Chapter 401: The place where Yin and yang intersected

“Whether it’s the land of extreme yin or the land of extreme yang, both can give birth to many good things. This is something that everyone can feel after searching for this period of time.”

“Then I wonder if the place that Saintess Xia you wants to take us to is the land of extreme yang or the land of Extreme Yin?”The crown prince asked.

Many people agreed with his question. They all wanted to know what kind of place it was.

Saintess Xia you smiled at the crown prince and said, “That place is the place where Yin and Yang meet.”

“I know the exact location and what treasures are there.”

Everyone was shocked when they heard this. Many people stared at Saintess Xia you with suspicion and anticipation.

They had seen the extreme yang land. There were treasures everywhere. It must be the same in the extreme yin land.

Then, would they be able to find better treasures in this place where Yin and yang intersected?

“Everyone, don’t be happy. The place where Yin and yang intersected is very dangerous. The Spiritual Qi inside contains yin and yang qi, which can easily take a person’s life.”

“It’s still not too late to withdraw now. I can tell you clearly that even if I enter, I can only protect myself.”

Saintess Xia you continued to speak. Even with her powerful Nirvana stage strength, she could only protect herself. It was enough to see how dangerous it was.

“Since it has come to this, does anyone withdraw?”Saintess Xia you asked.

For a time, no one spoke. In the end, no one withdrew either. All of them wanted to participate.

They were all geniuses. To be able to reach this point, didn’t that person have extraordinary strength? They all had their own pride.

Although that place was very dangerous, even a nirvana stage didn’t dare to enter alone.

However, the final outcome would only be known after they went.

Saintess Xia you waited for a while. A satisfied smile appeared on her face as she said, “Since no one is willing to retreat, let’s set off immediately.”

Without the slightest hesitation, some people quickly saw it.

A group of experts that were all at the 31st level of the Dragon Transformation Realm crossed the sky.

Under the lead of Saintess Xia you, they flew toward a place.

“We don’t have Yang fish yet. Even if we go to the place where Yin and Yang intersect, we won’t be able to refine the yin-yang Jade.”

Bai Luo sent a voice transmission to Lin Mo and Jiang Xiyue. It would be best if they could find Yang fish on the way.

“The person who took away the Ruyi staff told me the location of a Yang Fish. We can go and catch some,” Lin Mo sent a telepathic message.

It was going to be a little difficult now. The main force was obviously not going to wait for them.

“That’s easy. Take this teleportation talisman. Go and catch the Yang Fish. Come and find us as soon as you catch it.”

Bai Luo said and handed over a teleportation talisman.

“You used this to teleport before?” Lin Mo asked curiously.

The runic patterns of this teleportation talisman were very mysterious and its grade was definitely not low. However, the energy contained within shouldn’t be able to support ultra-long distance teleportation.

“I came here to construct a super-large-scale teleportation array. How can I only use runes?”

Bai Luo shook her head. She told the two of them that if they wanted to teleport from the Lu Jin dynasty to the Yanhuang dynasty, even a newly ascended immortal foundation expert wouldn’t be able to do so.

For runes of this level, the grade must be at least at the seventh-level of the Earth realm. Also, the requirements to activate them were extremely harsh.

“Don’t think about it anymore. Hurry up and find the yang fish. Thirteen of them must be of the same size as the yin fish. If not, you won’t be able to refine the yin-yang Jade.”

Bai Luo urged, telling Lin Mo to hurry up and catch the Yang Fish.

The large group continued to advance. As for Lin Mo’s departure, everyone was somewhat shocked and puzzled.

Many people frowned, not understanding why Lin Mo would suddenly leave.

“Heh, could it be that he’s afraid and doesn’t dare to move forward?” A young man smiled disdainfully.

“If you can’t keep your mouth shut, I can help you.” Jiang Xiyue’s eyes turned cold as she looked at this person.

That person felt a chill on his back and shivered. He took a few steps back and didn’t dare to say anything.

At this moment, Lin Mo followed the map in his memory and passed through the barren mountain peaks. Finally, he stopped at a valley.

There was a lake here that was emitting hot air. Occasionally, there would be bubbles rising from it.

“This isn’t a hot spring, the water isn’t boiling enough...”

Lin Mo was surprised. As he got closer, he really discovered the existence of a Yang Fish.

It was a small red fish with similar patterns as the yin fish. It swam and played in the water.

“So many Yang Fish and fire attribute. If I can catch them all, it will be very helpful to my cultivation.”

Lin Mo was ready to make his move. For safety reasons, his soul merged with the origin soul puppet and controlled it to catch them.

Suddenly, a flying bird appeared above the valley. It let out a cry and dived towards the lake.

Lin Mo saw the flying bird and said in shock, “The second sky of Nirvana realm’s scorching Sun Eagle.”

The Yang Fish was startled and was about to escape. Lin Mo knew that he couldn’t wait any longer. He controlled the origin soul puppet to fly out and enter the lake. His main body joined in as well. The devouring God body domain exploded and covered the entire area.

All the Yang fish were trapped and couldn’t escape in time. The puppet’s power was very strong, and the yang fish couldn’t resist it at all.

“Brutal!”

The scorching sun eagle was frightened. It grabbed one yang fish and started to struggle, breaking Lin Mo’s domain instantly.

The power of the confinement wasn’t stable, and some Yang Fish escaped from this place.

“So Powerful?”

Lin Mo was shocked. His devouring God body’s domain could still hold on for a while, and he could at least catch forty to fifty yang fish.

Now that the scorching sun eagle had broken it, he could only catch them as soon as possible.

In the end, he used his puppet to catch fifteen Yang Fish. The others all escaped without any hesitation.

“Evil creature, what are you looking at? Don’t tell me you want to hunt me down as well?” Lin Mo’s face was cold.

The scorching sun eagle looked at the Yang Fish that Lin Mo had put into his magic tool, its eyes filled with greed.

The Yang Fish’s body contained a very high concentration of energy, which was a great tonic for experts of the same attribute.

It could only capture one at a time, and the rest would escape.

Now that Lin Mo had so many in his hands, how could it not be tempted.

“That’s good too. I’ll kill you. I’ll treat Xiyue and the others to the braised Sun Eagle.” Lin Mo also wanted to kill the Sun Eagle.

The origin soul puppet exploded, and under Lin Mo's control, it began to attack the Sun Eagle.

In response to this, the Sun Eagle did not receive it head-on. Instead, it chose to attack Lin Mo's main body, wanting to kill Lin Mo. .

As long as Lin Mo was killed, this puppet would not pose any threat.

However, after a huge battle, the blazing sun eagle let out a blood-curdling screech. Its body was pierced through by the origin spirit puppet, and fresh blood flowed out.

"What a pity, so many yang fish escaped..."

Lin Mo felt helpless. The inner core quality of this blazing sun eagle was a spirit rank 5, but compared to so many yang fish, it was still a little inferior.

Regarding this, he had no other choice but to feel regretful.

Just like the Yellow Springs, this lake was so deep that one couldn't see the bottom. The Yang Fish had been disturbed and had long sunk to the bottom. It was impossible for them to come up in a short period of time.

He took out a silver rune and injected spiritual energy into it to activate it.

In the next moment, with a flash of light, his figure disappeared.

At the same time, Saintess Xia You, who was leading everyone forward, suddenly felt something and turned her head around.

The space cracked open and Lin Mo walked out of it.

The saintess asked curiously, "Brother Lin, where have you been?"

Lin Mo smiled casually and said, "Nothing much. I forgot to take care of some personal matters, so I have to leave for a while."

He returned to Jiang Xiyue and Bai Luo's side. The two of them were looking forward to it.

The only thing missing in the refinement of the yin-yang Jade was the yang fish. Nothing could go wrong.

"How was it? Did you catch any Yang Fish?" Bai Luo asked.

"I caught 15 of them. If I hadn't met a scorching sun eagle blocking my way, I would have caught more."

Lin Mo was helpless. Should he say that he was lucky or unlucky.

He was affected by the scorching sun eagle. He might not be lucky, but he was just in time. He didn't let the scorching sun eagle disturb the yang fish.

"Alright, the materials are complete. How do we refine the yin-yang Jade? What's the effect of refining it?" Lin Mo asked curiously.

To be able to make Bai Luo care about it so much, it was evident how precious the yin-yang Jade was.

“Under normal circumstances, a person’s body will only have one type of elemental energy. For example, Xiao Die. She is a pure fire-type.”

“Jiang Xiyue, you are a metal-type. Both of you have one type of elemental energy.”

Bai Luo glanced at Lin mo and said, “As for you, the yin-yang Jade doesn’t have much value to you.”

“It is used to balance the attributes in the body. It has the effect of reconciling yin and yang.”

“However, you are a god-devouring body. All the attributes are built on the god-devouring body, so you don’t need to reconcile them.”

Bai Luo was a little envious. Although the disadvantage of the god-devouring body was obvious, it brought too many benefits.

“You mean that we will comprehend more attributes in the future?”

Lin Mo was stunned. Could it be that the more power we comprehend, the better?

“Not necessarily. You can focus on the fire path and also become a peak expert. You can find a path that suits you and cultivate all the way. It’s definitely not wrong.”

Bai Luo explained. Of course, this was still too late for them. But after refining the yin-yang Jade, it would be of great help to their future cultivation.

“But that’s after the immortal ascension platform. Don’t even think about auctioning the yin-yang Jade. It’s not worth it. We can just split it and use it.”

Because there weren’t many people who knew the value of the Yin-yang jade, Saintess Xia you might know the value, but she wouldn’t be willing to give a treasure that was comparable to the yin-yang Jade.

“Let’s take it one step at a time. Let’s see how many yin-yang jade we can refine first.” Lin Mo nodded.

All of them had to have at least one piece. If they still had some left, he wouldn’t mind selling it at a loss.

Anyway, with the system’s rebates here, he definitely wouldn’t lose anything.

While they were chatting, Saintess Xia you stopped in front of them. Everyone followed suit.

“We’re here. This is the place where Yin and Yang meet.”

Saintess Xia you said with a frown.

However, the expected danger didn’t appear. Instead, it was the coexistence of yin and yang Qi that gave people a very comfortable feeling.

“Saintess Xia you, may I ask where the danger is?” Someone mustered up his courage and asked.

