Chapter 16

"Indeed, he should be my successor. I will visit Apren City and talk to him personally. After all, he is the leader of Dragon Temple, so it would be inappropriate for Terrance to meet him directly." Sebastian seemed excited. At this moment, Terrance's cell phone rang. "Everyone, there is news from the Police Department in Apren City. Max Kennedy has ordered them not to intervene in this matter. The Kennedy family plans to attack Joseph tonight..." It seemed that the Kennedy family was seeking death. Joseph initially gave them three days to prepare themselves, yet why were they rushing to retaliate? Even the top leaders in Frogua were extremely fearful of Dragon Temple's strength. How would the Kennedy family be able to defeat them? The Kennedy family was truly a bunch of ignorant idiots. Otherwise, they would not have caused such huge trouble in the first place. Sebastian could not help but sneer, "Kennedy family from Apren City? Did they think that they were rulers of the territory? If they dare hurt my kin, I will teach them a lesson tonight." "How can you be so thick-skinned, Sebastian? Joseph is an heir to the Dawson family. Since when has he become your kin?" Ryan retorted. Sebastian replied indifferently, "Charles and I are like brothers, so I naturally treat his grandson as my kin." "Should we inform Charles about this matter?" "Not for the time being." Matt added, "Joseph has suffered too much in the past few years. This time, he will definitely come to the Dawson family to seek justice." Hanson agreed with Matt. Taking off the black ring with a dragon carving, Ryan handed it to Sebastian. "Give this to that little girl. By the way, help me pass a message to Joseph. Tell him if he comes to Frogua, he should visit my place." Sebastian looked at Matt with some surprise. "Have you thought this through? You've worn this ring for almost all your life, haven't you? Do you really want to give it away?" A flash of regret flashed across Matt's eyes. Then, he finally smiled and responded, "In the end, it's just a ring. Joseph has done so much for our country. This is what we owe him..." Although Matt sounded rather casual, Sebastian took the matter very seriously. In fact, everyone present in the room knew very well that this ring was extraordinary. There was a hidden story behind this ring. After taking a deep breath, Sebastian said, "I will be heading toward Apren City now. Don't worry, I will never disappoint the young heroes who have contributed so much to Frogua's peace and success." At the time, no one knew that Sebastian planned to murder the wealthiest man in Apren City. The rain kept falling, which affected many surrounding areas. In Oplen City. In a hotel located in the city center, Alpha 1 left after making arrangements for Paige and Chloe. After waking up at noon, Chloe silently ran to the door and squatted. Her eyes were full of expectation. Every time someone passed by, she would stare at them.

If it weren't for Joseph, she would seem even more depressed. Paige could not convince her to stop squatting at the door because she knew who her daughter was waiting for. Deep down, Paige knew that the possibility of Joseph returning was rather low. After all, whether it was the three hundred men from the night before or the Kennedy family, it was unlikely that Joseph would be able to handle the situation. The heavier the rain, the colder the surrounding air became. "Chloe, didn't Toby tell you already? Even if your father were to return, it would take him at least two days." Paige continued, "Be good and come back inside. If you catch a cold, your father will feel distressed by the time he comes home." "Mom, what if Dad comes back early?" Chloe shook her head stubbornly. "I am waiting for him here. As soon as he comes back, he will see me right away." Chloe's eyes sparkled. She truly believed that her father would return that day. Paige's eyes suddenly welled up, and she tried hard not to let her tears fall. "Chloe, you have to believe in me and Toby." "Mom, Dad will surely return today." Raising her head, Chloe said in a serious tone, "I have good instincts. Last night, the moment I sensed that Dad would return, he appeared right in front of me. He even helped get rid of the bad guys... He will definitely come back." Looking at her daughter, Paige could not convince her at all.

