

Trillion Times 81

Chapter 81 Lin Mo's Strategy

The ancient city appeared in front of Lin Mo and Miao Qing. It seemed to be slightly bigger than Qingyang City.

The moment Lin Mo stepped into the city, he felt an indescribable feeling. This was the city where the original owner had lived for more than ten years.

"Master, are we going to return to the Lin clan directly?"

Lin Mo's eyes darkened as he recalled the scene of the original owner being banished. He sneered. "No. Previously, the Lin clan cast me out. Now, I want them to invite me back into the clan."

Back when Lin Mo fell from the clouds, the clan did not give up on him. They had expended a lot of resources on him. However, they discovered that not only was Lin Mo unable to break through but his body had also deteriorated and he had become a complete waste.

Not only did those people led by the second elder wanted to expel him from the clan but they even wanted to strip him of his family name. If it was not for Lin Ya and the others pleading for him to stay, Lin Mo would not have been able to break through.

In the end, it was the clan head who came out to mediate and asked him to go to a remote branch family in Chuixin Village to take care of the auction house there.

This was the first time Miao Qing had heard Lin Mo mention these things, and he could not help but reveal a surprised expression. He had never thought that Lin Mo had such a past, and he could not believe what he had experienced to be able to grow to this day.

"I didn't expect Master to have such a past."

From the peak of fifth stage of Body Refining to the current dragon transformation realm, Lin Mo's strength could be said to have soared. Miao Qing had many doubts in his heart, but he tactfully did not probe further.

Lin Mo had many deep secrets. Otherwise, how could he destroy the entire Miao clan by himself?

"Then, what does Master need me to do?"

Lin Mo thought for a moment and said, "Go and see if there are any shops nearby that need to be sold. I want to hold an auction here."

Although he did not know what Lin Mo wanted to do, Miao Qing still did as he was told. He was very efficient and immediately found a shop for Lin Mo. Furthermore, the location was not bad. After taking a short rest and putting up a sign, he would be able to open for business again.

"Go out and find a few people to spread the news. Tell them that the auction house is about to open and that a large number of fourth and fifth-level pills and spiritual artifacts will be auctioned. Furthermore, the prices are extremely affordable."

After destroying the Miao clan previously, Lin Mo had conveniently inherited all of the assets of the Miao clan. Although a portion of the resources was lost in the self-destruction of Miao Jian and the others, the remaining portion was still very sizeable.

The resources were all ready, so Lin Mo could only wait for the customers to come knocking on his door.

“Have you heard? There’s a new auction house. As it’s just opened for business, all fourth and fifth-level treasures will be auctioned at low prices.”

“Is it true? Fourth and fifth-level treasures aren’t ordinary items. If they’re auctioned at low prices, wouldn’t they incur losses?”

“Who knows? I’ve heard about it from others anyway. Since I have nothing to do, I might as well go take a look. Who knows, I might really be able to find something good.”

Soon, someone appeared at the entrance.

As this shop was not an auction house, Lin Mo did not really renovate it. There was only an ordinary plaque hanging outside, so it did not seem like it was an auction house.

“Eh, is this an auction house? It doesn’t seem like it.”

“I heard that this shop used to be in the medicinal herbs business. How did it suddenly become an auction house? Could it be a mistake?”

Everyone walked in doubtfully. It was extremely spacious. They looked around and saw that the decorations were very simple. Even the stage in the middle was built temporarily and did not seem sturdy.

Lin Mo had been waiting for them for a long time. Seeing that those people were showing signs of wanting to leave, he instructed Miao Qing who was behind him, “Follow what I’ve taught you before. You should go and preside.”

Miao Qing stammered, “I... I’ll be the host?”

“Would it be me instead?”

“But I don’t know how to do it. I’ve never done it before.”

Lin Mo said disapprovingly, “Even if you’ve never eaten pork, at least you’ve seen pigs run.”

Meeting his deep gaze, Miao Qing could only brace himself and walk forward. Clearing his throat, he said as a matter of routine, “Welcome, everyone.”

“Do you really have fourth and fifth-level treasures here?”

In the face of everyone’s doubts, Miao Qing did not beat around the bush. Without hesitation, he said, “I now announce the first item up for auction, the low fourth-level weapon meteor hammer. The starting bid is 800 spirit stones!”

A pair of iron hammers appeared out of thin air in his hands. The cold light was as sharp as a shooting star, and the aura it emitted was genuine.

The crowd, who had originally just wanted to watch the show, widened their eyes at this moment.

Although this shop looked somewhat shoddy, and the auctioneer in front of them was also a newbie, none of this was important.

What was important was that the items they brought out for auction were genuine! Moreover, they were so cheap!

This kind of low fourth-level weapon was worth at least five thousand spirit stones in an ordinary auction house in the city. However, it was only less than one thousand spirit stones in this place!

Many people thought that they were hearing things, so they could not help but ask again, "How many spirit stones did you say just now?"

Miao Qing said expressionlessly, "800 spirit stones!"

"I'll bid 1,000 spirit stones!"

"1,500 spirit stones!" "2,000 spirit stones!"

The crowd shouted their bids like crazy. In the end, the meteor hammer was sold for 3,000 spirit stones. Even so, it was still several times cheaper than other auction houses!

Miao Qing did not make too much of a fuss. After the meteor hammer was auctioned off, he immediately took out the second item.

"Mid fourth-level spirit recovery pill. The starting price is 1,000 spirit stones."

A medicinal fragrance drifted in the surroundings. This kind of pill was worth at least several thousand spirit stones. The current price could be said to be filthy cheap.

Everyone's mood was unprecedentedly high.

Chapter 82 The Second Elder's Shock

At the same time, the system notifications in Lin Mo's mind kept ringing.

[ Ding! Host bids for the low fourth-level weapon meteor hammer. ]

(3,000 times return successfully triggered )

[ Acquired low fifth-level meteor hammer! ]

( Host successfully auctioned mid fourth-level medicinal plant, Heavenly Mountain Snow Lotus. ]

[ Successfully triggered 5,000 times return. ]

[ Acquired mid fifth-level Ice Lotus! ]

By the time the auction ended, Lin Mo had also obtained a bunch of fourth and fifth-level medicinal pills and artifacts. However, these items were not of much use to Lin Mo at the moment.

Seeing the expressions on everyone's faces, Miao Qing announced, "The next auction will be held in three days. Everyone is welcome to attend. Anyone can participate unconditionally, but the prerequisite is to inform the people around you."

There were actually more auctions!

Everyone was in disbelief. After all, all of the items in today's auction were of the fourth or fifth-level. However, the highest bid was only a few thousand spirit stones. This was something that no other auction house would dare to offer.

