Chapter 73

On the highway in the suburb of Usmit City, a row of cars whizzed past with sirens, heading for the place where Fu Junlin was held captive... Meanwhile, in a small valley in the suburbs of Usmit City, Fu Junlin stared at all the masters that were surrounding him, he felt helpless at that very moment. Among them, Fu Junlin could sense the weakest among them all was a five-star master and he couldn't even gauge how powerful the rest were. If he wanted to escape, I'm afraid he no longer has the chance to do so... Fu Junlin stared at the remaining dozen or so defeated soldiers beside him, and each of them were injured. This left him even more helpless. He was desperate, he glanced up and saw Alpha 1 and asked, "Who are you? Why do you want to kill me? Why?" Alpha 1 sneered and glared at Fu Junlin with disdain, "Do you think you are a noble person? How many people have you hurt? Do you think it's wrong for us to kill you? Or do you think you are not supposed to be killed?" Fu Junlin gritted his teeth and glared at Alpha 1, shouting, "Indeed, I'm not a noble person. I've sinned but why are you people trying to assassinate me? Do you all want money? I can give it to you.."

Alpha 1 looked at him with a playful smirk and shook his head. "We are not interested in your money, we just want your life..." As Alpha 1 spoke, he took out his mobile phone and glanced at it. Then, he looked up at Fu Junlin and uttered, "You're going to die soon. Perhaps in an hour or less. Don't say that I'm cruel. You still have this very last bit of time to appreciate this world and breath in fresh air. Or else, you might never have this chance to do so anymore..." When Fu Junlin heard this, he was frightened. His body was trembling, and he seemed like he was about to collapse. Why! The day before, he was still the big shot in Usmit. He had the power to command people and ladies to his service! He could easily mess with the fate of others and squander money unscrupulously. He had a high status and had was filthy rich. He was free to do whatever he wishes in Usmit. Everything disappeared overnight. And now those people told him that he was going to die soon. They didn't want his money but his life! "No... no... no... I don't want to die! I don't want to die! Kill them!" Fu Junlin shook his head. He really didn't want to die! He had made great efforts to climb up to this level. If he died now, then everything would be in vain! He couldn't accept it! How could he accept it!? "Kill them!" Fu Jun was so furious that he wanted to break out of here with his men. However, as soon as he moved, there was an explosion in front of him. The three bodies in front of them were exploded into bids. Puff... Blood splashed on Fu Junlin's face. The death of his three subordinates pulled him back to reality in an instant. He stood there in a daze. On the distant hillside, there was a grenade in Alpha 1's hand. He looked at Fu Junlin with great expectation and said, "Hurry up. If you take another step, I will have the right to kill you. Hurry up, the earlier you die the earlier we get to get off work. Everyone will benefit from it. Hurry up, let's go..." "You... puff!" Fu Junlin pointed at Alpha 1 with trembling hands. Then, he was so furious that he spat out a mouthful of blood. For a moment, he was eager to give it his all and fight till his very last breath but he didn't have the courage to do so, because th him to do. When! When did he, Fu Junlin, fall to such despair? Fu Junlin raised his head and roared. He screamed miserably, but he was so aggrieved that he didn't dare to take a step forward! He didn't dare to take a step forward! All of a sudden, Fu Junlin knelt on the ground and kept kowtowing to Alpha 1, begging for ease let me go. I don't want to die. I really don't want to die. Let me go. Please, I will give you whatever you want. Money? Lady? The Junlin Group? As long as you let me go, I will give the entire Junlin Group to you! I will give it to you..." Fu Junlin was crying and begging for mercy in the valley, but Alpha I was not moved at all. He just smiled and shook his head at Fu Junlin, saying, "I've told you that you won't be getting out of here alive. You still have more than half an hour. It's very likely that you have less than that..." Fu Junlin had completely lost his sanity. He kowtowed to Alpha 1 and begged for mercy, and then scolded him. As long as he didn't flee, Alpha I wouldn't take action. He just told him every once in a while how long he could live. Alpha I was an extremely cold blooded killer. He was very certain that what Alpha 1 said was true. Fu Junlin thought how Alpha I might be waiting for someone. He would die once that person arrives! But he really didn't want to die. He had monstrous power and unlimited money that he couldn't spend in his entire lifetime. He could play with any woman he wanted, and he could do whatever he wanted. How could he be willing to die? And now, every once in a while, Alpha I would remind him how much time he had left. Every time, he reminded him impatiently that the time of death was coming... Alpha I's method was very psychologically torturing. Fu Junlin had lost his sanity and he was crying and laughing from time to time. The more time passed, the more frightened he got. Time passed slowly, and it was finally six o'clock in the afternoon, Alpha 1, who had been standing on the hillside finally moved. He lowered his mobile phone, pointed at the remaining people around Fu Junlin in the valley and said, "Kill them..." Alpha 2 and Alpha 9 and the other nine God of War had a grim smile on their faces. In an instant, all nine people rushed up from the hillside and rushed toward the dozen five-star experts beside Fu Junlin... The dozen five-star experts next to Fu Junlin also changed their faces when they saw this scene. They took out their guns and began to spray at Alpha 2 and the others. However, a strange scene happened. The bullets couldn't land on Alpha 2 or the others, they were too quick. Puff... The next moment, there was a soft sound of daggers piercing the body. Fu Junlin looked at his subordinates in horror and all of them fell down one by one. From a dozen people to several people, then three to two, to one... Finally, in an instant, everyone beside Fu Junlin was dead. From the very beginning to this moment, all of Fu Junlin's subordinates were killed and none were left alive.. "Fu Junlin, are you ready? It's your turn next..." Alpha 1 said to Fu Junlin with a grin. Fu Junlin trembled with fear. All his men were dead. He roared at Alpha 1, "Tell me, who are you? Tell me! Tell me!" Alpha 1 smiled without saying anything. He took out his pistol from his waist and pointed it at Fu Junlin. Fu Junlin's whole body was drenched in cold sweat. Just as he was about to beg for mercy, suddenly there was a burst of police siren coming from afar. The next moment, Fu Junlin was overjoyed. He had never felt that the sirens would sound so pleasant in his ears. He quickly turned around and shouted at the outside desperately, "Help, help, someone wants to kill me, someone wants to kill me, help.." Fu Junlin frantically asked for help from the outside. Alpha 1 also chuckle and started shooting. The cruelest thing he could do was to give him hope of survival and then see him fall into despair. While Fu Junlin was extremely excited, rows of cars from the Police Department and the Usmait military drove in his direction. Soon, a row of cars stopped near Fu Junlin. The next moment, the door opened. Lu Tianxun, the chief of Usmait's Police Department, Si Tianzheng, Shangguan Bo, Yin Zheng, and Wang Tianhai walked out first and headed for Fu Junlin's valley. Soon they saw Fu Junlin, and Fu Junlin also saw them. Especially when Fu Junlin saw Wang Tianhai, the God of War, he instantly became delighted. He shouted at Wang Tianhai, "Mr. Wang, I'm here. Save me, save me..." But Wang Tianhai's words made him completely helpless. Wang Tianhai said faintly, "Sorry, I'm not here to save you. I'm here to collect your corpse...". "What? How is that possible? Mr. Wang! I am Fu Junlin, and I am Fu Junlin. You must save me,

