

Triplets on SM 331

Chapter 331

Alice was not affected by his words

She smiled and said in an unbothered tone. "It's nothing. This is Sharon Newman. She's the new doctor that I got you. She graduated abroad from Fernhurst Medical School She's also the daughter of one of our clients. I asked her to come over and see if she could be of any help to your condition. The two of us have spoken to Ms. May about this prior to your return"

Alice turned to Molly before looking at her son She seemed as though she was thinking about how the two of them did not suit each other. Then, she smiled

Molly was silent

The truth was, Alice rang her doorbell and said that she wanted to have a chat with her, so Molly did not refuse and followed her over

However, Alice had other intentions When Molly saw an unfamiliar woman at Sean's house, she realized why Alice went to find her

"I heard that Dr. May has amazing skills that can improve my son's condition. However, I thought it would be difficult for you to treat him all by yourself I talked to the butler, and he said that you have to pay us a visit every single day That's so tiring

Alice's words seemed to be insinuating something, they sounded unpleasant in Molly's ears

Meanwhile, Alice acted as if they were harmless words.

She continued, 'And so, I got Sharon to help you out. Since the two of you are doctors, you can bounce ideas off each other What do you think, Dr. May?"

Molly could not help but be reminded of the time Alice brought Abigail out of nowhere and said that she wanted to treat Molly to a meal

She felt a sense of déjà vu.

However, it did not feel like it at the same time

Sean appeared before Molly could answer

Now that they were back to this topic, Molly decided to say it as it was

"My apologies Since I've already diagnosed Mr Anderson and have started the treatment, I can't stop it midway. While it is impressive for Dr Newman to graduate from Fernhurst Medical School, practicing medicine is more than just theory Moreover, Dr. Newman might not be familiar with the treatment that I'm providing

Molly met Sharon's eyes and said with a smile. "What's more, I will take full responsibility for my patients to the very end."

That was when Sharon finally decided to speak. She had been quiet ever since she entered the room

She smiled at Molly and said, 'I beg to differ, Dr. May. Practicing medicine is about constant practice. That's how you know where you stand. As for the needle technique, I happen to know a thing or two. Truth to be told, my family is involved in alternative medicine, so I'm not necessarily unfamiliar with the things that you know.'

Sharon looked at Molly and said tauntingly. "Of course, if Dr. May refuses, it's fine. I could perform a checkup on Mr. Anderson myself,

Then, she turned around as though she was speaking to Alice.

Sharon spoke with poise. She made Molly's uncompromisingness seem petty in contrast.

That made Alice dislike Molly even more.

Molly was not intimidated by Sharon's taunts. She knew that Sharon was acting this way because Alice allowed her to.

She looked at Sharon and said, 'Alternative medicine isn't the same as conventional medicine. There's a different treatment for every patient. There are plenty of renowned doctors around the world, but what are they known for? Every doctor has their unique achievements in their respective specializations.'

Molly sounded as if she was refuting Sharon.

Chapter 332

"My treatment methods are unique, and they aren't normal needle techniques because normal needle techniques don't work on Mr. Anderson's legs. Otherwise, why would Mr. Anderson seek me?"

"I wasn't the one who shamelessly approached Sean," Molly thought.

Even though it seemed as if Molly's words were meant for Sharon, they were actually meant for Alice.

Molly understood the situation; Alice's actions today were directed entirely at her.

"Is it because I've gotten too close to Sean?" she wondered.

Molly frowned in annoyance.

She felt disgusted with Alice's actions. This was not Alice's first time picking on her.

'Does every woman fancy Sean? Does every woman get close to him to marry into their so-called wealthy family? Hah! I-Molly May-do not care for this so-called wealthy family. It's no big deal. I'll leave then.' she thought to herself.

Molly promptly stood up and said to Alice. "If you think that it's inappropriate, and if Mr. Anderson's fine with it, please feel free to do so."

Then, she turned around to leave.

Just as Molly was about to leave, somebody tugged on her arm. It was Sean.

She was a little surprised by his actions.

