Chapter 124

At half past six in the evening, the sky of Frogua gradually darkened and it was about to enter the night. At this moment, in the central region of the continuous mount Frogua, a valley was filled with thick smoke. The valley was in a mess, and broken walls were everywhere. This was the base camp of a hidden force. At this moment, this hidden force, which was not convinced of the Frogua military, had been removed. After this battle, the Frogua military had also lost seven God of War and seriously injured three Divine King. At this moment, Sebastian who was tired had a pale face. He was sitting on a big stone with a long sword. Looking at the scene in the valley below, he took a deep breath. This fierce battle lasted for two days and two nights. Finally, he led Frogua military to succeed. Terrance was also sitting next to him feebly, gasping for breath and looking serious. The next moment, Terrance let out a long sigh and said to Sebastian, "Marshal, the war here is over, but our military has also suffered heavy losses. If this happened a few more times, our military's years of accumulation will be used up."

There was also a hint of worry in Sebastian's eyes. He said, "Alas, let's take it one step at a time. Now that Frogua is flourishing and National Destiny is flourishing, this hidden trash want to get a share of it. In the future, there will be more and more people like them." Terrance looked more worried. He can't help but say to Sebastian, "Marshal, if someone comes out again in the future, let's use firearms. If our old brothers in the military go on like this, we will really be defeated. It's not worth it for this trash." Sebastian was silent. Firearms was an extremely terrifying word. That was right. In this era, the firearms had far exceeded that of cold weapons. The appearance of firearms was the destruction of all aspects. No matter how deeply hidden those hidden forces were, they could not do it. However, firearms had a huge disadvantage, which was that after the firearms attack, the place would become a death zone. A death zone that could not be entered by life for hundreds or thousands of years! Therefore, unless there was no other choice, Sebastian and the few other elders at the highest level of Frogua would definitely not allow firearms to be used. However, Terrance was right. If this continued, what would happen if the Frogua military was to be wiped out? Therefore, Sebastian was silent for a long time. After a long time, he raised his head again and said, "Forget it, let's talk about it later. Let's take it one step at a time. Besides, there are restrictions on using firearms. After the firearms exploded in Dong Ying Country, it aroused some people's fear. So even if we want to use firearms, those people will not exist. What if they enter the secular world and destroy all the people who control firearms? Terrance, don't say this word anymore in the future. Many things have rules. We can't break the rules!" Terrance said gloomily, "Huh, rules? D*mn rules! Those people didn't come out when Frogua was in trouble. This time we have paid countless costs to make the country prosperous, and they want to come out and have a share? Huh, how can there be such a good thing in the world? Why?" Terrance was extremely reluctant. Sebastian shook his head. He did not say anything else. Instead, he ordered a cigarette from the soldiers beside him and started smoking. He smoked deeply and kept smoking. He was tired, very tired, but he couldn't show it to his soldiers. When the cigarette was finished, Sebastian started smoking three more cigarettes at the same time. But as he smoked, he suddenly seemed to think of something and quickly said to Terrance, "By the way, Terrance, in the early morning a few days ago, didn't you say that the child called you for help? He said that something also happened to Usmait, and asked you to send two Divine King-level experts over. Now you should investigate the news about Usmait." Upon hearing Sebastian's words, Terrance was also stunned. His face changed greatly. He really forgot what had happened on Usmait's side. The next moment, he quickly took out his mobile phone and was ready to contact Wang Tianhai. But just as he was about to contact Wang Tianhai, he suddenly stood up, and the cigarette that he had just stuffed in his mouth fell to the ground. "How could this be? How is this possible?" Terrance muttered in disbelief as he flipped through the message from the headquarters of the Frogua military on his phone. "Huh? What's wrong? What happened? Or is the girl from the Yin family dead? After all, our Frogua's military didn't protect her well... Alas." Sebastian was even more exhausted. In his heart, he gathered almost all the elites that the Frogua's military could mobilize, and those forces from Outer Region took advantage of this opportunity to go to Usmait. He was also very powerless. Although Joseph was in Usmait, Joseph would only protect his wife and daughter. This was also human nature. After all, Joseph was not familiar with Yin Chaoge and she had nothing to do with him. But the next moment, when Sebastian was thinking dispiritedly, Terrance shook his head and said, "No, no." "The situation on Usmait's side was indeed far beyond our imagination this time. The other party sent out the Team 2 killers from the Outer Region battlefield, and two Semi Royal level experts. However, they were all killed. Dragon Temple Lord recruited two Divine Kings from the Outer Region battlefield, Slaughter King and Vanish King. Then, he personally killed all of the other party. "What?" Sebastian's eyes were wide open.

The next moment, Terrance looked at Sebastian with a more complicated expression in his eyes and said, "That's not all. The previous day, the child even went straight to the Outer Region battlefield and slaughtered 88 strongholds of the Outer Region Alliance overnight. He killed all the alliance members in the Outer Region, causing their heads to roll and blood to flow like a river. He even seriously injured a late-stage Royal level of the Outer Region. He chased after the other side for a night. Marshal, after this battle, I'm afraid that those foreign forces will not dare to enter Frogua and assassinate Yin Chaoge in a short period of time." Even Sebastian, the real Royal level expert, was shocked for a long time when he heard the news from Terrance. Yes, he could do these things, but he couldn't do it. He was restricted by the rules. Only Joseph could do it, because in real sense, he didn't join the Frogua military! In Oplen, he pretended to let Terrance arrange for him to be the God of War of the Frogua Outer Region, just to give an explanation to his wife. Moreover, the identity of the God of War of the Outer Region was not registered at all. It was just a verbal arrangement.

It was a long time later before Sebastian took a deep breath and said, "That child did what I wanted to do, but I didn't dare to do. This time, he no longer owes us anything, but we owe him again and owe him a lot." Sebastian, at this moment, the Fourth Elder, who was powerful in Frogua, had a complicated look in his eyes. Because Joseph was a young man who valued love and loyalty from beginning to end. He loved Frogua very much, but he basically had no good memories in the life of Frogua. Five years ago, the Dawson family forced him to escape from Frogua and went to the Outer Region battlefield, Sebastian thought about it..

Terrance took a deep breath and nodded. With a complicated look in his eyes, he said to Sebastian, "Marshal, that's not all. This time, the child accidentally met his grandfather, Charles, in the Outer Region battlefield. Sebastian's heart skipped a beat. He once again looked at the Terrance and asked, "Did they reconcile with each other?"

