

Chapter 100

At eleven o'clock in the night, the Yin family's banquet ended perfectly. Leng Yijun sent Paige home. Alpha 1 had already left.

As she drove, she asked Paige, "Paige, can you tell me what level your husband, Joseph, is on the Outer Region battlefield? How strong is he?"

Paige's heart skipped a beat. She looked up at Leng Yijun and asked, "Yijun, why are you asking this?"

There was a trace of fear in Leng Yijun's gaze, and she said, "Alpha 1 who came to see you tonight was very strong. I felt that he is stronger than me, so I was curious to ask."

Paige knew that Leng Yijun had practiced martial arts before. But she promised Joseph that she would not tell anyone about his title of God of War on the Outer Region battlefield. Both of them would start over in Usmait, live a simple and peaceful life. Let the past be past, and they would start a new life.

So she thought for a moment and said calmly to Leng Yijun, "I'm sorry, Yijun. I don't know, and I won't ask him about those things. I don't care what he had done in the past, even if he was just a small soldier. In my heart, he only needs to stay by my side safely. I'm sorry, Yijun. I really don't know, and I won't ask him."

Leng Yijun was surprised. She turned her head to look at Paige and opened her mouth to say something.

But in the end, she didn't say it out. She continued to drive in silence. She didn't ask any more questions, and Paige was thinking about something as well. She didn't say anything else, but felt warm in her heart.

In the afternoon, she told Joseph that she was going to attend the Yin family's dinner party. She remembered that Joseph was reluctant to let her go at first, but in the end, she still went no matter what. But she didn't expect that Joseph would send Alpha 1 to protect her. She knew that her husband used to be the God of War, so he might have received some news in advance.

He might have known that something would happen to the Yin family tonight, but he did not insist for her to not go. Instead, he chose to protect her silently.

What Paige did not know was that her husband Joseph, had not only sent Alpha 1 to protect her. He had sent out all the personal guards he had. In the end, he had also personally killed all the assassins from the Outer Region who had sneaked into Usmait. To some extent, Joseph had chosen to take action because of Paige.

He killed three Gods of War from the Outer Region and dozens of top killers of the Semi God of War.

More than ten minutes later, the car stopped at Paige's home. As soon as the car stopped, Paige saw Joseph, who was waiting for her to come back home. When Joseph saw her, he smiled at her.

Paige got off the car and walked to Joseph. She walked up to Joseph and said apologetically, "Honey, I'm sorry. Are you waiting for me the whole night?"

Joseph smiled and said, "No. I came down after Chloe fell asleep. I just smoked a cigarette, then you are back. You must be tired. It's too late. Go back and have a rest." Paige nodded, she turned around and waved to Leng Yijun. Then she took the initiative to hold Joseph's arm. Half of her body was leaning on Joseph. Paige said sweetly, "Honey, I miss you." Joseph touched her head with a smile and said, "How long have you been separated from me? Did you miss me already? You said that on purpose, didn't you?"

She pouted cutely and said, "I really miss you. I'm sleepy. I want to hug you to sleep tonight." Joseph nodded with great satisfaction. "Well, I'll let you hug me." At this moment, in the heart of Joseph, she was just like a little girl. Chloe was his little daughter, while Paige was his elder daughter.

Paige was happy and acted like a spoiled child beside him. Maybe this was called love? They had been separated for such a short time, but she couldn't stop missing him. In front of outsiders, she had always been strong and elegant, but in front of Joseph, she was totally a little girl.

It was just like five years ago, when she just stepped into society from college in Oplen, she met Joseph, who had just graduated a year ago. For a moment, they seemed to have returned to that moment. Of course, they were not old yet.

Joseph and Paige walked upstairs holding hands.

At this moment, Leng Yijun, who was far away downstairs, also opened the car door and got out. Standing beside the car, she stared blankly at the backs of Paige and Joseph as they left. The scene of Paige and Joseph earlier had moved her heart. Looking at their sweet and happy status, Leng Yijun suddenly felt that it was how happiness should look like.

She remembered what Paige had said in the car. She did not care what level Joseph was in the Outer Region Battlefield. Even if he was just a small soldier, she did not care. What she cared about was that her husband, Joseph, could accompany her.

And Joseph, who had always confused her, was probably the same. He had a subordinate who was stronger than her, but he was willing to leave the military, come back to protect Paige, and accompany her to live a normal life. This moved her a lot.