Alice and Sharon were also surprised Alice did not expect her son to do such a thing

For a while, the two of them stared at Sean's hand on Molly's

"You don't have to leave," Sean said while staring at Molly

His firm gaze met hers. It was as if he was admitting and convincing her

"I don't need other doctors, her treating me is enough," he said to Alice

The living room was so quiet that only the sounds of their breathing could be heard

Alice appeared to be thinking of something. When she snapped out of her thoughts, she saw her son looking at her expressionlessly.

Alice almost felt like she was in the wrong for a moment

"Sean, I just wanted to make things easier for Dr. May..." she quickly explained.

"It isn't troublesome for her," Sean cut off his mother

"Dr. May and I are very close. She lives next door and practices medicine fantastically Moreover, I'm not used to receiving treatment from others."

He turned to Sharon sharply and said, "Please leave, doctor."

He treated her as though she was one of the women who willingly approached him.

Sean was not at all courteous toward Sharon

When Sharon saw how Sean was chasing her away disdainfully, she did not look happy

Sharon had always been treated like a princess Everyone supported everything she did and said. This was her first time being treated this way. Naturally, she felt unhappy Since she was a prideful person, she did not need Sean to repeat himself. She promptly stood up and said to Alice, Mrs. Anderson, it seems that Mr. Anderson won't be requiring my assistance. Since that's the case, I will be taking my leave."

Then, Sharon strode out of the room

"Ms. Newman"

When Alice saw Sharon leaving in a fit of rage, she panicked and hurriedly tried to make her stay However, Sharon bolted out adamantly, so Alice could only chase after her

After the two had left, only Molly and Sean remained in the living room

Sean was still gripping onto Molly's hand and did not seem to have any intentions of letting go.

Molly was angry. After she saw Alice and Sharon leave, it occurred to her that Sean was still gripping her wrist. She could feel his warmth coming from his large hand.

Neither of them spoke, so it was quiet. It did not take long before Molly started to feel the awkwardness in the mood

She subconsciously wanted to retract her hand, but Sean tightened his grip

Molly looked at their hands before looking at Sean

Sean seemed to notice her gaze

He met her eyes and gently asked, "Are you mad?"

>Chapter 333

Molly looked at Sean cool in a cool way

This gentle-sounding Sean is not the same Sean who chased someone away icily just now Does his mood change this quickly and easily? she wondered

"No What's the point?"

Molly was still annoyed. However, she wanted to save her pride in front of Sean

She was not going to admit that she got mad from Alice's actions and Sharon's launts

"You are." Sean gazed at Molly deeply as if he were reading her inner thoughts

Molly pursed her lips. She did not want to speak to him anymore. Then, she turned her gaze out of the window

It was Sean's first time seeing Molly look so sulky He could not help but chuckle

He moved his hand up her wrist and grabbed her hand Molly's hand seemed exceptionally small in comparison to his large hand

He squeezed the palm of her hand and gently said, "Don't be mad I've chased her away

His lone sounded as though he was coaxing her

The tip of Molly's ears turned crimson Even though the unfamiliar touch of her arm made her want to retract her arm, Sean refused to let go of her

He seemed to have predicted her plans of escaping

"Let go of me"

We can just talk. Why is Sean getting so louchy? This is so inappropriate,' Molly thought

Molly wiggled her hand, but it was to no avail

Sean still refused to let go

Molly stopped struggling One of them was standing while the other was sitting down For a while the two of them then remained there in silence

Molly's anger dissipated amid the silence

A few moments later, she spoke

“Your mother seems to have misunderstood our relationship. She doesn’t like the two of us getting too close”

Molly was not asking a question but was giving a statement

She was not stupid The thing was. Alice was being too obvious about it. First, it was Abigail now Sharon *They’re almost always like that unless it’s someone they like But...”

He turned to Molly and said in a serious tone, “What they say doesn’t matter Only what I say matters So. don’t take whatever happened today to heart As I’ve said, I only need you. I don’t need anyone else providing me treatment.”

