

Chapter 103

After Paige and Joseph settled in their seats, Yin Chaoge went on to order some food. After she looked at the menu and ordered a few dishes, Leng Yijun took over and ordered a few more. When it was Paige's turn, she looked at the exquisite dishes on the menu and had no idea on what to order as she never had such delicacies before. It was also her first time trying the Palatian cuisine in the most fancy steak restaurant of Usmait.

Just as she was worrying, Joseph, who was sitting beside her, suddenly smiled and helped her with her order. He spoke in fluent Palatian language with the waiter.

"You are fluent in the Palatian language?" The waitress looked at Joseph in shock.

Joseph nodded with a smile, "Yes, I used to live there for quite some time."

The waitress observed the details of Joseph's movements and sitting posture, and her eyes were filled with even more excitement, "Mr. Dawson, you are the most distinguished guest in our country. Please have a good meal."

The beautiful waitress in the steak restaurant was very excited. She even purposely went to the side and gave them a complementary violin performance.

Leng Yijun and the rest were in awe when the violin performance was over. They looked at Joseph unbelievably and asked, "How are you so fluent in ordering in Palatian?"

Joseph nodded and said with a smile, "Well, I know a little about it. I've been there a few times before." He was speaking while helping Paige sort out the dishes in front of her. It was no surprise that he went there before. Moreover, he was even invited by the royalty to attend an event. Despite that, he still depended on his mood and schedule to attend their invitation.

Looking at the surprised expressions of Yin Chaoge and Leng Yijun, Paige was stunned at first, but then she smiled. Her husband was not only an elite in the military force. Meanwhile, Joseph looked at his silly wife and felt a little speechless. Just wait and see, Paige, your husband is about to reveal everything about him. Be prepared and don't be too shocked.

Then, they went on to have their meal. However, Leng Yijun and Yin Chaoge couldn't but steal some glances at Joseph. They realized that no matter how hard they looked, they still couldn't read Joseph's mind. It was as if there were layers of mystery that hid him, and everytime they tried to look at him from a different angle, they would find something different.

When they were about done with their meals, Leng Yijun suddenly asked Joseph, "Mr. Dawson, do you have a job now?"

Joseph smiled in response, "Well, not yet, but I have plans to start looking for one, I wasn't quite used to the surroundings when I first came back, but now I'm quite settled." Indeed, Joseph had his reasons. When he was at the Outer Regions for the past five years, he was either in a battle or on the way to a battle. Back then, he took on way too much pressure. Resulting him to be in a constant state of trying to become stronger. When he first came back, he wasn't quite used to the peaceful life here.

It was because this place was too safe and he wasn't used to being safe. Therefore, he had complicated feelings about it.

But after living a peaceful life with Paige for two months, he finally got used to this lifestyle and managed to bury that burning passion deep inside of him. Perhaps when he would have the chance to lead the Dragon Temple army again someday, then this burning passion will be ignited once again.

Leng Yijun took a sip of coffee, and wanted to continue to know more about Joseph, "In that case, are you interested to join Chaoge Technology, Mr. Dawson? Chaoge and I have been working hard to build up our own Safety Department."

Joseph laughed as he heard what she said. His smile was very mysterious and it felt like he was feeling speechless. He looked at Leng Yijun with a smile and asked, "Miss Leng, are you asking me to be your department's security guard?"

Joseph chuckled speechlessly. How could they let him, the Lord of the Dragon Temple, an eternal hero, to be a security guard in their small company? It was quite bold of them to have such a thought.

Paige, who was sitting next to Joseph, also felt that it was kind of impolite to make this request. No doubt, she knew her husband was known as the God of War when he was in the Outer Region! But of course, besides being pretty, the silly heroine, Paige, was still lacking in other aspects. For instance, the friends she mingled with. Therefore, it was only natural that they didn't know how mighty the title 'God of War' was in the Outer Region. They only knew that her husband was very competent and powerful, but they also thought his capability was limited.

