Chapter 67

Chapter 67

When Paige opened her eyes again in the morning, she saw Joseph looking at her with a smile. Seeing that she had woken up, Joseph put his arms around her white and tender shoulders and said dotingly, "Dear, you're awake..." After listening to Joseph's words, Paige suddenly hid her head in the quilt so that Joseph wouldn't look at her. In the quilt, she blushed. She suddenly remembered that it seemed that she was the one who took the initiative last night, and she had been so wild. Thinking of this, Paige blushed even more. Even in the quilt, she still covered her face with her hands. She was really too ashamed to face him... However, just as she was being covered by the blanket, she suddenly felt a devilish hand creeping onto her body. With a scream, Paige slapped Joseph's large hand away. Then, she crawled out of the blanket and said to Joseph, "You... go put on your clothes. Hurry up, hurry up..." As she spoke, she reached out and pushed Joseph out. Although she was alone in this room, she still felt extremely shy to be undressed. Soon, Joseph was pushed out by her fair arm. Of course, Paige was a girl and her strength was limited after all. She couldn't push Joseph that much, but Joseph still smiled and got out of bed to put on his clothes. When she saw Joseph's muscular chest and strong body by the bed, Paige's face turned red again and she quickly hid under the quilt. Joseph looked at the shy expression on her face and the smile on his face grew even wider. She was already his wife, yet she was still so shy around him. Thus, he put on his clothes and said to her, "Dear, you can come out now, right? I'm dressed..." "Oh," said Paige in the quilt. After a while, her head popped out again. When she saw that Joseph had indeed put on his clothes, she breathed a sigh of relief. Then she said, "You... bring me my clothes. I, I will put them on..." However, after she finished speaking, Joseph did not move. Instead, he looked at her with a strange smile and said, "Dear, it seems that your clothes can't be worn..." Joseph pointed to Paige's clothes that were scattered on the ground. Some of them were torn, and the colourful mess fell into Joseph's gaze. Seeing that there was something wrong with Joseph's gaze, Paige followed his line of sight and looked at the clothes. Then, her face became redder and her heart beat faster. However, Paige, who was naked, immediately began weeping. She said to Joseph, "Look, it's all because of you. Why did you tear my clothes... How can I get out of bed now..." "Er... Dear, it didn't seem like I tore them up last night..." Joseph said to Paige in a strange tone. Then, Paige was stunned. She suddenly remembered that it was not Joseph who had torn them. It was she who had torn them! She glared at Joseph and said, "You... you dare say so? Huh! What are you still doing there? Hurry up and buy me a new dress..." Joseph nodded with a smile and said, "No need for us to buy one. Lara has already prepared some for you." After saying that, Joseph opened the large wardrobe next to him, in which there were hundreds of clothes of various styles. Her face was blushing beyond scarlet. Joseph chose a few white lace dresses for Paige, and then took a few white lace lingerie and put them on the bed for her. He said, "Dear, you are very fair. So you look nice in white clothing..." Paige nodded. The clothes Joseph picked for her were very beautiful, and then she looked at Joseph. Joseph asked in a daze, "Er... what's wrong?" "You... you turn around, I... I'm going to put on these clothes.." said Paige with her head lowered in embarrassment. Joseph was a little speechless and said, "Just do it. We've already slept together, but you're still afraid for me to see you. Just get changed..." "No, no, you should turn around quickly, turn around..." Paige shook her head desperately. She blushed and shook her head. Well, although she had slept with Joseph last night, she was still a little shy at the moment. Seeing that Paige was so persistent, Joseph turned around helplessly. But Paige still warned him several times that he was not allowed to peek at anything. Then she began to change her clothes on the bed. "God... Joseph, you, you help me pull the zipper up. In the back, my arm is a little sore, and I can't pull it up..." Behind Joseph, Paige spoke softly. When Joseph turned his head again, he saw that Paige had put on high heels and wore a white lace dress. Although she was already his wife, he still didn't have enough of her. When she was in school, she had been a top campus belle Both her face and figure were top-notch. And after making love last night, Paige's invisible charm had increased. Joseph's heart skipped a beat. He walked behind her and gently zipped her dress. Then, he wrapped his arms around her waist and kissed her on the side of her face. He took in the fragrance of her and said in an infatuated voice, "Dear, you're so beautiful. Shall we stay in today? Let's stay for another day..."