After a while, the backs of Paige and Joseph disappeared in the sight of Leng Yijun. The lights upstairs were also out. It was late at night, but she was still standing there alone. At this moment, she suddenly felt a little lonely. She was stronger than Paige, but was she really strong? Was she really better than Paige? No matter how much money she earned, she was alone. She didn't want to fall in love before because she thought that no man was worthy of her. But at this moment, she was really envious of Paige.

At the same time, in the securely guarded Yin Chaoge's room in the Yin family's villa, she, who had been busy for a whole day, could finally rest. However, she could not fall asleep. She opened the window and looked at the starry sky outside alone.

Leng Yijun was lonely, and Yin Chaoge was even more lonely than Leng Yijun. She was too excellent that all the men around her did not dare to pursue her. Her talents were envied, or even frightened by those enemies of Frogua at Outer Region. Even tonight, when she just returned to Usmit, someone from the Outer Region sent someone to kill her. Many times, she did not even know if she had a future.

And tonight, she also saw that Alpha 1, who was sent by Paige's husband to protect her. She was also envious of her deep inside. At the same time, she had doubts about Paige, but she also envied that she had someone to protect her.

After Yin Chaoge left the laboratory in Smiyacia and returned to Usmit in Frogua, she wanted to meet two people. One of them was the mysterious lord of the Dragon Temple who had saved her on her way back, Frogua's top talent who was admired by Charles, who was the same age as her.

The second one was the man who established the Junlin Group before his college graduation, which rose in Usmit around seven years ago. Now, he was the founder of Junlin Group, which was stronger than the Yin family. The legendary man in Usmit should be about the same age as her.

But now, there was another one.

He was the mysterious husband that supported Paige. In Yin Chaoge's opinion, Paige was a little silly and sweet, and she was super beautiful. Yin Chaoge could tell that the girl was very kind with just a few words, but she was not too smart. She didn't even know her husband's identity even if her husband had subordinates who were strong enough to frighten Leng Yijun.

Therefore, that mysterious husband of Paige was the third person she wanted to meet. She wanted to meet these three men.

Chapter 101

At ten o'clock in the evening, all the guests went home and Yin Chaoge also went back to rest. However, only Shangguan Bo, the head of the Shangguan family, did not leave. He was reluctant to leave and he kept dragging Yin Zheng to chat with him. Yin Zheng was older than Shuangguan Bo and he was so tired at this moment. He kept yawning and mentioned Shangguan Bo to leave but instead he acted as if he didn't understand what Yin Zheng meant.

Half an hour later, Yin Zheng finally couldn't stand it anymore. He stared at Shangguan Bo with an extremely helpless and bitter face and said, "That's enough, you don't have to pretend to be kind and all. We are about to be buried under, but you keep reminding how close our relationship was? What's the point? Quick, just get to the point." Yin Zheng's expression darkened. He had met a ton of shameless people but he had never seen Shangguan Bo being so shameless. He was considered one of the big shots in Usmaït but why does he have to act so shamelessly?

Shangguan Bo laughed out loud. His eyes squinted as he looked at Yin Zheng and said, "Mr. Yin, what are you talking about? I don't understand? I just miss you. Hey, speaking about the past.

"Hurry up and say it! I have to go back to sleep! Do you want to say it or not? If you are not going to say it then I'll leave! You can stay as long as you want. Take whatever you like!" Yin Zheng's mouth twitched. He really wanted to pick up the teacup in front of him and hit Shangguan Bo's face with it. Up until now he still kept pretending.

"Don't be upset. I'll say it out. Well, I want to ask you, who are the two girls sitting in the corner today? Don't hide it from me. Your face is covered with cold sweat when you talk to them. One of them is called Leng Yijun. I know her. She is your subordinate. What about the other one? Who is she?" Shangguan Bo finally asked. He had been refusing to leave because he wanted to inquire about that matter.

Yin Zheng stared at Shangguan Bo with a faint smile. He took a deep breath and scoffed, "You want to investigate her? Is there anyone that the Shangguan family was not able to find out about? Why don't you do a background check on her, you will know who she is then."

Shangguan Bo's expression darkened, and he thought to himself, "This old man has no good intentions!" He was eager to slap that arrogant face of his.

Then Shangguan Bo said seriously, "Mr. Yin, do you know that the Yin family got lucky today? Don't tell me that you are unaware that the assassins had lured away Wang Tianhai, there were also two assassins equivalent to the level of God of War who had infiltrated Usmaït! They are dead now! And at the banquet, more than a dozen killers disappeared inexplicably! Don't tell me that these were all done by your people. Even if the entire Yin family were to fight, you all are still not qualified to do such a thing! It was that guy that did all this. And why did that guy do such a thing? I think that it was somehow related to the woman that appeared tonight."