Therefore, based on her understanding of Joseph's real identity, Paige was slightly offended and shook her head as she looked at Leng Yijun, "Forget about it, Yijun. Joseph has not decided on what he wants to do soon."

Leng Yijun could tell that Paige was misunderstanding something. Therefore, she instantly explained to her, "I believe you've misunderstood me, Paige. How could we let your husband be a security guard? What we're saying is the General Manager position of the whole Safety Department! It is equally as important as my position, and the yearly salary for that is a few million yuan! What were you thinking about?"

"Wait, really? The General Manager of the Safety Department?" Paige instantly became excited and asked many questions. The maximum of her current job's salary was only two hundred thousand over yuan, and it was all earned through blood, sweat and tears despite her being in a well established company in Usmaït.

Leng Yijun smiled and nodded, "Of course. Why would we cheat you?" Yin Chaoge then looked at Joseph sincerely, "Mr. Dawson, what Yijun mentioned were also my intentions. Are you willing to come over and help us out?"

Since Yin Chaoge said so, Paige immediately told Joseph, "What do you think, Joseph? Do you want to give it a try? After all, you can't just stay at home all the time. You'll become useless if you coop yourself inside all day."

Joseph's heart twitched when heard his silly wife's words. He was certain that his wife was just interested in the large sum of annual salary. He was totally defeated. He didn't even know how much money he was worth right now.

Well, it was surely enough for them to not worry about their spendings for a long life. Joseph wanted to punish her by spanking her, but that thought soon went away. It was enough for his wife to sit still and be pretty, he couldn't bear to actually hit her.

With that, Joseph ended up telling Chaoge helplessly, "It's not that I'm not willing to come, Miss Yin. It's just that you are from the Yin family. Your family's wealth and power is ranked in second place in all of Usmaït. There must be tons of competent candidates in the Yin Family. Therefore, stop messing around with me. How could you not have a suitable candidate?"

Yin Chaoge shook her head and said, "It's different. I don't trust the people sent over by the Yin family. You know how complicated such families can be. I just can't trust them."

Joseph looked at Yin Chaoge with a brief smile, "Pardon me, Miss Yin, but do you actually trust me? This is only our first meeting."

However, Yin Chaoge nodded seriously and said, "Yes, Mr. Dawson, I trust you! You are someone who can retire from the military for Paige and do anything for her. I absolutely trust someone like you. So, please help me. I don't know many people in Usmait besides Yijun and Paige. I can give you a better raise, but please, help me, alright?"

At this time, Paige also shook Joseph's arm and said, "Honey, why don't you just go over and help Chaoge? Times are really difficult for Chaoge and Yijun now since their company is just starting out."

Joseph's heart tightened depressedly again. He was lost for words towards his beautiful wife. Was she really that anxious to sell her husband away? Forget it. After all, she was indeed the one he wanted to marry.

Then, Joseph smiled at Leng Yijun and Yin Chaoge speechlessly, "You two surely came prepared. However, I do have one question. How can you be so sure that I'm capable of that position? What if I can't even beat a single bodyguard from the Yin family?"

Unexpectedly, when Joseph was done asking, both Leng Yijun and Yin Chaoge laughed. The two girls looked at each other and understood the meaning in each other's eyes. Of course, they trusted Joseph's strength. What kind of joke was this? Since the night Yijun met up with Alpha 1 King, she felt that she couldn't defeat Alpha 1. She couldn't even defeat Joseph's underlings, hence how weak could Joseph be? Therefore, in Leng Yijun's heart, Joseph's ability was about the same as the Semi God of War's. Besides, he was from the battlefield of the Outer Region. Naturally, he was much stronger than her.

Of course, no matter how much she thinks highly of Joseph's real strength, she did not dare to perceive Joseph as the God of War.