He spoke slowly. His voice was like a feather, tickling the cockles of Molly’s heart All of a sudden, Molly thought that Sean’s gaze was inexplicably gentle

She felt like she could drown in his gentleness

“He’s like the light that helps me to hold on to my beliefs in this confusing world. I can’t help but want to get closer to him... Closer she thought

Molly snapped out of her thoughts. Suddenly, she felt her cheeks turn warm and her heart racing She did not know what to do, she did not even dare to look at Sean

She suppressed the inexplicable emotions that she was feeling and said, ”

I know

Then, she quickly pulled her hand out of his before running away in panic

Sean sat in his wheelchair and watched Molly’s retreating figure with a stunned expression. He smiled and let out a chuckle

He subconsciously moved the hand that grabbed Molly’s it was as if he could still feel Molly’s touch on his arm

She isn’t that cold, she also isn’t as calm as I thought Her emotions are so lively in comparison to mine.’ Sean thought

Meanwhile, Molly ran straight home and locked herself in her room

Her heart pounded uncontrollably while the warmth on her cheeks remained<

Chapter 334

Alice quickly chased after Sharon after she had been chased out by her useless son Sharon antly slowed down after she left Terahis Grove When Alice saw Sharon, she quickly went up to stop her

“Sharon, why did you leave so quickly? Sean’s like that don’t take it to heart”

Since Alice purposefully invited Sharon over, she could not let her get chased away by Sean Now that Alice had managed to stop Sharon, she started persuading her to stay

Sharon had a wronged expression after she heard Alice’s words

“Mrs Anderson, I agreed to provide Mr Anderson treatment simply because of our family’s relationship. But as you can see, Mr Anderson doesn’t require my assistance. And Dr May, she isn’t happy about me taking over her patient.” *

Sharon almost wanted to say that Molly was not happy about her stealing Sean away.

However, Alice knew what her son was thinking. After all, she saw how her son defended Molly with her own eyes.

Alice was unhappy about it too.

The truth was that Sharon knew about Sean before she went abroad for her studies.

The son of the Anderson family, a child born with a silver spoon in his mouth.

Moreover, she and Sean were coincidentally schoolmates back in high school.

Since Sean came from a well-off family, everyone in school admired him. Not only was he handsome, but he was also the top scorer for four years straight. He graduated with an unimaginably high grade.

People like him stood out everywhere they went.

Sharon was also one of his admirers.

The Anderson family happened to pay her family a visit when she was back home when she learned about Alice’s request, she naturally agreed. After all, this was a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity; it was also a chance for her to get close to Sean.

However, she did not expect Sean to treat her this way.

While Sharon was arrogant, she did not dare to do anything to Alice.

On the contrary, Alice’s fondness toward her meant that she could use her.

Alice sighed at Sharon’s words.

“You’ve misunderstood Sean’s intentions; it isn’t easy for Sean. Since he’s been sick all these years, he isn’t fond of strangers. Sharon, you’re a doctor too, you should be more understanding. Sean isn’t picking on you.” Alice consoled her.

She then patted Sharon’s arm and said, “I’m partially to blame for what happened today. I did not tell him beforehand to arrange another meeting next time, so don’t take it to heart, alright?”

“I won’t.”

Sharon nodded obediently.

*if Mr Anderson doesn’t mind, you can contact me any time for assistance.”

After all, the Newman family today needed the help of the Anderson family.

In recent years, the Newman family was too eager to gain quick success. They set their sights on the overseas market and started investing. However, the financial crisis hit, causing their family to suffer severe losses.

If it were not for their timely reaction, it would have also affected their domestic operations

Regardless, Fomanesia was a small country, so the competition was intense Since the Newton family did not have as much capital as before, they could not run many of their operations

Nobody knew that the Newman family was tearing their hair out over this matter

Consequently, Sharon decided to provide Sean with medical treatment. Another reason was that she hoped the Newman family could establish a relationship with the Anderson family from this incident. The Anderson family's influence would undoubtedly aid the Newman Group

Chapter 335

Sharon snapped out of her thoughts and took a deep breath. Now that she had calmed down, she realized that she had acted too impulsively just now

"I should've fought for it," she thought.

