

Triplets on SM 361

Chapter 361

“Don’t you also know a thing or two about the needle technique? Would you be able to carry out the procedure if the environment around you was extremely noisy? Go study the basic requirements of practicing medicine if you don’t remember them! You’re a doctor yourself, so please respect the doctor practicing!” Molly said in a single breath

Then, she continued with the procedure.

Sharon felt displeased by Molly’s words. While seniority was very important in the medical field, the two of them were clearly peers.

However, Molly’s final sentence made Sharon put herself in Molly’s shoes in the end, she watched Molly in silence

The more Sharon watched, the more shocked she felt Even though Molly’s technique was dangerous, her hands were very steady

She had the skills of someone who had been practicing for years.

If I were Molly, I wouldn’t be able to perform the procedure as well as her, Sharon thought.

Since Sharon used to be the highly-acclaimed prodigy in her college, she was unable to accept the fact that she was faced with someone better than her She could not help but feel an uncontrollable sense of defeat

Sharon turned to look at Molly’s indifferent expression

‘If Molly went to the same college as me, she might have been the person recommended to Mrs Anderson instead. She isn’t below me In fact, she’s better, Sharon thought

Sharon subconsciously clenched her fists

By the time Molly was done with the treatment, Sharon’s shock had diminished slightly However, some of her shocks still remained

“Ms. May. I’ve never seen or heard of this treatment method of yours. Moreover, it’s unscientific

Sharon did not want to admit that she was not as good as Molly

“I truly hope that you can cure Mr. Anderson. Otherwise, you’re ruining his body.” she added. Molly glanced at her and coldly said. “Thanks for the warning. But I’ll take responsibility of anything happens to him.”

Molly did not pay any mind to Sharon’s words, so her response sounded like she was brushing her off After all, she had just finished giving Sean medical treatment, so she felt a little tired.

Sharon’s expression instantly distorted She did not know how to counter her response. In the end, she gave Molly an unreadable look before leaving

“Go take a bath. You should sleep early Molly advised Sean without lifting her head

At the same time, she packed her things

Sean asked her, "How do you intend to take responsibility if you can't cure me?"

"What?" Molly thought.

Molly was stunned. She stopped packing and turned to look at him

"I was joking." she said with a smile.

Sean tapped the table with a half-smile.

"Dr. May, that's very irresponsible of you." Molly suddenly felt speechless

"Well, how would you want me to take responsibility?"

Sean did not respond. He stared at her intensely as if he was hinting at her

For some reason, Molly felt something in the air "By getting married?" she blurted,

"Have I gone mad? I've been watching too much TV. Why did I say that?" she wondered

Molly swallowed and continued packing

"Hurry up and go take a bath. I'll be leaving now"

Sean stared at her retreating figure and smiled slightly. Then, he sighed gloomily

"When is she going to realize? he wondered

After Molly took a shower, she sat on her bed and called her children

"Have the three of you been good?"

"Mommy! Yes, we have!" Ben was practically sticking his face onto the phone screen

After Alex pulled him away by the collar, only then did three little heads appear on the screen of her phone,

"Don't worry. Mommy. Ms. Jones has completed the treatment for Uncle Brycen and Uncle Sawyer," Alex said with a smile

"Mommy shouldn't be distracted by other things. She should focus on getting along with daddy!" he thought

Chapter 362

The bed in Molly's room was huge. Seeing her children's faces while sitting on the incredibly soft mattress made her feel at ease.

"Good. That's good," Molly said "Mommy, I miss you." Claudia said. Sure enough, she added, "How's Mr. Anderson?"

Molly knew that her daughter liked good-looking people.

She pretended to be angry and glanced at her daughter. "Hmph! How would I know? For all we know, he could be asleep right now. Yet, you're here thinking about him!"

"Mommy is jealousy they thought Her three children were humored by her

They consoled her. "We love you the most, mommy!"

*That's more like it."