To be honest, at this moment, Joseph really didn't want to go out, so he wanted to stay here with Paige for a few days and nights, and not do anything, just the two of them. Joseph was not sure if there was something wrong with himself. He had seen countless top beauties in the whole country over the years. Many of them wanted to be with him, but he had no interest at all. Maybe it was his OCD about women, and he had high standards. Because he was not interested in beautiful women outside. But even if it was just a shy or intimate look from Paige, his heartbeat would beat faster. It was very strange, but that was it. Hearing this, Paige quickly shook her head and said, "Don't, Chloe didn't see me last night, nor did she see you. She should be anxious. Let's wash up and go back quickly..." Although Joseph was very reluctant to leave, he still nodded and said, "Well, okay, then you can wash up first. I'll smoke a cigarette." "Okay..." Paige nodded and turned around to kiss Joseph's cheek. "Alright, why are you petulant like a little child? We're married now, we'll have plenty of time in the future..." After saying that, she went to the bathroom. But after taking two steps, she screamed in pain and fell backward. She bit her lip and looked very depressed. Joseph was so scared that he quickly held her and asked anxiously, "Paige, what's wrong?" With an extremely complicated expression, she glared at Joseph and shook her head. Then, she walked to the bathroom with her long legs trembling. In the bathroom, she bit her lips and felt extremely distressed. Other than that, her legs were sore and painful, and she had no strength at all. Especially when she was walking, some parts of her legs were even more painful... "Joseph! Don't... don't you know how to be gentle?" The Paige in the bathroom said to Joseph in her heart. She didn't know how to face other people while looking like

Outside the bathroom, Joseph was just staring blankly. What was going on.. After washing up, they went home together. Joseph drove the car and Paige sat in the front seat. She lowered her head and looked out of the window, thinking about something. After that day, her life had changed. She no longer suffered, and there would be more happiness waiting for her. Oplen was still the same Oplen, but Paige was no longer the joke she used to be... "Joseph, thank you." Looking out of the window, Paige said sincerely to Joseph who was driving. But then Joseph tapped her fair thigh and said domineeringly, "Call me Honey!" "Er..." Even Paige was stunned. She turned her head and looked at Joseph in a daze. When she saw how serious he was, she smiled. Then, she called him sweetly, "Honey, thank you..." "Well, is that necessary? How could you, my precious wife, be wronged at all!" Joseph said very arrogantly. He was completely different from his usual style, totally different from his attitude as the God of War in the outer region battlefield. When he was with Paige, the gloom in his heart was dispelled, and he was much more cheerful.

