

Triplets on SM 371

Chapter 371

They all missed Sean's treatment time and have yet to return

Where did they go? Did they just treat me like I didn't matter? Sharon wondered

Molly was tired because she had just come out of the operating theater

Molly was right, just like she reminded Sean the other night. Smith's health was in a bad shape.

But luckily, the operation was a success, so it was not for nothing that it went on for so long Smith's assistant was also at the door waiting. He was worried when he saw Molly and asked, "Is he going to be okay?"

*The operation was a success. Mr. Smith will be okay Molly's mouth moved She was thirsty and had a dry throat Her voice was hoarse, and it was hard for her to talk

"Thank you so much!" The assistant was so happy that he could not help but cry and shout

Molly waved and was done talking

Sean saw that she was tired, so he came up to her and said, "Thank you for all your hard work."

"Let's go back early and rest. There will be other people at the hospital who will handle the follow-up" Sean said.

Molly nodded and did not refuse

Sean went back with Molly

Molly hurried to the hospital, where she quickly found out what was wrong with Smith, and then she went straight to the surgery She did not stop at all during the whole process

When Molly got into the car, she leaned on the back seat, closed her eyes, and rested She did not want to move

"I'm sorry I made you come here so quickly and asked you to help

Sean could tell that she was tired judging by the look in her eyes, and it pained him to see her like that Sean saw that her lips were dry, then he gave her a water bottle and said, "Drink this."

Molly accepted the water. She quickly drank half a bottle and sighed like a fish without water

"Don't say that unless you only think of me as your friend. I'm glad to be able to help you, too."

As Molly was talking, she was suddenly surrounded by a hot embrace. In the next second, a big hand covered her head. She gently leaned on Sean's body

Sean's body got a little warmer, and Molly could hear his strong heartbeat

Ba-Dump, Ba-Dump..

Molly heard a drum-like sound hitting her heart. Molly's face turned red when she smelled Sean's woody sceni, and she felt a little shy But his hug was so warm that she could not escape it

"If you're tired, you can lean on me and rest for a while

Molly did not move at all and just said, "Okay."

Molly then shut her eyes

This time, Molly did not know how long she had slept. When the car got to the hotel, she was still asleep.

Sean gave up on waking Molly when he saw that she was sound asleep

Tony was the first to get out of the car and return to the hotel Sean and Molly were the only ones still in the car

Sean did not move after he changed his position so that Molly would feel more comfortable

Molly had no idea that more than two hours had passed since she slept

Molly suddenly woke up and saw that she was still in the car She looked up feeling a little bewildered, and she saw Sean's face.

Molly then remembered what had happened all of a sudden

"I have slept for so long. Why didn't you wake me up? Molly asked.

"Seeing that you were asleep, I didn't dare to disrupt your sleep." Sean said. He moved the shoulder Molly was leaning on, then he strangely stopped

Chapter 372

Sean did not say it But, Molly, who was a doctor, saw right through him. She could not help but laugh. Am I the reason your shoulder is numb?

Molly's voice sounded a little embarrassed.

"Yeah' Sean nodded

Molly touched her nose and said, "Okay, let me give you a massage

Sean did not move, and Molly helped him soothe his numb arm. He can feel the soft touch of her fingers on his arm

"Are you feeling better?" After massaging Sean for a while, Molly asked

"Much better."

"That's great. Was Mr Hill the first to go back? So, let's also go back" Molly let go of Sean's arm and got out of the car.

It was already late at night when they got back to the hotel

Sean called room service and asked for some food to be delivered. It was intended for Molly

Molly took him up on his offer and sat down to eat after she had washed and changed

Suddenly, there was a knock on the door

Tony went to get the door and saw Sharon looking upset. Before Tony could cut her off, she had already begun speaking

"I want to see Mr Anderson, I want to talk to him about something."

"Let her in." The voice of Sean came from inside

Tony no longer stopped Sharon. He moved out of the way to let Sharon in

Sharon came to see Sean feeling angry As soon as Sharon walked in, she saw Molly eating alone with Sean sitting beside her harmoniously and unusually Sharon's feelings of resentment quickly turned into anger. She never thought the two of them would have a relationship like this.