You are the God of War, you can definitely save me, right? You can definitely kill those people, right? Save me, all my subordinates have been killed by them... They are dead, they are all dead..." Fu Junlin continued to shout at Wang Tianhai in disbelief. To him, Wang Tianhai was a God of War himself and he was definitely powerful enough to save him... However, Wang Tianhai sighed and lowered his head without saying anything else... Meanwhile, Alpha 1 looked at Fu Junlin and smirked with interest, saying, "What, do you feel that your reinforcements are coming? Well, not too shabby, you have yourself a God of War? Fu Junlin, do you know why he doesn't dare to come to save you? Do you know why?" Fu Junlin turned to look at Alpha 1 and asked subconsciously, "Why, why?" Boom! In the next moment, ten consecutive explosions were heard. In an instant, Alpha 1 and Alpha 2 and the others burst out their aura as God of Wars. Alpha 1 looked at Wang Tianhai, who was standing aside, lowering his head and saying nothing. Then he looked at Fu Junlin, who was scared out of his wits, and said, "Because... because he can't beat us. If he dares to fight us, he will die. It's so simple. What do you think Fu Junlin? Huh?" "10... 10 War of Gods!!!" Fu Junlin's heart was trembling at this moment. Although he could gauge how powerful they were before but he could tell that they were all very powerful, perhaps the reason why he could sense their powers was due to them cultivating some other special fighting techniques. But now he finally knew that they were not special cultivation methods at all. It was because they were all more powerful than him!

Ten War Gods and they were all more powerful than the God of War, Wang Tianhai. He didn't expect that the other party would send ten War Gods to kill him! What did he do to force the other party to use ten God of Wars to kill him? How powerful was that person who wanted him dead?

