Chapter 121

No, no, no... The foreign experts in the hall instantly turned pale with fright. They fled in all directions in horror, but it was useless. A wide sword light swept across the whole place at an extremely fast speed. He left. After waving his sword, Joseph turned around and walked out right away. Qian Mian stared at the scene in front of her in daze. The bodies of the foreign experts suddenly broke, and they were all cut in half at the waist. Some of the sitting experts even had their heads cut off and fell to the ground. Then, a loud noise was heard. The long abandoned with a loud crash, stirring up smoke and dust all over the sky... Gulp. The lord had gotten stronger... Qian Mian's heart trembled. She turned around to look at the man who was walking away, and then followed him. "First place," Joseph murmured in his heart. After that, Qian Mian experienced an unforgettable night in her life. Holding a special computer, she constantly located the strongholds of foreign forces for Joseph. Then, they either took a helicopter or an off-road vehicle and rushed to the strongholds one by one. In fact, the most time-consuming part was definitely not when Joseph killed people. Most of their time was wasted on the way because the battlefield of Outer Region was too big. However, it only took Joseph a little time to destroy those strongholds of foreign forces. No matter if the opponent was a warrior of God of War level or a warrior of Divine King level, they could not withstand a single sword strike from him. Time passed slowly, and the setting sun completely disappeared. Night fell, and the sky of the battlefield of Outer Region became gloomy. Soon, there was a drizzle in the night sky. The rain was mixed with wisps of smoke because on the battlefield that night, there were more places filled with smoke of gunpowder than usual. One place, two places, ten places, twenty places, fifty places. As time went by, more and more strongholds of the foreign forces were destroyed by Joseph. The alliance of the foreign forces that targeted Yin Chaoqe was frightened by Joseph that night. They wanted to send someone to apologize to Joseph, but it was useless. No matter whom they sent, Joseph just kept killing everyone.. When the foreign forces wanted to threaten Joseph with the experts of Dragon Temple, Joseph did not respond. Instead, the sword in his hand was stained with more and more blood of the foreign experts. At this moment, in a very secretive and the safest base in Smiyacia, the senior officials of the military of Smiyacia, several Divine King level warriors and two Titan level warriors were staring at a projection on the wall of the office, which was the projection of Joseph killing on the battlefield of Outer Region. "Lord of Dragon Temple! Let's retreat. Negotiations are useless. Let all the experts above the God of War level immediately leave the battlefield of Outer Region!" a Titan level warrior who was the leader and the commander of the Smiyacia military, sighed and ordered them to retreat. "My lord, we can't retreat. Once we retreat, the vast amount of resources on the battlefield of Outer Region and the resources in the warehouse will all be gone," A Divine King level warrior said worriedly. The other Titan level warrior nodded and said, "Sigh, let's retreat. Don't underestimate the determination of a Titan level warrior. Retreat all the experts above the God of War level and let Dragon Temple Lord vent his anger on the rest. Sigh, what we did the most wrong was that we didn't know this lord is in Usmaït of Frogua and was related to Yin Chaoge. Sigh, let's retreat, or else when he really comes to Smiyacia, do you think you can resist him? But, Marshal, that Dragon Temple Lord is of Titan level, and there are rules in every country. How could he possibly come to Smiyacia? He hasn't been out of the battlefield of Outer Region in the past few years," The Divine King level expert who spoke the moment before continued to ask. Because the Titan level experts didn't go out, usually it was him who was in charge of the affairs in the battlefield of Outer Region." At this moment, the Titan level warrior who first spoke shook his head bitterly and said, "That's not the case. Dragon Temple Lord doesn't belong to the military of Frogua, nor does he have any position there. Therefore, he does not belong to any force and is free on his own. If he comes to Smiyacia, those who guard the rules won't take any action." "This, this, this is right. My two lords, don't we still have Mr. Samo at the battlefield of Outer Region? He's a late-stage Titan level expert. Can we send our men to his side?" The expert at the peak of the Divine King level who was in charge of the battlefield of Outer Region continued to persuade, unwilling to give up. The two Titan level experts looked at each other and frowned. What the Divine King level officer said was right. They had spent too much resources on the battlefield of Outer Region over the years. It would be a pity if all of them were destroyed. So they nodded. The Divine King level officer who was in charge of the affairs in the battlefield of Outer Region looked delighted and continued, "Then marshals, can I transfer those resources to Sky Breaking Valley?" "No!" The faces of the two Titan level experts changed drastically in the next moment, and they refused loudly at the same time. If everything was transferred, then Dragon Temple Lord could not vent out his resentment, and it would not be possible for him to leave Bang... The next moment, a Titan level expert suddenly slapped the Divine King level officer on his body.