After Shangguan Bo finished speaking, the smile on Yin Zheng's face disappeared instantly. He squinted at Shangguan Bo and thought to himself, "This old guy is really sharp and meticulous." He answered, "You are right, since you have figured it out then why are you asking me this?"

"Is it really that guy?" Shangguan Bo suddenly stood up with shock in his eyes.

Yin Zheng didn't dare to speculate about this matter. After all, if he troubles Paige then he might be killed. Moreover, these years, the Yin family and the Shangguan family had been very close partners. Thus he nodded and said, "Well, you should have heard that some time ago, in in the central region, there was a Hundred Cities Wedding held in Oplen! Shangguan Bo, I have given you the answer. You have to keep it a secret."

Shangguan Bo nodded gravely and then left. Shangguan Bo left in such a hurry that Yin Zheng, who was sitting on the chair, couldn't help but twitch his mouth. "Damn it! Before I told him this he was still being polite and all. Now after I have told him this, he just left in a hurry?"

Time goes by slowly. After the Yin family's banquet, Usmait returned to its usual. Every day, Paige was getting used to Usmait, the largest and most advanced city in Frogua. She chose not to drive but rather to take the subway, this way she could observe every little detail about the city. Every day, she went to an interview and after returning home she would start indulging herself with books. She read all kinds of books and sometimes she would watch some videos. This made Joseph stop bullying her as she seemed so serious when she was reading and she would always stay up late to study.

Joseph was speechless. There were times he had no other choice but to go to Chloe's room to sleep, this way he could also accompany his daughter. For half a month, she kept enriching herself with wisdom. She had made great progress, and Joseph could also feel it. During this time, Joseph was in charge of looking after Chloe. He played with Chloe and he had turned into a househusband. Meanwhile, Paige had traveled all across Usmait and Joseph had taken Chloe and played everything there was in Usmait. He had no other choice, it was not like he had to work or to earn money for the family.

Time continued to pass, and in the blink of an eye, another month had passed. Usmait was still as calmed as ever. The assassins from the Outer Region had lost three God of Wars and dozens of Semi God of War. Since then, they haven't sent anyone over again. Perhaps they hadn't given up but for the meantime they didn't send anyone over. And for the Shangguan family, the Yin family, Usmait's military and the Police Department, all of them had not heard from Joseph and they were all extremely tensed because of this .

With the help of Leng Yijun, Chaoge Technology finally began to operate. Although it had just been a month, the Yin family had invested a huge sum of money in it. Moreover, all the government officials had given them the approval and the Chaoge Technology has their full support.

The newly appointed president of the Junlin Group, whom the outside world had been looking forward to, had never shown up in public, which was a let down to everyone.

As for the Dawson family, after Lin Feiling died, they did not dare to send anyone over to pursue Joseph.

After living peacefully with Paige for a month, it seemed that he really turned a new leaf. During this time, Joseph became a full-time househusband. At home, he cooked for her every day, played with his daughter, and took care of his wife.

During this period, Alpha 1 came to look for Joseph several times. He was more familiar with Serena. Serene even had the courage to secretly date him, but she was rejected by Alpha 1. Alpha 1 felt that women were tigers and could not be mingled with, especially Serena, who was the younger sister of Madam Mooney. If he had ever lay hands on her, he was afraid that he might just be killed... So later, when Alpha 1 went to find Joseph again, he would run away whenever he saw Serena. Serena had successfully replaced Joseph and became the most feared person in Alpha 1's heart.

During this month, Chloe had finally found a school, and Joseph didn't allow her school to be too far away. After a month of searching, he finally decided on a small kindergarten in front of their house. However, Chloe was very depressed. Because for the entire month they went all over Usmait to look for her school but after finding out there was a right in front of their house, Chloe was so upset that she ignored her dad when they were having a meal. Then after the meal, she finally lost to a lollipop that Joseph gave her. "Dad's the best" This was what she had in mind after receiving the lollipop.

During this month, Yahir and Estella had ample rest. After so many years of hard work, they had the time to eat and to wind down. Yahir had been so exhausted, shouldn't he wind down and enjoy life? Well, Yahir ended up bringing Estella to Usmaï's nightclub countless times... Joseph had seen the two of them sneaking out at night many times. He was speechless. His father-in-law and mother-in-law were really no different.