After talking for a bit more, they hung up The following morning, they had breakfast at a restaurant After breakfast, Sean left to handle company matters. Meanwhile, Molly and Sharon made their own plans. Since Molly did not plan to go out, she returned to her room She enjoyed the long-lost feeling of doing absolutely nothing

On the other hand, Sharon went out in hopes of experiencing a foreign culture

When afternoon came, she did not return to the hotel but went to Sean's company branch.

Sean frowned at the woman by the door

"How stubborn It's a shame Sharon isn't using her grit on the Newman group instead, he thought

Once he was done with his work, he leaned back in his plush chair Then, he watched Sharon walk toward him

"Mr Anderson, let's have lunch together," she said enthusiastically

"I came all the way to the company. He wouldn't have the heart to reject me, right? Sharon wondered *Mm. It's fine," Sean said tactfully

However, it was still apparent that he was rejecting her

Sharon Swallowed her bitterness and looked at Sean

Moments later, she said, "I'll be taking my leave, then."

Then, Sharon left promptly She made it seem as though the person who was enthusiastically inviting Sean for lunch was not her.

Sharon was not angry However, she knew that staying any longer would only make Sean hate her. That said, all she could do for now was leave and not make him think of her as someone who was shameless and cheap

Sean ignored her departure He could only think of a special someone

He dialed her number and asked, "What are you having for lunch?" "Something from the room service menu

Til have Tony get you I'll take you out for lunch," Sean said,

Molly did not disagree

"Wherever I eat is the same anyway, she thought

“Sure.”

Half an hour later, Molly arrived at the restaurant. When she went in, she saw Sean sitting alone waiting for her

“Where’s Sharon?” Molly walked over and asked

“Why isn’t she here?”

Sean watched as she sat down with a perplexed expression

‘What does the two of us having a meal have to do with Sharon?’ he thought

Regardless, he answered her question

“I’m not sure She’s an adult, you don’t have to worry about her because she can handle herself.”

Tony felt speechless after he heard his response

Boss, you have double standards You weren’t like this before,” he thought

Sharon returned to the hotel. She stood in the elevator with a heavy heart

Sean has rejected all of my advances, he didn’t even give me a single chance Does he find me off putting?

“Aren’t the two of them not an item yet? Why is he acting this way?” she thought

Then, she walked out of the elevator in spirits. When she walked past Sean’s suite, she froze

She reached out to ring the doorbell. Then, she rang the doorbell a few more times, and she still did not get a response

“Molly isn’t in the room? Sharon could not help but frown

She must have gone to look for Sean,’ she thought again

Chapter 363

Sharon was starting to lose her patience while waiting for Molly in the hotel.

However, Molly had no idea about that she wanted to tell Tony to send her back to the hotel after having lunch with Sean, but she heard what Sean said as soon as she got into the car,

“Let’s go to the Universal Golf Club Molly was confused

“Why are we going there?” She could not help but ask

She heard about that golf club before. It was a place for the upper-class population to hang out, and a lot of people liked to meet their clients and talk business there

Sure enough, Sean said, ‘To see a client I told him to wait for me at the golf club

He looked at Molly's expression. He understood Molly so well that he knew what she was going to say just by taking a glance at her. He spoke before Molly could say anything "You're going to be bored at the hotel alone anyway just come with me and kill some time there."

Tony had already switched on the engine and started driving toward the Universal Golf Club when Sean was done talking. It was already too late for Molly to reject him and get off the car.

"It's not appropriate for me to be around if you're going to meet with a client, right? I'm only going to disturb you when you play golf with him too." Most importantly, she had no idea how to play golf. She would choose to sleep or binge-watch a drama at the hotel over this anytime.

The real boring thing to do is going to the club and golf when I don't even know to play golf at all.

Molly ranted to herself.

However, Sean insensitively said. "It's fine I've known this client for a very long time. I'm not going to play, but I'll let Tony play for me."