Along the way, not a single demon beast came out to stop them. The entire journey was very smooth.

“Could it be that our momentum is so great that the demon beasts are hiding...”

“Be careful, there’s an enemy attack.”

Suddenly, the ground beneath their feet cracked, and the ground sank. Boiling lava flowed out from below.

Apart from that, there was also a grayish-black stream of water. It coexisted with the lava and appeared below.

“It’s the yin-yang Lake. Be careful, there might be a big guy down there...”

Bai Luo said in a low voice. Together with Jiang Xiyue and Lin Mo, they quietly retreated to the outer area.

This place was very strange. It was full of yin and Yang Qi, and it was a good place to refine yin and yang jades.

However, under the current situation, they would probably not be allowed to refine them...

“Everyone, be careful. There are demonic beasts below this lake. I’ve been here before,” Saintess Xia you reminded everyone.

Some people were shocked and wanted to escape. In the next moment, a terrifying burst of spiritual energy suddenly erupted from below.

In just an instant, three level 31 dragon transformation realm geniuses had fallen. Not even ashes were left.

“AH...”

On the other side, there were also people who were attacked. Several grayish-black demonic beasts poked out from the surface of the lake and spat out yin energy.

Those who were hit were instantly frozen into ice sculptures and fell to the bottom of the lake.

“What Kind of demonic beast is that?”

“It’s so terrifying. This is at least at the second sky of the Nirvana realm...”

Someone shouted. This was not something they could fight against. It was a one-sided massacre.

“Flood Dragon?”

Lin Mo’s side also suffered an attack. Perhaps it was because it sensed Lin Mo’s powerful battle strength, the demonic beast directly rushed out.

“Wuwu...”

The one who attacked Lin Mo was a huge head. It looked like a snake, but it did not look like one. It spat out black water and carried a lethal poison.

After being hit by Lin Mo’s sword, it sank to the bottom of the lake. The sound it made was like the cry of a baby.

“This cry...”

Bai Luo's expression changed. She suddenly thought of something and shouted, "Leave the area of the yin-yang Lake. This is an ancient great demon, the nine neonate."

Her voice wasn't loud, but everyone heard it.

Some of the people who were attacked ran away, but there were still people who didn't believe it. This was because they had never heard of any ancient great demon, the nine neonate.

"Wu Wu..."

The cries of the baby rang out once again, and the yin-yang Lake Shook. Several fireballs and water pillars spewed out, and many of the people who stayed were hit.

Some people immediately screamed and fell to the bottom of the lake, losing their lives.

The remaining people were frightened and hurriedly fled, not daring to stay any longer.

"Fellow Daoist, do you know what this is?" Saintess xiyou came in front of Lin Mo and the others and asked.

At this moment, a huge monster drilled out of the yin-yang Lake.

The monster had nine heads. It looked like a snake head and a flood dragon. It was very strange.

The nine heads could spit water and fire. It was very rare for Yang and yin to coexist.

"There was a legend in the ancient times. There was a monster of water and fire in the world. Its cry was like that of a baby's cry. It had nine heads, so it was called the nine neonate. It spat water and Yin, and fire and Yang, and it was bloodthirsty. Wherever it went, not a blade of grass grew."

Bai Luo muttered to herself. The nine neonate had never appeared even in other continents. She had only seen it in ancient books.

"How do we deal with it?" Lin Mo asked.

The strength of this ferocious beast was too strong. Even if they wanted to fight it, they might not be able to defeat it.

"My suggestion is to run away. The nine neonate lives in the yin-yang Lake. Even if a fifth sky of the Nirvana stage came, they wouldn't be able to destroy it."

Bai Luo spread out his hands. With the unlimited supply of the yin-yang Lake, the nine neonate's combat strength was almost invincible.

Fortunately, the nine neonate hadn't grown up yet and was unwilling to leave the yin-yang Lake.

Otherwise, not to mention this dangerous land, even the Yanhuang Divine dynasty would be destroyed by the nine neonate.

"Are we giving up just like that? I have some tricks. Maybe we can work together." Saintess Xia you said.

Since the nine neonate was so powerful, its inner core must be very heaven-defying.

“Don’t even think about it. The nine neonate is full of poison. Other than its own kind, the inner core will definitely die if eaten.”

“What’s really valuable is this yin-yang lake. It uses yin and yang Qi to refine yin-yang Jade.” Bai Luo poured cold water on it.

The nine neonate was a highly toxic item. Even some poison masters were unwilling to come into contact with it. Its inner core contained fire poison and cold poison. Whoever touched it would die.

“But, I haven’t found the yin fish yet...” Saintess Xia you said somewhat unwillingly.

Chapter 403: Join Hands to Fight the Nine Neonate

She had some yang fish in her hands and knew that the yin-yang Jade was to be refined in the yin-yang Lake.

However, before she could find the yin fish, she had brought people to look for the yin-yang Lake.

“Why did you bring people to the yin-yang Lake without the yin fish?” Bai Luo asked. Was this Saintess not informed enough or was she deceived?

“When I was looking for the yang-yang fish, I found the way to the yin-yang Lake. In order to avoid accidents, I thought of cleaning up the danger here first.”

The Saintess Xia You was helpless. Now she had to consider whether it was worth it.

It was obviously not worth it to spend a great price to get rid of the nine neonates. In the end, she could only cultivate in the yin-yang Lake and absorb the yin-yang energy.

Unless she could get the yin-yang jade, she could only retreat with her people.

“Saintess, let’s run. This monster is too strong.”

Someone rushed over from afar. It was Li Long. When he saw that Lin Mo and the others were also there, his eyes suddenly turned cold.

“Hehe, everyone is here. What a coincidence. Are they planning to work together to get rid of this monster?”

Another chuckle sounded. The crown prince and the second prince were also there. The two of them walked together in a somewhat pathetic manner.

As for the guards that the two of them brought, they had long been killed by the nine neonates and were sent out by the array formation. They were already eliminated.

“This monster is very strong. Even if we join forces, I’m afraid it would be difficult for us to fight against it.” The crown prince shook his head.

He held a scarlet long spear in his hand. That was the Yan Huang Divine Empire's nation-protecting magic artifact, the flame god spear.

It was very difficult to meet a first-rank earth rank in the entire eastern continent.

"Let's retreat. It's not worth it," Saintess Xia You said as she prepared to leave.

"Wait a moment."

At this moment, Bai Luo spoke and stopped Saintess Xia You who was about to retreat.

"What's the matter?" Saintess Xia You stopped and looked at Bai Luo.

"We have yin fish." Bai Luo smiled. For the yin-yang jade, it was not impossible to work together with the enemy for a short while.

"Really?" The Saintess was stunned and overjoyed.

She immediately said, "That's great. I have yang Fish. Let's work together to refine the yin-yang jade and divide it equally."

However, Bai Luo did not say anything. He pointed at Jiang Xiyue and Lin Mo, indicating that he could not make the decision.

"Brother Lin, eighth princess, I don't know if you know the value of the yin-yang jade. It's an earth-grade treasure," the Saintess said quickly.

"Saintess, we have both yin and yang fish, so I'm afraid we can't split it equally."

Lin Mo smiled. Seeing that Jiang Xiyue was unwilling to speak, he could only go forward.

"It was when you left earlier..." Li long suddenly said.

When the team was advancing, Lin Mo left. It seemed that he had gone to catch yang fish. He was really well prepared...

"So, we have no reason to share the Yin-yang jade with you guys," Lin Mo said with a smile.

Bai Luo had already created the opportunity. It was obvious that he wanted to fight for the greatest benefit.

"Brother Lin, that's not true. You've seen the strength of the nine neonates. Even if the person beside you is mysterious and unpredictable, he shouldn't be able to fight against the nine neonates alone," Saintess Xia You said as she glanced at Bai Luo.

"If you don't defeat the nine neonates, you won't be able to use yin and yang qi to refine the yin-yang jade."

She pointed at herself, then looked at Li Long, crown prince Jiang Cheng, and said, "The three of us, together with the six of you, will have a chance."

"Royal sister, what is the yin-yang jade? Can you explain it to your royal brother?" The crown prince asked.

A treasure like the yin-yang Jade was too mysterious. From the conversation between Saintess Xia You and Lin Mo, he knew that it was very precious.

However, it was difficult for him to predict its exact value.

“Go away. If you want to know, you can check the ancient books yourself.” Jiang Xiyue rolled her eyes and couldn’t be bothered with him.

“Jiang Xiyue, why are you speaking to the crown prince?” The second prince said angrily, looking like a loyal subject.

“Stop it. There are only a few of us here. It’s useless to reveal our true identity.” Jiang Xiyue curled her lips.

If it weren’t for the fact that there was still Saintess Xia You and Li Long, she would really want to eliminate the crown prince.

Although the empty spirit talisman in his body could save his life, it would take years for his soul to recover.

“You...” the second prince’s eyes turned cold, but he didn’t dare to say anything when he saw Lin Mo and Bai Luo’s unfriendly eyes.

“The yin-yang jade has the power of balance. It can balance the attributes within the body. For example, I have the wind and thunder attribute. When I cultivate, I need to balance them so that I can break through.”

“As for the yin-yang Jade’s power of balance, it can play a crucial role. A piece the size of a thumb is equivalent to a third rank earth rank treasure.”

Saintess Xia You spoke, breaking the deadlock. At the same time, she told the crown prince about the value of the yin-yang jade.

“Brother Lin, what do you think?” She looked at Lin Mo.

At this moment, the nine neonates’ attack had stopped. It seemed unwilling to leave the yin-yang lake.

Its nine heads looked at Lin Mo and the others in the distance. Its scarlet pupils contracted and expanded, and its killing intent surged.

“How many yin-yang jades can the yin fish and yang fish in our hands refine?” Lin Mo asked Bai Luo telepathically.

“About five thumb-sized yin-yang jades. That’s pretty good,” Bai Luo replied telepathically.

“There’s a limited number of yin fish and yang fish, so we can only refine five pieces of yin-yang jades. We want three pieces here, and I’ll take the remaining two to Yue Xuan for auction. If you two have sufficient spirit stones, you can come and participate in the auction.”

Lin Mo smiled and voiced out his thoughts.

“Brother Lin, you’re a little greedy.” Saintess Xia You frowned.

