Sun Lightning Art isn't simple. Those who practice this technique will have their body strength greatly increased."

After getting the maid to send the Great Sun Lightning Art down for the guests in the private room to view, Lin Mo slowly began to introduce it.

"When the Great Sun Lightning Art is fully mastered, lightning will surge out with a wave of one's hand. While its destructive power is astonishing, it can also defend."

"However, it still has a flaw. The strength of one's physical body has increased, and the requirements for one's soul are extremely high. Therefore, the conditions for cultivating it are extremely harsh. Otherwise, this Great Sun Lightning Art might be able to rank within the seventh or even eighth rank of the spirit rank." "..."

When Lin Mo said this, many people were shocked.

The meaning behind his words was very clear. If anyone could overcome this flaw, it would be equivalent to obtaining a seventh or even eighth rank spirit rank cultivation technique.

"The starting bid is 700,000 mid-grade spirit stones. Each increment must not be lower than 10,000 mid-grade spirit stones."

700,000, so expensive...

Everyone in the hall sucked in a breath of cold air.

Initially, they had thought that they would be able to benefit from the appearance of good treasures. However, from the looks of it, these treasures were reserved for the great powers at the very front.

Even if the people in the private room didn't want them, there were still those people at the very front of the hall...

There was no need for Lin Mo to say anything else. Although the Great Sun Lightning Art had its flaws, it was a rare high-grade cultivation technique.

“710,000.”

Someone started to bid, instantly stirring up the atmosphere of the auction as people started to discuss fervently.

“730,000.”

Someone called out the price, but these people didn't dare to raise it too much. After all, even though they had some financial resources, they weren't spending it here.

Especially buying a cultivation technique that they couldn't use for a short period of time...

“800,000.”

At this moment, a sudden voice came from a private room, causing Lin Mo to feel a little surprised.

This was because this was the fourth prince who had gone into seclusion for a period of time.

After such a long period of time, he had also refined the Blood Soul Flame, and now that he saw this cultivation technique, his mouth was drooling.

“That's right, he has refined the blood spirit crystal, and his soul power is able to withstand the Great Sun Lightning Art.”

Lin Mo thought to himself. It seemed that the fourth prince was very lucky to have found a suitable cultivation technique...

However, just as everyone thought that the fourth Prince would succeed, a bid came from the private room on the other side.

“850,000...”

Chapter 357: Aphrodisiac Heavenly Yang Fruit

“It's the second prince.”

Lin Mo heard clearly from the stage that the bidder was the second prince. He didn't expect this person to join in the fun.

“900,000.”

The fourth prince continued to raise the price without any intention of backing down. At this time, the shouting in the hall had completely stopped.

Since the two princes were fighting over it, they naturally did not dare to participate.

“Hehe, it seems that fourth brother has refined the blood spirit crystal, which is why he has the courage to cultivate this great sun lightning art, right?” The second Prince's words were filled with ridicule.

Seeing this, the fourth prince did not waste his breath and said, "That's indeed the case. I'm not like some people who don't know their own limits."

Seeing the two of them fighting, Lin Mo also wanted to watch the show. He did not urge them and just stood on the stage to watch.

"950,000. Second brother is a little interested in the Great Sun Lightning Art. I wonder if fourth brother can part with it?"

"1 million. I'm afraid that won't do."

The fourth prince didn't give in at all. The price had reached 1 million. However, the two of them didn't have any intention of giving in either.

They were both people who knew what was good for them. Although the Great Sun Lightning Art's flaws were obvious, it was still classified as a spirit rank 5 technique.

However, its value wasn't a spirit rank 5 technique. Therefore, after the two of them saw through it, they began to fight over it.

"Sigh, I was still thinking of picking up scraps..."

Seeing this, Lin Mo could only sigh helplessly. He was still thinking of letting the Great Sun Lightning Art be sold at a low price.

This way, he might be able to trigger the Great Sun Lightning Art by 10,000 times. Perhaps, he might be able to obtain a top-tier spirit rank 9th rank cultivation technique.

Who would have thought that the 2nd Prince and the 4th Prince would already start fighting over it...

"2.5 million. Royal brother, this price is already about to exceed the Great Sun Lightning Art's price. Even if you buy it, you won't be able to use it."

The fourth Prince raised the price again, causing everyone in the hall to be dumbstruck.

The starting price of 700,000 had already tripled. From the looks of it, it seemed like it was still rising.

"Hehe, since fourth brother wants it so much, then this brother can't fight over it anymore..."

The second prince chose to give up. At this point, it would be a bit of a loss for him to raise the price.

However, since he was able to make the fourth prince pay three times the price, his bid this time wasn't considered a loss.

"In that case, thank you very much, royal brother..."the fourth Prince's indifferent voice sounded from within the private room.

However, Lin Mo could hear some slight anger from within.