Molly did not continue talking and just sat there quietly after hearing what Sean said.

The three of them arrived at the Universal Golf Club about ten minutes later.

The Universal Golf Club was considered a premium place. Its architecture and landscape designs were very unique.

They changed their clothes after they arrived at the club. The client that Sean was about to meet was already there. He saw Sean from afar and approached them to greet him with a big smile on his face.

"Hey! Mr. Anderson. It's been so long I didn't expect that you'd be so early."

"Smith, long time no see," Sean responded with a smile.

Smith was a foreigner who grew up overseas. However, he could speak fluent Norlonian. His head of blonde hair was perfectly combed, and he was a very friendly and genuine person. Other than Sean, he also greeted Tony, who he had not met for a very long time.

Smith was surprised when his gaze fell on Molly.

"Mr. Anderson, is this your girlfriend? She's a gorgeous lady?" He praised Molly without holding back. "The ladies from the east are all so dainty, delicate, and classy!"

He was so friendly that Molly got a little shy after hearing what he said. She wanted to explain to him about her relationship with Sean, but she heard what Sean said.

"She's indeed gorgeous. Thank you for your compliment."

Molly blushed. She did not know what to say to Sean and Smith, so she just kept quiet. Just like what Sean said, Tony was the only person playing with Smith, and Sean did not join them.

It looked like Smith and Tony had played with each other a lot of times. The chemistry between them was so good that they played several strokes in just a few minutes.

"Ms. May, come join us," Smith asked Molly to join them while holding the club in his hand.

However, Molly shook her head and rejected him. "No, thanks. You guys go ahead. I don't know how to play golf"

Molly thought that she could find an excuse to sit somewhere to wait for them by saying that, but Smith unexpectedly said, "it's fine Mr Anderson is really good at this. You can ask him to teach you"

Chapter 364

Thank you, but that's not necessary.' She was not interested in doing that

Sean asked her enthusiastically before Molly could say those words to reject Smith, "Do you want to learn? I can teach you. It's very easy."

Molly was thinking of all the possible excuses to reject him, but Sean did not give her a chance to make that happen as he told somebody to get Molly a new golf club

Molly held the club in her hand. She had no choice but to go with them

Sean told Molly to follow him. He held her hands and started to teach her the proper ways to hold the club "Bend down a little

There was some physical contact between them when Sean was teaching Molly They got very close to each other when Sean was correcting her posture. Molly felt shy and she blushed

"Look forward,' Sean told her while standing at her side

Ready, swing!

The ball flew!

However, it did not fall on the spot she intended it to be

"That was bad." Molly was a little embarrassed.

"it's fine. Let's try again." Sean was not going to let Molly off by just hitting the ball once

He started teaching Molly again. He told her other postures that could utilize her strength better He would correct her mistakes whenever he noticed any

Half an hour later, Molly had already hit the ball more than ten times. She was starting to get used to it. and her posture did not look that awkward anymore

Smith was impressed, and he whistled after seeing how Molly hit the ball "Mr Anderson, you're a great coach Ms. May. you're very good and talented too! Keep it up

"Thank you," Molly responded with a smile She also started to enjoy playing golf after knowing how to hit the ball correctly. They spent the entire evening in the golf club, and they only left to get changed when the sun was setting "Let's go have dinner together. It's my treat tonight." Smith said while patting Sean's shoulder

"Okay."

Smith got someone to book a reservation. They went straight to the restaurant after leaving the golf club

They went to a western restaurant. Smith was very humorous and amusing at dinner, and everyone enjoyed their time very well

"Mr Anderson, here's to you" Smith poured everyone a glass of wine when they were talking. However, Sean replaced the wine with a glass of water in response to his kindness

"I'm not drinking tonight. I'm still recovering 111 just drink this water * Sean pointed at Molly, who was sitting beside him, and said to Smith, "She's watching me."