"I believe in you..." Inexplicably, Paige felt more and more uncomfortable deep down. It was remarkable how a five-year-old child could be so sensible. In the past, Chloe had learned to hide her love for her father. However, she was no longer concealing her emotions at this time. It was because she desperately longed for Joseph to stay here. "Joseph, you must come back alive." Gnashing her teeth, Paige endured her sorrow and prayed again and again in her heart. Paige figured that she could no longer sit still and wait for news. Thinking of this, Paige sent a message to Bethany. "Beth, you must help me. I can't raise Chloe without her father..." At Parry family's villa located in Apren City. Bethany, who wore a long white dress, noticed the message sent by Paige. At eight o'clock in the morning, Logan had returned to Apren City. Thus, Beth immediately told him about what happened. She hoped that he could help Joseph. However, Logan did not immediately make a decision. Instead, he asked Bethany to leave the room for the time being. Although Logan and Brandon were on bad terms, he had other worries as well. After all, this matter had blown up too much. Thinking of what Chloe had been through, Bethany replied to Paige's message . despite the uncertainty. "Don't worry. I will definitely ask for my father's help." Taking a deep breath, Bethany planned to convince her father once again. Logan was the second richest man in Apren City. He had strong support from the Parry family. At the time, Logan was the only person who could compete equally against Brandon in Apren City. Of course, in terms of overall strength, the Parry family was slightly weaker. However, in the eyes of the citizens of Apren City, the difference between the two was almost negligible. In the past few years, Logan rapidly expanded his family business to catch up to the Kennedy family's riches. In fact, their operations was already expanded beyond Apren City. In the study room." Logan was deep in thought. His beloved daughter wanting him to intervene in this matter was equivalent to opposing the Kennedy family. At the moment, he was rather hesitant to do so. He was a smart man. In fact, he knew that regardless of whether he intervened in this matter or not, there would be friction between him and Brandon sooner or later. Since the two could not co-exist in one place, Brandon and Logan would definitely face conflict sometime in the future anyway. This event would only bring forward this inevitable battle. Nonetheless, Logan had his own concerns. This was a perfect opportunity to verify Kennedy family's background and true strengths. In fact, Bethany did not know that Logan had already made his decision before returning home. Initially, Logan planned to peacefully discuss with Brandon. However, he did not expect that Joseph, who appeared all of a sudden, would take action against Jaylah. Jaylah was Brandon's only son and the future heir of the Kennedy family. Logan knew better than anyone that Jaylah was a complete fool. If Jaylah were to inherit the Kennedy family's assets and legacy, Logan would be delighted. However, because of Jaylah's involvement in this matter, it became extremely tricky to handle. Logan received news about the Kennedy family's plans. That night, the Kennedy family no longer had scruples and intended to go all out. From Logan's point of view, he could not compete with the Kennedy family on this matter. If he were to intervene, he would have to stake his own family's future. This was not worthwhile, nor was it rational. Although he loved his daughter, it was obviously not worth taking such huge risks for the husband of his daughter's best friend.

"Should we make this gamble?" Logan thought. Once they killed Joseph, the Kennedy family would inevitably attack the Parry family. That was for sure. With a deep frown, Logan subconsciously lit a cigarette as he could not make up his mind. At this moment, someone opened the door to the study. Bethany immediately knelt on the ground, which startled Logan. "What are you doing?" Logan said discontentedly, "Hurry up and get up!" "Dad, I know that you are in a dilemma, and I am no fool. I know what you're thinking about, but the Kennedy family has been coveting our family for a long time. Only one of our families can continue to thrive in this place, and they will never let us go." Bethany continued, "Even if you want to continue to endure, will Brandon give us time?" Although Bethany's words were reasonable, Logan replied, "Beth, the Parry family will be finished if we lose to the Kennedy family this time." Bethany smiled bitterly. How could she not understand this? "Dad, allow me to be frank. Haven't we lost a long time ago? With the rise of Brandon and the Kennedy family, we've been defeated." Logan's body trembled, and his eyes were dull. "Everyone knows that I've protected Paige for three days. What use is there for us to deny this fact? If we keep dodging the battles, the Kennedy family may overstep their boundaries even more in the future." Logan widened his eyes in shock, "Did you allow her to stay here for three days?" Bethany nodded. "You're a complete fool... Logan could not help but let out a furious roar before sighing heavily once more. "I'm sorry." Bethany felt guilty. "I did not intend to trouble you, but I did not do it solely to protect Paig. I also want to let you know that we have no other way out." "You've conceded many times in the past. Even so, will the Kennedy family let us off so easily? Shouldn't we plan for our future?" Logan held a blank expression. He did not expect that this daughter would be so sensible and intelligent. "Indeed... It seems that we have no other way out."