"Alright, Congratulations to His Royal Highness the fourth Prince for successfully bidding for the Great Sun Lightning Art."

Lin Mo sighed and dropped the auction hammer. 2.5 million was about the price of this cultivation technique.

[Congratulations, host, for successfully auctioning the rank 5 spirit rank Great Sun Lightning Art]

[You have successfully triggered the 3,000 times auction return]

[Congratulations, host, for obtaining the rank 7 spirit rank lightning haste technique]

As expected, it didn't trigger the double. After all, this cultivation technique didn't suffer any losses.

"Alright, this next item is also a rare good item."

"It's produced from the mouth of a volcano. However, it can only be consumed by men. It can greatly increase the yang energy in the body and increase the speed of the circulation of the spirit energy. When consumed during cultivation, the effect is very good. However, if it's used to cultivate with a dao partner, it will have the greatest effect..."

Speaking up to this point, Lin Mo didn't need to explain in detail. Everyone already knew what it was. It was used to strengthen one's Yang energy...

"Cough cough, a spirit rank 6 Sky Yang fruit. Even if there's no dao partner, if one were to consume it alone, other than feeling a little uncomfortable, it would still be very good for the improvement of one's cultivation."

Speaking up to this point, Lin Mo felt a little embarrassed to continue.

This was because everyone in the hall was looking at the person beside him with a mocking gaze.

At this moment, whoever made a bid would mean that they were unable to do it...

Even if they were unable to do it, who would admit to it? Hence, when Lin Mo made his bid, the atmosphere turned exceptionally cold.

"Sky Yang Fruit, the starting bid is 1,000,000. Each increment must not be lower than 50,000."

"Alright, let the bidding begin now."

Seeing that everyone had fallen into silence, Lin Mo was speechless.

This was also his first time auctioning off such a spirit herb. Although its main effect was to increase the speed of the flow of spiritual energy and speed up his cultivation.

However, its aphrodisiac effect was genuine.

However, he didn't mind the silence.

As long as someone placed a bid, even if it was the starting price, he would be satisfied. In fact, he would even be happy.

After all, this meant that the system would be able to increase the number of spirit herbs. He might even be able to obtain a spirit rank 9 spirit herb.

However, reality proved that in the face of strength, a slight loss of face was secondary.

“1.1 million.”

In front of the hall, a middle-aged man stood up and called out the price.

“Don’t look at me like that. If you have the ability, don’t participate in the bidding,” The middle-aged man said angrily.

His fierce eyes stared at the people around him, but he still saw the smiles on their faces.

“Hehe, brother Yang is right. A treasure that can increase one’s cultivation speed, yet you guys are still looking down on it.”

“I bid 1.2 million.”

On the other side, a man stood up and raised the bid by 100,000. His expression was calm, and he ignored the gazes of the people around him.

Once someone bid, the quiet auction hall disappeared.

One after another, people began to bid.

“1,500,000.”

“1,700,000.”

“1,900,000.”

Lin Mo was a little speechless as he heard the numerous bids. Weren’t you guys too embarrassed to bid just now...

Why did more than a dozen people suddenly appear to bid...

What made Lin Mo even more speechless was that the price of the Sky Yang fruit had already been raised to 2,300,000.

From the looks of it, it seemed like its price would be even higher than the Great Sun Lightning Art...

“This customer has placed a bid of 2.8 million. Is there anyone else who has placed a higher bid?” Lin Mo knocked on the auction hammer and asked.

The person who had placed a bid of 2.8 million was the middle-aged man who had placed the bid from the start.

Furthermore, he did not give in at all. As long as anyone else placed a bid, he would immediately place a bid.

This made Lin Mo sigh in admiration. You’ve already written your inability on your face, yet you still found an excuse for yourself in the beginning.

“2,800,000 going once.”

“2,800,000 going twice.”

Seeing that no one was bidding, Lin Mo was just about to place the hammer for the third time.

From within the fourth prince's private room, someone shouted, "Cough cough, I've just bid for the Great Sun Lightning Art, and it's rather troublesome to cultivate. This heavenly sun fruit can increase the speed of spiritual energy flow, and its effects aren't bad. I'll bid 3,000,000 Middle-grade Spirit Stones."

What was going on?

Lin Mo was a little stunned, he really wanted to laugh on the spot.

The fourth prince couldn't do it? Hahaha, this was really the most interesting news...

However, he still didn't dare to show it, or else the fourth prince might fall out with him.

The surrounding people were also looking at the fourth Prince's private room, their expressions all different.

The fourth prince didn't say anything about this, he just looked at the auction stage calmly. Since he had bid, he naturally found an excuse.

"Three million going once."

"Do you have any friends who want to make a bid?"

"Three million going twice."

"Three times, sold."

The middle-aged man from before did not dare to offend the fourth prince. At this moment, he had already fallen silent.