Fu Junlin didn't dare to imagine it at all. Alpha 1 continued to tease him and said, "Fu Junlin, can you give up now? Can I send you to hell?" "No, don't..." Fu Junlin shook his head desperately. The next moment, he ran in front of Si Tianzheng, Lu Tianxun, Shangguan Bo, and the others. While running, he shouted, "My" lords, please save me. I am Fu Junlin of Junlin Group. I have made contributions to Usmit. My lords, please save me. If I really die, the Junlin Group will be destroyed. It will certainly cause Usmit to fall into chaos. My lords, please save me... I am Fu Junlin of Junlin Group..." Fu Junlin roared again and again, for fear that the people in front of him would not save him. But the next moment, an extremely cold voice echoed from Wang Tianhai, Si Tianzheng, and the others. It reached Fu Junlin's ears. "Junlin? Is Junlin Group yours?" "Boom.." When Fu Junlin heard this voice, he felt as if he had been struck by lightning. This voice was too familiar to him, but... but wasn't that person already dead? Wasn't he dead five years ago? No, it was impossible... Fu Junlin, who still had his hopes up, sat down on the ground at this moment. His heart was cold and his whole body was trembling with fear...

Chapter 74

“Boss... No, it’s impossible. He’s dead for a long time ago. He died five years ago. he died. He can’t still be alive!” Fu Junlin’s face was pale. After hearing Joseph’s voice, he felt as if his world has crumbled. Concurrently, Joseph, who was dressed in black, walked up from behind. As soon as Joseph came up, Wang Tianhai and the others automatically stood behind Joseph. They lowered their heads and said nothing. They lowered their head. Joseph looked at the terrified Fu Junlin with cold eyes and uttered slowly, “Do you want to say that you are the one who poisoned me and pushed me down the river?” Bang... Meanwhile, when Fu Junlin saw Joseph with his own eyes, he no longer had doubt in his heart, because at this moment, Joseph was really standing in front of him. He looked at Joseph as if he had seen a ghost, and shook his head subconsciously. “Impossible, this is impossible. How are you not dead, how could you not die!” The gloomy aura on Joseph’s body became denser. He continued to stare at Fu Junlin and asked, “Answer my question. Do you think the Junlin Group belongs to you?” At this moment, Joseph’s aura had burst out. “Boss, I was wrong. I was wrong. Please spare me. Junlin Group is yours. It has always been yours, not mine. Boss, I was wrong. Boss, please spare me. I used to be your best brother. Boss...” Fu Junlin apologized to Joseph with tears in his eyes. Bang... Concurrently, when everyone heard their conversation, they were left dumbfounded. At this very moment, all the big shots of Usmit had their jaw dropped. They were left dumbfounded by their conversation. Indeed, the Junlin Group did not belong to Fu Junlin from the very start. Fu Junlin was not its founder! Fu Junlin was just a shareholder of the company. Five years ago, the founder of Junlin Group suddenly died, leaving no one to take over it. Fu Junlin took over the entire Junlin Group! The Lord of the Dragon Temple was the true founder of the Junlin Group. Now all the big shots of Usmit finally understood the motive to why the Dragon Temple was trying to kill Fu Junlin. The truth was buried five years ago. Five years ago, a dazzling star was making waves in the Usmit’s business industry. And that person was the founder of Junlin Group, Fernando Dawson! This is Joseph’s former name. The star back then was now the Lord of Dragon Temple... “Only people as capable as him was only able to set up such a powerful organization like the Dragon Temple...” The group of big shots muttered in their hearts. Their eyes were filled with admiration. Meanwhile, they were imagining if back then Joseph was not being assassinated, how huge would the Junlin Group be? After all, Fu Junlin only inherited some of Joseph’s assets and he had brought the Junlin Group to become the largest establishment in Usmit... Joseph ignored the commotion behind him and continued to stare at Fu Junlin lividly. He asked with gloomy eyes, “Fu Junlin, back then did I mistreat you? I even named the company after you. I treated you well. If it weren’t for me, you wouldn’t even be able to go to university! If it weren’t for me, your father wouldn’t even have the money to perform his surgery. But why did you want to kill me? Why?” Fu Junlin lowered his head and stopped talking because he knew in his heart that he was a traitor. What Joseph said was true. Fu Junlin fell silent for a long time. Suddenly, he looked up, stared at Joseph with ferocious eyes, and said, “Yes! You have helped me a lot. Without you, I might be nothing! But! You are so outstanding that no matter how hard I try and how much effort I put in, no one in the world can even notice me! Because everything I have done was nothing compared to your achievements!”