After a long silence, Logan put out his cigarette and slowly stood up while exuding an imposing aura. "Inform all the elders in Parry family to assemble for an emergency meeting. Gather all our forces!" Logan was no longer hesitant. "Didn't Brandon say that no one was allowed to interfere? I'd like to see if the Kennedy family is truly able to do as they wish in this city." Bethany's body trembled, and then she suddenly raised her head. She finally noticed a long-lost sharpness and aggressiveness on her father's face. "The people of Apren City seem to have forgotten that the Parry family had always been the leader in this city. Who are the Kennedies?" Logan taunted.

This time, Logan decided to face the battle. Since more than a decade ago, he had played nice in front of Brandon. From then on, he had suppressed his anger and remained patient for more than ten years. However, from this moment onward, he decided not to show any weakness anymore. Overjoyed, Bethany immediately stood up and ran outside. After all, her father finally regained the confidence to defeat the Kennedy family, not to mention that Bethany could also help her best friend. At this moment, many things were happening in Apren City. Both the Kennedy and Parry families were making moves respectively. As such, everyone in the Police Department was worried. The Kennedy family had just left, yet the Parry family arrived next. It seemed that it would be a long, busy night ahead. Following the actions of the Kennedy family, the Parry family, and the Police Department, the entire Apren City seemed slightly different. It was as if dark clouds were looming over a city that was about to be destroyed. All the highly-ranked officials felt extremely stressed. The Kennedy family was the first to gather all their forces. All the casinos in Apren City were closed, and the workers had assembled in one place. Secondly, it was the Parry family. Although they acted a little slower, they all started making their way. The Police Department in Apren City was the last to make their move. Each precinct had hundreds of officers. That day, the Police Department gathered all the members at the headquarters. They were not allowed to leave for no reason. Inside the Police Department.

In a hidden office, Samuel video called Toby, who remained stationed in the middle of the mountains.

Toby, who was guarding near Joseph's location, looked very serious. "Sir, there are more and more people here. Men from the Kennedy family are coming. They have secured the perimeter ten miles around us. Now, even the members of the Parry family are coming. I may not be able to hold my station anymore. Please send reinforcements," Toby urged as if a big disaster was coming. Samuel remained silent for a moment before replying, "I know." "What do you mean?" Toby was confused. How did his boss know about what was happening? "Both the Kennedy and Parry families have come to look for me today. They're already planning to fight over there." Samuel sneered, "I think all the influential figures in Apren City will be there tonight." "In that case..." "The Kennedy family first had a conflict with Joseph, then the Parry family. Actually, I did not expect that the Parry family would get involved in this matter. However, while Logan is no longer spineless, he is truly a fortunate man... Perhaps he doesn't even know yet, but his decision to get involved tonight is a blessing from his ancestors." "Sir, I don't quite understand what you mean. The Parries may not be able to defeat the Kennedys this time." Toby was puzzled. Samuel smiled in response. "For the time being, you will be on guard. I will come over later. Tonight is a great opportunity for young people to broaden their horizons. Perhaps you might not even have such a good opportunity in the future. Watch carefully. Don't worry about anything now. We will talk about it when I come over." Toby was full of curiosity, but Samuel had already hung up. "The Parries... Blessing from his ancestors? Is this a good opportunity for young people to broaden our horizons?" Toby looked at the villa. "Is it all because of Joseph?"