Terrance shook his head bitterly and said, "No, how could it be possible? When Mr. Charles left the Dawson family, the child was a few years old! He couldn't remember Mr. Charles's appearance at all. And Mr. Charles couldn't recognize the child. Therefore, when they met this time, they were in a desperate moment when Mr. Charles and the others were surrounded by Outer Region killers. As a result, the child probably felt that Mr. Dawson was familiar, so he killed the Team 7 killers and rescued Mr. Charles. Then he continued to hunt for Samo. So from beginning to end, they didn't say a word. After a pause, Terrance continued, "So, Marshal, do you think this is fate? Mr. Charles, who was seriously injured two months ago and should have been quietly recuperating, rushed over because of the help of his old brother in the Outer Region battlefield. And the child also rushed to the Outer Region battlefield because of some things. And then, he happened to save his grandfather?" Upon hearing this, Sebastian also sank. He looked up at the vast and boundless land of Frogua in the distance and remained silent for a long time. Was it fate? Maybe it was. Joseph was now recognized by almost all the high-level officials of Frogua. The real dragon of this generation of Frogua. And yet Joseph did not want to participate in the affairs of the Frogua military too much. But every time, it was he who would solve the problem. This time, it was the same. Sebastian asked himself that even if he went there in person, he would not do better than the child. It was even different that his tired body could completely deal with the two Semi Royal level masters who had entered the border. However, Joseph did it. Moreover, he went to the Outer Region battlefield to shock them once. He destroyed 88 strongholds in the night and killed all of them to death. From then on, they did not dare to enter Frogua easily. When he was about to return, he even saved a group of soldiers from the Frogua military. At this moment, Sebastian, who was at the peak of the late stage of the Royal level, looked at the land under his feet and seemed to have understood something. The next moment, Sebastian said to Terrance, "Terrance, take a Divine King with you to Usmit and thank the child. And his grandfather, Charles, give him a death order! Even if all the Outer Region military troops are destroyed, he will not interfere! Take good care of his injuries! Tell him that I will give him a month at most. A month later, he must return to Vowhye!" "D*mn it, no matter what method he uses, I must keep that child here! He has to give me an explanation for the mess of the Dawson family!" Sebastian's eyes were full of great anger at this moment. Joseph was such an excellent junior. The future of Frogua. If Charles could not solve the problem well, he would personally lead the army to kill those unfilial descendants of the Dawson family. "Yes, Marshal!" Terrance took the order, and then did not dare to stay any longer. According to the information, Joseph was taking a private plane back to Frogua, and soon he could reach Usmit. He had to rush to Usmit before Joseph rushed back. At this moment, in a quiet secret room in the underground fortress of the Yin family, the severely injured and unconscious Vanish was lying quietly on the bed. His shirt was taken off, and his arms were wrapped with white bandages. There was an infusion tube in his hand, and he was still in a coma at the moment.

The black-clad Leng Yijun was sitting quietly on the edge of the bed of Vanish. Vanish had been unconscious for a whole night. She sat next to Vanish and accompanied him for a day

- and a whole night. She had watched Vanish for a whole night. Vanish's fingers suddenly moved, and Leng Yijun with two big black circles under her eyes was suddenly shocked. Then there was joy in her eyes, because Vanish was about to wake up. The next moment, when he opened his eyes, she smiled and said to Vanish warmly, "You're awake. Do you feel better?" However, in the next moment, Vanish's eyes turned cold. He pulled out a dagger from his waist, instantly turned over, and pushed Leng Yijun against the wall. The dagger in his hand was pressed against Leng Yijun's neck. Vanish's eyes were extremely cold as he said to Leng Yijun, "Stop pestering me! Get lost! If I see you again in the future, I will kill you!" Vanish stared at Leng Yijun. Although he was in a coma before, he could still feel that Leng Yijun had been accompanying him. This made him very complicated. He had his own way of thinking. From the moment he entered the Outer Region battlefield, he had never thought of finding a girlfriend and having a relationship. Because people like him could not have feelings. So instead of trouble in the future, it was better to completely cut off Leng Yijun's thoughts this time! Leng Yijun was stunned. At this moment, she really felt a trace of killing intent from Vanish. She stood against the wall in a daze and did not dare to say a word. "Put it together or you'll pull yourself down! I don't like women like you. Stop dreaming!" After saying this coldly, Vanish turned around and left the secret chamber. He walked out of the Yin family's fortress. As he walked, he checked all kinds of messages sent by Qian Mian. When he saw the Lord go to the Outer Region battlefield and solve all the problems, he made a decision that there was no need for him to stay in Usmit anymore. Then Vanish went out. After a long time, a tear suddenly fell from Leng Yijun's eyes. Vanish came to the outside of the Yin family's fortress, looked at Slaughter, who was still sitting cross-legged on the ground, and said, "The lord has gone to the Outer Region battlefield. The matter of the Yin family has been resolved. It's time for us to go." Slaughter nodded and said, "Okay. Then he stood up and wanted to leave with Vanish. But at this moment, Yin Chaoge's anxious voice came from behind him, "Wait a minute! Your sword." Slaughter turned around, and then he saw that behind him, Yin Chaoge was dragging an extremely heavy giant sword, walking toward him with difficulty steps. Slaughter looked at Yin Chaoge, who was walking towards him with great difficulty, and remained silent. At this moment, Yin Chaoge's body was very dirty, and there were some dust and some unknown black things everywhere. Her white face was the same. The previous day, after talking with Slaughter for a while, she went to the underground fortress to repair Slaughter's big sword. Yin Chaoge was the best scientist in the world. Slaughter's huge sword suffered a lot in the battle. Yin Chaoge knew that Slaughter couldn't stay here for a long time. There was no evidence, but she just had a feeling. So she didn't sleep all night and used what she had learned and mastered to repair Slaughter's huge sword. She secretly added an intelligent protection procedure to the giant sword, which usually absorbed various energy. At the critical moment, it could open a protective cover to save Slaughter's life. "Well, thank you." Slaughter took over the huge sword dragged by Yin Chaoge and felt that it was much heavier. He was a murderous maniac. He didn't understand how Yin Chaoge fixed the sword for him, but he felt that the giant sword in his hand seemed to be more convenient than before. Then he carried the giant sword on his back and followed Vanish in the distance. He no longer looked back at Yin Chaoge. If one looked down from the sky, only to see a scene. Within a radius of more than ten miles, there were ruins of the Yin family. Slaughter and Vanish, the two Divine Kings of the Dragon Temple slowly walked away until they disappeared. Behind them, a woman was dejected in the underground fortress. A world class genius woman with a dirty face smiled and watched her beloved man go away. Slaughter and Vanish, the matchless geniuses on the Outer Region battlefields, would inevitably become the existence of the Royal-level Master in the future. What they didn't know was that their trip to Usmaït this time had opened up a romantic relationship, which they didn't expect at all.