Although they did not know what the owner of this auction house think, and whether or not he would incur losses, these were not within their considerations./ please keep reading on Myb0xn0vel(d0t)c0m.

"I didn't expect to purchase this fourth-level profound origin pill with only a thousand spirit stones. I remember that the last time at the Lin clan's auction house, it was sold for five thousand spirit stones."

"There's also this spirit gathering jade pendant. All in all, I've picked up a great treasure today."

"What do you think the boss is after? Is there any problem with it being so cheap? Or is it something of unknown origin?"

"Why do you care so much? Whatever happens is the boss' responsibility. We'll hand over the money and the goods are ours."

Although everyone was curious, they did not mind the joy of picking up a treasure. Soon, the news spread.

"Master, I've already followed your instructions. I'm afraid most of the people in the city already know."

Lin Mo nodded. "You did well."

Miao Qing said worriedly, "Last time, we auctioned nearly ten items, and the total transaction amount was less than 20,000 spirit stones. If we do it a few more times, I'm afraid we..."

mo

Each item was sold at an incomparably low price. If it were anyone else, Miao Qing would have scolded him for being a prodigal, but the person in front of him was Lin Mo.

Lin Mo knew what he was worried about. "It's alright. You don't have to worry. I know what to do."

After all, the items were all from the Miao clan. Even if Lin Mo received compensation from them, he would not feel any heartache about spending them. Furthermore, the items returned by the system could also be used for auction, therefore, Lin Mo could still afford to spend this much.

"Do you know why I set the next auction to be in three days?"

Miao Qing shook his head, indicating that he did not know.

"Because the Lin clan's auction will be in three days."

Although the Lin clan dabbled in various businesses, the auction house was still the one that they invested in the most. Moreover, the other properties were all used for the auction house's services, which were equivalent to their core assets.

Miao Qing immediately understood what Lin Mo meant as a look of sudden realization appeared on his face. So, it turned out that Lin Mo was doing all of this to challenge the Lin clan. By then, everyone would be attracted to them, so who would pay attention to the Lin clan's auction house?

"Oh right, I've asked you to find out about the Lin clan's situation recently." "The Lin clan's elder has indeed rarely appeared in front of everyone recently. To the public, he said that he was in closed door cultivation and that the clan's affairs would be handled by a few elders."

Miao Qing seemed to have thought of something and added, "The second elder has temporarily taken over the auction house."

Lin Mo fell into deep thought. "Closed door cultivation is only an excuse to the public. It seems that the clan leader's health isn't optimistic. Right now, the Lin clan should have the upper hand over to the second elder. Otherwise, the clan leader wouldn't have given such an important affair to him."

Right now, the Lin clan's public opinion should be wavering. Their gazes were all fixed on the position of the next clan leader.

The corners of Lin Mo's lips curled up slightly, revealing a hint of coldness. He took this opportunity to send a huge gift to the second elder. After all, the second elder had done so many things. It would not make sense if he did not return the favor.

The second elder of the Lin clan did not know about all of this. He was issuing orders to his subordinates.

"There cannot be any mistakes in the auction three days later. The clan leader has high hopes for us. If anyone screws up, don't blame me for being impolite!"

This was something that the second elder had spent a lot of effort to obtain from the clan leader. It could be said that if he was in charge of the auction house, he would be in control of half of the Lin clan's lifeblood. It was only a matter of time before he took over the entire Lin clan.

Hence, he could not allow any mistakes. Otherwise, if the clan leader was unsatisfied with his ability, and if he were to side with the first elder, then everything that he had done would have been in vain.

Finally, on the third day, everything was ready, but there were only a few people who came.

"What's going on? Normally at this time, there should be as many guests as the clouds, but why are there only so few people now?"

Compared to the previous grand occasions, there were pitifully only a few people today. Who didn't know that the Lin clan's auction house was very powerful? Every time, there would be a fourth or fifth-level for auction. It could be said that every auction would be full of people. However, there had never been such a tragic situation as this.

Faced with the second elder's question, the others also looked at each other and said in puzzlement, "Reporting to the second elder, we don't know either."

Hearing this, the second elder was furious. "How can you say that you don't know about such a big thing?!"

After calming himself down, he suppressed the anger in his heart. "Has the news been spread?"

His subordinates nodded. "Of course. Everyone knows that our auction will be held at a fixed time every month."

Chapter 83 Who's Behind This?

It made sense. The auction was about to start, but not many people came. If word got out, the Lin clan would seem like a joke. If they did not figure it out, it was impossible to start the auction.

"Go out and find out what's going on!"

Soon, his subordinates sent a message. "Second elder, we've found out that there's a new auction house in the city. Today is also their auction day, so everyone has gone there."

The second elder could not believe what he heard. "A new auction house? How could they steal our customers?!"

After all, the Lin clan's auction house had a deep foundation that no one in the city could compare to. After hearing the news, they found it hard to believe.

"People said that the newly-opened auction house not only had a large number of fourth or fifth-level artifacts, but the starting price was also very low. In the end, the final price was at most a few thousand spirit stones."

If this were the Lin clan's auction house, it would be impossible to make a deal without six or seven thousand or even tens of thousands of spirit stones. No wonder those people were attracted to the new auction house.

"A few thousand spirit stones?! Is there such a good deal?"

The second elder blurted out, and then his expression turned gloomy. Was this not clearly going against the Lin clan? "Have you found out the background of this auction house?"

Was it the Song clan? The Zhao clan? Or the Bai clan?

Several names popped up in the second elder's mind. An auction house was not something that could be opened casually. Moreover, treasures were being auctioned at such a low price. It was simply price undercutting. If it was not for some ulterior motive, who would be willing to conduct such a loss-making business?

It was even being held on this day. No matter how one looked at it, it seemed like they were deliberately going against the Lin clan.

The people in the city were not fools. With such a good opportunity in front of them, there was no reason for them not to go. Naturally, they would run over to the new auction house. On the other hand, no one was interested in the Lin clan.

The subordinates shook their heads. "We only know that it suddenly appeared a few days ago. The owner is also very mysterious. No one has ever seen him before. There's a person called Miao Qing who's in charge of managing it. However, he looks very unfamiliar. He should be from another city."

Miao clan!

Hearing this surname, the second elder's heart skipped a beat. He recalled the Miao clan of Qingyang City. It was probably just a coincidence.

"Second elder, what should we do now?"

The second elder looked at the scattered people in the hall. A wave of hostility immediately surged in his heart. "What else can we do? Let's go and see who's the real deal!"

He wanted to know who was so bold to oppose him.