Smith burst out laughing after hearing that

"Mr Anderson, I didn't know that you'd be afraid of your girlfriend too."

Molly blushed after hearing what Smith said,

"Actually, she's a doctor. She's been treating me all this while, and she told me not to drink for now." Sean explained to Smith briefly

Smith looked very surprised, and he admired Molly very much. He gave Molly a thumbs up. "Ms. May. you're not only beautiful, but you're very impressive too. I guess this is why people say you can never judge a book by its cover."

Everyone enjoyed the dinner very much with Smith After dinner, Sean and Molly parted ways with Smith,

Sean was also already done with his work that day, and he went back to the hotel with Molly

Molly and Sean arrived at the hotel. They were not trying to hide anything on purpose Sharon tried to keep herself calm as she waited for their return to the hotel

She went out as soon as she heard a sound

Her face turned awful when she saw Molly. Sean, and Tony coming back together

"Why did you guys come back so late?" Sharon asked pretentiously

Chapter 365

However, Sharon could not stop looking at Molly She did not know if she was jealous or angry, but she just was not feeling so good. Yet, she did not dare to lash out because Sean was there

So, she asked, "Ms. May, where did you go? Why are you with Mr. Anderson?"

She wanted to know what they did together

"How could they go out together and leave me alone in the hotel?"

"We had something to do what's wrong? Can we help you?" Molly said flatly as if she could get what Sharon was trying to say

"It's nothing I was just a little worried about you. We're in a foreign country, and you didn't come back after going out alone for so long

"Foreign country? Alone?"

'Sharon was complaining that we went out and left her alone here, right?'

Molly understood Sharon's intention, but she did not bring it up After that, Sharon continued asking, "Dr. May, are we still going to continue the treatment tonight?"

Sharon changed the subject rather quickly. However, she was a very scheming person painfully obvious. Molly was not naive, and she could see right through her She nodded her head and said, "Yes"

However, Sharon said while smiling, "I'm Mr. Anderson's doctor too I can't just let you do everything without my help. Dr May, I know your needle technique is very good, but mine is not bad too. You can tell me where to place the needles, and I'll treat Mr Anderson tonight."

Molly paused when she heard what Sharon said. She only remembered that Sharon was Sean's doctor too after hearing what she said

So, she looked at Sean She wanted to know what were his thoughts about that.

It seemed like Sean could hear Molly's thoughts. He did not hold back at all.

Then, Molly heard Sean coldly say, "It's fine I don't want to joke around with my body You already said that placing the needles in the wrong place could be very dangerous, and you even asked Dr. May to teach you. That means that she's better than you

*This is your first time doing this. My body is going to pay the price if you made any mistakes. Dr Newman, I don't think you can afford to bear the consequences."

Sean was not trying to hide how much he did not trust Sharon

Not only that, but he even compared her to Molly and said that Molly was a better doctor than her

Sharon was so mad that her heart ached. She was also a graduate of a prestigious medical school, after

However, she understood that she could not be a part of anything, be it going out or the treatment

'Sean probably only brought me here because he wanted me to see how close they are, so I'd stop bothering him

'Good! Great!

Sharon was furious but she suppressed her anger anyway. Then, she said to Molly coldly. "Well, if that's the case, then I guess I can't help you tonight."

After Sharon said that, she went right back into her room and slammed the door shut

Molly looked at the door, then at Sean, the culprit who made everything happen

Sean shrugged his shoulders and went back to his room.

Molly sighed and followed Sean

Molly only asked Sean after going back to the suite

“It was your mom’s idea to tell Dr Newman to come here, right? She could see that from Sean’s attitude

That was also the reason why she could guess that Sharon was working for Alice Molly did not know what to say after remembering how unfriendly Sharon treated her previously

“Sharon is probably going to tell your mother about this, especially alter how you embarrassed her just now. Then, Mrs. Anderson, who is very righteous and treats her son like her treasure, is going to blame me for everything again

Chapter 366

Sigh This is getting so annoying

Molly had seen and experienced how Alice handled things more than once, and it was in Sean’s house every time

Of course, she was the best at pretending to be courteous and friendly while giving pap with a hatchet

Molly’s scalp tingled when she thought about how much trouble she was going to get into However, Sean did not know that was what Molly was thinking

Sean was shocked when he heard what Molly said He looked at Molly and asked, “Does that bother you a lot?