With a slap, he spat blood and flew backward. The Titan level expert said in a stern voice, "Kua Ke, you seem to have broken through to the Semi Titan level recently, right?" "You're ambitious, aren't you? Don't keep challenging our elders. Not to mention that you're not at the Titan Level yet, even if you are, you're just at the early stage. Who gave you the courage to keep questioning our decision?" "Huh? We can let you advance to the Titan level, and naturally, we can also let others advance.

Think about it." The hidden strength of the commander named Kua Ke was instantly noticed by the Titan level elder. He hurriedly knelt on the ground and lowered his head, "Sir, I wouldn't dare!" "Hmph!" The Giant level expert who hit him before, snorted coldly and didn't say anything else. However, what he didn't see was the deeply hidden hatred in the eyes of Kua Ke, who was kneeling on the ground and lowering his head. "You old b*stard, you just wait and see. After I get promoted, I'll kill you first! The Smiyacia military will be mine, and it'll definitely be mine! Mine!" Kua Ke roared wildly in his heart, but the next moment, he trembled and forced out a mouthful of blood, pretending to be very miserable. Upon seeing Kua Ke in such condition, the two seniors of the Smiyacia military in the conference room nodded with satisfaction. After looking at each other, they turned their attention back to the projection of the battlefield of Outer Region. At eleven o'clock in the evening, Joseph put on a raincoat and followed Qian Mian to the entrance of Sky Beaking Valley. Drops of rain kept falling from the sky and landed on the long knife in Joseph's hand, and then flowed down along the cold blade. Joseph looked at Sky Breaking Valley in front of him, and the coldness in his eyes grew. In the depths of the valley, there was an extremely powerful momentum at the moment, exuding strongly from inside. It was the guardian of Sky Breaking Valley, the foreign God of War, Samo, who betrayed and left the Smiyacia military ten years ago. But everyone knew very well whether it was a real betrayal or a fake one at that time. And Samo, a foreign Royal level master with great late-stage strength, was his present biggest goal. Not to mention that when he went to wipe out the last strongholds of the foreign region, all the experts of God of War level inside had fled and gathered at Sky Breaking Valley! It made Joseph more determined to kill them. At this moment, Joseph looked into Sky Breaking Valley with a longsword in his hand. When he felt that the aura of Samo was getting closer and closer, he said to Qian Mian behind him, "Qian Mian, Samo is coming out, you may leave now." "Lord, I want to stay and help you," Qian Mian bit her lips and didn't want to leave. She was very worried about Joseph. After all, Samo of Sky Breaking Valley was a late-stage Titan level expert, who was very powerful. Joseph shook his head and said with a smile, "Just leave. When you reach the Divine King level in the future, you can stay with me. As for now, just leave. Otherwise, you may not be able to bear the aftermath of the battle later." After hesitating for a long time, Qian Mian nodded. She was reluctant, but she was too weak, and there was nothing she could do there. She made up her mind that she would definitely try her best to improve herself after that. Then, she would force the Four Divine Kings of Dragon Temple and Alpha 1 to advance. All of them were so slow to improve! Especially the Four Divine Kings, they were too weak! If they could advance to the Titan level, Lord would not be so tired and would have returned to Frogua. But instead, he still needed to go to the battlefield of Outer Region in person! Then, Lord, take care of yourself! Safety comes first. If you can't win, we'll just leave, okay?" Qian Mian said worriedly to Joseph. Joseph smiled and said, "Alright, I got it. And how unconfident you are towards your lord?" Qian Mian stuck out her tongue cutely. Then, with a flash, she got on the helicopter parked in the distance and flew away. Almost shortly after she left, a Titan level expert appeared on the cliff opposite Joseph. Behind the Titan level expert, there were three Semi Titan experts, confronting Joseph from a distance. The Titan level expert on the opposite was clearly the main target of Joseph, Samo, who had the strength of the late-stage Titan level! At this moment, when Samo saw Joseph, who was full of killing intent, his face became extremely serious. The person in front of him was the one who destroyed Ironclouds Organization alone and killed a middle-stage Titan level expert half year ago "Dragon Temple Lord!" Samo called out to Joseph solemnly. Joseph sneered. He nodded and looked at Samo, "Haha, Samo, you're finally out."