Toby remained puzzled. All he knew was to stand on his own watch. It was only a few hours before the clash. After attending a meeting with the other Parry family members, Bethany immediately called Paige and told her that Logan had decided to help Joseph. Of course, she did not reveal other details. Paige was greatly moved, and she was finally much more at ease. Nonetheless, she was still worried. Although the Parry family was powerful, they were still slightly weaker than the Kennedies. This time, even with the Parry family's help, the chances of winning the battle were not high. However, she was grateful to her best friend, Bethany, because this was the best the Parry family could do. At this time, Alpha 1 returned and saw that Paige just hung up the phone. He immediately asked, "Were you on the phone with Ms. Parry?" "That's right. Beth told me that her father would help us." Paige added with a wry smile, "The Parry family was overshadowed by the Kennedy family in the past 20 years... Even with their help, we may not be able to overcome the Kennedy family." "Mr. Alpha 1, if Joseph manages to escape this time, please tell him to leave quickly and not return for the time being." Alpha 1 then glanced at Chloe, who was still stubbornly squatting at the hotel room entrance. After remaining silent for a moment, he replied, "Mrs. Dawson, I know you might not believe me, but please believe in Mr. Dawson. He will definitely get this matter settled." Paige did not say much and took it as if Alpha 1 was simply comforting her. Joseph was forced to escape from Frogua before. Five years later, how much could he have changed? In five years, even if he expanded his knowledge and capabilities after experiencing many hardships, how could he compete against the Kennedy family?

Chapter 18

Rolling down his sleeves, Alpha 1 noticed some blood on his arm. Earlier, he had gained control of the largest underground forces in Oplen City. He definitely could not let Paige discover this. "Mrs. Dawson, it's not that Mr. Dawson refused to return all these years, but he did not know about the birth of your child. If he knew that you and Chloe were suffering here, he would have come back earlier." When Paige heard Alpha 1's explanation, she felt relieved. Then, she muttered, "I believe him... It is because I didn't tell him about my pregnancy in the first place..." "In fact... I don't blame him. Five years ago, he was poisoned. I wanted to resist him, but I could not physically stop him..." Alpha 1 was startled. "However, I didn't expect that I would get pregnant. Initially, I considered abortion... But in the end, I still chose to give birth to Chloe." Paige started to tear up, but she did not regret her choice. Although she was shunned by her own family, she did not regret it at all. Feeling moved, Alpha 1 reassured, "Don't worry, Mrs. Dawson. He will return safely..." Paige nodded in response. It was unclear whether she believed Alpha 1 or not. At three o'clock in the afternoon, the rain in Apren City became even heavier. . Joseph, who was sitting quietly, received a message from Alpha 1. It was a video of Chloe squatting at the hotel entrance, waiting for her father's return. A smile emerged on Joseph's cold face. "Chloe, once I'm done with my business here, I'll come back for you... I won't leave you again," Joseph muttered to himself as he looked at the video on his phone. O When he saw the image of his daughter, he could not help but think of giving up on everything else.

This included Dragon Temple and the hatred he bore throughout the years. However, he knew that this was wishful thinking. If he were to give up on these things, he would not be able to protect the people around him. After all, Paige had sacrificed so much for him over these years. In fact, he might not be able to pay her back for the rest of his life. After this incident, he intended to hold a grand wedding for Paige. "What is the status on the arrangements to face the Kennedy family?" After withdrawing his thoughts, Joseph asked. Alpha 7, who was standing behind him, said respectfully, "We're almost there. They'll come to the mountain in around two to three hours. They've also invited help from other countries. They're all experts." However, Alpha 7's words were full of disdain and ridicule for the Kennedy family. In fact, were these so-called experts useful at all? Even if there were five or ten of them, Alpha 7 could kill them all by himself. There was no need for Joseph to do it. The members of the Kennedy family were foolish. "In that case, quickly finish your task. I don't want to waste my time with these nobodies either," Joseph instructed. Thinking that his daughter was still waiting for him, he hoped that the Kennedy family would attack as soon as possible. At this moment, Alpha 7 was somewhat stunned after receiving a text message. "Mr. Dawson, Logan from the Parry family is also on his way here. He claims that he can help you deal with the Kennedy family... Mrs. Dawson probably asked her best friend for help..." Joseph was stunned. "It seems like she still doesn't believe in me yet... This good-for-nothing Kennedy family... Forget it, let's meet Logan then..." Then, he slowly got up and looked down at the turbulent river. Joseph muttered, "Doesn't matter who may or may not come here... It's all going to be fine anyway..." The forces of the Kennedy and Parry families were gathering. The Police Department was also secretly making arrangements. Of course, what they didn't know was that the forces from Frogua were also rushing here. Apren City, an unremarkable tiny town, eventually became a place where warriors gathered. At the foot of the mountain. Dressed in a black suit, Logan slowly got up the mountain with four martial art experts behind him. Initially, Logan did not pay much attention to Joseph. However, after seeing Alpha 7 and Joseph with his own eyes, he immediately changed his mind. Both of them exuded imposing auras. Although Logan did not practice martial arts, his instincts were accurate. With Joseph's aura alone, Logan was already impressed.

