

Triplets on SM 311

Chapter 311

Molly gave Sawyer a long look. Finally, she positioned him comfortably and draped the quilt over him.

Sawyer was the patient with the most endurance she had ever seen.

There were a lot of dishes on the table for lunch.

“Mr. Anderson asked his chef to prepare food for us, Grandpa Dave said when he saw Molly’s puzzled expression

Sean placed a bowl of soup in front of Molly, who was tiredly nodding her head and sitting down, and said, “Go get some rest after you eat.”

Molly drank in silence. She felt a burst of warmth in her stomach and could not muster the strength to express her gratitude.

The triplets were also concerned about their mother, so they scooped some food into her bowl.

“Mommy. you need to eat more. You did a fantastic job!”

Molly went upstairs to rest after she finished her lunch. She took a nap, and it was already two o’clock in the afternoon when she woke up.

Molly went downstairs to find Sean still there. She was a little taken aback. ‘Didn’t he have other things to do? I don’t see Grandpa or the triplets anywhere. They’re probably napping now.’

While thinking about that, Molly approached Sean “Why are you still here?” she asked “I was expecting you.” Sean explained “Why? Are you sick?’ Molly asked, and her brow furrowed.

Sean raised his head and thought, What is she thinking?

“I’m perfectly fine. You should be the one who is sick, right? Are you alright? You didn’t look so great at lunch.’ Sean spoke up right away

Molly shook her head and took a seat beside him. She stated, “No, I’m just tired. Nothing to be concerned about.”

Sean paused for a moment before pushing the herbal tea on the table to Molly and opening the lid 1 had it prepared for you to refresh yourself,” he explained.

It was still hot because it had just been made

*Thank you.” Molly held the teacup in front of Sean and took a sip. She became suspicious after that. ‘1 had the impression he was being... a little too nice to me.’

Molly did not give it much thought She simply saw it as compensation for his treatment.

The herbal tea was invigorating. Molly felt much better after drinking a cup of it. "For the sake of the herbal tea, I'll play two chess games with you since you're sitting here alone," she smiled.

"Are you a chess player?" Sean asked. He appeared to be interested "Of course. Don't underestimate me!" Molly immediately set up the chessboard and began playing against Sean Chess and solitaire were not the same things. The chess game between the two was not over until Grandpa Dave, and the triplets woke up from their nap.

"Who won? Uncle Sean or mommy?"

Molly and Sean playing chess together was a rare sight for the triplets, so they stood aside and watched

"Uncle Sean is a master, so of course, he wins!" Claudia stated unequivocally

'Sigh when girls grow up, they always go for the guys' Molly thought to herself as she looked at Claudia

Fortunately, Alex and Ben continue to support their mother

"Mommy could probably win too. She's the best!"

"Let's make a wager, the loser must do one thing for the winner!" Alex proposed to his brother and sister while looking at the chess game.

People were interested in everything related to games, and Ben and Claudia were no exception.

"Okay! Then, I'll wager..." The triplets looked at Molly, then at Sean, and declared unequivocally. "The winner will be Uncle Sean!"

Molly could not hold her breath when she heard that. Alex and Ben had been on her side and had now changed their minds. She was furious and laughing at the same time.

*This is what I get for raising you three!" Molly said

Chapter 312

Sean smirked and turned to look at Molly and the triplets. He did not say anything, but the chess piece in his hand fell onto the chess board

The white pieces on the chessboard were surrounded by black pieces, and many of the white pieces had already been taken out. Molly finally cracked a smile.

"I'm the winner!" She looked at the triplets and remembered the mutiny earlier

Molly naively stuck her tongue at them. "You lose, so remember your bet."

"Another round!" Molly was not scared in front of the triplets. She had forgotten she had lost to Sean all afternoon

Sean, of course, accepted Molly's challenge.

As a result, the triplets' desired outcome did not occur, and Sean lost another game.

Molly, in addition to the triplets, reacted.

“Uncle Sean, how could you do this? You were allowing mommy to win!”

