

Trillion Times 441

Chapter 441: Blood Sea Spirit Pearl

“1,200,000.”

“1,500,000.”

Amidst the sounds of increasing bids, the cloud water art was finally auctioned off at a high price of 3,200,000.

There were two people who had been fighting over it, they were able to reach this price in the end.

[Congratulations, host, for successfully auctioning the spirit level rank 6 cultivation technique, cloud water art]

[Triggered 1,000 times the profit from the auction]

[Congratulations, host, for obtaining the spirit rank 7 cultivation technique, magical water spirit mantra]

In this auction, Saintess Xia You had once placed a bid, and this person seemed to have stayed at Yue Xuan for quite a long time.

Other than that, there was also the tenth princess of the Yanhuang dynasty, who used to have a good relationship with Jiang Xiyue.

It seemed like she had been sent here to gather information.

Lin Mo didn't pay any attention to this. As long as the other party didn't cause trouble, he wouldn't chase away the guests.

Soon, the auction gradually came to an end. This time, Lin Mo earned nearly 90 million middle-grade spirit stones.

“The second to last item is also the first earth-grade treasure. Everyone, don't miss it.”

On the auction stage, Lin Mo took out a small piece of grass that emitted a life aura.

“This is the soul returning grass. It can effectively raise one's soul power. However, there are requirements for the user. The user needs to be at the 5th sky of the Nirvana Realm.”

“There aren't many spiritual herbs that can raise one's soul power, especially earth rank ones. The starting bid for the Earth Rank 1 soul returning grass is 20 million. Each increment must not be lower than 1 million.”

Spiritual herbs that could raise one's soul power were rare in the eastern continent. Even spirit rank middle and high rank ones rarely appeared in the auction house.

“Twenty-one million.”

Saintess Xia You walked out and was very satisfied with this auction. Even she would need the soul returning grass, so she couldn't miss it.

"Twenty-two million."

"Twenty-three million."

One after another, people started to participate in the bidding. They were all experts from all over the eastern continent who had come because of their fame.

However, their financial resources were obviously limited. When Saintess Xia You raised the price to fifty-five million, there was finally no more bidding.

"The only one with real financial resources is Saintess Xia You. Looks like there's no suspense for the finale."

Lin Mo shook his head and dropped the auction hammer, saying, "Congratulations, Saintess Xia You, for bidding 55 million for the soul returning grass."

[Congratulations, host, for successfully auctioning the Earth rank rank rank 1 soul returning grass]

[Triggered 5,000 times the auction profit]

[Congratulations, host, for obtaining the Earth Rank 3 soul returning grass]

Another extremely powerful spiritual herb, the soul fusion grass, could also increase one's soul power. However, its effects were much stronger than the soul returning grass.

Earth rank treasures were extremely important, hence they were traded on the spot. After both parties confirmed that there was no mistake, Lin Mo waved his hand, and a maid walked up from behind, presenting the final item.

"Next, the most anticipated treasure, the rank 2 Earth Rank Blood Essence Pearl."

"To the west of the eastern continent, there is a western sea. According to legend, there is this legendary dragon palace, which is also a forbidden area."

"This item is produced there. The Blood Qi within can effectively increase the strength of the user's body, and can subtly improve the user's physique."

This was the item that Saintess Xia You had sent for auction. Lin Mo was also very surprised as to why Saintess Xia You would choose to auction off the treasures on her body.

However, when Lin Mo used the system space to check, he finally understood.

Although the Blood Essence Pearl was an earth rank 2 treasure, what was truly valuable was its endless blood qi.

This kind of blood qi could rely on the energy of Heaven and earth to recover, and was suitable for long-term inheritance.

Right now, the world was in chaos. It was best to exchange this kind of not-very-precious inheritance for advantageous resources.

“The starting bid for the Blood Essence Pearl is 25 million mid-grade spirit stones. Those who want it can bid.”

After Lin Mo finished speaking, shouts immediately sounded from below the stage.

Even though Lin Mo had explained the flaws of this item, the people still yearned for it. This was especially so when they saw that Saintess Xia You had yet to bid.

The people’s desire for it grew even stronger.

“I bid 30 million.”

At this moment, the tenth princess of the Yanhuang Divine Empire appeared. She smiled at Lin Mo on the stage with a complicated expression.

Not long ago, Lin Mo was the same as her. He was a junior and was only famous in the Yanhuang Divine Dynasty.

However, it was different now. He was the Vice Palace Master of the Purple Moon Palace and had a high status.

The current Purple Moon Palace was no weaker than the Yanhuang Divine Empire. The news of Qiluo breaking through to the ninth sky of the Nirvana Realm had long spread all over the world.

“Thirty-one million.”

On the other side, a man walked out from the private room. His eyes were burning as he stared at the blood essence pearl on the stage.

Only Yue Xuan would auction off such a precious treasure.

And now that Saintess Xia You did not participate in the competition, their chance had come.

“Thirty-two million.” The tenth princess raised the bid.

“Thirty-five million.”

“Thirty-six million.”

Both sides argued. Neither side wanted to give in. Soon, the price of the Blood Essence Pearl was raised to fifty million.

The number of bidders would occasionally increase, but in the end, only the tenth princess and the man remained.

“53 million.” The tenth princess gritted her teeth and made another bid. At the same time, she looked at Lin Mo nervously.

Previously, Lin Mo had refused to sell it to the second prince and Patriarch Jiang Long.

It was because of this that she had been sent here with a lot of spirit stones. Her goal was to buy valuable treasures.

It was impossible for her to have so many spirit stones. It was obvious that she was bidding for the Yanhuang Divine Empire.

“Fifty-five million.”

The man on the other side did not show any signs of weakness and raised the price again. However, when he spoke again, his aura weakened a little.

Seeing this, the tenth princess mustered up her courage and said, “Sixty million.”

Bidding six million was already her limit. That was all the spirit stones she had brought.

Fortunately, after the other party heard her bid, he wavered a little and was hesitating whether to raise the price.

“Sixty million going once.”

“Sixty million going twice.”

Lin Mo knocked on the auction hammer at the right time on the stage. After two times, the man remained silent and didn’t raise the price.

“Sixty million going three times, sold.”

He dropped the hammer for the third time and announced the result of the auction.

“Congratulations to the tenth princess of the Yanhuang dynasty for buying this blood essence pearl at the price of 60 million mid-grade spirit stones.”

However, this was the auction hosted by Saintess Xia You, so he could only take 1% of the commission, which was 600,000.

[Congratulations to host for successfully auctioning the Earth rank rank rank 2 blood essence pearl]

[Triggered 10,000 times the profit from the auction]

[Congratulations to host for obtaining the Earth Rank 5 blood sea spiritual pearl]

Lin Mo was surprised that an earth rank treasure had been triggered 10,000 times. An earth rank 5 blood sea spiritual pearl had the same effect as a blood essence pearl.

However, the blood sea spiritual pearl had a better effect. Furthermore, it could activate blood and remove blood stasis, clearing away the accumulated injuries in one’s body.

In addition, the blood sea spiritual pearl could also stabilize one’s mind. It could also help one defend against some external attacks when placed in one’s body.

“Activating blood and removing blood stasis is useless against me. Nothing can heal injuries better than the true Phoenix Nirvana technique.”

Lin Mo shook his head. As for blocking the attack, it was somewhat useful, but he had to put it into his body.

He was a devourer body. Any energy that entered his body would be subtly devoured by him.

Therefore, the blood sea spiritual bead was of no use to him.

“Give it to Xiyue. Bai Luo doesn’t lack any trump cards.”

After making up his mind, Lin Mo ended the auction, cleared the remaining spirit stones and items, and returned to Purple Moon Palace.

Chapter 442: Enlightenment Together

Everything was in order in the Purple Moon Palace. He found Jiang Xiyue and gave her the blood sea spiritual bead.

“Hey, where did you get this from? How did you get so many treasures?”

Bai Luo was very curious.

Lin Mo had not only taken out the blood sea spiritual bead, but also the soul melting grass. Such treasures were very rare. Normal organizations would not take them out for auction.

Only people like Lin Mo who desperately needed spirit stones would take it out to auction off.

“Cough cough, don’t ask so many questions. You guys can use this soul fusion spirit grass. I’m going out for a trip.”

Lin Mo coughed dryly. He was about to say something when he noticed that Jiang Xiyue was surrounded by circles of golden light.

This light was extremely dazzling and mysterious, making Jiang Xiyue look like a goddess.

“What is this?” Lin Mo asked.

“It’s one of the inheritances of the Bai family. I didn’t expect it to be so compatible with her. Not bad. My trip to the East continent was not a loss.”

Bai Luo nodded in satisfaction. Jiang Xiyue had used the true dragon’s heart blood, and now she was learning the inheritance of her family very smoothly.

“You’re a little stingy. Do you have any clan-guarding martial arts? Teach me some.” Lin Mo rubbed his hands and chuckled.

“No Way. The God Devouring Body has its own system. I can’t interfere with it.” Bai Luo shook his head and didn’t want to say anything else.

“What are your plans next? Do you want to refine spirit stones to increase your strength?” Bai Luo asked.

“I plan to make a trip to the ghost domain. It’s a very dangerous forbidden land with many opportunities. I plan to find some treasures to auction off.”

Lin Mo confessed. He already had the map of the ghost domain, so it wouldn't make sense if he didn't go.

"Be careful. While maintaining your foundation, hurry up and increase your strength. The calamity of the eastern continent is coming soon."

"The great chaos of the eastern road is coming."