He was referring to what Alice did and what Sharon said.

Molly shook her head. “It’s not exactly that I just feel like I’m your doctor since I’m treating you now, and you would consider me your friend. Even though we spent a lot of time with each other, it has nothing to do with other people we didn’t do anything over the line as friends, yet your mom kept giving me problems.”

Molly threw Sean a glance “It was Abigail, and now Sharon Even a blind man could see what your mom is trying to do. She wants to find the perfect wife for you. I find it pretty bothering that your mom just wouldn’t stop testing me. Besides, your mom and Ms. Newman have some misunderstandings about me too. They just think that I want to marry_”

Molly paused and stopped talking after that.

However. Sean knew what Molly was going to say

He sighed to himself He actually hoped that Molly would have thoughts like that. That way, he would not have to be worried that he might scare her away or wait for her to come to a realization

He could not tell Molly that. He put himself in Molly’s shoes as he said apologetically

“I’m sorry for causing you trouble.” He smiled and made a promise to Molly “However, it won’t happen again I’ll be more mindful of this. As for my mom, I’m going to take care of her for you. She’s not going to give you any more problems.”

He was referring to Alice

That's more like it."

Molly nodded and put everything behind her as she prepared to go back to her room. Suddenly, something popped into her mind She stopped walking, turned around, and asked Sean

"Oh, yes. That client of yours, Smith Are you very good friends with him?"

"Yeah We worked together a few times, and things went pretty well."

The subject changed too abruptly Sean could not understand why Molly asked about Smith. "Why did you suddenly ask about him?"

After hearing Sean's response, Molly hesitated but told him anyway

"I feel like there's something wrong with his body I just don't feel right after looking at him today, but I couldn't find the appropriate time to tell him that You should advise him to go for a body checkup if you're close to him It'd be even better if it's a full body checkup.

Molly only paid attention and looked at Smith out of the habit of a medical practitioner

Alternative medicine relied on observing and listening to diagnose a patient. Molly could not be sure of what illness a person had just by looking at them, but she could definitely tell if a person was healthy or not Something was really wrong with Smith's body.

However, Molly thought that she was not very close with him, so she chose to keep quiet about it

It was just not right for her to tell Smith that he was sick since it was their first time meeting each other, after all, She thought that just anyone would be displeased after hearing that

She might even offend somebody!

"Okay. I'll let him know about it. Sean nodded

After that, they talked for a while Sean looked at his watch before he said to Molly, "I still have some work to do should go now."

'Sure I'll give you the treatment later'"

Chapter 367

Molly said before going back to her room

There was a floor-to-ceiling window in her room, and the night view looked the most stunning at that time

The night sky in deep blue looked mesmerizing. There was a meandering outside the window with a lot of local trees planted alongside it. The wind would blow the leaves onto the river. It felt wonderful, and it would remind one of what Oson looked like in the seventies

Everything looked like a beautiful scene from a movie

Molly looked at the scenery, but it reminded her of something else. Despite how beautiful the night view may look, it was just incomparable to the triplets on her mind.

Wherever the triplets might be, she would particularly miss that place more.

She looked at the time in Norion and immediately gave the triplets a call as she wanted to know what was happening back at home.

"Yeah, it's me."

"Mommy!" It was Claudia's voice. "Come over here! Mommy called!"

Molly heard the sound of slippers tapping on the floor as Alex and Ben shouted through the phone.

"Mommy!"

"Hey, how was your day?" Molly asked out of concern.