Sean had not won a game, and the pretty faces of the triplets had turned sad,

Grandpa Dave witnessed what had occurred. He simply smiled and remained silent.

Sawyer had not woken up yet when it was time for dinner. They gathered joyfully in the living room to wait for dinner. Only Grandpa Dave looked upstairs every now and then

“Do you want to call him down and invite him to dinner? Grandpa asked as he was worried

Molly understood her grandfather’s concern for his grandson. She stated. “Let him rest. He needs more rest than food. In fact, he needs a lot of rest. He can finally sleep after being sick for so long He must be sleeping well. He’ll be awake in a few hours. Let’s not bother him.”

Seeing her grandfather’s concern for Sawyer, she added, “Later, I’ll make him some herbal soup. His body is still weak and needs to be nourished first.”

“Thank you. You’ve done a lot.” Grandpa Dave nodded and patted Molly’s hand.

Grandpa Dave was getting on in years and had worked hard his entire life. In the end, he wanted his children and grandchildren to be safe and healthy

As Molly stated. Sawyer did not wake up until twelve o’clock in the middle of the night

Sawyer opened his eyes and looked at the wall-mounted clock He could not believe it was already midnight at twelve o’clock.

Sawyer had forgotten how long it had been since he had gotten such a good night’s sleep

It was also different from his forced sleep. When he woke up, his entire body felt refreshed and tinged with comfort

Sawyer sat on the bed for a while before noticing that he was thirsty.

Sawyer walked out of the room and went downstairs. Everyone in the house had gone to bed, and downstairs was quiet.

Sawyer noticed that there was something going on in the kitchen. So, he set the cup down and walked over

Molly was dressed in pajamas in the kitchen as if she had just gotten out of bed. She yawned, but her hands were occupied in an orderly fashion

Sawyer only noticed a faint scent of herbs in the kitchen after that.

“You’re awake.” When Molly heard a noise, she turned around and was not surprised to see Sawyer

“Umm.”

“Why aren’t you asleep yet?” Sawyer asked, pulling up a chair

“I figured you’d wake up in the middle of the night, so I came down to make you something to eat.’ Molly padded the bowl with a rag and placed it in front of Sawyer.

“Eat up. It’s a specially prepared herbal meal tailored to your body’s needs. It can restore your body’s health.”

Sawyer stood there staring at the herbal meal that had just been placed in front of him.

When Molly assumed that Sawyer could not eat, she noticed him stirring with a spoon and started eating slowly

Chapter 313

Molly yawned, rubbing her tear-filled eyes. She said, “Remember to wash your dishes after eating. I’m going to bed now”

Molly had an exhausting day today.

Sawyer stared blankly at Molly’s figure. He was still in a daze after her figure faded, and it took him some time to come out of it.

Sawyer regained his determination, and new hope returned to his heart. The desire to survive was stronger than ever before this time.

Sawyer quickly finished the herbal soup, leaving no residue. He returned to his room after washing the dishes and slept soundly again

The next morning, he went downstairs and found everyone eating breakfast.

Brycen greeted Sawyer enthusiastically when he saw him, “Hello and good morning! Come have breakfast with us!”

Sawyer approached slowly, and Brycen asked, “Did you have a good night’s sleep last night?”

Brycen chose his words carefully. He did not want Sawyer to revert to his old ways.

“It was a good night’s sleep.’ Sawyer said cheerfully. He had not slept so soundly in a long time. Although his head still hurt a little when he woke up, it was better than before.

Sawyer’s cold and gloomy gaze toward Molly had vanished after a good night’s sleep the night before.

Molly was eating her breakfast with her head lowered, and Sawyer’s response was unexpected

After all, there were herbs in the herbal soup last night that could help Sawyer sleep and calm his nerves. The herbs used in his bath also soothed his nerves and mind.

If that did not help Sawyer sleep, Molly’s efforts would have been in vain.

Molly felt a gaze on her, raised her head, and saw the other party say. “Thank you.”

“You’re welcome,’ Molly said, raising her brow.