That was because she didn't believe that a man, who was given the title as 'the God of War of Frogua' in the Outer Region, would actually retire from the military just for Paige. No way he was willing to come back and live a normal, mundane life. It was known that having the life of the God of War, Wang Tianhai, meant that he would be in control of most of the powers in Usmait. Which was why she only categorized Joseph's abilities at the ranking that was below the God of War, but higher than the others.

That was the limit of how much Leng Yijun's brain could handle to analyze.

Joseph was silent. He did see something from the look of these two women's eyes. They have probably encountered the Alpha 1 King before, hence they somewhat knew about his capabilities.

But for the Yin family to hire him? What a joke. If he were to really appear in front of Yin Zheng, Yin Zheng would be scared out of his wits. At that time, he would surely be in an awkward position to face these two women, and also his mesmerizingly stunning wife.

After a long time, Joseph said to Yin Chaoge and Leng Yijun helplessly, "Are you sure that you want me to help you?"

Both Mr. Leng and Yin Chaoge nodded excitedly, "Absolutely, Mr. Dawson. Do we have an agreement?"

The corners of Joseph's mouth twitched. As expected by his silly wife, he nodded and said, "Alright, sure. However, the pay for this job is still not too satisfactory. It's too little..."

After saying that, Joseph paused and said, "Forget it. This will do. I'll help out for a month first and we will discuss the future adjustments after a month."

Hearing that, Leng Yijun smiled while she stirred the metal spoon in her coffee cup, "Is it because the pay for this job is too little? In that case, were you ranked the God of War in the Outer Region, Mr. Dawson? Only if you were, then you can assume that what we suggested was too little. If not, such pay is already very good for the rank of the Semi God of WAR." Yijun noticed that although Joseph accepted their offer, he still felt that the pay they offered was too little. That made her slightly uncomfortable. She felt that he was being too much. After all, she still felt that he was at most at the rank of the Semi God of War.

But after Leng Yijun finished speaking, she smiled. She acted like she knew that Paige's husband was really the God of War, but she just wouldn't tell him.

Meanwhile, Joseph also smiled in response, and he couldn't be bothered to further explain anything. The meal today was probably arranged just for him by Yin Chaoge and Leng Yijun. As for his silly wife, she probably knew about this beforehand. That's right, she knew about it and went along with the both of them to sell him out.

At this moment, Joseph looked at his silly wife, who had been sitting next to him with her head down while smiling. He sighed in his heart. No wonder she worked so hard last night. It turned out that she was feeling guilty.

Joseph looked up at the ceiling. It was only for a month, no big deal. He had already begun to show his second identity in front of Paige. A month later, until Paige managed to make great achievements in the industry, he would then arrange her to the Junlin Group and let her be the President of the company. He would reveal to her about the actual worth of her husband! D*mn, how could she waver already before seeing that?

Chapter 104

Seeing Joseph agreeing to their offer, the three of them were very happy and kept on chatting. The three of them had many things in common. They were all beautiful ladies that were around the same age. As of now, despite Paige being slightly lower, they all had pretty similar social status as well. However, from the perspectives of Leng Yijun and Yin Chaoge, Paige was after all an employee in Usmit Industries. That company was ranked second in the whole of Usmit. Although her position was slightly lower than the both of them, Paige had a very competent husband on the other hand. Therefore, the three of them could get along so well with each other.

Joseph felt very bored sitting by the side since he couldn't join their conversation. As their conversation went on, they proceeded to talk about womanly topics, such as fashion and make-up. They would even talk about some intimate questions, which made Joseph felt very awkward.

One of the questions Yin Chaoge raised to Leng Yijun was, "You've been single for such a long time. Don't you want to find a man? How can you endure being alone?"

Leng Yijun's answer was even more incredible. She immediately admitted in a defeated tone, "What about you? Aren't you single too? Don't tell me you've found a man. You don't even look like a woman at first glance." Then the two of them looked at Paige with their eyes filled with curiosity. Yin Chaoge rolled her eyes and said to Paige with a strange smile. You ought to be more mindful, Paige. I noticed that your legs were sort of wobbly when you came over just now.