Five pieces of yin-yang jades weren't enough to split. If she only took out two pieces, she would definitely keep one for herself, and the crown prince obviously wanted one as well...

"Isn't it enough that you can take three pieces? Do you still want us to pay for it?" The crown prince said coldly.

Lin Mo's actions were truly a little greedy.

"Those who are too bold will die, while those who are too timid will starve to death. If you think that you can kill us in the danger zone, it's not impossible for you to take all five pieces." Lin Mo shrugged.

The yin-yang jade was not cheap. Saintess Xia You should not give up.

"Tell me if you're willing or not. Otherwise, let's go our separate ways."

After saying that, Lin Mo acted like he was going to leave. The nine neonates glared at him from afar. He really couldn't stay here for long.

"Wait..."

Saintess Xia You opened her mouth. After a moment of contemplation, she said, "Sure, but when you auction, don't arrange for someone to raise the price maliciously."

She looked at Lin Mo with an unfriendly gaze.

Clearly, no one had ever dared to threaten her again and again, especially someone like Lin Mo, who had already taken spirit stones from her hands once. Now, he wanted to do it again.

"Who's going to bid? Saintess, can't you tell..."

Lin Mo smiled slightly. The terms had been agreed. The rest was to work together to deal with the nine neonates.

"Miss, have you not asked for your name?" Saintess Xia You looked at Bai Luo and suddenly asked.

"Bai Luo, a loose cultivator," Bai Luo replied simply.

Hearing this, Saintess Xia You continued, "Miss Bai Luo, can you tell me the weakness of the nine neonates?"

Before this, she had never heard of a demonic beast like the nine neonates.

She knew nothing about its weakness.

Chapter 404: Use All of Your Trump Cards

"Just hit its head and blow up all nine of its heads," Bai Luo said.

The most powerful thing about the nine neonates was that as long as it had one head, it wouldn't die. Also, as long as it had enough energy, it would be able to quickly revive.

“The instant its head regenerates, it will be at its weakest. You can attack it,” Bai Luo warned.

At the same time, he also reminded everyone that the nine neonates had a large amount of fire poison and frost poison in its body. If it wasn't restrained, even immortal-foundation ascendants wouldn't be able to save it.

“Xiyue, you can attack from afar. Just maintain your dragon might,” Lin Mo spoke.

Jiang Xiyue's true dragon's power originated from the blood in the true dragon's heart. It was an extremely precious bloodline, allowing her to possess the might of an ancient true dragon.

Although the nine neonates was a natural demonic beast, it was also a snake. A true dragon could naturally suppress it.

“Got it. Be careful.” Jiang Xiyue nodded.

She didn't rush forward. Instead, she stayed behind and supported Lin Mo and Bai Luo with long-range attacks.

The second prince was also not far away. His combat strength was relatively weak. Although he had reached the realm, he couldn't participate in a battle of this scale.

“Hey, you're being too biased. I'm also a girl, why don't you let me hide behind?”

Bai Luo said with dissatisfaction as he fought against the nine neonate's bite together with Lin Mo.

The nine neonates was incomparably powerful, and it was the most dangerous for them to charge in front. Lin Mo's tactical arrangement was really biased...

“Cough cough... It's more convenient for Xiyue to release her draconic aura from a distance...”

Lin Mo's old face turned red as he said shamelessly.

“Wow, valuing a woman over a friend.” Bai Luo gave Lin Mo a disdainful look. This guy wasn't even serious when he was perfunctory.

“Human, why do you have a familiar smell on your body?”

At this moment, the nine neonate's head bit towards Lin mo. its sharp fangs were covered in saliva.

At this moment, the nine neonates spoke in human language. While Lin Mo was repelled by the head, he was also taken care of by the nine neonates.

“I smell it. It's the Huancai Fire Demon. Hand it over and I'll allow you to refine the yin-yang Jade.”

The nine heads of the nine neonates stuck out at the same time. After getting rid of Saintess Xia You and the others, its huge body drilled out from the yin-yang lake.

A pair of sharp claws ruthlessly clawed at Li Long. The latter could not resist at all and was sent flying with a single strike.

Its body scraped a deep ravine on the ground. There were three bloody scars on its chest that emitted black gas.

“He lost the ability to fight with just one strike...”

Lin Mo was shocked. Seeing the nine neonates' other claws clawing over, he couldn't care less. His Kun Peng wings spread, and his body disappeared in an instant.

The nine neonates; body appeared. It looked like a naga, but its head had nine snake heads.

“Lin Mo, dodge quickly!” Jiang Xiyue's scream came from behind. Lin Mo came back to his senses, and the nine neonate's claws had already slapped over.

“Origin soul puppet, show yourself!”

Lin Mo waved his hand and summoned the origin soul puppet. His soul entered the puppet and his body retreated quickly to Jiang Xiyue's side.

“Help me protect her.”

He said in a low voice and controlled the origin soul puppet to help Bai Luo.

At this moment, the nine heads of the nine neonates spurted out fire and water together, suppressing the Saintess Xia You. Bai Luo only survived because of the Kun Peng Wings.

“Evil creature, die.”

Lin Mo rushed over. The original soul puppet held the ancient sword of desolation and slashed down viciously, cutting off one of the nine neonate's heads.

The nine neonates let out a baby's cry. It was extremely terrifying.

At this moment, Bai Luo also took the opportunity to attack. He threw out a talisman that emitted lightning and stuck it on one of the heads.

“Thunderstorm talisman, explode!”

Bai Luo formed a seal and the talisman exploded. Lightning exploded and the second head of the nine neonates was blown into pieces.

“Thunderstorm flash!”

In the distance, Saintess Xia You used her powerful Nirvana Realm strength to block the head-on attack of the nine neonates.

At the same time, she held a long sword in her hand and her figure disappeared with a gust of wind.

When she reappeared, she was already behind the nine neonates. She slashed down with her long sword and the power of wind and lightning exploded, cutting off two of the nine neonate's heads.

The nine neonates screamed once again, and the baby's cries became even more mournful.

“Flame Divine Spear, Sun Piercing Stab.” At the same time that Saintess Xia You attacked, the crown prince also attacked, using an earth-grade magic artifact to unleash a powerful attack.

The fifth head of the nine neonates was also pierced through, and black blood flowed out.

“Damned ants.”

The yin-yang lake erupted, and the nine neonates roared furiously. The lake water crazily gathered towards the nine neonates.

Under the infusion of such a huge amount of power, the nine neonate’s head, which had been chopped off by Lin Mo in the beginning, began to gradually recover.

“Don’t stop attacking. This beast’s recovery speed is too fast.”

Lin Mo was shocked. The origin soul puppet had already been used. At this moment, he could no longer hide his weakness.

The sword qi on the desolation ancient sword moved rhythmically, and the Kun Peng Wings flapped, spreading out on the puppet’s back.

The ancient Kun Peng’s aura was released. Such a powerful aura shocked everyone present.

“This is... The Ancient Divine Beast Kun Peng?” Saintess Xia You looked at Lin Mo. no wonder he was so fast just now. It turned out to be the ancient Kun Peng.

“It should be a remnant spell. This fellow’s luck is so good?” crown prince Jiang Cheng looked at Lin Mo with incomparable envy.

At the same time, the depths of his eyes were burning with jealousy.

Puppets, ancient Kun Peng techniques, and many hidden treasures.

This Lin Mo was also someone with great opportunities. If he couldn’t use him, it would be best to get rid of him.

“Don’t just stand there. Let’s attack together,” Saintess Xia You said.

With Lin Mo blocking in front, they could attack without restraint.

The first head that the nine neonates had just recovered from was directly chopped off by Lin Mo. at the same time, it blocked both of its claws.

“This is the yin-yang lake. As long as the yin-yang Lake doesn’t dry up, my power will continue to flow. Anyone who stands in my way will die.”

With a furious roar, the nine-headed dragon retaliated violently. The yin-yang Lake behind it rose up, forming a wave that was 1,000 meters tall.

The feeling of extreme yin and extreme yang appeared in everyone’s hearts at the same time.

Even Jiang Xiyue, who was far away, frowned. Her dragon’s might was no longer effective, and it could no longer affect the nine-headed dragon.

She wanted to help, but when she saw Lin Mo sitting cross-legged next to her, she held back.

Li long and the second prince were still not far away. She was worried about letting them take care of Lin Mo.

“Miss Bai Luo, Don’t hide your strength anymore. If this goes on, let alone the yin-yang Jade, we might not even be able to leave alive.”

Saintess Xia You said. Now that Lin Mo had revealed his trump card, she and Bai Luo could not hide their strength anymore.

“You’re the one hiding your weaknesses, right? I really don’t understand why you’re so wary of me. Am I the type of person to stab you in the back?” Bai Luo curled her lips and said.

Although Saintess Xia You had displayed a very strong battle prowess, it was definitely not just that.

She still had a trump card that she had yet to use.

“Alright then, the two of us shouldn’t hide our weaknesses anymore. Let’s attack together. Your Highness, I’ll have to trouble you to find an opportunity to launch a sneak attack.”

Saintess Xia You nodded and took the lead to charge forward. The sword qi in her longsword hummed as an intense sword qi burst forth.

“Sigh, if only Lil’ Die was here...”

Bai Luo sighed as she pointed her long spear forward. Her aura suddenly changed, and her eyes gradually became sharp.

“The first test of the god-sealing spear art is the spear as my heart!”

Chapter 405: The Biggest Winner

At this moment, the long spear in her hand suddenly changed, as if it had become one with her.

The Kun Peng’s wings spread out behind her back, and the aura of the ancient Kun Peng spread out, shocking everyone once again.

Bai Luo’s figure instantly appeared in front of Lin Mo. at this moment, her condition was a little different.

Lin Mo couldn’t help but look over. He saw that Bai Luo’s body was emitting a king’s aura. Each and every move of hers was filled with mystery.

“Don’t be distracted. I won’t be able to maintain this state for long.” Bai Luo’s calm voice sounded.

The nine neonates’ head fiercely swung over, wanting to throw Lin Mo and Bai Luo into the yin-yang Lake.

At the same time, the thousand-meter wave also smashed down, wanting to bury everyone below.

“Leave this move to me.”

Saintess Xia You’s voice rang out. She charged forward alone. The wind whistled in her right hand, and thunder rumbled in her left hand.

She pressed her palms together. The two forces were perfectly fused by her, and they gradually expanded with the infusion of spiritual qi.