After taking a sip of hot milk, Molly said, “Your condition is still far from improving, so don’t dismiss it because of the one-time effect. Furthermore, there are many step-by-step treatments in the middle. It may not significantly impact in a short period, so you must persevere and pay attention to improve. If everything remains the same as before, no one can truly help you.”

Sawyer had a solemn expression and said, “I hope you can help me, sister. He had changed the way he addressed Molly and appeared to have accepted her.

Molly, on the other hand, did not mind. She did not care that she was the Mays’ daughter. “I’ll try my best.” she said indifferently to Sawyer

Brycen patted Sawyer’s shoulder. He smiled brightly and said, “Don’t worry! Molly excels at her job!”

Brycen was now Molly’s biggest fan

Molly was already accustomed to his brownnose and paid no attention. She went next door after she finished her breakfast

Molly went to look for Sean, and the triplets followed her,

Molly asked, looking into Sean’s beautiful eyes, “Where did you get your supply of the herbs that you frequently use?”

Molly subconsciously ignored Sean’s faint smile. Perhaps it was because she was used to being by his side, she did not notice the difference in how he treated her.

Sean felt an unknown happiness surge in him after seeing Molly’s icy cold and beautiful face. “You can make a list of what you need, and I’ll let Tony make the purchase alongside yours,” he said.

Molly was lost in thought. ‘In addition to myself, my two brothers, including Grandpa, we all need the herbs. The number of herbs accumulated by several people must be substantial. But, since Sean has unlimited funds, it shouldn’t be too difficult to share a little with him.’

“Thank you,” Molly replied, “I will make a list of it later.” Sean gave Molly a deep look and said, “It’s my pleasure.”

Chapter 314

Molly looked at Sean for a moment, and he thought to himself, ‘Did I hear it wrong? Molly then asked, ‘I feel like you’ve been... very nice to me? Anyway, I was perplexed, which is why I asked. You don’t have to take it personally.”

“This lady is slow at catching up.’ Sean sighed quietly

“Boss, it’s a long road to get a wife,’ Tony said with sympathy in his heart. I can only wish you good luck because I can’t offer much assistance.’

“Mommy is hopeless!’ The triplets thought as they stood next to Tony “How could the emotional intelligence of such a gifted mother be inversely proportional to her IQ?! We’ll have to work harder on matching the two of them!

Later in the evening, Sean informed Molly that he had something to attend to. He said, “I won’t be available for lunch or dinner later. You can continue without me.”

Molly responded, watched Sean leave, and then a strange feeling came over her “Why does it feel like a husband notifying his wife about his plans before leaving the house?”

Molly shook her head quickly, hoping to shake the thoughts away “Wait, what was thinking?”

In the living room, the triplets were enthralled. They hoped that their relationship would grow stronger over time

During the day, Sean was preoccupied with work at the company Ricky called late at night and said, “I’d like to invite you to a business dinner. I’ll be downstairs waiting for you later.”

Sean could not say no and agreed to go to dinner

The father and son eventually got off at the entrance to a restaurant The restaurant was simple and elegant with a one-of-a-kind atmosphere.

They were walking to the pavilion across a wooden bridge. The water beneath the wooden planks was clear and slowly flowing. There was also a vacancy near the pavilion. A small water wheel was constructed. The water wheel rolled through the cool water, making beautiful and clear splashes.

On both sides of the wooden bridge, red lanterns were hung. It reflected like a star on fire in the Milky Way on the pool. The lights sparkled on the rippling water

The entire restaurant was built on top of a pool and was well known in the city for its distinctive design

Furthermore, there was only one pavilion in the restaurant. Most of the space was taken up by scenery and water pools. In comparison to the other restaurant, it had fewer private rooms. As a result, reservations must be made at least one week in advance.

They strolled past the pool and up to the pavilion, where they planned to eat. There were five floors in the pavilion. They climbed to the top floor and gazed out the window. The entire area looked like a home. complete with bridges and flowing water

Sean went into a private room with his father. When he entered the room, he smelled a fresh and elegant fragrance. He felt revitalized,

‘I wonder if Molly would like it here? Should I invite her to dinner next time? Sean wondered.

