

Triplets on SM 351

Chapter 351

Sean had never allowed a woman to stay in his home, let alone be close to a woman

“Nothing much. She’s a volunteer doctor at the orphanage that’s sponsored by our company. She has a lot on her plate, so she got sick, and I let her stay in my guest room,” Sean explained Molly’s situation to Alice.

Alice wanted to say something, but there was nothing for her to say So, she just left it behind

In the afternoon, Sean specifically ordered his chef to make a simple plate of risotto for Molly Molly’s fever had gotten better, but she still had little appetite, so she only ate half of her food

Sean remained quiet when he saw that she did not eat much, but he called Tony when he got downstairs

“Head over to Le Festin this afternoon and bring some of their signature pastries back. That way, Molly can eat something when she wakes up’ Sean did not make Molly eat, but he made sure that she had everything she needed

After Molly woke up in the afternoon, she had indeed gotten hungry There was some food that was heated, and it was placed on the nightstand Molly smiled

She instantly knew that Sean had asked someone to prepare it for her. “Even though he seems like a cold person, you could tell otherwise by the small things he does, she thought

Molly was touched as she ate the food that he had prepared for her

On the other hand, Tony was reporting to Sean about work in his study

Tony had sent some men to monitor Diana for quite some time, and they told him that Nathan had hired a good lawyer for her. The lawyer was pretty skilled as he got Diana some good returns

“They said that those people are trying to reduce two years of Diana’s sentence in jail and probation on three years. If she’s on her best behavior for the next three years, she would be released earlier if she did not commit any crimes.” Tony frowned as he was obviously unhappy with Diana’s sentence

“The victim is from a normal family, so they couldn’t afford a good lawyer Since there was nothing much that they could do, they just left this matter as it is

Other than hospital fees, the most expensive service was a lawyer If the court case dragged on for ages. it could even make a family go bankrupt

Sean’s expression darkened as he listened to Tony’s report

“Send them a lawyer later,” he ordered. “I don’t want Diana to have a second chance.”

“Sure, I’m on it.” Tony responded

Outside their door was Brycen, who left immediately

He was there to visit Molly, but he heard Diana's name when he walked past the study. So, he unintentionally listened to their conversation.

He was just momentarily stunned.

"Diana deserved this."

"If she didn't set Molly up and use the May family to back her up for her shameless acts, she wouldn't be in this position."

"If Nathan is willing to spend so much money for Diana so unnecessarily, I'll let him be."

Brycen did not care anymore.

Tony was highly efficient. He contacted the family and Diana was sued by them again the next day.

Nathan obviously caught wind of this.

He was more surprised than anyone when he knew about it.

That was because the victim's lawyer was the best lawyer in the country, second to none.

Chapter 352

Nathan was not surprised at the lawyer's achievement, but the lawyer himself.

To his knowledge, the lawyer had been working for the Anderson Corporation. It was not hard to guess that Sean had had a hand in it now that the lawyer was involved in this court case.

He just did not expect Sean to be so cruel to Diana because of this matter.

"Mr. May, we can't do anything if Hugh Lumn takes on this case," Nathan's team told him over the phone.

Nathan remained silent for a while before responding.

"Then, we'll stop here and let things be."

Nathan did not fight back. He had already done his best for Diana by hiring the best lawyer that specialized in this particular field.

But, Sean meddled in this.

If they continued this court case, it will no longer be a case between Diana and the victim, but rather the May Group and the Anderson Corporation.

And, the May Group was nowhere near Anderson Corporation's level.

Nathan thought about it for some time before he decided to visit Diana.

Diana did not know that there were changes to her sentence, so she was just waiting for her chance to leave. When she heard that Nathan had come to visit her, she was visibly excited.

But, her excitement only made Nathan feel bad.

“Diana, I did my best.”