"Excuse me, you girls go ahead. I'll make a move to the toilet." Joseph couldn't stay to listen to them any longer. Damn, how could they be so perverted on the inside despite being so beautiful on the outside? After all, they were one of the top ranked women in Usmit. Joseph couldn't stand them and went to the toilet as an attempt to escape from them.

Only after he went to the toilet and smoked a cigarette, he calmed down a little. He sent a message to Paige, and said that he would leave first. He asked her to go shopping with them. Then, he transferred a hundred thousand yuan for her to go shopping.

Meanwhile, when Paige, who was chatting with Leng Yijun and Yin Chaoge on the dinner table, saw the hundred thousand yuan bank transfer, she was stunned and gave a small yelp out of surprise.

Out of curiosity, Leng Yijun took a glance at Paige's phone screen. She exclaimed, "Goodness, Paige, your husband is so cool! He actually transferred a hundred thousand yuan just for you to go shopping with us. Is he actually that well off?"

"What? Joseph transferred a hundred thousand yuan to Paige for shopping?" Yin Chaoge became curious about it too. In her heart, she had always thought that Joseph was actually poor instead.

Paige smiled and said, "Joseph doesn't have money either. Or should I say, he doesn't have that much money anymore. This should be the money that was left when he previously established a company in Usmit."

Yin Chaoge then asked, "Your husband ran a company in Usmit before?"

Paige nodded and said, "Yes. Six or seven years ago, he set up a small company. But then he was cheated, so he went to Oplen after that, and then he went to the Outer Regions to join the army. He just came back recently.

"Why did this story sound so familiar?" Yin Chaoge wondered as she listened to Paige's explanation.

At this time, Leng Yijun replied to Yin Chaoge, "Yes, it does sound familiar. When I first heard it, I was frightened too. I thought that Paige's husband was that legendary man from our city. Besides, Paige's husband and that legendary man shared the same surname, Dawson."

As soon as she finished speaking, Yin Chaoge suddenly realized something. She nodded and agreed, "That's right. I checked the information about that legendary man from Usmit. I think his name was Fernando Dawson, though he had already disappeared for five years. However, recently I have heard that he came back some time ago and got back Junlin Group overnight."

"Now, all the senior employees of Junlin Group, including some from the Yin Group, have all gone back there. Seems like the Yin family will have a hard time in the future. The fact that that legendary man had such an influence in Usmit five years ago, and now that he is back, the future is just too uncertain."

While they were talking, a man who was looking at his mobile phone suddenly stood up and shouted in shock, "Oh my god, the Junlin Group has made an announcement. Their new President will hold a press conference at the end of next month! That is in a month and a half! Moreover, the founder of the Junlin Group is in fact the legendary man from our city. Goodness! It's incredible that he is back! It also seems like he had gotten back the Junlin Group!"

As soon as the man finished speaking, the whole steak restaurant fell silent. Leng Yijun and Yin Chaoge quickly took out their mobile phones and opened the news to read the news reports as well. The two of them were also very shocked for some time.

"Oh my god, how amazing. I can finally meet that person. All these years, I've always wanted to meet him in Usmit, but I never had the chance. Now that the opportunity is coming..." Leng Yijun said excitedly.

Yin Chaoge also nodded and said, "Me too. This time round, my purpose of coming back was to meet three people. One of them is Paige's husband, which I've already met. He is amazing. While the other one is the founder of Junlin Group, a legendary man who is about the same age as me. As for the last one, I'll keep it a secret."

At this moment, both Leng Yijun and Yin Chaoge were very excited. Paige was also a little surprised, but deep down, she was not that excited. After all, no matter how powerful the current President of the Junlin Group was, it had nothing to do with her. Moreover, she was already married. She would never fall in love with another man in this world besides Joseph.