Although Joseph knew that the Kennedy family was coming for him, he remained calm and composed, indicating that he was an extraordinary person. "You're indeed a capable man." Logan observed for a moment before praising.

A rare smile appeared on Joseph's face as he said to Logan, "Thank you very much, Mr. Parry. Tonight, I have a personal conflict with the Kennedy family. Allow me to thank you for your help." When Logan noticed how calm Joseph was, he could not help but frown. "According to my sources, you were once a military man. I'm sure you've been in numerous battles, but I would like to remind you not to underestimate members of the Kennedy family." "To be honest, you may not be able to go against the Kennedy family on your own..." "It's fine." Joseph waved his hand indifferently. "We have all experienced cruel battles, so don't worry, Mr. Parry." Seeing Joseph's confidence, Logan was at a loss for words. It seemed that Logan could not rely on this young man. Instead, it would be safer if he relied on his own capabilities. At five o'clock in the afternoon. It was getting dark outside. Members of the Kennedy family, who gathered at the foot of the mountain, finally began to make their move.

The thugs, who were holding steel pipes, wooden sticks, and machetes, began to march uphill in an orderly manner.

There were more than a thousand people, and they all seemed terrifying. Brandon and the others were among them, heading toward Joseph. Brandon, Alex, and the other elders from the Kennedy family all exuded murderous auras.

All of them were silent. Behind them were martial art experts from the Kennedy family. They swiftly marched up the mountain. Toby, who had been watching the situation at the foot of the mountain closely, immediately notified Samuel. As such, the police officers also made their moves. In less than ten minutes, the Kennedy family had already surrounded the area. Brandon looked at Joseph's position, and Joseph finally stood up. "Dad, save me..." Jaylah, who had been trapped in the pigsty, finally got up and roared loudly. "Shut up!" When Alpha 7 slapped him, Jaylah spat out a mouthful of blood. Brandon, who was surrounded by the members of the Kennedy family, glanced at Alpha 7 coldly and then looked at Joseph.

"Are you relying on Logan's help?" Until now, Brandon did not even pay much attention to Joseph. Although Joseph and Alpha 7 were powerful, Brandon had specifically invited external help to deal with them. With thousands of people under the Kennedy family's command, Brandon was certain that Joseph had no power to fight back at all. At the time, he was still wary of Logan. After all, the martial art experts standing behind him all exuded powerful auras. Just as Joseph was about to speak, Logan took the lead and stood in front of him. "Brandon, everyone knows very well that this battle between us will take place sooner or later. I will protect Joseph no matter what." With that, he waved his hand, and the four martial art experts behind him immediately advanced forward. At the same time, members of the Parry family had also arrived. Although their numbers were less than the Kennedy family's, it would be unwise to underestimate them.

At this moment, both Logan and Brandon were already in direct conflict. "At first, I thought of letting the Parry family survive for a while longer... Since you are eager to seek death, I will help you." Brandon smiled coldly. "Go ahead and destroy the Parry family on my behalf."