At this moment, the news of the closure of the auction had reached the ears of the first elder, Lin Yixuan, and the others.

"The sun has risen from the west. The second elder is actually willing to let go of such an opportunity to show off in front of the leader? Isn't he afraid of being blamed by the leader?"

Lin Wan smiled faintly.

"Father, you may not know, but the second elder is helpless. Who has ever seen an auction with less than ten people? If word gets out, wouldn't it be a disgrace to our Lin clan? If it's really held on time, the clan leader will probably blame us even more."

Lin Yixuan showed a puzzled expression. "Why do you say that?"

Lin Wan told him everything he had gathered, and Lin Yixuan laughed. "No wonder the second elder couldn't sit still. If it were me, I'd close the shop."

"The second elder shot himself in the foot this time. He went to great lengths to get this opportunity, but it was ruined by an unknown auction house."

Although this auction house was suspected of deliberately targeting the Lin clan, it had indirectly helped Lin Wan and Lin Yixuan instead.

The second elder and the others already had the upper hand and even gained the authority to manage the auction house. If they let him show off in front of the entire city, the clan leader might favor them even more. Such a situation would be extremely disadvantageous for Lin Yixuan.

Lin Wan's eyes revealed some curiosity. "It's just that the owner of the auction house is extremely mysterious. I haven't found any relevant information, so I don't know who he is."

Lin Yixuan pondered for a moment before saying, "Let's make a trip there as well, and see what kind of background this auction house has."

If they really did not have good intentions toward the Lin clan, then they would need to make preparations. If it was just an accident, Lin Yixuan would definitely try to rope them in. To be able to spend so much, they must be extremely powerful.

After saying that, Lin Yixuan and the rest were prepared to leave. However, the second elder and the rest had already arrived at the entrance. As they looked at the small auction house in front of them, the look of disdain on their faces was obvious.

"Just this? It can't even be compared to a single finger of our Lin clan."

After they entered, they realized that it was already packed with people. There was almost no place for them to stand. The second elder's expression was as dark as ink. Originally, these people should be sitting in the Lin clan's auction house.

It was this small auction house that suddenly appeared and used an extremely low price to attract everyone over.

"I heard that the fourth and fifth-level treasures auctioned here are extremely cheap. I wonder if it's true."

"Of course, it's true. The goods are genuine. The fifth-level medicinal pills that I purchased here the day before yesterday have greatly increased my strength. Now that I'm here again, I wonder if I'll be able to pick up a treasure again." "Oh, good for you! But there are a lot of competitors today." Many people rushed over when they heard the news. The discussions of the crowd fell into the ears of the second elder and the others. Many people present recognized them.

"Isn't it the second elder of the Lin clan? If I remember correctly, today is also the day that the Lin clan is holding an auction. Why are they here?"

Chapter 84 A Good Show! Two People Going Head-to-Head

"Shh! Keep your voice down. Aren't you afraid that others will hear you? Look at the crowd around you. You'll know why they're here."

"I passed by the Lin clan's auction house earlier, and there were only a few people inside. This is a situation that has never happened before. No wonder they couldn't sit still."

"Ah, it can't be. It's so miserable. They won't vent their anger on us, right?"

"The Lin clan isn't that overbearing. At most, they'll find trouble with the owner of this auction house. What does it have to do with us?"

The others kept their expressions calm as they passed by the second elder cautiously, afraid that they would get into trouble.

No matter how the crowd discussed, the auction started as usual.

When Lin Mo saw the arrival of the second elder and the others, a cold light flashed in his eyes. He did not know what kind of expression the second elder would have when he saw that Lin Mo was still alive and well. Lin Mo was looking forward to it.

“Welcome, everyone. The first item to be auctioned is a mid fourth-level medicinal pill, Myriad Form Pill. The starting price is 900 spirit stones.”

Miao Qing was a man of few words. He was not as eloquent as Wu Jin, so he decided to end the battle quickly.

Such a clean and straightforward attitude was rare. Everyone could tell that he was not a professional. However, compared to those tardy people who liked to keep others guessing, he had a different impression.

The second elder heaved a sigh of relief.

“I’ve never seen this person in the Miao clan. I think he shouldn’t be related to them.”

The second elder did not know that Miao Qing was being hunted by the Miao clan, so naturally, he did not know that such a person existed./ please keep reading on MYBOXNOVEL(d0t)COM.

Although many people present had received the news, they still held a doubt in their hearts. After all, regardless of which auction house these fourth or fifth-level medicinal pills were placed in the city, the starting price would be several thousand spirit stones.

Seeing was believing. Now that they had seen it with their own eyes, they knew that there really was a good deal going on.

“Damn, isn’t this too cheap?”

Many people’s blood immediately boiled, and their voices rose and fell.

“One thousand spirit stones!”

“One thousand five hundred spirit stones!”

The second elder’s face was gloomy as he looked at the pill on the stage. Indeed, it was the aura of a mid fourth-level, and it was genuine. He sneered and said, “Indeed, it’s a big deal. I want to see who exactly has such great ability.”

“The second item is a mid fourth-level defensive magical treasure, the Black Turtle Spirit Armor. The starting price is 800 spirit stones!”

“The third item is a top fourth-level item...”

“The fourth item...”

As the auction progressed, the second elder’s face turned darker. Every item in the auction was around the fourth-level, and the starting price was unbelievably low. Even the Lin clan could not afford to be so generous.

“What a coincidence, running into the second elder here. Shouldn’t you be in the auction house? It seems like you have some free time in your hands.”

This was what Lin Yixuan saw when he rushed over. The second elder’s face was extremely dark, and the people around him were far away as well. It was as if they were avoiding a flood or a fierce beast. He felt extremely happy in his heart.

Seeing that Lin Yixuan was asking the question despite knowing the answer, it was obvious that he was here after receiving the news that the Lin clan’s auction had to be canceled. The second elder was extremely angry and could only suppress his anger.

“What’s the first elder doing here?”

Lin Yixuan smiled meaningfully. “Let’s see if we can pick up any treasures.”

“The first elder is interested in these fourth-level items? If this gets out, people will laugh their heads off.”

Lin Yixuan did not back down in the face of the second elder’s attitude. “Yeah, that’s what made the second elder cancel the auction that was supposed to be held today.”

The two of them went back and forth as the air filled with a tense atmosphere.

Seeing that he would not be able to get anything out of it, the second elder’s eyes turned and he immediately thought of something

“First elder, you and I are originally from the same clan so why are we fighting here? The palm and the back of the hand are all flesh. If the leader knew about the auction today, he’d probably be unhappy too.”