“So, that’s why I want you to be dead! I can only shine when you are dead! And the company is named after me then why don’t you just hand the company over to me! Why can’t you just die! Why!” “Back then, the Dawson family sent so many people to assassinate you. I did help you back then! That night, I almost got myself killed! My brothers even tried their best to give you time to escape. Do you admit it this!” Fu Junlin stared at Joseph. Joseph nodded with a complicated look and said, “Well, I admit that you did help me buy time for me to escape the Dawson family’s assassins!” Fu Junlin looked at Joseph with more ferocious eyes and said, “But both of us clearly knew that when our strength back then we were no match for the Dawson family. Do you admit this!” Joseph continued to nod. “Yes, I didn’t have the strength to resist the assassination of the Dawson family!” Fu Junlin’s face was extremely ferocious at this time. He shouted at Joseph, “Well, it’s good that you admit it. Back then if we retaliated, the entire Junlin Group would be destroyed! If that were to happen, I don’t know how many people would die because of you! So when we were escaping, I said that I’ll send you to the Outer Region and I’ll take over the Junlin Group. But what did you reply to that!” Joseph frowned. After a moment of silence, he nodded and said, “I didn’t agree at that time. I want to retaliate with the Dawson family and have a bloody battle with them...” Fu Junlin suddenly burst into a series of maniacal laughter. Then he stared at Joseph and said, “Yes you have a grudge with the Dawson family and you can sacrifice your all to fight the Dawson family but what about us? Have you thought about the brothers in Junlin Group? No, you didn’t! You can leave by yourself but you chose not to! You want all the employees in Junlin Group to die with you! Why? Why do we have to die with you!” Joseph’s eyes were cold. He looked at Fu Junlin and said with a sneer, “Oh, what a distorted truth. Back then did I tell you to die with me?” Joseph paused and continued, “I gave you all the money! Didn’t I tell you to leave?” Fu Junlin’s face froze, and his gaze was trembling as if he was struggling. But soon, he shrieked even more crazily, “Why! You founded the Junlin Group but we were all by your side from the very beginning! Why! No I’m not cannot just let go of Junlin Group! It was about to reach its peak and you tell us to abandon it! No! I can’t...” “Enough, you have said enough, you can die now. I’ll kill you personally...” Joseph interrupted Fu Junlin in a cold voice. The reason why he asked Fu Junlin for answers was to clear out the doubts he had in his heart for all these years. Now everything was clear and Fu Junlin had betrayed him because of the Junlin Group. In fact, Joseph had expected this reason. But he chose not to believe it because he believed in true friendship. That was why he was so eager to talk to him personally.

There was nothing more for them to talk about. All he wanted to hear from Fu Junlin was something like the Dawson family had forced him to betray him or his family members were being held hostage and he had no other choice but to do so. This kind of answer would make Joseph feel better. But no, from the very beginning, the assassins of the Dawson family did not force Fu Junlin to do so. It was all caused by his desire for profit. Joseph’s heart was cold and he no longer want to waste any more time. The next moment, he called upon his aura and the stones beneath his feet started levitating... , When Fu Junlin saw the stones levitating, his expression changed dramatically. He knew that

Joseph no longer wanted to talk nonsense with him, but wanted

Fu Junlin was even more frightened. Suddenly, his aura rose to the sky. His heart had already gone mad. With him as a Semi God of War, there was no way he could escape from this. Perhaps he might still have a chance in escaping if he was a God of War himself but it wasn't so easy to reach God of War. In addition to the dozens of God of War present in the field, it was most likely not going to happen. However, Fu Junlin had something up his sleeve... "God of War! Let me have a breakthrough and reach God of War..." The next moment, Fu Junlin let out a shrill roar, and his body burst out in a bloody fog. Every time a blood fog busts out, his aura increased a little, and he broke through to the stages of God of War little by little.

