

Trillion Times 371

Chapter 371: Ji Zixiao's Letter of Challenge

[Congratulations, host, for completing the auction process. Tier 31 Dragon Transformation Realm servant.]

[This auction has triggered a 9,000-times-rebate. Due to the host's malicious damage to the auction item during the auction process, the return treasure will also be damaged.]

[Congratulations, host, for obtaining an incomplete origin spirit puppet with the strength of a fifth sky of the Nirvana Realm.]

Lin Mo curled his lips. He still felt a little regretful when he heard the system's voice.

If he had known earlier, he wouldn't have been so ruthless. He also didn't know what kind of flaw this incomplete puppet had. It would definitely be destroyed after being used once...

His consciousness entered the system space and Lin Mo looked at the origin spirit puppet that he had just obtained.

However, he discovered that it was only a ball of faint golden light. The spiritual energy within it wasn't small, but it was a little turbid.

"System, this 'incomplete' of yours is too serious..."

Lin Mo was speechless. He recognized that this was the origin of the origin soulspirit puppet.

However, this ball of origin energy before his eyes had no effect at all. Because without a carrier, no matter how powerful the origin energy was, it would lose its effect.

"Wait, I already have a origin spirit puppet..."

Lin Mo suddenly recalled that he still had a Tier 31 of the Dragon Transformation Realm origin spirit puppet.

The two of them were of the same origin, so he might be able to withstand it...

With the mentality of giving it a try, Lin Mo kept the origin soul puppet into the system space and allowed the two to fuse.

"Crack..."

The fusion had just begun when a crisp sound was heard.

One could see that the indestructible body of the origin spirit puppet had actually cracked open a crack due to this ball of powerful origin energy.

"It can't be..."

Lin Mo frowned. If that was really the case, then he really didn't know what he would do.

“Crack...”

The crack continued to expand. In the end, Lin Mo lost his confidence and didn't want to look at it anymore.

This time, he had lost both his wife and his soldiers. He didn't get any benefits and even destroyed the origin spirit puppet...

When he thought about having a fifth sky of the Nirvana stage puppet, Lin Mo felt a wave of regret in his heart...

“I'm really... Regretful...”

At this moment, the surrounding people were still looking at Lin Mo. When they saw the complicated expression on his face, they were at a loss.

“Lin Mo, why aren't you letting go of fellow Daoist Zhao Ming?” The crown prince said.

Putting aside Lin Mo's expression, it was better to save Zhao Ming first.

“Alright.” Lin Mo nodded and looked at Zhao Ming.

“Who did you receive benefits from? Who wants to kill me? Tell me and I'll let you off.”

He couldn't count on the puppet anymore. Right now, he wanted to know who wanted to kill him in the dark. It would be easier for him to determine.

“That's impossible, don't even think about it...”

Zhao Ming laughed coldly. The crown prince was here, and Li Long was present. He was certain that Lin Mo wouldn't dare to go overboard.

“Argh...”

Just as he finished speaking, Zhao Ming let out a blood-curdling scream. Everyone present was shocked. Even the crown prince and Li Long didn't dare to believe it.

“You talk too much nonsense. I can't kill you, but I can still cripple you...”

Lin Mo slowly pulled out the Ancient Sword of Desolation from Zhao Ming's Dantian. However, Zhao Ming's powerful cultivation had also completely dissipated.

His Dantian had been destroyed. Even if he relied on elixirs to recover in the future, it would still leave a huge wound.

This kind of injury would be difficult to recover unless one encountered a rare treasure.

“You... How dare you...”

Zhao Ming said with a trembling voice. He didn't dare to imagine that the spiritual energy that he had painstakingly cultivated would be destroyed just like that...

“Don’t talk to me about not stopping until one of us is dead. You people who think that you have a high position, when you accepted the mission to kill me, wouldn’t we have already started fighting until one of us is dead?”

Lin Mo sneered. Since they were already enemies, there was no need to show mercy. If he could kill them, he would definitely kill them.

Ignoring the gazes of Li Long and the crown prince, Lin Mo kicked Zhao Ming away and found a pergola to sit in.

The reason why he dared to do this was because the system’s voice sounded in his mind...

“The damaged origin spirit puppet has lost its battle consciousness and is damaged internally. However, its soul can enter and control it, and its strength can be raised to the third sky of the Nirvana stage.”

That’s right. Just now, this sentence echoed in Lin Mo’s mind.

This was the reason why he dared to destroy Zhao Ming’s confidence.

Although the origin spirit puppet was destroyed, it had fused with the origin energy. Although it seemed like a failure, it had succeeded.

Moreover, to him, this wasn’t just raising his strength to the third sky of the Nirvana realm.

Don’t forget, the trump card he had in his possession, the heaven-withering pill, and the incomplete technique of an ancient divine beast.

Once he used these, he wouldn’t be afraid even if he met someone at the fifth sky of the Nirvana Realm, and he could even counter-attack.

With such a trump card, although he wouldn’t be able to run amok in the Imperial Palace, he wouldn’t be afraid. If he couldn’t win, he could still escape.

Moreover, now that the origin spirit puppet was destroyed beyond recognition, no one would be able to recognize his identity...

“Lin Mo, do you know how hard it is to break through? If you don’t leave a trace, it will make things difficult for many people. Even geniuses will die young.”

Li long looked at Zhao Ming’s injuries and said with a cold expression.

His voice wasn’t loud, but it carried a hint of threat.

“You’re right. It’s common for geniuses to die young.” Lin Mo said with a smile. There wasn’t the slightest bit of fear in his voice.

“Enough, don’t discuss this matter anymore...”

The crown prince roared angrily. Although his face was expressionless, his eyes were filled with killing intent.

Right now, he was feeling a little regretful. Why did he have to hold this youth gathering? Not only was his relationship with Lin Mo on the verge of collapse, there would also be elders from the Divine Secrets Holy Land who would have objections towards him...

"Since the crown prince has said so, then I won't mention it." Lin Mo said with a smile. He raised the wine cup at the side and calmly drank the wine...

The crown prince had arrived, and the gathering had already begun.

However, after such a commotion, the gathering had obviously changed. Everyone was secretly discussing Lin Mo's matter.

As they were all secretly transmitting their voices, this also caused the gathering to become much quieter.

"Hey, you dare to offend the Divine Secrets Sacred Land like this. Do you really have a trump card, or are you just acting like a brave man?"

Lin Mo drank alone, and no one dared to come over and sit at the same table with him.

However, a woman quickly walked over and sat opposite Lin Mo as she asked.

This person was Ji Hong. She had met Lin Mo a few times before. They were not enemies, but they could not be considered close either.

"Others fear me like tigers, leopards, and wolves. How dare you come here?" Lin Mo asked with a smile.

"Tch, forget it if you don't want to say it. I'm here to challenge you."

Ji Hong pursed her lips and dismissed the idea of asking for more information.

"Challenge?" Lin Mo was stunned. Could it be that Ji Hong wanted to challenge him?

It didn't make sense. The gap between the two was very obvious, be it in terms of ranking or strength level.

"It's not me. It's my brother, the Thunder Sacred Land's holy son, Ji Zixiao."

Ji Hong spoke in a low voice, but all the cultivators present could hear their conversation.

When they heard that Ji Zixiao had asked his sister to challenge Lin Mo, they were all extremely curious and looked over.

"Don't misunderstand. My brother is a battle maniac. After hearing about your deeds, he longed for a fight, a simple fight."

Ji Hong waved her hand and explained. Everyone understood.

They had long heard of Ji Zixiao's title of battle maniac and cultivation maniac.

"Alright, I'll accept it. I'll accept the challenge when your brother comes to the imperial city." Lin Mo nodded his head. He also wanted to see Ji Zixiao's strength.

After saying this, he got up and prepared to leave.

Since the gathering had come to this point, it was about time to end. After all, no one had expected the main event to appear at the beginning...

Chapter 372: Fight Against a Nirvana Realm Powerhouse

On the way back, Lin Mo strolled around and occasionally entered some small vendors to look for treasures.

However, he didn't find anything that could be picked up. Even if there was really a treasure, it was clearly marked with a price.

"It's boring. Let's go back."

Lin Mo said indifferently and didn't stay any longer. He quickly disappeared on the street.

"Eh, isn't that Lin Mo from the top ten? I heard that the crown prince is holding a youth gathering. Why didn't he go?" Someone was curious.

"Don't say anymore. It's just a rumor. The gathering ended on bad terms. Many geniuses have left." Some people gathered together and whispered.

At the entrance of Yue Xuan, Lin Mo walked in. His guarded heart finally relaxed.

The layout of Yue Xuan was very good. There were many courtyards and pavilions everywhere. Lin Mo liked to sit alone in them.

Just as he came to a courtyard, Lin Mo felt that something was wrong.

He sensed a dangerous aura, he spread out his spiritual sense and found that someone had followed him into Yue Xuan.

He was not afraid of this. He had some life-saving cards on him. Even if a Nirvana Realm powerhouse came, he was confident that he could kill him.

Of course, he also knew that this was Jiang Xiyue's territory. If the matter was blown out of proportion, perhaps the emperor would make a move.

It was best if he could secretly kill the offender without alerting anyone.

This was the best ending.