Samo stared at Joseph. He did not want to fight with Joseph. Although he felt that after half a year Joseph would be at most on the same level as him, Joseph was too young and his growth speed was unimaginable. Currently, the whole battlefield of Outer Region believed that the Dragon Temple Lord would be second to that person! Because they were both peerless talents. It was very likely that in another two or three years, Joseph would be like that person, stepping into the legendary level in a very short time. Therefore, even though he was an expert at the peak of the late stage of the Titan level, he did

Joseph.

Therefore, after thinking for a while, he said to Joseph in a low voice, "Dragon Temple Lord, how about we stop this battle? Our alliance doesn't know that you are at Usmit, otherwise, we won't send people to sneak in. Moreover, you have destroyed our 87 strongholds, and your anger should have subsided." Joseph shook his head and said, "No, the information my subordinate gave me was not 87, but 88, and the one left is you here. Speak no more. Just fight. I respect you as a senior in the battlefield of Outer Region so I didn't ambush you. I have saved your face." Samo's face changed once again as he said in a low voice, "Wait! Dragon Temple Lord, if you still feel unsatisfied, we can compensate you! We can compensate you! Tell me what you want." Joseph waved his long sword and sneered. With a rapid shift, he had crossed hundreds of meters and was instantly in front of Samo and then he slashed his sword at him. "Dragon Temple Lord! Don't go too far! There are two Titan level experts on our side!" With an angry roar, Samo also drew out a cold long saber to fight against Joseph. But the next moment, his body was knocked back. Then, the three Semi Titan level experts of Outer Region behind him joined forces to attack Joseph, but they were swept away by Joseph's sword. Between the two Titans as mentioned by Samo, another one referred to the combination of the three Semi Titan level experts under his command. The combined strength of the three Semi Titan was comparable to that of the Titan level. "Ha, two Titans? I fought with them half a year ago!" Joseph sneered. He ignored the three Semi Titan level experts and continued to charge at Samo. "Boom!" The long saber in Samo's hand collided with Joseph's long sword. After two loud bangs, the sword and the saber were broken. The broken sword in Joseph's hand directly cut off Samo's right arm. "Impossible! You, you, you..." At this moment, Samo was startled and he felt like dying. Joseph in front of him was definitely not at the late-stage of Titan level, but stronger. It seemed that he had reached the threshold of that level. However, what puzzled Samo was that Joseph frowned and was in a daze for a short moment. Otherwise, he would have lost half of his head instead of an arm! He had to run! He couldn't fight anymore. He's too horrible, too horrible. Just like the woman that time, irrepressible. He had to run away! Samo panicked and roared wildly in his heart. The next moment, he desperately ran to the darkness in the distance. He had made a decision in that short moment of fight. Although he still had the strength to fight with Joseph for a while, he was afraid. He was really scared because even if he could fight for a while, he would still die. At this moment, Samo immediately fled to the outside. "Samo can run, but do you think you three can run?" Joseph snorted coldly, and then his body rapidly shifted three times. With three explosions, the bodies of the three Semi Titan level experts fell to the ground. They couldn't even take one move from Joseph. After killing the three Semi Titan under Samo's command, Joseph frowned and glanced at the darkness behind him. The moment he wanted to kill Samo, he felt a throb in his heart. It seemed that someone was warning him. If he really killed Samo, someone in the battlefield of Outer Region would step up. "Are you the Guardian of Rules? But you seemed to have broken the rules just now. Samo can avoid death, but he can't escape the punishment. Today, I'll let it go, but I will remember this revenge..." Joseph muttered to the darkness in the distance, and his stare was immensely deep. The other party was stronger than him, and he might be the most powerful person who had really stepped into that level. However he would not forget that day's matter. As Joseph muttered, he entered the Sky Breaking Valley, which was the last stronghold of the forces of Outer Region that Qian Mian had found, and it was also the largest one. At this moment, with the abandoning of Samo, and the fall of the three Semi Titans, there were no more decent experts in that stronghold. After an hour. Sky Breaking Valley was covered in blood and smoke filled the night sky... The great alliance of forces