Finally, the power of wind and thunder was thrown out by Saintess Xia You. It exploded in mid-air, and the attack that the nine neonates launched with the yin-yang lake was actually blocked.

The terrifying waves dispersed, and the power within the Yin yang lake surged.

However, even though this attack was blocked, when the nine neonates reappeared in everyone's line of sight, they had already regenerated eight heads.

And that last one had also recovered half of its power and was about to recover.

"What terrifying recovery power."

Lin Mo was shocked. The nine neonates was simply terrifying within the yin-yang lake. They had used all their trump cards, yet it was about to recover.

"Don't delay. Continue to attack."

Bai Luo said. The long spear in her hand was only at the 9th tier of the spirit grade, but the power it released was comparable to Jiang Cheng's flame divine spear.

She swept her long spear horizontally, sweeping away the attack of the nine neonate's claws. At the same time, she stabbed out with her spear. A brilliant light blossomed from her spear, piercing through the head that was about to be resurrected.

"Jiang Cheng, don't just stand there. are earth-grade magic tools used for staring into space?" Lin Mo shouted, asking the crown prince, who was not far away, to step forward and attack.

"You..."

The crown prince was furious. There was no one here and none of them wanted to take it anymore. Jiang Xi had no eyes for her elder brother, and this Lin Mo was commanding him directly.

"Cut the crap. Hurry up and attack, or give me your earth-grade spear."

Bai Luo shouted from not far away and asked the crown prince to help.

"I don't need you to command me," the crown prince said coldly as he entered the battlefield with the flame divine spear in his hand.

However, it was clear that when the nine neonates became serious, its attack power was extremely terrifying.

Even the Nirvana Realm Holy Maiden, Xia You, didn't dare to underestimate it.

Now that Bai Luo had used an unknown technique, Lin Mo's soul directly entered the puppet. Only crown prince jiang cheng didn't have any trump cards left.

The only advantage he had was that the Earth-rank magic tool, flame divine spear, could cause damage to the nine neonates.

“Ants, die!”

The nine neonates roared as it swiped its sharp claws at Lin Mo and Bai Luo, intending to kill them.

This was because, from what it could sense, Bai Luo and Lin Mo, who were in this state, were the greatest threats.

However, the two of them had their battle prowess skyrocket at this moment. One spear, one sword, they engaged in a fierce battle with the nine neonates.

Saintess Xia You would attack from time to time, and each strike would bring great trouble to the nine neonates.

After a few hundred rounds, Bai Luo’s face was a little pale, and the hand holding the long spear was trembling.

“How is it?” Lin Mo asked.

This move of Bai Luo’s was too terrifying to increase her combat power, but it also consumed a lot of energy.

It had only been five minutes, and Bai Luo was already a little unable to hold on.

“I can still maintain my peak combat power for another minute...”

Bai Luo panted heavily. She had to remove this state after a minute, or else her spiritual power would be severely overdrawn and her origin would be damaged.

“Hold on, there are still three more heads.” Saintess Xiyou rushed over to help Bai Luo and Lin Mo block the nine neonate’s attack.

The three of them attacked together. Sword qi and snatching light burst out, instantly shattering the remaining two heads of the nine neonates.

“It’s trying to escape.” Bai Luo hurriedly shouted.

The nine neonates only had one head left, and they were almost at their limit.

Saintess Xia You had very little spiritual energy left, and Lin Mo’s original soul puppet was injured. His left arm was bitten off by the nine neonate, and he didn’t know where it had fallen to.

Bai Luo had no choice but to end the first test of the god restraining spear execution.

“Take this, chase...”

She handed Lin Mo three talismans, which were three thunderstorm talismans. If she could stick it on the nine neonate’s head, she would definitely be able to defeat it.

“Leave it to me.”

Lin Mo put away the ancient sword of desolation and flew into the yin-yang lake with the thunderstorm talisman in his hand.

Just as he landed, the nine neonate's attack came. At this moment, it had already recovered its second head.

The third head was also recovering at a speed visible to the naked eye.

Upon seeing this, the Kun Peng Wings on Lin Mo's back flapped and he instantly appeared in front of the nine neonates.

The ancient Kun Peng represented the extreme speed of the world. Even if it was an incomplete technique, it was not something the nine neonates could compare to.

It could not stop Lin Mo at all. After being affixed with the thunderstorm talisman, Lin Mo detonated it on the spot, and a terrifying energy fluctuation spread out.

The original soul puppet was also injured by the explosion, and a glaring crack appeared on its chest.

After the explosion, the nine neonate's corpse appeared in front of Lin Mo.

A pearl the size of a dragon's eye floated in the lake, and it was blasted out by the aftermath of the explosion.

On the pearl, there was actually a yin-yang diagram engraved on it.

"Is this the inner core of the nine neonates? It's so mysterious, it feels like it's next to the Dao..."

Lin Mo was extremely shocked. He was only a puppet controlled by his soul right now, so he was unable to comprehend the Dao principles.

Even so, he could already feel the power within.

One could imagine the value of this inner core.

"Didn't Bai Luo say that it was poisonous..." Lin Mo curled his lips. It seemed like this girl had deceived even him in order to deceive Saintess Xia You...

"That's good. You don't have to take this thing out."

Lin Mo smiled. His soul power surged and kept the inner core into the system space. Then, he swaggered out.

When he broke out of the water, Bai Luo, Jiang Xiyue, and the others were waiting by the yin-yang Lake.

"Lin Mo..." Seeing Lin Mo break out of the water, Jiang Xiyue finally felt relieved.

"It's good that you're safe. How is it?" Bai Luo revealed a mysterious smile as he looked at Lin Mo.

Sensing her smile, Lin Mo's soul returned to his original body. He smiled mysteriously and said, "It's done. The nine neonates is dead. We can refine the yin-yang jade now."

"What about the nine neonate's inner core? It's also a treasure. Didn't you bring it out?" crown prince jiang cheng asked.

He had been staring at Lin Mo from the start and realized that there was nothing unusual about the original soul puppet...

“Isn’t that thing poisonous? I didn’t take it. If you want it, you can go down yourself. It should be at the bottom of the lake,” Lin Mo curled his lips and said.

“It’s best not to go. The yin-yang Lake is unfathomable. It’s not something we can explore at our level,” Bai Luo said.

She asked Lin Mo to take out the yin fish and yang fish. Jiang Xiyue was in the best condition right now.

Bai Luo told Jiang Xiyue the method to refine the yin-yang jade.

“Hehe, it’s a pleasure to work with you. As for your yin-yang Jade, it will be auctioned at that time. Just prepare enough spirit stones to buy it,” Bai Luo said with a chuckle.

She and Lin Mo looked at each other. They would be the biggest winners this time.

The spiritual energy by the yin-yang Lake was abundant. After two hours, they recovered and Lin Mo’s original soul puppet was repaired.

With the help of the yin-yang energy, the puppet was about to break through to the fourth sky of the Nirvana realm.

After a while, Jiang Xiyue’s voice was heard, “The yin-yang Jade is ready.”

Chapter 406: The Elimination Round

There were exactly five pieces of yin-yang Jade. Everyone was envious. This was an earth-grade treasure. Even the national treasury of the Yanhuang dynasty had never recorded such a treasure before.

“Brother Lin, please keep your promise.”

Saintess Xiyue looked at the yin-yang Jade in Jiang Xiyue’s hand. She restrained her aura and didn’t try to snatch it.

Jiang Cheng wanted to make a move, but he felt that he was no match for her, so he could only watch.

“Don’t worry. The two pieces of yin-yang Jade will be auctioned soon. You can come and support us.” Lin Mo smiled faintly.

At this moment, a ray of light lit up in their bodies.

The ethereal talismans in their bodies circulated, and they turned into a ray of light and disappeared by the yin-yang Lake.

Lin Mo felt the space squirm, and a silvery-white light flashed before finally appearing in a public square.

This public square was built for the preliminary selection, and there were exactly a thousand people standing in it.

“That was close. Why didn’t you tell me you had a teleportation talisman...”

Lin Mo heard a sigh of relief. Bai Luo had also come out through the teleportation array, but he was a little slower than them.

The experts in charge of guarding the teleportation array didn't notice anything strange either.

"I forgot. Also, what kind of method are you using?" Lin Mo was a little shocked. His soul power swept across the area, yet there were still 1,000 people here.

However, it was clear that Bai Luo hadn't been teleported out through the spatial talisman.

"Using a talisman to tear open space and replace a person's position. Your method is a little shady, so don't make a fuss about it."

Bai Luo casually explained.

When she sensed that everyone had entered the teleportation array, she hurriedly used a spatial talisman to follow. On the way, she used a powerful method to suppress a person who was in the middle of teleportation, killing him and replacing his position.

The empty spirit talisman protected that person, but because he was killed, he was also teleported to the loser's camp.

Without anyone noticing, Bai Luo had managed to fool everyone.

"That talisman must be very expensive. The array formation that enshrouds this place is a level eight spirit class..."

Jiang Xiyue said in surprise. Bai Luo's identity was really mysterious. He even had such a method...

"Big Brother..."

A cheer came from afar. Lin Die ran through the crowd and came to Lin Mo's side.

"Die."

Lin Mo chuckled and reached out his hand to hold die in his arms.

"Go away, go away. Men and women can't be taught clearly. Xiao Die, come to me."

A pair of Bai Zhe's hands snatched Lin Die from Lin Mo's arms. Bai Luo glared at Lin Mo and took Lin die away.

"Master, I heard that there's a monster in the Yin-yang land. How did you guys deal with it?" Yan Rong walked over.

He was waiting in the extreme yang land. During the process of waiting, many people fled for their lives. They were all saying that there was a monster in the yin-yang land.

That monster was very strong. Even the Nirvana Stage Holy Maiden Xia You was no match for it.

Many of their experts went forward. In the end, they were defeated. Countless people were killed and injured. After they escaped, they all left.

“Don’t worry. It’s already done. However, did you obtain an opportunity and break through?” Lin Mo asked.

He looked at Yan Rong. This fellow was at the 27th level of the dragon transformation stage before they separated. Now, his realm had already reached the 30th level of the dragon transformation stage.

This leap was a bit big, which made him a bit surprised. Yan Rong had refined some kind of supreme treasure.

