

Triplets on Secret Mission Chapter 9

Chapter 9

After Molly left, everyone in the room was not looking too good. Mr. and Mrs. May pulled a long face. None of them expected Grandpa Dave to do this! Especially Diana, who was furious about this. 'I've been sucking up to my adoptive parents with all I have for many years. Yet, all I got was two percent of the shares. But Molly actually got twenty percent from the old troll even when she did not do anything! 'Why?! 'Molly already had a bad reputation! 'Why did the old troll favor her so much?!' As for Adam, he did not expect things to escalate like this as well. The only reason he chose to marry Diana was that he knew that the May family liked her. Besides, she had some shares. But now, why would he marry Diana if Molly was the one who had that many shares? 'I should really reconsider this engagement now! 'On top of that, the current Molly was completely different from how she was before. She was a breathtaking beauty. 'Taking the shares into consideration, I can still consider reconciling with Molly!' Adam was extremely confident that he could win Molly over! ... After Molly left the May Residence, she did not think of this incident anymore. She stopped a cab by the road and rushed back to the hotel. It was rather late now. She was worried that her three children were starving in the hotel room, so she was rushing the driver throughout her journey back to the hotel. "Mister, please drive faster..." In the hotel—

The three little ones were already feasting in the restaurant on the first floor! Alex still kept his mom in mind, so he ordered some takeaway for Molly to eat when she got back. Then, the three of them held hands and got ready to go back up. Their endearing and delicate looks had gained a lot of attention as the people complimented them. "Such cuties... Are they triplets?" "They have the best genes! I want them!" "Dearies, what color do you want your burlap sacks to be?" "..."

The passersby who were attacked by their cuteness could not control their volume. The little ones were listening to everything they were saying. Ben smiled as he looked over when he heard them. He then reminded them cutely, "To all you beautiful missuses and misters, your thinking is really dangerous. The policemen would never allow you to do that, so please don't do the wrong thing!" He was talking as if it had already happened, so everyone was amused. "This cutie is too fun! Besides, he's beautiful. He'll be extremely handsome when he grows up." Ben wanted to chime in when Alex suddenly grabbed his hand and hid behind a pillar. Ben was confused.

"What's wrong, Alex?" Claudia was muddled when she walked over to them as she asked suspiciously, "Why are we hiding? Is there a bad guy around here?" Alex shook his head and pointed at the exit of the restaurant, saying, "No, look over there... That's the CEO of Anderson Corporation, the man that's probably our daddy!" The two other siblings looked toward where Alex was pointing and saw Sean! It was apparent that Sean had just finished his meal as he was leaving the restaurant. Tony was pushing him, and they were heading toward the elevator. Alex turned toward Claudia and said, "Claudia, it's your turn to shine!" Claudia was extremely excited as she was finally meeting her daddy! She puffed up her chest and responded, "No problem! Leave it to me!" She then followed Sean and Tony with her tiny legs. Ding- At that moment, the elevator doors opened. Tony was pushing Sean into the elevator. Sean asked coldly, "What did you find about that woman?" "The receptionist had already passed us her details. You will be able to see it once you go up!" Tony responded truthfully. He pressed the elevator button while he was speaking. The elevator doors were closing... "Wait up." Suddenly, a lovely voice rang outside of the elevator. Sean looked up and saw a little girl in a cute princess dress running toward the elevator. 'If she rushed in like that, she might be squashed by the elevator doors,' Sean thought. Out of reflex, he extended his arm to block the elevator doors. Fortunately, he managed to stop them, and the doors opened very quickly. In a short amount of time, the little girl hurried in and leaped to his legs as she hugged them, yelling, "Daddy! Why didn't you wait for me?"