"What are you trying to accomplish, Mr Anderson?" Sharon could not help but ask Sean about it because the two of them being so close in silence made her angry

"You should have known what was Mrs. Anderson's intention by now. If you really don't like me at all, you should have just told me straight. I won't be a bother to you or even travel here with you," said Sharon

As Sharon talked, she looked over at Molly sitting next to Sean

*You brought me here, but then you just left me. You dont even like or care about me Don't you think that it was too much? Sharon stuck her head up and acted proudly Her eyes were red

'If I hadn't known about their relationship sooner, I would have thought that Sean was a heartless man who likes to mess with people's feelings. What a letdown'

Molly did not know what Sharon was trying to say, but she did not want to eat after she was upset by

Sharon She just put her fork and knife down and looked at Sharon

Sean was not impressed by what Sharon said.

When Sharon asked Sean a question, he looked cold and uninterested and his voice was also indifferent

"Ms Newman, I thought I told you right from the start Who was the one who always wanted to test my limits and pound on them?"

it did not matter to Sean if Sharon was embarrassed

Respect had to be earned, not given

"I agreed to let you follow me this time because I want you to back off despite the difficulties. It looks like you've had enough. If that's true, you can go home, and you don't have to stay here any longer *111 have someone arrange your transportation and airfare."

Sharon gasped. She did not expect Sean to say and do things so openly She tightened the grip on her hand, gritted her teeth, and finally stormed out of the room

Chapter 373

The room went silent all of a sudden

Sean did not look or sound upset as he said, "Go ahead and finish your meal."

Then, Molly turned away. She had lost her appetite, so all she did was pick up a piece of meat and put it back down with some doubt in her heart, she asked, "Aren't you afraid that she will leave?"

Molly was referring to Sharon because Molly knew that Mrs Anderson had Sharon's back. This was the same as hitting Alice in the face.

"Let her go, then." Sean just said it. Even if he hurt his mother's feelings, he did not care

Sean stared at Molly for a few seconds, then looked away and said, "Tony, keep an eye on Mrs. Newman If she is really leaving safely take her to the airport."

If anything bad happened to Sharon, the blame would be all on me I don't want to get blamed for that Sean thought

Tony knew right away what Sean meant. He turned around, walked out the door, and went to make some arrangements

Sean's quick action made Molly's heart skip a beat, and she could not help but look at Sean

It's no wonder he was so fierce and determined' Molly thought

But Molly still thought that this was a great thing in her heart At least he was not careless about this, and he did a great job with it. Some men like it when women hang out with them and don't say much. They saw this as a sign of superiority

Molly was in a better mood now and could enjoy her meal to the fullest,

Molly said, "Alright, it's time for your treatment."

"I'm worried that your body won't be able to handle it," Sean said with a serious face

"It's fine. I'm not that weak," Molly said She was about to stand up, but Sean grabbed her and pulled her to sit next to him

Molly was not sure what was going on

Sean grimaced and said, "Skipping a day of treatment wouldn't hurt I'm doing very well now if anything goes wrong. I'll train harder in the future to make up for it."

Sean's words were honest. He was worried as he looked at the pretty face in front of him

'I don't want to see you working too hard. Didn't you stop for one day back then? I'm still fine, and nothing bad happened. Sean's voice got softer, but he still held Molly's hand. It felt like a soft cotton ball and would get squashed if he grabbed it too hard

Sean was willing to be patient to protect Molly

Molly forgot to pull away for a moment, so Sean could hold her She did not see anything wrong with how they got along, and it seemed like it just happened that way.

Molly's eyes slowly lost their confused look as she quietly listened to Sean's words Sean's care and kindness made it impossible for her to say no, and a warm current flowed into her heart

On the other hand, Molly hoped that Sean could recover quickly and return to normal

So, Molly lowered her head and got lost in thought

Sean did not do anything and just waited for an answer. He did not notice Molly's uncertain look until some time had passed "You're worried about how I can get better, and I'm worried about how you're doing. If you get sick again, won't you miss my treatment?"

"So just do as I say, okay?"

