Chapter 61

Just as Leonard led the Mooney family members, rushing to the wedding scene in horror, Rory escaped from the Mooney family and returned home. Then, he hurried to the wedding scene with extremely luxurious gifts under Harrison's instructions. When Harrison saw that the groom for the Hundred Cities wedding was Joseph, especially when he heard that Joseph was the outer region God of War, he was almost scared to death. It was Rory who came back home and pulled Harrison up from the ground. He had collapsed in shock earlier. Then, they rushed to the wedding site at an extremely fast speed...

Ten minutes later, after Joseph personally put a diamond ring on her, the second stage of the Hundred Cities Wedding officially began. This was the wedding party of the other bridal couples below the high platform. 1314 fireworks rang at the wedding scene, and the balloons covering the sky rose into the air. The rose petals fell like rain. The 1314 bridal couples began to walk on the red carpet in pairs. After that, they went to the Oplen Cathedral next to them to get the priest to bear witness to their marriage. In short, everyone was smiling. The cheerful music, the rose petals all over the sky, countless handsome men and beautiful women, and the whole city was really filled with happiness and romance at this moment. Joseph and Paige stood on the high platform, watching the happy scene below and watching the 1314 couples enter their married lives together. Paige's eyes were moist. She looked at Joseph with endless gratitude and said slowly, "Joseph, thank you. Thank you for fulfilling all my fantasies about the wedding. You... and everything you did for me. Joseph, I just want to ask you, is it really worth it?" Standing next to her was Joseph who was holding Chloe, and Chloe was in a cute white dress. Joseph took a deep breath and said with a smile, "It's worth it. In my heart, you and Chloe are the most important things. The two of you are the gifts that God gave me. As long as I can accompany you in this life, it will be my greatest happiness." Although Joseph said with a smile and looked very carefree, Paige could see the sincerity in his eyes. She bit her lip and was deeply shocked by this sincere man. The scene of Joseph's battle in the outer region battlefields just flashed away, but she knew in her heart that it took more than a life-and-death battle to be able to become the God of War from a lowly soldier in five years! But at this moment, Paige did not know what to say. Perhaps what Joseph said was true. No matter how high the status and power he had, those were not as important as herself and

Chloe in his heart... "This man... but what kind of person is he? I have suffered a lot with Chloe these years, but he is the same. And he has never said..." Paige's eyes were slightly red and she looked at Joseph, who was happily holding her daughter. Paige secretly made a decision in her heart, that in this life, no matter what Joseph would do in the future, she would stay with him and never abandon him. She would love him using all means! Just as bridal couples went to the cathedral, Joseph and Paige also walked down the stairs hand in hand. As they went down, those 3,000 soldiers of the Dragon Temple, who were kneeling on one knee, still remained motionless. With a complicated look in his eyes, Joseph said to the warriors, "My comrades, go back now. I will not go with you. I hope that in the future, I will be able to hear the news of your fame in Frogua! I bid farewell to you again!" Joseph said very seriously, and the formidable aura around him once again filled the air. Those three thousand warriors had gone through life and death with him. In the past five years, no matter whether they were alive or dead, no matter how cruel the battle was, they would always be with him! At this moment, Joseph also expressed his feelings to them, saying that he would never return to the outer region battlefields again. This was a farewell.

The three thousand top-level experts of the Dragon Temple also knew what Joseph meant. Their mighty Lord Dawson valued friendship and loyalty. Now that he had finally found his wife and daughter, who had suffered so much pain before, they understood Joseph's choice. However, without their lord, was the Dragon Temple still the same as before? At this moment, when they heard Joseph's clear farewell, their eyes turned red. But the next moment, the three thousand warriors bowed to Joseph and shouted, "Here to pay our respects to the God of War! To our brother! Please take care of yourself, Lord Dawson! If you have any orders in the future, we'll be back in one day! Take care, brother!!!"

The warriors of the Dragon Temple roared at Joseph with red eyes. Then they got up and turned to leave without hesitation. The Dragon Temple had always been very strict. None of the 3000 men turned around or looked back. Looking at the three thousand soldiers who had left, Joseph's eyes were full of complicated emotions. "Brothers, goodbye. I don't know when we will meet again.

- "Take care. You must live on..." Even someone as strong as Joseph had tears in his eyes at this moment. As she watched the three thousand soldiers leave, Paige's body trembled violently. She was deeply shocked by the scene in front of her. The next moment, she took Chloe with her and said to the three thousand soldiers who had gone far away, "Chloe, remember these men. They... they are all heroes, heroes like your father! Chloe, come with me to bow to them and bid them farewell..." The next moment, Paige took Chloe from Joseph's arms and bowed deeply to the back of the more than 3,000 soldiers who had left. Felix, the God of War of the central region, also bowed deeply at this moment. At this moment, Yahir, Estella, Serena, and others also bowed and said goodbye sincerely... It wasn't until the three thousand soldiers walked out of the wedding hall and got on the military vehicles that they looked up again. At this moment, the two hundred helicopters around the hall also zoomed away. Joseph retracted his gaze from the outside of the venue. He turned to smile at Paige and said, "Paige, don't think too much. The most important thing for us is to be together..." Hearing that, the look in Paige's eyes became more and more complicated. At this moment, she thought that Joseph must want to go back with those soldiers, but he

At this time, Yahir squeezed out a smile on his face and said to Paige, "Well, Paige, don't think about anything else. Today is the wedding day of you and Joseph. You should be happy! Smile now! You are the hostess of the Hundred Cities Wedding, and now you are recognized as a princess in Oplen!" Estella also nodded hurriedly and persuaded her daughter, "Yes, Paige, don't think about it anymore. Happy, you must be happy today. There is a common saying that if the bride has a sad face at the wedding, she will have a bad life in the future... This is not entirely untrue..." Only then did Paige hurriedly raise her head and nod heavily. She smiled and said, "Yes, yes, I won't cry again today..." At this time, Estella looked at Joseph. It was extremely embarrassing. Alas, when Joseph came back, Estella even deliberately introduced Brooks to Paige to break Joseph and Paige up. Now that she thought about it, fortunately, Brooks suddenly had something to do on a business trip abroad. Otherwise, she would have become a sinner for generations. If she really missed such a good son-in-law of Joseph, she would regret it for the rest of her life...

Thinking of this, Estella felt extremely embarrassed and said to Joseph, "Goodness... Joseph, I'm sorry. I was confused a few days ago and insisted on 'introducing Paige to Brooks. Fortunately, Brooks went abroad, or I would have been guilty for the rest of my life..." "Huh, Mom, it's impossible for that to happen, okay? Haha... Do you still think that Brooks is going abroad? Hehehe..." Serena said with a smile beside Estella.