of Outer Region, the largest stronghold in the battlefield of Outer Region, and the stronghold of Sky Breaking Valley were all destroyed! It was said that most of the people on the battlefield of Outer Region were bad. Almost everyone had killed people, and it's just the matter of many or a few. After destroying the stronghold at Sky Breaking Valley, Joseph picked up a long steel sword randomly and chased after the place where Samo fled in the distance... When he was chasing after him, he frowned slightly. He lacked a good weapon. Ordinary steel alloy weapons seemed to be unable to withstand his current power. Just when Joseph destroyed Sky Breaking Valley and chased after Samo who had lost an arm, a slim woman with an extremely strong aura suddenly appeared in the black fog in the eastern part of the battlefield of Outer Region. She rushed in with a two-meter-long black gold hammer in her hand. She raised the hammer in the air and smashed it down on an old man with white hair and beard. "Old b*stard, how dare you meddle in my brother's affairs? Are you teaching him how to do things? Huh?" The woman was nearly two meters tall and extremely sexy. She was wearing a long black dress. At the moment when the hammer was smashed down, her long fair legs also kicked at the old man's head. Looking at the extremely hot woman in front of him, the old man had a bitter smile on his old face and said, "Sorry, there are too few Royal-level warriors on the battlefield of Outer Region. They can't be killed anymore. After a round of killing by you that time, there were fewer of them now. You know, they can't be reduced. Otherwise, something bad will happen." The old man sighed and used the dust in his hand to block the hammer in the woman's hand. But soon his face changed because it was no use. He could only release half of his strength and his body was still hit by the hammer in the woman's hand. "Boom!" After an explosion, the old man was sent flying hundreds of meters away. When he landed on the ground, he couldn't help but spit out a mouthful of blood. Moreover his arm was bursting with heart-wrenching pain from blocking the woman's kick the moment before. The old man was extremely depressed. The crazy woman was getting stronger! It was just not long ago. When the old man saw the woman charging at him again, he hurriedly said, "Stop, stop. I'm doing this for the sake of the entire battlefield of Outer Region." The woman landed on the ground and snorted, "Old b*stard, listen carefully. My brother is going to live in Frogua and he is going to leave this place. It is those people who are looking for trouble with him! If you dare to interfere again, I will definitely kill you!" After saying that, the woman instantly left with the heavy hammer.

"He is not your brother! Your family members are, sigh, I was wrong, I was wrong. He is your brother..." Before the old man could finish his words, he suddenly remembered something and ran away. He didn't want to provoke the crazy woman, and it seemed that he couldn't defeat her currently. The old man felt an ache in his heart. The peerless genius was improving too fast. A few minutes later, the woman stood on the top of a mountain of the battlefield of Outer Region. Looking at the direction where Joseph disappeared, she smiled and said, "Joseph, don't come back here anymore. Live a good life with the person you like in Frogua. Don't follow my path. It's not a good one. It's lonely. I heard that you are married, so you should be happy... I wish you a happy life." The woman released her momentum and the dark clouds above her spread, revealing the moon which was covered by the clouds. A touch of moonlight shone on her, making her look so beautiful. But no one could see her beauty. There was no one on the mountain. She was alone and very lonely. After standing for a while, the woman jumped off the mountain peak and disappeared into the boundless night. The dark clouds above the mountain peak gathered again, and the rain continued to fall. The moment the woman disappeared, Joseph, who was dozens of miles away, seemed to have sensed something in his heart. He turned around and looked in the direction where the woman disappeared and his heart trembled. Joseph stayed and stared for a while before he turned around again and continued to chase in the direction of Samo. And that night, the experts of the entire battlefield of Outer Region were shocked. When the Dragon Temple Lord returned to the battlefield, he had killed all the way, killed all the alliance of foreign forces, and caused the whole battlefield to be covered in blood and smoke. He had caused countless experts to be frightened, and not dared to enter Frogua again. Everyone had remembered the name of the Dragon Temple Lord! The entire battlefield of Outer Region was shaking with fear.