After Lin Mo dropped the auction hammer three times, the heavenly sun fruit was successfully taken by the fourth prince.

"Don't be discouraged if you don't get it. The next item in the auction will also be of great help to your cultivation."

As Lin Mo spoke, the maid behind him stepped forward. The red cloth was lifted, and a golden glow appeared on the silver plate.

"I believe that everyone is familiar with this auction item."

"That's right, it's a spirit pill. Moreover, it's a 7th tier spirit grade spirit pill, the Star Pill."

When they heard the words 'star pill', not only were the people in the hall shocked, even the people in the private room were shocked.

These people almost subconsciously sat up straight.

"It seems that there are still many people who know the effects of the star pill. Then I will explain it briefly."

“The star pill contains an extremely strong aura of the starry sky. Its main material is refined from meteorites that fall from the starry sky.”

“Although it has been added with ores, it can still be consumed. It can allow the soul to travel through the starry sky and greatly increase the power of the soul.”

Spirit pills of this level were rare, let alone increasing the power of the soul.

“I can responsibly say that the effect of the star pill is the weakened version of the Blood Spirit Crystal.”

“Of course, it’s a whole piece, not cut off...”

As Lin Mo’s words fell, the entire place fell silent. In the next moment, the family heads and sect leaders of the various factions all started to breathe heavily.

Star pills. They had never thought that such a powerful spirit pill would actually appear here.

Furthermore, they had a wide range of channels and knew some inside information about the auction house.

Most of these auction items were provided by the crown prince. Although they didn’t understand why the crown prince would come here to auction.

However, the most important point was that the crown prince wouldn’t participate in the auction.

It was very likely that this star pill would belong to them.

Although there were still the fourth prince and the second prince, although these two princes had some financial resources, they might not be able to suppress them.

In the past, the Yanhuang Divine Empire had a ban on the circulation of treasures above the spirit grade. Even 9th tier treasures were not allowed to circulate in the outside world.

Although there were spirit-grade treasures sold in the Imperial City, they were all privately sold.

They had only heard of treasures of the same grade as the star pill but had never seen it before.

At this moment, even the fourth prince, who had already refined the Blood Spirit Crystal, was breathing heavily.

The star pill and the blood spirit crystal didn’t repel each other, so he could completely consume them.

He was sure that as long as he ate it, he wouldn’t have any obstacles before reaching Nirvana Realm.

He could even easily break through to Nirvana Realm.

“Without further ado, the starting price of the star pill is three million middle-grade spirit stones. Each increment must not be less than 100,000.”

Lin Mo dropped his hammer, causing the crowd below to be shocked.

With the starting bid of 3,000,000 Spirit Stones, how high would the bid be?

The few people at the front of the hall deliberated for a moment before deciding to give up in the end.

They had no choice. The Star Pill would definitely attract many people to compete for it, and they wouldn't be able to compete against it.

"3,100,000 Spirit Stones."

"3,200,000 spirit stones."

"3.5 million."

Shocking prices were called out one by one. In the blink of an eye, the price of the star pill had been raised to 4 million.

"4.5 million."

A voice called out the price. The fourth prince made his move, shocking some people.

"Fourth brother, you have already refined the blood spirit crystal. Let second brother have this star pill."

The second prince made his move. He was extremely generous and directly called out a price of five million.

"Six Million."

However, before he and the fourth prince could finish speaking, a sudden call for a price was heard.

It was a private room at the very edge. The voice was low and deep, and it was deliberately concealed.

No one knew who was calling out the price. Everyone in the hall looked over. Just from the voice alone, no one could tell who was calling out the price...

Six million was already a sky-high price. Lin Mo sighed slightly. Alchemists were really rich.

As long as there were spirit herbs, they would be able to refine such a spirit pill.

As long as they had the strength, it could be said that they didn't lack spirit stones.

"Speaking of which, becoming a blacksmith seems to be a good job. I should pay more attention to it."

Lin Mo said to himself. He had only refined weapons a few times.

He had the system's inheritance in terms of technology. As long as he spent some time, he would be able to achieve something.

Thinking of this, Lin Mo made up his mind. Next, it was time to focus on refining weapons.

The price rose once again. When it reached 8 million, the fourth prince had already stopped.

Now, only the second prince and the person in the private room at the edge were bidding.

"8.5 million."

In the next second, that private room bid once again, suppressing the second prince's bid.

"You..."

The second prince was flustered and wanted to send someone over to capture that person and teach him a lesson.

In the end, he still held back. No matter what, the Imperial City had its laws and could not be casually violated.

“8.7 million.”

But he still did not want to give up and bid again. At this time, the person on the other side was also somewhat hesitant.

Lin Mo made his move at the right time and dropped his hammer.

“8,700,000 going once.”