Diana’s smile froze as she looked at Nathan’s expression,

“Nathan what do you mean?” She was not expecting Nathan to show an expression like that

“They hired the best lawyer in town and appealed We lost, and the court decided to close the case with the initial sentence – Nathan’s words hurt her like a brutal slap

Diana could not bring herself to say anything

After some time, Diana started to get emotional

“Bullshot! You just don’t want to save me, right? It’s because I’m not your real sister, right? That’s why you don’t want to help me, isn’t it?” Diana was going insane

She could not even stand a day in custody She thought she was going to escape, but Nathan had crushed her hopes after he raised them

“Are you all fooled by Molly?! Why?! Is it because you’re blood-related?! I was the one who grew up with you! Waah. Diana shrieked and sobbed as she hugged her head

“Calm down, Diana! Even if you’re in jail, I’ll try my best to let you live a good life and not get bullied,” Nathan tried to console her

But, Diana could not accept anything All she knew was that her hopes were crushed

“I’m very calm!” Diana yelled at Nathan Her eyes were bloodshot as they looked at Nathan resentfully

Diana questioned him, “Why? Why is Molly taking over my place after she came back? I’m the rightful daughter of the May family Molly set me up, that betch if it weren’t for her. I wouldn’t be in this mess! Molly is going to rot in hell!”

Her insanity was driving people away from her.

Up until this day, she had no signs of remorse.

Nathan already knew about the truth, so he looked upset when Diana was cursing at the top of her lungs.

“No one can save a stubborn person.” Nathan had seen the twisted side of Diana, so he was both saddened and disappointed

“You should reflect on yourself for the time being. I’ll visit you when I’m free ” Nathan left her these words and left, ignoring Diana who was cursing behind him

Chapter 353

Adam was standing outside of the court.

The weather was nice, and he was wearing a formal suit as he planned to head back to his office after he settled this issue

He pondered for a good ten minutes on God-knows-what before he walked in Diana was sent to the reset area. Her eyes were lifeless, and her lively character had contrastingly become solemn after these days.

She was much skinnier, and her face had gotten so much more defined Under the lights, one could even see that her cheeks were hollow

Today was her sentencing

Initially, Diana was furious about it. But after some time, it started to turn into a grudge.

She was oddly calm today

In other words, dead silence

She had pleaded with many people these days. But, even her brother had crushed her hopes under his feet after lifting them!

She no longer bothered about the people who wanted to visit her

Everything in this world seemed like a bad thing to her

*Diana.”

Adam saw Diana looking out of the window when he entered He immediately sat across her and looked at her handcuffs

“I don’t have much to say to you anymore I’m just here to let you know that the Herring family had revoked our engagement

*A woman with a bad name and a criminal record like you does not deserve to be a part of my family.” Adam said everything in one go, just like a person who was ordering someone heartlessly He did not seem like he wanted to talk much with her either

Diana looked intimidating when she glared at him with a dark expression. Her massive eyes looked like they were bulging out of her pale face as if they were going to fall out of their sockets at any time “Haha.” She scoffed “I’ll make each and every one of you pay when I get out!”

Diana’s voice was hoarse as she said that through her gritted teeth. The grudge she bore was burning in her as though she had channeled all her love into hatred

‘Adam is the reason I’m here today! He is the reason I’m like this, yet he wants to dump me?’

“Very well, the May family and Herring family will get it from me! Just you wait”

Adam threw her a complicated glance and stopped talking. He simply left, as cold as a stranger.

Diana’s real parents, Samson and Linda, were livid when they knew that it was her sentencing day

They had gone a long way to reconcile with their baby daughter. ‘Why did she have to go through all of this?! It’s ruining her life they wondered “Molly, that wicked person! She’s the reason Diana is going to jail! Isn’t she worried that karma would hit her Linda cursed as she jumped up from the couch Her heart was pounding

*1 should've killed her! Samson yelled. His eyes were menacing as he punched the armrest on the couch with full force

"She's going to get it for setting Diana up! She's a filthy person That's why she couldn't bear to see Diana living a good life! Linda was heartbroken for her baby daughter, who was going to have her whole life ruined!

Caden was immediately upset when he heard them insulting Molly "Diana asked for this. She deserved it! What does it have to do with Molly?"

Chapter 354

Samson glared at Caden as he stormed up to him and slapped him hard. "Don't you dare say such things! Keep this in mind, Diana is your real sister!"