It was 10 o'clock in the middle of the night, at Paige's home in Usmaït City. At this moment, it was already very late, but Chloe was not asleep yet. She was really afraid : that Joseph would not come back after he went out. Her father had not co went out the day before. And it was already late at night yet her father still showed no signs of coming home. No one could imagine how great her dependence on Joseph was. "Mom, will Dad be back tonight?" Chloe asked Paige. She was wearing a white skirt and her big eyes were full of hope. But if one looked closely, there was a hint of worry in her big eyes. She was still a child who was not supposed to have that emotion at her age. Paige squatted down and said to Chloe, "Chloe, don't worry. Dad will be back. He gave me a call previously, he told me that he went out to get something done and will be back soon." "Well, I'll go to sleep once daddy's back then..." Chloe nodded with a smile, she was such an obedient child that any adult would feel distressed for her. Moreover, Paige knew Chloe very well. She could wait for Joseph all night long. She wouldn't fall asleep until she couldn't hold on any longer. At this moment, Alpha 1, who was also sitting in the living room, stood up and said to Paige and Chloe, "Paige,.I received a message that boss is back, so I'm leaving now." Paige, Serena, Yahir, and Estella didn't know what had happened outside. . However, they could guess something was up if Joseph could keep his personal guard team here. Although they didn't mention it, they were all worried about Joseph. Therefore Alpha 1 had no choice but to sleep in the living room of the Mooney family to accompany them. He had been persuading them that Joseph was the God of War and he would be fine. Just as Serena stood up and wanted to say something, the door suddenly opened, and Joseph came in with a plane toy in his hand. Joseph, who had not slept for nearly two days, who had been running back and forth for thousands of miles, couldn't help but show a trace of fatigue on his face. However, his loved ones were all here at Usmaït, his wife and his little daughter, who were the most important people in his life, "Chloe, Dad is back. Look at the toy plane Dad bought for you. Do you like it?" Joseph waved the toy plane in his hand at Chloe. "Dad." Chloe shouted happily. In an instant, she jumped off Paige's legs and ran to Joseph. She threw herself into his arms and kissed his face a few times. Joseph said to his daughter apologetically, "I'm sorry, Chloe. Dad went out to do something. Chloe shook her head and said, "It's okay, it's okay. You left home for something important so I'll stay at home with mom waiting for you to come back. Dad, you've worked hard... Chloe said to Joseph sensibly. She really didn't Joseph that she was actually worried about him at all. Joseph nodded to Chloe, then gratefully looked at Alpha 1 and said, "Alpha 1, you've worked hard these two days. Go and get some rest." Alpha 1 looked at the exhaustion between Joseph's brows and his expression changed. He then said, "Boss, are you alright?" Joseph smiled and said, "It's okay. It's all settled. Let the brothers take turns to rest too." "Okay! Then boss, you should rest early too." Alpha 1 nodded and left the room. After Alpha 1 left, Estella also hurried to Joseph. She held Chloe in her arms and said to Chloe, "Chloe, your father is very tired. Can you go to bed early?" Chloe nodded very sensibly. Then, Estella asked Joseph, "Joseph, are you all right? If you're injured, go to the hospital

immediately. Don't plough on. I've read the news and the issue at Yin family is not small." Estella was actually worried. She now liked her son-in-law from the bottom of her heart. In the past two days, she had asked Alpha 1 many times if Joseph could return to the military." Then Alpha 1 firmly told her that his boss was never expelled from the military. As long as his boss was willing to, he could return to the military at any time. His boss didn't want to go back to the military now because he wanted to spend more time with Paige and Chloe at home. Estella and Yahir were both shocked to hear this. However, since Joseph was not at home in the past two days, they did not dare to talk about it with Paige too. They could only wait for Joseph to come back. Then they planned to persuade their daughter so that she could get Joseph to focus on his career. At this moment, after Estella finished asking, Yahir and Paige's hearts skipped a beat too. Joseph said to them with a smile, "Dad, Mom, Paige, it's really okay. Everything is fine now. The Yin family is fine, it's just that their house has collapsed a little." "And they can rebuild it. The Yin family is not short of money. Don't worry, everything is fine." Estella was finally relieved after hearing what Joseph had said. Then Joseph took Chloe from Estella's arms with a smile and went to her room with Chloe in his arms to coax her to sleep. Joseph was very sensitive. Although he didn't spend much time with his daughter, he knew her better. Chloe was very similar to him. As expected, when Joseph took her back to the room to sleep, Chloe was very happy. When Joseph returned with Chloe in his arms to coax her to sleep, Estella winked at Paige and asked her to cook something for Joseph. She nodded and went to the kitchen to prepare some food. Half an hour later, she got some simple dishes ready and went to the room to ask Joseph to come out to eat. When she opened the door, she saw that both Joseph and Chloe were asleep. Chloe covered herself with a small quilt and fell asleep with her arms around Joseph's arm.