The person on the other side remained silent and did not open his mouth as he continued to consider.

“8,700,000 going twice.”

“8,700,000...”

“9,000,000.”

Finally, just as Lin Mo’s hammer was about to drop for the third time, that person called out the price.

9,000,000 had already exceeded the price of the star pill.

However, because of its preciousness, it was still worth it.

However, calling out this price caused that person to struggle in his heart. His tone was filled with dissatisfaction.

“Hmph...”

The second prince snorted coldly. The private room was unusually quiet. There were no more voices calling out the price.

“Quickly drop the hammer.”

A dissatisfied voice said from the other side, urging Lin Mo to quickly drop the hammer.

“Nine million, sold!”

“Congratulations to this friend for successfully auctioning the Star Pill.”

Lin Mo said with a smile, putting away the star pill and waving his hand, the maid behind him walked up with a silver plate.

[Congratulations to host for successfully auctioning a spirit rank 7 star pill]

[Successfully triggered a 7,000 times return on auction]

[Congratulations to host for obtaining a spirit rank 9 heavenly soul pill]

The effect was similar to a star pill, but Lin Mo estimated that this heavenly soul pill's effect was equivalent to two blood spirit crystals.

"That's great, there's finally a decent treasure." Lin Mo was overjoyed. A spirit rank 9 heavenly soul pill, this was already pretty good.

"Alright, everyone, don't be too depressed, because the next item..."

Lin Mo smiled mysteriously and lifted the red cloth. What greeted his eyes was still a spirit pill that was emitting golden light.

"That's right, it's still a star pill, just like the previous one."

The moment these words were spoken, the entire place erupted into an uproar.

No one had expected that two such top grade spirit pills would appear at once.

This wasn't even the finale...

The eyes of some of the clan leaders flickered as they looked at the Crown Prince's private room.

Just what was the reason for the crown prince to be willing to sell the star pill for so many treasures...

Something was fishy. There was definitely something fishy about this. Perhaps what the crown prince was waiting for was the finale item.

At this moment, whether it was the second prince or the mysterious person who had just bid for the star pill.

Their minds went blank.

What was going on? There was actually a star pill? This was too unbelievable.

"That's great. Fortunately, I didn't fight to the death just now..."

On the other side, the fourth prince hesitated for a moment before deciding to give up and not bid.

Chapter 359: Heavenly Reflection Fruit

Right now, he was also wondering why the crown prince would take out such a precious spirit pill to auction and not use it to buy people's hearts.

"Wait, Buy People's hearts?"

The fourth prince was shocked. He suddenly remembered that Lin Mo and the crown prince seemed to be very close recently.

Without mentioning anything else, the news that Lin Mo had invited the crown prince and the disciples of the Sacred Land of divine secrets had spread throughout the imperial city.

Many people who worshipped Jiang Xiyue were secretly contemptuous. They felt that Lin Mo was about to betray them and was planning to seek refuge with the crown prince.

And at such a time, the crown prince had displayed his strength. With such abundant resources, wouldn't Lin Mo rush to look for the Crown Prince?

"Damn it, father's favoritism is too severe."

Thinking of this, the fourth prince rebuked angrily. He did not believe that the crown prince would be able to obtain so many treasures on his own.

He definitely had the emperor's help. If that was the case, how would these unfavored princes compete for it?

Lin Mo didn't waste too much time. Regardless of how the people below discussed, he started the auction.

And this time, Lin Mo directly set the starting price at six million.

This wasn't a big deal, because the final bid price would definitely exceed six million.

"Eight million."

Suddenly, a loud and clear voice sounded. It was the second Prince's. He had made his move. He had never snatched the star pill before, so he would not give up now.

Rather than slowly raising the bid to eight million, it would be better for him to directly bid eight million.

This way, he would be able to intimidate some small fries and not dare to casually bid.

The entire hall fell silent. Many people were speechless. It seemed that the second prince was determined to win. If they really wanted to bid, it would probably cause the second prince to be unhappy.

"8.1 million."

Suddenly, a voice sounded in the hall and echoed in the surroundings. No one knew who was bidding.

"Who?"

The second Prince said angrily. He opened the door of the private room and walked out. A yellow robe looked behind him, but there was no way to find out who it was.

"8.5 million." His low voice echoed in the auction hall.

"9,000,000..."

The bidding voice continued to reverberate, but no one could detect who was bidding.

Even the people in the hall were looking around, trying to find the person who was bidding.

"It's the person who just bid. He's at the 31st level of the dragonification realm and has some concealment techniques."

Right at this moment, a voice transmission entered Lin Mo's ears, telling him who was bidding.

"White Tiger Marquis?"

Lin Mo was stunned. The person who sent him the voice transmission was the White Tiger Marquis. He had seen through the other party's concealment methods.

However, this was also normal. No matter how powerful one's concealment methods were, it was impossible to hide it from a nirvana stage cultivator.