A breeze blew in the pavilion. A maid brought a flask of wine and poured wine for him. Threads of spiritual energy appeared around him, and a formation was operating quietly.

"Leave."

Lin Mo raised his wine cup and told the maid to leave. He used his spiritual sense to observe his surroundings.

“Hiding your head and showing your tail. Do you think I won’t notice if you set up a formation quietly?” Lin Mo wasn’t afraid and spoke calmly.

“As expected of someone who can enter the ranking board. It seems that it will take some effort to kill you.” The walls of the small courtyard twisted, and a middle-aged man slowly walked down with a folding fan in his hand.

The folding fan was opened and gently flapped.

Such an action could be said to be unrestrained. He was very much like a scholar.

“A person from the Divine Secrets Holy Land, or a prince, or perhaps a crown prince?” Lin Mo asked indifferently.

“Oh?” That scholar was stunned and looked at Lin Mo.

Then, he smiled and said, “It seems that you have offended a lot of people. You don’t even know who you are about to die in the hands of...”

“If it’s not someone from these three factions, then who is it? Someone from the Secret Ghost Sect?” Lin Mo was a little puzzled.

He had seen the scholarly man’s slight astonishment just now. It didn’t seem like he was faking it. However, could the secret ghost sect come to the Imperial City to assassinate him?

Thinking of this, he couldn’t help but clench his fists lightly, ready to fight at any time.

“Don’t be nervous. I won’t kill you. I just need you to come with me,” The other party said unhurriedly.

“Don’t try to resist. This place has already been isolated by my formation. You can’t control Yue Xuan’s formation. If you resist stubbornly, the final result won’t be what you and I want to see.”

His strength was very powerful. It was the strength of the first sky of the Nirvana Realm.

Lin Mo was only at Tier 29 of the Dragon Transformation Realm. His realm was far behind, so he wasn’t in a hurry to make a move.

Even if Lin Mo resisted, it was just a waste of time in his eyes.

“You think you’re so great, do you really think you can take me away?” Lin Mo looked at this person from the corner of his eye.

A Nirvana Realm powerhouse being looked down upon like this, especially by a junior, instantly made him furious.

Especially this junior, who was an ant in his eyes, an ant that he could crush to death with one hand...

“Then I’ll teach you a lesson first.”

He directly made his move, opening his mouth and spitting out a ball of flames that contained the Dao principles of flames.

The scorching heat swept through the entire courtyard, but it was blocked by the formation. No fluctuations were leaked out.

The entire courtyard's temperature rose because of his attack.

Lin Mo was a little surprised. He didn't expect this fellow's strength to be so powerful. The Dao he comprehended was even denser than that of an ordinary Nirvana Realm expert.

The moment he made his move, he displayed unparalleled strength.

The flames on his back covered the Kun Peng Wings. He flapped them lightly and swiftly dodged because this was the flames of the Dao that the other party had comprehended. He couldn't touch it.

The reason why the Nirvana Realm was able to suppress the Dragon Transformation Realm was because he had started to come into contact with Dao techniques. He was no longer restricted by techniques.

Therefore, the increase in his battle prowess could be said to be quite terrifying. At this stage, it was no longer so easy to cross realms to battle.

To be able to enter the Nirvana Realm, one could be considered an expert in the entire Yanhuang Divine dynasty. No matter where he was, he would be respected.

Even in the Imperial City, his status was also high...

Some of the young geniuses with great talent and combat strength could even enter the imperial palace and become officials.

"Boom!" Lin Mo dodged the attack of the Dao Fire. The entire small courtyard was burned. The lake water below was directly evaporated, and the soil turned into magma.

"So powerful. Just the Dao technique I comprehended when I entered the Nirvana Realm has far surpassed mine." Lin Mo exclaimed in his heart.

During the period of entering the Nirvana Realm, there would be a hint of enlightenment, and one would be able to feel the Great Dao of Heaven and earth, and gain a lot of benefits.

Although it was only for an instant, it was enough to be comparable to tens of years of bitter cultivation for others.

"Its power is not bad, but you don't seem to be able to control the essence well. Do you want me to teach you?" Lin Mo ridiculed.

As he spoke, a ball of Dao fire lit up in his hand. Although it was not as powerful, it still belonged to the Dao fire category.

These words instantly caused the middle-aged man's face to become gloomy. He was a Nirvana Realm powerhouse.

At this moment, he had already lost his status by coming to capture a junior. Now, he was being ridiculed by the other party. He could not endure it anymore.

"You're courting death."

He waved the folding fan in his hand. Numerous symbols flickered and his entire body pounced towards Lin Mo.

Flames filled the sky behind him. This was the use of Dao fire. He wanted to let Lin Mo know what true Dao fire was.

He didn't believe that a junior who hadn't reached the Nirvana Realm would be able to catch up to him in the use of Dao fire.

Logically speaking, he should have crushed Lin mo easily.

“So what if your talent is strong? I'll let you see what a true crushing blow is.”

Faced with this attack, Lin Mo did not dodge. His eyes were burning with excitement.

He raised his hand and a vermilion bird jumped in his palm. The vermilion bird divine flame spread out and enveloped his entire body.

At the same time, he unleashed the Devouring God Body's domain. The flame spread in the domain and evolved into Vermillion Bird symbols.

Just as the God Devouring Body was unleashed, a suction force spread out and devoured the surrounding spiritual energy.

Even some of the attacking Dao Flames were devoured.

The middle-aged man was shocked. Even though he knew that Lin Mo was extraordinary, he did not expect him to be so terrifying.

“This is... The flames of the archaic Vermillion Bird, and... The God Devouring Body?”

His eyes were filled with disbelief as he stared at Lin Mo. when he saw the lifelike vermilion bird behind him, a trace of fear surged from the bottom of his heart.

How could such a small place have the inheritance of an immemorial vermilion bird? Moreover, it could even give birth to a God Devouring Body...

“This won't do. Even if I can't capture it alive, I have to kill it.”

The middle-aged man recovered from his shock just now. He used all the Dao fire in his body to suppress Lin Mo.

This was a technique that Nirvana Realm experts often used to deal with people who were weaker than them. They could win with an overwhelming advantage.

Chapter 373: Use All Your Trump Cards

However, he had miscalculated this time. The God Devouring Body was too extraordinary, allowing Lin Mo to start comprehending the Dao principles a long time ago.

Although it was still not comparable to the Nirvana Realm, it was still enough to resist him.

In addition, what he used was the archaic divine beast Vermilion Bird's technique. Although it was incomplete, it was still one of the heaven grade martial arts.

"Chi!"

The Vermilion Bird Divine Flame formed the Vermilion Bird's shadow. Numerous symbols flickered and blocked the opponent's Dao flames.

The middle-aged man was shocked. Seeing that he couldn't cause any harm to Lin Mo, he made up his mind. Divine light flickered on the folding fan, causing the entire space to tremble.

That folding fan was also a treasure. It was at the 9th tier of the spirit grade. A treasure of this rank wasn't something that an unaffiliated cultivator could afford.

Therefore, there must be a large faction behind this person. However, it was unknown which faction it belonged to.

A scorching light flashed, as if a volcano had erupted. The folding fan was like a blazing sun, suppressing the Vermilion Bird. At the same time, it wanted to completely suppress Lin Mo.

This was an attack launched by a Nirvana Realm expert with a tier 9 spirit grade treasure. Under normal circumstances, even an expert of the same level would have to be on guard.

Lin Mo instantly felt the pressure. A purple light flashed beneath his feet and the Qilin pattern appeared.

The purple divine light blossomed, and with the support, it blocked the Dao fire.

His eyes flickered as he focused on comprehending this battle. The first exchange with a Nirvana Realm expert had benefited him greatly.

Hence, he didn't use the origin spirit puppet to fight at the first moment. He decided to use this person to temper himself and see how strong he was under full strength.

He didn't use the Qilin steps at full strength, so he didn't reveal much of his aura. Furthermore, Lin Mo didn't intend to let the other party know about it.

"Rumble."

The flames erupted, creating a violent explosion. The Vermilion Bird Divine Flame emitted a divine light, containing a wisp of purple divine light as it fiercely smashed into the middle-aged man's shoulder.

In an instant, half of his body was blasted into a bloody mess, revealing his bones.

As for the folding fan in his right hand, it had long been sent flying by the powerful air blast and fell not far away.

"The archaic Vermilion Bird's spell is actually so terrifying..."

He was extremely shocked. Logically speaking, he should have won with an overwhelming advantage. Why would it be like this?

Moreover, the youth in front of him was only at Tier 29 of the Dragon Transformation Realm.

It was hard to imagine that if Lin Mo was at Tier 31 Dragon Transformation Realm, he would have been heavily injured by that attack just now.

Fighting across ranks, this was a true genius...

Lin Mo's body moved slightly as he took the folding fan. He used the God Devouring Body's domain to restrict his opponent's combat strength.

Ever since he used the Vermillion Bird technique and Qilin technique, he had no intention of letting his opponent leave.

No matter what, he had to silence him.

At the same time, his heart was extremely excited, and his body was trembling uncontrollably due to his excitement.

Was this a martial art that was comparable to the heaven rank? It was an incomplete technique from an immemorial divine beast, and it was able to unleash such power with just a single move.