"It's good. We ate, slept, and studied on time! You can ask aunty Caitlyn about it if you don't believe us," Alex said.

"Yeah, we've been really good. Mommy, just spend more time with Uncle Sean. You don't have to worry about us!" Ben said with his mouth very close to the phone. He sounded so loud that Molly put the phone away from her ear subconsciously. However, she was still very happy.

"I'm glad to hear that. Oh, yes, I have something to ask you. How are your uncles doing? She took the chance and asked, "Can Caitlyn handle them?"

Even though Brycen and Sawyer were getting better, their injury was still considered severe. She would struggle a little to treat them alone, so she was worried that Caitlyn might be worn out after taking care of them.

Speak of the devil.

"Molly, when are you coming back? I miss you so much. I can't even eat and sleep well without you here!" Brycen squeezed between the triplets as he said through the phone.

The triplets looked at each other and smiled. They pushed Brycen away and exposed him. "Mommy! That's only because Aunty Cailyn isn't as gentle as you. Uncle Brycen would shout at the top of his lungs whenever she poked the needles on him.

That was why Brycen wanted her to come back so badly.

Molly understood what the triplets were trying to say; she could not help but lift the corners of her mouth.

It was true that Cailyn would not care about Brycen's feelings when she was treating him, so the pain he felt was simply inevitable.

Brycen looked guilty after the triplets exposed him as he said listlessly. "Molly, please come back as soon as possible. I'm scared that I might die if Caitlyn keeps treating me."

Molly could not stop laughing. She knew him very well. She figured that he was fine since he could still whine.

Molly ignored him and asked about Sawyer's progress.

The triplets said, "Uncle Sawyer is still the same. All he does is sleep and eat."

"Why does that sound so weird?" Molly thought to herself.

"But Uncle Sawyer taught us how to draw today!" The triplets requested a video call while they said that. Molly saw the triplets holding their drawings up on her screen. Each drawing has its own style and all of them looked very nice.

She praised them, "Not bad. They look good."

The triplets smiled. They saw that there was not anyone around Molly, so they asked, "Where's Uncle Sean?"

"He's working, of course. That's the reason why he's here," Molly responded,

Chapter 368

The triplets put on a disappointed look on their faces. "We thought we could talk to Uncle Sean."

Brycen could be seen smiling out of relief somewhere behind the triplets.

"That guy should work all the time! He should never have any free time!"

"He'd better stop bothering my sister!"

Molly opened her mouth, and she wanted to comfort the triplets. Suddenly, she paused as she heard somebody knocking on her door. "Molly"

The door was then opened, and Sean went inside.

"I thought you were busy." Molly was shocked by the man who came out of nowhere.

"I'm done with my work. I came to ask you something about the treatment." Sean went closer to her in his wheelchair.

He heard what the triplets said from outside, so he waved at Molly's phone and greeted the triplets very naturally.

The triplets heard a very familiar voice before they saw Sean, who appeared in front of the camera. They got excited as they loudly said, "Uncle Sean!"

"Are they really this happy?"

Molly thought to herself, but she gave her phone to Sean right away.

Sean took her phone before getting closer to the phone to look at the triplet's adorable faces. His gaze turned gentler as he said, "Yes, it's me."

The triplets warmed up to him very quickly, and they started chatting. Then, they said to him out of concern, "Uncle Sean, don't overwork yourself You should prioritize your health first.

"Yeah, Uncle Sean, you've been so busy You should take some time to rest!

"Uncle Sean, I miss you so much

"Yeah, me too. Also, please take care of our mommy for us." Alex said happily

Sean's eyes turned into two crescents as he nodded in response to what the triplets said

However, Brycen, who was behind the triplets, got crushed by the reality of the situation right after feeling lucky for less than a minute He wanted to squeeze himself into the front of the camera, so he could tell Sean to give up any ideas he had for Molly

However, the triplets were so excited that they would not move an inch in front of the camera. They left Brycen no space to do that at all

Besides, the triplets were never going to let things go Brycen's way anyway

'Uncle Brycen is so silly!