As he was about to take a seat, he noticed two familiar faces across the table and silently glanced at them

The last time Sean ended the collaboration with the Noland Group unilaterally, they were furious. When they met again, Abigail was dressed in a long, light-colored dress with a simple ponytail and light makeup that gave her a simple appearance. She smiled at the Andersons with a generous posture and a relaxed expression as if nothing had ever happened.

Ricky was impressed by Abigail’s appearance.

Abigail's palms under the table, however, were still slightly sweating. Ricky did not notice how firmly Abigail used her fingers to pinch her palm when she saw them just now! Abigail vividly remembered everything that had happened to her!

Chapter 315

Abigail had a beautiful smile, but there was a hint of icy chill in her bright eyes.

Before this, the children of the Andersons and the Nolans were planning to get married, and it was widely publicized in Northfolk. After all, everyone knew that the two families were close

On the other hand, Sean persisted and publicly demanded an end to all collaboration with the Noland Group. Everyone was surprised that they appeared to be strangers rather than friends!

Sean was cruel and cold. He completely disregarded Abigail and the Nolans. As a result, wherever Abigail had gone these days, she had been sneered at both publicly and privately by the high-society ladies!

Abigail had been holding grudges against Sean, and she despised him as a result. She had hired stalkers to follow Molly and Sean Molly's identity had previously been revealed, and she had become famous. Then, there was the time Molly slapped Abigail in the face loudly. Abigail became enraged as a result of her suffering.

At the Forts' dinner party. Abigail hoped to bury the hatchet with Molly, but Molly failed to reveal that she was Dr. Joye. Abigail assumed that Molly did it, so she could see her being framed as a clown in public Molly. Abigail thought, was making fun of her. In addition, Abigail invited Molly to join the Nolans' medical research institution with good intentions the other time she was at Sean's house!

Abigail resented Molly a lot because of all her humiliations!

"If I can't make Sean mine and become his Mrs. Anderson, then that wretched Molly won't get Sean either!"

The elders were ready to leave after dinner and went to a clubhouse together they were accompanied by Sean and Abigail

They did not say anything about the project during dinner. Before getting into the discussion, they drank some wine and talked for a while Several elders were conversing when the conversation turned to Sean, sitting quietly in a dim corner. He was, after all, the best among the younger generations.

"What do you think about the project's future development trend, Sean?" One of the elders approached him and asked him a friendly question

Several others, including Ricky and Mr. Nolan, looked at him with a twinkle in their eyes.

Sean had always been a favorable opinion of his. He smiled politely and voiced his thoughts. His demeanor was solemn and meticulous. There was a faint momentum of him strategizing and naturally controlling the audience while speaking

Abigail, who sat nearby, locked her gaze on the man. She was completely captivated and amazed by the man.

Abigail was well aware of Sean's charm.

After a while, the discussion was over, and the elders were completely open to drinking. Sean sat quietly at the side, uninterested

Abigail paused for a long moment before taking a sip of wine and approaching the man. She explained, "Could you please convey my apologies to Ms. May on my behalf, Sean? I had no idea who she was before I did something out of character. I'd like her not to take it personally. After all, those who were unaware of it are innocent"

Abigail's tone was full of pleading and apologies. The private room was dim, and the lights were behind her, making her eyes sparkle like crystals. Any man would melt away if they saw it.

Sean, however, would not. His impression of Abigail was not favorable. When he noticed the woman approaching, he frowned slightly

"She won't," he said lightly after hearing Abigail's intention "Molly didn't take it personally at all!

Sean, on the other hand, did not say it aloud. He did not realize how commanding his tone was as though he was someone special to Molly

Chapter 316

Abigail was upset as she was not happy to hear Sean speaking on behalf of Molly.

However, she could only keep it to herself as she did not have the guts to show her displeasure. "Very well, then. How are you feeling. Sean?"

She then started small talks about random topics, but she could feel Sean's frustration. So, she was about to leave with a heavy heart.