This made him pleasantly surprised and excited.

"As expected of the Nirvana Realm. If you were even one rank lower, you will die..."

Lin Mo's spiritual sense was sharp, and he could sense that the other party was only injured, but he still had the strength to fight.

"This won't do. The formation that he set up is about to be broken..."

Lin Mo was taken aback once more, and he dispelled the thought of continuing the battle. The formation that this fellow had set up in the small courtyard had already started to crack after the explosion.

If he were to continue fighting, the commotion he would cause would only grow larger and larger. It was highly likely that he would attract the attention of Yue Xuan's experts.

Even though he trusted the person that Jiang Xiyue had chosen, he still had to take precautions.

A light flashed in front of Lin Mo, and an unfamiliar figure appeared. It was a puppet wearing full-body armor. Just based on its aura, it was impossible to tell if it was a puppet or a living creature.

He extended his spiritual sense, and in the next moment, the origin spirit puppet appeared with a light and absorbed his spiritual sense into its body.

At this moment, he had already established a connection with the origin spirit puppet and was able to control it.

Meanwhile, his body was sitting cross-legged in mid-air, not moving at all.

"With my current strength, the puppet can't be too far away from my physical body, and I can't fight for too long..."

Lin Mo discovered some flaws. In his current state, he could at most last for a day.

Once the time was up, his soul had to return, or the spiritual energy in his physical body would dissipate.

“Chi!”

A sword light flashed, and the middle-aged man stood up, holding a sharp sword in his hand.

He charged over, only to see an unfamiliar voice.

Thinking that it was the reinforcements, he did not retreat at all and charged towards Lin Mo, who was sitting cross-legged.

However, in the next moment, Lin Mo controlled the origin spirit puppet to raise its hand, and with a finger like a sword, it lightly slashed across.

The middle-aged man was greatly shocked and somewhat in disbelief. A line of blood appeared between his brows, and his consciousness gradually became dim.

It was just a single attack, but the speed was too fast. It was so fast that he couldn't react in time.

By the time he understood what had happened, his life had already been lost. A Nirvana Realm powerhouse had died just like that.

Lin Mo withdrew his spiritual sense from the original spirit puppet's body.

He began to clean the battlefield and checked the relics on this person's body. He found a lot of good things.

“This person's identity is extraordinary. He has three 8th tier spirit grade magic tools. When did I offend such a faction?” Lin Mo muttered to himself.

He did not find anything related to identity on this person's body. There were only a lot of heavenly and earthly treasures.

“Forget it. I'll deal with whatever comes my way. Who cares?”

After racking his brains to no avail, Lin Mo had no choice but to give up. Very quickly, he cleaned up the traces of the battle in the small courtyard and removed the formation.

When the formation was opened, Yue Xuan trembled and the guest elders rushed over one after another, sensing the aura of this place.

“Lord owner, what are you doing?”

The servant girl who had been waiting outside the small courtyard was shocked. She had been guarding this place the entire time, so why was there such a huge change in the small courtyard?

The lake water dried up, and all the buildings were destroyed, just like a volcano erupting...

“It's nothing. I found something during my cultivation, so I stretched my limbs. Get someone to clean it up. Also, send out an invitation, and the auction will be held in three days.”

Lin Mo waved his hand and said, sending away some of the guest elders who had come to check on him.

At the same time, in a restaurant across from Yue Xuan.

Li Long and a few mysterious people were sitting at a table. On the table, there was a jade talisman. The Talisman was shining with spiritual light, but it shattered without any warning.

Seeing this situation, Li Long suddenly sat up, his eyes filled with disbelief.

He knew what this broken jade talisman meant. A Nirvana Realm powerhouse who went to capture Lin Mo had already been killed.

Moreover, according to the information from Yue Xuan's spies, Lin Mo was only discovered by a few guest elders after the battle ended.

Li Long's face was gloomy and he couldn't calm down at all. He stared at the broken jade talisman and couldn't say anything.

The other few mysterious people also had anger on their faces. They thought that they were only capturing a junior, but they didn't expect that they would actually lose a Nirvana Realm powerhouse.

This was simply unimaginable. How did Lin Mo do it?

"Just now, there was another piece of news. Three days later, the Yue Xuan auction house will hold an auction. I reckon that the finale will be that heavenly fire fan."

One of them opened his mouth. They were still clear about what their companions had.

Chapter 374: The Formation Is Activated

"What should we do next? Kill our comrade and auction off his treasures. This is equivalent to humiliation."

A middle-aged man said viciously. He couldn't sit still any longer and wanted to make a move to flatten Yue Xuan.

"Don't be rash. Let's not talk about the fact that you can't break Yue Xuan's formation. Even if you can break it, there are true experts in the Purple Moon Palace. All of you have to stay behind."

Li Long stepped out to stop them, not allowing these people to step out.

"Then what do you think we should do? If we cooperate with you, we won't gain anything, but we'll lose one person. You have to give us an explanation."

One of them stared at Li Long, his gaze vicious.

"Let's wait. In ten days, the capital's Dao conference's primary selection will begin. At that time, it won't be too late to act," Li Long said.

No matter what, one had to be extremely careful when making a move in the imperial city. However, according to the information the Crown Prince received, the first selection would be held in a dangerous place.

At this moment, in Yue Xuan, Lin Mo was calm and unruffled.

As for the servants, they were busy organizing and purchasing the items for auction.

Ever since Lin Mo's arrival, although Yue Xuan's auction had begun at irregular intervals, every time it was held, many good treasures would appear.

Hence, as soon as the news of the auction was sent out, many people came forward with treasures, intending to compete for the treasures that were about to be auctioned off.

Within three days, Yue Xuan was bustling with activity.

What surprised Lin Mo was that ever since that day, no one had come to find trouble with him.

This made him feel somewhat helpless. He still wanted to see who would reveal their identity among the people who would come later...

Soon, three days had passed. The expected attack still had not arrived. On the contrary, the auction was about to begin.

At the entrance of Yue Xuan, the flow of people was extremely large. Quite a number of maids and guards were extremely busy as they invited the distinguished guests into Yue Xuan one by one.

Only when night had completely fallen did the people participating in the auction finally complete their arrangements.

Fortunately, Yue Xuan was large enough to accommodate these people.

"Rumble."

The formation was activated. Lin Mo appeared inside Yue Xuan and activated Yue Xuan's protective formation to prevent anyone from sabotaging the auction.

When a spirit rank formation was activated, even a Nirvana Realm powerhouse wouldn't dare to cause trouble.

This made Hui Xiang, who was leading a team of guards to maintain order, stunned for a moment. Yue Xuan's formation hadn't been activated for a long time.

Why would the auctioneer activate it completely today?

It wasn't just him. The guests participating in the auction had the same thoughts. They didn't understand why Lin Mo would do this.

...

At this moment, on the auction stage, Lin Mo walked out after activating the array formation, causing the crowd below to discuss animatedly.

Many gazes turned towards Lin Mo on the stage.

All of them were very curious about what kind of treasure Lin Mo would bring to them today.

In the private room, the crown prince arrived early. He didn't meet Lin Mo, nor did he ask about the specific treasure being auctioned.

In reality, he had come here to see the attitude of the Divine Secrets Holy Land.

If there was still a chance for both sides to cooperate, he would definitely not spare any effort to rope them in.

However, if they became enemies, then he could only give up on Lin Mo.

The relationship that they had painstakingly built up would be shattered because of this.

Right next to the crown prince's room were the people from the Divine Secrets Holy Land. It wasn't just Li Long, there were also a few mysterious people. They were dressed in black robes and had their faces covered, making it difficult for others to see who they were.

They all had their own thoughts, and they were all different.

Under such a strange atmosphere, Lin Mo, who was on stage, adjusted his state and spoke.

"Thank you all for being able to participate in tonight's auction. Tonight's auction will still be hosted by me."

Lin Mo smiled faintly, and the auction hall instantly quieted down.

Numerous pairs of eyes looked at Lin Mo, and then at the handmaidens behind him. Each of them held a silver plate and lined up, waiting for the auction to begin.

Seeing the gazes directed at everyone, Lin Mo knocked on the auction hammer and said, "There are a total of 73 auction items in this auction. Now, the auction begins. Let's invite the first treasure to appear."

As soon as he finished speaking, a maid from behind walked up with a silver plate.

The eyes of everyone below the stage were burning.

Lin Mo lifted the red cloth, and a spirit pill emitting a terrifying aura appeared in front of everyone.

"The first item up for auction is a 3rd tier spirit grade earth terminus pill. The main ingredient is produced from a dangerous place thirty thousand miles south of the Imperial City, and contains cold earth terminus."

A spirit pill refined from this material had a great effect on poisons such as fire poison. In addition, fire and thunder attribute experts who cultivated to the state of Qi deviation could also consume this spirit pill to ensure their safety.

However, during the process of consuming the Earth Fiend Pill, the Cold Earth Fiend would show strange movements and would probably harm the person who consumed it.

Therefore, the final grade of this Earth Fiend Pill could only be set at the third level of the spirit level.

In fact, its effect should be able to reach the fourth level of the spirit level.

“That’s right, I’m of the fire attribute. I must get this spirit pill, it’s too useful for me.”