king off his shoes, Joseph lay on the bedside of Chloe and fell asleep with his daughter in his arms. Moreover, Joseph was snoring loudly. "He never snores while sleeping..." Paige thought. She looked at the sleeping Joseph who looked really tired. At this moment, Chloe, who was lying in Joseph's arms, suddenly opened her eyes and smiled at Paige. It turned out that she was not asleep. Joseph was trying to coax her to sleep, but she also felt that her father was tired, so she pretended to be asleep. At this moment, she heard that Paige came in, so she opened her eyes and hissed at her. Paige's heart trembled. Her daughter was too obedient. She nodded, walked lightly to Joseph, and took off his shoes. Joseph's shoes were very dirty, so she took them to the bathroom to get them washed. But when she was washing the pair of shoes in the bathroom, the water on the ground turned red. Looking blankly at the blood rushing out of the soles of Joseph's shoes, Paige instantly understood. She understood that she and Chloe had never lived a peaceful life in heaven and earth. It was just that there was a person in front of them who had endured all of the hardships. Paige could not imagine what Joseph had done in the past two days and nights. But the soles of his shoes were covered with blood. Anyone could easily tell that Joseph had gone through a lot in the past two days. Another half an hour passed. After washing the shoes for Joseph, she quietly walked into Chloe's room. This time, her daughter was really asleep, and she had changed her sleeping posture. She curled up her little body in her father's arms like how she always liked to do. Paige walked up to Joseph, took off her high heels, but did not take off her stockings. She kissed Joseph and Chloe. Then she gently covered Joseph with the quilt, and finally lay down on the other side of Chloe. At 12 o'clock in the middle of the night, after Paige, Joseph were asleep, Terrance, who was dressed in black, arrived at the ruins of the Yin family's villa in Usmit City with several people. At this moment, the matter of those Outer Region assassins had been resolved. None of the remaining Semi God of War killers escaped. They were all wiped out by Wang Tianhai and Felix. The Yin family began to rebuild. The upper echelons of the Yin family were planning things out on the ruins. After learning of the arrival of the Terrance, his mind was still in a state of shock. Eason, who was very silent now, also came in front of Terrance. Not only Eason, Felix and Terrance also came over. "How are the casualties here?" Terrance asked Wang Tianhai weakly. After all, Wang Tianhai was the commander-in-chief of the Usmit military. Wang Tianhai took a deep breath and shook his head with a complicated expression. He said, "It's so small that we can even ignore it. Because we don't seem to have done anything. When the two Semi Titan level killers attacked us, we were staying in the Yin family's underground fortress. Wang Tianhai felt a little frustrated because he, the God of War, couldn't interfere! He couldn't do anything from the beginning to end. Terrance nodded and said, "Well, that man is back we shall visit him with Alpha 1 soon. You can continue doing what you're supposed to do." "Well, okay." Wang Tianhai and Felix nodded and continued to help the Yin family plan. The Yin family was rebuilt according to the military's plan. It was built this way to ensure its safety. However, after Felix and Wang Tianhai left, Eason, who had always been arrogant in Vowhye, did not leave. Instead, he found a stone and sat down in a dispirited manner. "Are you confused? Are you wondering who that person is? You should know something, right?" Terrance said to Eason with a smile. Eason was also a leading figure among the younger generation of Frogua. He was an extremely outstanding existence and his future prospects were limitless. He was evaluated by the military as being able to break through to the Royal level in another ten or twenty years. Eason nodded his head blankly and said, "He has never been a God of War in the Outer Region, but a Divine King level God of War, right? A powerful Divine King, right? That Joseph, that abandoned son of the Dawson family whom Vowhye rumored that he was forced to leave some time ago? It is said that he was a God of War in the outside world, Joseph at the same age as me? Am I right? Huh? All of a sudden, a strange feeling welled up in the Terrance's heart. "Divine King? Stop fooling around. He's an existence like your grandfather. He's at the Royal level, and it's not the ordinary Royal level." At this moment, Terrance's heart was feeling extremely strange.

"Huh? What's wrong? Mr. Lambert, is my guess wrong?" Eason looked at him with a puzzled expression.

The corner of Terrance's mouth twitched. Behind him stood a Divine King level expert, the fifth commander of the Frogua's military who had the similar expression. Sigh. If that's what you thought so, then just let it be. Terrance patted Eason's shoulder and thought to himself, "Kid, there are some things that you'd better not know. I'm afraid that you can't bear it if you know the truth." Terrance could only sigh at this moment. If Eason knew ity of Joseph and what he could really do, he would probably be extremely demotivated and demoralized. After Terrance finished speaking, he then went to meet Yin : Chaoge. These days, the female genius of Frogua, a world-class scientist, had also been too frightened and needed to be comforted. "Eh... what do you mean? Is there a confidentiality order to this? Am I not supposed to know because of my rank? Mr. Lambert, are you being serious? I'm also a member of the military. I'm at the early stage of the God of War though!" Eason shouted with a depressed face. Terrance who was walking towards the other direction suddenly staggered. He really wanted to go back and kick Eason in the ass so that he no longer annoy him with this anymore. Damn it, why did he used to have the idea that Eason had the posture of his grandfather, Sebastian? But now, why did he feel that he was a good-for-nothing? Terrance didn't want to bother Eason anymore. He would get annoyed if he saw Eason again. At his age, he was already complacent about breaking through to the God of War level. Yet Joseph was already at the Royal level, and he was chasing after an Outer Region Royal level at the level of his grandfather till the other party begged for mercy. How could you compete with him? Where did you get the courage to do that? This arrogant kid should really get himself expelled. With the best resources in the headquarters of the Vowhye military, yet he could only break through to the God of War level? What's the use of that? Yet he's bragging out him being at the early-stage of the God of War? How many people did Joseph kill last night? Joseph didn't even bother to count them. Terrance was so mad that his heart was twitching. He must really tell Mr. Sebastian to educate this arrogant child well after he got back. If Mr. Sebastian refused to do anything, then he would! Poor Eason, the genius of Vowhye's newest generation, and the most powerful leader of his generation, had no idea at all of how much the commander of Frogua's military wanted to beat him up in his heart right now, and the urge of him wanting to beat him up was growing larger and larger. Terrance found Yin Chaoge amidst the large piece of ruins, and she looked exactly like Eason right now, sitting on a big stone in a daze without anyone knowing what they were really thinking. It was not until Terrance came to her and coughed twice that she came to her senses. Yin Chaoge was also shocked when she saw Terrance coming in person. She quickly stood up and bowed to him with a pale face. "Terrance, why did you come here in person?" There was a hint of deep apology in the eyes of Terrance. He looked at Yin Chaoge and said apologetically, "Kid, I'm sorry. Something was up in the Frogua's military these days, and we were all held back so we were unable to be at Usmit to protect you. Alas, fortunately, you are fine, but don't worry. Such a thing won't happen again in the future. Our military has sent a Divine king here, and your safety will definitely be ensured in the future." Unexpectedly, Yin Chaoge shook her head and said, "Mr. Lambert, there's no need to do so. I'm fine..." In fact, Yin Chaoge was actually thinking that she did not need their protection. What's the use of sending a Divine King here? She had a feeling that whenever she was in danger in the future, Slaughter would be there for her. What if Slaughter knew that someone was protecting her and no longer came for her? Well, our top female genius had a different thought process from ordinary people. At this moment, the mouth of the fifth commander of Frogua military, who was standing behind Terrance, twitched twice. "What do you mean by that disdain look? Although I'm at the early-stage of Divine King, I'm still a Divine King, okay? Why do you despise me so much?" "Uh, kid," Terrance also did not know how to react. He opened his mouth and wanted to say something, but stopped on second thought. Yin Chaoge's eyes lit up. She looked up at Terrance and asked with great expectation, "Terrance, can your Frogua's military contact the Slaughter King? Can you ask him to be back at Usmit? You can, right? Otherwise, why would he come to Usmit to save me this time? This is already his second time saving me." The muscles on the corner of Terrance's mouth twitched again. He really wanted to tell her that he actually didn't know him in person. And he did not have the power to mobilize them too. They were both at the same level. Besides, in a life-and-death battle, he, an old man, would definitely lose to the Slaughter King. As for the fifth commander of the military, who had the strength of a Divine King behind Terrance, the corners of his mouth twitched violently. He finally understood why the other party looked down on him. It turned out that she was being protected by someone else way more famous and powerful. It was one of the Four Divine Kings of the Dragon Temple, Slaughter King. Yes, with his current strength, he probably wouldn't be able to take ten moves from the other party. At this moment, this commander, who was ranked fifth in the military of Frogua, even if he was one of the top ten experts, could only feel a deep sense of helplessness. Alas. "I'm sorry, kid. The Slaughter King's just our partner. He doesn't belong to the military of Frogua. He belongs to the Dragon Temple. Only the Lord of the Dragon Temple can command him. I don't have the right to do that." Terrance was also feeling helpless at the moment. "Okay, I get it." Yin Chaoge nodded hastily. Just as Terrance was relieved, Yin Chaoge quickly said to him, "Well, Mr. Lambert, can you introduce the Lord of the Dragon Temple to me? To be honest, I have always wanted to meet him. Furthermore, I want him to send the Slaughter King here. Is that okay? Don't say that you don't know him. I'm sure you know the Lord of the Dragon Temple, don't you? Mr. Lambert, please, just introduce him to me. I want to meet that famous person." Hearing this, Terrance became even more helpless. He looked up at the night sky in the direction of Joseph, then he sighed deeply in his heart. "Do I know him? Well, I do. But do you need me to introduce him to you? I heard that you have even recruited him to be the head of security in your company. Do you still want me to introduce him to you? Also, do you really think that I was the one who order Slaughter King and Vanish King to protect you this time? I, I can't do it. Why do you think I am so powerful?" At this moment, he was almost crying in his heart. "Fk, don't treat me this way, okay? My life will really be shorter just by talking to young people like you." "Mr. Lambert, what's wrong with you? Are you feeling unwell?" Yin Chaoge saw that Terrance's expression was very strange, so she asked with concern. "I'm fine. I was just slightly injured before. Chaoge, you should now focus on your Chaoge