But she suddenly felt a little dizzy. She had no idea whether it was caused by the alcohol she consumed earlier or because Sean had angered her

In the end. Abigail lost her balance at the first step she took, and she fell uncontrollably into the arm of Sean, who was sitting on the couch.

Sean was fast to react. He immediately extended his arm to catch her, and she instinctively grabbed onto him. It was her first time seeing Sean up close, so her heart started to race.

The feeling she kept to herself poured out in an instant. Nothing in the world seemed to matter to her except the man before her eyes.

Sean did not even touch her with his hands as he only used his arm to catch her. At that moment, Abigail looked like a monkey hanging on a tree.

Sean saw that she had already regained her balance, so he quickly pulled his arm back. It shocked Abigail to the point where she almost fell again.

“Sorry, it’s a little dark. I probably sprained my foot because I was too careless.” She suddenly felt a rush of pain from her ankle after she said that

Sean immediately ignored her and frowned ‘How can someone smell so bad? he thought.

‘It’s not even close to the comforting herbal scent on Molly.’

Abigail’s perfume was unbearably heavy and pungent. Furthermore, Sean already found her repulsive to begin with, so all he could think of at that time was how bad she smelled

He started to feel upset as he was somewhat of a clean freak. If his father and Abigail’s elders were not present, he would not even be bothered if Abigail fell flat on her face.

Sean’s expression darkened and he immediately lost all interest to continue the night. He completely ignored Abigail and called Tony to inform him,

Then, he told Ricky, “I’m heading home for my treatment.”

Ricky did not mind, so he just watched Sean leave and continued drinking with his friends.

As soon as he got downstairs, he took off his coat.

Tony drove to the entrance the second he received Sean’s call. He got out of the car to push Sean to the car and saw what he was doing, “What’s wrong, boss?”

“Who made him angry?”

“Throw it,’ Sean handed him the coat and ordered him coldly.

The more he smelled it, the more disgusted he felt. So, he figured he could just throw it away.

Tony immediately did what he was told and did not ask any questions. He turned and threw the expensive coat into the trash can

He immediately walked back and carried Sean to the car before driving back home.

When they got home, Molly was waiting for them.

Sean saw her the moment he opened the door. For whatever reason, he felt that his heart was made whole in an instant and all his unhappiness vanished into thin air.

“Sorry for the delay,” he said apologetically, it was already past 10 pm when he watched Molly walk closer to him. The kids were already asleep, but she still had to treat him.

Molly started to feel sleepy as well. After all, she had just treated her brothers earlier, which was rather taxing

However, she still woke herself up when she saw Sean. “It’s alright. Let’s start the treatment.”

Sean nodded and was about to get changed in his room. When she walked past him, Molly suddenly said, “Your perfume smells different

She took a whiff and started to feel suspicious

Chapter 317

Sean immediately froze when he heard her.

'Does she have the nose of a dog? I already took off my coat, yet she can still smell it?!'

Molly was surprised when she saw his expression and started to ask him teasingly, "Oh, is it a woman's perfume?"

Sean started to feel uneasy when he saw her staring at him. He thought about it and explained, "I was at a dinner tonight and a client brought a woman along, so her perfume stuck onto me."

Although he said it with honesty, Molly started thinking deeply in her thoughts.

*This smell..." She pondered and realized that it was rather familiar. "it's from Abigail, isn't it?" she asked.

Sean was speechless.

He did not expect Molly to guess so accurately

On the other hand, Tony was fighting back his laughter

'If he eventually marries Ms. May, she's going to be a tough wife!

"Do you hate it?" Sean asked Molly. No one knew if he was asking about the smell or Abigail

But Molly did not think much about it "Not really, I just prefer your usual scent more."

Sean usually put on a man's cologne that had a clean and woody scent. It had a faint smell, just like him. A person who was serious, grounded, and comforting

'The smell today is too strong and pungent' Molly really did not like it. In fact, she even started to feel upset

However, Sean's mood was immediately lifted.