“Fellow Daoist, you’re not the only one who wants it. Look around, there are a lot of people competing with you.”

“...”

The discussion continued for a while before it ended. Lin Mo dropped the hammer and said, “Everyone, the starting bid for the Third Rank Spirit Rank Earth Fiend Pill is 400,000 mid-grade spirit stones. Each increment must not be less than 10,000.”

Although the starting bid was 400,000, the crowd below was still excited.

“410,000!”

“450,000 mid-grade spirit stones!”

“I bid 480,000 mid-grade spirit stones! I must buy this demonic Earth Pill!”

“...”

The crowd in the main hall was extremely excited. Just the start of the auction had already made everyone extremely excited.

The demonic earth pill could be used to cultivate, fight with others, or go to some dangerous places.

If one accidentally went berserk during the process of cultivation, then no matter how many spirit stones were spent, it wouldn’t be able to save him.

The demonic earth pill could be saved. Although it was limited by the cultivation attribute, it couldn’t stop everyone’s enthusiasm.

“I offer 550,000. Let’s see who else can compete with me.”

“600,000. Everyone, I am the leader of the Sky Wolf mercenary group. Please give me face and thank me.”

“A mere Sirius mercenary group is nothing. I will bid 650,000. who dares to raise the price?”

The bidding was still hot. Lin Mo smiled and did not say anything as he watched the crowd below compete.

At the same time.

In the private room in front, the people from the Divine Secrets Sacred Land wanted to rush up and kill Lin Mo. .

“I can’t take it anymore. Fifth brother has been killed and his treasure is still being auctioned. Do you guys still want to watch?”

A black-robed man said angrily. How could he bear to see his companion’s treasures being openly taken by Lin Mo..

This time, there were a total of five people. Fifth brother was the youngest among them. He had been killed because of carelessness. Now, they were still unable to take revenge. This feeling was truly unbearable.

“Don’t be agitated. Can’t you see that the entire Yue Xuan’s grand array has been activated?”

Li long hurriedly said. He was really afraid that these people wouldn’t be able to hold themselves back and attack. Once Lin Mo caught hold of something, even if he didn’t die, he would at least lose a layer of skin.

This grand array might not even be broken by a fifth sky of Nirvana realm expert...

Chapter 375: Auspicious Beast Egg

“750,000 going once.”

“750,000 going twice.”

“750,000 going three times, sold. Congratulations to this guest for successfully bidding for the spirit rank rank 3 Disha Pill.”

On the stage, Lin Mo dropped the auction hammer and announced the ownership of the first item.

At the same time, the system’s voice slowly sounded in Lin Mo’s mind.

[Congratulations, host, for successfully auctioning the spirit grade tier 3 Earth Fiend Pill]

[You have successfully triggered the 2,000 times auction return]

[Congratulations, host, for obtaining the rank 5 Spirit Rank Earth Fiend Yin Pill]

As soon as he finished speaking, Lin Mo could feel a cold and sinister aura coming from the system space. It was even denser than the earth fiend pill.

Moreover, its effects were more than ten times that of the Earth Fiend Pill. Not only was its detoxification effect even stronger, it could also resist the poison for a certain period of time.

This could be said to be a rare treasure for the exploration of some danger zones, and it was of some use to him.

Nodding slightly, Lin Mo continued with the next auction item.

“Next is the second auction item, the third level spirit rank bone forging flower.”

Lin Mo smiled as he lifted the red cloth, revealing the small white flower on the silver plate.

“It’s the bone forging flower. It can effectively increase the strength of a Dragon Transformation Realm powerhouse’s body, and can even refine the tibia.”

“That’s great! If I can eat it, I’ll be able to reach tier 31 of the Dragon Transformation Realm in no time.”

“Don’t even think about it. There are many people who have their eyes on this bone forging flower. You might not be able to snatch it.”

“...”

This kind of treasure that could raise one’s strength without any aftereffects was most popular among others. As such, the moment it appeared, it attracted the attention of countless people.

Most of the heavenly materials and earthly treasures would have aftereffects after consuming too much, because the strength that could be raised like this wasn’t very stable.

Treasures like the bone forging flower that could raise one’s aptitude and allow one to cultivate and raise one’s realm were the most popular.

Therefore, when the bone forging flower was just displayed, these people were all extremely excited and were all waiting to bid.

Even in the private room in front, those who hadn’t reached tier 31 of the Dragon Transformation Realm were somewhat surprised.

The bone forging flower wasn’t easy to find. Although its grade was relatively low, in the deep mountains, it was basically devoured by demonic beasts before it even bloomed.

This kind of bone forging flower that had grown to maturity was extremely rare.

“Earth grade tier 3 bone forging flower, starting bid 500,000 mid-grade spirit stones. Each increment must not be lower than 10,000.”

“Now, the auction begins.”

Looking at the enthusiastic crowd, Lin Mo dropped his hammer.

“550,000.”

“570,000.”

“600,000 mid-grade spirit stones.”

The bidding continued. This time, it wasn’t just the people in the hall who were bidding, but also the voices from the private rooms.

“I bid, 700,000 mid-grade spirit stones.”

A voice came from the private room at the very front, which surprised everyone, because the voice came from the second prince’s private room.

When these princes came to the auction house, the private rooms were fixed, and someone would specially arrange it.

Thus, just as the bid was called out, everyone knew who it was.

They couldn't help but raise their heads to look. An auction item of the third level of the spirit level was also worth the second prince calling out a price.

"Is the Jingdou Dao conference about to begin..."

Lin Mo muttered to himself. He remembered that Huixiang had warned him that the first selection of the Jingdou Dao Conference would begin seven days later.

It seemed that the second prince couldn't wait any longer. He wanted to buy heavenly treasures to increase his cultivation.

This bone-forging flower without any sequelae was undoubtedly the best choice.

The bidding continued, and the second prince wasn't annoyed. Just as the crowd's shouts gradually died down, he raised his bid once more.

"Nine hundred thousand middle-grade spirit stones."

The price of this amount was already very high. At the very least, most of the people in the hall couldn't afford it.

Even if they gritted their teeth and gathered all of it, they would still be bankrupt. It wasn't worth it.

"900,000 mid-tier spirit stones going once."

"900,000 going twice."

"Third time, sold."

"Congratulations to His Highness, the second prince, for successfully bidding for the bone forging flower."

Lin Mo dropped his hammer, and after three times, he announced the results of the auction.

The crowd sighed. It was such a pity. They didn't expect that the second prince would already bid for the second auction item.

"Everyone, don't be discouraged. Let's welcome the third item."

Lin Mo smiled faintly and waved his hand. The maid behind him walked up with a silver plate in her hand and presented it to the crowd.

The red cloth was lifted and a jade plate lay on the silver plate. There was also a scroll.

"Spirit grade tier 2 defensive formation, Black Turtle Grand Formation. It can defend against second sky of Nirvana Realm attacks and is unbreakable. It can be set up directly with a inscribed formation plate."

A spirit rank formation and a formation plate could be set up directly.

In an instant, the entire place fell silent as they stared at Lin Mo.

A formation with a formation plate was extremely precious in the Yanhuang Divine Empire. Although it was a tier 2 spirit grade, its preciousness was not inferior to a tier 3 spirit grade treasure.

As long as it was set up in one's own residence or family clan, even a second sky of Nirvana realm expert would be unable to break it.

"Black Turtle Array, the starting price is 350,000 mid-grade spirit stones. Each increment must not be lower than 50,000 mid-grade spirit stones."

"I bid 400,000. That's great. My mercenary group just happens to need the protection of the array. This auction is the right one."

"450,000."

"..."

One after another, people began to bid. However, most of the people in the hesitating Imperial City lived in the city.

There were troops stationed here, so there was no need to worry about safety.

Therefore, those who participated in the auction were all mercenary groups stationed at the outskirts of the imperial city. They fought tooth and nail for this array formation.

In the end, this black turtle array formation was taken down by the leader of the Sirius mercenary group at a price of 1,000,000.

A Level 2 spirit grade array formation, however, was auctioned at a level 3, or even level 4 price...

[Congratulations, host, for successfully auctioning a level 2 spirit grade defensive array]

[Successfully triggered 800 times the auction profit]

[Congratulations, host, for obtaining a level 3 spirit grade defensive array, boulder array]

...

The auction was in full swing. Many people were satisfied because they had obtained the treasures they wanted.

Of course, most people were dejected because they did not get what they wanted. The prices were raised too high.

"Alright, there are only five items left. Without a doubt, these are the most precious treasures in this auction."

"Those who haven't made their moves, you have to hurry up. If you miss this time, there won't be so many treasures in the next month's pavilion auction."

Lin Mo smiled and didn't beckon for the maids behind him to come in. Instead, he walked backstage and took out an egg with patterns in a corner that people couldn't see. It emitted waves of multicolored light.

This was the system's reward from the auction of a demonic beast egg.

This demonic beast was very powerful. It was set by the system as a spirit grade tier 7. It would have the combat strength of someone at the 31st Tier of the Dragon Transformation Realm.

With a casual feeding, it could break through to the Nirvana Realm. Moreover, its talent and bloodline were very strong.

"Everyone, sorry to have kept you waiting. This is a temporary auction item."