Thereofre, Paige smiled and said to Leng Yijun and Yin Chaoge, "Yijun, Zhaoge, you two aren't in love with that Fernando guy, aren't you? I've heard about him these days, and it seems like there was no news about him being married already. Since that man is indeed very excellent, why don't you two get yourselves ready?"

If Joseph were to be present and overheard that, he would surely be extremely exasperated. Did she know that she was actually selling out her husband again? Was she having fun doing so? She surely was his silly wife, yet he couldn't bring his heart to hit her, and he couldn't bear to see her end up crying if he scolded her. The thing Joseph feared the most was to see Paige crying. Therefore, if she really cried, his heart would certainly shatter into pieces. 📌

At this time, Yijun said while blushing, "What? No way. I don't even know what he looks like. How can I marry him? Besides, I want to find a husband, who is a hero in the military, like yours, Paige. That would be extremely cool! Speaking of which, Paige, you should totally ask your husband if he has any friends that retired from the military with him. Perhaps he could introduce me to some of them. Of course, my standards are very high. They have to at least be able to defeat me in a fight."

Paige nodded in agreement. In fact, she had always been thinking about this matter in her heart. As a senior, Yijun had been very headstrong since she was a child. She did not like men. Besides, her husband was the God of War in the Outer Region! Her husband's friends and brothers must be very highly ranked as well. Then, she could introduce some of them to her senior, Yijun.

The next moment, just as she was about to speak, the image of a man suddenly appeared in her mind. She then said to Leng Yijun, "By the way, Yijun, my husband does have a friend that is by his side right now. It's Alpha 1. My husband said that Alpha 1 is also very powerful. What do you think about him?"

Leng Yijun frowned and thought for a moment. She then shook her head and said, "I don't have that kind of feeling towards him. I don't know why but I don't like men who are always smiling and talking. Alpha 1 is very excellent, and I also agree that he is very strong, but I just don't have the feeling of getting married to him. It's not that he's bad, but I just really don't feel that way towards him."

Paige nodded and said, "Alright then. I'll ask Joseph for you some other day. He has been in the Outer Region for so many years, hence he must know a lot of excellent men. I'll definitely introduce you to the best. But Yijun, can you briefly tell me what kind of man you like?"

Leng Yijun frowned and thought for a while before saying, "Well, I can't really describe it well. I like men who do not talk much, but actually care a lot about me. Someone who seems cold on the outside but is actually very strong and competent. To be honest, Paige, although my name is really cool, I'm actually not a cold person. I'm only cold to outsiders. In fact, I've always been eager to fall in love and get into a memorable relationship."

At this time, Yin Chaoge interrupted and said, "Leng Yijun, are you looking for a killer? A cold and handsome killer from the Outer Region battlefield?"

Actually, Yin Chaoge was just joking with Leng Yijun, yet she really nodded unexpectedly. Yin Chaoge was shocked and her eyes were wide open when she saw her response.

Leng Yijun felt a little guilty under her gaze, hence she quickly changed the subject and asked her, "By the way, Zhaoge, don't keep asking questions about me. What about you? You have been saying that apart from Paige's husband, you wanted to meet two other men when you came back to Usmit. One of them is the President of the Junlin Group. He is a legend of Usmit, but you are also as great as he is. You are the princess of the Parry family, and you are so beautiful. Don't you want to try to work things out with the President of the Junlin Group?"

After thinking for a while, Yin Chaoge suddenly blushed and lowered her head to drink her coffee without saying anything.

The shy look on her face immediately made both Paige and Leng Yijun interested. Paige was even more interested in gossip like these. She quickly asked Yin Chaoge, "Chaoge, you already have someone you like, right? Hurry up and tell us! Who is it and when can we meet him?"