Finally, it was about Paige's work. After searching for an entire month, she finally found a job in a large company. Moreover, it was her favorite Usmaï Industries! She successfully interviewed for the position of the head of a branch supervisor. As she had experience doing huge projects in Oplen, thus her resume seemed quite promising.

Joseph's heart skipped a beat when Paige wore a suit, in her heels showing off her contract with Usmaï Industries.

Usmaï Industry? Wasn't that the Usmaï Industries owned by Shangguan Bo's family? Without a doubt it was the three largest establishments in Usmaï. Leng Yijun was in the Yin Group, his wife was in Usmaï Industries and he was the chairman of the Junlin Group. Joseph felt something off about this.

In fact, he had arranged a position for Paige in the Junlin Group and he had informed his subordinates about this.

However, she didn't end up choosing the Junlin Group.

"Well, my wife doesn't like my own company?" Joseph felt a little down. The Junlin Group had offered her a position but she turned it down and instead she chose Shangguan Bo's company? Even if she chose to work at Leng Yijun's workplace it was far better. At least she could look after each other.

As a result, she told him the reason why she chose Usmaï Industries. All the three largest companies had offered her but she didn't choose Yin family's way because she didn't want to rely on Leng Yijun and Yin Chaoge. As for the Junlin Group, she felt that she wasn't worthy enough to be employed there. Thus she could only end up choosing Usmaï Industries.

Moreover, she signed the contract without telling Joseph. Thus, he had nothing he could do about it.

Finally, it was the forces from the Outer Region that was targeting Yin Chaoge. After a month of rest, they finally regained their strength. They gathered a group of God of Wars and successfully spent a lot of money and resources in hiring a Divine King level warrior. Of course, they have yet to decide when to infiltrate thus Joseph's subordinates did not report this to Joseph, they only told him that they were just stirring up trouble.

Therefore, Joseph didn't bother much about it.

Another half a month later, Paige had matured even more and she had familiarize herself in Usmaï

On this day, Paige, who had finished his work on Friday, went home in the evening and told Joseph, "Honey, I'll be meeting up with Yijun and Chaoge tomorrow and they ask you to come with. Are you free tomorrow?"

"Yin Chaoge wants to see me? Why so sudden?" Joseph asked in confusion.

"Honey, why don't you join us?" Seeing that Joseph didn't want to go, Paige started flirting and acting cute! Joseph was a little hesitant, because he really didn't want to have anything to do with Yin Zhaoge. In his heart, this woman was very troublesome. People would start having background checks on the people close to Yin Chaoge, thus she was just trouble for him.

Before they met, he had helped her twice. The first time was at Smiyacia and the other was half a month ago, when she was being assassinated in the Outer Region. She was troublesome and Joseph was afraid of dealing with all these.

Joseph was a little reluctant as he sat on the bed. So Paige knelt beside him with her slender leg in black stockings. Her body was also pressed against Joseph's body. She whispered in his ear, "Honey, if you go, I won't study tonight."

"Well, dear, in fact, I'm not very busy tomorrow, so I'll go with you to see your new friend." Joseph said without thinking twice.

Paige's expression immediately stiffened. She looked at Joseph speechlessly. His attitude changed so quickly. The next moment, when she was still in a daze, her slender waist was held by Joseph and was pulled to the bed.

Chapter 102

The next morning, Paige dragged her aching body and went to the bathroom to wash up. When she was alone in the bathroom and washing up, her face was still looking red. She bit her lips. Now Chloe was not sleeping in the same room as them., that man had seemed to be completely out of control, because she had been worried that they would wake others up. So when there was no one at home, Joseph had asked someone to come over to replace all the glasses in the house with soundproof glass that was ten centimeters thick, and the door was also changed into soundproof door. Even for the wall, he had secretly added layers to it. So even if Paige was clubbing in the room, no one from the outside could hear her.

When Joseph told her about it last night, she was stunned. She was very confused too. She looked at Joseph in shock with a strange look in her eyes. Later, she really tried to play music with her mobile phone in the bedroom and then she closed the door and ran to the living room. It turned out that she really couldn't hear anything! Anything at all!

At that time, Paige's mood was completely speechless. As for someone, he was smiling very happily.

"Joseph Dawson! Don't you know how to be gentle!!! How do I meet people later?" Paige in the bathroom said while biting her lips while her eyebrows looking cramped, she stomped her feet in anger. Well, her body hurt again as soon as she stomped her feet.