Lin Mo walked out and held the Demon Beast Egg with both hands.

"What kind of Demon Beast is this? Such a holy light. Could it be the legendary auspicious beast?"

"Such an auspicious aura, it should belong to the auspicious beast. Could it be the unicorn?"

Chapter 376: White Crane Egg

Some people guessed that unicorns were called auspicious beasts among demon beasts. It was a symbol of good fortune. The purer the bloodline, the stronger the auspicious aura.

"It's an auspicious beast, but it's not a unicorn. The aura is different."

The voice of the tenth princess came from the private room. She had two unicorns. Their bloodline was not pure, but they were auspicious beasts.

Hearing everyone's guess, she said.

"Hehe, the tenth princess is right. This isn't a unicorn, but a white crane. This is a white crane's egg."

"It's about to hatch. As long as master provides a bit of spirit energy, it can be born smoothly."

"As long as it's born, it can have the combat strength of a Tier 31 practitioner in the Dragon Transformation Realm. As for rank, I'll define it as a spirit rank 7."

"What, such a high rank."

Everyone was shocked. Even the unicorn beside the tenth princess was only classified as a spirit level 3 when it was young.

Even so, it had now grown to the first sky of the Nirvana Realm, and the auspicious aura was very rich.

This White Crane egg was classified as a spirit rank 7, it was simply unimaginable.

"It's indeed worth this rank, make an offer."

The tenth princess said in a low voice. Looking at her appearance, she was determined to obtain the White Crane Egg.

“Spirit rank 7 White Crane egg, starting bid, 2 million, each bid must not be lower than 100,000.”

Lin Mo announced the start of the auction.

As soon as he finished speaking, before anyone in the hall could open their mouths, the tenth princess had already shouted out her bid.

“5 million.”

Silence.

The entire hall fell silent. Everyone in the Hall looked bitterly at the tenth princess’s private room.

What was there to bid for? The tenth princess had blocked everyone’s path the moment she made her bid.

Five million. Even the large families in the imperial city would have to empty their entire fortune.

Some powerful families might have the qualifications to bid, but they obviously would not offend the tenth princess for an egg.

“5.1 million.”

Just as everyone thought that the White Crane egg was going to be bought by the tenth princess, a shout came from another private room.

“Who is this?”

Everyone was stunned, including the tenth princess. Her beautiful eyes were filled with dissatisfaction.

She had raised the price by three million at one go, which was basically the price of a 7th tier spirit grade treasure. Why was there still someone bidding?

“Your Highness, it’s someone from the Heavenly King’s Mansion.”

A servant girl said. Judging from the location, there should be no mistake.

“Heavenly King’s Mansion...”

The tenth princess frowned and was a little dissatisfied. The people from the Heavenly King’s Mansion did not get along with her. She did not expect that they would raise the bid for her at this auction...

“5,500,000.”

Thinking up to this point, the tenth princess raised the bid once again. The price of 5,500,000 shocked everyone once again.

“5.6 million.”

However, the Heavenly King Manor still followed closely behind. However, every time they raised their bid, they would only raise it by 100,000. This was the lowest increase set by Lin Mo.

Some people were certain that they were here to cause trouble and intentionally raise the price for the tenth princess.

“6 million.”

The tenth princess gritted her teeth. She did not fight for power and position and did not have much savings in her hands. This 6 million was about three-quarters of her wealth...

“Hehe, since the tenth princess is so interested in this white crane egg, then it’s not good for me to fight for it anymore. I’ll just give up.” A soft laugh sounded, causing the tenth princess’ expression to become even colder.

“Jin Zhong, it’s this old man...”

The tenth princess gritted her teeth and said. Jin Zhong was Jin Lie’s father. He had sent people to ask for her mother’s hand in marriage many times, wanting her to marry Jin Lie.

His purpose was naturally to deepen the relationship between the Heavenly King Manor and the royal family, and at the same time, to pull her to the crown prince’s side.

However, this matter was also put to rest after Jin Lie was killed.

“Deal. Congratulations to the tenth princess for successfully auctioning the White Crane Egg. I believe that the princess will not regret it.” Lin Mo dropped the auction hammer.

This time, he did not bid once or twice. The deal was done directly to prevent anyone from raising the price again.

He had a good impression of the tenth princess and didn’t consider her as an enemy.

“Thank you for your auspicious words, field owner Lin.” The tenth princess nodded and walked out of the private room. She took out a spial bag and wanted to trade on the spot.

Lin Mo accepted the Spirit Stones. After the transaction was completed, the tenth princess left with her people.

Although the auction was successful, the disturbance of the Heavenly King Manor made her rather angry and unwilling to stay here.

“Let’s invite the next item up for auction.”

Lin Mo spoke. The White Crane Egg just now had been added to the auction and hadn’t been counted in the beginning.

“Spirit grade tier 7 bow type magic item, exploding spirit bow.”

The red cloth was lifted and a large azure bow lay on the silver plate. Lin Mo picked it up and showed it to everyone.

He stretched out his hand and gently plucked the bowstring. A slight vibration spread out, and the surrounding spiritual energy was affected, sending out waves of ripples.

“This... What a powerful aura.”

“Truly formidable. Where did this Lin Mo get so many treasures? This exploding spirit bow is just what I wanted.”

“It’s a pity that the grade is too high. It’s probably not suitable for us to compete...”

Some people sighed. They all understood that at this point, the auction was no longer their business.

Next, even the crown prince didn’t dare to say that he could continue to take down the final treasure.

After all, he had already mobilized too much of the national treasury and caused the emperor to be displeased.

“The starting bid for the spirit rank 7 explosive spirit bow is 2.5 million, and each increment must not be lower than 100,000. The auction begins now.”

Lin Mo smiled faintly and dropped his hammer. When he announced the start of the auction, the voices of bids could be heard from the various private rooms.

“3 million.”

The first to speak was the people from the Heavenly King Manor. Lin Mo was somewhat familiar with them.

“3.5 million.”

Immediately after, the second prince also spoke and participated in the bidding.

“4 million.”

The voices of bidding basically followed closely without any pause, causing everyone to stare with their mouths agape.

“This is the seventh prince’s bidding. There’s no need to go all out, fighting to be the first to bid...”

Lin Mo didn’t know what to do. If it wasn’t for the fact that these people were all princes or were people with authority in the imperial city, he would have thought that these people were blindly bidding.

“6 Million.”

Suddenly, a bid sounded, causing the entire place to fall into silence. Some people glanced sideways and looked towards a private room.

“Li Long’s voice. is the Divine Secrets Holy Land also participating...?”

Lin Mo was a little curious. This eastern continent’s strongest Holy Land actually needed such a level of treasure.

At this moment, in the Divine Armament Sacred Land’s private room, a few mysterious people were fiercely looking at the auction stage.

One of them said to Li long, “Your information was wrong, and that’s why fifth brother died. It’s normal for you to give an explanation.”

“That’s right, you have to help us get back the remaining treasures. Otherwise, we won’t be able to continue working together.”

Another person said. They could ignore the previous ones, but they had to get the last few treasures back.

“I understand. Don’t worry, my Lords.”

Li Long’s expression was as dark as water. He really wanted to break off their cooperation, but in the end, he forcefully restrained himself and didn’t flare up.

“That’s good. However, before we make our move, you have to send us Lin Mo’s latest information.”

The few mysterious people nodded. This was the final line.

After all, no one was willing to die without knowing why.

Chapter 377: Li Long’s Abnormality

“6 million going once, is there anyone else willing to bid?”

“6 million going twice.”

“6 million going thrice, sold, congratulations to these guests for winning the exploding spirit bow.”

Lin Mo smiled, and the auction hammer in his hand dropped down. Although he still didn’t understand why Li Long would auction the exploding spirit bow.

As long as it could be sold, he was willing to accept it.

[Congratulations host for successfully auctioning off a spirit rank 7 explosive spirit bow]

[Successful triggering of 5,000 times the auction return]

[Congratulations host for obtaining a spirit rank 9 instantaneous shadow bow]

A spirit rank 9. This time, the auction had been given to a spirit rank 9. This made Lin Mo very happy.

Regardless of whether it was used for combat in the future or if he directly used the God Devouring Body to devour it, this instantaneous shadow bow would be of great use.

Thinking up to this point, Lin Mo waved his hand, and another maid walked over.

“The next item is also a spirit rank 7 item, but its rarity is comparable to a spirit rank 8 or even a spirit rank 9 item.”

Lin Mo smiled mysteriously, and under everyone’s comments, he slowly opened the red cloth.

Under the red cloth, there was an earthy yellow talisman paper that gave off an ancient aura.

The moment it appeared, everyone was stunned as they stared in disbelief.

“Am I seeing things? That seems to be a talisman...”

“A spirit rank 7 talisman, this is impossible...”

Some people were shocked. As everyone knew, the highest grade talisman master in the eastern continent was the grand elder of the Divine Secrets Sacred Land.

Even that person was only a spirit rank 6 talisman master. As for a spirit rank 7 talisman master, the success rate of refining it was probably not even 10% .

“Heavens, where did this Lin Mo get this talisman from? could he have dug up some ancient ruins?”

Amidst the exclamations of the crowd, Lin Mo held the talisman in his hand and slightly injected spiritual energy into it, showing it to everyone.