Sean's voice was very sweet like he was trying to coax a child. His eyes were full of love, and it was clear that he was serious and sincere.

Molly could not help but feel like she was playing a happy rhapsody when she looked at Sean's gentle face The way Sean's eyes sparkled seemed to have some kind of attraction

It made Molly feel like she had fallen deeply in love with Sean

Chapter 374

Molly almost could not get away from Sean's care it was like a stone that went straight to the bottom of the river

Molly eventually gave in

*Alright, just one night," Molly said

The best way for the two to get along was for them to understand and accept each other

"Good You're such a good girl' Sean smiled and let go of Molly's hand only after that

Because of recent events, they have been tossed around for a long time. They just sat there quietly, enjoying each other's company They returned to their rooms after a while to shower and go to bed early

The next morning

Molly ate breakfast with Sean as usual "This is delicious," she said, pointing to the food on the plate

Sean turned his head and gave it a quick look He saw that it was one of his favorite foods and agreed, "I was thinking the same thing it tastes like very good ingredients were used to make it."

Both of them were very picky about what they ate Molly was especially picky because she knew how to cook On the other hand, Sean was a noble, so it was natural that he had a high need for food and clothes

Sean still had something to say, but the sound of the door being pushed open stopped him. "Boss." someone said with worry "Ms Newman went back to Norlon last night."

Tony could see that his boss did not say much. He also noticed that they were still eating breakfast, so he left after speaking

Molly looked over at Tony, who was in a rush, but she did not say much and kept eating

"It looks like his plan to make the person leave worked if that were to happen to me. I wouldn't be able to stay either. Molly thought.

Molly finished her meal, wiped her lips with a wet towel, and asked, "Are you going out today?"

"I originally came here for a business meeting with Smith Since he's not feeling well enough to go to the meeting. I'll just take care of some business' Sean answered, and then he asked, "And you?"

"I'm going to the hospital to find out how Smith is doing

When Sean heard that, he said, "Okay, let me give you a ride."

After that, Molly went out with him. When they got to the hospital, they said goodbye to each other She walked toward the hospital as she remembered the way from yesterday

Molly walked down the hall until she got to the front of the ward, which was not too far away. She saw Smith's assistant with a beautiful, attractive woman next to him

When Smith's assistant saw Molly, she smiled and said, "Ms. May, you're here

Molly nodded

When the woman heard it, she looked in the direction of the assistant calling and gave Molly a big, grateful smile

"Hi, my name is Tina, and I'm Smith's fiancée

Tina was blonde and had blue eyes. She had a friendly smile. She, like Smith, spoke Norlonian well and seemed to get along well with everyone

"I'm very grateful to you, Ms. May, and so is Mr. Anderson! Thanks for saving Smith Tina's eyes showed that she was truly thankful She and Smith had been together for a while, so she knew that Sean and Smith got along well Smith's assistant also filled her in on everything. In the end, Molly's actions made her fiancée's operation a success

Molly shook her head and gave Tina a friendly smile "It's no big deal. I'm a doctor, and it's my job to save lives and help the injured"

I have to say, Smith's fiancée is beautiful Molly thought However, unlike Kathleen. Tina's flamboyant and glamorous look is calm, and it's clear that she comes from the upper class

Molly talked with Tina for a while and then went to find out how Smith was doing

"Mr Smith is doing well, and there are no side effects," the doctor told Molly

Molly nodded and said, "That's good, but these two days are still critical, so you need to be careful."

Chapter 375

"Well, 1911 watch over him like a hawk for sure. When the doctor answered, he looked a little skeptical

"What's the matter?' Molly questioned.

The doctor gave Molly a quick look He breathed and said, "I wonder if Ms May has some extra time The hospital wants to offer you a position, and any conditions can be sorted out."

They had seen Molly's great medical skills and how she handled things like a pro yesterday

The hospital did not have a doctor who could perform that kind of surgery, but Molly was able to work around that and save the patient

"I appreciate your offer, but I can't take it." Molly said in a light, euphemistic way. After that, she did not say anything else

All morning, Sean had been busy After he looked at the time, he called Molly

"How is Smith doing?"