"What?" Lin Mo was shocked. He looked at Bai Luo. This sudden news made him a little at a loss.

After hearing so much news about the great chaos, was it finally coming?

Lin Mo was silent for a moment. He looked at the Red Armored Army, who was sitting cross-legged and cultivating not far away. This was the weakest of the three armies, and also the one with the largest number of people.

This was all arranged by Bai Luo. In fact, Bai Luo was the one who helped arrange the cultivation of the Purple Moon Palace's people.

As for the purpose, it was to fight against the great chaos.

"What exactly is it? When will it arrive?" Lin Mo asked again.

"I can't tell you, but you will know in a year at the latest." Bai Luo's expression was solemn as she shook her head.

Lin Mo didn't say anything. In the past, he felt that there was still time for him to slowly develop, but now, he couldn't.

"At least half of the eastern continent cultivators will die."

Bai Luo spoke, but at the same time, she also indicated that as long as she survived, her strength would surpass the past, regardless of whether it was her talent or aptitude.

"As long as he survives, the immortal ascension platform will not be the end, but the starting point."

Bai Luo continued to speak, but he didn't directly say what kind of danger it was.

Lin Mo thought seriously before sitting cross-legged in front of Jiang Xiyue with Bai Luo.

Xiao Die had already turned into a cocoon and was in the process of transforming, so she couldn't come.

Lin Mo and the other two resonated with their divine senses, imparting the four top-tier techniques of the "True phoenix nirvana technique", "Cloud piercing four spirits", "Kun peng wings", and "Qilin steps" to Jiang Xiyue.

At the same time, the three of them verified what they had learned and attacked the direction of their own understanding of the principles of the Dao.

They all benefited greatly and the three of them cultivated until late at night.

Lin Mo was not in a hurry to go to the ghost realm. He had been cultivating for the past few days. Occasionally, he would call Yan Rong over to watch them cultivate and comprehend on his own.

The three of them maintained the resonance of their spiritual senses and completely mastered what they had learned. They reached the peak of perfection and cultivated to the extreme.

In the end, the Dao here was so dense that even Luo Haoyu was alarmed. He came out of seclusion to take a look and also gained some enlightenment from it.

“Sword qi and spear intent, the two have nothing to do with each other, but they can be interlinked and can be used for reference.”

Lin Mo whispered, disassembling the spear techniques he had comprehended from Bai Luo and Jiang Xiyue, and integrating them into his sword intent.

During this period of time, the spirit stones were constantly being refined, and the pure essence of the Lightning Path was also taken out by Lin Mo and absorbed at this moment.

The three of them meditated together, and the inner core of the wind and lightning demonic beast was also refined.

Lin Mo understood that in addition to the flames, there was also the power of lightning in his dantian.

He was immersed in his own consciousness, deducing and deducing over and over again. His dantian turned upside down, and a huge change occurred.

Guided by the devouring power, the Flames and lightning assisted each other, forming an incomparably powerful sword qi.

“So powerful. Is this a newly created sword move of mine?”

Lin Mo muttered to himself. The heaven-cleaving sword Qi surged and acted as a carrier to carry this power.

“Chi.”

Immediately after, a sword qi surged out. At the same time, it was accompanied by the sound of thunder and the spread of flames. When the two powers combined, they became even more powerful.

This was clearly a sword qi, but it contained such dense elemental power. The devouring power wrapped around it as if it had formed a world.

However, there were only two types of laws within it. Fire and lightning were both extremely powerful attacks.

“So powerful. Is this the supreme of Sword Dao? A single sword strike could slash through the heavens and earth. If this were to be completely mastered, I’m afraid that it would be able to destroy the eastern continent...” Lin Mo muttered to himself.

Following that, he continued to gain enlightenment and fell into silence. The three of them went into seclusion, and each of them received huge benefits.

They were all seriously deducing and comprehending the path they would take in the future.

“I’ve underestimated the spear intent. The spear intent is indomitable, and it only takes an instant to break through the enemy. Each path can be the strongest. It depends on who is walking on it...”

Lin Mo muttered. This was his enlightenment of the Nirvana Realm. He had comprehended the supreme of the long spear from Bai Luo and Jiang Xiyue.

The three of them fell into silence, unable to extricate themselves. This state lasted for a month.

When they came out of their closed-door cultivation, their realms rose and reached the third sky of the Nirvana realm. At the same time, the heaven and earth shook and thunder clouds covered the sky, as if lightning was about to fall.

“Is it because we have comprehended the supreme of Spear and sword? Is this a phenomenon?” Jiang Xiyue opened her eyes and looked at the sky.

“Why are all the phenomena heavenly lightning?”

Lin Mo frowned. The sword intent in his body couldn’t be suppressed, and he wanted to compete with the heavenly lightning in the sky.

This made him shocked. Was the sword qi so powerful that it could contend with the heavenly might.

“This is the premonition of a disaster. Hurry up and cultivate.”

Bai Luo said. She looked at the Heavenly Lightning in the sky for a while and shook her head helplessly.

She urged Jiang Xiyue to practice the martial arts that she had just learned. She wanted to master it and remember everything.

“Yan Rong, you’ve benefited a lot this time. You can cut down your realm and slowly cultivate. You can break through to the Nirvana realm within a year.”

On the other side, Yan Rong was originally cultivating. He obtained huge benefits by observing Lin Mo and the other two’s cultivation.

His current strength was already at the Dragon Transformation Realm Tier 31. At this moment, he was preparing to attempt to break through to the Nirvana stage.

“Ah, why?” Yan Rong opened his eyes and asked in puzzlement.

There was a huge difference between the Nirvana stage and the Dragon Transformation Stage. How difficult would it be to break through?

It wasn’t easy for him to find an opportunity, but he gave it up just like that.

“Don’t talk nonsense. Just cut down the stage and cultivate again. Otherwise, I’m afraid you won’t be able to survive.”

As he said this, Bai Luo also looked at the red armored army and said loudly, “You guys are the same. Seriously cut down the stage and cultivate again.”

Chapter 443: Eight-armed demons

“All the spirit stones we earned this time will be used up. All the people in the three armies will have to cultivate again.”

Bai Luo reminded them. As for the defense of Purple Moon Palace, she would bring the elders of Purple Moon Palace to set up a ninth-level spirit level defense formation. It would be much easier with Qiluo’s help.

“Listen up, don’t slack off,” Jiang Xiyue said, telling the three armies to listen up.

“Yes, sir.”

The soldiers responded respectfully. They sat down cross-legged and began to cultivate.

“I’m afraid the spirit stones aren’t enough. I’ll make a trip to the forbidden land...”

Lin Mo was helpless. According to this method of cultivation, not to mention billions of spirit stones, it wouldn’t even be enough to double it.

“This must be the case. Otherwise, the newly established Purple Moon Palace will be severely injured.”

Bai Luo said resolutely. He couldn’t afford to be careless in this aspect, or else a huge problem would arise.

After knowing what was going on, Lin Mo left a soul imprint and left the Purple Moon Palace.

The spirit holding technique slowly circulated as he quietly left the Purple Moon Palace.

During this period of time, no one had seen the news of his departure, and no one knew about it.

“Follow the map.” It would take fifteen days to arrive at the ghost realm from hailing city through the teleportation formation.

Lin mofei used the teleportation formation from hailing city on the way. It took him six hours to arrive at Dragon Bay City.

This place was now the territory of Purple Moon Palace, and there was an elder of the Fifth Heaven of Nirvana realm guarding it.

However, Great Yan dynasty would not attack. Therefore, it was only used to intimidate the mercenaries and the opposing forces in the territory.

After Lin Mo arrived, he brought Bai Luo’s words to this elder, and gave him a lot of resources to help him rebuild his cultivation base.

Using the teleportation formation, Lin Mo entered the Lu Jin dynasty, passing through many cities and arriving at the Imperial City of the Lu Jin dynasty.

The ghost region was on the other side of the Lu Jin dynasty, and the great ancient God dynasty each occupied half of it. Therefore, both of them could enter the ghost region.

Lin Mo planned to scout the Lu Jin dynasty for some information first.

He used the spirit-holding technique and put on his bamboo hat as he walked into the city.

After all, he was very famous now. Everyone in the eastern continent knew that he was the Vice Palace Master of Purple Moon Palace, so his status was very high.

However, he was just a junior. If his identity was exposed, he would be in trouble.

At the very least, he couldn't avoid being surrounded by people.

"This breath-holding spirit concentration technique is really useful. Even though its level isn't high, even aunts can't see through its disguise."

Lin Mo smiled and smoothly entered the imperial city of the Lu Jin dynasty.

This place was very big, not inferior to the imperial family of the Yan Huang Dynasty. The streets were filled with heavy traffic, and the flow of people was extremely large.

The sounds of people selling goods could be heard from the shops on both sides. They were all shouting that they had a treasure.

"Eh, what kind of creature is that? It's so strange. It even has two hands on its back. This is the first time I've seen it."

Lin Mo was surprised. He was just passing by, but he did not expect to meet many strange races here.

"Daoist brother, you might not know this, but this is the previous ruler of this territory of the Lu Jin dynasty."

Some people in the surroundings explained in a low voice, while others were discussing animatedly.

This was a powerful race that had almost ruled the eastern continent seven thousand years ago. It was a pity that after the battle with the other factions in the eastern continent, their vitality was greatly damaged.

It was only recently that people from this race came out to move around. They did not expect to live in the Lu Jin divine dynasty.

"They are the eight-armed demon race. They are an extremely powerful race. Their strength can uproot mountains and shake the heavens and earth," someone said.