Lin Yixuan and the second elder had been fighting for many years. He knew that the second elder was a cunning old fox, so how could he not know what he was thinking? He remained calm as he said, “Second elder, what do you mean?”

“I think first elder saw it too. The owner of this auction house must have a strong background. Maybe he’s here for our Lin clan. Otherwise, how could it be so coincidental that he chose to hold the auction today?”

Lin Yixuan understood the second elder’s intention and deliberately said, “Maybe it’s a coincidence.”

“There’s no such thing as a coincidence in this world.” The second elder snorted. “In my opinion, why don’t you and I work together and find out the background of the other party? Maybe we can even make a contribution in front of the leader.”

It was obvious that the second elder wanted to use him as a weapon so that he could reap the benefits. Lin Yixuan was not that stupid.

Although he did not allow outsiders to harm the Lin clan, he had not figured out the other party’s intention. Lin Yixuan did not plan to make a move for the time being.

“The leader has already said that the second elder will be in charge of the auction. If anything happens, the responsibility will naturally be borne by you. How can I overstep my authority? Otherwise, it’d be a sign of your incompetence.”

Seeing that Lin Yixuan did not fall for the trap and was secretly mocking him, the second elder put on a fake smile. “Looks like the first elder wants to sit back and do nothing.”

Lin Yixuan did not respond. “Why can’t the second elder handle it? Perhaps you want to hand the auction house over to me? If that’s the case, I can consider it.”

The second elder was speechless and could only watch Lin Yixuan leave. The people around him could not help but worry. “If the first elder is involved, I’m afraid they’ll...”

The second elder’s eyes flashed with viciousness. “Don’t worry, I know what to do.”

When the auction was about to end, only Miao Qing was there. The person behind the scenes did not show up at all.

Chapter 85 The Appearance of the Clan Leader

“It seems that the owner of this auction house is extremely mysterious.”

The second elder could not sit still. He was about to take the initiative to attack. Seeing the person sent by the second elder, a flash of understanding appeared in Miao Qing’s eyes. It was just as Lin Mo had guessed.

“I’m sorry, my master doesn’t allow outsiders.” “Do you know who he is? The second elder of the Lin clan is here. How dare he be so impudent here?!”

Hearing this, Miao Qing revealed a mocking smile. “Even if the heavenly king is here, it’s still the same. Furthermore, it’s just the second elder of the Lin clan, not the clan leader. What’s the point of putting on airs here?”

Lin Mo and the second elder were already fighting to the death, so there was no need for Miao Qing not to offend him even more ruthlessly. The second elder’s face turned dark. “Why, you!”

He had always been high and mighty and had rarely heard such disrespectful words. As he held most of the power in the Lin clan, other than the incident with Lin Mo, his journey had been smooth sailing.

“Very good.”

As soon as he finished speaking, an invisible pressure was released in all directions with the second elder as the center. It was like a towering mountain, crushing down on Miao Qing.

If it was the previous Miao Qing, he would not have been able to resist the second elder’s pressure. Now that he had absorbed many top level elixirs from Lin Mo, he had long been reborn.

Miao Qing's expression remained unchanged as he said, "Second elder, is there anything else? If no, please leave."

The second elder looked at Miao Qing who remained calm. One had to know that he had used at least sixty percent of his cultivation earlier but the man in front of him had no reaction at all.

He looked like a servant of the auction house, but he had such a high cultivation level. What if he was the owner of the auction house? The second elder could not help but feel a little afraid.

"Let's go!"

When the second elder and the others returned to the Lin clan, they saw Lin Yixuan and the other elders waiting for him.

"Second elder has forgotten the rules of the clan. The clan leader sets a date every month. Usually, today is the day of the auction. It has been going on for a hundred years. Why is there a change today?"

The second elder knew that Lin Yixuan would not let go of such a good opportunity but he did not expect Lin Yixuan would attack so soon. He urged the other elders in the clan to find trouble with him.

Before the second elder could speak, Lin Yixuan said, "Maybe he just took over the auction house and was a little flustered, so he forgot about the date."

Hearing this, the other elders' expressions turned a little strange. They looked at Lin Yixuan and then looked at the second elder.

There was no other reason. In this competition for the next heir, the second elder undoubtedly had the upper hand. Other than being on good terms with Lin Yixuan, most of the people on his side were neutral and did not dare to take the risk.

Otherwise, if they stood on the wrong side, no matter which side became the next leader, they would not have a good ending.

The second elder smiled coldly. "How could I forget what the first elder said? It's just that there's a reason for what happened today."

He told the whole story of how an auction house suddenly appeared today as if he was hinting at something.

"It's also a coincidence. I wanted to find out who it was, but I didn't expect to run into the first elder. Those who don't know would think that the first elder had received the news long ago, so he rushed there to watch me make a fool of myself."

His words implied that Lin Yixuan was colluding with an outsider. Lin Yixuan wanted to make it difficult for the second elder to back down, but he did not expect him to distort the truth.

Lin Yixuan's expression turned cold. "The second elder can eat whatever he wants, but he has to be careful of the words he says!"

"After all, I'm valued by the clan leader. It's inevitable that some people will have bad intentions due to jealousy. They might even set up a scheme secretly."

The only thing missing was Lin Yixuan's name. The smell of gunpowder in the air was getting stronger.

Cough cough. A series of coughs could be heard from the leader, Lin Hao.

"The auction house isn't open today. What happened?"

Even the leader was alarmed by this!

Lin Yixuan quickly went forward and said, "Leader, didn't you have to go into seclusion to recuperate? Why are you out so soon?"

The leader was expressionless. "If I don't come out now, I'm afraid you two will start fighting."

Lin Yixuan and the second elder looked embarrassed. "Leader, that's not what we meant."

"Then, what do you mean?"

Without waiting for Lin Yixuan to speak, the second elder struck first.

"I think you've heard, leader. I think that auction house is very strange. Maybe it's coming for our Lin clan. I closed the auction house because of this reason. I want to investigate thoroughly so that our Lin clan won't be in danger."

After saying that, he looked at Lin Yixuan. "Unlike a certain person who can disregard the clan for his own interests."

Lin Hao looked at Lin Yixuan. His expression could not tell whether he was happy or angry. No one could guess his current mood.

Lin Yixuan frowned. Just as he was about to open his mouth to explain, Lin Hao said, "Alright, I understand this matter. Second elder, you should investigate it thoroughly. However, the auction house still has to be held. After all, it's a rule passed down for generations. Even if you're doing it for the good of the clan, let's not change the tradition."

There was not any information related to the first elder and the rest in between Lin Hao's words. Lin Yixuan and Lin Wan's faces were not looking too good. From the message that was sent out, it could be seen that the leader was getting more dissatisfied with them.