Looking at the happy Joseph, the smile on Paige's face became brighter. It turned out that this man's smile was so beautiful and somewhat childish. She really didn't know how he got the title of God of War of the outer region. It was so childish, but... Paige liked it very much... Very much indeed. Looking at Joseph, who was driving seriously, Paige murmured in her heart. Joseph told her that she was a ray of light in his heart. Similarly, wasn't Joseph a ray of light in her life? In the future, she would accompany him to conquer the world, and he would accompany her to do the same... When they got home, Joseph's mother-in-law, Estella, and her husband had prepared a large table full of dishes, all of which were what Paige and Joseph liked to eat. Joseph held Chloe in his arms and chatted with Yahir. Estella stared at Paige's face and observed her wobbly walk. Immediately, she was relieved. The smile on her face became even brighter. Estella's expression and gaze made Paige feel very embarrassed. "Mom... why are you looking at me all the time? You... don't look at me anymore, don't look..." she said to Estella in embarrassment. Estella smiled happily and ran to the bedroom with Paige. She handed her household register to Paige and said, "Oh, Paige, what are you embarrassed about in front of me? It's your wedding night. It's okay. I understand everything. But Paige, listen to me, go get a marriage certificate with Joseph this afternoon. Well, your wedding ceremony has been held, but you haven't got a marriage certificate yet..." "Well, okay, let's go get the marriage certificate in the afternoon. I'll talk to Joseph about it later..." Paige nodded. Estella's face became serious. She sneaked a glance at Joseph, who was chatting with Yahir with Chloe in his arms and said to Paige seriously, "This afternoon, I'll go with you. If you don't get your marriage certificate, I won't feel at ease..." Estella was really anxious. She must not lose such a good son-in-law. In fact, last night, Estella had a whole night's talk with Yahir about Joseph. The two elderly folks agreed that even if Joseph was removed from the military, it was possible for him to return. Estella had seen how Felix, the God of War in the Central Region, respected her son-in-law so much during the meal yesterday! So now Estella was definitely anxious, let alone that Joseph bought her a house in Paragon Villa and a good car... So after lunch, under Estella's repeated urging, the family drove two cars to the Civil Affairs Bureau together. When Joseph and Paige registered for the marriage certificate, the employee of the Civil Affairs Bureau of Oplen was so excited that she could hardly speak. The bridal couple who had caused a sensation yesterday had their marriage registered by her. For a moment, she felt extremely proud.

Then, she took photos of Joseph, Paige, and took out the marriage certificate, and stamped it. Estella, who had been following them, breathed a sigh of relief. With a bigger smile on her face, she went to play with Chloe in her arms. At the entrance of the Civil Affairs Bureau, under a big willow tree, Joseph and Paige, who had obtained their marriage certificate, were standing there. As the breeze blew, Paige looked at their marriage certificate and could not help but be absent-minded. Finally, she had become Joseph's wife. "Paige, what's wrong? Aren't you happy after getting our marriage certificate?" Joseph said to her with a smile. Paige raised her head and looked at Joseph with a smile. Perhaps the man in front of her was the best gift from heaven for her. She had suffered for five years, but everything was worth it. She raised the marriage certificate in her hand and said to Joseph with a smile, "Honey, we... are married.."

Paige had a smile on her face. With breeze brushing across her face, and under the sunlight she looked so gorgeous. Her smile seems like the most gorgeous thing on this earth especially when she had the looks of a goddess and her heart was pure as an angel. Staring at the marriage certificate in his hand, Joseph felt a bunch of emotions welled up inside him. With the status he had, it was a piece of cake for him to get his hands on a marriage certificate but he felt at ease seeing that he got everyone's blessings. From that day onwards, he was Paige's lawfully wedded husband and Paige was his lawfully wedded wife. And this marriage was recognized by Frogua's government. "Honey, please be by my side for the rest of our lives..." Paige said with a smirk on her face. "Dear, please also be by my side for the rest of our lives..." Joseph also stared into Paige's eyes as he spoke. She nodded with a smile and then went to look for Chloe. She was extremely delighted at this very moment. She wanted to look for Chloe as soon as possible because if it wasn't for Chloe calling Joseph, it was most likely that Joseph will never come and a lot of things might never happen. With a smile on his face, Joseph stared at her back as she strode away. He took out his mobile phone and called the Dragon Temple. The person that picked up was from the intelligence department of the Dragon Temple, code-named for Worldwide Web! Their job was basically to collect all sorts of information throughout the world and of course, they also had the equipment to hack the internet. "Lord! What do you need?" A respectful tone sounded from the other end the moment the call was picked up. It was the leader of the Worldwide Web, Qian Mian. Concurrently she was very excited because Joseph actually called her personally. Joseph said, "Has the news regarding the Hundred Cities Wedding in Oplen been deleted?"