Technology. I'll arrange for you to meet the Lord of the Dragon Temple when there's a chance in the future. Is that okay?" he said with a smile to Yin Chaoge.. Yin Chaoge nodded excitedly. Then, as if she remembered something, she said to Terrance, "By the way, Terrance, I have another person to meet. Although I can see him in a month, since you've come to Usmit this time, can you arrange it for me? So that I don't need to wait for another month. Is that okay?" Seeing that Yin Chaoge no longer dwell on the issue of introducing the Lord of the Dragon Temple to her, Terrance heaved a sigh of relief. Then he patted his chest and said, "Okay, no problem. We can satisfy the small requirements of our great genius. Well, you can tell me now. Who do you want to meet? I will arrange it for you! I will definitely make it happen" Yin Chaoge nodded excitedly. "Well, thank you, Terrance. Well, the person I want to meet is the founder of Junlin Group, the legend of Usmit City six years ago. I heard that he disappeared for five years, and then he came back some time ago and took hold of Junlin Group again. I heard that he is about the same age as me, so I want to see him. Mr.

Lambert, can you arrange it for me tomorrow?" "... After hearing Yin Chaoge's words, he suddenly felt as if his heart had stopped beating. His whole person was in a complete mess in the night wind. "D*mn, you cannot do this to me. Aren't you still wanting to meet the Lord of the Dragon Temple? What's the difference?" Terrance was totally stunned. "Huh? What's wrong, Mr. Lambert? Is it inconvenient for me to see this person?" Yin Chaoge asked Terrance in confusion, with a trace of disgust in her eyes. "You are the No. 2 chief of the Frogua's military. Can't you arrange a meeting with the founder of Junlin Group for me?" "D*mn it, I was actually looked down upon by someone. I, the second-in-command of the Frogua's military, was actually looked down on by someone? D*mn it!" Terrance's heart was in a mess, but he didn't dare to show it on his face. He quickly wiped the cold sweat off his face and pretended to be calm. He smiled and said to Yin Chaoge, "Well, you can, but he is not in Usmaït now. It's too late now. How about I call him tomorrow and ask him when would he return to Usmaït?" After he said that, in order to save some face, he continued to ask Yin Chaoge, "Chaoge, who else do you want to see besides these two people? Don't worry, I will definitely arrange it for you this time. I promise you!" Yin Chaoge curled her lips and said, "That's all. I initially wanted to see someone else too, it's Paige's husband. I heard that he too retired from the Outer Region military, but I saw him. Forget it, Mr. Lambert, you shall leave to do your work now. I want to be alone." After Yin d speaking, she really turned around and left. She found an empty spot and sat down in a daze.

Then she said in a low voice, "You brag so much? Yet you can't arrange any meeting for anyone I want to see, humph." Our female genius squatted on the ground and took a small stick. She drew circles on the ground and was cursing Terrance in her heart. Not far away, Terrance, who had the strength of Semi Titan level, naturally heard Yin Chaoge's silent criticism. A gust of wind blew, and then he was in a bad mood.

"F*ck, how do you want me to arrange it for you? Ah, do you know that the three people you want to see are the same person!!! You have seen him for a long time, and you have seen him many times. Can you not do this to me? I am old, I am old!" Terrance roared in his heart. He came here tonight and after chatting with Eason and Yin Chaoge, his mood became really bad.

"Mr. Lambert, the Yin family has been rebuilt, and our Usmaït military.." At this time, Wang Tianhai ran over and wanted to report something to Terrance. "Get lost! You're a good-for-nothing. You can't do anything. You only know to ask for help every day! It's been so many years, but you can't break through to Divine King, ah? You're a good-for-nothing!" The raging Terrance finally found someone to vent his anger. Yes, it's Wang Tianhai. If he wasn't a good-for-nothing, Terrance wouldn't come here in the middle of the night. All he knew was only how to ask for help. "I, Mr. Lambert, don't do this. It's my fault, it's all my fault. Don't use all your strength. I can't bear it. D*mn it!" Wang Tianhai was stunned. When he stood up from the ruins more than ten meters away, he was completely confused. "Why did Mr. Lambert hit me? I'm just in my forties, and I've broken through to the late stage of the God of War. It's not bad, is it? Why did you hit me?" "How did I become a good-for-nothing?" Wang Tianhai was dumbfounded. He looked at the raging Terrance who came in front of him again with a face full of anger, and he knew he was in trouble.