This was a powerful race that had almost ruled the eastern continent. Lin Mo was a little surprised when he heard this. This news was too shocking.

Why would such a powerful race suddenly appear.

"Is it because a disaster is about to descend?" Lin Mo whispered.

Although his words were very soft, many people still heard it. Immediately, some people burst into laughter.

"Haha, fellow Daoist, you can't really believe that legend, right? What about the origin of the great chaos and the arrival of the disaster? It's all a lie."

Many people echoed and laughed loudly.

They believed that the so-called disaster was just a panic created by those large factions. Their purpose was unknown.

It was basically impossible to make them believe that a disaster would appear in the eastern continent, which they had always lived in.

However, those eight-armed demons were interested and walked over to greet Lin Mo. .

Seeing this, Lin Mo began to ask what the disaster was.

“In ancient times, there was a prophecy that when the eastern continent had shackles, something was missing. When it appeared, the shackles would disappear and the disaster would descend, spreading.”

“The eastern continent cultivators would either have their cultivation abolished or die on the spot.”

He had heard all of this from Bai Luo, but the eight-armed demons didn’t know much more.

“Fellow Daoist, if you want to know more, you’ll have to ask our ancestors.”

The eight-armed demon laughed lightly and waved the two arms behind him.

“I only have four arms and am at the bottom level. I don’t know much. However, you won’t be able to meet my ancestors. It’s better not to ask too much about such things.”

After saying that, the eight-armed demon left, leaving Lin Mo to ponder.

The surrounding people were also shocked. The one just now was at the Nirvana realm. They didn’t expect that he was only at the bottom level.

How powerful was the real eight-armed demon?

Lin Mo didn’t stay too long. He bought a batch of precious spirit pills in the city and then entered the auction in the imperial city.

“Sir, would you like to participate in the auction or send them to auction?” A maid came forward and said respectfully.

“Help me auction off these panaceas and then find me a seat.”

Lin Mo lowered his voice and said, trying to make his voice as hoarse as possible so that no one would be able to tell.

“Yes.”

Under the guidance of the maid, Lin Mo smoothly entered the auction. The auction was already underway.

Lin Mo came over to take a look. He wanted to try his luck and see if he could find any suitable treasures.

“Welcome, everyone. The next item to be auctioned is from the eight-armed demon race. The quality is guaranteed.”

The auctioneer gave an impassioned introduction on the stage. At the same time, he also spread the news of the eight-armed demon race's comeback.

Everyone was a little surprised. This race that had long disappeared from everyone's sight had actually appeared again.

"This item is the eight-armed demon race's blood essence. It can refine the tibia and hammer the soul. It's a high-quality Precious Blood."

"However, it needs to be supplemented with a lot of spirit herbs to neutralize the medicinal properties. Otherwise, the blood essence of the eight-armed demon race would be too violent and ordinary people wouldn't be able to withstand it."

After some introductions, Lin Mo became interested. It could temper the body and soul. Was the blood essence of the eight-armed demon race so useful?

"It should be a member of the eight-armed demon race with a pure bloodline. Otherwise, it wouldn't have such an effect."

Someone said and made a judgment. A normal eight-armed demon race actually only had four arms. The effect of the blood could only be used to refine the body. It was still very ordinary.

"Of course, if you think that your talent is extraordinary and can reach the level of our crown prince, you can directly refine the blood essence."

The auctioneer continued to say. Without the use of spirit herbs to neutralize the medicinal properties, he could maximize the effect of the blood essence.

However, the pain within wasn't something that anyone could endure. The slightest carelessness would result in one's body being smashed to pieces.

"The eight-armed Demon's blood essence has a greater side effect. Its grade is set at the seventh level of the spirit level. The starting bid is one million middle-grade spirit stones."

Chapter 444: Heaven Demonic Fire Spirit Stone

The auctioneer dropped the auction hammer. Lin Mo nodded after reading it.

This item wasn't bad. It was worth a try.

"1,100,000."

"1,400,000."

Anyone would want a blood essence that could temper one's physical body and soul, even if it required a lot of spirit herbs to neutralize the medicinal properties.

However, those who were able to come here were still able to afford this price.

Lin Mo did not participate in the competition. He waited until the end, and only the two of them were left to compete.

At this moment, the price was also raised to three million by the two of them. Seeing this, Lin Mo stood up and spoke.

“3.5 million.”

The sudden voice caused everyone present to be stunned for a moment, not understanding what had happened.

Lin Mo’s sudden bid caused everyone to be unable to react.

The expression of the person who had bid 3,000,000 changed as well. After hesitating for a moment, he chose to give up.

“3,500,000 going once, is there anyone else who wants to participate in the auction?”The auctioneer knocked on the hammer for the first time.

Seeing that no one was paying attention to him, the auctioneer didn’t hesitate. After shouting the last two times, he announced that Lin Mo had bid for the eight armed demon’s blood essence.

“Everyone, the last item was supposed to be the final treasure. It’s a spirit rank rank 8 spirit medicine.”

“However, someone sent over a large number of spirit pills. Their grade isn’t bad, so the final item has been delayed.”

The auctioneer suddenly said. Everyone who had thought that the auction would end suddenly froze on the spot.

“Teacher song, what grade is it? Don’t waste our brothers’ time.”

Someone asked unhappily. They had come for the finale, but the result had been delayed.

“Hehe, it’s not low. The lowest grade is a fifth level spirit rank, and the highest grade is three seventh level spirit rank pills.”

The auctioneer called Master song on the stage laughed.

These words shocked everyone. The disgruntled voices disappeared, and everyone began to look forward to it.

“The auction continues. The next item to be auctioned is a spirit rank 5, Origin Heaven Pill. It contains a large amount of spirit energy, and it can quickly recover the depleted spirit energy.”

“Starting bid...”

The next items to be auctioned were all items that Lin Mo had sent over. It was necessary to make some preparations before heading to the ghost domain.

There were spirit pills for healing, recovery, and even spirit pills for increasing one’s speed when escaping.

All of these could not be lacking. This was the only way to ensure that nothing went wrong.

The auction lasted for an hour. He sent over twenty panaceas in total, but they were all sold out.

No matter where they were, panaceas were very popular. There were no exceptions.

Meanwhile, Lin Mo also successfully obtained a large number of treasures that were sold at a profit. At the same time, he also obtained a large number of spirit stones.

“These should be enough. Let’s Find a place to refine this blood essence and try it out.”

Walking out of the auction stage, Lin Mo made some calculations in his heart. He was about to head to the teleportation array of the imperial city and head to the forbidden grounds of the ghost region at the border.

“Haha, brother, we meet again. I didn’t expect you to be the one who recognized the goods and bought the blood essence of my clan.”

Before Lin Mo could leave, a hearty laughter sounded out. A powerful hand patted Lin Mo’s shoulder.

“It’s you.” Lin Mo was stunned.

This person was the eight-armed demon who had chatted with him previously. He didn’t expect to see him again the moment he stepped out of the auction house.

“It seems like fate has brought us together. Please enlighten me. What’s so special about this blood essence?” Lin Mo cupped his fists.

Since the other party didn’t have any ill intentions, he didn’t mind befriending him.

“Haha, there’s nothing special about it. Just find a copper cauldron, put in some spirit herbs, spirit spring, and drop in some blood essence.”

“Remember to look for spirit herbs with mild medicinal properties. I recommend the Saint Spirit Flower. This type of spirit herb is the most suitable. It’s sold in the trading hall at the front.”

The two of them laughed and chatted as they walked towards the trading hall.

Before they even entered, Lin Mo heard the sounds of an argument.

“Old Man, who are you lying to? You said that this thing was taken out from the ghost realm. Do you have any proof?” Someone said angrily.

There were many people surrounding them. There were many peddlers setting up their stalls. They were all treasures. Lin Mo even saw a spirit rank 8 spirit herb.

“Oh, the quality of this holy spirit flower is very good. Fellow Daoist, you can buy one.” The eight-armed demon man was very cheerful. He saw a pale yellow flower and brought it over to Lin Mo. .

“How many Spirit Stones?”

Lin Mo couldn’t resist the enthusiasm. He looked at the Holy Spirit Flower. It was a spirit medicine that could heal injuries, and it wasn’t bad.

“Spirit rank rank 6 Holy Spirit Flower, 1.8 million middle-grade spirit stones.”The stall owner said with a smile.

As he said this, he handed over a stone and said with a smile, “Friend, it’s obvious that you’re someone who knows the goods. This is a demonic fire stone. Its quality is slightly low, but it’s the real deal.”

“Do you need it? Let’s buy it together. I’ll charge you 10,000,000 mid-grade spirit stones.”

As soon as he finished speaking, many people around him started cursing and criticizing him.

“Old Man, you’re still trying to fool me? This is clearly a blazing stone, and its quality is still so low. You want to sell it for 8,200,000 just like that?”

Lin Mo didn’t say a word. Instead, he took the stone and felt that there was a very strong fire element within it.

“Let me check.”

As he spoke, he urged his dao fire to spread out and at the same time, he kept the stone into the system space.

“Heaven Demonic Fire Spirit Stone, a half-step earth grade treasure. It contains powerful fire element within, but its interior is unstable and is about to be destroyed.”

It wasn’t a demonic fire stone, nor was it a fire illumination stone. Instead, it was an even more powerful heaven demonic fire spirit stone, a half-step earth grade treasure.

“Friend, how is it? Have you found anything?”

The eight-armed demon beside Lin Mo asked. At the same time, he was shocked by Lin Mo’s strength.