However, when she finally finished washing up and walked out of the bathroom, she was deeply shocked by Joseph who had changed his clothes, because Joseph was looking way too handsome today! He had changed into a brand new body-fitting suit. He was tall and perfect, and he had a good-looking face. In addition, he had a pair of eyes that were full of stories at first glance. She was stunned for a moment. She did not know why Joseph looked extraordinarily handsome today. It seemed that he was completely different from before.

For a moment, looking at such a handsome Joseph, she didn't want to take him with her. Her husband was so charming. What if he was taken away by those two women?

So she bit her lip and said to Joseph, "Hmm, why did you dress up so nicely?"

Joseph was stunned for a moment and said, "Did I dress up? I just changed my clothes, didn't I?" With her lips pursed, she said to Joseph in a worried tone, "Well, Yijun and Chaoge are both very beautiful, but you're not allowed to have any feelings for them."

"Hahaha... Are you worried about me? I've been staying at home every day while you go to work. I was also worried that my wife would be taken away", Joseph laughed when he heard Paige said that. But his evil smile made him look even more handsome.

Paige's heart warmed as she kissed Joseph's face. "Don't worry, honey. Other than you, I will not look at any other men. Wait for me, I'm going to change my clothes... After Paige finished speaking, she went to change her clothes. She had also decided that she would dress up beautifully today. She couldn't look worse than Yijun and Chaoge.

Joseph then walked to the balcony, leaned against it and lit a cigarette, he looked at Paige who was sitting on the bed and wearing a pair of beige stockings, this made his heart beat faster. He almost guessed what she was thinking instantly so his smile grew even bigger.

He looked at Paige who was changing clothes in front of him and muttered in his heart, "My dear wife, do you really think that your husband, me would fall in love with women that have a pretty face only? If I want to look for a woman, there are so many women out there who're trying to stick their face onto my body, at least eight to ten thousand of them maybe. It was only the silly you who would think that I just stayed at home to work and babysit, alas!"

Joseph took a deep breath and looked at Paige who was not far away from him with love. The love in his eyes grew stronger.

In fact during the past few days, he had been waiting. Yes, he was waiting! Paige had been suffering for five years, it had been too long. She had almost been out of touch with society for five years. In the past five years, she had been running around for the supply for herself and Chloe every day.

It had always been very hard. Joseph knew this very well. When they returned to Oplen City, they had been hurt by those from the Mooney Family. To put it bluntly, there was always a scar in Paige's heart although she had never mentioned it to him.

Two months since they came to Usmait, Joseph gave up everything and he accompanied her quietly every day. During the weekend, he would take her out to relax, go shopping, and chat with her. He wanted to give her enough security, happiness and love. He wanted to help her to eventually move on from her trauma.

But now, nearly two months had passed, and Paige had completely integrated into this new city. The confidence in her came back, it was the confidence that belonged to a woman! She had successfully joined the Usmait Industries and Joseph didn't help her on this at all. It was all her own efforts. In other words, Paige had completely moved on from her past and she was now full of confidence from inside out. From time to time, she also changed into her beautiful clothes, and her mood became completely cheerful. The gloom in her heart was almost gone.

Therefore, Joseph felt that it was about time for him to show his wife, the only woman that he loved the most in his life, more about himself, he wanted to show her some of his secrets, such the Junlin Group, which was ranked first in Usmait City. Joseph had been holding it in for nearly two months. Since she went to work, Paige had involved in many projects with Junlin Group due to the Usmait Industries. Therefore, Paige often mentioned Junlin Group in front of Joseph. Every time she mentioned it, Joseph who was the founder and the president of Junlin Group, always felt an extremely strange breeze blowing over him. Now it was already late September, and the weather was starting to turn chilly. It was windy on the outside.

Joseph felt a little cold. He looked at Paige while smiling and murmuring in his heart, "Dear, from today on, I, your husband, will give you a big surprise! Why do you still have to work? If you want to work, then you can be the lady president of Junlin Group. It's not a big deal, you just need a word from your husband... Hehe."

Joseph made a decision in his heart. Finally, he did not have to hide it anymore. His wife must be the happiest woman in the world! How could he let her work so hard every day! Then him as his husband was really incompetent.

Half an hour later, after she changed her clothes and put on her makeup went out with Joseph. Paige, who dressed herself up was looking really very beautiful. When she went out with Joseph, some men in their housing area kept looking at her. However those men were scared away by Joseph's cold eyes.