Qian Mian hurriedly replied, "Lord, we have been trying our best to delete it. The moment after you and Madam Mooney left the venue I have already deleted most of it. As the people there were not allowed to photograph. Therefore, the photograph of you and Madam Mooney were only broadcast by several media channels. Those are easy to get rid of and we had gotten rid of all the photographs that were leaked to Oplen's internet. At present, the photograph of you and Madam Mooney still exist in Oplen's internet and I'll send a group to get rid of it. It's somewhere in Oplen..." Joseph nodded, thought for a moment, and answered, "Well, thank you for your hard work. Actually, I don't have to keep this a secret for too long, eventually, my wife will find out about all my identities. That time, I can reveal all of them to my wife..." "Got it! Lord, when... when will you return to the Outer Region? All of us miss you very much..." On the other end of the call, it could be heard that Qian Mian was holding back her tears. Deep down in her heart, she always had feelings for Joseph but she was well aware that she was not fit for the lord of Dragon Temple. In addition to the Hundred Cities Wedding, the moment she saw Paige, she had made up her mind to stop having a crush on Joseph..." After giving it some thought, Joseph replied, "I'm not certain. But I think I won't be returning in the near future. I believe no one will be causing trouble to the Dragon Temple for a very long time. The Ironclouds Organization just suffered such a huge blow. All right, continue what you were doing.." "Yes Lord, take care! I wish you a happy wedding!" After Qian Mian finished speaking, Joseph nodded and hung up the phone. After hanging up the phone, Joseph looked at Paige holding Chloe in the distance. His wife had a smile on her face, and so did his daughter. He felt extremely delighted in his heart. Joseph had given it a lot of consideration before he decided to delete all the news regarding their marriage. They had just gotten married and Paige has dreams of her own, he had things to deal with. Thus, he didn't wish for everyone to know about their wedding. Their sweet memories would be kept in this little city. Furthermore, he wasn't going to keep this secret forever. When Paige finally finds out about his identity then he will broadcast their wedding. Meanwhile, the people that came to Oplen to attend this wedding were taken aback when they realized that all the news regarding their wedding was deleted from the internet. They figured out that the couple didn't want the news to spread out and for a moment everyone felt a little remorseful but they still gave their blessings to the couple...

The thing that Joseph couldn't think of was, after many years there was a rumor in Oplen. The rumor has it that an immortal had descent from the sky and it married the most gorgeous lady in Oplen. Of course, this was false... "It's time for me to go to Usmit and get to the bottom of this grievance... Looking at the smiling figures of his wife and daughter, he decided to head to Usmit the day after tomorrow and personally bury the hatchet to this grievance. Then he will take Paige and Chloe there to turn over a new leaf...

The sky was clear in Oplen, and the entire city's atmosphere was cheerful. However, in Usmit City, a thousand miles off North, it was gloomy. The entire city was engulfed in soot. Hundreds of factories were ablaze and the firefighters were trying their best to put off the fire but the soot was too dense... The entire city was covered in a dark veil. The people in Usmit were terrified and they didn't dare to set foot outside. Sirens from the fire department, the police department and the sirens of ambulances could be heard on the streets. Overnight, the city of Usmit had a drastic change. What grabbed the attention of everyone was the Junlin Tower engulfed in flames. Although the fire had been extinguished, it was still producing soot. The tower itself was three hundred meters tall and it looked like a vent as soots were being discharged from the tower. Everyone in Usmit was dumbfounded. Some of the smarter people quickly turn to their devices and tried to sell any shares that were related to the Junlin Group. However, they realized that all the shares were plummeting. At this very moment, in Usmit City, the news was reporting about the Junlin tower engulfed in flames. Most of the factories and companies under the Junlin Group were caught in flames the previous night, and almost all the equipment was destroyed. And abroad, the Junlin Group's international cargo ships were all hijacked and disappeared into thin air. The Junlin Group faced such a catastrophe overnight... After this news was being broadcast, the Junlin Group's stock market plummeted again. However, concurrently the Usmit's police department has already surrounded the Junlin Tower and they were there with a warrant to arrest the executives of the Junlin Group. In a blink of an eye, roughly a hundred executives of the Junlin Group were arrested...