A Dao fire of this level wasn’t something he could possess. One could imagine Lin Mo’s strength. It was worth befriending him.

“If it’s a demonic fire stone, it’s not bad. However, it’s just a failed advancement demonic fire stone. Its interior is unstable and is about to shatter.”

Lin Mo shook his head and took out the demonic fire stone.

His words were very vague and there was nothing unusual. In the eyes of others, this was the product of a failed demonic fire stone advancement.

“I see. I thought it was a fire stone with dense fire elements.”

Someone shook his head as the mystery in his heart was solved.

“Stall owner, sell these two treasures to me for three million. It’s not a loss.”

Lin Mo smiled. It was indeed not a loss, but it was not a loss for him...

“Alright, then it’s a deal.”

The stall owner quickly agreed. Normal bright fire stones were not even worth a million. Now that Lin Mo was willing to pay a high price to buy them, he had also earned a profit.

“Then it’s a deal.”

Lin Mo handed over the Spirit Stones, took the Holy Spirit Flower and Sky Demon Fire Spirit Stones, and left.

“Friend, I haven’t asked your name yet. Which faction are you from?”

The eight-armed demon asked, no longer treating Lin Mo as an ordinary person and asking about his background.

“Hehe, thank you for your company. I still have something to do, so I have to leave.”

Lin Mo didn’t answer. He then pointed to a stall not far away, where there were many spirit pills with dim spiritual energy.

The stall owner was very depressed. He knew that the spiritual energy of his spirit pills had dissipated, and he was already selling them at a discount.

Seeing this, Lin Mo said to the eight-armed demon, “Third from the left, Fifth Spirit Pill. It’s not a loss to buy it.”

“I’m from Purple Moon Palace. We’ll meet again if we’re fated.”

After saying that, Lin Mo’s figure disappeared, leaving behind a wave of spatial fluctuations.

The eight-armed demon jumped in fright, his mouth wide open.

After being stunned for a moment, he walked towards the stall that he had just pointed at...

Chapter 445: Wanted by the Thunder Sacred Land

Nothing unexpected happened. However, what Lin Mo didn’t notice was.

Just as he revealed his powerful fire elemental energy, a peddler in the distance frowned.

“Using Dao Fire to appraise treasures, I seem to have heard the people above mention it before...”

At this moment, Lin Mo was flying through the spatial tunnel, passing through the various cities of the Lu Jin divine dynasty.

It took him a total of fifteen days before he finally arrived at the entrance of the Ghost Domain.

“It’s just as the legends say. Although the Ghost Domain has an eerie ghost aura, its outer regions are rich in vitality.”

Lin Mo was pleasantly surprised because there were many spiritual herbs growing outside of the ghost domain that were more precious.

There was a city nearby that relied on the ghost domain to survive. The powerful forces were the mercenary groups that dominated this place.

This city didn't belong to the Lu Jin dynasty, nor did it belong to the great ancient God dynasty. It was independent and belonged to a few mercenary groups.

"The bounty on the bounty has increased. The Thunder Holy Land has issued a bounty for the Ghost Lair's old man. Anyone who can kill him will receive a seventh-grade spirit-grade magic tool."

Lin Mo had just entered the city when he heard the news nearby.

The Bounty had a soul imprint on it. Lin Mo used his spiritual sense to check.

He had received a lot of news.

The Thunder Sacred Land's son, Ji Zixiao, had explored the ghost realm and was suspected to have obtained a supreme treasure. In the end, he was ambushed by the Ghost Lair's old man.

After being heavily injured, Ji Zixiao used a teleportation talisman to escape, leaving behind a supreme treasure.

Anyone who could kill the ghost lair old man and bring his corpse along with his perfect interspatial ring could go to the Thunder sacred land to receive the reward.

The reward was a spirit rank 7 magic tool.

"The Thunder Sacred Land is really angry now. They're even willing to give out a spirit rank 7 magic tool."

Lin Mo muttered to himself. Ji Zixiao had bought the map of the ghost domain back then, and it seemed like he had gone to explore it long ago.

It was just that he had been injured by that so-called ghost lair old man.

"I just don't know what that treasure is."

As he spoke, Lin Mo passed through the city and entered the ghost domain. He could still see quite a number of mercenaries fighting in the outer area.

There were many demonic beasts in the ghost domain. Moreover, they were affected by the Ghost Qi. These demonic beasts were very powerful.

If outsiders entered, they would be corroded by the Ghost Qi. If it was too long, they would even lose their lives.

The Kun Peng spread its wings and flew inside. The Heavenly Dark Pearl was placed in front of him to resist the Ghostly Qi's corrosion.

He recalled the map of the ghost region in his mind. The outer regions were only marked with some hidden dangers.

Lin Mo did not pay much attention to the locations of some spirit herbs. The grade was a little low, so he did not care.

He walked all the way until he reached the depths before he slowly stopped.

At this moment, in front of him, there was a tree root with a diameter of a hundred meters. From the traces, it was cut off by a sharp sword.

“Ghost Locust tree, 10,000 years old. It’s a pity that it was chopped off.”

Lin Mo was helpless. This was one of the best treasures in this area, and the map showed the ghost locust tree.

However, it had been chopped off. It seemed like it had been chopped off recently.

“This is a spirit rank 9 treasure. There hasn’t been any news recently. Has Ji Zi found out about it, or is it the Ghost Lair’s Old Man?”

As he muttered to himself, Lin Mo raised his hand, and a bolt of lightning struck down, causing the ground below to crack.

The map showed that there was an extremely evil jade buried under the Ghost Pagoda Tree. This was a half-step to Earth rank treasure.

It was just that he did not know if it had been taken away.

“There’s Yin Energy. Looks like it’s still there.”

After digging down for nearly a hundred meters, Lin Mo felt a cold and sinister aura.

After digging down another 500 meters, Lin Mo saw a faint blue light in the tangled roots of the tree.

When this light appeared, Lin Mo nodded his head in satisfaction.

“Extreme Evil Jade Stone, half-step to Earth rank. It’s about to advance to Earth rank. It’s protected by the ghost locust tree.”

Lin Mo whispered and put this extreme evil jade stone into the system space.

Originally, there was danger here. Although the ghost locust tree itself was a supreme treasure, it also had the strength of a fifth sky of Nirvana realm. It couldn’t be underestimated.

It was shown on the map, but unfortunately, the ghost locust tree was cut down, and the precious ghost locust tree was also gone.

“Take half of the Great Dao, and I’ll leave your roots behind.”

Lin Mo said in a low voice, and buried the excavated soil again, and buried tens of thousands of middle-grade spirit stones.

The Extreme Evil Jade Stone was taken away by him, and the ghost locust tree might die without nutrients, but these spirit stones could help it to be reborn.

However, it would take tens of thousands of years for it to grow to the same level as before.

“There’s another place, the Resurrection Lotus. It has the effect of regenerating one’s physical body. It’s an Earth Rank 1 demonic beast, and it’s enveloped by a world-shaking killing formation.”

After finding his target, Lin Mo headed in another direction.

During this period of time, he had killed quite a few demonic beasts, and the inner cores he obtained were all extraordinary. There was even a fifth sky of Nirvana Realm Demonic Beast, which was quite troublesome to kill.

If it wasn't for the Heaven and earth pearl protecting him from the erosion of the ghost qi, he really wouldn't have been able to take down the other party so easily.

After hurrying on his way, Lin Mo stopped in front of a terrifying killing formation.

This was an earth grade killing formation, and the map that Lin Mo had obtained didn't indicate how to break it, so he could only rely on himself.

"I can't break it, my strength isn't enough."

After checking, Lin Mo frowned and found that it was very difficult to do.

After observing, he found that there was a flaw in the formation, but it was still a bit dangerous to enter.

He would encounter a certain degree of attack, but Lin Mo wasn't sure if his current physical body could withstand the attack.

"Let's try this drop of blood essence."

Lin Mo whispered. The eight-armed demon's blood essence could effectively temper his physical body. Now that his strength had broken through to the third sky of the Nirvana stage, his physical body could be improved a little.

"Normal people need to dilute the medicinal properties, but I don't need it. I still need to strengthen the effects."

With this thought in mind, Lin Mo left the ghost region and returned to the city outside the ghost region.

Here, he took out a huge amount of spirit stones and bought spirit herbs from the vendors in the streets.

All kinds of powerful spirit herbs were purchased. He spent hundreds of millions of middle-grade spirit stones and bought more than fifty spirit herbs.

These were all rare and precious spirit herbs. If not for the fact that this place was close to the ghost region and was rich in resources, they wouldn't have been able to purchase all of them.

Not daring to cultivate in the city, Lin Mo entered the forest to find a secret place to cultivate. Only then would he be able to raise his strength unscathed.

However, his large scale purchase of spirit herbs still attracted the attention of all the mercenaries in the city.

Under normal circumstances, it was impossible for more than 50 spirit herbs to be bought in a day.

Now that such a thing had happened, the mercenary group leaders naturally noticed it.

This was also something that made Lin Mo very dissatisfied. If it was in the imperial city, other than creating a commotion, there wouldn't be any trouble.

At least, that was the case in the city.

However, in the forbidden grounds of the ghost region, it was different.

“You’ve been following me for so long, aren’t you planning to come out?” Lin Mo walked in the forest, his gaze gradually turning cold as he turned around to look behind him.

That place was silent, without any movement. It was as if everything was just Lin Mo’s illusion.

“HMPH, you’re courting death.”

Lin Mo said coldly as he raised his hand and a stream of sword Qi slashed down from the sky.