At ten o'clock in the morning, Paige brought Joseph to a high class western restaurant next to Chaoge Technology. The Western restaurant had a very high standard and its environment was also very decent. Their service staff were all beauties from the Outer Region of Fufluidor, their appearance and temperament were all top notch. From the restaurant it could be seen the sea from afar and the view was very broad. When Paige and Joseph reached there, Yijun and Chaoge had already arrived there. Two of them were chatting.

Yin Chaoge asked Leng Yijun curiously, "Yijun, how do you feel about Paige's husband? Is he handsome? When I first returned to Usmair, I wanted to see him, but I never had a chance. Besides, Paige is so beautiful. What does her husband do?"

Yijun thought for a moment and said with a smile, "Well, he is very handsome, and how should I put it? I feel that her husband is also very elegant, I didn't really know how to describe it. As for what he does? He was a soldier in the military in the Outer Region a few years ago, and now he has retired from the army. When I contacted Paige a few days ago, it seems that her husband hasn't been working yet."

Yin Chaoge thought for a moment and said, "Then he can join us? He must have some skills since he was a soldier in the military before."

"Besides, haven't you been building our own security department recently?"

Leng Yijun frowned and said, "Chaoge, do you mean to ask Joseph Dawson to work for us?"

Yin Chaoge nodded and said, "Well, yes, he doesn't have a job, does he? It just so happens that we also lack a person who can trust. It doesn't matter whether he is strong or not, but the most important thing is that we have to find a person that is reliable. Yijun, let me tell you, actually I don't trust some of our own people in Yin family. And you know that the Yin family is too big, some of the people inside are also very complicated.

Yijun's eyes rolled and gradually lit up. In fact, she had the same idea before, because she had always been curious about Joseph's strength. If he could have a powerful subordinate like Alpha 1 to follow him, he was certainly not bad. However, before that, Paige did not have a job, so she did not have the nerve to talk to her. And today, since Yin Chaoge also had the same intention, and Joseph was also here. It was a good opportunity.

"Oh, by the way, Chaoge, why do I feel that you are very curious about Paige's husband?" Leng Yijun asked Yin Chaoge.

Yin Chaoge smiled and said, "Of course I'm curious. I was also curious since that night in banquet when he asked the man called Alpha 1 to protect Paige. I could tell that he cared about Paige very much. And these days, whenever Paige was with us, as long as we talked about her husband, she would be very happy. It was not an act. I felt that Paige had completely fallen for him and all of her wwas focused on that man. Hence of course I wanted to see what kind of man her husband was. I had also met many outstanding men in Smiycia in the past few years. I wanted to review him." And almost as soon as Yin Chaoge finished speaking, Paige reached the restaurant with the handsome Joseph. Both of them happened to hear what Yin Chaoge said.

So, she smiled and introduced him to Yin Chaoge, "Chaoge, you can have a look now. This is my husband, Joseph Dawson. How do you feel? Is he comparable to those excellent men in Smiycia, what do you think?"

Joseph also smiled and said to Yin Chaoge, "Hello, Miss Yin. I am Paige's husband, Joseph Dawson."

At the moment when Yin Chaoge saw Joseph, her eyes couldn't help but shrink, and her heart beat faster instantly. Because she felt an indescribable temperament from Joseph. This man was both solemn and gentle, and his eyes were as bright and deep as stars. He was giving out much confidence and he also had the aura of a king like her grandfather Yin Zheng.

If she really wanted to make a judgment, Joseph who she was seeing was an elegant husband, was really much better than those outstanding men she had met before. Well, it was an intuition, a woman's intuition. And she could tell at a glance that Joseph was a very trustworthy person. She didn't know why, but it was just a feeling.

"King! He is born to be a king!" Yin Chaoge didn't know why such a word suddenly came to her mind. She finally remembered that when she was in Smiycia, she met a young God of War from the military. The man's temperament was exactly the same as that of Joseph in front of her. And the man in front of her seemed to be more excellent.

On the night she returned to Usmait, there were three people she wanted to see, and the man in front of her was one of them. And now, she was not disappointed. She also felt that only a man like Joseph was worthy of Paige!

"Hello, I'm Yin Chaoge. Have a seat, have a seat!" Yin Chaoge said to Joseph nervously.

She didn't know why, but when she was facing Joseph, she felt indescribable nervousness in her heart. Joseph then sat opposite of Leng Yijun and Yin Chaoge while holding Paige. The moment Joseph sat down, the focus of the whole table naturally was gathered on him.