Estella looked at Serena and then at Joseph. Suddenly, she opened her mouth wide and said to Joseph in shock, "Joseph, did you make Brooks go away?" Joseph smiled and didn't say anything. It was better not to admit it, so he winked at Serena. Serena quickly grabbed Estella's arm and said, "Mom, are your head still covered? My brother-in-law is the God of War of our Frogua! Do you think that he has to personally handle a lowly guy like Brooks who dares lay his eyes on Paige? Are you kidding me..." At this time, Dennis and Tang Yun, who were walking over, also said to Estella with a smile, "Madam, Brooks is just my subordinate. He dared to have any inappropriate ideas about Miss Mooney. It's a blessing for him that I didn't dismiss him. You don't have to worry about this matter anymore..." "Don't be embarrassing! Are you a fool? The God of War! God of War of Frogua! If you still don't know, go back and check it out on the Internet... Keep silent now..." Yahir also said to Estella with the corner of his mouth twitching. He thought that his wife was really short-sighted. Didn't she see that Dennis, the richest man in Oplen and the president of Gempoint Group, had to be humble in front of his son-in-law? That guy, Brooks? What the hell was that Brooks? How could a young manager compare with the God of War of Frogua? What a huge joke... "Er... Oh, oh, yes, my son-in-law is the God of War of the Frogua. Well, the God of War of the Frogua is my good son-in-law, hahaha, hahaha..." Estella finally reacted at this time and laughed happily on the spot. At this time, when she looked at Joseph, she was very satisfied. Everyone looked at Estella and laughed. Although it was a little indecent, no one dared to say anything at this moment. "Don't joke around. She is now the mother-in-law of the God of War of the Frogua... Her status is so powerful!" "Mom..." Paige felt a little embarrassed from Estella's jokes. She frowned and called her mother in a low voice. Only then did Estella come to her senses. She blushed and quickly lowered her head without saying anything. However, she was still very satisfied and excited when she looked at Joseph. The God of War of the Frogua, the God of War of the Frogua, my son-in-law... At this moment, she suddenly looked at Serena and said, "Serena! Tell me the truth. When did you know your Joseph's true identity? I always felt that you were very strange a few days ago! Be honest, don't lie to me!" As Paige spoke, everyone turned to look at Serena. Serena's face turned red, and she was a little timid when she was stared at by Paige. "Hurry up and say it! Otherwise, I'll beat you up! You even dare to lie to your sister! Did you already know about it? Why are you hiding it from me?" Paige continued to question Serena. Serena hurriedly ran behind Bethany, stuck out her tongue at her, and said, "Paige, I just wanted to surprise you. You are a silly yet beautiful girl. Think about it, as long as something happens to you these days, those people will rush to apologize to you. You wanted to sign contracts, but those clients came to sign it with you. You wanted to meet Brooks, but he was so scared that he ran away. You didn't doubt him. Well... I found out on the afternoon of the day Reuben met you. I secretly followed Joseph, and then... then I saw him go to find Mr. Drake, and then I was caught by Joseph..." Serena patted her heart as she spoke. Even now, when she recalled the scene where Dennis respectfully greeted Joseph that day, her heart was still trembling... "You dare to say that I'm silly? I'm your older sister! Little girl, I think you are courting death..." After saying such a sentence to Serena, Paige chased after Serena and pretended to hit her. Serena ran away with a smile. For a moment, the depressed and sad atmosphere was completely livened up by Serena. At this moment, Ernie also came in from the outside. He walked respectfully to Joseph and said to him, "Mr. Dawson, Leonard, and Dominic from the Mooney family have come. Also, Harrison Shelton and his son are kneeling outside. They want to see you. Do you want to see them? Or should I chase them away now." As soon as Ernie finished speaking, everyone quieted down. Paige and Serena stopped arguing. Yahir frowned, and a trace of displeasure flashed in his eyes. He said to Joseph, "Joseph, what those people have done is too much. You can deal with it. Don't care about my opinion. I am not family with them now..." Hearing this, Joseph nodded. Taking a deep breath, he sneered at Ernie and said, "Oh, now that they know who I am, so they want to see me again? They are kneeling outside the door, right? Well, then, let them kneel..."

What kind of people were gathered together? At this moment, at the gate of the venue, the direct descendants of the Mooney family were nervously kneeling on the ground. Leonard, Dominic, Tommy, Lily, Maxton... And also Harrison and Rory from the Shelton family. Beside them were more than a hundred fully armed soldiers from the military, guarding them. When the people around the venue saw those from the Mooney family, they instantly recalled the scene of them bullying Paige at the wedding. Therefore, when they gazed upon the Mooneys, the crowd seemed very unfriendly. If it weren't for the soldiers around them blocking them, the Mooneys would have been beaten up. However, despite soldiers blocking them, some people still got a bunch of rotten fruits from nowhere and threw them directly at the people from the Mooney family. Lily and Maxton, who had slapped Paige at the Mooney family banquet previously, were hit by the fruits the most. The two of them were kneeling on the ground with their heads down, not daring to move an inch. In fact, when Leonard had asked the Mooney family to come and apologize to Joseph earlier, Lily had been very reluctant. She couldn't bring herself to do so. However, she didn't dare to not go. Only she herself knew how she had treated Paige in the past few years. Paige was silly and sweet, but Joseph, as the God of War, was not so easy to fool. In other words, Joseph didn't need to destroy Lily personally. All he needed was to just say a few words... At this moment, the people of the Mooney family and the Shelton family were kneeling at the door full of regret and fear. In the courtyard, Joseph, Paige, and the other big shots from Oplen namely Dennis, Tang Yun, Ernie, and Felix, the God of War in the Central Region, were talking to each other. The atmosphere between the two places was a huge contrast. The most excited person was Joseph's mother-in-law, Estella. She was very pleased with her son-in-law. She kept pulling Paige behind her and kept whispering to her. "Paige, listen to me. You are officially married to Joseph today. Go and get your marriage certificate in the afternoon. In the future, you must be good to Joseph.

Your cooking is not up to par, so learn well. You also need to keep your house tidy. Joseph is busy out there, so you should maintain your household well. Do you - understand? If you treat Joseph badly in the future and flaunt your identity everywhere, I will not spare you!" Estella said to Paige very seriously. Her expression and tone were as if she was afraid that Paige would lose Joseph. After listening to this, Paige was shocked. She looked at Estella with her mouth wide open and said, "Mom, did you lose your memory? I am your daughter, okay? How could you side him so much? Joseph is busy, but I also have to go out to work in future. Besides, Mom, your attitude has changed too fast, hasn't it? Didn't you just say that you wouldn't let me marry Joseph?" Hearing that, Estella's body trembled and she refused to admit it. "Did I say that? Who heard what I said? Paige, don't frame me. I told you from the beginning that Joseph was the best son-in-law! You might have heard it wrong... How could I say that..." Hearing Estella's words, Paige felt speechless. But then she shook her head and smiled. It was better for her mother to be satisfied with Joseph, wasn't it... While Paige was ruminating on this, Estella, who had been teaching her a lesson so seriously then hurried to Joseph's side and chatted with him with a smile... "Er..." The corner of Paige's mouth twitched twice. "Mom, do you have to be so materialistic?" She couldn't help but pat her mother's forehead. Paige then lowered her head and didn't dare to look at Tang Yun, Dennis, and the others. These guests were all VIPs in Oplen. "They are being so respectful to you all because of Joseph, okay?" Paige whispered internally, sighing at Estella's behavior. "Mr. Dawson, I've already ordered the food in the Mirage Hotel. Shall we go now? It's almost noon. What do you think?" Dennis said respectfully to Joseph. After thinking for a while, Joseph said, "Well, okay, let's have a meal together..."

walked in the middle, with Estella and Yahir beside them. Felix, Dennis, Ernie, Logan, Bethany, and others were outside... The identity and status of this group of people were so powerful, and now they were gathered together... At this moment, when Joseph and Paige walked out of the venue, hundreds of soldiers of the Central Region outside the gates all saluted Joseph. Their eyes were full of enthusiasm because the God of War in front of them was a real God of War who had been fighting for his life in the outer regions! "M-Mr. Dawson, please... please hold on.." Just as Joseph and the others were about to leave for the wedding car outside, Leonard, who was kneeling on one side, finally opened his mouth with difficulty. Joseph didn't want to pay attention to that snobbish Leonard, but he still paused for a moment. In a few days, he would leave here, and Paige and Chloe would also leave in the future. So it was better to solve these matters completely. So Joseph looked at Leonard and asked with a sneer, "Huh, Mr. Mooney, what can I do for you?"