"Sir, we can't let him continue to break through. If he really breaks through, we might suffer injuries. It's not worth it..." Wang Tianhai was shocked to see Fu Junlin breaking through with forbidden methods. Joseph shook his head and said, "It doesn't matter. Everyone, don't move. Since he wants to break through, let's give him a breakthrough.." Although Wang Tianhai was a little worried, he didn't dare to refute since Joseph spoke. He was just worried that Fu Junlin, who had broken through with a forbidden technique, would be much stronger than an ordinary God of War. Sure enough, in the next moment, Fu Junlin, who was covered in blood, stood in the valley, and his aura surged. His strength had been forcibly raised to the level of a God of War, and it was not at the early stage. His power still rose exponentially. Of course, there were setbacks to this forbidden technique. For instant, he will be ripped in a few hours and he was most likely going to die. But at this moment, he couldn't care about it so much... "The aura of the peak level of a God of War..." Wang Tianhai's eyes were extremely serious. The aura of Fu Junlin's was already the same as his. Not only Wang Tianhai, but also all the big shots in Usmit City looked very dignified. Si Tianzheng and Lu Tianxun even silently took out their weapons preparing if a battle broke out... "Peak level of God of War! Fernando, I made a breakthrough! I want to see how you can kill me now. And since you don't care about our friendship anymore, since you want to kill me, I will kill you today! Even if I have to die today, I will take you down with me! Kill.." Fu Junlin, who had made a short breakthrough with the forbidden technique, roared and rushed toward Fu Junlin... Wang Tianhai and the other big shots of Usmit City looked even more solemn. They were ready to attack at any time. However, Alpha 1 and the rest of them looked at Fu Junlin, who had made a temporary breakthrough, as if they were looking at a fool. This fool was actually thinking of attacking the Lord? He really overestimated his own abilities. Did he really think that the Lord of Dragon Temple had relied on external forces? He was ignorant... "Kill..." However, Fu Junlin did not know what Alpha 1 and the others were thinking. Instead, he was starting to feel anxious seeing all the God of War rooted in place. In his heart, Joseph was just a God of War, and he was bound to die. "Sir.." Seeing that Fu Junlin had rushed to a distance of ten meters in front of the crowd, Wang Tianhai finally couldn't bear it anymore. He gathered his aura and was about to attack. But the next moment, something horrifying happened because he saw that Joseph, who had been motionless, raised his hand and flicked a stone levitating in front of him. With a loud thud, the stone shot Fu Junlin's right leg at light speed, and Fu Junlin's right leg directly got blasted off... Fu Junlin gritted his teeth and rushed five meters in front of Joseph. His left leg was blown up by the stone thrown by Joseph. When he was three meters away, his left arm blasted off, and when he was two meters away, his right arm exploded... When Fu Junlin finally rushed up to Joseph, all of his limbs had been blasted off and he had nothing to attack Joseph with. Meanwhile, Joseph was grabbing onto Fu Junlin's head. "Ignorant... Bang." Joseph murmured and directly crushed Fu Junlin's skull. The blood that splatted out avoided Joseph and it went splashing onto Wang Tianhai, Yin Zheng, Shangguan Bo and the other's face. A God of War, who had just broken through, had the strength of the peak stage of the God of War in such a short period of time, Joseph could crush his skull. Bang. Wang Tianhai and the other big shots in Usmit City were so frightened by the scene in front of them that they fell to the ground. Fear filled their hearts...

On the hillside, Joseph stood still and looked extremely calm. The moment he killed Fu Junlin with his bare hands, there was no more emotion in his heart. The grievances five years ago had finally been solved, and the thorn that was stuck in his heart was finally gone. The breeze blew against Joseph's clothes, which blew away the gloom in his heart. Same as Joseph, Felix, Alpha 1 and the others were all very calm. It was as if killing a God of War that day was not a big deal. This was because they had been by Joseph's side when they were battling in the Outer Region and had slaughtered dozens of God of Wars. They even defeated a Divine King and that day killing a God of War was not a big deal for them. (This novel will be daily updaed at) However, Joseph, Alpha 1, and the others were calm. The big shots of Usmit and the God of War, Wang Tianhai couldn't calm down at all. That was a God of War after all. He was killed in an instant. At this moment, the fear they had for Joseph rose exponentially. They understood why Logan and the others were so bold and fearless. "Let's go..." After killing Fu Junlin, Joseph stayed in the same place for a while. In the next minute, he turned around and left. He came to Usmit just to kill him, to seek revenge. Now that he had killed Fu Junlin, and the grievances of that year had been gone, he naturally had no mood to stay here any longer. What about the sorrow for losing Fu Junlin? There were no longer any emotions in Joseph... Joseph turned around and left, followed by Alpha 1. Soon, the two of them left in a car. After Joseph left, Lu Tianxun stammered to Wang Tianhai with a pale face, "What... what should we do next?" Wang Tianhai turned his head to look at Lu Tianxun. "It's your business..." After saying that, he left with his military. Soon the only person left on the spot was Si Tianzheng, Lu Tianxun, Shangguan Bo and Yin Zheng. All of them were left puzzled and dumbfounded. The person who was killed that day was Fu Junlin and he had broken through to the level of a God of War! However, even with such power, he was no match for Joseph and he was crushed in an instant! Indeed, he was so brutally murdered that that was no corpse left. At this moment, Fu Junlin, the leader of the largest establishment in Usmit, was really dead. Meanwhile, all the big shots of Usmit were so puzzled that they could come back to their senses. As for that Joseph, he left after killing Fu Junlin. His decisive behavior made them even more dumbfounded as if it was just child's play for Joseph... Indeed, Joseph treated it as child's play. (This novel will be daily updaed at)He was in a hurry now. Because when he left the Oplen in the afternoon, Chloe was about to tear up because she was afraid that he would not return. Thus, he didn't want to waste any more time... In the car, Alpha 1 was driving, and Joseph was sitting in the back row thinking about something. Alpha 1 asked Joseph, "Boss, Fu Junlin is dead, and the stock of Junlin Group has plummeted to rock bottom. Our people have begun to secretly buy over the stock, but it is still not enough if we want to get back all the shares of the company. The shareholders still have their hands on a ton of the Junlin Group's shares. Today, when I sent someone to find those shareholders, they all disappeared..." Alpha 1 said, frowning deeply. This was the only thing he found out that day. "It doesn't matter. Someone will deal with the shares left by Fu Junlin. Now let's go there and find that person..." Joseph didn't take it seriously, Alpha 1 was surprised for a moment and said, "Boss, do you mean that you have arranged someone to take over the shares of Junlin Group?" There was a trace of reminiscence in Joseph's gaze, and then he slowly answered, "No, back then I've left someone there to keep track of things. I think it was his doing, let's go and check it out..." Alpha 1 did further question him. Instead, he focused on driving toward the address given to him by Joseph. (This novel will be daily updated at)Meanwhile, in a luxurious private club in the downtown of Usmit, all the vice president and the directors who were not caught had gathered here. The vice president who had thirty percent of the Junlin Group was Ren Pingsheng. At this very moment, Ren Pingsheng, who was in his fifties, was wearing a suit and had white hair. He was sitting in the main seat with a smirk, listening to the discussion of Fu Junlin's trusted subordinates below. "Mr. Ren, what should we do next? The Chairman has been missing for more than half a day, and our people are being arrested. And there are still people crazy enough to buy our stock. If this continues, our Junlin Group will have a new owner.." A small shareholder, Fu Junlin's most trusted subordinate, said to Ren Pingsheng anxiously. "Yes, Mr. Ren, you should come out with something. Since the chairman is gone, you are now our new leader. This moment is crucial for the Junlin Group..." Another trusted subordinate of Fu Junlin said anxiously. They were all drenched in sweat due to the fact that they kept receiving bad news regarding the company and Fu Junlin was currently missing... Ren Pingsheng, who was sitting in the leader's seat, smirked and said, "Isn't the Junlin Group still surviving? Why are you in such a hurry? Please wait for a while. Wait for the news of Mr.