In a dark corner, a blood-curdling scream was heard as fresh blood sprayed out. Following that, a severed limb flew out.

“Who sent you?” Lin Mo looked at the person in the shadows and asked.

Chapter 446: The Ghost Lair’s Old Man

That person looked at Lin Mo in horror. Just as he was about to speak, an inch-long steel needle flew towards him from afar,

“I...”

“Puff!”

The steel needle pierced through that person’s head, causing it to explode. A mixture of white and red rained down from the sky.

At the same time, several more steel needles shot towards Lin Mo..

As he raised his hand, lightning flashed and destroyed all the steel needles. However, the aura that had just appeared in the distance had already disappeared.

Looking at the aura that had disappeared, Lin Mo only frowned.

Such decisiveness and killing intent. This person in the dark was truly vicious. However, he did not know where he came from.

“Looks like the ghost region isn’t a good place either. The so-called city that offers deals is actually a savage place that eats people without spitting out their bones.”

Shaking his head, Lin Mo turned around and left. He held his breath and used the spirit concentration mantra and the Kun Peng Wings.

He flew through the forest and finally concealed all his aura. At the foot of a mountain peak, he dug out a cave dwelling.

“Eh, the aura of life is dense. It seems to be the same around the ghost domain.”

Lin Mo was surprised. He originally thought that the underground might be filled with yin qi, but he didn't expect there to be such a dense aura of life.

He released a copper cauldron and poured the spiritual spring into it. Lin Mo sat cross-legged in the cauldron and infused the drop of blood essence into it.

As soon as it appeared, the spiritual spring in the Copper Cauldron was tainted with a purplish-black color.

At the same time, it was accompanied by a fishy smell. Lin Mo felt inexplicably agitated and wanted to fight with someone.

"What a dense baleful aura. It seems that if an ordinary person were to use it, they might not be able to withstand it and go crazy."

Lin Mo frowned. Even he felt irritated by this aura, and his soul was somewhat unstable.

Forcing himself to calm down, Lin Mo took out spirit herbs one by one.

The color of the spirit spring in the Copper Cauldron was gradually tainted, and Wisps of Mist appeared, covering Lin Mo's body.

"I still need to add some spirit stones."

Lin Mo muttered to himself, and took out a large number of spirit stones, placing them in the surroundings. He activated the god Devouring Art, and began to devour the energy within.

"So painful..."

As waves after waves of massive energy poured into his body, Lin Mo's body began to tremble.

This intense pain seemed as if it was going to crush his physical body. His soul wasn't spared, and he endured it together with his body.

"Eh? This blood essence isn't simple. The effect is very good."

Lin Mo was astonished. He had only just begun when he felt an abnormality. The spiritual energy in the world began to flow towards him spontaneously.

Time passed, and with Lin Mo as the center, an energy vortex formed.

This was all thanks to the god Devouring Art. He activated the god devouring body and forcefully devoured the energy within a thousand miles. It was extremely brutal.

I have to speed up. This place will be exposed soon

Lin Mo thought to himself. The God devouring art was operating faster, and the devouring speed was even faster.

His physical body was also slowly becoming stronger. The treasured body in the bronze cauldron was solemn, emitting divine light, and was sacred and inviolable.

Lin Mo did not move. His body was dripping with blood, but his entire body was glowing with golden light. This was a sign that his physical body had achieved great success.

The spiritual energy from all directions continued to spread, surging towards this place.

This scene was too shocking, to the point that even the mercenaries exploring the mountain could feel it.

Some people received the news and deduced that it might be the person who had bought the spiritual medicine the last time refining pills.

“Lead the way and let the brothers who discovered it interrupt him. That person’s background might not be simple.”

A mercenary group leader said with a grave expression.

Through some information, he knew that the person who bought the spiritual medicine might be Lin Mo. .

Lin Mo’s current status was very high. As long as he could kill him, the benefits he would receive would be unimaginable.

In the copper cauldron, the spiritual spring had already bottomed out, and the medicinal properties within were about to be completely absorbed.

Lin Mo gritted his teeth, enduring the intense pain in his body while at the same time resisting the pain in his soul.

By using this method to polish his body, his cultivation base had completely stabilized at the third sky of the Nirvana realm.

His body was crystal clear and his soul was abundant. Now, he could even refine spirit stones and break through to the fourth sky of the Nirvana realm.

However, even though Bai Luo kept paying attention to his foundation, Lin Mo still didn’t dare to be careless. He fought steadily and steadily, allowing himself to stand firm at the third sky of the Nirvana realm.

“No wonder he had to neutralize the medicinal properties. He used the power of his blood essence to forcefully tear his body apart and then recombine it to become even stronger. If he wasn’t careful, his body and soul would be destroyed...”

When all the medicinal properties had been absorbed, Lin Mo let out a long breath. He had cultivated for three days.

His body was constantly enduring pain. If it wasn’t for the fact that his body was extraordinary, he would have been destroyed by this scale of cultivation.

“Someone is coming...”

Lin Mo frowned as he looked ahead. At this moment, the mountain peak where he was in seclusion was already surrounded by people.

All of them had rushed over following the spiritual energy fluctuation. All of them stared at the bottom of the mountain peak with ferocious expressions.

“You dare to find trouble with me? You’re all courting death.”

Lin Mo’s expression turned cold as he put on his clothes. A powerful aura spread out, and the mountain peak above exploded.

The moment he appeared, three middle-aged men surrounded him.

“Young man, you are the one who is refining the spirit pills, right? Hand over three of them and we will forget about today’s matter.”

The three of them immediately demanded the spirit pills. They thought that Lin Mo was buying the spirit pills to refine the pills.

“Who are you? You are asking for the spirit pills from me. Could it be that your family owns this place?” Lin Mo sneered.

“Hehe, I know that you’re Lin Mo, the Vice Palace Master of Purple Moon Palace, but you went on an adventure in the ghost region. Wouldn’t it be a pity if you died in an accident?”

The three middle-aged men looked at Lin Mo with sinister smiles.

At this point, many people gathered around and approached Lin Mo with malicious smiles.

“You’re well-informed. Can you tell us how you found out?”

Lin Mo took off the bamboo hat on his head and looked at these people. He knew that he didn’t give himself away.

But now, he was exposed. When did this happen?

Was it because he bought the spirit herbs? But there should be quite a number of people with such wealth.

Why were they so sure that it was him?

“There are some things that are better not to even know about dead people.”

The three middle-aged men sneered as they looked at Lin Mo. spiritual energy burst out from him. He was at the fifth sky of the Nirvana realm. To be able to rule a city near the ghost region, his strength was naturally not weak.

“Bang.”

Seeing that there was no way for Lin Mo to get more information out of him, he turned his finger into a sword and slightly slashed out. Although his strength was only at the third sky of the Nirvana realm.

However, the smiles on the three men’s faces disappeared after this slash.

“Puff.”

A bloody light surged out and they were sent flying. A sword scar appeared on their chests. No blood flowed out because the scorching flames had allowed the wound to heal.

However, in the next moment, the Lightning on the sword scar exploded and the three of them were heavily injured in an instant.

“With your strength, you should not be able to recognize me. Who is the person behind this?” Lin Mo coldly said.

“What a neat trick. The Vice Palace Master of Purple Moon Palace really lives up to his reputation.”

After a light laugh, the space behind the three of them split open, and a hunchbacked old man slowly walked out.

His face was covered in scars, and he wore a straw hat. His entire body was emitting a foul smell.

This appearance was exactly the same as the ghost lair old man on the wanted list of the Thunder Sacred Land...

Lin Mo nodded and finally understood the reason.

“I see, this is the reason why you weren’t discovered by the Ming Lei Holy Land...”

Chapter 447: The mysterious expert of the Ghost Domain

The three people who had wanted to make a move earlier were the controllers of the cities outside the ghost domain. However, they had always been hostile towards the outside world.

In reality, the person who had been secretly controlling them had always been this old man from the ghost lair.

“But that’s not right. How did you know that I’m Lin Mo’s?”

He found something suspicious. This shouldn’t be. He didn’t reveal any flaws, so how did he find out.

“I’ve said it before. There are some secrets that you shouldn’t even tell a dead person.”

The ghost lair old man sneered as he extended his shriveled palm towards Lin Mo. .

A wave of power that carried the aura of death from the ghost domain continuously spread out, wanting to corrode Lin Mo. .

Lin Mo extended his finger, and a powerful sword qi spread out. The Lightning and fire elemental energy spread out, emitting terrifying undulations.

The ghost lair old man was shocked. Was this a genius? He was at the 6th Sky of the Nirvana stage, but it seemed like he couldn’t even take a single move from the other party.

“Wait, let’s drop this matter. This old man will leave now.”

The ghost lair old man looked at his severed arm in shock. He couldn't be bothered to retrieve it. He took out a talisman and ran away.

He was very straightforward. He didn't even care about his own subordinates and left just like that.

"What about you guys? How did you guys find me?" Lin Mo asked.

The three mercenary group leaders broke out in cold sweat and didn't dare to say anything. The Ghost Lair's old man had already run away, what else could they do.

"Forget it if you don't want to talk."

Lin Mo shook his head. Streams of sword Qi slashed down, killing the three mercenary group leaders.

As for the others, he wasn't a bloodthirsty person. In any case, these people weren't a threat to him, so he didn't bother with them.

Within the ghost region, within a ruin that was filled with ghost qi.

The space rippled. This was the central region of the ghost region, and the surroundings were filled with formations. There were over a dozen people seated cross-legged in this place, presiding over the formation.