- At this moment, when Leonard looked at Joseph again, his heart was full of emotions and regret. He didn't care about it. He was already elderly and close to the end of his life. However, the Mooney family that he had built had lost a great opportunity, and it was very likely that they were doomed. Because on his way here just now, all the companies that cooperated with the Mooney family in Oplen had already terminated contracts with them and were going to sue them. In other words, if Joseph didn't forgive the Mooneys now, those people would easily make the Mooney family bankrupt! At this moment, although Leonard had already known that with Joseph's decisive character, he would definitely not forgive them. But Leonard still asked Joseph, despite the small shred of hope, "Mr. Dawson, you, can you still forgive us? If you can forgive us, I will immediately hand over the company to Paige and the position of the head of the Mooney family to Yahir. What do you think? Can you still forgive us?" When Joseph heard this, the sneer on his face became more intense. He took a deep look at Leonard and said slowly, "Leonard, what do you think? Do you think I will forgive you?" Joseph sneered disdainfully. Leonard felt his heart wilt, and he nodded bitterly... Joseph took a deep breath and continued to look at Leonard. "Leonard, as the head of the family, you are not stupid. On the contrary, you are very smart. You have noticed it since the first time I secretly helped Paige, haven't you?" Leonard nodded bitterly again. Yes, he had noticed it a long time ago. Otherwise, he would not have asked Paige to ask Joseph out that day. Joseph also nodded and looked at Leonard again, saying, "That day at the hotel, I gave you a chance, and I also gave you many chances. All the problems of your Mooney family have been solved. Leonard, even if I did not take action, with the help of so many other companies, would you think it was hard for your family to become the top wealthy family in Oplen?"

The regret in Leonard's eyes became more intense, and he shook his head more bitterly. "Yes, I got the cooperation of the Gempoint Group, the Mysticorps Group, and the other top companies in Oplen at the same time. As long as my family had enough time to digest it, why should I worry?" But alas, Leonard had missed the golden opportunity... Joseph continued, "Leonard, why are you so displeased? Why..." After saying that, Joseph wanted to continue walking forward, but Dominic, who was kneeling beside Leonard, suddenly begged Joseph, "Mr. Dawson, Mr. Dawson, please stop for a while. I apologize to you on behalf of my son, Max... Our deepest apologies to Paige..." Lily's father, Tommy, also hurriedly kowtowed to Joseph and said, "Mr. Dawson, I apologize to you and Paige for daughter Lily. Please forgive us..." On the other side, Harrison and Rory were also begging for mercy from Joseph... Seeing this miserable scene, Paige couldn't bear to turn her head away. After all, she was too kind-hearted. Even for these cold blooded people, she felt a little pity for them. So she couldn't help but look at Joseph with a pleading look in her eyes.

Joseph frowned slightly. It was very uncomfortable for him to beg for mercy for these people. With a loud buzz, an aura of hostility burst out from his body. He said to Leonard, Dominic, Tommy, and Harrison and Rory, "Did I say you could apologize to me and kneel here? Huh? Did I say that?" Then Joseph sneered and ignored these people. He then pulled Paige into the bridal car. Estella and Yahir also sneered and got into another vehicle and left. If they had known what would happen today, they wouldn't have done it at the beginning. At this moment, when Dominic and Harrison saw that Joseph had left, they were completely desperate. Leonard seemed to have completely aged. He stood up and left, trembling. He didn't say a word. In fact, when Maxton forced Leonard to give the vice presidency of the company to Lily, Leonard refused it. He really refused it. But Leonard's orders fell on deaf ears in the Mooney family. In fact, the person in charge had become Maxton... Leonard had started the Mooney family's glory, but since there was no one good left in the younger generation, it was better that the family was ruined this way. It was better than having the family destroyed and also deaths in the family later on. When Leonard left, he glanced at Maxton and sneered. These were the two people who had always thought that they could carry forward the Mooney family. They did have abilities, but their hearts were evil! Leonard left, but those people of the Mooney family were stunned on the spot. Now they stopped kneeling and sat directly on the ground. Without Joseph, they couldn't be bothered to pretend. At this time, Dennis walked to the front of the pale-faced Harrison. He squatted down and tidied up his clothes and said, "Huh, Harrison, why do you think the Shelton family wants to get involved in this mess? Or do you really think that you can be on equal footing with me and Ernie just because you have a deputy general of the Eagle Troop in your family?" "No... I don't dare. I, I have never thought about it like that, and I don't dare to think about it..." Harrison quickly lowered his head and said to Dennis. He was not stupid. The moment Joseph left, Harrison knew that the time to settle accounts had come. And the person who would do that was Dennis! He was the richest man in Oplen and the most powerful person in the business circle of Oplen. Dennis continued to say with a sneer, "Well, don't talk nonsense. Although you didn't directly hurt Miss Mooney, Lily also took advantage of your power. Since you didn't get involved directly, then you can be spared from death. All your property companies will be confiscated, but you and your son can live. Is that okay?" Harrison's eyes were filled with struggles and he still wanted to ask for something. But in the end, he sighed deeply and said, "Okay..."

Then he stood up and left like a zombie, just like Leonard. He lost the bet. He put all his hopes on Maxton. He chose the wrong player and stood on the wrong team. The destruction of the Shelton family was the price he paid for that. "Mr. Drake, please listen to my explanation. I broke up with Lily last night. I really broke up with her last night..." Rory was still trying to explain to Dennis, but Dennis ignored him and left. For an old fox like Dennis, he could see through Rory's ridiculous shrewdness at a glance. Rory's performance made Dennis even more disdainful. The Shelton family had such a foolish descendant, and there would be no chance for them to rise again in the future... After Dennis left, Ernie sneered at Tommy and the others. He walked up to Tommy and gave him a deep look, saying, "Oh, Tommy, I've heard of you. It seems that we've met once before, right? Huh, you really have a good daughter. You not only chased Miss Mooney away, but you even pulled Maxton up in status, making him a deputy general of the Eagle Troop. Your daughter is really amazing. Huh, she not only destroyed the Mooney family but even your future is also ruined..." Ernie then turned around and left. But after a few steps, Ernie looked at the desperate Rory, pointed at him and said meaningfully to Tommy, "Oh, by the way, thinking about your family, your daughter is really amazing. I really admire her... Her heart is so evil! Tsk, tsk, tsk." After Ernie left, the God of War of the Central Region, Felix, came to Maxton, who was kneeling on the ground. Maxton was the only one who was still kneeling. When he saw Felix, Maxton looked at Felix with tears all over his face and pleaded, "My lord..." "Humph! You are so short-sighted! You don't even know that you have been used! You are dismissed from the military, and your skills will be removed!" After Felix finished speaking, he slammed his palm on Maxton's shoulder. Maxton spat out a big mouthful of blood, and his aura dropped to the extreme at this moment. His whole person fell backward... His battle skills were now gone, and his future was ruined. Maxton was full of remorse and hatred! After Felix left, Maxton and Rory staggered to their feet. The two of them walked towards Lily. Both of them had been used by this woman. All of this was caused by this woman's jealousy! It was all because she was jealous of Paige! It was she who told the media in Oplen that Paige had given birth to a baby out of wedlock five years ago. Lily was so vicious... "I let you scheme against me! I can't believe it!" In a fit of rage, Rory took out a dagger and slashed it across Lily's face. After a few slashes, Lily's heavily made-up face was completely disfigured. "Arghh..." Lily came back to her senses and desperately covered her face. She screamed miserably! Disfiguring her... This was worse than killing her "Arghh... Paige! Joseph, I will never let you off in this life. I will never let you off in this life..." Lily cursed resentfully as she ran. Yes, the hatred in her heart and the hatred for Paige and Joseph had reached an extreme. All the people around her were cursing her, the employees, relatives, fiance, and brother who had always loved her. At this moment, everyone vented their anger that was left was deep despise, and it would manifest into a real deep grudge... "Paige, sooner or later, I will destroy your face with my own hands, and then kill you with my own hands, argghhh.." In a deserted alley, Lily's hoarse voice was like that of a wild beast. However, in the next moment, there was a slight sound, followed by the sound of knives piercing flesh one after another. Lily only felt a sharp pain in her chest. She looked down in disbelief, and then saw a bright clean knife stabbing in and out of her chest, crushing her heart into pieces... "Who... is it..." The next moment, Lily turned around with great difficulty, and then she saw a stranger. His eyes were full of disdain as he said, "Oh, you want to take revenge on Miss Mooney and our Lord? You're really ignorant. You're overestimating yourself!" "L-Lord?" Lily looked at the man in front of her in confusion. This man was Alpha 1. He had a strength similar to the God of War's peak power. If he killed an ordinary person, it would be difficult for even Felix to find him, let alone Maxton. At this moment, Alpha 1 looked at Lily as if he was looking at a fool. He said, "Heh, do you really think that our Lord is merely an outer region God of War?"