Molly's room was so lively that it made the room next to hers look so lonely

Sharon kept thinking about what happened in the afternoon. She just could not find a way to let things go. so she made the decision to give Alice a call

Alice picked up the phone very quickly Then, she asked Sharon in a very gentle tone. "Sharon, how are things going?"

Alice thought that there was no way that Sharon and Sean would not get closer since they were both Overseas and they were going to spend a lot of time together because Sean needed somebody to treat him

She was expecting some good news from Sharon, but then she heard what Sharon said. "I'm sorry. Mrs. Anderson"

Sharon said dejectedly, "I'm so useless I let you down. Besides, Dr. May alone is enough to treat Mr Sean I have no purpose here, and I should just resign."

Sharon sounded very polite, but Alice could hear how discontented she felt

Alice knew what happened, and she tried to hide how disappointed she was as she consoled Sharon 'It's fine What are you apologizing for? You did nothing wrong It takes time for two people to fall in love with each other. We still have a lot of time. Don't worry I'll be sure to talk to Sean about this

Sharon groaned in response She was clearly still unhappy, but Alice only hung up after she talked to her for a little longer

Alice took a deep breath, it was her first time feeling rattled by his stubborn son

"I thought that something would happen between them But, judging by how Sharon talked, I guess not only did nothing happen, but Sean even gave her the cold treatment

Alice got a headache from just thinking of that Sharon was such a good fit to be Sean's wife. She did not want to miss out on such a good candidate, so she called Sean immediately.

Chapter 369

Sean was just done video-calling the triplets.

His phone rang, and he looked at his phone before he said to Molly, who was still on the phone with her kids, "I'm going to the balcony to answer this."

Alice got straight to the point. She sounded a little stern as she asked, "What is wrong with you? I told Sharon to go with you so she could treat you, but you didn't give her any chance to even do that? What is she going to think of me now?"

"She's just a lady and she traveled so far for you, but what did you do in return? Do you think that she has nothing else to do? Sharon would probably think that I'm wasting her time for offering her such an unsavory job. Alice's tone was a little bad as she was very sulky,

Sharon was a family doctor hired by the Anderson family. Even though she had other intentions, Alice thought that it would not be appropriate for her to bring it up in front of Sean. She did not want Sean to reject her right away.

However, Sean did not want to play the guessing game with Alice at all. "Look, no matter what Sharon told you, I only did what I did to let her know that I'm not interested in her. What you did is really meaningless. I'm not going to like them no matter how many women you try to place around me. I'm not going to marry any of them,

"I don't need any of that right now, but you just wouldn't give up. So, I hope that you can understand my feelings."

Alice, who was on the other end of the phone, became silent for a while before she let out a long sigh. She earnestly said, "I just want the best for you. I only told Sharon to go with you because she could make you look better.

"How could Sean compare her to that person?"

Sean frowned slightly as he flatly said, "Is the Anderson family not good enough? I only came here because of work. The Anderson Cooperation can literally control everything in Northfolk, yet you're still not satisfied?"

'How greedy!'

The Anderson Cooperation could only be so powerful at Northfolk because of its competency, not its greed or ambition.

In contrast, the Anderson Cooperation had a lot of highly competitive rivals in other countries. The Anderson Cooperation was not going to grow steadily if it put interests before everything else!

The Anderson Cooperation could even fail miserably.

Besides, he was Sean Anderson. He did not need anyone to make him look better.

Sean continued, "I don't need anyone else to complement me

Sean would only feel exhausted whenever he talked about this to his family He would also be stumped because his parents just could not understand him.

Alice was not planning to give in as she unhappily said, 'Sean, you're too young

*No. you and dad are too old. Your mindset is outdated."