As the dark night slowly passed, the morning sun in the distant sky slowly appeared. The rain above the vast and boundless Outer Region battlefield had also stopped. However, on the Outer Region battlefield, the flames on the dozens of burned base of the Outer Region alliance grew even heavier. In fact, there were still some materials that hadn't been burned down in those bases. At this moment, if someone were to rescue them, it was very likely that they would still be able to snatch some back. However, no one dared to rescue them. Because almost all of them were corpses. All of them had been killed overnight. There were even God of War and Divine King inside. In the Outer Region battlefield, so many powerful people died overnight, the vitality was greatly damaged. So last night, the Sovereign Guardian of the Outer Region battlefield, warned Joseph that he had killed too much. But at this moment, Joseph was still chasing after Samo. It didn't matter whether he killed Samo or not, but he wanted many people here to see this scene. If anyone dared to disturb his peaceful life, he would be ready to die. As for Samo, he was the top expert in the entire Outer Region battlefield, much stronger than the leader of the Ironclouds Organization that Joseph killed half a year ago. At this moment, Samo, who was covered in blood, was in an extremely sorry state. The place where his right arm disappeared was still dripping blood. His aura was extremely weak, and he was supported by a Titan-level belief. He did not want to die. He had cultivated to this extent and became an overlord here. He really did not want to die. At this moment, he was running ahead, and Joseph was chasing him from two or three kilometers behind. for more Daily updates visit :- "Mr. Dawson! I was wrong! I swear that I will never dare to enter Frogua! I was wrong. Let me go!" Samo screamed desperately. Although Joseph did not tell him anything after running away all night, he seemed to understand what Joseph meant at this moment. Because if Joseph wanted to kill him, he would have died last night. It was impossible for him to live until this morning and see the sun that day. Moreover, he was the top expert in the Outer Region battlefield. He knew some of the most secret things here. He felt that someone must have warned Joseph since Joseph did not kill him last night. But although he knew it, he still did not dare to confront Joseph or violate his will. The Sovereign Guardians could warn Joseph, but he did not dare. As Samo fled, he continued to shout with his greatest voice,

“Mr. Dawson, let me go. I will be in seclusion for three years, and I will not appear in the world for three years!” Letting him go was also meant for Joseph. Last night, he vaguely knew the real strength of Joseph. It was definitely not a simple late-stage Giant level, but an even more powerful existence. He even vaguely touched the threshold. So he was afraid that Joseph would kill him to silence him. Moreover, Joseph, who was chasing him, was only showing the late-stage Giant level, so he quickly shouted at Joseph. At this moment, the sky had completely brightened. The miserable scene of Samo running all the way on the Outer Region battlefield also shocked countless experts. That was a Royal-level Master at the peak of the late stage, but at this moment, he was being chased like a dog. And from his words, it was not hard to tell that he was really scared of being chased. Otherwise, he would not have ignored his face and shouted out those words of begging for mercy.

Then, the experts of the Outer Region battlefield saw Joseph chasing after him with his sword in hand. When the two of them passed by, everyone retreated, but this scene was deeply imprinted in their hearts. Everyone understood the reason why Joseph was chasing after Samo. Once again, they were shocked by the strength of the Dragon Temple Lord. At this moment, the two Divine Kings under the command of the Dragon Temple, Gloom King and Combat King, were fighting crazily with the two members of Team 1. One of them was Bai Hao, Bai Ye's big brother! Unexpectedly, Gloom and Combat had already found him. After receiving the news that day, they mobilized all their forces in the Outer Region battlefield to search for Bai Hao. For no other reason, just because his brother Bai Ye sneaked into Frogua for Bai Ye and seriously injured their brother, Vanish! So the two of them wanted to kill Bai Hao! At this moment, Bai Hao, who was wearing a black windbreaker and half a black mask on his face, was also extremely gloomy. His younger brother had always let him worry about everything, and he was not his biological younger brother. Originally, he wanted to pull Bai Ye into Team 1. In this way, he could take care of Bai Ye. However, Bai Ye not only disagreed, but also told him that one day he would replace Bai Hao in Team 1. Therefore, Bai Hao was very angry. At this moment, he was seriously injured by the two Divine Kings of the Dragon Temple. If his partners in Team 1 hadn't come to rescue him, he would have died. “Gloom, Combat. Bai Ye is himself, and I am me! Don't go too far! I don't know what Bai Ye has done. The Bai family has hundreds of people. He is not my