Chapter 19

As soon as Brandon spoke, the four experts behind him immediately rushed toward Logan. Alpha 7 was about to retaliate as well, but Joseph hinted at him to hold his attacks. At the same time, Logan waved his hand and instructed the four men behind him to charge ahead. Bang! Bang! Bang! Bang! The martial artists from both Kennedy and Parry families instantly collided with each other. However, to everyone's surprise, the four men from the Parry family were sent flying in the blink of an eye. They all spat out blood and fell to the ground. "How is this possible?" "What's going on?" "They are all highly skilled experts!" There was a drastic change in expressions for Logan and other members of the Parry family. They all looked in the direction of Brandon in shock. This was just the beginning. As Brandon waved his hand coldly, a riot suddenly broke out in Parry family's troops. It appeared that someone was rebelling against Logan. At this time, it was a challenge for Logan to keep his squad together, let alone defeat Brandon. Moreover, the ones who rebelled were the higher-ups, which left Logan with few options to fall back on. "Have you all gone crazy? These are our own men." Logan furiously roared at the traitors. The traitors couldn't help but laugh heartily, "Logan, how naïve of you. Although we share the same surname, I'm not the family's direct descendant. Why should I lose my life for your sake?" Logan stumbled and his face turned pale. "Logan, you've already lost this battle over a decade ago. Do you think you could turn the tables this time? Do you genuinely think that you've expanded the family business rapidly enough these years to go against them?"

"You were the one..." Logan was so angry that he spat out a mouthful of blood. At that moment, he realized that he was no match for Brandon at all. Logan had totally lost this battle. Not only did Brandon defeat him, but he also crushed Logan's confidence. "Logan, you should hurry up and leave. We will hold them back." While Logan was still livid, the four great experts all struggled to stand in front of him. Every one of them was prepared to die for him. At this point, there was no better way except to stop the men from the Kennedy family with their own lives. Losing his confidence, Logan seemed to have lost his mind as he laughed bitterly, "I can't leave anymore..." "Joseph, I can't leave now..." Logan gave a wry smile. "I will help you hold them back. Please take my daughter away... Make sure she doesn't come back here ever again..." Glancing at them with a playful look, Brandon taunted, "Leave? Where will you go? My son has been beaten to a pulp. Do you think Joseph can get away? Do you genuinely think that you can stop me?" "You're Joseph, aren't you? Aren't you from the military? I know you must be quite capable, but I have these mercenaries on my side. Will you be able to leave so easily?" Brandon's killing intent grew stronger and stronger. Logan stood in front of Joseph. Determination surged from within as he roared angrily, "Joseph, quickly leave! Although we have lost this battle, it will not be easy for them to get to you. Remember, bring my daughter with you." "Kill him." As soon as Logan finished speaking, he immediately ordered his men to charge forward. He hoped that he could at least buy Joseph some time. Perhaps if he delayed for a while longer, Joseph would be able to escape.

The four experts from the Parry family, along with other squad members, rushed over with the determination to sacrifice themselves. Seeing this, Brandon was slightly stunned. Then, he nodded to the two mercenaries around him, hinting at them to take action as well. "Go ahead." Turning around, Logan realized that Joseph was not moving at all. Instead, it was as if Joseph's veins were popping out of rage. He could not tell if Joseph was scared out of his wits, or perhaps he could not walk. At this very moment, a shocking turn of events occurred.

As soon as both sides were about to clash, a figure appeared. Bang! Bang! Bang! Bang! The shadow let out four kicks in an instant. The four great mercenaries of the Kennedy family spat blood and flew backward. At that moment, everyone was shocked. "Felix? Why are you here?" Brandon immediately recognized him. Wasn't Felix the military commander of the central region? "I'm surprised the head of the Kennedy family recognizes me." Felix joked, "Why am I here? That's a good question. It is because I am Alpha 34." Brandon and the others were confused. "What do you mean?" Of course, they did not understand Felix's words at all. However, in the next moment, several others-some of whom were even more powerful than Felix-appeared. They were all at the level of a war general. In an instant, the entire Kennedy family squad was surrounded. Bang, Someone was sent flying by a kick from another figure. "Alpha 33 is here." Bang "Alpha 31 is here." Bang! Bang! Bang! One voice after another rang out. "Alpha 7 is here." Alpha 7, who was standing next to the pigsty, defeated two warriors with one kick. However, this was not the end. Four more terrifying figures appeared in four different directions. "I am the Murderous Master of Dragon Temple!" The moment this person appeared, the killing intent was overwhelming the entire area. "I am the War Master of Dragon Temple!" A burly figure from the south appeared. "I am the Devil Master of Dragon Temple!" A cold figure appeared in the west. "I am the Destruction Master of Dragon Temple!" A powerful figure appeared from the east. As the four Masters appeared, countless warriors from Dragon Temple showed up one after another. At the same time, multiple military armored vehicles had arrived, while countless cannons appeared on top of the mountain as well. In the distance, the helicopter rumbled and the fully armed warships on the river slowly arrived. The two experts hired by Brandon were so frightened that they fell to the ground, let alone the thugs from the Kennedy family. Staring at Joseph in horror, Brandon was in shock. "Who are you?" "Who the h*ll are you?" No one responded to him. "Allow us to pay our respects to you, Mr. Dawson!" "Allow us to pay our respects to you, Mr. Dawson!" It was as if they were all responding to Brandon's question. Countless military men knelt down in unison, and they sounded extremely loyal and enthusiastic. Their roars shook the skies and tore through the clouds. Under everyone's surprised gazes, Joseph slowly got up. His aura was so imposing that it terrified his enemies. He then glanced at Brandon, who had long been scared silly, and said with a playful look, "Didn't you say that you wish to kill me?"