Chapter 127

The sun shone into the house the next morning. As Joseph opened his eyes, he realized that he hadn't relaxed like this in a long time and slept as well as he did last night. When he opened his eyes, he saw Chloe lying in his arms and his wife lying across from him. He felt a sense of comfortable and heartfelt happiness when he saw the scene in front of him. That was Joseph's deepest wish for happiness; his wife and children were there with him. Maybe he had a telepathic connection. Meanwhile, Paige opened her eyes. She smiled gently at Joseph and reached out to touch his face. She said with great obsession, "Honey, you're hungry right, I'm going to cook for you. Be patient, it'll be ready soon." Paige got up with a smile after she finished speaking, but Joseph reached out and held her down on the bed again. Joseph smiled at Paige and said, "Honey." "Huh? What's wrong?" She looked at Joseph in confusion. "It's nothing, just give me a kiss..." Joseph said to Paige. Paige instantly blushed, nodded her head gently and whispered, "Okay." Then her lips went to Joseph's side, and Joseph also tilted his head and kissed Paige. Hehe. Paige blushed again. She quickly got out of bed and went out to cook for Joseph. Joseph scratched her nose dotingly and said, "Don't peek again next time." After Joseph finished speaking, he was about to get out of bed. His shoes were nowhere to be found when he arose from bed. He froze and then heard Paige say, "Oh, yeah, I saw that your shoes were dirty, so I cleaned them for you last night. Nevertheless, they should not be dry yet. I'll get you a new pair." Joseph looked at Paige deeply and said, "Did you wash my shoes last night?" He was silent, noticing that he hadn't stained anything on the Outer Region battlefield. However, he forgot about his shoes. Indeed, his shoes have walked amidst corpses and blood. When Paige washed with water, she was able to discover the problem. He could tell by the change in Paige's face that she already knew all about it. "Honey, I'll go get you a new pair of shoes. Just throw them away." Paige was stunned for a moment before she raised her head and said to Joseph with a smile.

After looking at Paige for a moment, Joseph nodded and said, "Alright." Paige realized what Joseph did on the two days he had been missing. It was also clear to Joseph that she knew. But at the moment, they had tacit that both kept silent and did not say anything. Everything was in silence.

she had come out, Estella smiled and said to her, "Don't worry, mommy is all done. You and Joseph and Chloe should go wash up. I didn't dare to call you. It's already eight o'clock..." Paige nodded, then went back to her house to get a pair of shoes for Joseph. It was nine o'clock when the family had breakfast, and Joseph was about to take Paige and Chloe out. Suddenly, Yin Chaoge called Paige. After Paige said a few words to Yin Chaoge, she hung up the phone. Then she said to Joseph, "Honey, don't go out yet, Chaoge and Yijun are coming over." Joseph nodded and said, "Well, you wait for them at home, I'll take Chloe out for a while... Paige shook her head with some confusion in her eyes and said, "No, they said not to let you go out either, they also want to talk with you." Joseph frowned slightly. He really did not want to talk to those two troublesome women. But since Paige said so, he could not do anything about it. He then said, "Well, let's wait for them. When will they arrive?" As soon as Joseph finished speaking, the sound of people walking could be heard in the corridor outside the door. Paige, somewhat embarrassed and said, "They've arrived". Joseph was speechless, and Yahir was standing outside, so he went to open the door. The moment Yahir opened the door and saw the person outside, he was scared out of his wits. As he stood in the doorway, he was so frightened that he did not move. This is because, at the moment, the person standing in front of him was Terrance, the second powerful person next to Sebastian in the Frogua's military. "A-are you Terrance Lambert?" Yahir was so frightened that he stuttered in his speech. Terrance smiled and said, "Well, you must be Mr. Yahir. I have something to talk to Mr Dawson. Could I come in for a chat with him?" Just then, Estella, who had just finished cleaning up the kitchen, came over and said to Yahir, "What are you doing blocking the door? Hurry up and let people in! No manners at all." Estella gave Yahir a fierce glare. After that, she hurriedly drew Yahir aside and invited people outside the door in. However, she could not believe she was seeing Terrance as well. Because of his appearance, she had seen Terrance on TV a lot. And now the real person was right in front of her? "You are... Terrance?" Estella was bricking it that she was as dumbfounded as Yahir. Terrance is also full of speechlessness. In Frogua, he is still respected by the general public, okay? He sighed in his heart and repeated what he had just said, "Madam Sheppard, can you let us in?" "Oh, please come in. I'm going to make some tea." Estella said and hurriedly invited Terrance and his group to come in. She let them sit on the sofa. Besides Terrance, there were Yin Chaoge, Yin Zheng who was the head of the Yin family, Wang Tianhai who was Usmit's God of War, Felix who was the central region's God of War and Eason. But at the moment when they just sat down, Yahir and Estella were about to be busy making tea. Joseph, who was holding Chloe, said to Terrance in a cold voice, "What are you doing here? You are not welcome here, get out." Joseph was really angry with Terrance. D*mn, I've done everything and killed the people, and now only you appeared? What do you mean? What's the point of you coming here now? Uh. Terrance was dumbfounded, and the smile on his face froze. Bang! At that moment, not only Terrance was stunned, but also Estella and Yahir, who were busy making tea. "F*ck, don't make trouble. He is the first commander of the Frogua's military. He is really a big shot in Vowhye. What did my son-in-law say just now? Don't welcome him? Let him go

At that moment, Estella and Yahir were really scared to death, afraid that Terrance would be angry. The two of them rushed to Terrance and hurriedly apologized to him, saying, "Terrance, don't be angry, Joseph is not in a good mood lately. Well, yes, he's been in a bad mood for the past two days." Estella quickly wiped the cold sweat on her face and apologized to Terrance, "Terrance, I'm sorry." After Estella finished speaking, she quickly said to Joseph, "Joseph! How can you talk to Terrance in this way? Why don't you apologize to him?" "But... Mommy, you go out with dad and wait for a while. This person comes to me. I'll explain to you after they left.." Joseph was also a little speechless. "Well, Mr. Mooney, Madam Sheppard, please don't make a fuss. It doesn't matter. Our military doesn't care about those things." Terrance also hurriedly waved his hand in embarrassment and said. However, after he finished speaking, Wang Tianhai, who was standing behind him with a bloody nose and a swollen face, and Eason could not help but curl their lips. Don't care about it? That's not what you said last night. They thought to themselves. Estella and Yahir were even more shocked. At that moment, Estella rolled her eyes and pretended to cry as she said to Terrance, "Terrance, Joseph was wronged. He was just impulsive during what was happened in Apren City. Can you allow him to return to the military?" After Estella finished, Yahir, Serena and Paige hurried to look at Terrance's side. The dismissal of Joseph from the military had been a sore point in their hearts, and everyone felt bad for him.