"Pfft.." The next moment, the sound of a dagger piercing into flesh could be heard. Alpha 1 leaned his head to Lily's ear and said softly, "Haha, of course not. There are dozens of Gods of Wars... And also the most powerful of the Four Heavenly Kings, which is the Dragon Temple." "Puff... Lily spat out a mouthful of blood again and fell back with extreme despair. It was not until the moment of her death that she really felt regret, despair, and endless darkness. It turned out that they really dared to kill her. Lily was dead. Alpha 1 sneered and disappeared. Not long after he disappeared, the exasperated Maxton chased after him. He had been chased by Rory earlier, but as soon as he arrived, everything went black and he fell down. The next moment, a knife appeared in his hand, which was the knife that had just killed Lily... The Dragon Temple had always gone by the principle of ending evil using evil were ingrained with malice and would not be grateful. Therefore, there may be people in the Mooney family who can continue to live, but there must be no hope to rise again. There could be no one who could threaten Paige again. On the roof, Alpha 1 murmured, "Maybe God will forgive you, but that's his business. Mr. Dawson did not ask me to kill you, but I'm sorry. I'm a killer. At worst, I can go back and apologize to him... Oh, maybe I'll be beaten by him again... It would be painful..." After Alpha 1 finished speaking, he vanished. The Mooney family also rushed over, but when they saw this scene in front of them, they were all stunned. The two most outstanding people of the Mooney family were finished, completely doomed...

Chapter 63

At noon, in the best private room of the Mirage Hotel, in the Fabled private room, Joseph, Paige, Felix, Dennis, Ernie, Yahir, Logan, Bethany, and others were seated one by one. Lara, the owner of the Emperor's Hao Hotel, personally served guests and personally poured wine for Estella. Estella was so scared that she was extremely nervous. The owner of the Mirage Hotel was the most powerful woman in Oplen. But at this moment, she didn't even qualify to sit down and personally served the group. And that was the truth. No matter how powerful Lara was, she was no match for the Paige Family. Not to mention the two top leaders of Oplen, Dennis and Ernie, Lara couldn't afford to offend Logan, the richest man in Apren City. They were not on the same level, let alone Felix, the God of War in the Central Region, who was in charge of 100,000 troops in the Central Region of the Frogua! And Joseph's identity was even more distinguished as an outer region God of War of Frogua! There was no place for Lara there! It was her luck to be serving this group of people... "Miss Mooney, congratulations on your marriage with Mr. Dawson..." Lara smiled and poured a glass of red wine for her. "Thank you, thank you, Madam Bennett..." Paige gently nodded to Lara. This was the second time she had seen Lara. After Joseph revealed part of his identity, Lara no longer dared to address Paige by name. Lara sighed in her heart. Only the people of the Mooney family had been so myopic and thought that Joseph was really dismissed. Although Lara did not know the specific identity of Joseph, she had been struggling in the top circle of Oplen for so many years. She was very sure that Joseph was not as simple as he looked. Because at the moment, Felix, the God of War in the Central Region, was extremely cautious in front of Joseph... Lara's heart trembled again, but she knew what to say and what not to say. Then she took the red wine and poured wine for Estella. She said with a smile, "Congratulations, Madam Estella. I heard that you also live in the nearby Paragon Villa area. If you are free in the future, you can come to chat with me often. You can come at any time. I will always be free for you..." Estella quickly stood up and thanked him. Such a big shot poured wine for her and spoke to her so respectfully, which made Estella feel very conflicted. But she 'wanted to stand up and thank Lara, but Lara did not dare accept it. She quickly persuaded Estella back to her seat... At the table, everyone was eating and laughing. As the star of the day, the bride of Hundred Cities wedding, Paige, also drank a lot of red wine under the persuasion of others. This was the first time that she had drunk so much wine over the years, so her little face was a little red. Her blushing face surprised Joseph. But at the same time, except for Joseph, who dared to look at Paige's beautiful appearance, no one else dared to look at her. Although Paige had changed her wedding dress, she was still wearing a white low-cut dress with white high heels which showed off her slender and straight legs. She was really beautiful. In addition, Paige was born with an unspeakable temperament, which made Joseph more fascinated. In fact, even Bethany and Serena, who were sitting next to Paige, were surprised. Paige was really beautiful... At two o'clock in the afternoon, Yahir drank too much. He was crying and laughing at the table, but he didn't want to leave. Joseph and the others had no choice but to drink more with him. Paige and the other women went to the room and went to the next floor of the presidential suite. When Paige pushed the door open, her blushing face became redder. Rose petals, balloons, a red carpet and other decorations were put up in the room... It was so romantic. "Wow, Mom, that's so beautiful. I want to sleep on that big bed." Chloe ran into run there. Estella's expression changed. She quickly picked Chloe up and said, "Chloe, be a good girl. That's your mom and dad's bed. Can you go to bed with Aunt Serena tonight?" "But why can't I sleep here? I have been sleeping between her parents these days..." Chloe continued to say innocently. Hearing that, Paige blushed even more. She quickly lowered her head and did not dare to look up at the crowd again. Seeing this, Serena quickly said to Chloe, "Chloe, how about I take you out to play? Can I buy you delicious ice cream?" "Well... okay.." Chloe thought for a moment and still felt that the ice cream was delicious, so she nodded happily and followed Serena out. Estella and Bethany also gave her a meaningful look, and then left together. After everyone left, she quickly closed the door and leaned against it, covering her face with her hands. Just now, Estella said that Paige would be sleeping with Joseph, and Paige felt so embarrassed. Even if no one was there, she still covered her face and stamped her feet shyly. Her heart was beating very fast... It was a long time before she came to her senses. She walked into the bathroom and looked at herself in the mirror. She had long legs, soft long hair, extremely smooth skin, a slender waist, a plump bosom, and a perky behind... Especially her flawless face... was stunning. She was really beautiful. She had never imagined that she could be so beautiful... After looking at the bathroom for a long while, she returned to her bedroom.

When her eyes were focused on the big bed covered with red rose petals, her face turned red again. "Tonight, do I... want to sleep with him?" Paige murmured, her voice as soft as a mosquito's. She bit her lip gently. Looking at the bed in front of her, she felt her face begin to burn, and then her body began to burn. Although she and Joseph had slept together more than five years ago, they both suffered great pain at that time. It was not a beautiful memory at all, and it was almost a nightmare. But now, at the darkest moment of her life, Joseph came back with monstrous power, broke all darkness for her, and even held a grand wedding for her, making her the princess in the hearts of people in Oplen. Paige's heart had long been melted, and it melted greatly when she opened her eyes earlier that day and found out that she was the bride. Paige had fallen in love with Joseph deeply, the moment she stepped on the red carpet this morning when countless people shouted her name and called her Princess of Oplen... What Joseph had done for her had already dispelled all the trauma in her heart and all the suffering. If she wanted to have a status, she had to bear the consequences. Now, she only had Joseph in her heart. A man who could give up everything for her, and her heart was only with him. Thinking of this, Paige took a deep breath. Although she was still very nervous in her heart, and her clenched hands wrinkled the sheets on both sides, she still made up her mind. This was the night she would offer herself! Anyway, except for Joseph, she couldn't accept any other man in her life. Sooner or later, she would sleep with him, so she didn't have to hesitate... Paige took a deep breath over and over again, forcing herself to calm down. She said to herself in her heart, "Paige, you can, you can, and you have already given yourself to that man once. You can do it! Don't be afraid! Yes, don't be afraid!" Time passed slowly. At four o'clock in the afternoon, Paige finally made up her mind, but the moment the door was knocked, she instantly became nervous. "Paige? Paige, are you here? It's me, I'm back." Joseph's voice sounded outside the door. Paige's heart beat faster and faster, and she could even hear it thumping. She wanted to stand up and open the door for Joseph, but her legs were out of control. Her fair, long legs, were wobbly... "Well? Not here..." After a while, Joseph's voice came from outside the door. He was