"Who the hell are you?" Brandon was trembling all over and could no longer stand firmly. Joseph then squatted down beside Brandon. "My name is Joseph Dawson, and I'm also the leader of Dragon Temple." Could Joseph be in charge of this group of military men? Brandon was puzzled. "You've bullied my wife and harmed my daughter. What kind of punishment do you expect to receive?" Brandon almost scared to sh*t by his words. "I... I didn't know... I didn't know they were your family... Please spare my life." At this time, the richest man in Apren City was begging for mercy. "I've made necessary arrangements to fight a war with Frogua. Do you think I will let you off so easily?" Joseph taunted. At this moment, Logan was completely dumbfounded. When Joseph walked over, Logan dared not look down on him in the slightest, "Allow me to pay my respect to you, Mr. Dawson... I've offended you earlier." It was ridiculous how Logan was trying to help a man with such a powerful background in the first place. In fact, Logan had heard about Dragon Temple, which was responsible for eradicating numerous international organizations. Weren't the Parry family being silly to offer help to Joseph? Moreover, Logan even thought that Joseph was scared silly to the point where he could not move his legs at all to escape. Joseph replied with a smile, "You're too courteous. From now on, your family is a friend of ours. You should rest for now. I will take care of the matter." Logan was delighted as the Parry family would have a positive relationship with Dragon Temple in the future. From that night onward, the Parry family would have nothing to worry about. His family's future would be bright. Meanwhile, the traitor was so frightened that he immediately knelt on the ground, continuously kowtowing to Logan and proclaiming that the Kennedy family had forced him to do so. However, it was obvious that Logan would not forgive him so easily. He then instructed his men to break the traitor's neck. "I'm sorry... I'm so sorry... Please let me go..." At this time, Jaylah kept pleading for mercy.

Fearing for his own safety, he kept kowtowing to Joseph. Joseph's eyes were full of killing intent. The moment he saw the pigsty, he imagined the image of Chloe being abused. Walking in front of Jaylah, Joseph did not hesitate at all. With a single strike, Jaylah died on the spot. "If it weren't because of my daughter, who is currently waiting for me, I would have made you suffer even more before your imminent death." Joseph snorted and returned to his original position. In front of him, Brandon knelt on the ground. At the sight of his son's tragic death, Brandon was more frightened than sad. In the past, Brandon was a man with great pride. How could he foresee that he would fall into such a situation? After all, he was the richest man in Apren City. More than a decade ago, he came to Apren City alone and built the family business from nothing. Even the Parry family was overshadowed by him. This showed how powerful he was back then. Moreover, he was about to achieve a breakthrough in his martial art skills. By then, the Kennedy family would also become stronger. After the incident that night, however, his ambition and everything else would be gone. "Brandon, you are a man with great influence in this city after all. You should commit suicide." When Joseph finished speaking, Alpha 7 threw out a dagger. This dagger was commonly used for one to commit suicide. Seeing this, Brandon could feel his fingers trembling. While grabbing the dagger, he could not bring himself to do it. "Mr. Dawson, we've made a mistake. Since you've killed Jaylah, please spare my life. In fact, I don't even need my family business anymore. Is that okay?" Brandon looked eagerly at Joseph. The once-ambitious man refused to die in this manner. If he were to kill himself, he would lose everything. Leaning forward slightly, Joseph placed one hand on the armrest of the chair. He then said with a smile, "Aren't you angry that I've just killed your son?" Brandon immediately kowtowed and replied, "That brute deserved to die. Even if you didn't murder him, I would have done it myself."