The only thing that made him curious was why this person dared to offend the second prince in such a manner...

"9.5 million." The second Prince's roar-like voice reverberated in the hall.

"9.6 million."

The voice in the dark showed no signs of stopping. Each time, it only increased the bid by 100,000, the lowest bid.

"10 million."

The second Prince felt his heart bleeding. If he had known earlier, he would have bid against him for a price higher than the previous one of 1 million.

But at this time, the person who had secretly bid also stopped.

10 million. This was basically the limit that the second prince could accept.

If he increased the bid, he probably wouldn't want it.

Seeing this situation, the second prince was suddenly shocked. He turned his head to look at the other side, the private room where he had bid just now.

He had already guessed that perhaps it was the person in the private room who was competing with him, wanting to make him pay a lot of money...

"HMPH."

Although he was angry in his heart, he couldn't say anything in the auction hall. After snorting coldly, he returned to the private room.

"10 million going once."

"10 million going twice."

"10 million going thrice, sold."

As the hammer descended, Lin Mo smiled and nodded. Putting away the star pill, selling one star pill for 10 million was already a great deal.

He just didn't know what the system would return.

[congratulations host for successfully auctioning a spirit rank 7 star pill.]

[successfully triggered 9,000 times the auction return.]

“Congratulations, host, for obtaining a spirit rank 9 high-quality heavenly soul pill.”

The recompense was still a heavenly soul pill, and it was a high-quality one at that. This made Lin Mo very satisfied.

A maid walked up from behind, and up until this point, Lin Mo still hadn't said what the final item was.

There wasn't even a countdown, which made everyone very curious.

What kind of treasure could compare to a star pill?

“The next item is the seventh level spirit rank heavenly reflection fruit. Moreover, the medicinal effect is only one step away from advancing to the eighth level spirit rank.”

“If the star pill is said to raise the soul, then the heavenly reflection fruit is in fact an increase in the physical body.”

“Everyone should know that the physical body is the foundation of everything. Without the physical body, the soul is nothing and will slowly dissipate.”

“And the effect of the heavenly reflection fruit is to greatly increase the strength of the physical body. After consuming it, the dragonification realm will be unimpeded. Even the Nirvana realm and the first few stages of cultivation will be very smooth.”

Lin Mo said with a smile.

If this heavenly reflection fruit was consumed together with the star pill, the effect would be very obvious.

Basically, it could be said to be a direct link to the Nirvana realm...

Just as he finished speaking, not only the second prince, but even the fourth prince walked out and looked at Lin Mo with burning eyes.

“Brother Lin, may I ask how many heavenly reflection fruits are there?”The second prince cupped his fists and asked Lin Mo. .

They did not expect that Lin Mo would have so many good things in this auction. The Great Sun Thunder Art, Star Pill, and heavenly reflection fruit.

Each of them was a treasure with significant effects.

The one who was the most excited was naturally the fourth prince himself.

He had already refined the blood spirit crystal, so he had given up on the star pill. Other than that, he had also bid for the Great Sun Thunder art.

If he could auction the heavenly reflection fruit now, then he would be able to reach the Nirvana stage directly, and there would be no obstacles in his path of cultivation.

“Hehe, there’s no need to explain too much. We already know the effects of the heavenly reflection fruit. Quickly tell us the starting price.”

On the other side, the mysterious person also spoke. He was determined to obtain the heavenly reflection fruit.

“In that case, the starting price for this heavenly reflection fruit should be six million.”

Lin Mo laughed. A palm-sized fruit that was like the blazing sun appeared on the silver plate.

Just by looking at it, everyone felt as though their eyes were being burned.

The second Prince and the fourth Prince’s breathing became heavy. They were determined to obtain the heavenly reflection fruit.

“Eight million.”

In the private room, the mysterious person took the lead and raised the price by two million.

However, this time, the second Prince and the fourth Prince did not have the intention to give up. They started to bid.

This was because they lacked a heavenly reflection fruit. After their souls had been upgraded, the upgrade of their physical bodies was very important.

Therefore, after the two of them made their bids, they quickly raised the price of the heavenly reflection fruit to 10 million.

“11 million.”

At this moment, another voice suddenly sounded out, shocking everyone.

This was because this was another person whose identity was unknown. The voice also reverberated in the surroundings, and no one could recognize him.

At this moment, in the Crown Prince’s private room, his tightly shut eyes suddenly opened as he looked at Li long beside him.

Chapter 360: Li Fire Mystic Wood

“Senior brother Li, who is this person?”The crown prince asked.

“Nirvana stage, I don’t know.”Li Long’s answer was very straightforward.

He could accurately sense those below nirvana stage, but those above Nirvana stage were not something he could calculate.

That required an extremely accurate calculation of the heavens, even reaching the level of the SAINTESS.