If Lin Mo was here, he would be able to recognize them. There were tokens hanging on their waists, and they were members of the Secret Ghost sect.

When the Ghost Lair Old Man was teleported here, he immediately came over to ask for help.

"Sir, Lin Mo's combat strength is very strong. I am no match for him. Please help me."

The depths of the ghost region were filled with Ghost Qi. It could corrode everything, but it could not corrode the people here.

There was a mysterious aura on their bodies. It was very mysterious.

In the middle of the formation, a skinny old man sat cross-legged. His pair of sharp eyes suddenly opened as he stared at the ghost lair old man.

"You can bring the others with you. I Can't leave."The old man spoke with a hoarse voice that sounded like the voice of an undead.

The ghost lair old man was startled when he heard this. He hurriedly said, "Sir, Lin Mo's combat strength is too terrifying. I'm afraid that we aren't his match."

"It doesn't matter. They can form a formation."The old man spoke.

The ghost lair old man didn't dare to disobey the old man's words. The others stood up and left with the ghost lair old man.

"Wait a moment, ghost lair, come over here."

Suddenly, the old man spoke again, as if he felt that these people were really not Lin Mo's match.

The ghost lair old man did not speak. He walked over with a nervous expression.

The old man in the middle gathered Ghost Qi with both of his hands and instantly erupted. A powerful force spread out.

A ball of extremely dense ghost qi condensed and was sent into the ghost lair old man's Dantian by his palm.

"AH... Ah!"

The ghost lair old man let out a painful roar. The tearing pain made him think that he was going to die.

In the end, the ghost qi dissipated. The ghost lair old man was fine, but he felt a thick ghost qi appear in his body.

"Sir, what is this?"The ghost lair old man was shocked.

"No need to ask. Go."

Hearing this, the ghost lair old man was skeptical, but he didn't dare to resist and left with these people.

In a city outside the ghost domain, Lin Mo walked in with a bamboo hat on his head.

He headed straight for his target and walked towards the headquarters of the three mercenary groups.

After entering, he grabbed a person, asked for the location of the Treasury, broke its array formation, and walked in.

"With the ghost domain behind us, there are quite a lot of good things."

Lin Mo nodded his head in satisfaction. The most valuable thing was the spirit rank rank 8 spirit herb, and it also had over 20 million mid-grade spirit stones.

After collecting all the treasures, Lin Mo turned around and left, heading to the other two mercenary groups.

After collecting all the treasures, he planned to enter the ghost region once again.

However, before he could leave the city, he discovered that there were over a dozen people blocking his way.

"Young man, what ruthless methods. If you are tactful, then surrender. This old man can let you off."

The Ghost Lair's old man said coldly.

He had just lost an arm to Lin Mo, but now he was like this, inexplicably gaining more confidence.

The commotion here quickly attracted the people in the city, and many people paid attention to this place.

"It's the ghost lair's old man. I didn't expect him to really appear."

"Who is the person confronting him? His aura is only at the third sky of the Nirvana realm."Someone was shocked.

“You still dare to come back because you have confidence in your heart. Just based on these people?” Lin Mo mocked.

The ghost lair old man snorted and said, “Young man, don’t be too arrogant. Don’t think that just because you have a little talent, you can be arrogant.”

Lin Mo didn’t say anything. He raised his hand and pointed. The Sword Qi surged and ruthlessly slashed toward the ghost lair old man.

A fire snake appeared in the Sword Qi, followed by a thunder as thick as a bucket. The combination of the two was extremely terrifying. Even a sixth sky of the Nirvana realm couldn’t resist it.

However, to everyone’s surprise, a faint light exploded from the bodies of the people surrounding the ghost lair old man.

The light connected and finally formed a formation that blocked Lin Mo’s attack.

“What a mysterious formation. It can actually be engraved on a person’s body.” The people in the city exclaimed.

“Rumble.”

The Sword Qi exploded. Lin Mo took out the ancient sword of desolation and used the heaven-cleaving sword qi. The power of lightning and fire converged.

This was an earth grade martial art. With this move, even a mountain could be flattened in an instant.

Unfortunately, the opponent’s array formation was still tenacious and blocked Lin Mo’s attack.

“It’s almost comparable to the defense of a seventh sky of Nirvana realm.”

Lin Mo was moved. The Hidden Ghost sect was really a terrifying killer force. This kind of array formation was too mysterious.

A purple light appeared under his feet, and a ray of divine light lit up. The Kirin Pattern Condensed, and without saying anything else, he charged towards the array formation.

The purple light illuminated this area, and the secret ghost sect disciples were all enveloped by it. A bloody light surged out.

“Kacha.”

The array formation was broken, and the Kirin steps did not lose any of its power. It ruthlessly stepped on the ghost lair old man’s body.

“How is this possible?”

The ghost lair old man was shocked. Just as he was about to gather his spiritual energy to resist, he was shocked to find that the Ghost Qi in his Dantian had unknowingly absorbed his spiritual energy.

“No...”

With a shrill cry, Lin Mo's expression changed drastically. He spread his Kun Peng Wings and flew backward.

A terrifying explosion was heard, and the earth shook and the mountains shook.

The Ghost Qi that belonged to the ghost domain spread out and chased after Lin Mo. .

Seeing this, Lin Mo took out the Dark Sky Pearl and blocked in front of him, directly destroying the Ghost Qi.

"What a ruthless method. A sixth sky of Nirvana realm expert just self-destructed like this."

Lin Mo stood on a mountain peak and looked at the thousand meter large crater behind him.

Not only him, the others were also shocked and didn't understand why the ghost lair old man suddenly self-destructed.

"May I ask, are you the Vice Palace Master of Purple Moon Palace, Lin Mo?"

Chapter 448: Ji Zixiao's injuries

When all the commotion had ended, a few cultivators dressed in luxurious clothing stepped forward. Men and women stood respectfully behind Lin Mo..

"Who are you?" Lin Mo asked.

"We're the law enforcement team from Thunder Sacred Land. We were ordered to search for information on the ghost lair's old man."

These people replied. However, they did not need to collect any more information now because Lin Mo had already killed the ghost lair old man.

The only thing that they did not understand was why the ghost lair old man had self-destructed right from the start.

"We were just following the flow. You guys can go back and report."

Lin Mo shook his head. He was just about to turn around when he was stopped.

"Deputy Palace Master Lin, Please Wait."

The leader was a middle-aged man. He stopped Lin Mo and wanted to say something but hesitated.

"If you want to say something, just say it. There's no need to hide it." Lin Mo frowned.

"Vice Palace Master Lin is heading to the ghost region. If that's the case, can you help me find a treasure?"

That person was a little embarrassed. Not long ago, Lin Mo was just a junior. Now, he had become the second-in-command of a large faction...

"Tell me more. How am I supposed to find him if you don't tell me anything?"

Lin Mo said unhappily. How was he supposed to find him if he did not tell him anything?

Hearing this, the middle-aged man did not hide anything and secretly told him what had happened recently.

“Ji Zixiao is seriously injured and unconscious?”

Lin Mo was shocked. He knew how strong Ji Zixiao was. It was impossible for him to be seriously injured by just a ghost lair old man.

Even if he was no match for Ji Zixiao, he could still escape and not fall unconscious.

“Did you find any symptoms?” Lin Mo asked.

“I did. It seems like a portion of the Holy Son’s soul is missing. Forcefully waking him up would cause him to go into a stupor, so there hasn’t been any treatment.”

Hearing these words, Lin Mo finally understood.

No Wonder Ming Lei Holy Land wanted to arrest the ghost lair’s old man. It turned out that they wanted to find the missing portion of the soul.

“If I can find it, I can help.”

Lin Mo nodded. He had a good impression of Ji Zixiao. If he could help, he would definitely help. He wouldn’t just stand by and watch.

“Thank you, Vice Palace Head Lin. If we can save the Holy Son, Ming Lei Holy Land will repay you with a gushing spring.”

The few people bowed respectfully and watched as Lin Mo left, entering the ghost realm.

According to the map, he once again arrived at the place where the Resurrection Lotus was located. This place was still protected by the world-shocking killing array.

However, this time, Lin Mo had some confidence and found the weakest spot.

This was the only chance, and Lin Mo was a little nervous.

At this moment, he was wearing a magic tool armor. It was a spirit rank rank 8, and it was quite extraordinary.

“Success or failure depends on this one move.”

After making up his mind, Lin Mo leaped into the killing formation.

In the next moment, the killing formation sensed his existence. It started to revolve, and terrifying rays of light slashed over.

Lin Mo spread out his kun Peng Wings, dodging left and right, narrowly avoiding the attack.

However, he was still hit in the end, and the magic weapon armor on his body shattered.

Even Lin Mo was heavily injured. His body, which had just been tempered, was slashed out with a blood-red sword scar.

“What a terrifying sword aura, and this is the weakest part...”

Lin Mo stood up with great difficulty, feeling a little fortunate.

He passed through the killing formation, and in front of him was a pond filled with dense vitality.

The sword scar on his body had been healed, and the spiritual spring in the pond contained a lot of spiritual energy of life. Lying within it, he felt very comfortable.

“Three resurrection lotuses. My Luck is very good.”

After his injuries were healed, Lin Mo picked the three pure white lotuses in the middle of the pond and the three earth grade first grade spirit herbs. This little bit of injury was worth it.

“It’s time to go to the next place.”

He walked out of the killing formation with difficulty again. Lin Mo recalled the map in his mind and went to look for the next place.

There was an earth grade magic tool buried there. Above it was the habitat of three sixth sky of Nirvana Realm Demonic Beasts.