He then continued hitting Caden

Linda was angry, so Caden's words had only added fuel to her fire Her affection for her son was no longer as strong as her love for her daughter

She grabbed Caden, who was on the ground as he was being hit by Samson, and dug her nails into his arms She then pulled his ears and yelled, "You're not allowed to contact Molly anymore, you hear me?!"

"She is our worst enemy. If you dare to defend her again. I'll turn you into a cripple!" Linda shoved him forcefully and he fell to the ground again. His slim figure slammed against the wall as he groaned

Caden's eyes reddened and his whole body ached He just sat in the corner as he watched his parents with a dark gaze. This is ridiculous! he thought

Molly was at home, but she did not know anything that happened in the Grant family

She was feeling much better When she was about to get a cup of water, she suddenly stopped when she walked past the living room. Diana's name appeared on the television, but she did not even bother to look at it before walking into the kitchen

Molly was exceptionally calm as she did not want to bother herself with this

However, someone else was caught up with the whole case She was sitting in her room and her laptop was showing the news

When she saw Diana looking abnormally skinny, Abigail smiled cunningly

'I can't believe she's going to jail Didn't Nathan get her a lawyer?

"Oh, I almost forgot Molly has Sean

"Did Diana really think she could escape with Sean around?

'Impossible,

Abigail turned her nose up and looked as smug as ever 'Il Sean is willing to do this much for that woman it's obvious that he likes her already

When she thought of that, her expression humbled slightly before returning back to her smug look. 'I actually lost to a woman like that. But things are going to get interesting I'm just going to watch Sharon fight with Molly Maybe I'm going to benefit the most from it. Who knows?

If they did not, she would just add fuel to the fire and spice things up. Abigail refused to believe that she could not create any conflict between Molly and Sean.

At the same time, Mr and Mrs Anderson got wind of this issue too.

Ricky was deep in his thought. If Sean was willing to do so much for Molly, it only meant that he cared about her if he did not stop Sean, the Anderson family was going to be negatively affected

"We've got to come up with a plan to break them up. They're too close to each other and Molly has the upper hand now!" Alice was upset. Although she was a grounded person, she could not hold back anymore

"Come on, think of something!" Alice got up and urged Ricky as she paced back and forth before him.

her? Linda cursed as she jumped up from the couch. Her heart was pounding "I should've killed her! Samson yelled His eyes were menacing as he punched the armrest on the couch with full force

"She's going to get it for setting Diana up! She's a filthy person. That's why she couldn't bear to see Diana living a good life!" Linda was heartbroken for her baby daughter, who was going to have her whole life ruined!

Caden was immediately upset when he heard them insulting Molly "Diana asked for this She deserved it! What does it have to do with Molly?"

Chapter 355

When Sean got home, he told Molly about this matter

Molly could not help but frown when she looked at the honest man

She had two more patients, who were in a more serious condition, at home waiting for her to treat them She would not have time to treat both them and Sean if he went overseas of course, Sean would hope for her to follow him, but he said this after he thought about the May brothers 'condition, "You don't have to force yourself."

"I need to make some arrangements." Molly could not make a decision right away So, she said that to have more time to think about it.

"Sure, make yourself comfortable, Sean responded

The triplets noticed that something went wrong between them while lying on the sofa. They went to Molly right away to persuade her after they saw Sean left 'Mommy. you have to go with Uncle Sean This might be the best time for him to recover You can always ask Aunt Caitlyn to take care of Uncle Brycen and Uncle Sawyer"

They were not going to let this perfect chance for Sean and Molly to be together slip away!

Besides, Molly was the only person who had not realized her feelings yet. The triplets believed that Sean could definitely make Molly fall for him if he tried harder

Molly agreed with the triplets after hearing what they said So, she called Caitlyn and told her what she should do for her brothers' follow-up treatments

The triplets were delighted when they heard Caitlyn agreeing to help Hooray!"

We've got to treat Aunty Caitlyn very nicely."