After dealing with these matters, Lin Hao left again. Only Lin Yixuan, the second elder, and the others remained where they were.

Chapter 86 Lin Mo's Schemes

From his expression and actions earlier, the clan leader seemed to be fair. Although he did not say anything, it was clear that he was more biased toward the second elder's side.

Many people present had different expressions.

After all, even after such an incident happened, the second elder was not punished. On the contrary, he said a few words that were neither light nor heavy. The people knew what the clan leader meant. It was nothing more than turning a big matter into a small one.

The second elder could not help but feel proud. "I say, first elder, why are you doing this? Even if the leader was alerted, he wouldn't gain anything. Besides, there's a reason for this and I'm not responsible for it."

Lin Yixuan and the others were furious, but there was nothing they could do. "Don't be happy too early. Who knows if you'll encounter trouble later on?"

The second elder seemed to have thought of something, and a playful smile appeared on his lips.

SC

"Indeed, but before that, the first person to become a wandering ghost was probably Lin Junyan. I heard that he's heavily injured and unconscious, and he hasn't woken up yet. It looks like he's doomed."

Lin Yixuan and Lin Wan's expressions changed.

The second elder felt a little regretful, but he could not hide the schadenfreude that he felt. "I heard that he also received an invitation to the capital's dao conference. What a pity. I'm afraid he won't be able to attend in his current state."

After saying these words, he left. He was extremely arrogant.

Lin Wan almost could not help but rush forward, but he was forcefully pulled back by Lin Yixuan.

"They're simply going too far! Maybe they're involved in Junyan's injury."

Lin Junyan was the most talented person in the first elder's bloodline. He was also a genius that appeared in the Lin clan after Lin Mo. He even suppressed the second elder and the other elders.

However, he was injured by a powerful demonic beast in an accident and was still unconscious in bed. At that time, the second elder and the others were also injured but they were not as serious as Lin Junyan./ please keep reading on MYBOXNOVEL(dot)COM.

Lin Yixuan and Lin Wan were suspicious, but they could not any evidence that pinpoint the second elder. It was because of this that they were at a disadvantage in the battle for the position of the next clan leader.

Lin Yixuan said helplessly, "Calm down, we don't have any evidence at the moment. They might even turn around and accuse us of framing them."

Lin Junyan was the most promising one, and Lin Wan was sure that this was the second elder's doing. After all, it was his style to get rid of dissidents.

It was because of this that Lin Hao's heart slowly shifted to the second elder's side.

"Then, what should we do now?"

Lin Yixuan could not help but sigh. "I originally wanted to use this to get the leader to strip the second elder of the rights to control the auction house, but who would've thought that it doesn't work at all. Looks like we'll have to find another opportunity."

Lin Wan bit his lips, his eyes revealing a bit of worry. "What about Junyan?"

To treat Lin Junyan's injuries, they needed a seventh-level extreme mystic pill. However, in this large city, even the alchemists who could refine it were only able to produce sixth-level pills.

"We can only stabilize his injuries for now. After we find the seventh-level extreme mystic pill, we can treat Junyan."

Speaking of Lin Junyan, a figure appeared in Lin Wan's mind. He did not know how he was doing

At this moment, Lin Wan did not know that Lin Mo, whom he was worried about, had already arrived in the city.

Although Lin Mo had not returned to the Lin clan yet, he was paying close attention to their movements.

"The Lin clan's great elder has been using all his connections to search for the seventh-level extreme mystic pill."

Although Miao Qing was not as tactful as Wu Jin in handling matters, he was still powerful and it was more convenient for him to go out and learn about the ongoing in the Lin clan. Furthermore, this news was not a secret.

After all, everyone knew about Lin Junyan's injury. However, no one knew about the real situation as they only heard that Lin Junyan had been cultivating in seclusion.

Judging from the looks of Lin Yixuan and the others, Lin Junyan's injury should be very serious. Otherwise, they would not have said that they would pay any price to get the seventh-level pill.

"It's because of this that the Lin clan leader placed his attention on the second elder. Even Master's actions this time didn't have much of an impact on the second elder. He just let it go."

Lin Moshen knew the second elder's character. He was sinister and cunning. He would do anything to achieve his goals. Compared to the first elder, Lin Yixuan was gentle and kind. He was more righteous. In terms of scheming, he definitely could not win against the second elder.

"According to what I know, the second elder has interfered in this matter. He definitely wouldn't let Lin Yixuan easily find the seventh-level extreme mystic pill. After all, it wasn't easy for them to suppress the enemy."

Although Lin Mo did not know much about what had happened, he thought that Lin Junyan must be up to something when he was injured. Even if it was not the second elder's doing, it was definitely related to him.

"Master, what should we do next?"

Lin Mo smiled playfully. It just so happened that he had the pill in his hand and he had obtained it from the Miao clan. Not only could it solve Lin Yixuan's urgent problem, but he might also find an opportunity to attack the second elder.

"Spread the news and say that we have the pill. The auction will start in three days."

Miao Qing was puzzled.

"Why didn't we just give them to Lin Yixuan and the rest? You're so powerful now. It doesn't matter even if you go back to the Lin clan. The second elder and the rest can't do anything to you."

Lin Mo shook his head. "Of course we'll give them the pills, but I still need to use him to fish."

His eyes were extremely deep as if everything was planned out. If he were to directly kill his enemies, it would be too boring.

Furthermore, even though the second elder had made several moves, Lin Mo did not have any evidence in his hands, so it would not be appropriate for him to declare war on the second elder.

It would be better for him to act as he did now. The second elder and the rest thought that he was dead and gradually let down their guard. As long as Lin Mo found an opportunity, he would be able to capture all of them in one fell swoop!

Chapter 87 Lin Yixuan Comes to Seek Elixirs

Soon, the news spread out. The ones who could not sit still were the second elder and the others.

"What?! There's a seventh-level Extreme Mystic Pill in that auction house? How's that possible?"

However, the news had already spread out. There was no way that it was fake news. In addition, they had indeed auctioned many good items. The second elder and the others had no choice but to face a formidable enemy.

"It wasn't easy to get rid of Lin Junyan. Only then did we obtain the clan leader's attention and gradually gain the upper hand over Lin Yixuan's faction. If we let Lin Junyan recover, wouldn't it mean that he'd rise again?"

"But the first elder and the others will definitely bid for that pill at any cost."

"I'm afraid that the auction house is deliberately targeting us. It seems like they have been against us several times. First, they picked the same day to snatch away the customers, and now..."

The second elder's eyes revealed a hint of viciousness. "Then, find an opportunity to take care of it. Let them know the consequences of offending me."