The stock plummeted, the executives were arrested and all the contracts were destroyed... Such a series of news had left the people in Usmit shocked. Junlin Group was the most powerful organization in Usmit, which organization was powerful enough to take them on? Meanwhile, it wasn't just the people in Usmit who were puzzled but it was the big shots in Usmit who were dumbfounded the most. They held an urgent meeting discussing who was the one behind the attack. Soon they found out some stuff, the rapid rising of the Armstrong family, the Gordon family, Logan who just came out of nowhere, Dennis, Ernie and many more. For a moment, the big shots of Usmit City understood. They had been trying to figure out the motives of the rapid rise of the four families but now they finally knew. Their motive was to take down the Junlin Group! The largest organization in Usmit! "What a big move, so bold of them!" The big shots were all trembling in fear. The mastermind behind all these attacks was definitely someone really powerful. They were capable of bringing down the Junlin Group overnight and arresting all the executives in their company. What freaked them out the most was the fact that they were able to get their hands on the evidence and provided it to the police and forced the police to arrest them! The Junlin Group would definitely suffer a huge blow when all their executives were arrested... Meanwhile, when all the big shots in Usmit were in a trance, on the other side, in the police department, the executives of the Government Affairs Department were also holding a huge meeting. The chief of the Government Affairs Department, Si Tianzheng. He was in his fifties and he looked particularly oppressive. He was roaring at the chief of the Police Department, "Where are the Armstrong and the Gordon families? Where are they still not here? Who dares bring down the largest organization in Usmit overnight? Are they out of their mind? Where is that Logan, Dennis and Ernie! Who do they think they are! What are they! What are you all even doing?"

The chief of the Police Department didn't dare to refute Si Tianzheng's words. They had no evidence to arrest the Armstrong and the Gordon family. Logan, Dennis and Ernie weren't from Usmit, to begin with! They were big shots of two other cities, how can someone like him arrest them? But at this moment, the door suddenly burst opened and Bradley from the Armstrong family and Lewis from the Gordon family strode in. The two smirked as they stared at Si Tianzheng and uttered, "You don't have to look for me, I'm here. So what is it that you wanted to say? You can say it all out now..." The entire room fell into silence for a moment and Si Tianzheng had an ugly expression on his face as he stared at Bradley and Lewis. He uttered, "What are you all trying to do! Why did you arrest all of Fu Junlin's executives?" Bradley found a seat and sat down. He raised his head with a faint smile and took a deep look at Si Tianzheng. He snorted, "We are trying to bring him down. Why, are we not allowed to do that?" After Bradley finished speaking, Lewis, who was beside him, also sneered. Then, the strong oppressive aura of the two Semi God of War had made the entire room extremely dense. They sneered at Si Tianzheng who was also a Semi God of War himself.: Si Tianzheng's expression instantly froze. For a moment, he was at a loss for words. He felt their oppressive aura and thought back to their words. Si Tianzheng suddenly realized that they had someone supporting them from the dark!