Molly was thinking about it for the whole night. She only brought it up to Sean when he came over for breakfast the next morning

Molly said to Sean, 'I can go overseas with you. As for my brothers, I'm going to ask Caitlyn to help me to take care of them. I'm sure that she will do a good job

The corner of Sean's lips lifted as he nodded happily

Caitlyn was sitting on the couch because she came to Molly's house after she had breakfast She was not going to leech off Molly

"Molly, why do you have to go overseas with Sean? We need you here to treat us. Why don't you stay at home? Brycen sounded exactly like a whiny and displeased woman while looking at her, pursing his lips

The wonderful day ended in the morning

Caitlyn's voice could be heard across the living room before Molly could say anything "Oh? Do you have a problem with me?

"I won't treat you, then. I only do it for Sawyer

Brycen lifted his head and said in the direction of the living room immediately. "That wasn't what I meant! Ms. Caitlyn, please don't take it the wrong way!"

He was only whining because he knew that he could not change his sister's mind He had no problem with Caitlyn at all

He could trust anyone that Molly trusted.

Molly explained, "The reason I'm going overseas with Sean is I'm worried that an unanticipated event might happen He's in a recovering stage and he needs somebody to monitor him."

She reassured the May brothers while looking at them "I taught Caitlyn most of her medical skills, so it shouldn't be a problem for her to treat you with the condition you're in now"

Brycen took the chance and said, "Why don't you ask Ms Caitlyn to go with Sean, then?"

"That should be the best!

He found his mouth getting filled with bread right after he was done speaking The triplets took a piece of bread each and stuffed it in his mouth, one after another

“Uncle Brycen, just keep your mouth shut and start eating Food is good for your health!”

“Yeah! Eat more! It’s not only good for your health but your brain too!” Alex made fun of him relentlessly

Brycen had no choice but to chew the bread as he could not spit out another word

Chapter 356

Brycen felt very disappointed as he protested to himself

“What I said was not wrong”

Molly chuckled silently after seeing how bitter he looked She ignored what he said and continued eating her breakfast

Sean’s mood got a lot better after he saw how the triplets supported him as he glanced proudly

Sean made Brycen so mad that his face turned green He could not stop cursing at Sean in his heart

“What a shameless thing!

“How could he do that?!

Stupid cripple!

After everyone was done with their meal, Molly went upstairs to pack her luggage However, Brycen went back to his room before going into Molly’s room

He sat at the side with a worried look. “Molly, you’ve got to protect yourself I don’t know what kind of person Sean Anderson is. But, you’re the only person from the May family that’s on this trip

He wanted to tell Molly that she was putting herself in danger.

However, he changed his mind. Then, he continued. “You’ve got to be cautious being out there alone

He took something out of his pocket before he grabbed Molly’s hand He put that thing in her hand tightly as if he were giving her a very important thing

*This is a pepper spray You have to take this with you and don’t hesitate to use it on anybody when necessary”

Molly was shocked when she held it in her hand She looked at Brycen and she lifted the corner of her mouth uncontrollably

She was so ridiculed that she could only laugh!

“Can I even bring this on the plane?” She asked directly.

Brycen froze in his wheelchair as if his brain had stopped working He only continued talking after some time, ‘I can tell my friend, Jack, who’s staying over there to pass another one to you

The next morning. Molly went next door right after she had her breakfast

Unexpectedly, she saw Sharon in the living room, and she had a piece of luggage with her too Molly was very puzzled. Why is she here?

Sharon could see how confused Molly was, so she explained. *This is Mrs. Anderson's idea. She told me to go with Mr. Sean

She turned her body and looked Molly straight into her eyes. "Dr. May, don't you have a patient at home too? You should be busy, right? Besides, with the condition Mr. Sean is in, I think I'll have no problem in taking care of him alone."

*Did Sean agree to this?"

Sharon gulped She could not help but draw a breath as she was being stared at with a cold gaze However, she still looked at Molly naturally and said with a smile, "Ms May, you're really good at this. You used treating Mr Sean as an excuse to be with him every day Are you doing that so Mr Sean would be dependent on you?

"However, don't you think what you're doing is very low of you? Besides, you don't even know if Mr Sean likes you. Even if he does, do you think that you can marry into the Anderson family with those three kids of yours? You're so delusionall"

Molly looked at her from head to toe after hearing how she criticized her

I dont know what this person heard about me, but what makes her think thai she can just insult me like that?