The people around him felt that something was wrong when they heard this.

"Now is a critical period. Although the clan leader didn't say anything to us previously, it's inevitable that he has some dissatisfaction in his heart. If we stir up trouble now, or if the matter isn't handled properly, I'm afraid that the first elder and the others will find an opportunity and..."

“The owner of the auction house is extremely mysterious. We haven’t found out his background yet. It’s not appropriate to act rashly.”

What they said made sense. The second elder frowned and thought for a moment. “Then, we’ll observe for a while before we act. We’ll keep a close eye on the auction house, but we can’t let the first elder and the rest get the pills!”

The moment they received the news, Lin Yixuan and the rest sent over a request to pay a visit to the auction house.

Lin Wan was slightly puzzled. “The auction house is quite strange. Previously, it ruined the second elder’s plans. Now, everyone in the city knows that we’re looking for the seventh-level Extreme Mystic Pill. How could there be such a coincidence in the world?”

Regardless of whether it was related to the Lin clan or not, if they were to say that they were hostile toward the auction house, they would not be able to tell much. However, it was too coincidental, which made people suspect their motives.

It was not that Lin Yixuan did not think about this, but he did not know what the owner of this auction house meant. He did not know if he really had bad intentions toward the Lin clan.

“No matter what, this is the only chance to save Lin Junyan. As long as there’s even the slightest hope, we can’t give it up.”

Lin Wan thought about the fact that Lin Junyan was still lying on the bed and could not help but sigh. He only hoped that the owner of the auction house would be easy to talk to.

Miao Qing received them as guests. Before they could speak, Miao Qing said, “My master already knows what the great elder wants.”

Lin Wan looked at each other. As expected, he knew that they needed this pill.

“Please pass the message. As long as you’re willing to give us this pill, we’re willing to pay any price you ask for.”

Miao Qing shook his head. “First elder, don’t worry. This pill is yours, but...”

Soon, it was the third auction.

This time, there were even more people. Almost half of the people in the city were here. It was packed to the brim. There were even many people standing outside the door. It was enough to show how much attention everyone paid to the auction house.

With the momentum from the first two auctions, everyone had known about this auction house which auctioned genuine items at affordable prices. Who would not want to pick up a good thing that fell from the sky?

Word spread from one to ten, from ten to a hundred, and that was how the current situation was created.

Lin Yixuan and the second elder also rushed to the scene. They were all here for the pill.

Lin Wan remembered what Miao Qing had said before. He lowered his voice and said, "Father, can we really trust that person's words? What if he's up to something and wants to harm us?"

Lin Yixuan was also confused. "Although we don't know what his purpose is, we can only do as he says. We have no other choice."

After saying that, he looked at the second elder on the other side and said faintly, "And from the looks of it, even if we want to get it, it won't be easy. These people will definitely cause trouble for us. We might as well trust that person for once." After saying that, the second elder and the others walked over with smiles. "What a coincidence, we bumped into the first elder here again. Looks like we really have a tacit understanding."

The first elder revealed a mocking smile on his face. "Could it be that the second elder is also here for the seventh-level Extreme Mystic Pill?"

The second elder did not feel guilty at all. Instead, he admitted matter-of-factly, "That's right. I express my deep sorrow regarding my nephew's matter. I heard that he needs this pill to treat his injuries. I'll definitely bid for it for him."

It was simply like a cat crying over a mouse. How could the second elder be so kind? Lin Wan did not believe a single word the second elder said. He coldly said, "Then, there's no need for the second elder to worry. We'll settle our own matters."

The second elder's face darkened. "What do you mean? Do you think I'd deliberately harm my nephew? I couldn't bear to see him in such a situation, so I wanted to do my best. First elder, why do you have to reject my kindness?"

Lin Yixuan did not understand his thoughts. If the pills really fell into their hands, he would find a few excuses or ways to destroy them. Or he could even be more vicious, adding other harmful herbs into the pills. When that time came, even if they suspected that the second elder was the one who did it, there would be no concrete evidence.

Chapter 88 Tit for Tat in the Auction House

Lin Wan wanted to say something but was stopped by Lin Yixuan. He said calmly, "Since the second elder has this intention, I can't say anything. Let's wait and see."

Looking at Lin Yixuan's back, the kindness on the second elder's face gradually disappeared and was replaced by a vicious expression.

"You want to get the seventh-level Extreme Mystic Pill to save someone? Lin Junyan can only be a good-for-nothing for the rest of his life!"

Soon, the auction began.

"The first auction item is a mid fifth-level spiritual artifact, the Life-Chasing Soul Slash. The starting price is 1,500 spiritual stones!"

“2,000 spiritual stones!”

“2,500 spiritual stones!”

Perhaps it was because there were too many people who came, although the starting auction price was low, it soon rose to 4,000 to 5,000 spiritual stones. Even so, compared to the prices of the other fifth-level spiritual artifacts in the other auction houses in the city, the prices were not considered much.

“The second item is a top fifth-level Prajna Golden Lotus. The starting price is 2,000 spiritual stones!”

The quality of the items auctioned this time was extremely high. Everyone competed with each other to bid, and the atmosphere instantly became extremely heated. One could only hear the voices of people shouting one after another. There were also people arguing until their faces were red. They were afraid that if their actions were slower by half a beat, they would lose the items they set their eyes upon.

Even though there were indeed a few items that even Lin Yixuan and the second elder were tempted by, they were still as steady and did not participate in any of it.

They only had one goal, and that was the ultimate seventh-level pill! However, they did not see it being auctioned, and a few of them started to get impatient.

Miao Qing took in the situation below the stage, and as if he was trying to be mysterious, he finally announced, “The final item is the ultimate seventh-level pill. The starting price is 3,000 spiritual stones!”

The originally lively venue suddenly became quiet. Everyone subconsciously looked at Lin Yixuan. Everyone knew that he had used all sorts of connections to obtain this pill. He must be determined to get it this time.

“10,000 spiritual stones!”

As expected, Lin Yixuan was the first to bid. Everyone was shocked when they heard this price and immediately increased it by several times. This kind of bidding method was rare in other auction houses.

Although the pill was precious and its effect was very good, it was only targeted at a small portion of the audience. Therefore, not many people were interested in it. Although its level was high, there were only a few people who wanted it.

Moreover, Lin Yixuan made it clear from the beginning that he must obtain this pill. Most people did not want to offend him, so why not make him happy and form a good relationship with him? Therefore, after a while, no one bid with him.

“15,000 spiritual stones!”

The crowd quickly looked toward the voice, wanting to see who it was. Their expressions suddenly became a little strange.