"He's alright. While she was leaving the hospital to go back to the hotel, Molly said that

*Then, I'll come to get you for lunch," she said. When Molly heard the other person's voice, she could not help but smile as if the sun was shining on her

"Okay, ill wait outside the hospital for you."

Sean brought Molly to a restaurant When she praised the hotel's food in the morning, he thought of a nearby restaurant that would suit her taste

But, when Tony came in, Sean did not say anything

Local specialties were served at that restaurant All the dishes were delicious, and the restaurant focused highly on taste matching

"After lunch, I'll take you for a walk * After ordering the food, Sean said to Molly, sitting across from him

Sean had been too busy with work to spend time with Molly. He was leaving Molly at the hotel or making his own plans

Sean felt terrible about it, no matter what he thought

"Sure"

Molly was a little surprised. She knew Sean had a lot going on, and Sean did not have much free time, so she said yes right away

They had a very nice and relaxing lunch Sean took Molly to a park in the afternoon, and Molly saw a lot of pigeons there. The little white birds were adorable

Molly could not help but walk toward the pigeons, so she bought a bag of birdseed from one of the people selling it to feed the pigeons in the park.

Molly opened it and took some of the seeds out She then walked over to the pigeons, got down on her knees, and gave them the food She looked at the little white pigeon, which stretched its neck and pecked once

Over time. more and more pigeons came to Molly to get food.

Molly fed the birds generously and smiled happily She was as happy as spring birds.

Sean saw the scene with the pretty girl and the white pigeons from not too far away,

Sean's eyes were soft and kind. He did not know that his charm made people often look back at him

Tony stood next to him and thought that the view in front of him was beautiful. He took a picture because They looked like the perfect couple

Sean felt a vibration in his pocket. He pulled out his phone and took a quick look at it. It was a picture of them both

Sean looked at it briefly and then put his phone back into his pocket. He smiled and looked at Tony as if he was in a good mood

Tony noticed Sean's praise from his gaze, and Sean even gave Tony a hint that Tony would get a raise!

Tony could not help but cheer and kept taking pictures on the side

Molly went back to Sean and walked around the street after she was done feeding the pigeons

It was already autumn here. When the wind blew, the leaves on both sides of the road that had turned yellow fell one after the other The leaves that fell made a golden sea on the floor

A leaf landed on Sean's shoulder When Molly saw it, she instinctively bent down and reached her hand out to help him remove it!

Chapter 376

Sean just happened to turn and look at Molly As soon as they looked at each other, the breeze started blowing again, and the leaves fell at their feet

The two looked like they were getting drenched in golden rain, and it was very romantic

Molly did not understand why this man made her heart beat so fast, even now

Molly might have been too taken in by the man in front of her He had a soft face and wore a suit that fit him well. Even when he was in a wheelchair, he was still handsome

Molly had a vague idea that the sensation in her heart might be caused by some physical changes. She always thought that it was strange because she had never experienced it before

Molly did not stop for long before taking the leaf off Sean's shoulder. She let the wind carry the leaf away

Now, Molly finally knew what she was running away from and was too afraid to face

But Molly planned to let things happen as they would she would know when it was time to make a decision

The sky was getting darker, and the air suddenly felt colder

Molly was worried about Sean, so she told him, "Let's go home It's getting late

Sean said, "Okay

The three figures quickly disappeared from the street. Not long after they left, a man in black came out from the shadows of the street

He had a phone in his hand and was talking about Molly and the others

He had been staring at Sean and Molly for a while.

Where did they go for lunch, what park did they go to in the afternoon, and what street were they on before they left? All of these were reported over the phone

After the man in black told everything over the phone, all he heard from the phone was a single word

"Okay It was the lovely, sweet voice of a woman.

It was Abigail's voice, to be exact

The man in a suit on the street was sent to follow Molly by Abigail from Norlon

Abigail had been keeping an eye on Sharon and Molly in secret ever since she knew about Alice's plans She also knew that they were going abroad this time

Abigail also wanted to see Molly and Sharon fight and tear each other apart because she was angry at them

Even better would be if Molly and Sharon's fussing could make Sean stop talking to them.