“This talisman was sent to me by an unknown expert. I don’t know who this person is, so I can’t answer everyone.”

“It’s called the Earth Shrinking Inch Talisman. This is a talisman that has been lost in the eastern continent. No one knows how it was made.”

“As for its effects, I think I don’t need to say much.”

Lin Mo smiled mysteriously. when he cleaned up the battlefield that day and saw this talisman, he was also shocked.

To be able to hold such a heaven-defying talisman, it was clear that this person had quite a background.

According to his initial estimations, only the Divine Secrets Holy Land and the Hidden Ghost Sect had the qualifications to send such an expert to hunt him down.

This was also the reason why he had activated the Moon Pavilion’s great formation today.

Being targeted by such an expert wasn’t a good thing.

“I must take down the earth shrinking inch talisman...”

In the crown prince’s private room, his gaze was fixed on the talisman in Lin Mo’s hands.

The Spirit Rank 7 Earth Shrinking Talisman, once used, would be able to travel a thousand miles in a single step.

Even a Nirvana Realm ninth sky expert who specialized in speed might not be able to catch up to it.

From this, one could see how heaven-defying this talisman was.

It wasn’t just him. In the other private rooms, everyone’s eyes were wide open as they rubbed their fists, intending to auction off the talisman.

“Earth Shrinking Talisman, starting bid, 5,000,000 mid-grade spirit stones, each bid must not be lower than 100,000.”

“5,500,000.”

“I bid 6,000,000.”

“7,000,000.”

“...”

Just as Lin Mo finished speaking, the bids started to rise one after another, because the land shrinking into inch talisman was too precious.

Its research value even exceeded its own value.

Anyone who could use this to see how this talisman was made would be able to ascend to the heavens in a single step. Even the grand elder of the Divine Secrets Holy Land would have to come.

In the auction hall, everyone in the private rooms had already disregarded their status.

The prices continued to rise, causing Li Long’s expression to turn ugly. The price of the Earth Shrinking Talisman had already been bid by the crown prince to 10 million.

Even so, the second prince, the fourth prince, and the seventh prince had no intention of giving up.

This talisman had an extraordinary meaning, and it was no longer the time for spirit stones to measure its value.

“10.1 million middle-grade spirit stones. Everyone, please give me face. Your Highness, please give me face...”

Li long pushed open the door of the private room and walked out.

At this point, he had no choice but to step out. If the bidding continued, he wouldn’t have the money to bid for the next item.

Although with his status as a disciple of the Divine Secrets Holy Land, he could prepare more spirit stones in a short period of time.

However, money wasn’t spent like this. The key was that the treasures he bought didn’t belong to him...

“This...”

The crown prince was a little hesitant. He didn’t expect Li Long to personally step out. This talisman should be auctioned for the supreme elder of the Divine Secrets Holy Land.

The reason why he could sit safely on the crown prince’s seat was not only because of the emperor’s support, but also partly because he had a good relationship with the Divine Secrets Holy Land.

If they were to fall out over a talisman, it would not be worth it.

“Hehe, senior brother, if you had told me earlier, you would not have spent such a high price.”

The crown prince walked out of the private room, cupped his fists at Li Long, and said with a faint smile.

“It was my negligence. Thank you, junior brother.”

Li Long cupped his fists and saluted. The other princes didn't bid either, and they weren't willing to offend the Divine Secrets Sacred Land.

"10.1 million, sold."

Lin Mo didn't hesitate and immediately dropped his hammer, auctioning this talisman to Li Long.

He didn't care so much. In fact, he hoped that this item would be auctioned off at the lowest price.

That way, he might be able to trigger a 10,000 fold rebate. That would really be a huge profit.

However, things did not go as he had hoped. The Earth Talisman was destined to trigger a bidding war, so he could not set a top price...

[Congratulations, host, for successfully auctioning a spirit level 7 land shrinking into inch talisman]

[Successfully triggered a 2,000 fold rebate]

[Congratulations, host, for obtaining a spirit level 8 Earth Shrinking talisman]

It was a rank higher than before, but the increase in speed was not just a tiny bit.

Adding on to Lin Mo's Kun Peng Wings, one could imagine his speed with such a boost.

"Next up is the third item from the bottom. It's a fire attribute cultivation technique, a spirit rank 7 'Li Fire Technique'. It's quite extraordinary."

Lin Mo smiled. This cultivation technique was not bad. It was considered a top-tier item among spirit rank 7.

"Everyone knows that cultivation techniques are generally more expensive. Hence, the starting bid for this 'Li fire technique' is 4 million."

Just as the hammer landed, Li Long walked out from the Divine Secrets Holy Land's private room.

He looked at the auction stage and under everyone's curious gazes, he said, "6 million."

"This..."

Regardless of whether it was the people in the main hall or the private rooms, all of them were stunned.

Why did Li Long look like he was determined to obtain it?

The Divine Secrets Holy Land shouldn't lack cultivation techniques, right? After all, this wasn't a top-tier cultivation technique...

"Six million going once, no one is bidding?"

Lin Mo knocked on the auction hammer to remind everyone.

"Six million going twice..."

The scene was still quiet, and no one was willing to raise the price. It wasn't until the third time the auction hammer fell and the transaction was announced that the auction had been completed that the sounds of discussion started to ring out.

Lin Mo was a little puzzled, but he didn't think too much about it. The second last item was presented.

"This is the inner core of a fire attributed demonic beast, it's from the seventh tier Nirvana Realm Scarlet Flame Lizard."

Chapter 378: Competing In the Auction

"The inner core has been absorbed for a period of time, but 70% of its energy remains. Furthermore, it contains the pure bloodline of the Crimson Flame Lizard, and its grade is spirit rank 8."

Lin Mo had just finished introducing the inner core, and everyone's eyes were burning. Who knew that Li Long, who was at the front, would suddenly open his mouth and ask, "What's the starting price?"

"Again?"

Everyone was stunned. Was Li Long planning to buy out the entire place? Even if he came from the Divine Secrets Holy Land, could it be that he really wanted to offend everyone present.

"Hehe, everyone, give me some face. If senior brother Li Long wants it, then go ahead and auction it."

The crown prince also walked out and stood at the door of the private room, smiling at Li Long to greet him.

Li long nodded his head gratefully. The crown prince coming out to help at such a crucial moment really touched him.

"There's definitely something fishy going on..."

Lin Mo looked at the abnormal Li Long and guessed that the other party must be hiding something.

"Forget it, since you want it, I'll just make a huge profit..."

He chuckled lightly. The fire attribute inner core was his favorite cultivation resource, and it just so happened that it was being auctioned at a low price.

"Spirit rank 8 crimson flame lizard inner core. Starting bid, 1,000,000 middle-grade spirit stones."

Lin Mo smiled faintly and set an extremely low price, just in time to see who would be unable to resist bidding.

"I bid 1,000,000."

Li long opened his mouth and looked at Lin Mo with an expressionless face, wanting to express his gratitude. However, when he thought of the reason why he was like this, it was all thanks to Lin Mo.

Thinking up to this point, he stood expressionlessly at the entrance of the private room.

"No one is bidding?"

Lin Mo asked with a smile, while the crown prince surveyed his surroundings with an obvious threat.

“Since that’s the case, then congratulations to brother Li for auctioning off a supreme treasure at the reserve price.”

The auction hammer descended and announced the result. It was a 1,000,000 spirit rank 8 treasure. This was definitely a huge loss.

[Congratulations to host for successfully auctioning off the spirit rank 8 crimson flame lizard inner core]

[This auction has suffered a huge loss. The system will compensate you]

[30,000 times the auction’s profit has been successfully triggered]

[Congratulations host for obtaining the Earth grade level 3 crimson flame dragon lizard’s complete inner core]

An earth grade treasure, such a level of inner core, did not exist in the entire eastern continent. This was because only demon beasts on the immortal ascension platform could breed it.

“Looks like I can go into seclusion again.”

Lin Mo smiled. Not to mention the heavenly materials and earthly treasures and spiritual artifacts that would return profits from this auction, just the spirit stones alone would be enough for him to go into seclusion once.

Now, with this inner core, he would definitely be able to advance another level before the start of the preliminaries.

“Alright, next up is the finale of this auction. It’s also the treasure that everyone is looking forward to the most.”

Lin Mo waved his hand, and the female attendant walked forward.

The silver plate in her hand was bigger than the others. Before the red cloth was removed, waves of rich spiritual energy undulations spread out.

Everyone’s eyes were glued to Lin Mo as they waited for him to reveal the treasure.

In the next moment, flames blossomed and a thick flame spread out. If it wasn’t for Lin Mo blocking the way, the entire auction stage would have been burnt to ashes.

Four balls of light appeared in his hand. It was extremely mysterious.

“Everyone, these final items will be auctioned off at the same time. Because of their similarities, they were placed together.”

After the light dissipated, what appeared in front of everyone was a folding fan, a battle armor, a pearl, and a dagger.

“Fire God Fan, Spirit Rank 9, contains a wisp of fire path law. At critical moments, it can erupt with power that surpasses its own.”

“Li fire armor, rank 8 spirit rank. Defensive type armor, able to resist water and fire, immune to large amounts of damage.”