"Since you don't like it, I'll throw this shirt away. I won't let it stick onto me next time either

Molly was shocked as she found it weird. Why does he have to throw it out just because I don't like it?

But, when she smelled Abigail's scent just now, she actually felt kind of bitter

She did not understand why, however.

"Go get changed." Molly urged Sean to forget about the weird feeling she had.

Her father was not impressed with her performance that night. So, when they were alone, he poured out the thoughts that he had kept to himself for a long time.

"Are you still in love with Sean?" He noticed it when they were eating just now.

He knew how brilliant and good Sean was as a person. The only thing that Sean lacked was a love for his own daughter, Abigail

*Abigail, I know you love him. But there are plenty of fishes in the sea, no? A relationship is two-sided. You're an outstanding girl, so there's no need for you to waste your time on Sean. Take this from me, just set your eyes on someone else. What kind of man do you like? I'll find one for you."

Richard spoiled Abigail like a princess ever since she was born, so he felt bad for her. No father in this world would want to see their own daughter be sad over a guy.

But the Nolan family was nowhere comparable to the Anderson family. Although he was unhappy with Sean, he could not do anything about it

Abigail looked at him and said, "Dad, this is Julson Who can be better than Sean?"

She was not having it!

"Be it appearance or power, Sean is the best, and there is only one Sean Anderson in Northfolk. If I can! wouldn't give up on him so easily. And if I can't have him, then neither can Molly!"

Chapter 318

Richard could only sigh at his daughter's persistence.

Meanwhile, Molly was done with Sean's treatment. She ran a check-up on his recovery and looked extremely tired when the whole session ended,

Other than Sean, she had to treat Brycen and Sawyer these days.

Treating three patients with different serious conditions at the same time was really taxing

"Wait a minute." Sean told Molly, who was on her way out.

Molly turned back and saw Sean pointing at the tea on his table. "Drink this herbal tea before you go home. You'll feel better."

He looked at Molly in a serious manner as though she could not leave without finishing the tea.

Molly walked back and gulped down the whole cup of tea.

"Done "Molly sighed and said, "You don't have to waste your money on this. This herb must be expensive, right? It tastes like it's been aged for at least 10 years."

Sean did not expect Molly to be so sharp that she could tell what the herb was with one cup of tea. "I think my body is worth more than this herb. I need you... to treat me."

"No matter how expensive the herb is, I can always get it."

Molly looked at Sean's expression. For a second there, she actually thought Sean was saying "I need you!"

"I must be too tired these days! I'm going crazy!"

'Sean would never say such a thing'

'I need to stop imagining things!'

Molly strongly reminded herself in her head once more,

"Well, thank you then." She finished the tea and ran off to her house after putting the teacup back down.

But even when she got home, she still found herself feeling weird!

"What's wrong with me?!"

"Gah, forget it. I don't know.'

Molly was exhausted, so she did not want to waste her time and her energy on this. She immediately went to shower and slept

Maybe it was Sean's tea because Molly had a good night's sleep that night.

But before she woke up, someone woke her up by calling her on the phone.

Molly fished for her phone on her bed hazily and saw that the call was from Benjamin "Bad news, Molly. Lara showed some complications after the surgery, and she's been sent to the emergency room." Molly immediately woke up after listening to Benjamin

"What's her current condition?" she asked.

She did not even notice that she was clenching her fist on the blanket

"She's still in the emergency room, so we don't know her current situation" Benjamin paused and apologetically said, "I think it's bad So, I think you have to take over the surgery."

He was not a bad doctor, but he was not skilled in this field.

Molly frowned deeply and remained silent for a while.

Her grudge against Lara and the May family still existed to this day

She thought she got the best of both worlds when she got to save Lara without having to do much. She thought that drew an end to her relationship with the May family.

"Fate is a funny thing.'

"Both my fate, and Lara's.'

She kept quiet for a long while before she said, "I'll be there shortly."

She made a decision and ended the call with Benjamin. Without any delay, she got out of bed and started getting ready

Chapter 319

When Molly packed her things and went downstairs, she saw Brycen and Sawyer, who were rarely up that early

They heard her and looked in her direction at the same time. Both of them had a stern look on their face. Needless to say, they had gotten wind from the hospital about Lara's condition

Molly looked at them without saying anything.