Judging from the fact that they were both Semi Gods of War themselves, it was most likely that they had the support of a real God of War! Si Tianzheng frowned deeply. He stared at Bradley and Lewis and asked, "Is the man behind you a God of War?" Bradley didn't answer. Lewis stared at Si Tianzheng with a sneer and said, "Si Tianzheng, what do you think? I'm warning you, Si Tianzheng. Bradley has a good temper, but I don't have such a good temper. We have evidence to take down Fu Junlin and you can intervene if you have the evidence too. However, if you think you can arrest our people without evidence then do you really think that we won't retaliate? Or do you think that all these years our effort in Usmit is worthless?" As soon as Lewis finished speaking, Si Tianzheng wanted to refute but a phone call came in. The next moment, when he saw the number on his mobile phone, his expression suddenly changed. He quickly stood up and answered respectfully, "Hi, yes... is there anything you need..." Soon, an old man's voice sounded from the other end of the phone, "Si Tianzheng, I've heard about the Junlin Group news. Listen to me, don't get involved, don't ask, and don't say anything. Of course, this is my advice. If you don't want your future to be ruined, then listen to me. You... take care of yourself.. Then the old man hung up the phone. As soon as the old man hung up the phone, instantly he received another phone call. Si Tianzheng looked at the numbers on the phone and his expression became even uglier. He directly switched off the phone. At that moment, he seemed to be ten years older. He was extremely helpless. He looked at Bradley and Lewis sitting opposite him furiously and said in a deep voice, "You two, I don't want to protect the Junlin Group, but you should know that the Junlin Group represents Usmit honor!" Lewis sneered as soon as Si Tianzheng finished speaking. "What's the big deal, you can build another tower yourself..." "You!!!" Si Tianzheng suddenly stood up, pointed at Lewis and said, "Lewis, it's easy for you to say that. Your Gordon family is so powerful. Can you rebuild an entire tower? Let's try it, I want to see you try..." "Okay, sure!" Before Lewis could speak, Bradley answered. Si Tianzheng turned his head and asked in disbelief, "Mr. Armstrong! What did you just say?" Bradley answered with a faint smile, "Oh, just rebuilding the Junlin Tower? I'll rebuild it once Junlin is dead?" Bradley's words sounded so bold. What a joke. In the face of Lord Dawson, what was the Junlin Group anyway? Was there anything unachievable if the Lord wished it to happen?

Bradley's eyes flashed lividly. That day, the reason the two of them went to the Municipal Administration Department on their own was to hold Si Tianzheng in place. As long as these people were staying in the Municipal Administration Department then they wouldn't be causing a fuss outside. Si Tianzheng gradually fell into silence. He couldn't ignore his teacher's advice. All of Si Tianzheng's achievements were thanks to him. Si Tianzheng trusted the old man's guts very much and he clearly understood that the person capable of destroying the Junlin Group overnight was tremendously powerful but he doesn't not wish to see this to happen as he had been managing Usmit for so many years. (This novel will be daily updaed at)Thinking of this, Si Tianzheng sighed deeply and said with a complicated look in his eyes, "Mr. Armstrong and Mr. Gordon, I'm sorry. But please understand my position in this. I sincerely hoped to see that Usmait could advance by leaps and bounds. The Junlin Group is too crucial in Usmait and I'm afraid if someone takes over it, things might not seem so favorable. After all, the Junlin Group is the pride of Usmait..." 'Junlin Group here, Junlin Group there. Fu Junlin..." Lewis snorted and sneered. It was obvious to hear the disdain in his words. Si Tianzheng frowned and stared at Lewis in confusion. "Mr. Gordon, what's wrong? You seem to have something to say?" Lewis put away the sneer on his face, stared deeply at Si Tianzheng, and slowly said in a low voice, "Have you forgotten something? Or do you really need me to remind you? Do you really think that you are the one that brought up the Junlin Group?" Lewis stopped talking and sneered. He looked at Si Tianzheng as if he was looking at a fool. He and Bradley started to exert their oppressive aura again. "Wait, what do you mean... No, that's not right. Back then the person has died, didn't he? Fu Junlin got extremely hurt trying to save him. Mr. Gordon, the person supporting you in the dark is that person?" Si Tianzheng's expression turned drastically. That was because seven years ago in Usmait City when he was still not the chief of the Municipal Administration Department, he had heard of a legendary figure in Usmait City. He was in his sophomore year when he started Junlin Group. In just several years, he had made a small company into a listed company. Back then, all the big shots had high hopes for him but before he graduated, he got assassinated and died in the raging sea... 'Mr. Si, there is something that is best you don't say out loud. I'm afraid there are people you can't afford to offend." Bradley lowered his head, playing with his teacup. Lewis was aside smirking. Hearing this, Si Tianzheng's heart skipped a beat. He hurriedly nodded and thought that if that person really returned then he would be at ease.(This novel will be daily updtaed at) Because even if the Junlin Group fell into rock bottom, if that person really came back he could rebuild the Junlin Group to greater heights. Without a doubt, the Junlin Group was his to start with. Of course, he could conclude that things were not as simple as they seemed and perhaps Fu Junlin had offended that person. . The entire meeting room fell into dead silence. Si Tianzheng and everyone in the room did not say a single word. Everyone put down their phones and did not continue asking questions and daring to intervene.