- standing outside Paige's door, looking up at the room number above. It was the room that Lara told him. Moreover, there was no one else in the entire Mirage Hotel. Joseph frowned. Just when he thought he remembered wrongly and wanted to leave, Paige's voice came from inside the door. "I... I'm here, you... wait a moment..." Paige's nervous voice came from the room, and she was stuttering. Joseph breathed a sigh of relief in his heart. He drank a little too much. He had no choice. Felix kept toasting him heartily. It was a happy celebration, and so he didn't want to refuse. After a while, the door of the room was finally opened. Joseph walked in. Seeing that she looked a little nervous, he asked, "Paige, what's wrong? You don't look well..." "It's... it's nothing." Paige quickly waved her hand. "Where are Chloe and the others?" Joseph asked again. "She... they left first. Madam Bennett prepared a room for them..." said Paige very nervously. It was just that the setting of the room was a bit too suggestive and romantic. One couldn't help but think about it. At this moment, Joseph nodded. He went to the bedside, looked back at Paige and said, "Hurry up and have a rest..." "Huh? Now... now?" Paige was stunned. Her face was flushed as she looked at Joseph. Her slender and fair hands were tightly clutching her dress behind her, and her heart was beating even faster. Joseph felt that Paige was a little strange, and there was something wrong with her expression. Was she drunk? So he nodded and said, "Yes, you should go to bed and..." Looking at the handsome Joseph in front of her, she only felt that her heart was about to jump out. She said nervously, "Can you wait a little longer? Can you... wait until it's dark?" "It's... it's still daytime..." As she spoke, she lowered her head. Her face was so red that it reached her neck... Her body began to heat up. She did not dare to even look at Joseph. Hearing this, Joseph was stunned. He looked at Paige and then at the bed in front of him. Then he suddenly realized it. So he sat on the bed and looked at Paige with a smile. "Hahaha, my dear wife, what are you thinking about? Are you thinking about what I'm going to do with you now?" "Er..." Paige was stunned. Her body trembled and she subconsciously raised her head to ask Joseph, "Er... Is it not?" Joseph said, "Of course not. I see that you don't look well, and you drank a lot just now. That red wine is very strong. I want you to go to bed and rest for a while. What are you thinking..." "Oh, oh, oh, I'm fine. I'm really fine. If you're tired, you can rest for a while first..." Hearing that, Paige was so shy that she quickly waved her hand and said to Joseph. Joseph looked at her with a smile and said, "Hahaha, what are you thinking about?"

What are you talking about? And you said to wait until it's dark? What are you talking about? It's daytime now... uh, wait! You... you just said that you were going to sleep with me at night?" As Joseph was talking, he suddenly realized something. Then his heart beat faster in an instant, and he felt that his blood was burning. The next moment, he looked at her with a blazing gaze. Looking at the exceedingly beautiful woman in front of him, he couldn't help but feel a little impulsive... Shocked by the look in Joseph's eyes, Paige hurriedly shook her head and said, "No, no, you misheard me, you misheard me..." But the next moment, like a gust of wind, Joseph, who was originally sitting on the large bed, almost eight meters away from Paige, appeared in front of her in an instant. He pressed his right hand against the wall domineeringly and stood in front of her. He stared at her and said, "Dear, I almost forgot. Today is a happy day for us. You are going to sleep with me. Hahaha, would you still want to escape?" Paige's heart thumped wildly. After lowering her head for a while, she whispered to Joseph, "I, I don't..." When Joseph heard this, he felt the blood in his body burning in an instant. He licked his lips and looked at the beautiful woman in front of him. She was so alluring that she could win anyone's heart. He said slowly, "My dear, you are so beautiful. Can I... can I kiss you?"

At this moment, her slender body was blocked by Joseph. Half of her body was leaning against the wall. As for her long, slender legs, one was stuck outside, and the other was stepping on the wall behind her with high heels. Her heart beat faster. At this moment, she could even feel Joseph's warm breath on her face... After a long time, she gently nodded her head, and then slowly closed her eyes...

When Joseph saw that Paige raised her head, closed her eyes, and waited quietly, he was stunned for a moment. Paige was so silly that even his heart ached for her. Five years ago, he hurt her, but when he left, she didn't say anything, and then she worked so hard to take care of the baby alone... "Wh-what's wrong?" Paige had her eyes closed had been waiting for a long time. Joseph did not move, so Paige fluttered her eyelashes and opened her eyes. Then, she saw Joseph, who was looking at her affectionately. But just as she opened her eyes, Joseph suddenly lowered his head and kissed her delicate red lips. She opened her eyes wide without any preparation. After kissing her, Joseph quickly left and said to Paige, "Dear, open your eyes and look at me, okay?" She looked at Joseph in a daze and listened to him address her as 'Dear'. Her heart was extremely sweet and she was moved. After a moment of silence, she nodded. Then Joseph lowered his head and slowly approached her mouth. This time, she was prepared. The two kissed each other. Slowly, she stretched out her fair arms, stood on tiptoe and put her arms around Joseph's neck. She took the initiative to respond... Actually, many things were just hidden by a layer of bashfulness. When their emotions manifested, a lot of things would come naturally. They were not as nervous as they had imagined. After Paige took the initiative to respond to Joseph, the feelings between the two of them seemed to have broken through that barrier of shyness, and their passion deepened... The two hugged and kissed each other for a long time. Then, Paige hugged Joseph's neck but actually felt very calm. For some reason, she felt as if she had become this man's wife for a long time already. "Honey..." The next moment, she naturally called Joseph this way, something she had been unable to do previously. Everything was so natural and there were no more obstacles between them. Joseph smiled and gently hugged her slim waist. He said, "Dear..." Paige also smiled. She looked at the big bed behind Joseph and said, "Let's go and rest..." But this time, Joseph shook his head and refused with a smile. "Didn't you just want to... want it? Why are you..." Joseph took a deep breath and put her down. He got up and walked to the window. He pulled the curtains to the ends, opened the window, and let the wind in. Then he opened the door of the balcony, turned around and said to Paige, "My dear, many things would be boring if we did it in one step. I'm not in a hurry. We haven't had a serious relationship yet, but we got married directly. It's a loss for us. We shouldn't miss out on so much..." Joseph paused for a moment before putting away the smile on his face. He looked at Paige seriously and said, "Miss Paige, my name is Joseph. I like you. Can you have a relationship with me?" Paige smiled. At this moment, everything in her heart had been put down. There was no more pressure, worries, and everything she needed to think about. Now she seemed to have returned to the time when she had just graduated. At that time, she had just left college and felt that everything in the world was beautiful, and she was filled with longing and a fighting spirit. Well, that was what she felt now. The next moment, she smiled and nodded to Joseph. "Well, yes. Mr. Joseph, I'm willing to be in a relationship with you..." She and Joseph were ten meters apart, smiling at each other. "Come, give me a hug..." Joseph stretched out his hand and said to Paige. Thus, Paige walked over, walked up to him, and took the initiative to hug him. On the balcony, there were two sofas. Joseph was lying on the couch with Paige in his arms, looking at the scenery in the distance. The view was beautiful, and the person in his arms was more beautiful. As time passed slowly, the exceedingly beautiful Paige lay in the arms of Joseph. Her face was pressed against Joseph's chest, feeling his strong heartbeat. Her fingers drew a circle on Joseph's chest. She looked up at Joseph and asked, "Don't you regret it? I wanted to give myself to you just now. If you refuse, you don't know when the next time you think about it..." Joseph touched Paige's head with great affection and said, "I don't regret anything. Anyway, you are mine, and you will be mine for the rest of your life. I am not in a hurry. I am not a pervert..." Joseph paused as he spoke and continued, "Paige, do you know? Even if I can only hug you, it will be the greatest happiness in my life.." "Yes." She nodded, then raised her head and kissed Joseph. "Me too. Joseph, marrying you is also the greatest happiness in my life." After a pause, she said, "But... but can you really not go back to the military?" Joseph nodded. "Well, I can't go back anyway. And I don't want to go back now. The God of War is just a title. It doesn't matter to me. What matters is that I can accompany you and Chloe." After thinking for a while, she continued to ask, "Well, shall we leave here next?" Joseph nodded and said, "Well, let's go to Usmaït. This city is too small. You are a brilliant student, but you encountered an obstacle. Paige, I believe that you have your dream in your heart. Oplen is too small. Let's go to Usmaït. Chloe should go to school. I want to give her the best education there. Don't worry, we still have some money, which is enough for us to buy a nice house in Usmaït. Then we can go to work and find a good school for Chloe, okay?" How could Joseph's wife and daughter, live in this mere Oplen for a lifetime? He wanted to give them a better future and a wider world. Moreover, he had some things to do in Usmaït. He had to go back to settle the grievances from five years ago, the person who betrayed him and poisoned him! Paige's lovely body trembled. She did not expect that Joseph was still planning for her dreams. For a moment, she felt moved again.