Sharon smiled once more and looked at Alice

"However, since Mrs Anderson agreed to help me, it should be fine, she thought again

"Mrs Anderson, it's almost lunchtime Why don't we go grab a meal together? We can talk about this over lunch

Alice nodded with a smile "Sure *

Seeing how Sharon was no longer thinking about her son's rudeness, Alice was more than happy She was not going to bicker with Sharon,

Moreover, Alice was rather fond of Sharon at the moment. Since she still wanted Sharon to be together with her son, she agreed to her request

"Mrs Anderson, is there anything in particular that you feel like having? if there isn't I know this one restaurant that's pretty good

Sharon's eyes sparkled, she looked beautiful

Alice gazed at Sharon and grew even more fond of her. Most importantly, Sharon did not look old, yet she carried herself demurely She had met the requirements Alice set for the future Mrs. Anderson

The future Mrs Anderson cannot be rash and petty

"Mhm, let's go to the one you're thinking of." Alice responded

The two of them chatted away in the car They did not take long to arrive at the restaurant

The afternoon sunlight shone onto the restaurant's entrance Multiple pots of fresh, vibrant, and nice smelling flowers were placed by the door Overall, the restaurant looked minimalistic yet tasteful

Meanwhile, Abigail stood across the street holding a shopping bag She could not help but stop walking when she saw a familiar figure Then, she squinted her eyes for a better view

"I do know this person!" she thought

When Abigail saw Alice smiling while chatting with Sharon, she suddenly felt threatened

She clenched her fists and walked toward Alice

“Mrs. Anderson!” she shouted

They were in a high-end shopping area, the streets were not noisy but quiet

Alice stopped walking when she heard Abigail’s voice. Then, she turned around to face the girl, who was only a few steps away

‘Abigail, you’re here too? What a coincidence

Sharon also turned around.

‘So, this is Abigail she thought to herself

“Hello, Mrs. Anderson Abigail said

She turned to Sharon and politely asked, “And, this is

“Sharon Newman, the daughter of the Newman family.” Alice answered calmly

Abigail was confused

“The Newman family? she wondered

However, her expression remained unchanged “Hello, Ms Newman”

“Hello I’m ashamed that the Newman family isn’t as well known as the Anderson family and the Nolan family So, Ms Nolan hasn’t heard of our family. On the other hand, I’ve heard of you. Ms Nolan’ Sharon said gently with a smile

However, there was a hint of disdain when her gaze fell onto Abigail’s face

Abigail had made her identity as Sean’s fiancée known to everyone in Northfolk Sharon also thought that the Nolan family’s daughter would be the future Mrs. Anderson

Who would have thought that Abigail would end up as a paper tiger? Sharon thought

Sharon quickly averted her gaze

“Is that so?” Abigail asked

Her gaze, however, was on Alice She thought for a while before regaining her composure

Back when I was the one standing beside Alice, she always said that I was the Anderson family’s most favored daughter-in-law This is exactly how she acted she thought

Abigail stared at the demure looking Sharon Her gaze silently darted between Alice and Sharon

“Hah, you found a replacement this quickly! she thought hatefully

Meanwhile, Alice looked calm and was completely unaware of Abigail’s thoughts. Alice no longer had any views toward the ex-Mrs. Anderson candidate

>Chapter 336

Alice gave Abigail numerous chances and helped her multiple times Who was to blame if Abigail could not make Sean fall for her?

On the other hand, Molly had been distracted and unfocused at work ever since she held hands with Sean

Molly now spent more time sitting in a daze Sometimes on the sofa in the living room, other times in her upstairs bedroom

Molly felt an emptiness in her heart because she felt that she had ignored something she needed to find it and refilled it

Only through this manner could Molly regain control of her situation and return to a normal life

Brycen's phone rang before Molly could figure it out. She shifted her gaze to the person sitting across from her on the couch

Brycen took out his cellphone and saw a small part of the caller ID. He unconsciously glanced at Molly and noticed that the other party was staring at him

Brycen gulped and picked up the phone "Nathan, what's wrong?"

He felt that he should limit his contact with the Mays because he was receiving treatment from Molly

"The operation went well, and mother is awake now Could you please thank Molly for me?" The man on the other end of the call seemed as though he was struggling to say Molly's name

"Okay, I will." Brycen said, sensing Nathan's struggle He returned his gaze to Molly

They were the only ones in the living room while the triplets and Grandpa Dave were upstairs. Molly could clearly hear the conversation on Brycen's phone and felt nothing in her heart it was as if Nathan was not talking about her

"Nathan asked me to thank you." Brycen said, putting his phone away He stared at Molly's face like a rabbit that was about to bolt

Molly simply nodded, not even moving her mouth Molly and the Mays had nothing to do with each other now that Lara had woken up There will be no further involvement with the Mays in the future

This day had finally arrived

It was supposed to be good news, but Molly could not decide whether she wanted to be happy or sad

Molly lowered her gaze and raised her brows subconsciously She recently could not understand herself in a hospital ward.