“Fire repelling pearl, rank 8 spirit rank. With the fire repelling pearl, one can even go deep into the volcano and travel underground in search of opportunities.”

“As for the last one, it’s also rank 8 spirit rank. The Heaven Fire Dagger can be used for assassinations. It can be used silently, with extreme fire attacks.”

Lin Mo gave a rough introduction. This was the treasure that the middle-aged man had.

He didn’t like Lin Mo at the start, he only used the fire god fan. He didn’t think that Lin Mo would be able to kill him with a single move from the origin spirit puppet.

“The final item this time is actually such a treasure...”

“Friends from the Divine Secrets Sacred Land, please atone for your sins. This final item can not be given away.”

“That’s right. How can I give up this final treasure?”

Some people spoke up, not wanting to miss out on this treasure.

Especially among these people, there were fire attribute experts. It was even more impossible for them to give it up. This was a supreme treasure.

It could even be said that as long as one obtained this magic tool, even if it was someone with ordinary combat strength, they would be able to fight against those on the Board of Fame.

From this, it could be seen that this set of spiritual artifacts could increase one’s combat strength.

Even a Nirvana Realm cultivator wouldn’t be able to resist the attraction of these spiritual artifacts...

“Field owner Lin, don’t introduce it anymore. Hurry up and tell me the starting price.” Someone was already urging him.

“Alright, the starting price is ten million. If the spiritual stones aren’t enough, I can buy the treasures on the spot and buy them at the market price.”

Lin Mo said. He already had some guesses in his heart. He wanted to verify if his guess was correct.

This was because Li Long’s abnormal behavior meant that the assassin that day was sent by him.

Now that he had monopolized the auction, he only wanted to find the treasures of the Divine Secrets Holy Land...

“It’s a pity that we can’t make a move here.” Lin Mo sighed.

Even if he confirmed that Li Long was the mastermind behind this, he couldn’t take revenge...

“Forget it, we’ll talk about it later.”

With this thought in mind, Lin Mo quietly watched the crowd bid. He was willing to accept these people using treasures to replace spirit stones because he wanted to give Li Long some pressure.

He wanted to see how much Li Long was willing to pay.

“15 million. Since everyone isn’t willing to let it go, then let’s see what the real deal is.”

Li long opened his mouth. With one bid, he instantly eliminated most of the people.

In the hands of these people, taking out 10 million would cost half their lives. 15 million might not even be enough even if they went bankrupt.

“16 million.”

The second prince walked out. He wasn’t willing to give up. It just so happened that the first selection of the Jingdou Dao conference was about to begin.

If he didn’t seize this good opportunity to increase his strength, he might not be able to advance...

“17 million, such a precious treasure, we can’t miss it.”

The seventh prince also came. At this point in the auction, everyone’s eyes were red with envy.

“20 million.”

The crown prince also made a bid. In less than a minute, this set of magic tools had already been raised to 20 million.

Even so, the transaction was still a loss.

This was because just the Fire God Fan alone could be sold for 20 million. It contained a strand of rules, and that was the most precious.

“23 million.”

Li Long continued to bid. He gritted his teeth and looked at Lin Mo with killing intent in his eyes.

He knew that he would definitely be punished when he returned after bidding for a set of spiritual artifacts.

Even if it was the Divine Secrets Holy Land, it would still be a bit of an economic upheaval for them to move so many treasures at once and give them away.

“25 million.”

The second prince continued to speak. At this moment, the fourth Prince and the seventh prince had already given up and did not want to participate.

“Second brother, it seems that you don’t have that many spirit stones. Recklessly bidding will damage the prestige of the royal family,” The crown prince said in a low voice.

Chapter 379: Holy Maiden of the Divine Secrets Holy Land

Hearing this, the second prince smiled and cupped his fists in salute. He said, "Your Highness, you are exaggerating. I have a treasure that can be exchanged for a lot of spiritual stones. I will hand it over to brother Lin Mo. ."

"Your Highness, can you lend me some spiritual stones? I will definitely repay you in the future." Li Long said with a cold face.

The Nirvana realm experts in the private room behind him had already said that they must take them down. Otherwise, their cooperation would end here.

Moreover, they also wanted to sever their cooperation with the Divine Secrets Holy Land.

This result was not what he wanted to see.

"Senior brother, what are you saying? Since you want these spiritual artifacts, I will bid for them for you. I don't have enough spiritual stones. I will have to trouble senior brother to add some more."

The crown prince smiled faintly. No matter what, he was going to owe Li Long this favor.

As he spoke, he spoke again, "Thirty million. Second Brother, how many spiritual stones can your treasure exchange for?"

Everyone's gaze immediately shifted to the second Prince's face. Such a price didn't seem to be comparable to these four spiritual artifacts.

However, they were already out of money. Even the crown prince didn't have that much money.

To be able to bid thirty million, he was probably at his limit.

"Your Highness Crown Prince, please forgive us. The auction house is a fair place. I'll bid thirty-five million."

The second prince gritted his teeth and bid again, unwilling to miss out.

"Wait a moment."

At this moment, Li Long stood out and stopped the two of them from continuing to bid.

"Brother Li, what do you want?" Lin Mo asked indifferently. He was certain that the assassination that day was definitely related to Li Long.

"Second Prince, Your Highness, I doubt that you can really take out 35 million mid-grade spirit stones. Please prove it. Otherwise, I suspect that you're making a reckless bid."

His voice wasn't loud, but there was a chill in it that made people not dare to look over.

Even the second prince frowned at this moment.

He understood that after this matter, this disciple of the divine secrets sacred land could be considered to be completely hostile to him.

However, on second thought, since this person had a close relationship with the crown prince, there was no harm in offending him.

“This is simple. Fourth and seventh, give me the spirit stones in your hands,” the second prince said in a deep voice.

These words shocked the crown prince and Li Long.

However, in the next moment, the fourth and seventh princes actually stood up and threw the two heaven and earth bags to the second prince.

“You... you guys...”

Li Long was so angry that he could not speak. weren't these three princes enemies? Usually, no one could stand each other.

Why would they join forces today and be so decisive...

“I've proved it. Now, I want to change the price. 40 million. I wonder who else can offer a higher price?” The second prince gritted his teeth and said.

He had paid a considerable price for these spirit stones. However, it was all worth it to be able to obtain this magic tool.

As long as he passed the preliminary selection, the Emperor would still favor the crown prince, but he would still pay attention to him.

“Junior brother...”

Li Long said with a bitter smile. He looked at the crown prince, but saw the crown prince shake his head slightly, indicating that he had done his best.

“Field owner Lin, aren't you going to announce the results?” The second prince snorted coldly.

Seeing this, Lin Mo smiled helplessly. He was still thinking of selling at a loss, but this was great...

“I brushed past four Earth rank magic tools...”

Lin Mo curled his lips and was about to drop the hammer.

“Wait a moment...”

Just as he was about to drop, an extremely gentle voice sounded out. At the very front of the auction stage, space suddenly rippled.

A crack appeared. A white dress was as white as snow, and long hair was hanging down. It was simply tied up by a light purple ribbon.

This person was like a fairy in the sky. However, his face was covered by a veil, and one could only see his blurry face.

On his slim waist, there was a jade pendant with four powerful ancient characters engraved on it.

Holy Land of Divine Secrets!

“Which senior is this? Among the famous Nirvana realm experts in the imperial city, I've never seen this person before...”

“What senior? This person’s voice is lively, and his life force is majestic. He’s obviously a junior...”

“A junior can have the strength of the Nirvana Stage?”

After the crowd exclaimed, they discussed animatedly. They traveled through space without using any talismans. This was the symbol of the Nirvana stage.

However, this person was very unfamiliar. No one present could recognize him.

“Greetings, Saintess.”

The next moment, Li Long reacted. He looked at this woman and directly knelt down, saying respectfully.

“Saintess, she is the Saintess of the Divine Secrets Holy Land.”

“Oh my God, the Saintess actually came personally...”

The atmosphere was instantly ignited. Everyone looked at the woman in the white dress in the air. She was the Saintess of the Divine Secrets Holy Land.

She was publicly recognized as the strongest genius in the entire eastern continent.

She was only 20 years old, and she had entered the Nirvana stage from the Dragon Transformation Realm Level 31. This kind of speed was not inferior even in other continents.

“Field owner Lin, I’m a little late. I wonder if I can participate in the auction?”The Saintess of the Holy Land of Shenji asked.

She had been observing for a long time outside. Seeing that Li long could not handle it, she could only step in.

“The SAINTESS said that it was inevitable that someone would come late to the auction. How could I reject the guests?”

Lin Mo smiled faintly and raised the auction hammer that was about to drop.

“His Highness the second prince has bid 40 million. Is there anyone who is willing to bid higher?”

Hearing this, the Saintess of the Divine Secrets Holy Land took a step forward and said, “45 million. There shouldn’t be anyone who can bid higher...”

She looked at the second prince. She had already sensed the universe bag that the seventh Prince and the fourth prince had thrown out earlier. 40 million was already the second prince’s limit.

“The SAINTESS is already here. How can we fight over it...”

The second prince had a helpless expression on his face. Even if he increased the price, he would not be a match for the SAINTESS.

Instead of doing so, he might as well give up.