Yes, once upon a time, she was a fresh graduate with excellent grades. She had also thought about doing something. Although she had gone to see larger cities, she was always behind Joseph. She did not want to be an idle wife, not to mention that Joseph had left the military. Now, Dennis and Ernie had given Joseph face, so they might not be able to do it in the future. Joseph had paid so much for her, and she also wanted to do something for him. Just as she was thinking about it, Joseph narrowed his eyes. The setting sun in the distance cast a glow on them. Before they knew it, it was already evening, and the sun was setting... Joseph gently patted her on the shoulder and said to her, "Paige, look, the sunset is beautiful..." Hearing that, Paige turned her head and took a look. Then she came down from Joseph's body and looked at the beautiful sunset. Joseph walked to the railing, looked at the sunset, and looked at Paige. He said with a smile, "Paige, let's leave here in a few days. I want to take you to see the world, far away..."

The setting sun shone on Joseph's body and his incomparably handsome body. She turned her head to look at Joseph. At this moment, she only felt that the man in front of her was very handsome. He was really very charming, so charming! A strange feeling of wanting to become one with the man in front of her rose in her heart. The next moment, she walked up to Joseph, grabbed his hand, and pulled him to the bedroom. She pulled him into the bedroom, then closed the door on the balcony, pulled the curtains again, and pushed him to the bed. "Paige... You?" Joseph looked at her in confusion and asked. Instead of answering him immediately, Paige decided that the fault would be on her and said to Joseph, "You are such a good man. I don't want to wait. I don't care. Tomorrow, we will go to collect our marriage certificate..." After Paige finished speaking, she pulled off the zipper of her white dress...

And the passionate romance ensued.. After five hours, the exhausted Paige could no longer open her eyes and lay on Joseph's chest. She had been too crazy just now, especially when she saw the scars all over Joseph's body. Her heart ached to the extreme. She desperately took the initiative to love him and give him everything that she had... At this moment, Paige, who was sleeping on his chest, still had a trace of a smile on the corner of her mouth, but there were tears falling from the corners of her eyes... The sound of even breathing could be heard from her nose. She had already fallen asleep. She was mentally exhausted and coupled with the pain and fatigue of her body just now, she had fallen into a deep sleep... Holding Paige, Joseph who was lying on the bed, tilted his head to look at the night sky outside the window. Then, he looked at the woman in his arms with great love. The woman who gave him everything she had just like five years ago. His heart was deeply touched... "Paige, I'll go to the Usmit in a few days. After I settle that grudge, I'll take you and Chloe there. I won't be the lord of the Dragon Temple anymore, nor will I accept the invitation from the military of Frogua. I'll just stay with you and Chloe. Let's live happily together..." Joseph murmured in his heart. At this moment, he decided to give up everything, the identity of the Dragon Temple, the monstrous power, and the hatred of the Dawson family in Vowhye that drove him away... But Joseph didn't want to let go of the grudge that had betrayed him and poisoned him, the person who had always regarded Joseph as his younger brother! Because if it weren't for that person, Paige wouldn't have experienced those extremely miserable five years! So Joseph could let go of everything else, even the Dawson family in Vowhye! Even the Dragon Temple! But that person who betrayed him must die! "Paige, don't worry. Very soon. In a few days at most, I will bring you and Chloe to Usmit. After that, our family will live together. We will live in the largest city of the Froguia, prosperous and bustling." Joseph tenderly stroked Paige's long hair and said gently...

Chapter 65

It was very late at night in Usmit, which was more than 1,000 kilometers away from Oplen. Although it was late night, Usmit City was still brightly lit. It was a sleepless city! In Usmit, as the largest city in Froguia, it was ranked first in terms of economic ranking. Even in the world, it was ranked top. There, high-rise buildings with a height of 100 meters and hundreds of miles could be seen everywhere. This was a big city with extremely advanced technology and a huge economy. The population of the city was more than 20 million all year round. People from all walks of life and elites were living there. Just Usmit was comparable to the annual development of countless small countries. The city with such a developed economy was located by the East Sea. The trade in the sea was extremely developed. Every day and every night, there were countless planes and boats coming and going in and out of the city. Therefore, in some aspects, Usmit, as the gate of the Froguia, was extremely important to the entire Froguia. Therefore, even if it was just a city, there was an expert at the God of War level who was stationed here all year round. To ensure the safety of Usmit, a God of War led tens of thousands of troops to protect the economic lifeline of the city at all times... At this moment, in the east of Usmit, in the sky above an extremely secretive private airport, a private plane suddenly flew in. At this moment, there were dozens of extremely powerful figures standing at the airport, waiting quietly. The nine leaders had extremely powerful auras, no less powerful than Felix, the God of War of the Central Region. The nine of them were the personal guards under the command of the Dragon Temple, from Alpha 2 to Alpha 10! These two God of War experts did not follow the large group from the Dragon Temple to return to Outer Region. Instead, under the orders of Joseph and Alpha 1, they arrived directly in Usmit City after the wedding. They collected all the information at the fastest speed. And now, the nine of them were waiting for Alpha 1's arrival! When Alpha 1 arrived, the plan would be officially launched! The next moment, the private plane landed on the airport in the night sky. The cabin door opened, and the imposing Alpha 1 quickly stepped out of the plane. He looked at the people who came to meet him and nodded slightly. "How's the investigation going? Have you found out everything about the man who betrayed our boss?" After getting off the plane, Alpha 1 asked the leaders. At this time, Alpha 7 with a white half-mask stepped forward and handed Alpha 1 a pile of materials. He said in a low voice, "The captain has already found out, Fu Junlin! He was the boss's close friend. Five years ago, after he betrayed boss, he took over everything that boss has in Usmit, including the Junlin Group that boss established six years ago!" Alpha 7 paused for a while, and then his eyes became cold. He continued, "Fu Junlin is now the president of the whole Chamber of Commerce in Usmit City, and his status is very high. According to our calculation in the afternoon, he already has the strength of a Semi God of War, and he has more than a hundred masters at the level of five stars. Moreover, the current Junlin Group is already the largest listed company in Usmaït City, and its business is all over the world. There are more than 100,000 employees in Usmaït City. The leaders of Usmaït City also value the Junlin Group very much! They even attached great importance to it..." After saying that, Alpha 7 frowned slightly and said to Alpha 1, "Captain, the current Junlin Group is no longer a simple enterprise. It is the face of the entire Usmaït Family. Sometimes, it even represents Frogua... Captain, if we overthrow the Junlin Group, some people in Usmaït City will probably stop us. There is also a God of War of Frogua here, who is also very powerful. His name is Wang Tianhai, and he has been in charge of Usmaït City for 20 years! Captain, I suggest that we ask the Lord of the Hall for instructions and then take action." Alpha 7 had some concerns in his heart. The Junlin Group was so big that it could no longer treat him as a simple company. There were too many things involved there... Alpha 1 frowned slightly and nodded. "In fact, you don't have to ask the hall master! You know the hall master's character very well! Don't forget that before Mr. Dawson returned to Frogua, he took us to slaughter the Ironclouds Organization. He only said, from now on, no one can stop his will! And don't forget, although our Lord rushed back in time to save Madam Mooney and Miss Chloe when Miss Chloe was humiliated, do you really think Mr. Dawson's anger is gone? Over the years, our Dragon Temple has done too many things for Frogua both the open and in the dark. Although some people in the Dragon Temple don't know the true identity of Madam Mooney and her child, they are suffering here after all. Do you really think Lord Dawson is not angry about these things?" Alpha 1 paused for a moment and continued, "Do you really think that when Sebastian appeared in Aglela then, Mr. Dawson didn't want to start a war? Haha... If I'm not mistaken, Mr. Dawson will definitely make the Frogua a mess! Do you really think he is a sage? Yes, he values friendship and friendship, but for his relatives, friends, and other people, even the Usmaït God of War, Wang Tianhai, who is now in charge of the Frogua, so what? If Wang Tianhai dares to make a move, I will kill him even without Mr. Dawson's orders..." Alpha 1 was full of rage. He waved his hand and said, "Well, don't think too much about it. I don't think we can fight against the entire Frogua. After all, Mr. Dawson has returned. As long as those people are not stupid, they will not give up an unparalleled expert like him. As for Wang Tianhai, someone will naturally deal with him. We don't have to pay attention to these things. I will report this to Lord Dawson first..." After Alpha 1 finished speaking, Alpha 7 and the others were also silent. Their murderous intent was faintly released. No matter what, they only recognized the Lord, Joseph, in their hearts. The rest of them, even if they were the king of heaven, could not do it! Even if they were the king of hell, they could kill them! At the moment when Alpha 1 picked up the phone to report to Joseph, Joseph, who was in the presidential suite of the Mirage in Oplen more than 1,000 kilometers away, got up and gently covered Paige with the quilt. He walked quietly to the balcony, closed the door, and picked up the call from Alpha 1. When Joseph heard Alpha 1's report, he only said three words coldly, "Get to work!"