biological brother!!!” After Bai Hao punched Combat, he roared angrily at Combat. With bare arms and a long sword in his hand, Combat continued to attack Bai Hao madly. He sneered and said, “I don't care if he is your biological brother or not. Anyway, there is nothing good about the man surnamed Bai! Come on, let's continue to fight. This time, either you let us kill or you killed us...” After Combat finished speaking, he rushed to Bai Hao again. For more Daily updates visit :- “F*ck you!!!” Bai Hao was furious, but there was nothing he could do. He was as powerful as Combat was in the battle. He was at the peak of the Semi Titan Level, and he might break through in the next second. It was said that Bai Hao could not kill the Divine King of the Dragon Temple. He knew more than his brother, so even if he could find an opportunity to kill Combat and Gloom, he did not dare to do so. Didn't he see that previously, the Dragon Temple Lord had destroyed eighty-eight strongholds in the Outer Region battlefield overnight... At this moment half of the Outer Region battlefield was still filled with smoke. At this moment, when the four of them were fighting fiercely, suddenly, in the sky above their heads, the incomparably tragic Samo fled. The four of them stopped fighting at the same time and stared blankly in the direction of the escape. Soon, before the four of them could react, Joseph appeared above their heads and chased in the direction of Samo's escape. "Bai Hao, I killed your brother. If you want to take revenge, come to me." After saying that, Joseph flashed and chased after the fleeing Samo and disappeared. "I... Bai Hao almost cried. That was the Lord of the Dragon Temple just now. And what was he doing? He was chasing after Samo. "He's the old-school overlord of the Outer Region battlefield. He's an expert at the late-stage of the Royal level. Do I even dare to seek revenge on you?" Bai Hao was about to cry. He's probably the most tragic Team 1 in the history of the Outer Region battlefield. Combat took a deep look at Gloom next to him and said, "Boss is stronger, and we have to be stronger!" Combat nodded seriously and said, "Well, so we should kill Bai Hao and his partner first. Fight between life and death is our chance to make a breakthrough." Bai Hao was speechless. After Joseph chased after Samo and went far away, a man wearing a black mask and a black golden windbreaker appeared in the distance where Gloom and Combat were fighting with Bai Hao and his partner. There was a trace of a smile in the corner of his eyes, and he thought to himself, "The momentum of the late-stage Royal level? Ha, Dragon Temple Lord, you are not only that. How can the partner I choose be weaker than me? You should have touched the threshold. It's okay to deceive others, but it's not enough to deceive me. It's really strong. I want you to be my partner more and more..." This mysterious strong man is the one who communicated with Joseph in front Qian Mian when Joseph arrived at the Outer Region battlefield in the previous afternoon. At this moment, he was not far from the four of them. But the four of them didn't find him. Of course, Joseph, who just passed by he but he didn't say anything.

There were ten teams of assassins from Outer Region. Among them, members of Team 2 to Team 9 kept changing. They would be wiped out from time to time, and then rebuilt. But Team 1 had never been wiped out! Never! From this, it could be seen that Team 1 of Outer Region was definitely not as simple as they looked. They were all Semi Titan level? How could it be possible? Just the mysterious expert who had been pestering Joseph and wanted to be his partner was far from ordinary Titan level. As Samo continued to flee, Joseph continued to chase after him. He had entered the Outer Region battlefield at 4 p.m. the previous day, so he would only stay here for 24 hours. But this time, it was already afternoon. The escaping Samo in front of him was shouting so loudly that he could barely hold on. Joseph also slowed down his pursuit and was ready to leave. After chasing him for a whole night, he was very sure that after this time, Samo would never dare to make enemies with the Dragon Temple again, nor would he dare to be a tool for those forces in Smiyacia. However, just as Joseph was about to give up chasing after another hill, he suddenly saw another battlefield at the foot of the hill. At this moment, there were more than a hundred people fighting fiercely on the battlefield. One of them was from the Frogua military! for more Daily updates visit :- The four God of War were leading dozens of soldiers who were Semi God of War, were fighting with Team 7? Joseph raised his eyebrows deeply. He didn't want to have too many dealings with the Frogua military. He didn't intend to care about it and continued to chase after Samo. At this moment, the group of people who were engaged in battle at the foot of the hill were stunned when they saw a late-stage Royal level fleeing at high speed. They all stopped fighting. Team 7 had the absolute upper hand and were about to kill all four of the God of War of the Frogua military. They also looked in the direction of the disappearance of Samo in shock.