But Brycen was the one who spoke first. He held Molly's arm and said, "Molly, if it's too much for you, you don't have to go."

It was hard for Brycen to say that

On one hand, Lara was his mother who raised him. On the other was his sister who saved his life. He knew about their resentment toward each other, and for this reason, he had no right to tell Molly what she should or should not do.

"It's okay." Molly said nonchalantly. "I might not have to take over, so I'm just going to have a look."

Although she said it in a carefree manner, Brycen was worried.

"Then, I'll go with you

"Sure - Molly did not stop him.

Then, the three of them left the house and headed to the hospital

When they arrived at the emergency room, Molly met Walter and Nathan as well.

They were shocked to see Molly too. Nathan saw Molly and was about to say something, but nothing came out of his chapped lips.

He wanted to ask Molly to save Lara, but he felt that he had no right to ask her for that favor

After so many things had happened, he could finally put himself in Molly's shoes So, he could not bring himself to ask Molly to do anything for them anymore.

Molly did not bother to greet them as well. She immediately changed into her sterile garment and entered the operating theater.

Benjamin and Caitlyn were there as well, and they looked extremely serious.

Chapter 320

"Dr. Fort, how did it go?"

"Very successful. There won't be a problem as long as Joye is here."

Nathan did not expect Molly to help them out.

Thank you." He looked at Molly, but he only managed to thank her as he did not know what else to say. Molly did not accept it and coldly told him, "There's no need for that. I'm just repaying her for giving birth to me. From now on, I don't owe her anything anymore."

Then, Molly left the scene before giving him the chance to continue.

The May family were all in silence.

Many things had happened recently, which led to the May family being in their current state. Besides, Nathan felt rather bad after all the misunderstandings were cleared as well

Walter frowned as he watched Molly leave before his eyes, not saying anything to her

He knew the things that had happened as well. Additionally. Nathan had changed and would always talk about Molly to him

The things that Molly did for them without them knowing had made him reflect on himself as well

Until this moment, when Molly left without any hesitation, he suddenly realized that he had probably lost his daughter...

And, they had brought all of this onto themselves.

They were the ones who abandoned her, rejected her, and denied her.

The atmosphere around them was strange, so Benjamin kept quiet

He did not know about the things between Molly and the May family because he was there a lot later, "What happened between Molly and our family?" When they left the hospital, Sawyer found a chance to ask Brycen.

Brycen looked at him and sighed, "Unresolved conflicts"

Brycen then told him about everything he knew when he came back

Every time he thought about the suffering Molly endured, he would get angry.

Sawyer listened and kept quiet for a long time. "Dad and mom are too foolish," he said.

Brycen responded, "I know, right?! Molly is such a good daughter! Look at the things they did. It's so disappointing!"

But Molly did not know about Brycen and Sawyer defending her. She just went home with the same state of mind when she was at the hospital.

The triplets, however, knew that their mother had gone to the hospital for Lara, so they figured that she would be unhappy

Although Molly did not express it, they still knew

They discussed among themselves and decided to make their mother happy when they saw her sitting before the big window to bask in the sun as soon as she came home.

"Mommy, since you're not busy with work right now, let's go to Aqua World tomorrow!" Claudia ran to Molly, followed by Ben and Alex,

“There’s a lot of cute fishes that you haven’t seen before, Mommy. If we go earlier, we can even watch the beluga whale performance!”

Alex also said, “There’s an underwater tunnel. We can see big sharks if we walk there.”

Kids were innocent, so they could not think of many ways to console a person. To them, playing outside when they were unhappy would make them forget about their sadness

Molly smiled as she brushed their heads.

“Uncle Sean might have never seen a beluga whale performance too, so let’s invite him, otherwise, it’s very sad to see him working at home every day!

The triplets did not forget to bring up Sean whenever they could

Molly could not bear to reject them.

“Sure,” she agreed immediately.