'I didn't expect Sharon to be such a letdown and a waste of time. She couldn't even make a fuss, and because of Molly, she left for the night! Sharon thought

Abigail was holding the phone tight Her eyes were full of disgust. She squinted and looked out the window into the distance A cold smile slowly crept out from the corner of her mouth

"No one would think that it was my fault if something bad happened to Molly over there. Abigail thought

Abigail's smile grew over time. Her lips moved slightly as she spoke to the man in black on the other end of the phone Her face showed a little bit of anticipation

Tony, Sean, and Molly were in the car, but they were not at the hotel yet.

Molly did not know if it was the wind or something else. She could not stop shaking when she felt the cold wind

“What’s going on? Molly was right next to Sean He saw it right away and asked

Sean asked, ‘Are you cold?’

Molly tucked her arm into Sean’s She rubbed it back and forth, shook her head, and said, “It’s nothing ! don’t know why I shivered all of a sudden.”

Molly did not know how to explain it, but her back felt cold for no reason

Sean took off his coat and put it on Molly’s shoulder “Be careful not to catch a cold,” he said

“I will,” Molly replied

After a while, they reached the hotel

Chapter 377

The hotel’s waiter brought their dinner to their room. After Molly and Sean ate dinner, she gave Sean his usual treatment. When it was done, she went back to her room.

The following two days were still crucial for Smith

Molly went to the hospital daily to check Smith’s condition, and Sean always went with her

It had been three days since then,

Molly went to the hospital anyway “Smith’s condition would be completely stable if nothing else went wrong after this. When Molly was going out with Sean, she told him that.

“Something is going on at the company today I need to be there first, and I’ll catch up with you later if I can’t make it, let me know when you’re ready to leave. I’ll pick you up when it’s about time.” Sean said to Molly

When she got to the hospital, Molly gave Smith a regular checkup and saw that his recovery was going well. Even though Smith had not woken up, things were going in the right direction

“Smith is just fine He won’t wake up so soon because he just had surgery on his brain Sull, this is good for his recovery Molly informed Tina what had happened

Molly and Tina had been in touch over the past few days. They got along well, and after a few chats, they became friends. They had also added each other to their contacts

“Molly, thank you so much. I wouldn’t know what to do if it weren’t for you.” Tina thanked Molly yet again

“That’s what friends are for Now, I need to get back to the hotel. You can call me anytime if you need anything.” Molly told Tina and smiled at her

“Then, I’ll have someone to send you back,” Tina said

“It’s okay Mr. Anderson will pick me up soon.” Molly said while showing Tina the screen on her phone On the screen, Sean’s text messages were shown Sean responded, (OTW

Tina smiled when she saw the message as though she knew what was going on She said nothing about giving Molly a ride She told Molly, "Alright, then, be careful on your way back

Molly said goodbye to Tina and waited in front of the hospital

When Molly left the hospital, she had no idea that some people would go after her

After about ten minutes, Sean's car still did not show up. A few strange foreigners walked up to Molly out of nowhere All of them were big, tall men who did not look friendly.

Molly did not know them, so she wanted to avoid them But, when she moved, they saw it and went right up to her

"Hey, Missy, are you all by yourself? Why don't you come hang out with us? One of the foreign men spoke to Molly in a non-standard Norlonian

"No, I'm waiting for someone else. Molly refused right away

But those big men clearly came for Molly When they heard that Molly did not want to go, they started to do something

"That wasn't an invitation," said the foreigner

Molly was grabbed and pulled away by the two closest to her

Molly wanted to fight back but was too short, and she had short arms and legs to stand up to a group of foreigners that were nearly two meters tall She was not strong enough to beat them, and there were many of them

"Let go of mel this is kidnapping and it's against the law!" Molly was scared because she had never seen anything like this before

But those people just pulled her away as if they had not heard Molly's warning,

>Chapter 378

"Help, help!" Molly wanted to ask the people walking by for help. But the big man who grabbed her right away put his hand over her mouth and gave the people who looked at them a mean look

The people walking by were scared

Those who saw Molly being taken away did not try to stop it and even tried to avoid the people doing it

Molly started screaming as soon as she saw what was happening

But they were determined to take Molly No matter how hard she tried, there was nothing she could do in the end, they dragged her away and put her in a truck

Shortly after Molly was taken away. Sean's car pulled over at the hospital. He looked for Molly near the front of the hospital, but he could not find her

Sean thought that Molly was probably still not out yet, so he called her

Next to Sean, Molly's phone rang out of the blue

"Tony' Sean simply called Tony, and he went down to check Soon, he found Molly's phone close to where their car was parked

Tony was taken aback. Why is Ms May's phone here? Where is she?