while, Joseph's figure appeared in the air above the battlefield. He didn't want to interfere at first, but for some reason, when he saw an old God of War in the military of the Frogua from the corner of his eyes, his heart suddenly throbbed. The old God of War's face was covered with blood, but his eyes were extremely firm. Most importantly, when Joseph saw the old God of War, he had a familiar feeling in his heart. At this moment, the old God of War and his comrades-in-arms below were almost completely surrounded and killed by Team 7 from the Outer Region. There were five peak stage God of War assassins in Team 7. Joseph looked at the old God of War, and his eyes were full of death. Suddenly, he almost subconsciously reached out his hand and sent an attack with his palm on the five God of War in Team 7 below. With a loud bang, the five God of War in Team 7 exploded, instantly killing seven or eight Semi God of War assassins. Joseph frowned and struck out this palm. His figure flashed again and disappeared. However, the uncomfortable feeling in his heart was very strong. Ten minutes later, Samo, who was in the distance, had used up his last bit of strength and fell to the ground. He could no longer run. He looked desperately at Joseph, who was walking in front of him. He opened his mouth, but could not say anything. However, Joseph did not kill him. Instead, he took out a secret medicine and threw it into his arms. Then, he turned around and left. It was time for him to go back. "Uh..." On the ground, covered in blood, the miserable Samo looked blankly at the disappearing Joseph. His mouth was wide open, and he was extremely shocked. In the end, he became deeply grateful that Joseph did not kill him. Half an hour later, after Joseph took a helicopter driven by Qian Mian and left the Outer Region battlefield. At the battlefield where he interfered with just now, the group of people from the Frogua military, led by the four God of War, finally killed the remaining Team 7 killers. However, at this moment, an old God of War, who was sitting on the ground gasping for breath, had an indescribable feeling in his heart. Why did he feel that the mysterious Royal level who saved him just now was very familiar? It seemed that he had seen him somewhere before, and it seemed that he cared a lot about him. The old God of War frowned deeply. for more Daily updates visit :- He tried hard to figure out something, but he couldn't remember it. Was he old? "Charles, how is your injury? Is it serious? In my opinion, you have long reached the age of retirement, and Mr. Sebastian has also asked you to go back to Vowhye. Why are you still so desperate?" At this time, a God of War of the Frogua, who was about 50 years old, came to the old God of War and said with a complicated expression. And this old God of War was surprisingly the old patriarch of the Dawson family in Vowhye, as well as the grandfather of Joseph. He had not seen him many times since he was a child. He had been fighting for the Frogua all his life, and he was an old Outer Region God of War in charge of Outer Region battlefield, Charles Dawson!!! Charles smiled and said, "It's okay. By the way, Lao Ba, who is the Royal level who just saved us? Why do I feel that he is very familiar? Do you know him?" The God of War of the Frogua, nicknamed Lao Ba, thought for a moment and said, "I don't know him. What are you thinking about? He is a Royal-level expert!" "The matchless Titan level expert from the Outer Region battlefield! What are you thinking? He is so young, yet you still want to establish a relationship with him, don't you? Haha, you've thought too much. Go back and rest." "Well, maybe I'm too old to think too much. Ah, this is the last time I've fought side by side with you. I really feel that I can't hold on any longer. Old brothers, take care of yourself. I'll recuperate. Next month, I'll go back to Vowhye." Charles said bitterly. Looking at his comrades-in-arms, he was very reluctant. At half past four in the afternoon, Joseph officially took a private plane and left the Outer Region battlefield. He flew to the direction of the Usmaït of Frogua. On the previous day, he stepped into the Outer Region battlefield and stayed there for only one night, but it left a deep nightmare for the experts in the most chaotic land. Before he left, he ordered Qian Mian to let Combat and Gloom to lead the soldiers in the battle to kill all assassins from the Outer Region other than Team 1. "This time, I can finally live a quiet life..." On the plane to Usmit, Joseph breathed a long sigh of relief and thought of Chloe and his wife. A smile appeared on his face.