Yin Chaoge's face became redder, but then she sighed and said, "Well, to be honest, I have someone I like in my heart. Therefore, despite being very curious about the President of Junlin Group, it is just out of admiration and I just want to see who that legendary man was. I won't fall in love with him. As for the man I like, I don't even know where he is now."

As Yin Chaoge spoke, she recalled an incident that happened two months ago. It was at the border of Smiycia. Then, she was on the brink of death, and even Charles, who was protecting her, was in a critical situation. The man, who was nearly two meters tall and had a muscular build, carried a huge sword on his back... He was so domineering and powerful that he could scare away all the killers with a single strike with his sword. Such a sight left a very deep impression in her heart. That tall and powerful man gave her the sense of security she needed for the whole day.

There were a few times when she fell asleep at night, she would dream of the tall and strong man.

She dreamed of her petite body being held tightly in that man's arms.

While Yin Chaoge was thinking about that man, a trace of longing rose in her eyes. However, the reality was that the man she liked did not even look at her that day, because the man was actually outside, and she was locked in the car by Charles. She could only watch the man carry the huge sword on his back and disappear in the desert through the window.

"What? Zhaoge, don't you know where that person is now? Who is he? What does he do..." Leng Yijun asked Yin Chaoge curiously. She was really curious about what kind of man could capture the heart of such a beautiful girl like Yin Chaoge, since it is very difficult for a woman like her to be tempted. For example, Paige, who is sitting opposite her, may look silly on the outside, or perhaps she was indeed quite silly, but the man she likes and also someone who she was willing to marry, is also a top-notch man like Joseph. Therefore, she is very curious about the man Yin Chaoge likes now.

Paige also looked at Yin Chaoge curiously.

After thinking for a while, Yin Chaoge said yearningly, "I don't know his full name, I only know that he seems to be called 'Slaughter'! As for what he does, he seems to be from an extremely powerful organization in the Outer Region. I think he was one of the Four Divine Kings in the Dragon Temple!

The next moment, the scene of the incident that day appeared in Yin Chaoge's mind again. The man appeared domineeringly and slashed a someone who was ranked God of War who abducted her with just a swish of his sword. He was way more powerful than the God of War in Usmait, Wang Tianhai. He simply slashed that man in half just like that.

After that, the man said domineeringly, "I'm the Lord of the Dragon Temple, The Forth Divine King. My name is 'Slaughter'!

Chapter 105

"Dragon Temple? What's that?" Paige asked Yin Chaoge in confusion. Leng Yijun was the same, she had never heard of it either. However, she felt that Yin Chaoge was very worshipful of that.

Yin Chaoge nodded and said, "Before this, I'd never heard of the Dragon Temple as well. I was told by the God of War of Frogua, Charles. In the Outer Region battlefield, there are countless warriors, and there's also the most central stage in the whole world. In contrast, it feels like God of War is the top warrior, right? In Dragon Temple, where although the God of War level warrior is also a party of warriors. It is far from being a party overlord, and they don't even have the qualification of hegemony."

Yin Chaoge continued after a pause, "That's because beyond the God of War rank, there's the Divine King level warriors, which is much more powerful. The Slaughter, who saved my life, is one of the Divine King level warriors. It was a piece of cake for him to deal with someone of the God of War level."

On top of the Divine King level, there was the most terrifying Titan level. It was also the true Overload of the Outer Region battlefield!

Yin Chaoge squinted his eyes and said seriously, "I guess it's hard for you girls to comprehend. Or to put it another way, and this is also how it's commonly said in the Outer Region. That is, for example, if God of War level is considered as God of War, then Divine King level, would be the king level!"

"Moreover, the Titan level was a more powerful rank of the Royal level. I don't know how many Royal level warriors there were on the Outer Region battlefield. However, the Dragon Temple's Lord, who was about the same age as me, was at the Royal level! He was promoted by killing an old Royal level warrior and seriously injuring another!" "What? How is this possible? How could there be a person who had such a powerful individual force in this world?" Leng Yijun was shocked instantly after hearing this. It was not that she did not know that there might be stronger existences above the God of War level. However, she had no idea there would be so many. In that moment, Leng Yijun's heart was shocked to its core.