He wouldn’t miss such a good thing, so he had to go and find it.

After half an hour of traveling, Lin Mo successfully arrived at a steep mountain peak.

With a raise of his hand, flames and lightning descended, and the mountain peak shattered, shaking the earth and mountains.

“Roar.”

At the foot of the mountain, three gray rhinoceroses broke out from the ground, letting out deafening roars.

“Human, leave this place.”

The demonic beast spoke in human language, its scarlet eyes glaring at Lin Mo. .

“Although you are very strong, we have never provoked you. Why are you disturbing us?”One of the rhinoceroses looked at Lin Mo. .

From Lin Mo’s body, it sensed danger.

“Big Brother, why are you talking so much to him? Barging into our territory, this is a provocation, this is courting death.”

The other rhinoceroses roared in anger, roaring as they charged towards Lin Mo. . The horns of the rhinoceroses flickered with divine light, heading towards Lin Mo. .

“I wish to take away a magical artifact from the underground. If you allow me to do so, I can not make a move.”

Lin Mo brandished his ancient sword of desolation. The sword light forced the rhinoceros back as he laughed.

“What’s down there?” The rhinoceros that was called Big Brother opened its mouth and asked in puzzlement.

They had lived here for hundreds of years and had never felt any treasures buried beneath them.

“This is none of your business. Let Me Take it away and we won’t interfere.”

Lin Mo said calmly. It would be a bit troublesome to deal with three sixth sky of Nirvana Realm Demonic Beasts and the enhancement from the ghost territory.

After all, there was an unfamiliar enemy in the dark.

The enemy might be from the secret ghost sect, the culprit behind the old man’s self-detonation. He had to be careful.

“Don’t even think about it. This is our territory. Even if there are treasures, they are still ours.”

The Rhinos roared loudly, not intending to negotiate with Lin Mo..

Seeing this, Lin Mo was helpless. The Kun Peng spread its wings, and the purple divine light under its feet roamed.

The fierce battle continued for half an hour. In order to ensure that he was in peak condition throughout the entire process, Lin Mo didn’t use too much of the archaic divine beast remnant technique.

The battle caused the sky to collapse and the earth to crack. The originally mountainous mountains here were now gone, and there were many ravines.

“Bang!”

An enormous rhinoceros fell down, lying in the ravine. Fresh blood flowed out, dyeing the land red.

“Participating in more battles is beneficial to cultivation...”

Lin Mo cleaned up the battlefield, and three inner cores were taken away. These three rhinoceroses were of the water attribute. His blood essence was useless, but it could be auctioned off.

According to the map, he found a ravine and began to dig downwards.

During the digging process, Lin Mo finally understood why the three rhinoceroses didn’t notice the treasures below.

If it weren’t for the map, even Lin Mo wouldn’t dare to believe it. He dug down for a full 30,000 meters.

In the end, he fell into a sea of lava and found a scarlet pearl there.

After storing it in the system space, the information of the pearl was transmitted over.

[divine fire pearl, first rank of the Earth realm. Only cultivators with the fire attribute can control it. It can greatly increase the fire element and get closer to the Dao.]

It was a magic tool that could be used to assist in cultivation, and it could also be used in battle. However, it was more of a support.

Chapter 449: Green Destiny Jade

“It’s a little useless. Xiao Die herself is the purest fire element. She doesn’t need any support.”

Lin Mo shook his head. However, it was still an Earth Rank 1 magic tool, and it could be sold for quite a few spirit stones.

After collecting it, Lin Mo left this place and prepared to head to the next place.

“That’s the last place. It’s an Earth rank 5 treasure.”

On the way, Lin Mo carefully recalled the map and discovered that this was the last place.

The other places were either complete killing formations or too dangerous. Lin Mo wasn’t strong enough to explore them.

However, when he arrived at his destination, he discovered a sallow and skinny old man sitting cross-legged in the center.

He seemed to have expended a lot of energy, and was concentrating on breaking the formation.

It was only when Lin Mo stepped in that he realized that he had turned around and revealed a terrifying smile.

“You’re from the Secret Ghost Sect, right? May I know your status in the Secret Ghost Sect?”

Lin Mo asked. This person should be the culprit behind the old man’s self-detonation. However, he did not know if Ji Zixiao’s missing soul was with him.

“I’ve been searching for you for a long time, but I didn’t find you at all. This old man has been waiting for you for a long time...”

The old man let out a series of shrill laughter that sounded like the howls of a ferocious ghost.

He pointed at the array flag and said, “I thought you were killed by the explosion, so I’m a little regretful. After all, the Soul Sacrifice Array still lacks a sliver of a soul as a sacrifice...”

This was something he hadn’t expected. He had thought that it was enough, so he had sent everyone away.

He hadn’t expected that the array would lack a sliver of a soul...

“Soul Sacrifice Formation, what is that?”

Lin Mo was puzzled. He had never heard of such a formation. Could it be that he needed this kind of formation to obtain the treasures here?

“You don’t need to know. Obediently become a sacrifice.”

That old man snorted coldly, and his figure was like a ghost as he clawed at Lin Mo. .

His speed was very fast, but it wasn’t faster than the Kun Peng’s wings. Lin Mo smoothly dodged the attack.

“Seventh sky of the Nirvana stage. Unfortunately, you’re not in your peak condition.”

Lin Mo laughed. He was very lucky. If the other party was in his peak condition, he could only turn around and run.

But now, it was different. The other party had used up more than half of his spiritual power to set up the so-called soul sacrifice array.

His current condition was very bad. He couldn’t be Lin Mo’s opponent.

“This is the legendary God devouring body?”

The old man was shocked. He saw the black hole that appeared beside Lin Mo expand and cover the area.

He felt the spiritual energy in his body gradually leaving his body. The spiritual energy in this area was decreasing and slowly entering Lin Mo’s body.

“Your knowledge isn’t bad. Can you tell me your identity?”

Lin Mo said with a smile. Up until now, he still didn’t know who the other party was. There was nothing he could do. He was a little inexperienced, and he had never heard of any famous experts.

“My Name, is it? Elder GUI, that’s what the disciples in the sect call me.”

“Perhaps it’s because I’m in charge of the Ghost Region Branch...”

The old man smiled and took out a spirit pill to consume. After recovering most of his spiritual energy, he engaged in an intense battle with Lin Mo. .

Lin Mo brandished the ancient sword of desolation, and the heaven-cleaving sword Qi exploded with flames and lightning, making this place extremely dazzling.

However, Lin Mo’s attacks had no effect on elder Gui’s body at all.

Every time the attacks landed, a layer of bone armor would appear on his body, absorbing most of the attacks.

“My ten thousand soul bone armor can not be broken even by attacks of the same level. You, junior, don’t...”

“Crack.”

Before elder Gui could finish his words, a crack appeared on his so-called ten thousand soul bone armor.

In front of him, a wisp of purple divine light blossomed under Lin Mo’s feet. He used the Kylin steps and shattered the ten thousand soul bone armor with just one attack.

“Old Man, your ten thousand soul bone armor isn’t good enough. Do you have any more powerful moves?”

Lin Mo mocked. The Kun Peng Wings pulled apart the distance, and a huge vermilion bird appeared behind him.

“Kylin, there’s a Vermillion Bird?” Elder Gui was shocked. At this moment, he finally felt fear.

Wasn’t his most powerful move the ten thousand soul bone armor.

However, in front of Lin Mo, he simply couldn’t withstand a single attack. The Archaic Divine Beast’s technique was too powerful, and its attack power was extraordinary.

“Old Man, your lifespan is up.”

Lin Mo appeared in front of Elder Gui. In his palm, a ball of flame was compressed to the extreme before finally imprinting itself on the opponent’s heart.

“Rumble.”

The ten thousand soul bone armor only helped him block for a moment before it was unable to be reassembled after shattering.

Meanwhile, the Vermilion Bird Divine Flame formed by the four cloud piercers suddenly erupted and enveloped the other party within the Sea of flames.

“Argh!”

A miserable shriek rang out. The cultivation technique that this ghost elder cultivated seemed to lean towards the cold and dark side.

Facing the Vermilion Bird Divine Flame that was extremely yang and firm, it was absolutely restrained.

Amidst the screams of pain, the ghost elder’s body dissipated, not even leaving behind ashes.

The surrounding Soul Sacrifice Formation also lost its effect after the formation’s core was broken.

“Wu Wu...”

Ghost-like cries rang out one after another. The Earth split open as numerous energy bodies flew out from below.

Lin Mo could feel the fluctuations of the soul within.

“So many soul bodies...”

He looked at the soul that had flown out, wanting to see if Ji Zixiao’s soul was within it.

However, he could not find it because the speed of the soul body was too fast. After it was freed from its restraints, it quickly disappeared.

Some of the soul bodies were relatively weak and dissipated the moment they were released. In fact, they did not even move much.

This made Lin Mo worry that Ji Zixiao, who only lacked a portion of his soul, would also dissipate like this...

“Sigh, I don’t have any tricks up my sleeves when it comes to souls. Brother Ji, I hope you’re alright.”

Lin Mo sighed. Although his spiritual sense was strong, it was only used to scan his surroundings and defend against soul attacks.

He had no way to save Ji Zixiao, so he could only hope that Ji Zixiao was lucky.

After the Soul Sacrifice Array was broken, Lin Mo looked down and saw a spatial crack. The so-called treasure was right below.

“It was marked on the map. How could he know to take it with him? Why did he set up the Soul Sacrifice Formation?”

Lin Mo muttered to himself. This was very unusual. The map given to him by the system wouldn’t be wrong. Could it be that the Ghost Elder’s information was wrong?