Lara pouted as she watched Nathan hang up the phone She felt inexplicably annoyed, "Why bother informing them? They only have Molly in their eyes now, not their mother"

Brycen and Sawyer were already on Molly's side 'Lara was irritated just thinking about it

Nathan put his phone away and turned to face Lara at the bedside. "Regardless," he said, "Molly saved you

Lara felt ill as soon as she became angry She could not afford to get upset after the operation, so she quickly suppressed her feelings

Lara paused briefly before she weakly said, "I don't need a daughter like this. She only saved me when I was on the verge of death. Why should I be thankful for her?"

Nathan sighed after noticing that Lara was still acting like she always did. He did not hold back and unequivocally stated, "Molly doesn't need your thanks. She said that she is doing this to repay you for giving birth to her. From now on, you'll be a stranger to her

Lara was speechless as she choked for a moment in a normal situation, she would have said something more malicious to accuse Molly

But, for some reason, her mood was indescribably sour at that moment

Nathan was taken aback by what he saw

>Chapter 337

Silence replaced the expected accusation Nathan felt sorry for Lara because of her haggard appearance

Nathan felt a stabbing pain in his chest and said, "Mom, you're still weak from the surgery You should rest first. Other things can wait until you feel better."

Lara silently nodded She closed her eyes and leaned against the head of the bed Tiredness washed over her like a wave She was unsure if it was because of the surgery or something else

Molly had no idea what had happened in the hospital Even if she did, she would not give a damn She returned to her room, ignoring Brycen's curious gaze

The doorbell rang in the afternoon

"What brings you here?" Molly asked as she was perplexed Benjamin appeared at the door

"Isn't he working at the hospital today? Molly paused before leading Benjamin in

Benjamin was holding two bags in his hand, which seemed heavy He smiled softly His face seemed to glow with warm light, his brows curved, and he looked very happy

*For Mr May Sr" He went into the living room with Molly He placed the bag on the coffee table and took a box of tea leaves from it The tea box's packaging was simple, but the shape of the gold pattern made Molly think that it was expensive

Then, Benjamin lifted another bag and placed it in front of her *These are the toys for the triplets," he explained

Molly sat on the sofa, looking at the items with her gaze bowed "That's very thoughtful of you. But you didn't have to

Benjamin was Molly's friend Molly would undoubtedly welcome him to see the triplets Bringing her gifts, on the other hand, made her feel embarrassed.

Benjamin dismissed it, believing that these were merely gifts Besides, he had a request this time "I need you to do me a favor I was wondering if you'd be interested

"What is it?' Molly inquired

Benjamin said, "For the past few days, the hospital has collaborated with the charity foundation It's about working together to set up a free clinic at the orphanage Children in the orphanage fell sick shortly after they reached puberty and were abandoned Since they have insufficient funds for treatment, the children suffer from sickness for an extended period of course, the free clinic is only open for three days this time"

"I've come to ask if you want to do it with me You can help those children with your medical expertise Benjamin said this while looking at her expectantly

Molly shrugged as if the situation was unimportant. As a result, she directly replied, "I'm in Just let me know when the schedule is set

"I knew you wouldn't refuse,' Benjamin said with a relieved smile. The hospital now had this project, and Molly would agree if she knew that it was a free clinic for the kids

Benjamin had this thought at first But, as he waited for an answer, he could not help but feel excited Molly was someone he admired, and he wished he could see her again

The triplets ran downstairs when they heard a familiar voice "Uncle Benjila

They had not seen Benjamin in a long time and were overjoyed to see him

*I brought you toys, kids Come check it out and see if you like it." Benjamin said, His gaze was drawn to the triplets' adorable expressions

'Uncle Benji is standing right next to Mommy

The triplets rushed into the middle of the two for unknown reasons and quietly pulled them apart "Wow, Uncle Benjil they exclaimed

Chapter 338

Molly took a step back and looked at them She suddenly remembered her time in Fomanesia "Would you like to stay for dinner?" she inquired of Benjamin

Benjamin raised his head and gazed at the beautiful and cold face Td love to," he replied, as he was stunned

The triplets applauded, "Hooray! We havent eaten together in a long time. Uncle Benji!"