“It’s all thanks to the mission arranged by master,” Yan Rong said with a smile.

It turned out that when he brought Lin Die to the rescue, the woman was extremely lucky and met a half-step earth grade Skyfire Divine Lotus.

However, she was tracked from the beginning, so she was attacked and her life was on the line.

Fortunately, Yan Rong and Lin Die arrived in time to save her.

“She was grateful to us. She divided the Skyfire Divine Lotus into three parts and refined them together.”

After saying that, Yan Rong looked at Lin Die. After he and the woman had refined the Skyfire Divine Lotus, their realms had soared, but Lin Die hadn’t improved at all. All the spiritual essence had been compressed in her body.

“Don’t worry. Xiaodie is preparing for the next transformation.”

Bai Luo smiled. She checked Lin Die’s body and was very satisfied.

“Not bad. You didn’t mistreat Xiao Die. She has already reached the fourth change. After the next change, she will be able to break through to the Nirvana stage.”

Seeing this, she also heaved a sigh of relief. What she was most worried about was that even Lin Mo couldn’t afford to take care of Lin Die.

However, it seemed that she was worrying too much. In a short period of time, there were still many benefits for Lin Die to follow Lin Mo. .

“Congratulations on passing the preliminaries and advancing successfully. The elimination round will begin in seven days.”

An old man suddenly appeared in the sky and stood in the air.

He looked at the crowd below and nodded in satisfaction. He continued, “Let me explain the rules of the elimination round here.”

The thousands of people in the square were focused. Even Jiang Xiyue was curious. She did not know the rules of the competition.

“The rules are as follows. In the royal hunting ground, there will be a free-for-all. 100 people will be selected. No one will be allowed to use the formation plates and talismans that have been engraved in advance. No one will be allowed to kill anyone.”

“The 100 people who are still standing in the end will be rewarded by the Emperor.”

Another free-for-all. 100 people out of 1,000 people would be under a lot of pressure.

At that time, even Saintess Xiyou wouldn't dare to say that she could fight against 100 people alone.

“Senior, isn't this a bit unfair?” Someone shouted.

These words resonated with many people.

They had come out of the danger zone with great difficulty, but the rules of the next match were so careless.

“The path of cultivators is unfair to begin with. If you're not satisfied, you don't have to participate.” After saying this, the old man in the air disappeared.

A large number of soldiers immediately surged into the square, asking everyone to leave the stage. The next ones to be teleported out were those who had failed.

At the bottom of the square, there were specialized people registering. After recording the information of those who had passed the preliminary selection, some people had already begun to leave.

At this moment, the formation above the danger zone activated, and space split open.

One after another, human figures fell down like dumplings.

They lay in disorder on the square, and soon, the place was filled with people. Many people's expressions changed.

Some sect elders cried out in pain because they saw their own disciples.

There were even holy sons among them. The Holy Land Elders looked at each other in disbelief.

“They were killed in the danger zone. The Empty Spirit Talisman saved them, but their souls were injured. They won't be able to wake up for three years.”

A person in charge explained that the empty spirit talisman could only protect their lives, but the damage to their souls had to be recovered by themselves.

“Let's go. We don't have anything else to do. When you go back, start preparing the materials for the breakthrough to the Monolith Forbidden Land.”

Bai Luo said indifferently. She had already gotten away with it. A person in charge had registered her information, so there was nothing to worry about.

“Brother Lin, I wonder when your auction will be held?”

Just as Lin Mo was about to leave, Saintess Xia you walked over and looked at Lin Mo. .

Crown Prince Jiang Cheng was also at the side, partnering with Saintess Xia you.

“What? Saintess Xia You is looking forward to Lin Mo's auction? It Can't be...”

Some people were shocked. In their eyes, Saintess Xia you was a fairy who had entered the mortal world. How could there be anything she was looking forward to in the mortal world...

Chapter 407: Shocking Changes in the Purple Moon Palace

“What’s there to be surprised about? You Don’t know that ever since Lin Mo took control of Yue Xuan, good items have always appeared in the Yue Xuan Auction.”

“Yeah, every item is amazing. Looks like the SAINTESS has calculated the final treasure of Lin Mo’s next auction...”

“You can even calculate that?”

“What do you know? Saintess Xia you can calculate the heavenly secrets. How difficult is it to calculate the final treasure?”

Many people in the surroundings were discussing and had a blind confidence in Saintess Xia you.

“Hehe, if nothing unexpected happens, it can be held tonight.”

Lin Mo cupped his fists and said. This was already the second time she had asked. Did she really not trust him...

Saintess Xia you smiled faintly and said, “Then I’ll wait for Your Good News.”

After answering, Lin Mo and the others quickly left the place. On the way, Lin Die asked curiously.

“Sister Bai Luo, is that Saintess Xia you really able to calculate the heavenly secrets?” She had been curious for a long time.

Because this Saintess’ fame was too high, she had to believe it.

“Of course not. Nirvana stage divining the Secrets of Heaven is no different from courting death.” Bai Luo curled her lips.

She told everyone that there were indeed experts who could divulge the secrets of heaven in this world. However, it was not easy to meet such an existence.

“Does your family have such an expert?” Lin Mo asked curiously.

“Guess.” Bai Luo smiled slyly and did not answer.

Lin Mo rolled his eyes and said, “Forget it if you don’t want to tell me.”

“You want to know so much? There’s no harm in telling you. Just sign the contract and sell Xiaodie to me, and I’ll tell you.” Bai Luo chuckled.

Until now, she was still thinking about Xiaodie.

“Hey, I’m not a commodity, how can I sell it?” Lin Die had a dissatisfied look on her face. Why did she end up talking about her.

“In short, she can only predict some things, but not to the extent of divination.”

Bai Luo explained. Divination was very mysterious, and she did not know much.

“She is indeed very powerful. I can predict some things related to her, but not all of them. You just have to be careful in front of her.”

The group chatted and slowly returned to the Purple Moon Palace.

As expected, just as they returned, the array formation of the Purple Moon Palace had already been broken. Luo Haoyu sat at the entrance of the main hall with a gloomy expression, waiting for Jiang Xiyue to return.

“Your Highness, who is this?”

Luo Haoyu was about to report when he noticed Bai Luo and looked over warily.

“Elder Luo, don’t worry. Her name is Bai Luo. She is one of us.” Jiang Xiyue waved her hand.

She looked at Bai Luo. This girl with an extraordinary background should be one of us. She didn’t object to her words.

“Speak, elder Luo. What Happened?”

Luo Haoyu’s face turned ugly when he heard that. He knelt down and said, “I was incompetent and failed to defend the Purple Moon Palace. The Purple Moon Palace was broken through.”

“I understand. How was the loss?” Jiang Xiyue nodded. She was mentally prepared for this news.

“The Purple Moon Palace’s treasury was broken. The other party didn’t gain much. In a fit of anger, they destroyed all the formations of the Purple Moon Palace.”

“Yue Xuan’s treasury was also broken. The formations were completely destroyed. Tang Chen, who was in charge of guarding the treasury, was severely injured.”

“Apart from that, five of the elders in the Purple Moon Palace were killed. The rest were also heavily injured. I was stopped by someone and was unable to make a move...”

Hearing Luo Haoyu’s report, Jiang Xiyue’s face sank. The Emperor had finally made a move on her.

“Five people were killed...” she muttered to herself. The weakest one guarding Purple Moon Palace was at the third sky of the Nirvana realm.

It was extremely difficult to train them. It was too disastrous to lose five people at once...

“Also...” Luo Haoyu wanted to say something, but he stopped himself. There were still terrible things.

“Speak.”

Jiang Xiyue said in a low voice, her face filled with anger.

This was an action against her. She had long guessed that things would not be so simple.

If they had gained something from the treasure vault, perhaps those people would not have died. However, with nothing to gain, the Emperor would definitely be ruthless.

“Father, oh father, sometimes even I doubt myself. Am I really your biological son...”

She felt a sense of desolation. They were both members of the imperial family, so why was she being targeted like this.

“There are still three old men who are seriously injured and have injured their origin. If they don’t be treated, their lives will be lost.”

“The Damask Dantian has suffered a serious injury. Their strength has dropped from the sixth sky of the Nirvana stage to the fifth sky of the Nirvana stage.”

The three old men were also powerhouses at the fifth sky of the Nirvana stage. They were deliberately targeted, and they were not far from death...

“So ruthless...”

Lin Mo was speechless. The team that Jiang Xiyue had spent so much effort to build was beaten back to its original state in just one day.

“Take me to have a look. Maybe there’s still hope.”

Bai Luo sighed. This princess was really miserable to be targeted by her own father.

“Well, Sister Xiyue, don’t be sad. Let’s go and take a look. Sister Bai Luo has many tricks up her sleeve. She must have a way.”

Lin Die held Jiang Xiyue’s hand and shook it slightly as she consoled her.

“Hey, don’t make random promises. I’m not confident.” Bai Luo knocked Lin die’s smooth forehead hard.

Although Luo Haoyu didn’t believe it, he still led everyone into the depths of the Purple Moon Palace.

In a spacious room, there were 11 beds. The person lying on them had a weak aura, like a candle in the wind.

“Is the palace master here...”

A sweet female voice came from the innermost white jade bed. A beautiful middle-aged woman was lying on it, not moving at all.

Her face was pale, and wisps of pure spiritual energy were dissipating in her dantian. It was her shattered dantian.

Her Dantian could not retain the spiritual energy. If it continued to dissipate like this, she would become an ordinary person in less than a month.

“Auntie...”

Jiang Xiyue was shocked. She walked quickly to the beautiful woman and held her hand anxiously.

She didn't know alchemy and didn't know how to treat her dantian. She couldn't even save her.

"Miss Bai Luo, do you have a way? Save her..."

Jiang Xiyue looked at Bai Luo and pleaded. She was going to bow down to her.

Bai Luo was startled by her gesture. He quickly pushed her away, not daring to accept the bow.

"Don't. If you bow down to Lin Mo, you won't be able to find trouble with me..."

Bai Luo said. In the end, she could only sigh helplessly and said, "I can only say that I'll try my best. Let me take a look at my injuries first..."

As she said that, she walked forward and injected her soul power into her body, starting to examine her injuries.

"Aunt?" Lin Mo asked curiously.