"Mr. Dawson, please give me a chance to live. In the future, I will serve as your slave to repay you..." Joseph smiled while shaking his head. Blood gushed from Brandon's forehead. Noticing that Joseph shook his head, Brandon was extremely fearful as he lost all hope. However, at this time, a group of people rushed up from the foot of the mountain. They were all fully armed and headed by someone who resembled Brandon. It was none other than Ethan Kennedy! At the sight of reinforcement, Brandon was overjoyed. "Ethan, save us! Save us!" "You're from the military, so they wouldn't have the guts to start a war. Since you saved me, you'll be the new head of our family." Joseph looked at Ethan with a smile. Of course, if not because of Joseph's instructions to allow their entry, Ethan would not be able to infiltrate the area so easily. Just as Ethan was about to speak, Felix, who was standing by the side, suddenly looked over. His gaze was fixed on Ethan. "Ethan, I'm Felix." He slowly walked out. "You'd better not get involved in this matter. The military should not dwell in matters regarding the Kennedy family." "Felix, you're overstepping your boundaries." Alpha 7 stopped Felix, who was about to continue speaking. "I apologize." Felix became calm and immediately backed off obediently. Joseph waved his hand. He let the military enter this perimeter to see what Ethan would do. At this time, Ethan seemed unfazed. His men were all fully armed. They came with two objectives. One was to save his uncle and family members, and the other was to plead for mercy. Joseph's eyes fell on Ethan as he said faintly, "What do you want? No matter what, I will definitely kill the members of the Kennedy family." Hearing this, Ethan became both furious and stressed. Was this a threat? Raising his head in anger, he looked at Joseph. At this moment, his face turned pale and he spat out a mouthful of blood immediately. Ethan was shocked. When he looked up just now, the four Masters of Dragon Temple all fixed their gazes on him. Just a gaze alone had injured Ethan. Nonetheless, despite being under such great pressure, Ethan warned, "Please remember that this is Frogua, not anywhere else."

He was openly threatening Joseph. "So what?" Joseph casually flicked his finger. "Do you think that I can't kill a member of the Kennedy family? Or did you assume that I won't be able to kill you?"

The moment Joseph uttered such words, everyone's expressions changed. "I'm from the military, so you probably wouldn't dare kill me." Ethan gritted his teeth and added, "After all, this isn't your turf. How dare you declare war on us? You have to die!" "Haha..." Joseph couldn't help but laugh out loud. After letting out a laugh, Joseph shifted his gaze. "I think it's time for you to make your position clear after watching the fun for such a long time. Can Ethan represent you or the military of Frogua?" At this time, Joseph was surrounded by a stream of battle intent. He knew from the very beginning that a powerful figure had snuck into the area, but he did not stop it.

The righteousness of the other party was the reason for Joseph's judgment. This man was definitely a top ranked official in Frogua's military force. When Joseph gathered all the warriors of Dragon Temple, he knew that Frogua would not sit by and do nothing. It would be strange if they did not show up at this moment. As soon as Joseph finished speaking, the four Masters of Dragon Temple all locked onto the position. Two figures which were emanating strong auras emerged from the area. One of them had gray hair and wore a green military uniform with nine medals on his chest. This person was the supreme commander of the military headquarters. He was Sebastian Parks, a military commander stronger than the typical war generals. Behind him was Terrance. The instant Sebastian walked out, Joseph recognized him. "Sebastian, you are the supreme commander of Frogua military. Are you here to fight us?" Joseph asked with the highest respect. Following Joseph's words, everyone present involuntarily gasped. Brandon, Alex, Ethan, Logan, and the others were shocked. They had never expected that such a powerful figure would be here at this time. However, they did not expect that Joseph would have the guts to question him in public. How daring of him!