Ben circled the couch with a toy airplane in his hand, as he exclaimed, "Yuppie yup

The triplets were so loud that Brycen, who was always up for a good time, heard them and ran downstairs

“Dr Forts? Brycen had previously met Benjamin while he was in the hospital He only found out later that Benjamin and Molly were coworkers.

“Hello” Benjamin greeted with courtesy

“What exactly is going on here?”

“Wow! You frightened me!” Brycen shivered unexpectedly He unconsciously grabbed the stair rail His heart rate sped up for a few seconds before he turned to see Sawyer standing behind him.

“Why do you walk around so quietly? Please dont appear behind a patient like that I was about to get better, but you’re scaring me to death!”

Brycen warned Sawyer while soothing his little heart this is Dr Forts, Molly’s colleague, Brycen said

Sawyer gave Benjamin a quick glance before giving him a skeptical look After two seconds, he returned to his room

The triplets could not stop laughing at Brycen’s expression, and they said, “Uncle Brycen, you looked funny just now!”

The triplets brought the toys to Brycen’s side, where the four happily played together

‘I should have gotten a toy for Brycen as well Benjamin pondered

It’s dinnertime Around the dinner table

As might be expected, Benjamin and Sean ran into each other again and became enemies. If they were in the same place, an internal war would erupt between them

Sean spooned some food into Molly’s bowl, and Benjamin, not to be outdone, also spooned some food into her bowl

The two exchanged glances for a split second before quickly turning away “Molly, you seem very tired lately, so try to avoid greasy food,’ Sean said lightly

Sean was looking at Benjamin when he said the word “greasy”

Molly looked at the food bowl piled up like a small hillside and did not notice anything wrong. “He’s right. But the meat is delicious, and I didn’t prepare anything greasy’ Molly pondered.

Benjamin had no idea how Molly had been recently, so he could not refute it for a while. He was taken aback when he noticed Molly eating the food Sean had scooped for her.

“Mr Anderson, greasy or not, it depends on the person’s preferences, Benjamin said provocatively. raising his chin slightly

Sean’s eyes sank, and Molly ate the food Sean scooped again the next second His face brightened slightly, and he softly stated, “Some dishes are only for appetizers, and the main courses are for everything after

Sean finished his speech by scooping some more food for Molly, and he added. 'Mr Forts is a quest, and the attitude of stepping outside the boundary is not really a good thing.'

"Mr Anderson, aren't you here for the meals too?" Benjamin inquired

"I already have a place in this family, and I'm sure you don't understand my relationship with Molly."
Sean staled flatly

The tension between the two suddenly became very high

Molly's face was puzzled, and she had no idea why they fought every time they met

Sawyer was acutely aware He took his bowl of rice and walked away from the battleground Grandpa Dave remained calm and pretended not to notice

Only the triplets wanted to see the two of them fight

>Chapter 339

Brycen could not take it any longer He put down his utensils, looked at Sean and Benjamin, and angrily exclaimed, 'That's enough, both of you! Are we going to have dinner or not? The two of you scooped almost all the food what is there left for us to eat?'

"Are they trying to fight for my sister in front of my face? That's very brave of them!

Following Brycen's reprimand, Sean and Benjamin paused and ate their own food rather than putting food into Molly's bowl.

Only Molly, looking at the unusual two people, cautiously asked, "Do the Andersons and the Forts have some unresolved feud?"

Otherwise, why does she feel a strange feeling whenever the two meet?

It's just that the two of them did not show it clearly enough for Molly to notice

Everyone in the room was speechless as soon as Molly's words came out

Even Sawyer, who was far from the battleheld, noticed that the two jealous men were unhappy

"No " Sean and Benjamin both said the same thing

When they realized that they were acting in unison, they both looked at each other with disgust and then looked away

The triplets secretly smiled as they observed the two men's unusual appearance

Brycen was amused by Molly's words based on their behavior

'Molly is still the best Their perplexed expression was endearing!