"This is qiluo, my mother's younger sister, also known as my aunt."

"You... just call her aunt..." Jiang Xiyue blushed and said.

"Oh... Xiyue, I thought you were too proud to find a dao partner," qiluo chuckled on the white jade bed.

Upon hearing that Lin Mo was Jiang Xiyue's dao partner, her face turned red and she was very happy.

"Aunty, stop talking for now. Your injury will definitely be treated," Jiang Xiyue said with a red face.

At this time, she didn't even think about rebelling and fighting for the throne. She only hoped that Aunty could recover.

"My Dantian was deliberately injured. The purpose was for you to waste resources to save me. It's useless..."

Chapter 408: 10,000-year Earth Milk for life extension

Qiluo shook her head. The person who attacked her was very powerful. He crushed her in the entire process and even crippled her dantian.

"Fortunately, the other party spared your life and let us waste resources. However, it's precisely because of this that you can still be saved."

At this moment, Bai Luo, who had been observing for a long time, withdrew her soul power and said.

"Oh, little girl, even that medicine jar said that I'm hopeless. Are you sure?" Qiluo asked curiously.

She was quite happy to hear that she could still be saved, but her rationality still prevailed. She wasn't happy, but rather curious about how to save her.

"Take out the ten-thousand-year-old earth milk." Bai Luo reached out to Lin Mo and asked for the ten-thousand-year-old earth milk.

“You want to use the 10,000-year-old Earth Milk?” Lin Mo was stunned. Could such a treasure have healing effects?

“I can’t bear to use it. Don’t tell me you want me to use my own? Dream on, hurry up.” Bai Luo rolled his eyes.

“Alright, if you can save it, you can use it all.” Lin Mo said.

Of course, there was one more thing he didn’t say. If the 10,000-year-old Earth milk didn’t have any effects, he had something even better...

“I have five drops left. I intended to give them to elder Luo and the rest.” Lin Mo waved his hand.

He was not lying. It was naturally good that these powerhouses were willing to follow Jiang Xiyue. If they were to give sufficient benefits and make some promises, they would not have to worry about being betrayed.

However, he did not expect that Jiang Xiyue’s top-notch powerhouse had an unusual relationship with her...

“Ah, little girl, how can you use ten-thousand-year-old earth milk like this...”

Just as Bai Luo poured out a drop of ten-thousand-year-old earth milk to help Qi Luo refine it, the door of the room was pushed open, and an old man rushed in.

“Who are you?” Bai Luo was displeased. This old man lectured her right away, and it made her unhappy.

“Yao Lao, Your Hand?” Jiang Xiyue was shocked. The old man who came in was one-armed, and his face was as pale as paper.

“Medicine Pot, you came at the right time. This girl said that Qiluo could be saved. See how you can save her,” Luo Haoyu said quickly.

“She has ten-thousand-year-old earth milk. She might have a chance.”

The old man walked over and took over Bai Luo. He used his spiritual essence to help Qiluo refine the ten-thousand-year-old earth milk.

It had to be said that his technique was very profound. Under the seal, his refining speed was much faster than Bai Luo’s.

“So You’re an alchemist. Alright then, you do it.” Bai Luo waved his hand and was delighted to be free.

Under the old man’s refinement, Qi Qi no longer flowed out from the Dantian of the beautiful silk. Her injuries began to recover.

“That’s great. With the 10,000-year-old Earth milk and the spiritual pills I refined to nourish you, you’ll be able to recover very quickly.”

The old man was overjoyed. A smile also appeared on Luo Haoyu’s face. After suppressing himself for so long, there was finally good news.

“Medicine jar, there are still four drops of 10,000-year-old Earth milk. Keep One Drop for yourself, and save the three of them.”

Luo Haoyu pulled the old man with a broken arm to the other side. On the three white jade beds, there was still the old man with three eyes lying on the bed, and he was on the verge of death.

“Hehe, that’s easy to say, but Qiluo’s strength can’t be recovered. After all, she has injured the origin.”The Old Man Called Medicine Jar took the 10,000-year-old Earth milk and sighed.

“Isn’t it simple? She can be saved, and her strength might even increase.”

After the medicine pot came to a conclusion, Bai Luo spoke again.

“Little girl, I found that you are targeting me. Tell me, how can I Save Her?”The medicine pot blew his beard and said with widened eyes.

“Take out the nine-neonate inner core.”Bai Luo reached out to Lin Mo again.

“Didn’t the nine-neonate inner core sink into the yin-yang Lake? Also, isn’t it poisonous?”Jiang Xiyue was stunned.

However, when Lin Mo took out the nine-neonate inner core, everyone was stunned.

The inner core was engraved with the yin-yang Taiji diagram. The power of the water element and the fire element appeared. These two forces formed the power of yin and yang.

“This senior happens to be of the water and fire element. The nine-neonate inner core is perfect for you.”

Bai Luo smiled and explained to Jiang Xiyue. The so-called inner core was poisonous was completely nonsense. The purpose was naturally to obtain this inner core.

“This is an inner core. Are you sure it’s not a spirit pill?”The Medicine Pot’s face was filled with disbelief.

He grabbed the inner core and observed it carefully. The more he observed, the more difficult it was to hide the shock on his face.

“How magical. It contains the laws of heaven and earth. What kind of Demonic Beast’s inner core is this?”The medicine pot muttered to himself. This had already exceeded his understanding.

“Yao Lao, this is the inner core of an ancient great demon, the nine neonate.”Jiang Xiyue said and told him about the origin of the nine neonate.

“Innate rare beast... no wonder...”

The medicine pot held the nine neonate inner core and fell into deep thought. In the end, Luo Haoyu slapped him awake and asked him to quickly treat the three people who were seriously injured and dying.

“Luo Haoyu, don’t interrupt me while I’m thinking. I Won’t die if I delay for a while.”The medicine pot roared angrily.

“Do you want to hear what you’re saying?” Luo Haoyu said angrily. The most important thing at the moment was to save them.

“Aunty, you guys heal first. Leave the resources to me,” Jiang Xiyue said.

It just so happened that the auction was going to be held tonight. The resources they obtained could allow these people to heal their injuries.

However, just as they were about to leave Purple Moon Palace and go to the Moon Pavilion, they found that Purple Moon Palace was already surrounded...

There were patrolling soldiers all around the perimeter, causing Jiang Xiyue’s face to turn completely dark.

“Your Highness, this is the emperor’s intention. Purple Moon Palace has been attacked and the array formation has been broken. We are responsible for protecting the princess’s safety.”

“Please return to Purple Moon Palace and don’t go out.”

The patrolling soldiers knelt down and said with a resolute attitude. There was no room for negotiation.

“Good... very good...”

Jiang Xiyue said in a deep voice. She was grounded. It was really obvious that they were targeting her. Did they really think that she would not dare to rebel...

Seeing this, Lin Mo grabbed Jiang Xiyue’s hand and shook his head. He said in a low voice, “Bear with it!”

“Phew...”

After taking a few deep breaths, Jiang Xiyue calmed down. There was no joy or anger on her face.

“Trust me, I will get enough resources...”

Lin Mo whispered in her ear. He left the Purple Moon Palace alone, and the guards did not stop him.

As for Bai Luo, Lin Mo wanted to get rid of her and follow Jiang Xiyue. If necessary, he would take her away. This was his request.

He knew that Bai Luo had a way. The Emperor had already made his move. He did not know if he could survive this crisis.

However, he had to be prepared for the worst.

Yue Xuan. At this moment, Yue Xuan looked a little dilapidated. Even the plaque had been smashed by someone, and no one was hanging it up.

Lin Mo walked in and realized that there were people coming and going. There was still an endless stream of people.

These people had come because of their fame, especially for tonight’s auction. Saintess Xia you was looking forward to it. It could be seen how valuable it was.

Lin Mo took over Yue Xuan and prepared the items for tonight’s auction under Huixiang’s report.

“It’s been hard on you. Go take care of senior Tang Chen. I’ll go visit him after the auction,” Lin Mo said.

The sun set in the west. Following the sound of the auction hammer striking, the Yue Xuan auction began.

“Welcome to the auction tonight...”

Chapter 409: Taking advantage of a burning house

Although something had happened to Yue Xuan, many of the major powers in the imperial city had been attacked.

Some people had already guessed who it was, but there was nothing they could do.

Their family’s treasury had been emptied, causing them to suffer heavy losses. Therefore, while they sympathized with Yue Xuan, they were also secretly sad.

“Right, there will be a slight change in the rules of tonight’s auction. There will be no time limit for each treasure to be auctioned. Only when someone successfully bids will the next one begin.”

On the stage, Lin Mo added. What he lacked the most right now was spirit stones.

He planned to raise the starting bid. Furthermore, under such circumstances, while most people were dissatisfied, they also sympathized with him.

Yue Xuan and Purple Moon Palace had been destroyed, and all kinds of formations had been destroyed. The reconstruction required so many spirit stones, so he could only try his best.

“Field owner Lin, quickly start the auction. We also need some treasures to fill our clans...”

Sighs could be heard from some of the private rooms. It was the various clans in the imperial city.

“Alright, I won’t say any more nonsense. Now, the auction begins. The first auction item, divine firefly inner core, spirit 4-grade.”

Lin Mo took out a silver box, and after opening it, a dense fire attribute energy spread out.

“According to the seller, this is a treasure from the first selection. The Divine Flame bug was born from absorbing innate spiritual energy, and its inner core is of high quality.”

“It’s not only suitable for fire attribute experts. Other than ice and water attributes, any cultivator can use it to temper their bodies.”

After some introductions, Lin Mo noticed that many people below were interested. He chuckled and said, “The starting price is 800,000 mid-grade spirit stones. Each increment must not be lower than 50,000.”

Such a starting price was already a little too high. For a spirit rank 4 treasure, 800,000 was usually the selling price for a spirit rank 5 treasure.

The inner core's value would be a little higher, but the selling price would not exceed 1,000,000 mid-grade spirit stones.

Such a high starting price stunned everyone in the hall.

"Field owner Lin, you're not joking, right? Isn't the starting price too high?"

Someone asked. They could take out eight hundred thousand, but even if they had money, they couldn't spend it like this.

"That's right. The Divine Flame Bug's inner core is worth this price. Normally, the bidding price would also be raised to this price," Lin Mo said indifferently.