Then he hung up the phone... Alpha 1 hung up the phone after Joseph hung up. Under the gaze of Alpha 7 and the others, his mouth curved into a cruel and strange smile. He said slowly, "As expected, Lord Dawson is still the Lord. Let's go and meet those people... Bradley and Lewis. Let's officially begin our plan in Usmaït tonight!" – After Alpha 1 finished speaking, he strode forward. Alpha 7 and the others hurriedly followed him. Then dozens of people, a group of powerful figures that made the whole Usmait tremble with fear, gathered in the direction of the Armstrong family. Bradley, the speaker of the Armstrong family, was the one who was released by Joseph in Apren City that day. He was promoted to a Semi God of War by Joseph. After returning to Usmait, he immediately took charge of the family and let the Armstrong family expand at all costs in the shortest time. Now the Armstrong family had once again reached the top ten ranking in the whole Usmait.

Because in the top circles of Usmait, some people knew that Bradley had obtained the support of a terrifying big shot. In a short period of time, his battle strength had broken through to the God of War level, and he was about to become a real God of War. In any place, a God of War level existence could suppress an entire region's fortune. If he was in charge of a family, the family would naturally get an unprecedented promotion. The same was true even for Lewis of the Gordon family. In the shortest time, he had broken through to the strength of a Semi God of War. The Gordon family had also expanded rapidly. In just a few days, they had returned to the seventh among the top ten families in Usmait, and the Armstrong family was the sixth. However, what shocked the top families and people in the top circle of Usmait was that the Armstrong and Gordon families, who had always been close to each other, announced the union in the first place. In just a few days, the descendants of the two families had been married more than ten times in a row and formed an alliance of hundreds of generations! It could be imagined that among the top ten families in Usmait City, two big families had suddenly joined forces. Their power was definitely not as simple as one plus one. The combination of the two families could even instantly surpass the top three. They had even rapidly approached the power of Junlin Group. Moreover, recently, it was not only the existence of the Armstrong family and the Gordon family that had been in turmoil but also the richest man in Apren City, Logan of the Parry family, who had suddenly conquered the city. It was unknown what caused Logan's sudden move. He suddenly transferred all the wealth and accumulation of the Parry family, which had been accumulated for hundreds of years, to Usmait. Three or four days ago, Dennis and Ernie, the first and second richest man in Oplen, suddenly joined forces and came in to conquer Usmait. Originally, the elites in Usmait City didn't take Logan, Dennis, and Ernie seriously. But soon they found that, whether it was Logan who came from Apren City or Dennis and Ernie who came from Oplen, they were all supported by a big shot from the Outer Region. They had several Outer Region financiers behind them who invested in their companies. Therefore, for a time, the three of them's forces in Usmait were rapidly expanding. Even if they hadn't reached the top 10 yet, they were still within the top 20. As long as they were given some time, these two foreign forces would officially enter the top 10... What frightened the big shots of Usmait City was that Logan, who came from Aglela, Dennis, and Ernie, who came from Oplen, had been in close contact with the Armstrong family and the Gordon family these days. The Armstrong family and the Gordon family were also doing their best to help them at all costs... Therefore, for a time, the elites of Usmait began to panic and feel scared. None of these big shots were fools. They could all guess that there must be a more terrifying existence behind the sudden rise of the four forces. That backer was planning to conquer Usmait. Those big shots in Usmait were not afraid of the Armstrong family, the Gordon family, and Logan, Dennis, and others. But these days, they all felt afraid of the backer behind those people at the same time... With such big financing, they could not imagine what level this might backer was at. What frightened them more was that they still did not know what the big shot was going to do by reaching out to Usmit... Therefore, in recent days, the top leaders of the Usmit and their families were running around and exchanging information with each other. Some of them who had a keen sense had even begun to fully tighten their business. They did not seek merits, but only for self protection...

That night, while the top leaders of Usmit were still making wild guesses, Alpha 1 and his men had already driven a row of Mercedes Benz cars to the Armstrong family... At this moment, outside the main gate of the Armstrong family's villa, the Armstrongs' leader Bradley, the Gordon family's leader Lewis, the Parry family's Logan, Dennis, Ernie, and the two hundred secret forces of the Armstrong and Gordon families were all out, standing at the gate of the villa to welcome Alpha 1 and others... At one o'clock in the morning, Alpha 1 and the others arrived at the Armstrong residence's main entrance. The few of them got off the vehicles. In an instant, the aura of ten God of War level experts was unleashed. "Welcome, Alpha 1..." Bradley, Lewis, and the others bowed deeply to Alpha 1 and the others. They were shocked. Wang Tianhai was the only God of War in the whole Usmit. But at this moment, Joseph directly sent ten experts at the level of God of War. For a time, Bradley and the others were shocked and full of confidence in their next plan. Because their plan this time was to overthrow the entire Junlin! Under the respectful welcome of Bradley and the others, Alpha 1 and the others quickly stepped into the Armstrong family's villa. When they arrived at the meeting room, Alpha 1 said coldly, "This revolutionary plan is in action! The four of you are going all out tonight! We will also help you. Let the Junlin Group go bankrupt tonight!" "Yes, Sir!" Bradley, Lewis, Dennis, and Ernie obeyed the order. Then they began to gather all their people in the afternoon, rushing from the Armstrong family to the ground in the fastest time... The Junlin Group's airport, docks, warehouse, various labs, factories, and even the secret safes left in the bank and so on were all their targets tonight. In short, all the things that Junlin Group had built up overnight would vanish...