Terrance cried from the bottom of his heart. D*mn, I would rather he return to the military than you guys. However, this isn't something I can decide. He is Dragon Temple's Lord. Why do you keep asking him to come to our military to just be a little God of War like Eason? Terrance was so depressed and thought to himself. The next moment, Paige also walked to Terrance and bowed deeply, saying, "Terrance, my husband was trying to save me and my child. Can you be merciful?" Chloe jumped out of Joseph's arms and ran to Terrance and said, "Please let my dad go back. My dad is so nice, he loves Chloe so much. He is the best person in the world."

Terrance took a deep breath. At that moment, all the members of the Mooney family were begging him. He had no choice but to express his attitude, so he stood up immediately and said sincerely to Joseph, "Mr Dawson, I'm here to apologize to you on behalf of Frogua's military. We didn't think properly about what happened at that time. As long as you're willing to come back, you'll be promoted to a higher rank, and you don't have to go to the Outer Region. If you want to be in Usmit, I'll get Wang Tianhai out of here! If you want to go to Vowhye, I'll let Eason go. What do you think?" Joseph's eyes had become extremely gloomy at the moment. The look he gave Terrance was more and more unfriendly as time went on. But just as Joseph was about to speak, Estella and Yahir, who were overjoyed, quickly turned back to him and said, "Joseph, just agree about it. Hurry up!" Paige also looked at Joseph and said excitedly, "Honey." Chloe also looked at Joseph and said, "Dad." Joseph took a deep breath and said to Terrance, "Let's talk about it later!" Let my family out first. Estella, Yahir, Paige, Serena, and the others also changed their faces as they felt the anger from Joseph. From beginning to end, Joseph never appeared to be respectful to Terrance in any way. As they were about to rebuke Joseph, Terrance hurriedly said to them with a bitter smile, "Mr. Mooney, Madam Sheppard, you'd better go out first. This matter is very complicated. I'll talk to Mr. Dawson about it later. Well, you guys can just go out first." Estella and Yahir took a deep look at Joseph and walked out with Paige who was holding Chloe. After they went out, Leng Yijun thought about Joseph and said worriedly, "Joseph, the person in front of you is Terrance." "Shut up!" Joseph suddenly shouted at Leng Yijun, and she instantly shut up Then he stared at Terrance with an extremely gloomy face and said, "Hey! Do you want to die?" Boom... As Joseph's words fell, a strong and extremely tyrannical aura rose up from him in an instant, instantly locking onto Terrance. He wanted to live a peaceful life, but Terrance had got the gut and came to him. Moreover, he even brought Yin Chaoge and Leng Yijun along with him. Or has Terrance revealed his identity to them? For a moment, Joseph's anger surged, and the temperature in the whole room dropped too much in an instant "Mr. Dawson, don't get me wrong. I really came to apologize on behalf of the Frogua's military." Terrance's back was covered in a cold sweat at the moment. Leng Yijun, Yin Chaoge, and Eason were all completely stunned when they saw how Joseph treated Terrance. Especially Eason, he was green with envy that Terrance has never spoken to him like that before.

Chapter 128

“But, a misunderstanding? All right, they’re all here, aren’t they? Now that my wife and my family have left. Terrance, is there any chance that you are qualified to sit in front of me and talk to me equally? Hmm?” Joseph sneered. Terrance had brought so many people here, probably his identity could not be hidden anymore. No one is a fool. There is no point letting Yin Chaoge, Leng Yijun and others guess around. Instead, they will probably guess some more stupid things about the Mooney family that happened in Oplen.

Therefore, it didn’t matter if he dropped his cards to the maximum extent at that moment. What’s more, he had gone to the Outer Region’s battlefield to kill everyone. Everyone knew that he, the Dragon Temple Lord, was personally in charge of Usmit. He couldn’t hide anymore. If some hostile forces of the Outer Region were to come against his family, it would be bad for him to hide his identity again instead. It was better to mobilize the strongest power of Usmit to be a guardian for Paige. Therefore, Joseph made a decision in an instant. Everyone in the room was stunned after Joseph finished speaking. Wang Tianhai and Felix stood up instantly and stood in front of Joseph without saying a word. Their attitude was extremely respectful. After getting the hint from Joseph’s eyes, Felix walked to the door and paid attention to the voice outside, making sure that the Paige family members had gone out. Joseph sent another message to Alpha 1 asking him to keep Paige and the others from going upstairs by stalling them outside. At that moment, Alpha 1 was chatting with Serena, Paige, Estella, and Yahir in a park far away downstairs. Estella looked at Alpha 1, who claimed to be Joseph’s personal guard leader, with a worried look. She then said, “Alpha 1, Joseph is discussing with Terrance up there right, is everything okay? Joseph’s attitude seems very off to me. Perhaps he doesn’t do anything stupid. This time, it was Terrance who came to him personally, and this is his chance to return to the military.” After Estella finished speaking, Yahir also looked at Alpha 1 with great anxiety and worry. Although she did not speak, she bit her lip with great concern. Alpha 1 was speechless. Does she mean offended Terrance? Well, with Joseph’s temper, it seemed that Mr. Dawson really wanted to beat Terrance up. The first time I saw Terrance, Terrance was a Divine King, and now, it was suffused with the strength of a Semi Titan level. D*mn it, this guy really knows how to hide his talent. They thought that Frogua’s military was not very powerful except for Sebastian. D*mn, all of them hid their power so well. Alpha 1 thought to himself.

The next moment, Alpha 1 smiled and said to Estella, “Haha, Madam Estella, don’t worry. Do they just want Joseph to go back and be a God of War? Haha, he will definitely not agree with that.” Alpha 1 smiled meaningfully. “What? Alpha 1, what does Joseph think? Will it be bad for him to return as God of War? Terrance also said Joseph can return at any time he wishes, whether it is to Usmait or to Frogua." Paige sounded worried.