At this moment, in some of the private rooms, the elders and family heads of the various families were already frowning.

Their treasury had been ransacked and they didn't have much money to begin with. Now, they wanted to buy some treasures to stop the losses.

However, they didn't expect the treasures that Lin Mo was selling to be so expensive. Furthermore, he had previously said that he wouldn't allow any of the items to be auctioned off.

This meant that they had to auction off the Divine Flame Bug's inner core. Otherwise, they would have to leave...

"Field owner Lin, everyone is very sad. We've met with a calamity recently, and you're taking advantage of the situation to rob us." In front of them, the door to a private room was kicked open.

An old man walked out angrily and looked coldly at Lin Mo. .

"Family head Zhao is right. The Yue Xuan auction isn't something you can decide. We definitely won't allow you to tarnish Yue Xuan's reputation like this."

Another person walked out. It was a middle-aged man. He stood beside the old man and criticized Lin Mo. .

"It's a pity that I'm in charge of Yue Xuan now. As for the so-called taking advantage of a burning house, if you want to buy the treasure at the bottom price, aren't you taking advantage of a burning house?"

Lin Mo smiled faintly and stared at the two of them.

His gaze was filled with coldness. Just looking at them like this made the two of them feel as if they were sitting on pins and needles.

"Hehe, brother Lin, why are you so angry? Yue Xuan and Purple Moon Palace have met with unforeseen circumstances, and I'm very sympathetic. How about this, I'll bid one million for this divine firebug inner core. Does anyone want to bid?"

Right at this moment, a soft laugh sounded out. It was from the private room at the very front.

It was the Crown Prince's voice. This person had come to Yue Xuan early in the morning and had even sent over a few auction items.

“It’s good that your Highness understands.” As the saying went, one should never hit a smiling person. Naturally, Lin Mo would not reject the crown prince’s good intentions.

“Your Highness the Crown Prince has bid one million middle-grade spirit stones. Is there anyone else who has higher bids?” Lin Mo knocked on the auction hammer.

“One million going once.”

“One million going twice.”

“One million going thrice. sold. Congratulations, Your Highness the Crown Prince.”

Lin Mo dropped the hammer and tossed the silver box to the Crown Prince’s private room. His intention was clear — to trade on the spot.

“That’s true. It’s good to be cautious.”

The crown prince wasn’t angry. He tossed out a cloth bag from the window of the private room, which contained 1,000,000 middle-grade spirit stones.

“Thank You, Your Highness.” Lin Mo smiled and nodded.

[ congratulations, host, for successfully auctioning the Spirit Rank 4 divine Firebug inner pellet ]

[ successfully triggered 1,000 times the auction return ]

[ obtained Spirit Rank 5 divine Firebug inner core ]

The return return was still given to the Divine Firebug inner core, but the energy contained within this inner core was even richer.

“Keep the fire attribute for Xiao Die.”

After saying this in a low voice, Lin Mo continued the auction. With the Crown Prince’s opening, more and more people started to participate in the auction.

“The next item to be auctioned is a spirit rank 5 blue lotus. There are a total of 17 of them. The starting price for each of them is 1,000,000.”

Lin Mo didn’t mind the trouble and took out all of the blue lotuses that he had picked in the danger zone.

A total of 17 of them had filled the entire auction hall with spiritual energy the moment they appeared. In fact, there were already people below who were itching to make a move.

Seeing this, Lin Mo’s gaze turned cold as he let out a soft snort.

An invisible sword Qi was surging in the dark. Everyone present could clearly feel it.

Such a powerful sword Qi was something that even a nirvana stage cultivator wouldn’t dare to claim to possess.

Everyone was shocked. This Lin Mo’s talent was truly terrifying. To be able to train his sword Qi to such an extent.

“I bid one million.”

Someone placed a bid, but it was only the starting price. After all, a fifth level spirit rank spiritual medicine was already close to one million.

“1,050,000.”

In another private room, someone was bidding, raising the bid by 50,000.

“1,100,000.”

Another person raised the bid by a very small margin, raising the bid by 50,500,000, because the price was already very high.

“1,100,000 going once, is there anyone else bidding?”

Lin Mo waited for a while, seeing that no one was bidding, he once again dropped the hammer.

“1,100,000 going twice.”

“1,100,000 going thrice. sold. Congratulations to the guest in private room No. 20 for winning this Blue Lotus.”

Lin Mo smiled and threw the blue lotus. He was not worried that someone would stop him.

There were Nirvana realm experts participating in the auction, but they were still not a match for the original soul puppet.

If they really dared to behave atrociously here, he did not mind losing the other party's life.

[ congratulations, host, for successfully auctioning a spirit rank rank 5 blue lotus ]

[ you have successfully triggered 900 times the profit from the auction ]

[ you have obtained a spirit rank 6 Blue Moon Lotus ]

The Blue Moon Lotus was also considered a type of blue lotus, but it was an advanced version. It contained pure spiritual energy and didn't have any requirements on its attributes.

Lin Mo nodded his head in satisfaction. As long as the blue lotus behind him was able to earn back the profit from the Blue Moon Lotus, then he wouldn't be at a loss.

“Alright, the next blue lotus auction begins. The starting price is still one million.”

Lin Mo knocked on the auction hammer. The auction began. Someone in the hall gritted his teeth and joined the bidding.

Chapter 410: Auctioning the Soul Nurturing Stone

After all, it was a fifth level spirit level spirit herb. After consuming it, it would be very helpful for cultivation.

“1.1 million.”

A young man stood up and bid 1.1 million.

His aura fluctuated up and down. He was at the 29th level of the Dragon Transformation Realm, and was very close to breaking through to the 30th level.

He probably bought the blue lotus because he was close to breaking through.

“1,100,000 going once.”

“...”

“1,100,000 going thrice. sold.”

Lin Mo dropped the auction hammer. The returning treasure was still the Blue Moon Lotus, and its quality was very good.

He did not mind being slow. The Blue Lotus was auctioned one by one, and each time, the selling price was around 1,100,000.

The last few lotuses caused a bidding war, and the highest price reached 1.3 million, allowing Lin Mo to make a small profit.

Without exception, the rebates were all given to the Blue Moon lotuses.

The most precious thing was that it triggered the 5,000 times auction rebate, and the rebate was given to the spirit level rank 7 Blue Moon Lotus, which contained even more rich spiritual energy.

“Alright, the Blue Lotus auction is over. The next item is a piece of jade.”

Lin Mo smiled and took out a light blue crystal the size of a palm from the system space.

As soon as it appeared, the crystal started to emit a thick cold aura.

“Ice Heart Jade, ice attribute. It can be used to set up formations and forge weapons. Grade 4 spirit grade, very good.”

“If there’s a magic tool with ice attribute, melting the ice heart jade in can raise the grade of the magic tool by at least one grade.”

“Of course, it’s only limited to spirit rank 6 and below.”

Lin Mo explained. The Ice Heart Jade’s effects were very good. If it wasn’t for the fact that its attributes didn’t match, he really wanted to melt it into the ancient sword of desolation.

“Those who are interested can participate in the auction. The starting price is 800,000 mid-grade spirit stones.”

Once the starting price was announced, the Auction Hall fell silent. This was because the price that Lin Mo had set was really expensive.

It was almost close to the closing bid. Even though the Ice Heart Jade was precious, the price was around 800,000 middle-grade spirit stones.

“800,000 middle-grade spirit stones. This item isn’t bad, I’ll take it.”

A crisp and melodious female voice sounded from within the private room. When the crowd heard the voice, they looked over and realized that it was the tenth princess’ private room.

She possessed the ice attribute, and the Ice Heart Jade was of great help to her.

“800,000 going once, anyone want to bid?” Lin Mo knocked on the auction hammer once.

The auction hall was extremely quiet, which made Lin Mo feel helpless. The price he had set was indeed very high, and the atmosphere had already turned cold.

“Forget it, with Saintess Xia you and the Crown Prince backing me up, I have to sell all of today’s auction items.”

Lin Mo muttered to himself. With the Yin-yang jade as the finale, these two would definitely let his auction go on.

Although raising the price would make people unhappy, there was nothing he could do. He was forced to do so.

After three times, no one made a bid. The tenth princess successfully bought the Ice Heart Jade at the base price.

“Congratulations, tenth princess, for successfully buying the Ice Heart Jade.” Lin Mo dropped the auction hammer and completed the transaction with the tenth princess.

[ congratulations, host, for successfully auctioning the spirit rank rank 4 Ice Heart Jade ]

[ triggered 3,000 times the auction return ]

[ obtained a spirit rank 6 chaos origin ice jade ]

It was a useless treasure. None of the people around him had any ice attribute, so this item had no value.

“The next item up for auction is a spirit rank 6 chaos origin ice jade. It’s still the perfect material to forge a spiritual artifact.”

“Just like the previous Ice Heart Jade, it can raise the quality of a spiritual artifact. If used together, it can even forge a spirit rank 8 spiritual artifact,” Lin Mo said with a smile. The tenth princess should still have some money to earn.

“There’s no need for introductions. Let’s talk about the starting price,” the tenth Princess’s voice sounded from within the private room.

She was a little happy. She had thought that it would be a simple auction, but she hadn’t expected to obtain two treasures.

“The Origin Frost Jade is more precious, so the starting price is 1.8 million middle-grade spirit stones.”

Such a starting price was still very expensive, but the tenth princess didn’t mind.

After understanding some of the inside information, she naturally knew what had happened. In order to deal with the chaos, the imperial family had made ample preparations.

“Then let’s make it 1.8 million.”

The tenth princess made her bid. Previously, no one had competed for the Ice Heart Jade, and now, naturally, no one had competed for the chaos origin cold jade.

Just like that, the tenth princess once again successfully received the treasure, and Lin Mo once again received 1.8 million middle-grade spirit stones.

“The next item up for auction is an ancient object. Its origins are astonishing, and it is the legendary soul nurturing stone that can hold a soul.”

Lin Mo smiled mysteriously. Other than the yin-yang Jade and the nine neonate inner core, the origin of the soul nurturing stone was the most astonishing.

He had calculated that at its peak, this soul nurturing stone should be a treasure of Earth rank 5 and above.

However, after the passage of time, its grade had dropped to the spirit rank 6.

“Soul nurturing stone, how big is it?” Someone immediately became interested and asked.