Molly's gaze turned cold as she angrily said, "If Sean and I really like each other, who's going to stop us? like him for his person, not his family's wealth I couldn't care less whether his family accepts me or not! Besides, who do you think you are? How could you judge me so condescendingly? You should really know your place honestly wonder who gave you the courage to criticize me i'm hired by Sean personally And you have Sean ever even looked at you?"

Molly sneered while looking at her

Chapter 357

"You're not good enough to compare yourself with me yet! Talk to me again when Sean would bring you everywhere he goes. If you'll ever be able to, that is * Molly did not hold back at all. The only reason Molly did not do the same to Abigail was that Abigail's family and Sean's family were friends, and they grew up together

However, how could Sharon, who came out of nowhere, do such a thing?

Sharon's face turned ugly after hearing what Molly said.

Molly had never behaved like this. Sharon thought that Molly was nothing but a pushover

She was deceived by Molly's looks. She would never expect that Molly was such a sharp-tongued person. She wanted to insult Molly with words, so Molly would be embarrassed and distance herself away from Sean

However, every single word that Molly said had hit her hard,

Both of them were so caught up in their squabbles that they did not notice the person who appeared at the staircase of the second floor

Sean could not help but lift the corner of his mouth after hearing Molly's words

Even though Molly had yet to realize his feelings for her, he was still very satisfied with what Molly said

"No one's going to stop us if we like each other

'I didn't fall for the wrong person, after all!

Sean felt proud as he came down from upstairs At the same time, Molly and Sharon stopped arguing when they saw Sean.

Sharon did not dare to act too presumptuously in front of Sean

Molly was right it was true that Sean did not like Sharon, so she was very afraid that Sean would get rid of her if he was angry

"Mr Sean, Mrs Anderson told me to come here She wanted me to go on this business trip with you." She sounded very humble as she said to Sean.

However, Sean did not put on a displeased look this time He only said to her flatly. "Come with us, then."

Sharon smiled right after she heard what Sean said. Then, she threw a proud look at Molly

However, Molly's mood took a big turn after she heard what Sean said, but she held her emotions back because Sharon was there

She complained to herself, 'Why did he ask me to be here if he was going to bring her along? It's not like he needs another doctor anyway

Molly sulked until they got into the car together

Sharon was feeling the complete opposite of Molly She felt as happy as a clam after Sean said that she could follow them

However, Tony ruined her happiness when they were about to get in the car.

"Dr. Newman, your seat is in another car, My boss doesn't like sharing his ride with another person." Tony stopped Sharon before she could get into the car and held out his hand in front of him to politely guide her to another car

Sharon choked, but she did not dare to do anything else. She smiled and followed Tony to the car behind them.

But, when she entered the car, she saw Molly getting into Sean's car, and nobody stopped her from doing so

Sharon was so mad that she grasped the leather seat beside her

Molly had no idea what happened just now She leaned toward the window after she got into the car and looked at the scenery that was passing her by, not saying anything

She looked like she was grumbling at someone

Sean noticed everything, so he asked with a smile. "Are you mad?"

"No." Molly sounded very cold as if she had no intention to keep the conversation going

"Yes, you are.' Sean exposed her fearlessly

Molly stopped pretending and her face turned cold suddenly

"Mr. Anderson, you didn't have to bring me along if you don't trust my medical skills. My time is very precious too, and there are patients at home waiting for me to treat them."

Chapter 358

Sean felt happy looking at Molly's disgruntled reaction

"No matter what others say, you're the doctor that I Sean Anderson, hired himself. How could I possibly not trust you when you've been giving me medical treatment for so long?" he said to Molly

Molly instantly felt her ears turn red when she heard his words

Sean is clearly referring to what I told Sharon back at the villa, When was he listening? Did he also hear the part before this? Molly wondered guiltily

"What I said about her never having any thoughts of being together with Sean was a huge lie Oh dear, this is so shameful,' she thought again

Just as she was deep in thought, she heard Sean speak again

"I agreed to take Sharon with me for two reasons.