“Interesting. I didn’t expect that an auction would actually attract so many mysterious experts.”

He didn't participate in the bidding. He had already consumed the heaven's reflection fruit before, so these were extra items that could be auctioned off.

The other reason was to let Lin Mo know that there were all sorts of benefits to being by his side...

"Lin Mo, Oh Lin Mo, although you killed Jin lie, your talent is enough for me to spare your life. If you submit to me, you'll have all sorts of resources..."

The crown prince muttered to himself and continued to watch the auction.

"12 million."

The people who were still bidding were still the second prince, the fourth prince, and the mysterious person who had auctioned the star pill earlier.

As for the Nirvana stage powerhouse who had bid earlier, he had long since gone silent.

"Second brother, what I lack the most right now is the heavenly reflection fruit. Can you take care of it?"

"When you bought the star pill just now, I didn't snatch it," the fourth Prince said in a deep voice.

That mysterious person didn't seem to have much money left and the number of bids he made decreased.

Only the second prince and the fourth Prince were still fighting over it. Neither of them was willing to give up.

"Fourth brother, you're exaggerating. I yearn for this kind of treasure. I'm afraid I Can't give it up this time."

The second prince smiled. As he spoke, he spoke again, "12.5 million."

"Lin Mo, I'll sell some spirit herbs on the spot. Do You Want Them?"

The fourth Prince walked out and looked at Lin Mo. . For the sake of the heavenly reflection fruit, it didn't matter even if he missed the finale.

"Sure. If the customers on the spot can give a suitable price, I can help you sell them," Lin Mo said with a smile.

He was naturally willing to do business that came to his doorstep.

"Alright, I have a few treasures in my hands, help me sell them."

The fourth Prince threw out some spirit rank spirit herbs, but they were all third or fourth rank spirit herbs.

The quality wasn't good, but the quantity was sufficient...

This left Lin Mo speechless. He had agreed early. How was he going to sell these things? were there so many of them for auction?

"There's no need to bid too high, the price is suitable. You can directly drop the hammer. It's fine even if you lose."

The fourth prince seemed to have seen through Lin Mo's difficulties and said. He had a lot of these treasures.

If it wasn't for the limited storage ring space on his body, he would even be able to take out more.

"That's great. Thank you, Fourth Prince, for helping me."

Lin Mo said with a smile. He set the prices of these treasures one by one and then asked the people in the hall if they were willing to auction them.

As for offending the second prince, that wasn't necessary. This was because the fourth prince had the financial support and also took out some spirit herbs to auction off.

If both of them wanted to cash in, the people in the hall would feel at ease.

After spending a full ten minutes, all of these treasures had been bought off, and Lin Mo had obtained a sufficient amount of treasures.

Furthermore, as they had all been sold at a loss, he had triggered five times the 10,000 fold rebate. A piece of spirit rank 5 meteorite iron, after 10,000 times the rebate, he had obtained a piece of star iron, a spirit rank 9.

"A money-giving boy..."

Lin Mo accepted it with a smile. With the support of funds, the two of them began to bid.

The value of the heavenly reflection fruit rose in a straight line, and in the end, it actually reached 17,000,000.

In the end, the second prince and the fourth Prince had a discussion, and the fourth Prince successfully bid for the heavenly reflection fruit.

As for what price he would have to pay the second prince, that was unknown.

"Congratulations, Your Highness, for successfully bidding for the heaven reflection fruit."

Lin Mo dropped his hammer and gave the order to record the items that the second prince and the fourth Prince had added to the auction.

[congratulations, host, for successfully auctioning the spirit rank 7 heaven reflection fruit]

[successfully triggered the 1,000 times auction return]

[Congratulations, host, for obtaining the spirit rank 8 blazing sun fruit]

With the sky-high price, it was basically impossible for him to get good items back.

However, Lin Mo didn't mind it. A spirit rank 8 blazing sun fruit was much stronger than the heavenly reflection fruit.

"It doesn't have any effect on me. Next time, I'll sell it as the finale."

Lin Mo laughed in his heart as he waved his hand. The maid continued forward, and everyone stared at her intently.

At this moment, Lin Mo still hadn't said what the finale was. This made them very curious.

"Everyone, you've been waiting for a long time. The final item is about to arrive. This is the second-to-last treasure."

Lin Mo said with a smile. The money that they should earn was about to arrive. Everyone present had already placed their bids, especially the fourth prince. The following items basically had nothing to do with him.

"Heavenly Thunder calcined fire wood, spirit rank 8. Although this is wood, it contains the Lightning and fire attribute. It can be used to refine weapons and can also be directly absorbed."

The red cloth was lifted, and Lin Mo introduced it with a faint smile. Everyone in the crowd was extremely shocked.

There were indeed many good items in this auction, causing their eyes to be dazzled.