The person who made the bid was the one next to the second elder. Although the second elder did not directly make a move, everyone knew who the real mastermind was.

“I’ve long heard that the Lin clan’s first elder and the second elder have been at loggerheads for a long time. It looks like they’re preparing to fight in the arena now. I don’t know who’s the better one.”

“Previously, when the clan head was in control, it was still fine. Everyone was still concerned about their reputation. Now that it’s time for the Lin clan to choose the next successor, these two factions can be said to be at loggerheads.”

“Doesn’t the first elder’s faction have a genius called Lin Junyan? I heard that he was heavily injured and only this pill can save him. It’s because of this that this pill is necessary.”

“Ah, if the second elder gets it, wouldn’t that be...?”

“Shh! Keep it down. The two masters are right here. Are they trying to kill each other by discussing their grudges? Be careful or we’ll be the ones who get hurt.”

As long as there was a fight between the big clans, especially for the position of the next clan leader, the area of impact would never be small. The crowd noticed the subtle atmosphere between Lin Yixuan and the second elder and their voices became even quieter.

The atmosphere in the entire venue became a little depressing. Only the voices of the two people bidding drifted in the air. It seemed calm, but in fact, there was a turbulent undercurrent.

The price had already soared to 50,000 spiritual stones. Even if someone wanted to bid, they would not be able to do it.

Lin Yixuan and the second elder looked at each other. He said enunciated word by word, “Second elder, don’t go too far.”

The second elder did not seem to understand what Lin Yixuan meant. “First elder, I don’t understand what you’re saying. Since it’s an auction, everyone has the right to bid. Even though this is someone I know, I can’t stop him.”

Looking at Lin Yixuan’s gloomy face, the second elder was extremely happy. He knew that Lin Yixuan was determined to get the pill. Otherwise, Lin Junyan would become a cripple and he would never be able to mend his meridians.

Therefore, Lin Yixuan would do anything, even if he had to go bankrupt.

This was the effect that the second elder wanted. Even if Lin Junyan really recovered in the future, the loss of so many spiritual stones and resources would be enough to hurt Lin Yixuan and the others greatly. They would not be able to compete with them in a short time.

The rest of the matter was settled. No matter how powerful Lin Yixuan was, he would not be able to change anything. The second elder said hypocritically, “First elder, although I sympathize with you, if this pill was in my hands, I’d definitely take it out.”

Lin Yixuan gritted his teeth and hesitated for a moment. “100,000 spiritual stones!” This price made everyone gasp as it exceeded the value of the pill.

“120,000 spiritual stones!”

Looking at Lin Yixuan's expression, the second elder estimated that this price should be enough. It almost emptied most of his assets. He lowered his voice and ordered, "If Lin Yixuan makes a bid later, there's no need to raise it anymore."

Chapter 89: The Heaven and Earth Infinite Pill, Second Elder's Pride and Provocation

The entire place was silent. For a moment, they did not know whether to call it Lin Yixuan or second elder's pride.

"Is there a need for that? 120,000 spiritual stones for the Extreme Mystic Pill? How many can you buy at that price?"

"It seems like the first elder really has no other choice. Otherwise, he wouldn't be in such a situation."

"If you ask me, the second elder is still the most ruthless. So what if the first elder is able to bid for this pill in the end? With such a high price, I'm afraid that he'll have to pay with all his wealth."

"Even if Lin Junyan is saved in the end, the first elder's strength has been greatly depleted. It should be difficult for him to recover in a short period. It's destined that the second elder will rise in the ranks."

The people who had the advantage could tell the situation at a glance. Surprisingly, the first elder did not bid at the first moment, which caused a small commotion in the crowd.

According to their guess, Lin Yixuan should fight the second elder to the death.

The second elder was not worried about this at all. Lin Yixuan would not bid because he knew that the effect of the Extreme Mystic Pill on Lin Yixuan was too great. Moreover, he would not be able to find the second seventh-level Extreme Mystic Pill in a short period.

However, Lin Junyan's injury had dragged on for too long. If this continued, it would be useless even if they were able to find another pill.

Just as everyone was waiting for Lin Yixuan to bid, his expression changed. In the end, everything returned to normal. He was completely different from the person who was in a hurry to bid for the pill.

Lin Wan, who was beside him, was also angry. However, he calmed down after that. He could control his emotions as he pleased. It was a little too deliberate.

The second elder felt a little uneasy after seeing Lin Yixuan's reaction. He could not have stopped bidding, right?

Lin Yixuan was expressionless. No one could guess what he was thinking. Even the onlookers could not figure out what he was thinking. In the end, they did not hear his bid but Miao Qing's voice.

"120,000 spiritual stones going once!"

"120,000 spiritual stones going twice!"

Lin Yixuan did not make a sound when the final bid was made. The face of the person who made the bid turned extremely ugly as he looked at the second elder in panic.

The second elder's face did not look any better as well. His eyes were filled with shock and then became extremely distorted. He had calculated everything but he did not expect Lin Yixuan to stop bidding!

In the end, he became the sucker who paid the 120,000 spiritual stones to buy a pill that was useless to him.

"What should we do now? I can't take out that many spiritual stones..."

The second elder's expression was distorted. An unknown fire surged in his heart, and he used a lot of strength to suppress it. Even if it was him, taking out so many spiritual stones would be difficult.

"Forget it. Lin Yixuan probably doesn't have so many spiritual stones. Now that the pills are with me, Lin Junyan will be a cripple in the end. If Lin Yixuan asks me for them..."

The second elder snorted coldly. He had already thought of how he would humiliate Lin Yixuan later. The Lin clan's high and mighty first elder wanted to beg for mercy from him? He had a secret feeling of joy and excitement as if he had already trampled Lin Yixuan under his feet.

Under such comfort, the anger in his heart dissipated. However, he did not know that there was an even bigger pit waiting for him to step into.

[ Ding! Host has successfully auctioned a seventh-level Extreme Mystic Pill. ]

[ Successfully triggered 5000 times return. ]

[ Obtained eight-level Heaven and Earth Infinite Pill! ]

At the same time, the system notification sounded in Lin Mo's mind. He had obtained this seventh-level Extreme Mystic Pill from the Miao clan. The Miao clan's foundation was not bad and they even had this kind of pill.

Just as he had guessed, the eighth-level Heaven and Earth Infinite Pill was even more powerful and its effects would be even better!

The second elder came in front of Lin Yixuan and the others like a victor. He revealed a regretful expression and said, "It's such a pity. Why didn't the first elder bid for this pill? I heard that my nephew's injuries are serious and we can't delay any longer."

Lin Yixuan only looked at him coldly and did not say anything.