When Alpha 1 and the others were officially taking action, Joseph, who was far away in Oplen, showed a trace of coldness in his eyes. Looking in the direction of Usmit, he recalled what Alpha 1 had reported to him just now and murmured. "Huh, after all, he is indeed worthy of the value I placed on him back then. He is really amazing. Within five years, he has already become the number one in Usmit... he is really amazing..." As Joseph spoke, his eyes became extremely cold, and he continued to mutter, "It's just that what you have was stolen from me. So, to rebuild everything again, is that fun for you?" A cold killing intent gushed out of Joseph's body. With a click, the armrest of the sofa on the balcony was crushed by him...

Chapter 66

It was 1 a.m. in the middle of the night. After the first explosion came from a factory under the Junlin Group in the eastern suburbs of Usmit, it seemed that the prelude had been unleashed. Then, shocking explosions came from various places in Usmit City. The factories were destroyed one by one. The equipment and documents were all destroyed. Half an hour later, the contract room in the headquarters of Junlin Group was directly destroyed...

This was the end. Everyone witnessed it. There were also some more deadly attacks that could not be seen by the public, but they were tearing through the Junlin Group's defense line. The plan was that when the first factory under the Junlin Group was blown up, tens of thousands of top hackers from other countries attacked the various websites of the Junlin Group at the same time. Hundreds of millions of foreign resources were gathered and madly poured into the website of the Junlin Group. All the websites under the Junlin Group were instantly paralyzed. Then, the secret archives were broken one by one, and then a large amount of information was transferred out... In less than an hour since Alpha 1 and the others launched their attack, the entire Junlin Group had been in chaos. (This novel will be daily updated at)All the executives of the Junlin Group were stunned because they could not figure out who dared to attack the biggest company in Usmit. But they did not have time to think about it at all. The executives quickly organized security forces to put out the fires everywhere. But it was futile because all businesses of the Junlin Group in Usmit City had been destroyed... At two o'clock in the middle of the night, inside a luxuriously decorated hotel in the eastern district of Usmit a man in pajamas was awakened from his sleep. His room was filled with thick smoke, and there was a fire outside the window. It was on fire! The man picked up his phone and ran out, followed by around eight women in sexy lingerie. Those women screamed and ran out. They didn't even bother to put on their clothes. The man's face instantly became gloomy. Even in the face of the burning fire downstairs, he was very calm. In a flash, he had already reached the outside of the building. The man was the ultimate goal of Alpha 1 and the others' operation, Fu Junlin! The person who betrayed Joseph almost seven years ago! He was regarded as a brother by Joseph! "Guards... Guards! What are you doing? Why is there a fire? Why?!" Fu Junlin shouted at the people around him as soon as he came out. He was in a detached villa, and the area within a radius of five miles was his territory. In addition to him, he had hundreds of fighters stationed there, all of whom were outlaws and had good skills. Usually, with those fighters around, without his permission, no one could enter his place! Even if they wanted to attack him by force, it was impossible in a short time. Maybe they couldn't reach the gate of his villa because those fighters had proper weapons! But when Fu Junlin yelled, no one appeared beside him. The next moment, Fu Junlin looked back and felt his hair stand on end... Because at this moment, on the lawn in the distance in front of his villa, all his fighters were lying there silently. Some of them were covered with blood. Obviously, they were all dead... When Fu Junlin saw this scene, his senses suddenly became alert, and a chill instantly rose from the soles of his feet to his head. The next moment, he rushed to the big door at the fastest speed.

"Who are you? Who wants to get rid of me, Fu Junlin? Hmm?" Fu Junlin himself had the strength of a Semi God of War. He was only one step away from becoming a God of War. He had absolute confidence in himself. However, outside the villa, no one responded to him in the dark night. Fu Junlin shouted a few more times, but no one responded. Then he gritted his teeth in anger, took out his hand, and dialed a number. "Gather all the elite men and forces, and come to me immediately!" Fu Junlin hung up the phone. Then, Fu Junlin went back. When he went back, he saw that the women he had been looking for had already run out. They ran past him one by one, crying and shouting, without stopping. When he looked at the completely burned villa, he saw a few blood-red words in front of the door. "Fu Junlin, you've been living well these years, haven't you..." When Fu Junlin saw these words, he was shocked. Cold sweat dripped down from his back. The next moment, a figure appeared in his mind. It was a figure that had disappeared for five years. That figure was his former good friend, also his buddy who had promoted him, Fernando! Fernando was Joseph's former name when he was chased out by the Dawson family. But then Fu Junlin quickly shook his head and said, "No, no, it can't be Fernando. Fernando died five years ago. I poisoned him with my own hands. Moreover, when he jumped into the river, he was shot. (This novel will be daily updaed at)He had died a long time ago. With such a serious injury, it was impossible for him to survive. Besides, the Dawson family is chasing him in Vowhye. It's impossible for him to survive!" Fu Junlin couldn't believe that the person who targeted him tonight was his former buddy. Because only he knew in his heart that Joseph's real strength made him the real business genius. In less than two years, he had made a newly established company into a listed company and even promoted Fu Junlin up. Fu Junlin was naturally afraid of Joseph.

Although he had been doing well in Usmit these years, Fu Junlin had been following in Joseph's footsteps. He had learned Joseph's way of doing things, his words, and all kinds of things. In other words, Fu Junlin was not a business genius at all. He was just a shadow, a shadow left by Joseph. Similarly, it was not because of Fu Junlin that all the members of the Junlin Group could develop so quickly these years, but because of the dozens of core senior executives led by Joseph when he established the company. After Joseph disappeared, Fu Junlin told those people that Joseph was chased by the Dawson family in Vowhye and his survival was unknown. But one day, Joseph would come back. That day, in order to convince the senior executives under Joseph's command, Fu Junlin even stabbed himself a few times. Therefore, those senior executives of Junlin Group all believed Fu Junlin's words. Then, they worked hard to make the company bigger, so that one day, when Joseph came back, they could provide some help to Joseph. Later, the company became bigger and bigger, and it was supported by the high-level officials of Usmit City. In an instant, it became the No. 1 company in Usmit City! Therefore, Fu Junlin was most afraid that Joseph would come back one day. Therefore, a year ago, or the previous year, Fu Junlin had expelled all the senior executives who were loyal to Joseph. This exodus had sobered up the whole Junlin Group, and it was more than once. In total, hundreds of employees had been fired by him. After the older employees in the group who were loyal to Joseph were cleared out, Fu Junlin was more or less relieved. Now the entire Junlin Group was his. He believed that even if Joseph came back, he would not be able to shake his status! (This novel will be daily updaed at)But obviously, he was thinking too much, because in the next moment, he suddenly received hundreds and thousands of text messages and all kinds of reports on his mobile phone. O "Mr. Fu, bad news. The company's building is on fire, and all the construction materials have been destroyed..." "Mr. Fu, something big has happened. The company had an explosion in all the factories in Usmit. Now the fire has burned all the equipment..." "Mr. Fu, bad news. The company's network is paralyzed. Even the hidden service equipment at the East Sea has been compromised. The general server has disappeared, so all the information, all contracts, and electronic backup are gone..." "Mr. Fu, Mr. Fu, I'm in charge of the overseas business. The Junlin shipping force was hijacked by a strange force. At present, we have lost contact with the 48 cargo ships..." Boom... After Fu Junlin finished reading the information, he felt his head explode and his heart freeze. After a while, when his men arrived, Fu Junlin rushed to Junlin's headquarters by car... "Who is it! Who is attacking me!!!" Fu Junlin roared desperately while the car zoomed away.