“Deal. Congratulations to the Saintess of the Divine Secrets Holy Land for successfully obtaining the auction item.”

This time around, Lin Mo was finally able to drop the auction hammer and announce the end of the auction.

[congratulations, host, for successfully auctioning the spirit rank rank 9 divine flame fan]

[you have successfully triggered the 3000 fold return on the auction]

[Congratulations, host, for obtaining the half-step Earth rank divine flame fan]

[Congratulations, host, for obtaining the Spirit Rank 9 divine flame armor]

The return on the four treasures was 3000 fold. After all, he had not lost anything. Who would have thought that the second prince would be able to raise so many spirit stones in the end?

Even the Holy Maiden of the Divine Armament Holy Land had come in the end.

However, Lin Mo was still very satisfied with these treasures. The sky fire armor and the blazing fire spirit fan could be given to Jiang Xiyue to use.

Although her weapon was not a fan, it would still be able to unleash greater power when used against powerful enemies.

On the other hand, the sky fire armor could be given to Li' Die to protect herself. When the time came, she could bring it with her.

“Field owner Lin, I have some matters to discuss with you.”

At this moment, the Saintess turned her head to look at Lin Mo. After taking the magic tools, she handed them over to Li Long.

Looking at Lin Mo, who was about to leave, she sent out an invitation.

For a moment, everyone looked at Lin Mo in shock. Their gazes were as if they wanted to rush up and eat Lin Mo.

Chapter 380: Saintess Xia You's invitation

That was the Saintess of the Divine Secret Sacred Land. Even the crown prince had once held a banquet to invite the Saintess of the Sacred Land of divine secrets.

However, in the end, he didn't even get to see the Saintess and ended things hastily.

“Why did the Saintess invite me?”

Lin Mo was stunned. Was she planning to settle the score with him?

Thinking up to this point, Lin Mo even had the urge to use Yue Xuan's formation to suppress her.

However, he could only think about it.

If he really made a move, then he reckoned that there would be no place for him in the entire Yanhuang Divine Dynasty. The fury of the Divine Secrets Holy Land wasn't something that anyone could endure.

"What are you thinking about, brother Lin? I don't have any ill intentions. I just want to resolve some misunderstandings with you."

Suddenly, the Holy Maiden of the Divine Secrets Holy Land looked at Lin Mo and a soft voice entered Lin Mo's ears.

"Although Yue Xuan's great formation is powerful, it's not invincible. Brother Lin, you shouldn't rely too much on it."

These two sentences instantly made Lin Mo break out in cold sweat. He was shocked.

"Can she know what I'm thinking, or can she sense danger from my premonition?"

Lin Mo was shocked. He looked at the Holy Maiden of the Divine Secrets Holy Land and said, "How can I refuse the Holy Maiden's invitation? This way please, Holy Maiden."

He turned around and left. Ignoring everyone's gazes, he followed the Holy Maiden of the Divine Secrets Holy Land and arrived at Yue Xuan's guest hall.

"Brother Lin, I've offended you greatly regarding Zhao Ming's matter." The Holy Maiden of the Divine Secrets Holy Land opened her mouth as soon as she entered.

"There's no need to say anything else. It's all in the past."

Lin Mo waved his hand. If it was just small talk, then there was no need to say anything else.

"My name is Xia You. I'm the current Saintess of the Sacred Land of divine secrets and the next sacred Lord."

The veil fell off and Lin Mo saw a beautiful face. She was worthy of being called a Saintess. She was as ethereal as an immortal and her clothes were untainted by dust.

Lin Mo was a little stunned when he saw this scene. He sighed in his heart and looked away.

"Saintess Xia You, why are you looking for me?" He asked.

"Do you want to know what the so-called great chaos in the eastern continent is?" Saintess Xia You opened her mouth and gestured for Lin Mo to sit down and slowly discuss.

"If I want to know, what do I have to pay?" Lin Mo asked. Although he was very curious, he still held back.

"In the near future, the eastern continent will be unified. Although that is a prophecy, it is also a certainty." Saintess Xia You opened her mouth and said a shocking piece of news.

This piece of news shocked Lin Mo greatly. He abruptly raised his head and stared at her.

The eastern continent, unified. How could this be possible? Even if it was the four great divine empires and the Divine Secrets Sacred Land, there were still so many itinerant cultivators.

Did she say that they could be unified just by unifying them?

“Why?” Lin Mo asked, humbly asking for advice.

“It has something to do with the Immortal Ascension platform. Such an expert will appear in the eastern continent. At that time, the entire continent will be unified. Such an expert isn’t someone even a Nirvana Realm cultivator can contend against.” Saintess Xia You spoke.

“In the path of cultivation, the foundation establishment stage is divided into nine levels. This is the foundation of everything. We can not be careless.”

“After that, the Spirit Gathering Realm, the Dragon Transformation Realm, and the Nirvana Realm. This is the sublimation of the cultivation realm from the physical body to the soul.”

“When the Nirvana Realm is completed, that is the process of the soul becoming immortal. After that, the immortal ascension platform will appear.”

“It’s said that the immortal ascension platform is also divided into stages. In other continents, the first level is known as the Half-step Supreme Expert, possessing the power to destroy the heavens and earth.”

As she spoke, her eyes flashed with yearning. This was the cultivation realm that cultivators spent their entire lives searching for.

Only those at that level would have the qualifications to roam the void, traversing through the chaotic currents of space and arriving at the eastern continent.

“The so-called great chaos is also an opportunity. The ancient prophecy predicted that there would be a genius from the eastern continent who would overcome all obstacles and ascend to the immortal realm, opening up a path to the other continents.”

Saintess Xia You was very frank and told him the news that she was in control of.

However, it was unknown whether she had finished or not.

“The path of cultivation has always been bumpy. It’s easier said than done to ascend to immortality. Why would a prophecy give birth to such a genius for no reason?” Lin Mo asked.

There was no such thing as a free meal in this world. Everything came with a price. The prophecy said that there would be immortal-foundation experts in this era. However, could the future be predicted?

“The future is unpredictable. To be more precise, it’s impossible to predict accurately.”

Holy Maiden Xia You explained, “For example, in the Yanhuang Divine Dynasty, the succession of the emperor’s throne is inevitable. Hence, it can be predicted that someone will inherit the throne in the future. But as for who exactly will inherit the throne, it’s impossible to predict.”

“For example, it can be predicted that the Yanhuang Divine dynasty will be destroyed, but it’s impossible to predict who will be the one to replace it...”

Hearing this, Lin Mo rolled his eyes. “Isn’t that the same as not saying anything? The throne will definitely change and the dynasty will not last forever. All of this will happen sooner or later.”

“No, it’s not what you think.” Saintess Xia You shook her head.

“The ancient prophecy states that the great chaos will give birth to immortal-foundation ascendants. The reason for the great chaos is that everyone wants to wait for immortal-foundation ascendants. Hence, when war breaks out, there will always be someone who stands out.”

“That prophecy might seem useless, but it has a certain effect. The relationship between cause and effect is very complicated. Who can say for sure?”

She shook her head helplessly. For such a thing, even if she was able to calculate it, she probably couldn’t say it out loud.

Once the secret of the heavens was revealed, something extraordinary would definitely happen.

In fact, even if she didn’t say it out loud, just by calculating it out loud, she would suffer the wrath of the heavens. In the end, it was very likely that she would be annihilated along with her own power.

“Holy Maiden, what about you? Do you want to be the person who ascends to the Immortal foundation?”

Lin Mo suddenly asked. After saying so much, what exactly was Holy Maiden Xia you thinking about?

However, to Lin Mo’s surprise, Holy Maiden Xia you directly nodded. She calmly replied, “Of course, I want to. Ascending to the Immortal foundation, becoming the first person to ascend to the immortal foundation in the eastern continent since the ancient times. Who wouldn’t want to do so?”

“I’m not as holy as you guys think. I also want to fight. Cultivators are like this, fighting with people, fighting with the heavens, right?”

Upon hearing this, Lin Mo nodded his head. He agreed with this statement. Cultivation was a game of chess with the heavens.

However, could cultivators really win?

“Then what is the Saintess trying to say by telling me all this?” Lin Mo asked again.

This was the most crucial question, and also the reason why Saintess Xia You found herself.

“You and Jiang Xiyue will join my side. I will help her sit on the throne while you and Jiang Xiyue will help me ascend to the immortal-foundation realm.”

“After I open the passageway to the other continents, I can bring you guys away. In the other continents, there will be more resources. At that time, you guys can also ascend to the immortal-foundation realm.”

Saintess Xia You’s goal was to rope Lin Mo and Jiang Xiyue in.

However, what surprised Lin Mo was why she wanted to rope him in. In comparison, the crown prince seemed to have more advantages.

Or could it be that Saintess Xia You used some method to find out that Jiang Xiyue was refining the true dragon's blood...

"Your mind is unsettled. What are you thinking about?" Saintess Xia you looked at Lin Mo and asked softly.

"I can calculate some secrets. You and Jiang Xiyue's talent surprised me. They are even stronger than the crown prince. This is the reason why I gave up on the crown prince looking for you," Saintess Xia you said.

"Can you tell me more? Maybe I can consider it," Lin Mo said.