Concurrently, all the big shots were seated at the meeting room in the Shangguan family. Logan, Dennis, and Ernie were also present at the meeting. As outsiders, the three of them were not even slightly terrified at all. At the main seat was Shangguan Bo. He frowned and asked Logan and the others, "Mr. Parry, Mr. Drake, Mr. Green, I would like to ask the three of you on behalf of the Usmait business industry if the incident last night was your doing. Are you motive only the Junlin Group or are you trying to take down the entire Usmait business industry?" As Shangguan Bo's words fell, all the big shots in Usmait City suddenly squinted their eyes and stared at the three of them. Logan, who was sitting at the end of the hall, took a sip of tea perfunctory and answered with a casual smile, "Mr. Shangguan and all the other big shots of Usmait, don't worry. I certainly tell you that we only have our eyes on the Junlin Group. We won't lay hands on any of you guys..." As soon as Logan finished speaking, there was another powerful family in Usmait, the Yin Family. The chief of the Yin family, Yin Zheng asked, "How can we believe your words?" As Yin Zheng's words fell, the atmosphere in the hall immediately became tense. At this moment, Yin Zheng also asked the doubts in everyone's heart. How could they guarantee that they won't lay hands on them? Logan smirked and said nothing. meanwhile, Dennis looked up and answered, "Do you think that we are not satisfied with the Junlin Group? That we might be greedy and wants to take over the entire Usmait's business industry?"

Dennis's words directly shocked all the big shots present. So greedy! Their motives isn't the Junlin Group alone but also the entire business industry! However, what was most terrifying was that these people were actually bold enough to do such a ruthless thing! Everyone's expression changed drastically. Concurrently, Ernie sneered and said, "Everyone, please know your place! Mr. Parry and Mr. Drake are easy to talk to, but do you think that I, Ernie, have such a good temper too? Let's me be frank, we are here for the Junlin Group. We purposely came all the way here to discuss things over with all of you and you keep questioning us! I'm being as polite as I can, you can try if you like but I want to see if any of you guys are any better than the Junlin Group!" As Ernie spoke, he took out a machete and slashed it in the table. He stared at Shangguan Bo and sneered, "Mr. Shangguan don't be upset. I'm not saying that you are trash..." Then, Ernie glanced at the crowd and said in a strict tone, "Listen up. I, Ernie, am saying that everyone here today is trash! If you don't like it, then retaliate! Let's see who survives until the end!" After Ernie finished speaking, the group of big shots was fuming as he stared at Ernie. Ernie also glared at them with a sneer, holding the machete in his hand. After a short while, everyone, including Shangguan Bo and Yin Zheng, gaze turned dark. That's right, they dare not retaliate. It was not because they were afraid of the three of them but they were afraid of the mastermind behind all these. And they had gotten news that Bradley and Lewis were already at the Municipal Administration Department! After a long time, Shangguan Bo sighed deeply and said to Ernie, "Fine, forget it. Mr. Green put away your machete. How old are you, still swinging your machete. I, Shangguan Bo, represent the Usmait business world and promise you that we won't intervene with your business..." 'Mr. Shangguan, this is what I liked to hear. If you said this earlier, all of us won't be wasting our precious time...' Ernie snorted proudly, then looked at Dennis and Logan and said, "Look, I told you. If they can't agree with us just hack them with the machete.(This novel will be daily updaed at) You two like to act like a gentleman. What a waste of time..." Logan looked at Ernie with a smile and said nothing, while Dennis's old face twitched. "F*ck, Ernie has embarrassed everyone from Oplen to Usmait." Dennis lowered his head and did not have the face to look at him anymore. He act as if he wasn't friends with him... Shangguan Bo also smiled. Then he took a deep breath, looked at Logan and answered slowly, "Mr. Parry, all of us have a bad hunch. When that mastermind finally comes to Usmait, can you introduce him to all of us?" Logan picked up his teacup, took a sip of tea, nodded with a smile, and said, "Well, as long as you cooperate this time, I can introduce him to all of you, but I can't be certain if he wants to meet all of you. Let me be frank, you all might be quite powerful in Usmait but in his eyes, you guys are just small fry." The hearts of Shangguan Bo and the others trembled. They believed that Logan would not lie to them, because he doesn't need to. Thus, this meant that the person was truly frightening. But Shangguan Bo, who was reluctant to give up, still tried his best to act as if he was worried and said to Logan, "Thank you, Mr. Parry, but I still have to remind Mr. Parry. Would you like to inform the mastermind that the people at the Municipal Administration Department to stop what they are doing and we will stop intervening? However, there is another existence in Usmait City. If this person wants to take action, it will be very troublesome. The person is Wang Tianhai, who has been guarding Usmait for many years. He is also a God of War and has tens of thousands of soldiers under his command!" After Shangguan Bo finished speaking, Logan looked at him with a sneer. He didn't say anything but just looked at him with a sneer. Meanwhile, the other two were also having a smirk on their faces. "A God of War? Is he very powerful? Is he very powerful... Huh! Ignorant..."

