

The Rise of Dragon Temple By Wu Xia

Chapter 3

Chapter 3

"I can't figure it out for the time being, but I'm sure that something big must have happened to the Dragon Temple. After all, their members all over the world are looking for means of transportation to Frogua!"

After hearing this, the man was covered in cold sweat.

After all, even when Dragon Temple was fighting against the Hollowtalons Organization, the Dragon Temple experts from all over the world did not even budge!

"The sky has fallen..." The man was frightened.

Indeed, Dragon Temple was well-known for its rapid rise in the past five years. Almost all the forces who fought against them came to a bad end.

Even though the man did not know what had happened to Dragon Temple, he was certain that it was a serious problem...

In Smiycia.

At the airport gate.

Several foreigners stopped a car forcibly. These men were all in armor, but their faces were dignified.

It was because in the car sat one of the four masters of Dragon Temple, the Destruction Master!

"Make way or die!"

The cold voice echoed from inside the car.

All of a sudden, even the temperature around them instantly dropped!

Thus, it could be seen how terrible and strong this person's killing intent was.

The foreigners gulped their saliva hard, but in the end, they dared not utter a word.

After all, the Destruction Master received news that all members of the Dragon Temple were required to be present in Frogua.

As they were too anxious, the hidden members of Dragon Temple had revealed their positions. Regardless, they all wanted to go to Frogua as soon as possible.

However, this also made every country panic.

The foreign soldier finally let Destruction Master through. After all, he was certain that if he insisted on blocking the Dragon Temple members' way, perhaps he would lose his life in the next instant.

After all, Dragon Temple's reputation was completely built by their murders.

Even all the dark forces in the world knew that they could not provoke Dragon Temple, so how could a mere soldier go against them?

Perhaps when the great powers united, they could still kill one or two generals from Dragon Temple. Nonetheless, they certainly could not lay a finger on any of the masters.

If a member from Dragon Temple were to be killed here, the perpetrators would definitely meet swift and painful revenge.

No faction had the guts to provoke the violent Dragon Temple.

In fact, this was the first time that all Dragon Temple members had assembled in one place.

Whether it was Wafresh, Smiyacia, or anywhere else in the world, hidden experts from Dragon Temple rushed to the airport.

An hour after Alpha 1 issued the assembling order, all 3,000 members headed straight to Frogua.

Dragon Temple members in Frogua itself were the quickest to arrive. Thus, they all hurried to Apren City.

The foreign experts did not hide their identities, neither did the warriors within the country.

This also led to Frogua becoming the focus of attention at the moment.

In the national military center of Frogua.

All of the higher-ups' faces were solemn, while their backs were soaked in cold sweat.

Earlier, they had received the latest news that thousands of Dragon Temple members were about to assemble in Frogua.

Terrance Lambert, the first commander of the national military center, looked at the electronic screen in front of him with a pale face. There were several red arrows on the screen, all aiming at Frogua.

“Quick. Haven’t you found out the reason yet?” Terrance added anxiously, “Our country has always had a good relationship with Dragon Temple. Why would they suddenly gather here tonight?”

The intelligence agents were terrified. As the commander was anxious, they had a lot of pressure on their backs.

After all, Dragon Temple was the strongest and most influential organization at the time. Who would dare belittle them?

“Sir, we... We can’t identify the reason for the time being, but we have located the assembly site. They are planning to gather in Apren City!”

Terrance trembled as he asked doubtfully, “It’s just a small city. Why would they gather there? I must know the answer within ten minutes.”

All the members of the Intelligence Division looked pale.

“Sir... Their security system is more advanced than ours. No matter what, we can’t find out the reason... Should we intercept them instead?”

Hearing this foolish proposal, Terrance almost shot the fool.

“Intercept them? Are you courting death?” Terrance continued roaring, “Instruct the officers to let the Dragon Temple members pass freely. No one is allowed to stop them!”

“But... “

“As I said, don’t stop them. I don’t want to repeat myself for the third time.” Terrance’s gaze was cold, and his tone was imposing.

If the relationship between Dragon Temple and Frogua was poor, there was no need to worry.

However, over the years, Dragon Temple had both secretly and publicly helped Frogua a lot.

It was even said that the head of Dragon Temple, Mr. Dawson, along the four masters, and the nine generals were all from Frogua.

If one were to stop them, there would be a big fight!

Furthermore, could they really stop the Dragon Temple members at all?

Terrance shook his head bitterly. For the first time, all Dragon Temple members gathered in one place. Thus, this made him extremely worried, and his premonition was getting worse and worse.

What on earth had happened?

Suddenly, Terrance's cell phone rang. It was from another commander of the central district in Frogua.

Seeing this number, Terrance was in shock. If he remembered correctly, this commander was previously a member of Dragon Temple, but then he left!

Terrance immediately picked up the phone. "Felix Stokes, what happened tonight? You used to serve for Dragon Temple and even became a general there previously. Did you receive any news at all?"

"Felix, I'm begging you, okay?"

On the phone, after a long silence, Felix finally replied.

"Sir, I would like to resign from my current position. I... I am also heading to Apren City. I'm sorry!"

Shocked, Terrance immediately said, "Let's talk about your resignation later! Felix, please remember that this is Frogua. What happened?"

The long pause made Terrance doubt whether the other party had thrown his phone away.

"Mr. Dawson of the Dragon Temple was furious. Besides, there was a huge battle right before, which rendered him unconscious. In addition, it is unclear whether his daughter is alive or dead at this point... Sir, Dragon Temple lives up to its reputation in Frogua and will not cause harm to innocent people. This is a secret order from Mr. Dawson himself."

"However... Please don't stop me, or else... Those who stand in my way will be killed."

Terrance became so shocked that his phone fell to the ground. In fact, his clothes were soaking wet at the time.

"Sir, what happened?" The intelligence agent and others were extremely curious.

"The sky... The sky has fallen..." Terrance's face was incredibly pale.

At the sight of this, everyone was confused.

"Sir, what's the matter?"

Terrance waved his hand and said feebly, "Call Hanson Reynolds and tell him that... The sky is about to collapse..."

With drastic changes in expression on the intelligence agent's face, he rushed to make the phone call.

A boundless amount of fear and anger rose in Terrance's heart.

If Mr. Dawson and his daughter were to face any mishap, Frogua would definitely be in trouble.

Who would have the guts to harm Mr. Dawson's child?

In a place like Apren City, no less.

If any misfortune were to happen... Terrance dared not think about the consequences. After all, it would be even more terrifying than the sky collapsing on them.

"Sir, the phone line is connected," The intelligence agent reported. Walking toward the secret room, Terrance felt that his steps were extremely heavy...