Fu..."

Meanwhile, someone had spoken first, stood up, and shouted, "Ren Pingsheng! What are you waiting for? We still can't get in touch with Mr. Fu. Yesterday night, all the security in his villa was dead. But now, who knows where Mr. Fu is? Can you get in touch with him? What if he dies or is killed by the other party? What should we do?" "Yes... yes... What should we do..." As the man's words fell, the group of small shareholders below immediately panicked.

Ren Pingsheng lowered his head and toyed with the teacup in his hand. There was a strange coldness in his gaze. The next moment, he uttered slowly, "Then what are you people doing? Just hand over the shares and take it as your retiring funds..." "Buzz..." When Ren Pingsheng's words fell, the place instantly became extremely quiet. Everyone who was initially making a commotion was staring at Ren Pingsheng at this moment, and their jaws dropped. The meaning of Ren Pingsheng's words made them shudder! The person who spoke before, pointed at Ren Pingsheng and shouted, "Mr. Ren, do you want to take it all by yourself? How greedy are you! Even if Mr. Fu is really dead, do you think you have the appetite to take over all the Junlin Group's shares?" Bang. With a gunshot, a hole appeared in the little shareholder's head. The next moment, a large group of strong people rushed into the hall and surrounded all the shareholders of Junlin Group. Those shareholders looked at the scene in front of them in disbelief and looked at the corpse in front of them. Their hearts were trembling uncontrollably. At this moment, Ren Pingsheng continued to utter slowly with his head down, "I don't have a big appetite. And your words doesn't matter at all..." The next moment, Ren Pingsheng looked up and glanced coldly at the group of shareholders below. He said slowly, "What do you choose? Do you want to die together with Fu Junlin or are you going to hand over the shares?" "Mr. Ren, what are you doing..." "Bang..." Another shareholder who was loyal to Fu Junlin still wanted to refute, but was directly beaten to death by a guard of Ren Pingsheng. Then, continuous gunshots were heard, and some of the shareholders closest to Fu Junlin were killed. Ren Pingsheng stood up and looked at the trembling crowd, saying, "Everyone, hand over your shares. The Junlin Group does not belong to you all. You all are just mere shareholders, you can choose not to hand over the shares. you have one minute to decide, don't test my patience..." As soon as Ren Pingsheng finished speaking, they were handed documents of transferring the shares over to them. Their face was pale and Ren Pingsheng just stared at them indifferently. Those shareholders stared at Ren Pingsheng with scarlet red eyes, but they didn't dare to refute him at this time. Then they signed all the documents in front of them... After they all signed the documents, Ren Pingsheng nodded and smiled. He said with a smile, "Yes, it seems that everyone has made a wise choice..." Meanwhile, a shareholder asked Ren Pingsheng, "Mr. Ren, we have signed all the shares for you, but if you choose to kill us then we have no choice but to retaliate. I hope you will let us go!"