He hung up right after he said that

Alice and Sean got very upset with each other because of that. Sean knew that his mother's perception was very difficult to be altered, but he was not going to change his mind either

He calmed himself down for a while. Then, he recollected himself and went back inside.

"Was that your mom?' Molly asked directly. She knew that Sharon would complain about what happened to somebody sooner or later. As for Alice, she could not give Molly any problems because she was still out of the country.

So, she could only do that to her own son

Besides, he sat on the balcony for quite some time after hanging up the phone Molly knew that it was impossible that Sean would be this bothered because of work

Sean nodded and Molly stopped asking any further "Do you still need to work? I'll push you back to your room," Molly said

She stood up and pushed him back even though his room was just beside hers.

All Sean did for the next two days was work. He looked very, very busy

Sharon had stopped trying to get Sean's attention, and she also stopped caring about Molly In the afternoon, Sean had everything figured out, and he was ready to sign the contract with the other party

Chapter 370

Smith was rereading the contract when suddenly, his eyes went dark, and he fell to the ground

Everyone in the office was in a mess, which caught Sean off guard He calmed down quickly and shouted, "Quick, get him to a hospital"

Everyone did something right away and took Smith to the hospital. They were all worried because the man was very important, and they could not risk something going wrong

But Sean's strong sense of leadership got things back on track, and he went to the hospital with Smith

It took a while to figure out what was wrong with Smith The doctor had the report in his hands and said, This man has a tumor in his brain, and things are very dire for him. It's best if we perform the surgery right away"

The doctor suddenly put his hand down, and it shocked everyone.

"It's just that this operation is very risky and will have a very low chance of success... Our hospital's experts have gone abroad again for academic exchanges. It will take a while before they can come back."

Sean turned his head when he heard it and told Tony. "Go to the hotel and get Ms. May"

Sean did not think much because he knew he had a great doctor

"Right away. Boss." Tony hurried back to the hotel as fast as he could, but when the elevator door opened, he ran into Ms. Newman

Tony gave Ms. Newman a quick nod and quickly left the elevator

Sharon could not help but wonder, "Did Sean get hurt? Why did Tony have to go so fast?"

Sharon unknowingly followed Tony and asked, "Did something happen, Mr Hill?"

Tony did not talk to Sharon because he was too busy He tapped his card and walked into the room

Sharon was worried that something had happened to Sean, so she followed Tony into the room and heard him say. "The boss said it's an emergency I'm here to get you, Ms May"

"I'm going too!" When Sharon found out that Sean was really hurt, she could not help but be worried

Tony turned his head around and said, 'Ms. Sharon, my boss didn't ask for you.'

When Sean told Tony to come to pick her up, Molly knew immediately that it was an emergency

Without saying anything else. Molly did not care about what Sharon thought and just said, "Let's go"

The two people quickly left, leaving only Sharon there with an angry look on her face

Tony went to the hospital with Molly. She suddenly felt a little worried. Was Sean in an accident?

Molly was a little nervous. Even though her palms were sweaty, she kept her cool.

Even though she did not say anything, Molly kept walking behind Tony She did not feel better until she saw Sean sitting there. Then, she let out a sigh of relief

Sean briefly told Molly what had happened to Smith and asked, "Can you help him?"

"Not a problem." As a doctor, it was Molly's job to save lives, and there was no reason to hesitate right now

"Show us your ID We need to check it." The doctor at the hospital moved closer, stood in front of Molly. and asked her directly

They did not want to take the risk and let a stranger treat their patient in their hospital in case something went wrong

Molly understood what they wanted and did what they asked the process went pretty well, and in the end, it was clear that there was no problem. She exchanged a few words with the doctor about the patient's condition, then she changed her clothes and hurriedly entered the operating room

The light was turned on at the operating room's door, but it never went out Sean had waited outside the operating room and did not go back to the hotel that night

The red light did not go out until more than six hours after Molly went in

Sharon had been waiting in their suite because she wanted to wait for them to come back and ask more questions