It was so dangerous, and there were so many existences stronger than Joseph.

Alas, if Joseph was here, he would probably sigh again in his heart and have no way to deal with Paige.

Yin Chaoge nodded incomparably seriously and said: "Well, that's why the third person I really want to meet on my return to Frogua this time is the Dragon Temple's Lord! See if I can still compete with the legend of Junlin Group."

But for the man who founded the Dragon Temple within a few years, I was nowhere near good enough.

Leng Yijun asked Yin Chaoge again, "Do you mean to say that the Lord of Dragon Temple is also from Frogua? Is he a Frogua citizen?"

Yin Chaoge nodded, but soon after, he shook his head and said, "Well, that God-like man is from Frogua. This was what Mr. Charles told me. But I don't know if he is now in Frogua, maybe that kind of man's goal is the stars and the sea. I heard that the God-like man used five years to build that Dragon Temple. I really want to see such an existence. It's good enough even if we are able to meet once only. It's very desirable. I didn't expect that there was such a powerful person in the world... I think highly of myself, but when compared with that man, I am far from being able to compete."

Leng Yijun nodded in agreement. She had been working with Yin Chaoge for nearly two months and she already knew very well what kind of woman Yin Chaoge was. Yin Chaoge was incredibly confident and even conceited. In Usmait, the only person who could be considered an equal in her eyes was the founder of the Junlin Group. However, she did not expect that in Yin Chaoge's heart, there was actually a person who would make her marvel and admire.

The silly heroine, Paige, was also stunned and dumbfounded at the moment. Since ancient times, beautiful women have loved heroes. Despite having someone in her heart and never falling in love with another man, she also wanted to meet the Lord of Dragon Temple, who has been described as a god-like man! This had nothing to do with love, but just wanted to meet him.

Yin Chaoge nodded and continued, "Well, such a person is really admirable. He didn't join the Frogua Military, but from what Mr. Charles said, the Dragon Temple which was led by him had helped Frogua to block many calamities on the Outer Region battlefield. For example, half a year ago, the Dragon Temple Lord killed a hostile Frogua emperor. Just thinking about it had made me excited, even if I'm just a weak woman. After listening to the story of that being, I also want to fight on the Outer Region battlefield."

Yin Chaoge's narration enhanced their admiration for that Dragon Temple Lord.

The thought of meeting each other was getting heavier. Paige is also secretly banging in her heart that she would definitely ask her husband whether he had heard of the Dragon Temple Lord on the Outer Region battlefield.

Well, the silly heroine, Paige, at the moment, was more eager to know more about the background of that Lord... Meanwhile, Joseph was sitting in the Junlin Group Headquarters Tower, the top floor of the president's office. He sneezed hard and had a very strange feeling in his heart.

"Mr. Dawson, what's wrong with you? Do you feel unwell? Should I ask the doctor on the 15th floor to come up now?" At the moment, Ren Pingsheng, who was standing behind Joseph and was the vice president of Junlin Group, said to Joseph with great concern. In addition, he now knew that Joseph left Usmait and fought in the Outer Region years earlier. He was afraid that Joseph had some hidden injuries.

Hearing that, Joseph waved his hand and said, "It doesn't matter, it's just a sneeze. According to Frogua, someone must be thinking about me, right? Oh, by the way, how was the thing I asked you to do before I came? Have you released the news that the Junlin Group is going to hold a conference at the end of next month to announce my return?"

Ren Pingsheng, vice president of Junlin Group, nodded and said, "Well, Mr. Dawson. Don't worry, it was posted ten minutes ago. Now there are hundreds of thousands of comments on the post. Almost all of them congratulate you on your return! Besides, the news of Fu Junlin's betrayal of you is spreading in Usmait these days. So I think your conference a month later will definitely be very sensational."