"Go around and ask' Sean pursed his lips a little. He noticed that something must have happened, T'll go do that right away." Tony also figured it out and asked the people nearby immediately

Molly was a Norlonian and stood out in a crowd of Osonians because she was easy to spot Tony asked a few people and soon found out what had happened to Molly

Tony soon came back to tell Sean what had happened

"Boss, something happened. People in the area said that some rough-looking locals took Ms. May away a few minutes ago."

The look on Sean's face changed right away

"Go! Find her! Look everywhere and bring her back!"

Tony did not dare be careless, so he made some calls immediately "I have spent almost every day with Boss. I could tell that he cared about Ms. May. If I couldn't find her, he would get mad, Tony thought

Sean's heart was a little on edge

'Who took her away? Was it my enemies? Damn it! If only I had come sooner, none of this would have happened. Sean thought.

Sean slapped his leg in anger. It was the first time he had been so mad that he could not get up and look for Molly himself

Molly was frightened after being forcibly taken away She took a deep breath, stayed calm, and began thinking about what was happening

"I don't know any of these people, and I don't have a grudge against anyone. I have angered many people in the past when I decided not to treat the wealthy despite my considerable medical expertise.

Even though these people did not know that Molly was Dr. Joye, she still had no idea who would do this to her

Molly's thoughts were all over the place. She did not know what these people would do to her, but she felt that it would not be good

At that moment, Molly had no idea that these people were all following Abigail's orders

Abigail wanted to ruin Molly!

The easiest way to destroy a woman was to break her innocence

Abigail did not like it when Molly took Sean away from her So, if someone did something terrible to Molly and she was no longer innocent, a powerful man like Sean would never want her again

Molly was surrounded by several men, and she could not escape by jumping out of the car, which was also a bad idea

After a while, Molly lost track of how long the truck had been moving

Chapter 379

The van stopped moving when I got to its destination. Molly was being pulled out of the truck and shoved into an apartment.

The place was a mess, and dust was all over the place. Molly was thrown on the broken bed in the room. There was no other furniture in sight.

“She is beautiful. Today’s going to be fun,” one of the men said.

That was what the man said in English. Molly understood what he meant, and she was terrified.

They are going to do something horrible to me! Molly thought.

Several men with mean-looking smiles were getting ready to approach Molly.

Molly quickly looked around for a way to get out. The only doorway was blocked by a group of men, so the only other option was a nearby window.

Molly thought, “If I jump out the window. I might be able to get away.”

Molly looked at the men very closely as she got ready. After they got close to her, Molly slammed into the window’s direction, getting ready to run away.

But those men seemed to have expected it. They moved whenever Molly moved.

These men were all tall and big. They did not need more than two steps to grab Molly’s clothes. Her clothes were ripped, but her skin did not show too much.

Somehow, the sound of ripping seemed to bother them. The man who grabbed Molly threw her hard, and Molly landed back on the old bed.

“Don’t try to run away, if you don’t want to die. If you behave well, we’ll let you go when we’re done playing with you,” the man said.

They jumped on Molly while they were talking. She was being held down hard, and she fought with all of her strength.

“Get off of me! Stop touching me! Don’t come near me!” Molly called out.

Molly kicked the hand that was trying to touch her. But, the men in front of her were stronger, and there were more of them. Molly was on the verge of despair.

Molly kept picturing Sean in her head.

“Will he find out that I’m missing? Will he try to find me? Will he come to save me?”

Bang!

The apartment door was suddenly kicked open from the outside.