Ren Pingsheng said with a smile, "Well, you can go now..." The shareholder turned around and left. But the moment he turned around, he sneered at Ren Pingsheng and said, "The Junlin Group is really promising. Every time when Mr. Ren goes missing there will be someone to snatch his place. Mr. Ren, I hope you won't repeat this

The shareholder snorted angrily and turned to leave. Ren Pingsheng had asked them to sign the contract just now and he didn't make things difficult for them. He still compensated them with a huge sum of money. But the next moment, Ren Pingsheng's words made that person freeze in his steps. Ren Pingsheng said, "Who told you that I was going to take over the Junlin Group? Who told you that I was going to be the chairman of the Junlin Group? Everyone, why don't you stay for a while?(This novel will be daily updated at) Because I have a hunch that the real owner of the Junlin Group will show up soon. Don't worry, Fu Junlin's is dead, and your safety will no longer be threatened... Hehe..." Ren Pingsheng said meaningfully with a smirk. His words and attitude immediately made all the people who wanted to leave stay. A trace of doubt flashed across their faces. "The real owner of Junlin Group?" But just when they were extremely confused, a familiar voice echoed into their ears. "Ren Pingsheng, you've worked hard all these years..." As the voice echoed, Joseph and Alpha 1 strode in. Some of the shareholders present who knew Joseph had their jaw dropped in shock and their eyes were full of disbelief.

concurrently, Ren Pingsheng, who was standing at the head of the table, had tears in his eyes. He looked at Joseph and said slowly, "Mr. Dawson, I have waited for this day for five years. I have to serve that traitor for five years, now you are finally back..."

Tears fell from Ren Pingsheng's eyes as he spoke. He continued in a choked voice, "Mr. Dawson, don't worry. Although the Junlin Group had suffered quite a loss the day before but all of us are waiting for your return and we will be working by your side helping you achieve greater heights..." . After a moment of silence, Joseph patted Ren Pingsheng on the shoulder and said, "Go and find those old brothers back then. I'll let you all take over the Junlin Group..."

- Ren Pingsheng held a large stack of documents in his hand and handed his own shares to Joseph. "Mr. Dawson... Mr. Dawson, these things belong to the original owner..." Joseph took a look and said, "No, you can keep it. Give it to those old employees who were oppressed by Fu Junlin. (This novel will be daily updtaed at)Don't worry, Fu Junlin is already dead. I have taken back all the shares in his hands. Do your best..." "Yes, yes..." Ren Pingsheng nodded with tears in his eyes. That night, the Junlin Group that seemed to be a lost cause to the public was once again standing stronger and it was going to conquer the business industry once again! That night, all the executives hired by Fu Junlin were fired and the employees resign without any signs of hesitation. The old employees were employed back to the Junlin Group... The factories that were caught in flames were all exthinguished and the factories started to operate. They started to deliver pieces of machinery to the factories... The official website of Junlin Group was back online, and all the missing business and electronic contracts were restored as soon as possible... The dozens of huge cargo ships that Junlin Group had lost overseas also appeared on the radar again and headed for their respective destination... Even the headquarters building of the Junlin Group, the burned floors and outer walls, had been renovated overnight...

the next morning, Usmait's sky was back to normal and the Junlin Group looked new as ever. All the soot on the wall was gone and the Junlin Tower seemed to be dazzling... Everyone in Usmait City was shocked and gathered around the headquarters of the Junlin Group. They looked at the well-dressed executives and couldn't believe that what had happened the day before... Only the big shots in Usmait truly understood what horror was. Because they had received the news that the Junlin Group, the largest establishment in Usmait had all their employees changed overnight! Everyone was afraid of the new owner of Junlin Group. meanwhile, in the top building of the Junlin Group Headquarters, in the president's office, which was more than 300 meters tall, Joseph stood in front of the window and glanced down at the extremely prosperous and top-ranked city in the world, with a smile on his face... (This novel will be daily updtaed at)If he wanted to bring his wife over, he would definitely give her the best. How could he still let her start from scrap... "The higher the sky was the more unimaginaire the future was..." Joseph murmured, Paige's figure emerging in his mind. "It's time for me to go back and bring them here."