Concurrently, in Usmit's Military headquarters, a tall and masculine figure stood up and he had the aura of a God of War. He gradually got up and his expression looked gloomy. He was the God of War from Frogua, Wang Tianhai! Just moments ago, the Police Department of Municipal Administration Department had asked him for help. Usmit was covered in soot overnight and at this moment, Wang Tianhai couldn't sit straight. A flash of murderous intent flashed in his gaze and he sneered, "How bold of them. They are so greedy to try to take down the Junlin Group! Have they asked for my permission? Since they are looking for death then I will let them have it." After finishing his words, Wang Tianhai lifted his leg and strode out, wanting to bring his subordinate to bring an end to this chaos. However, the moment he set foot outside a black figure was hacking him with a sword. Wang Tianhai's expression turned gloomy immediately and he could sense that it was the presence of another God of War. He was not any weaker than himself. The next moment, Wang Tianhai, who was not armed took a few steps back and that black figure vanished. The next moment, at the gate in front of him, appeared a God of War. He was holding onto a katana and he gradually strode in. It was Felix, the God of War from the central region! "Felix! Are you crazy? How dare you try to hack me with your sword!" Wang Tianhai was furious when he saw that it was Felix, his friend. However, at this moment, Felix still seemed indifferent. His face was extremely cold and his eyes were full of killing intent. He held the katana in his hand and his gaze locked on to Wang Tianhai. He said in a low voice, "Don't move! Stay here! If you dare to go out, I will have to fight you!" Wang Tianhai stared at Felix with disbelief in his eyes. He opened his mouth wide and shouted at the outside, "Guards, come over! Felix, I don't believe that you can do whatever you want in my territory"(This novel will be daily updaed at) However, after Wang Tianhai shouted for a long time, no one replied to him. After a while, just as Wang Tianhai was about to shout again, a nervous voice suddenly echoed from outside, "My... My lord, we... we can't get in. We are surrounded..."

Meanwhile, the entire building was surrounded by Usmit's military. Without them knowing, thousands of tanks were surrounding them. Hundreds of helicopters were surrounding them in the sky. When Wang Tianhai saw this scene outside through the window, he could not help but break out in cold sweat. The clothes on his back were instantly drenched in cold sweat...