Molly felt she was doomed until a couple of men in black suits rushed in and dragged away the men around her.

Molly saw Tony walk in with black-suited bodyguards. She bit her lip to keep her emotions under control,

Tony did not have time to look after Molly. He went after Molly’s kidnappers with a few bodyguards.

‘You have your order No one is leaving this apartment. The black bodyguards moved last, and Tony did not show any mercy The big man tried to fight back and run away, but Tony hit him in the face and knocked out his teeth

These big guys were just unemployed thugs. They were different from Tony and the experts he brought along the big men were quickly thrown to the ground

At this time, Sean came with his bodyguard. As soon as Molly saw him, she could no longer calm herself

*Sean!’ Molly ran toward Sean with her eyes getting red

Sean hugged Molly, and he knew right away what had happened. He wrapped his clothes around Molly. gave her a soft hug, and told her, ‘Don’t worry, everything will be fine I’m right here You don’t have to be afraid.’

When Sean saw Molly, his heart began to shake He could not imagine what would have happened to Molly if he did not come sooner

Chapter 380

Molly might have been traumatized for the rest of her life by what happened

‘Don’t worry Everything is fine now.’ Sean spoke softly to Molly to comfort her. He was so mad that he could not even move. If he did not have these crippled legs, he might have been able to find her sooner. so she would not have to go through these traumatic events

The fear in Molly’s heart was growing. She did not dare to run away like she did before. Her whole body was paralyzed in Sean’s arms, and she cried silently

*I thought my life was over ” At that time, she could only think about Sean She almost saw how dark her future could be

‘I was lucky that Sean saved me ‘Molly thought

Molly could not stop shaking, and she had to use all her strength to hold Sean’s hand

‘It’s all my fault. I apologize. I was late, but everything is fine now. Are you in any pain? Should I go to the hospital with you?’ Sean asked

Molly shook her head, and her tears fell onto Sean’s body

Sean did not want to force her either. When he looked at the few men on the ground, his eyes were as cold as ice

“Tony, stay and take care of them,” Sean instructed

Tony understood when he saw his boss leave with Molly

These men will have to answer for what they did. They only have themselves to blame for making enemies with the wrong people. The boss cares a lot about Ms May, so he didn't kill them all by himself. Tony thought

Sean walked Molly to his car, and after she got in, she slowly calmed down. Her clothes were almost torn, and Sean's coat was the only thing she had to cover herself

“What happened to your hand?” Sean's eyes were sharp enough to see the bruise on her hand,

Molly said, “I probably hit something.”

Molly was not able to remember anything. She could have hurt herself when she fell in the house or when she tried to get out.

Sean said to Molly, “First, let's get you to the hospital.” Then, he told the bodyguard who was driving to go back and go to the hospital ‘Just listen to me,’ Sean said as he looked at Molly, who wanted to say no. but he kept looking at her to make her feel better

Molly gave up and headed to the hospital with Sean

Sean was worried that Molly might have other body injuries, so he set up a general checkup for her. Luckily, she was just scared and had a few bruises. There were no other serious problems. The doctor gave her some medicine to help with the swelling and some pills to help her relax

Tina heard about what happened to Molly. Tina was a relatively influential figure in the area. Naturally, she was able to discover what had happened to Molly. She was also aware of the commotion Sean made when he was looking for Molly an hour ago

Tina had just sent someone out, and when she heard that Sean had taken Molly to the hospital, she went back to the hospital

“How's Ms. May doing? Those thugs are so bold! Tina growled. She never thought that some thugs would dare to cause trouble in her territory.

“Anderson, do you know where those men came from? What do they look like? I can send someone to check on them.” Tina thinks of Molly as a friend, so when she heard what happened, she was very upset.

A few days earlier, Molly had just saved Smith's life. Since this happened in their territory, they were responsible for it somehow

But Sean turned it down.

“That won't be necessary. Miss Tina, this is already being taken care of by my assistant. We appreciate your kindness. But too much happened today, and Molly got hurt, so I have to take her back and let her rest.

Tina did not know what to say. She looked at Sean and could only say, "Okay, take care of her. And, if you need any help, feel free to call me."

Sean nodded and left