The Heavenly Thunder Fire Wood appeared, and on the silver plate was a piece of glistening wood. It was half a meter long, and above it faintly flickered with the undulations of lightning.

When the crown prince had just delivered this level of treasure, he had been shocked, unable to believe it.

The Heavenly Thunder fire calcining wood could be used to refine weapons, and it could be used to refine a spiritual grade level 8 magic tool.

If some other treasures were added, it might be able to forge a spiritual grade level 9 magic tool.

"Alright, the Heavenly Thunder Fire calcining wood is not very versatile, but it is still priceless. The starting price is six million middle-grade spirit stones."

The auction hammer had just dropped when the second prince directly raised the price, giving a shock to those who wanted to bid.

"Ten million."

Raising the bid by four million in one go. Such a grand scene was not unheard of in the auction house, but it was definitely rare.

"Your Highness, this old subject covets this heavenly thunder calcined fire wood. Please Don't blame me."

In another private room, an old man walked out. His hair was white and his body was hunched, but the aura on his body was absolutely powerful.

"So it's the Prince of Zhennan. You are old and respected. I don't dare to blame you."

"But I still don't want to give up on this heavenly thunder calcined fire wood."

The second prince said politely and then shouted, "11 million."

"12 million," the old man called the Prince of Zhennan said with an indifferent expression, as if this 12 million had nothing to do with him.

In the end, the second prince continued to bid, but the southern King's wealth was very strong. He successfully bought the Heavenly Thunder Fire Wood at a high price of 16 million.

"Thank you, second prince, for your help."

The southern king bowed and returned to his private room.

Lin Mo dropped the auction hammer and congratulated him. Then, he waited for the system's rebate.

[congratulations, host, for successfully auctioning a spirit rank rank 8 Heavenly Thunder Fire Wood]

[successfully triggering the 5,000 times rebate]

[Congratulations, host, for obtaining the half-step Earth Rank Mythical Fire Wood -RSB-

Mythical Fire Wood was a half-step earth rank weapon forging material, and only the fire attribute was within it.

This made Lin Mo extremely excited.

The desolation ancient sword could be upgraded once again. As long as the mythical fire wood was fused into it, it could at least be upgraded to the spirit rank 9...

"Perfect, crown prince, you're really my lucky star..."

Lin Mo muttered to himself. However, among the treasures that the Crown Prince and the Divine Secrets Sacred Land had brought, this heavenly thunder calcined wood was already of the highest quality.

It was originally defined by Huixiang as the finale.

However, Lin Mo changed his mind Midway and planned to give a huge gift as a return to the crown prince.

"I originally wanted to sell the heavenly lightning fire calcining wood for a rebate, but since I can't sell it now, I'll sell it to you."

Lin Mo pondered for a moment before finally nodding his head.

"The finale item that everyone has been looking forward to is finally about to appear. Everyone has been waiting for a long time. The next item to be auctioned is a spirit rank 9 spirit rank pill..."

He smiled mysteriously, and no maidservants walked up from behind him. Lin Mo took out a silver plate and took out a heavenly soul pill that he had obtained from auctioning the star pill from the system space.

"A spirit rank 9 heavenly soul pill. Its effect is the same as the star pill. However, its medicinal effect is three times that of the Star Pill..."

When these words were said, the entire crowd was shocked. Everyone looked at Lin Mo in disbelief.

Was this true? The effect of the three times star pill?

If that was the case, then wouldn't the people who were competing for the star pill have suffered a huge loss.

"Bastard, what do you mean? Did you do it on Purpose?"

The person who had auctioned the star pill earlier was the fourth prince and a mysterious person.

That person had an angry expression on his face. He had actually walked out and attracted everyone's attention.

This was especially so for the fourth prince. His eyes were filled with fury as he wanted to see who this person was.

However, he wore a bamboo hat on his head, so no one could see his appearance. In fact, the aura on his body was very strange, making it difficult for others to detect him.

"What do you mean on purpose? This friend, Please Don't disturb the auction."

Lin Mo said indifferently. If it weren't for the fact that he had two heavenly soul pills, he wouldn't even want to take them out for auction.

"The finale is the Heavenly Soul Pill. Why didn't you say it just now?" That person said coldly.

If he had known that the finale was the Heavenly Soul Pill, he definitely wouldn't have asked for the star pill. Instead, he would have left behind his financial resources to buy the Last Heavenly Soul Pill.

"The Heavenly Soul Pill is the Heavenly Soul Pill, while the star pill is the star pill. The two don't have any mutual aid effects. Why would I say that?"

"Could it be that because their effects are the same, they can't be sold?" Lin Mo said indifferently.

That's right, everyone finally reacted. There wasn't any connection between the two, so why would they say that.

It wasn't like they couldn't be auctioned just because their effects were the same.