"Well, it doesn't matter if it's sensational or not, I'm just a little depressed. Do you believe that my wife helped me find a job with an annual salary of several million dollars while she thinks I don't have a job now?" Joseph nodded his head, then asked Ren Pingsheng in a somewhat odd manner.

Ren Pingsheng was stunned on the spot and the muscles on his face twitched viciously a few times. After a long while, he said bitterly to Joseph, "Mr. Dawson, you knew that I had a heart attack. You should not make fun of me. Letting the president of Junlin Group, who was with a fortune of at least a few hundred billions, to get a job that pays millions a year?"

Ren Pingsheng did not believe it.

Joseph raised his hand helplessly and patted his head, saying, "It's true. Because I haven't told her my real identity yet. Alas, forget it. I'm going back. You can continue to manage the affairs of Junlin Group. By the way, train a few more women to be managers, supervisors or any other position."

Ren Pingsheng nodded and asked in confusion, "Well, Mr. Dawson, we have a lot of female managers and supervisors, so why do we still train them?"

Joseph said even more helplessly, "Of course it's for my wife. Do you really think that I will be in charge of Junlin Group by myself in a few months?" Joseph looked at him seriously.

The poor vice president of Junlin Group, who held a similar position as Yin Zheng and Shangguan Bo in Usmaït

He was stunned at the moment and thus said, "What do you mean, Mr. Dawson? Don't tease me. Junlin Group belongs to you and not me, okay? Who will take over if you don't?"

At that time, Mr. Ren was in a mess, but Joseph still looked at him seriously... Well, do you mean that you don't want to take over the Junlin Group?" Ren Pingsheng opened his mouth wide and asked Joseph.

Joseph nodded rightfully and said, "You're right. Why would I take over the group? Am I not tired of managing such a big company? Do you think I'm stupid? After so many years of struggling outside, now it's time to enjoy, but you still want to make me be so tired?"

"D*mn it! You're serious!" Ren Pingsheng roared wildly in his heart and stared at Joseph.

"Joseph, could you make sense when you're saying something? Why are you so tired? And is this really a big deal?"

"This is Junlin Group, which ranks first in Usmaït and has the largest business in the world!"

Ren Pingsheng felt that he was about to have a heart attack because of the words from Joseph. He felt that he could not go on like this, so he did not beat around the bush. He simply said to Joseph, "Mr. Dawson, do you know what you are saying?"

This was the Junlin Group! It was ranked first in Usmaït and valued at trillions!

Joseph was speechless and nodded, saying, "Yes, I know. But what's wrong with that? Have you really thought that I was playing in Outer Region these years? I've got several companies like Junlin, and there are some other things as well. Do you expect me to manage all of them? Am I crazy or what? Don't I want to live? Don't I want to accompany my daughter? Don't I want to accompany my wife? Huh? Is it possible that I have to be a tool?"

The more Joseph said, the more furious he was. He continued to lecture Ren Pingsheng, "Why do you think in this way? How come you don't know how to live at such an old age? My father-in-law, Yahir, is only about the same age as you, and still goes out to have fun behind his wife's back. According to his words, after struggling for more than half a lifetime, can't you enjoy it? Anyway, I don't care. I've brought the message to you. Before my wife takes over the Junlin Group, you can play around with it."

Well, the mighty Lord, Joseph left after finishing his words. After a long time, Ren Pingsheng who was in a daze, came to his senses. When he wanted to talk to Joseph again, he found that Joseph had already left. After he finished digesting Joseph's words, he became even more frantic. "D*mn, play around? What else can I play? It's the group that ranked the top in Usmaït. I'm in a f*cking state of mind!"

An hour later, Mr. Ren was talking to himself for a long time in the president's office of the Junlin Group. Then, a doctor who rushed up from downstairs attached him to the infusion bottle.