The meal came to an end in the silence between Sean and Benjamin

Benjamin returned home after saying his goodbyes to Molly and the others Molly quickly packed her needle case and went to treat Sean as scheduled

Sean was clearly distracted today, and no one knew what he was thinking

Sean asked after seeing Molly complete the day's treatment, "Today, I heard about Dr Forts' free clinic Won't you be even more tired if you participated?"

I usually see that Molly can keep up after using her energy treating me and her two brothers And, she's finally gotten better in the last two days.' Sean thought

"Definitely "Molly stood up, wiped her hands, and said, "But, it's okay I'll be thrilled if I can help those children"

Molly's nature as a doctor was to treat patients. Of course, this excludes the people she despised

Sean noticed the tenderness in the corners of Molly's mouth and curled his own

"You're right. And since that's the case, the Anderson Corporation will also help out We will provide all of The medicines you require in your free clinic. Consider it a charity for the children."

It was difficult for people to resist Sean's words. Molly, who was thinking about helping the orphans, was also overjoyed

"That's great Those kids will definitely appreciate you."Molly was overjoyed when Sean decided to participate in the charity

The Andersons have a high profile with their participation, this free clinic can eliminate many problems that need to be addressed. There was no issue with funds or medications for now

This was not what Sean expected, "You don't need to thank me, just thank yourself, because you're the doctor who's going to treat them," he said softly to Molly

*Thank you too because you helped "Molly smiled

Benjamin mentioned and organized the free clinic He was extremely efficient The next day, he texted Molly to confirm the time of the free clinic, which was scheduled for Friday, Saturday, and Sunday Three days and three orphanages in total

Chapter 340

Molly got up early on the free clinic day to prepare After preparing breakfast for the triplets, she reminded them. "You three must be obedient when Mommy is away After you finish your homework, you can play Mommy will be back once I finish my work"

"Yes, mommy Uncle Ben is waiting for you, so hurry up and go. The triplets were incredibly smart Only their mother would be concerned about them

Molly left after speaking with the triplets. Then, she met up with Benjamin and the others and set off with the free clinic's medical team

When they arrived at the orphanage, the children had already gathered around because they had been informed that the doctors would visit them today There was excitement and anticipation in their eyes

Molly felt sorry for the children when she got out of the car and saw them gathering

Many of the children were malnourished as a result of their illness Molly was the mother of three children and was distraught at the time

'n breaks my heart to see these children in this situation.' Molly thought

The medical team included nurses who examined the children before administering the treatment

However, the children in line were a little uneasy while they waited

Molly could tell that they were terrified Molly's heart softened as she looked at the children She smiled and took a step forward to speak with them

"Hey kids. Do you want any special gifts Molly squatted in front of the children and asked gently

"No" The children did not dare to speak with her when they saw the strange and beautiful doctor approaching them,

Molly did not mind their cautious demeanor She continued to speak to them gently, softening her tone

"Don't be scared I'm also a doctor here to help the doctors and nurses here are wonderful people They will take away all of your pain, so you should be brave, okay?" Molly was kind She had a patient and kind tone that gradually won the children over

"Ms Beautiful, may I have a small teddy bear to sleep with?" A trail little girl said

Molly looked at her She was about the same height as Claudia, and her skinny body bothered Molly

"Of course." Molly replied

When one came out the others immediately followed

"Then, can I have a Superman toy?" "I want a storybook as a present!"

"Ms Beautiful, I like dolls."

Soon, joy spread among the children, and there was no fear or anxiety on their faces

Molly patiently listened to everyone and smiled back She said, "Okay, I'll keep all your requests in mind How about you help with the nurses' examination later, and I'll bring the gifts to you all, okay?"

Molly guided them gently, and the children nodded

Examinations were no longer a source of anxiety for them. Everyone was in a good mood They re queued and waited for the doctors and nurses to examine them

"Dr May. you are incredible The examination for children is the most difficult. You're being very patient about it. After seeing Molly return, the members of the medical team were overjoyed

They all saw Molly comforting the children and admired her in their hearts