"Alright, you win. How much is the starting price?" The person said coldly. However, Lin Mo could still feel an inexplicable killing intent emanating from him.

"You want to kill me just like that?"

Lin Mo was taken aback. wasn't this person's personality a little too extreme? It was understandable that he was angry, but for him to directly want to kill him was a little too much...

"The starting price is 10,000,000 middle-grade spirit stones. Each increment must not be lower than 500,000 middle-grade spirit stones."

In any case, he didn't expect these people to increase the bid much. This heavenly soul pill basically belonged to the crown prince.

"Good stuff. Senior brother Li, can you calculate it?"

In the Crown Prince's private room, the crown prince looked at Li Long and asked.

When Lin Mo said that the Heavenly Thunder calcining wood wasn't the last item, he knew that there would definitely be a great gift in the end.

However, he didn't expect it to be so big. A Spirit Rank 9 heavenly soul pill, even the Imperial Palace's Alchemist couldn't refine it.

It was evident how precious this kind of spiritual pill was.

Li Long pondered for a moment, and his body emitted a strange light. Finally, he opened his eyes and said, "I can't calculate it. I only know that this heavenly soul pill has just been out of the furnace not long ago..."

This was the only piece of information, and there was nothing else.

However, what he needed to worry about now was whether he should buy it or not...

He was very interested in the effects of the Heavenly Soul Pill. It was very helpful to him, no less than the blood spirit crystal.

However, what he didn't understand was where Jiang Xiyue got such a precious elixir and was willing to sell it...

"It seems that we have to reevaluate the eighth princess. She's the one who hid it the most..."

Li Long said. After thinking for a short while, he finally understood something.

"Let's buy it first."

"Eleven million."

The crown prince's bid had exceeded the expectations of many people. wasn't it said that the auctioned items this time were all taken out by the Crown Prince.

What was he doing? Raising the price? That wasn't the first time he had bid.

On the auction stage, in order to stimulate the crowd, Lin Mo didn't take any protective measures after taking out the heavenly soul pill.

He didn't even put in the simplest jade bottle, allowing it to be exposed to the air.

As time passed, the aura of the heavenly soul pill spread throughout the auction stage. Everyone took a sniff, feeling refreshed.

Everyone's soul power started to stir, as if it was about to rise.

Almost everyone had a subconscious thought, 'buy it, I must buy it.'

The Heavenly Soul Pill was definitely worth more than this price. For this, even if they had to offend the crown prince, they wouldn't hesitate.

Even Lin Mo was slightly shocked. He was the closest to the Heavenly Soul Pill, so he received the greatest benefits.

His soul power slightly increased, and he only took a whiff of the fragrance...

With such an unforeseen event, the people in the auction house became excited and eager.

“12 million.”

The mysterious man who had questioned Lin Mo just now made a bid. He ignored the crown prince’s price and continued to make his bid.

His mysterious identity had always been a mystery in the eyes of everyone.

Now that he dared to offend the crown prince, this made everyone even more curious.

“13 million.”

Someone Else made another bid. It was the southern town king. He could not resist the temptation of the Heavenly Soul Pill.

In front of the most precious treasure, unless the emperor came personally, the crown prince alone would not be able to make him back down.

“15 million.”

The crown prince continued to bid, and the three of them began to fight over it. No one was willing to give up on the Heavenly Soul Pill.

“16 million.”

The mysterious man called out the price, but in the next moment, he was drowned out by the southern king’s voice, “17 million.”

He was already old, and there was basically no chance for his strength to improve, unless there was some kind of opportunity.

And right now, the Heavenly Soul Pill was an opportunity. It could improve his soul, and he might even be able to improve his physical cultivation.

This way, his lifespan would increase by a few hundred years.

“18 million.”

“19 million.”

“19.5 million.”

At the end of the bid, the crown prince was the first to give up. Lin Mo did not expect that the crown prince would not like this gift?

“If you don’t like it, you should have said so earlier. If you had known earlier, you could have changed it...”

Lin Mo was filled with regret. Treasures that could improve one’s soul were relatively rare. He was originally reluctant to sell them.

But who would have thought that the crown prince would be the first to give up on the treasures he had prepared for the crown prince...

“Hehe, there are truly talented people emerging from every generation. Young friend, you aren’t young, and your spirit isn’t small. Which faction did you come from?”

The prince of Zhennan laughed lightly. At this moment, the price had already reached 20 million, and it was precisely the price that the mysterious man had placed.

Everyone in the hall was very curious and wanted to know the mysterious identity of this person.

“Prince Zhennan must be joking. A rogue cultivator. If it weren’t for the auction and a fair competition, junior wouldn’t dare to compete with Senior...”

The man said, cleverly saying that this was a fair competition and leaving his identity aside.

“That’s true. However, the heavenly soul pill is precious, and I don’t want to miss it.”