The second elder smiled. Although Lin Yixuan was too calm, he believed that when that time came, Lin Yixuan would be in an extremely sorry state.

As he watched the second elder leave, Lin Yixuan did not leave immediately. After everyone left, he finally could not help but look for Miao Qing.

Without waiting for him to speak, Miao Qing said, "Please follow me."

He led Lin Yixuan and the rest into the guest room. "Please keep this pill well."

Lin Yixuan could not wait to open it and take a look. He froze on the spot and said in disbelief, "This pill is...?"

"Heaven and Earth Infinite Pill."

Lin Yixuan's hands started to tremble as he stammered, "This, this is for me?"

Miao Qing nodded. "Master learned about Young Master Lin's injuries and it has been too long. Although the Extreme Mystic Pill can help him recover, there may be some side effects. However, the Heaven and Earth Infinite Pill will not have such a situation. You can rest assured."

When Lin Yixuan hired someone to treat Lin Junyan's injuries, he mentioned the Heaven and Earth Infinite Pill. However, this kind of pill was more troublesome and precious to refine, so it was extremely rarely seen on the market.

Even obtaining the Extreme Mystic Pill was so difficult, not to mention the Heaven and Earth Infinite Pill. Therefore, Lin Yixuan did not harbor any hope of obtaining it. He just did not expect that the Heaven and Earth Infinite Pill was right in front of him now.

Lin Yixuan asked uneasily, "How many spiritual stones does this need?"

Who would have thought that Miao Qing would shake his head? "My master said that this is a gift to Elder Lin. Consider it a kind gesture."

Chapter 90: Another Village in the Willows

Lin Yixuan and Lin Wan froze on the spot, almost thinking that they were hearing things.

This was an eighth-level pill. If it was in the auction house, it could be auctioned off for tens of thousands of spiritual stones or higher. Now, they were giving it away just like that.

"Giving it to us? Are you kidding me?"

Lin Yixuan and the owner of this auction house met by chance. He even suspected that they were hostile toward the Lin clan because of what happened before.

"We won't accept rewards for nothing. How can we accept such a big gift?"

"Elder Lin, take it. This is a small token of our master's appreciation and thanks for taking care of him."

Hearing this, Lin Yixuan was even more confused. He could not help but ask, "Do I know your master?"

Miao Qing did not answer directly. "When the time is right, you'll know. But now isn't the time yet."

It was not that he was deliberately mystifying. These were all Lin Mo's orders.

"I'll remember this favor. If there's anything I can help you with in the future, just let me know."

/ please keep reading on MYBOXNOVEL(dot)COM.

Lin Yixuan bowed deeply. At the same time, he was even more confused. Who was the owner of the auction house? How could he take out the most precious pills on the market so easily?

Moreover, from Miao Qing's tone, they knew each other and that he had helped him before.

No matter what, the most important thing now was to go back and treat Lin Junyan's injuries. After Lin Yixuan bade farewell to Miao Qing, he brought Lin Wan home.

Along the way, Lin Wan was guessing the real identity of the owner of the auction house.

"Father, who do you think he is? To be able to take out an eight-level pill so easily, he must have possessed an extraordinary identity. But why did he have to be so mysterious?"

To be honest, Lin Yixuan did not have any idea. If he had such a relationship, he would have come to ask for the pill a long time ago.

"I don't know either, but I don't think he has any ill intentions toward the Lin clan."

If that person had ill intentions, he would not have offered the pill. However, Lin Yixuan was sure that they had a grudge against the second elder.

Lin Wan seemed to have thought of something and could not help but laugh out loud. "I don't know how the second elder offended him. If the second elder knew the truth, he'd probably be so angry that he'd vomit blood."

When Lin Yixuan and the rest received the news and came to ask for the pill, Miao Qing said that the pill had to be auctioned and the second elder had to win it. Lin Yixuan only needed to act and after the auction was over, he would get what he wanted.

As expected, Miao Qing did not go back on his word and Lin Yixuan even obtained the even more precious Heaven and Earth Infinite Pill.

"Father, if the second elder finds out that we teamed up with the auction house and cheated them of so many spiritual stones, I can't wait to see their expressions."

Lin Wan was gloating over the second elder's actions. He could only say that they had brought this upon themselves.

After returning to the Lin family, Lin Yixuan was still worried and gave the pill to the alchemist to check.

"This is the Heaven and Earth Infinite Pill. Where did you find it?!"

The alchemist looked at the smooth pill in his hand and his face was full of praise. "The quality is perfect. Look at the patterns on the pill. They are like waves of the sea. This is of the highest quality."

Lin Yixuan's gaze fell on the bed. A young man lying there. His pale face could not hide his handsomeness. If it was not for the injury on his chest, he would have looked like a dead man at this moment.

"Let's not waste any time treating his injuries."

The alchemist quickly fed Lin Junyan the pill. At the same time, warm spiritual energy flowed out from his palm like a trickle of water, dissolving all the life essence in the pill.

One after another, clouds of white mist seeped into Lin Junyan's body and repaired his damaged meridians.

The unconscious man let out a muffled groan. A faint white light enveloped his body. His originally pale face was recovering at a speed visible to the naked eye. His originally ice-cold limbs were also gradually warming up.

This miraculous transformation was truly breathtaking. Even the alchemist was amazed by the efficacy of this pill.

"If it was the seventh-level Extreme Mystic Pill, it definitely wouldn't be able to achieve such a recovery. If I want to repair the damaged meridians, I'm afraid that it will still take some time. Moreover, my foundation might even be affected. If it were the Heaven and Earth Infinite Pill, it'd be different.

"The effects of the pill would be quickly displayed. In just a short while, his injuries would be healed. Most importantly, there are no side effects. The newly-grown meridians would be just as before or even more resilient. If Young Master is able to wake up, his cultivation would advance by a level."

Upon hearing the alchemist's words, Lin Wan was overjoyed. "This means that Brother Jun Yan has benefited from this misfortune! Not only has his cultivation not regressed, but it can increase?"

The alchemist nodded his head. "You can say that it's all thanks to this top-grade medicinal pill. I wonder who refined it as its effects are perfect. I've never seen something like this in my life."

If Lin Mo was here, he would not be making a fuss. After all, the system's product was definitely of the highest quality.

Although Lin Junyan's eyes were still closed, he looked much better than before when he was half dead.

"When will he wake up?"

"Half a day at most, a short while at least."

Lin Yixuan and Lin Wan's hearts that had been hanging over for the past few days could finally be at ease.

At this moment, a servant came in and whispered something into Lin Yixuan's ear. He looked angry. "The second elder and the others are too much."