With this thought in mind, Lin Mo entered the spatial passageway. There were originally some formations inside that were quite dangerous.

However, these were all broken by the Ghost Elder. In the deepest part of the passageway, there was a piece of jade that was half the height of a person.

It was green in color. As it approached, specks of green light spread out, resisting Lin Mo and preventing him from advancing forward.

“A treasure that I’ve never seen before...”

Lin Mo muttered as he activated his spiritual energy and stopped three meters in front of the Jade Stone. He was unable to get close to it as the resistance was very strong.

“Retrieve!”

With a low shout, he kept the jade stone into the system space.

Hearing the voice from the system, Lin Mo finally understood why elder Gui wanted to set up the Soul Sacrifice Formation.

[the Green Nether Jade is a fifth rank earth grade treasure. It can be used to set up formations, forge weapons, and absorb spiritual energy directly. It contains an extremely huge amount of energy.]

[however, to refine it, one needs an extremely powerful spiritual energy. Otherwise, it would be difficult to absorb spiritual energy from its body.]

Elder GUI should have wanted to absorb the green nether jade previously, but his spiritual energy was insufficient.

Thus, he had set up the Soul Sacrifice Array, wanting to break the green destiny jade in this way and absorb the spirit energy.

“Earth rank 5. If I use it to auction, it will cause quite a stir.”

Lin Mo laughed loudly and decided to hold the auction after he returned.

As long as the auction was successful, the Purple Moon Palace's resource problem would be solved, and he could also use the devouring God body to devour the returning treasures.

"I can go back now..."

Chapter 450: The Hidden Ghost Sect's foundation

Without much delay, Lin Mo turned around and left the ghost realm, intending to return to the Purple Moon Palace.

"Brother Lin, please wait."

Just as he walked out of the ghost realm, a beautiful figure flew over and called out to him.

He saw a beautiful woman in front of him. Her white dress fluttered in the wind, as if she was a fairy who had descended to the mortal world.

"Saintess Xia You?"

Lin Mo was stunned. How could he meet Saintess Xia you everywhere? If he did not know that the other party was not that kind of person, he would even suspect that Saintess Xia you was following him...

"I heard that brother Lin killed the ghost lair's old man. Did you also kill the Ghost Elder in the Ghost Realm?"

Saintess Xia you laughed lightly. With a wave of her hand, a ball of light appeared in her hand.

It was a faint ball of light, but Lin Mo was very familiar with it. It belonged to Ji Zixiao's soul.

"I was invited by the Thunder Sacred Land to rescue fellow Daoist Ji Zixiao's soul. Unfortunately, I was a step too late."

The reason she was a step too late was because Ji Zixiao's soul had already been saved.

Now that Lin Mo was standing there unscathed, it was likely that elder Gui had also been killed.

"It's not too late. Brother Ji's soul is weak, so it's safer with the Saintess taking him back," Lin Mo cupped his hands and said.

"I heard that the Secret Ghost sect has a branch here, and it's hidden in the ghost realm. Since brother Lin killed the ghost elder, it doesn't make sense for you not to take the treasures from the branch."

Saintess Xiyou smiled and told Lin Mo that there were still treasures hidden in the ghost realm.

"Oh, what good things are there?" Lin Mo was interested.

The map of the ghost domain recorded treasures that were naturally formed or passed down from ancient times.

There were no records of such man-made treasure troves.

“It might not be as good as brother Lin’s collection, but it’s still eye-catching. Brother Lin, why don’t you come with me?” Saintess Xia you invited.

“Can you be more specific? If it’s not a necessity, then I won’t fight with the Holy Maiden over it,” Lin Mo said with a smile. He didn’t seem to mind.

Hearing this, the Xia you holy maiden laughed lightly and spoke slowly.

“Fellow Daoist Ji Zixiao obtained a painting scroll in the ghost domain. It seems to contain the true essence of the Lightning Attribute Dao.”

Her spiritual sense was sharp, and she discovered that Lin Mo still carried the power of the Lightning attribute.

This made her surprised. After not seeing him for a while, Lin Mo’s strength had become even stronger.

Right now, she was at the fourth sky of the Nirvana realm, and she was still able to suppress Lin Mo. however, the gap between them was getting smaller and smaller.

“Only this? This kind of treasure seems to only be able to be comprehended once.”

Lin Mo said. Saintess Xia you had the wind and lightning attribute, so it shouldn’t be to the extent of giving it up.

“There’s also a scroll of wind attribute dao principles that the hidden ghost sect brought to the Divine Secrets Sacred Land and asked the sacred lord of the sacred land to do something for them.”

From these words, Lin Mo obtained useful information.

Even if the hidden ghost sect’s strength wasn’t as strong as the Divine Secrets Sacred Land, it wasn’t much weaker.

Otherwise, these fellows wouldn’t have any reason to give away the treasures that came to their doorstep.

The scroll containing the wind attribute dao principles was extremely precious. If it was comprehended by a genius with astonishing talent, their strength would have a qualitative leap.

“But I still have some matters to attend to. Saintess, why don’t you go explore on your own?” Lin Mo shook his head and said.

There was no such thing as a free lunch in this world. The place that Saintess Xia you had invited him to might be an extremely dangerous place.

“There’s also an Earth rank magic weapon longsword there. It’s at least at the 2nd rank of the Earth rank.” Saintess Xia you said with a frown.

At this moment, even Lin Mo had no way of ignoring it.

Although the ancient desolation sword was a very good magic weapon, a growth type magic weapon, the amount of energy required to advance to the Earth rank was too huge.

He still had to cultivate, and the Purple Moon Palace needed spirit stones to develop, so he couldn't afford to consume them.

This was also the reason why he had been using the spirit rank rank 9 desolation ancient sword.

The original Earth rank magic weapon was created by an expert who surpassed the Nirvana realm.

If an ordinary person wanted to refine it, the difficulty could be imagined, and it would definitely be extremely difficult.

This time, Lin Mo had no way to refuse. As long as he auctioned off the Earth rank magic weapon, he would be able to obtain a better one.

"If that's the case, then I can make a trip. Of course, Saintess, please fulfill your promise and really give me these two treasures."

Saintess xiyou nodded. In order to ensure that nothing went wrong, she could only agree. Losing an earth-grade magic artifact still made her heart ache.

The central area of the ghost region was a place that Lin Mo had never set foot in before. It belonged to the deeper regions.

This was originally the headquarters of the Secret Ghost sect. However, because the array formation buried underground was gradually recovering, they had no choice but to relocate.

Even so, they still sent the ghost elder to guard this place.

Along the way with Saintess Xia you, there was a small courtyard in a gloomy graveyard.

However, this place was protected by an array formation, and the array flag was a pile of graves in the surroundings. It was very strange.

Only now did Lin Mo understand why Saintess Xia you would invite him here.

This array formation would summon a terrifying giant beast. Its combat strength was close to the eighth sky of the Nirvana realm, and its body carried an extremely corrosive ghost qi.

This kind of powerful formation was very troublesome for Saintess Xia you to deal with alone, and she needed the help of another person.

The two of them worked together, and Saintess Xia you held back the giant beast. Lin Mo found the right time and burned the graves one by one.

Lightning flashed and thunder rumbled, flames surged into the sky, and the power of wind and thunder enveloped the world.

The fierce battle lasted for an hour, and Lin Mo broke the last grave. He pulled out all the formation flags, and only then did he break the formation.

As soon as he broke through, the Ghostly Qi in the area started to spread. Lin Mo took out the heavenly dark pearl and chased away the ghostly qi.

In the small courtyard, there was a jade-blue grass. It was three inches tall and had seven leaves. It looked as if it was carved out of jade and was shining brightly. It grew here and rippled with blue ripples.

“Half-step earth grade spiritual grass, jade-blue sea.”

On the other side of the grass, there was another plant. After sensing that the Ghostly Qi had dissipated, it quietly bloomed and its flowers were dazzling.

Golden liquid flowed from the pistil of the flower. This kind of fragrance was incompatible with the surrounding ghostly qi.

“Half-step earth rank spirit herb, Golden Heart.”

Lin Mo was extremely shocked. He felt that he had lost out a little. Although the two scrolls and the Earth rank magic tool were still the most precious items.

However, there were spirit herbs all over the place. If he auctioned them all, he would be able to obtain even more spirit stones.

“There are also three ice crystal ginsengs. They are of the ninth rank of the spirit rank. They are very extraordinary.”

Saintess Xia you was astonished. These things were very rare, and the conditions for their growth were very harsh. She had never thought that the secret ghost sect would be able to grow them here.

The fragrance assailed her nostrils. Lin Mo looked over and indeed, he saw three ginsengs on a piece of land.

They were ice blue in color, and the leaves on them were blue as well. It was very mystical.

This type of ginseng had extremely good medicinal effects. It could calm one’s mind and recuperate, far surpassing other ginseng plants.

Just these three ice crystal ginseng plants alone could be sold for a high price of over 60 million.

“The hidden ghost sect’s methods are really amazing. There’s more here.”

Lin Mo cried out in surprise. This time, he was truly shocked. In the deepest part of the medicinal field, there was a small grass that was as long as an index finger.

It was dark green in color and swayed with the wind. It looked ordinary, but as the breeze blew past, this small grass actually emitted the heavenly sound of the Great Dao.

Just hearing this, Lin Mo felt his mind clear, as if he wanted to comprehend the Great Dao.

“This is the luck dao grass, and it’s still a seedling. However, it also belongs to the first rank of the Earth rank.”