Molly turned to Sean confusedly

*First, it's to shut my mother up Secondly, to shut Sharon up. I want her to know that having you is enough for me," Sean explained patiently

He looked at Molly seriously with glistening eyes

Molly stared back at Sean

"Oh," she said moments later

"It must be because the car's too stuffy Yes, that must be it' she thought

For some reason, Molly felt something in the air

Once again, Molly could feel her heart beating abnormally and her blood coursing through her veins. She felt a little warm. She quickly averted her gaze out the window to look at the scenery

Meanwhile, Sharon sat in a different car. She still felt angry about what happened between her, Molly, and Sean

'can't possibly be less charming than Molly? She must've deceived Sean to get into his car. Since I'm going abroad with Sean, I'll do whatever it takes to win his heart! Sharon thought

It did not take long for the few of them to arrive at the airport. After they checked in and boarded the plane, Molly and Sean sat down next to each other. Meanwhile, Sharon and Tony sat at the aisle seats beside theirs

Since the flight was going to take a long time, Molly took out her blanket the moment she sat down. Then, she covered herself with it and yawned slightly

"You didn't sleep well last night? Sean asked with concern.

Molly nodded and casually said, "Brycen chattered away the entire night I need to wake up early tomorrow, so I'll catch some sleep. You can do your work."

Then, she closed her eyes and ignored Sean

Sean did not bother her and proceeded to look at his documents He only moved occasionally to help Molly readjust her blanket whenever it slid off her body.

In Sharon's eyes, the two of them acted like an old couple that had been together for many years

Even though she was completely fixated on Sean, he never once spared her a glance and acted as if she was not there. He ignored her despite her attempts to talk to him.

However, Sharon did not give up. When she saw the work-related documents Sean was holding, she asked, "Mr. Anderson, are you looking at the latest financial situation? Coincidentally, I've also been dabbling in finance. The current situation abroad

Suddenly, Sean closed the document folder and readjusted his sitting position. Then, he started sleeping too

Chapter 359

Sharon's expression changed slightly. She had no choice but to stop talking and stay put in her seat

After arriving at the airport, they got into the car they had booked in advance and headed to the hotel

Molly was still groggy since she had just woken up, so she rested her head on her hand Meanwhile, Sean sat beside her and took care of her

On the other hand, Sharon was all alone in a different car and seething with anger

Once they had reached the hotel, Tony decided to put his boss and Molly in the same suite

This was something that his boss implied

After Tony got the room card from the front desk, he went into the escalator and handed it to Sharon

*This is yours, Dr Newman."

Sharon took the room card and glanced at the room number She was staying in a presidential suite
Then, she looked at Tony again. To her surprise, Tony did not seem to have anything else to say

"What about her? Where's she staying? Sharon asked blatantly

Needless to say, Tony knew who Sharon was referring to

Tony stared at the red floor numbers that kept on going up

"Ms. May is staying in the boss's suite Her room isn't far from yours. She's just night beside your room."

Ding!

The doors of the escalator opened

Sharon trailed behind the two of them

"The two of them are staying together? And, they're being so open about it? she wondered

She frowned and asked, "Isn't this a little inappropriate?"

Sean placed his hand on the door handle and casually said, "There are other rooms in the suite What's so inappropriate about it? What's more, this was a decision that I made. Dr Newman, if you have any problems with that, you could always find somewhere else to stay."

Sharon's face turned purple with rage as she watched the two swipe their room card before entering their Suite

She stood alone in front of their door with her teeth gritted. She looked as if she was trying to endure the humiliation Then, she walked toward her suite before swiping her room card angrily

Bang!

Sharon slammed the door

Regardless, the hotel had great soundproof walls, so nobody heard her slamming the door

Meanwhile, Molly had some water to clear away her grogginess

While she was at it, she handed Sean a glass of water and asked, 'Aren't you worried about her telling on you?"

Sean grabbed the cup. He could feel the warmth of the water through the glass

"i brought her along to make her give up on me."

"It was my intention anyway What is there to be worried about? Sean thought

Sean took a sip of the water

Molly raised an eyebrow and sat on the couch.