“Don’t be happy too early, this thing is already a treasure from 100,000 years ago...”

Lin Mo smiled helplessly and took out the soul nurturing stone from the system space. This soul nurturing stone was large enough to be carved into a half meter long stone carving.

The appearance of such a large soul nurturing stone made everyone in the hall unable to sit still.

However, just as they were getting excited, they were suddenly stunned.

The Aura was too weak. The aura emitted by this soul nurturing stone was too weak and couldn’t be detected at all.

One could even say that if one didn’t look carefully, one would think that this was an ordinary stone carving.

“Brother Lin, what are the runes on this soul nurturing stone?” Saintess Xia You’s voice sounded from the private room at the front.

She was also very interested. The soul nurturing stone was of some use to her, even though this piece was about to disappear.

“This rune should be an ordinary rune. I can’t see through it.”

Lin Mo waved his hand. The system did not indicate the value of this rune. It should not be of much use and could not be considered a treasure.

However, Saintess Xia you seemed to have noticed something. Could it be that she could see a treasure that the system couldn’t?

“System, is your space reliable? Don’t let me miss out on a treasure.” Lin Mo thought to himself.

[ please rest assured, host. After the system’s spatial appraisal, this rune is only a special rune from 100,000 years ago. It’s used to record information and has no value. ]

Hearing the system’s reply, Lin Mo finally felt at ease.

It seemed like Saintess Xia you had noticed that this rune was very ancient, which was why she asked.

“SAINTESS, if you are interested, you can bid for it and study it. Who knows, you might get something out of it.”

Lin Mo said with a smile, not telling the truth. In any case, he really didn’t know what this rune was used for.

“What’s the starting price?” Saintess Xia you asked.

“This soul nurturing stone is a treasure from 100,000 years ago. After the passage of time, its grade has fallen to the spirit rank 6. The starting price is 2.5 million.”

Lin Mo said the starting price was 2.5 million. Even a spirit rank 6 treasure couldn’t be sold at such a high price.

He had originally planned to sell it for 2 million. However, since Saintess Xia you was interested, he would earn another 500,000.

“Alright, 2,500,000 middle-grade spirit stones. I’ll take it.” Saintess Xia you nodded.

“I’ll bid 2,600,000.”

Suddenly, when even Lin Mo thought that there was no one else bidding, someone else raised the bid by 100,000.

“Who is it? This voice is a little unfamiliar.”

There were people in the hall looking around curiously, trying to find the origin of the voice.

“It’s the head of the Peacock Spirit clan, Kong Xiu.”

Someone exclaimed and pointed to a private room. The window was open and there was no cover.

People looked over and found that the person sitting inside was Kong Xiu of the peacock spirit clan.

“Second sky of the Nirvana stage. Is this the rebound he’s been suppressing for so many years...”

Lin Mo frowned. He didn’t have any feelings towards Kong Xiu. If he said that Kong Xiu was an ally, then it would ruin his plans.

If he said that it wasn’t, then it was still alright. He had shown goodwill to him many times.

“Looks like he refined that piece of Nirvana Fire Stone and recovered his origin. After cultivating for a while, he easily broke through.”

Lin Mo thought to himself. Kong Xiu had suppressed himself for so long. Second Sky of Nirvana realm might be the reason why he deliberately suppressed himself.

Otherwise, his realm would be at least at the third sky of the Nirvana realm.

“2.7 million.” Saintess Xia you opened her mouth and made another bid.

“3 million.”

Kong Xiu displayed a heroic spirit and raised the price by 300,000 at one go, raising the price to 3 million.

For a spirit rank rank 6 treasure, this was already very rare.

Moreover, the value of this soul nurturing stone wasn't worth 3 million. This made Lin Mo feel a little helpless and wanted to remind Kong Xiu.

However, he did not dare to act rashly. If he were to send a voice transmission, Saintess Xia you would probably be able to sense it.

“Three million two hundred thousand.” Saintess Xia you raised the price again.

Spending more spirit stones was nothing to her. For the yin-yang Jade, he had brought enough spirit stones this time.

Jiang Xiyue's Purple Moon Palace had met with an accident. She had already predicted that Lin Mo would think of a way to get spirit stones, so she brought a lot.

The crown prince must have thought the same way. Everything was for the yin-yang Jade.

“3,200,000 going once.”

“Is there anyone else who wants to bid?”

Lin Mo knocked on the auction hammer. It finally felt like an auction. The previous few times, he had bid at the reserve price, which made him feel a little awkward.

“3,200,000 going twice.”

“3,200,000 going three times. sold.”

He saw that Kong Xiu still had no intention of bidding, so he dropped the hammer and announced the result of the auction.

“Congratulations, Saintess Xia you, for successfully bidding for the soul nurturing stone.” Lin Mo lifted the soul nurturing stone and sent it to the door of the private room at the front.

Saintess Xia you opened the door and handed the spirit stone to Lin Mo, then looked at the runes on the soul nurturing stone.

Under Lin Mo's gaze, the smile on Saintess Xia You's face gradually disappeared, and she frowned.

In response to this, Lin Mo shrugged his shoulders. Sooner or later, they would be enemies, and if they were to be scammed, they would be scammed...

[ Congratulations, host, for successfully auctioning a spirit rank 6 soul nurturing stone ]

[ successfully triggered 1,500 times the auction profit ]

[ obtained a spirit rank 7 soul nurturing stone ]

A spirit rank 7 soul nurturing stone, and it was very big, but that was it. To Lin Mo, it wasn't worth much.

However, he could bring it back to Jiang Xiyue. That old man called the medicine jar should be very skilled in alchemy.

He could ask him to refine spirit pills and then auction them off. The price should be pretty good.

After Kong Xiu and Saintess Xia You's bidding, the atmosphere in the auction hall eased up a little. It was no longer as cold and cheerless as before.

"The next item up for auction is the sky umbrella. It's a sixth level spirit rank magic tool. Its attribute is wood. Of course, it can also be used with the water attribute."

That was all the introduction of the magic tool. The Sky umbrella didn't have any special effects.

However, what made Lin Mo unsatisfied was that very few cultivators treated the umbrella as their own magic tool.

This was because the corresponding martial arts and magic tools were too few.

Therefore, when the sky umbrella appeared, the atmosphere became much quieter, and the desire for this magic tool was very small.

"Starting bid, 2 million."

The extremely high starting bid made the sky umbrella even more undesired.

The auction hall fell into a long period of silence. No one was willing to bid. Lin Mo had set the starting price to be ridiculously high.

Time passed. Just like that, five minutes passed. Lin Mo was silent. The audience was also silent. Everyone in the private room was also silent.

In the end, someone in the hall couldn't help but say, "Field owner Lin, the sky umbrella has always been an unpopular item. You still set such a high price. I can only let it go."

"I'm sorry, the auction today will not be held. If we don't finish the auction, we will continue tomorrow night..."

Lin Mo said indifferently. Who cares? If his reputation was ruined, so be it. For Jiang Xiyue and for himself...

"You... aren't you ruining your reputation? If you do this, who will come to your auction in the future..."

That person said, not understanding why Lin Mo was like this.

They sympathized with Yue Xuan and Purple Moon Palace when they were attacked, but it shouldn't be to such an extent that they were lacking spirit stones.

"Your Highness, how much has father suppressed him? This Lin Mo doesn't even care about his reputation?" In the Crown Prince's private room, the second prince was somewhat stunned.

After Lin Mo's operation, Yue Xuan's reputation was very good. The endless treasures attracted many merchants who were willing to cooperate with Yue Xuan.

The spirit stones they earned during this period of time made them very envious, but they couldn't do anything about it.

If it weren't for the crown prince who benefited from Lin Mo's auction, he would have long stopped Yue Xuan from developing.

"The suppression is very strong. Father suspects that Jiang Xiyue is going to rebel because the Purple Moon Palace Treasury is empty..." the crown prince said.

"Empty?"

The second prince was shocked. They didn't know how many spirit stones Jiang Xiyue's Yue Xuan earned, but they had a rough idea.

It had been developing over the years. As Jiang Xiyue's operations continued to grow, there must be a few billion middle-grade spirit stones.

Jiang Xiyue had raised more than a dozen elders to guard Purple Moon Palace. He was also clear about this.

However, these people clearly could not digest a few billion middle-grade spirit stones.

"An army? Does she have a battle formation?" The second prince cried out in surprise.

"I don't know. After all, Yue Xuan's business is connected to the four great divine empires. Perhaps she really does have a battle formation..."

The crown prince shook his head. He had indeed underestimated Jiang Xiyue.

In the past, Jiang Xiyue had only displayed her talent to the outside world. However, he had not paid much attention to it. He had always been the number one on the ranking list.

It was not until this preliminary round that he realized that he had been wrong.

Now that he had a fair duel with Jiang Xiyue, he was not confident that he could win. There was even a high chance that he would lose...

"Forget it. Father will help me deal with her. The throne can only be mine."

The crown prince shook his head and did not continue the discussion. He looked at Lin Mo, who was still waiting for a bid, and said, "I bid two million."

The calm was broken, and the crown prince placed his bid. Although it was the starting price, it allowed the auction to proceed smoothly.

“Congratulations, Your Highness, for successfully bidding for the Sky Net Umbrella.”

Lin Mo smiled faintly. He finally could not hold it in anymore. With the yin-yang Jade, he was not afraid that they would not bid.

[ congratulations, host, for successfully auctioning the spirit rank rank 6 Sky Net umbrella ]

[ triggered 2,000 times the auction profit ]

[ Congratulations, host, for obtaining the Spirit Rank 7 profound mysteries umbrella ]

Looking at this magical artifact, Lin Mo pondered for a moment before clenching his teeth and taking it out.

“The next auction item, the Spirit Rank 7 profound mysteries umbrella, starts at 5,000,000. Let the bidding begin.”

Again?

Everyone was stunned, the corners of their mouths twitching. Where did this Lin Mo get so many unpopular spiritual artifacts.

Furthermore, the price was so expensive, who would want to buy it...

“Field owner Lin, if you do this, no one will be willing to participate in the next auction...”

Someone said unhappily. The starting price of five million was still such an unpopular spiritual artifact. Lin Mo was destroying his own reputation...

Who knew that just as that person finished speaking, Saintess Xia you stood up and said, “I bid five million...”