"Alpha 1, could you please persuade my brother-in-law to go back? That's God of War! Joseph has been fighting in the Outer Region all these years. "Will he really quit the military?" Serena also said to Alpha 1. "Yes, Mr. Alpha 1, you won't let us up there now either. I know that it's useless for me and my mother to go up. You are also a member of the military and also a personal guard of Joseph. Can you go up?" Yahir also said eagerly, sitting in the pavilion of the park, picked up a cup of tea, and took a sip. He said with a meaningful smile, "Hey, Mr. Yahir, Madam Estella, Paige, and Serena, why do you have to let Joseph become a God of War? Isn't it good for him to be a commander of the military? A position that only a Divine King level warrior is qualified for and can let the Top Ten God of War's military under his command. Isn't it good for him? Why does he have to go back and just be a God of War? Joseph is now a Divine King level warrior, a real dominator who is much stronger than a God of War warrior. Why does he have to go back and be a God of War?" Alpha 1 smiled meaningfully. "What? Joseph, is he a Divine King? Can he be like Terrance who was the commander of the Frogua's military? Is he a great figure who controls a bunch of Gods of War?" Estella was shocked to the extreme in an instant, and her mouth was wide open. "Joseph, is he a Divine King level warrior?" Paige's beautiful eyes were also wide open. She was shocked beyond words. This was because Yin Chao had previously told her about the division of strength in the Outer Region. There were even Divine King level warriors who were stronger than the God of War in the Outer Region's battlefield. It turned out that her husband was that Divine King level warrior? "Well, so don't worry. A Divine King level warrior is far more powerful than a God of War overlord." "Frogua's military was now asking for my boss's return. Furthermore, the Yin family was in trouble at the time, and my boss supported them because of Mrs Dawson. It wouldn't have been possible for the Yin family to survive if not for my boss's help. He made a great contribution, so Terrance could have come. However, if their sincerity was merely that of a God of War, then it would be normal if my boss refused to go back. Because... why should he go back?" Although Yahir and Estella didn't know what a Divine King was, they knew it on TV... In Frogua's military, a Divine King level commander was far superior to a God of War who assumed personal command. For example, there were dozens or even hundreds of God of War warriors in the Frogua, but there were only six Divine King level commanders. Yahir was shocked and said, "Then, will Joseph become the First Commander of the Frogua's military in the future?"

Alpha 1 smiled and nodded, "Yes, Mr. Yahir, so you and Madam Estella don't have to worry about it anymore. It is not necessary for you to persuade my boss to become a God of War, right? If you are a commander, why would you want to become a God of War?" "Yes..." The next moment, Yahir and Estella both nodded excitedly. The whole family was so happy that they almost went crazy. "D*mn, he is the commander of the military. He is a great figure which we can only see on TV before. If Joseph can be the Seventh Commander of the Frogua's military, he will be at the same level, even if he is far inferior to the Terrance."

Alpha I looked at Mooney family members who were excited to the extreme and no longer said anything. He snickered and said, "Ah, Paige, we'll stop here. You digest it first. As soon as you digest everything, all the identities of my boss will be revealed." Well, it was Joseph's order to let Alpha 1 tell the Mooney family about Joseph being a Divine King level warrior. It was time for his identity to be further revealed to Paige as well as to the Mooney family. What about his other identity which is being Dragon Temple Lord? It was too horrible to let the Mooney family know at the moment. In a sense, the identity of Dragon Temple Lord is like the head of an Assassin Organization. This was not something that the Mooney family, who had been living in Frogua, could accept. Therefore, this time, Joseph told them that he would have a position as the Seventh Commander of Frogua's military at the Divine King level, which already made them incredibly excited and proud. As Joseph had expected, the Mooney family members in the pavilion were stunned by Alpha 1's words.

something and quickly said to Alpha 1, "Oh My God, if Joseph is a Divine King level commander, then what kind of strength do you have? Why does Joseph ask you and several subordinates to protect Paige whenever he goes out? After Serena finished asking, she could not help looking at Alpha 1. Alpha 1 addressed Serena's question with honesty. For example, the Yin family was attacked by God of War level killers on the night when Yin Chaoge came back last time. Thus, Alpha 1 appeared beside her and told her to attend the banquet with peace of mind and ignore everything else. Alpha 1 took a sip of tea and said with a smile, "Haha. My boss is at the Divine King level. How can I, as the leader of his personal guards, be too weak? I have nothing to hide from you if you really want to know. I am at the God of War level, and the few guards you saw two days ago are also at the God of War level. What matters most to my boss is you and your family. Therefore, of course, he had to send the strongest people to protect you all." Paige's heart trembled. No wonder that night, a God of War level killer attacked her and Alpha 1 told her confidently that there was nothing to worry about. It was also no wonder that Yin Zheng spoke to her politely that night, and although the Yin family was assassinated that night, he still insisted on finishing the banquet. It turned out that the banquet that night was not protected by the Yin family at all, but by her husband who sent ten Gods of War. Paige's heart raised a huge wave. Boom! The Mooney family was once again deeply shocked. "Joseph... Are you giving up the position as the military's commander for me?" When Paige heard this, her eyes suddenly turned red. She could not help but take two steps back. She was very moved. Alpha 1 noticed that Paige was out of place and thus he took a deep look at Paige. He stood up and faced Paige seriously. The next moment, Alpha 2 to Alpha 10 and the other nine God of War level guards, also all appeared in the distance. Those ten God of War level warriors bowed deeply to her. Alpha 1 even said to Paige, "The reason why the boss didn't tell you before was that he was afraid that you wouldn't be able to accept it at the moment. However, since it has already happened, you shouldn't blame yourself too much. Boss would rather kill a few Divine Kings than see you cry. Additionally, isn't Terrance already representing Frogua's military and allowing my brother to return?" Paige's eyes were red and filled with tears. She took a deep breath and looked up at Joseph who was upstairs. She looked at him for quite some time. Back then, what he gave up was not the position of God of War, but rather a Divine King level military commander? "Joseph, how much have you done for me? Am I worth all that you have done?" Paige murmured in her heart. At the moment, Paige, Yahir, Estella, Serena and Chloe had those ten Gods of War bowing in front of them. The shock in their hearts was overwhelming. There were ten Gods of War! If a single God of War could rule over Usmait, then what about ten? And at the moment, there were Frogua's God of War, bowed to them. What kind of glory is this? What a shock it was.

“What kind of son-in-law do I have? And I even didn’t want him in the first place? What a fool I was. Luckily, Joseph didn’t take it personally with me. I was so excited, it was the commander of Frogua’s military, the most powerful commander that could only be seen on TV!” Estella sat down and was stunned.