Since Tony had gone to put away their luggage, only the two of them were in the living room

Molly stared at the white steam rising from the glass in her hands, they evaporated together with her thoughts

The truth was that Alice had told her about Sharon's background Molly had to admit that Sharon was outstanding. However, an outstanding woman like her still fell for Sean

Molly lifted her gaze to look at his perfect side profile Her gaze flickered slightly. Then, she calmed herself down before looking away

'He really is quite the charmer, she thought

All of a sudden, Molly felt an inexplicable sense of bitterness

"I'm going to unpack my luggage"

*Alright, Sean replied

Since Tony would be unpacking for him, he did not need to worry

I still need to think about the partnership. It's quite troublesome,' Sean thought

After they had unpacked their luggage, somebody rang their doorbell

Tony opened the door

"Dr Newman?"

Sharon left a better impression on Tony compared to Abigail After all, she did not look like the shameless type

"I would like to invite Mr Anderson to have a meal with me downstairs Is he free right now?"

Sharon spoke softly, politely, and modestly. She smiled at Tony and glanced at the man in the room

Chapter 360

Sharon had calmed down

"I came to make Sean fall for me. I shouldn't make him hate me just because I feel impatient That's exactly what Molly wants!' she thought to herself.

They had been unpacking since arriving at the hotel, so it was now past dinner time

'Sean will be receiving his medical treatment later How could he do it on an empty stomach Sharon wondered

She looked at Sean with suppressed excitement

*Thank you, but it's fine. I have Tony to order from room service. Dr. Newman, would you prefer having your meal here or in your room?" Sean looked at the person by the door with a firm gaze

He spoke courteously and politely

He then politely added, "If you plan on having it in your room, I'll have them send a meal to your room as well

The warm light shining onto his handsome face seemed cold

Sharon could not see a hint of emotion on his face. He seemed concerned, but he did not care about her

However, she still succumbed to his false kindness. She paused for a moment before moving her lips.

"How about your treatment? Don't you need to receive medical treatment every day?"

She wanted to be the one giving him medical treatment

"Ms. May will be treating me tonight."

Sharon felt her fingers grow cold, and her heart sank. She swallowed her pride and resisted the urge to return to her room.

Then, she smiled forcefully and said, "I can't possibly not do anything while I'm here. It would make me look useless. Since I also practice medicine, why don't I watch while Dr May gives Mr Anderson medical treatment tonight?"

Sharon quickly recomposed herself

"I'm very serious about my profession. Being able to learn and exchange knowledge with my peers would broaden my horizons in this field," she said earnestly,

Sharon continued standing by the door quietly since she did not get the owner's permission to enter, she did not take a single step forward

"At the very least, I won't return empty-handed," she added

Sean did not respond and looked at Sharon indifferently

Meanwhile, Tony looked at her with admiration

"Dr Newman must be a prideful and outstanding doctor when she isn't around the boss. It's a shame that he isn't interested in her, Tony thought

After all of them had their meals, it was time for Sean to receive medical treatment.

Despite Sharon's presence beside her today, Molly remained calm and took out her needles with steady hands

One of the basic requirements of the needle technique was to avoid impetuosity. One had to pay full attention while they were practicing the technique

Molly inserted the needles quickly, steadily, and accurately

Sharon widened her eyes and parted her lips in disbelief. Even her fingers were trembling slightly

When she saw that Molly was about to insert a needle into a risky area, she could not help but shout. Slow down! That's a very risky spot!"

"She's inserting the needles so quickly without taking any proper glances. Isn't she worried that she'll miss? 'Sharon wondered

Molly frowned. Even though she had been disturbed by Sharon's voice, her hand remained stable She continued inserting needles steadily

"Hey! Be careful! There's an important area right beside it!"

It did not take long before Sean's legs were covered in needles. The placement of some needles affected Sharon's perception of Sean's anatomy

Molly continued inserting needles speedily

"Gosh... This is so dangerous What if you miss? Mr Anderson would lose his legs!" Sharon exclaimed worriedly

The needle that she had just inserted was incredibly risky! Sean would've lost his legs if she missed even by a millimeter she thought

Molly stopped taking out new needles after inserting the last needle She shut her eyes and said in annoyance, "Can you shut up? Just because you can't do something, it doesn't mean that others can't. So. be quiet, won't you?"