Joseph left in the morning. He stayed in Junlin Group for a short time. He recalled the feeling he had five years ago when the Junlin Tower was just built. However, after he left, all the big shots of Usmit became more dignified. All of them shrank their forces and became cautious. They no longer dared to be as unscrupulous as before. All of this was due to the fact that a rumor had spread across the high personals in Usmit. The previous night, Shangguan Bo, the head of the Shangguan family, and Yin Zheng, the head of the Yin family, were both scared out of their wits when they return. They need someone to support them when they walk, and their faces were extremely pale. They were not the only ones, Lu Tianxun the head of the Police Department, Si TianZheng the head of the Municipal Administration Department were also scared out of his wits. Later, the Shangguan family and the Yin family announced that the Junlin Group have their full support and they cooperated with the Junlin Group across various fields. Some big shots who had a close relationship with Shangguan Bo and Yin Zheng went to visit light. They wanted to ask what had happened, but they only got one answer. And that was Fu Junlin was dead, and the Junlin Group had changed. The new owner of Junlin Group was terrifyingly powerful and they must not provoke him! This news had shocked all the big shots in Usmit and caused everyone to be left dumbfounded. Of course, Joseph didn't care about that. He was a decisive person and he wanted to solve the problem as soon as possible. He didn't care much whether the people were frightened by him. He wasn't interested in suppressing them if they didn't provoke him. In the morning, Joseph took a plane and flew back to the Oplen. He landed in the Usmit the day before and he left the morning after. He was there for less than a day but it made the entire Usmit to tremble. After Joseph left, the Junlin Group began to issue a series of official orders in succession, covering up what had happened the day before with various excuses of making them blundering. Therefore, some people who had did not know about the truth believed it. Because everything happened too quickly and thus the Junlin Group was once again the largest establishment in Usmit! When Joseph returned to Oplen, Paige drove to the airport to pick him up. Chloe was also there as she was afraid that she would lose her dad once again. "Dad, dad, dad..." In the airport, when Joseph came out, Chloe happily threw herself into Joseph's arms and kissed him on the face. . "Hey, it's my little princess. See I promised you and I did not break my promise! I'm back, right? I didn't lie to you... Look, I even bought you a little toy..." Joseph kissed Chloe and took a yellow duck toy from his pocket with a smile. "Thank you, Dad. I want to fly high. I want to fly high.." Chloe happily took the toy and asked Joseph to lift her up. "Chloe! Dad has just come back. He has been busy for a whole day, and he is tired. Don't make a scene..." Paige in a black dress and high heels said to Chloe. Joseph directly raised Chloe with both hands and let her sit on his shoulder. He supported her with one hand and held her elegant and slender hand with the other. "It's fine. I'm not tired. Let's head back..." Meanwhile, while Joseph was holding Paige's arm, her heart still skipped a beat. Her face was slightly flushed, and she nodded when she heard that. Then she asked with some worry, "Is your work finished in Usmaït?" Paige was really a little worried because she remembered that five years ago when Joseph fled, he had told her that the person who betrayed him was stationed in Usmaït. After Joseph left the day before, Paige was a little worried. After all Paige was also a woman, she always knew that Joseph was skilled in fighting and to her knowledge, he was just an ordinary soldier that had left the military. D Therefore, since Joseph left, she had a lot to worry about, and she didn't sleep well at night. She was worried that Joseph would be hurt but she also worried that he might end up breaking the law and that would mean that the three of them would not reunite in the near future. Joseph also saw the worries in her eyes, so he nodded to her with a smile and said, "Don't worry. I found out that the person had died in a car accident, or else I wouldn't have come back so soon right?" Joseph emphasized this. After giving it some thought, she realized that Joseph had only stayed there for one night, and then came back the next morning. If he really wanted to deal with that traitor, one night was certainly not enough. She was greatly relieved, and then took Joseph's hand and comforted him, "Then don't overthink things. That person has reaped what he sowed. The past is in the past. Don't think about it anymore..." Joseph nodded with a smile. It was easy to fool his wife. He was also helpless because of his true identity and the things he had done in the Outer Region. If he told all of them to Paige, she would probably be scared out of her wits. For instance, when he was in the Outer Region, he could freely chat and drink with the royal family of a small country and sit on their thrones. Or, if he wanted to meet with the leaders of some foreign countries, the other party would have to make arrangements and so on... He couldn't tell Paige all of these at this moment. One step at a time. Take it slow. Paige had been staying in these small places all these years and world view had been limited. When she reached Usmaït, he would gradually tell her all of these. That way, she wouldn't have such a hard time comprehending it. For example, in Usmaït, Frogua's military had promoted him back to being a God of War? Isn't this much better... Joseph smirked. With one hand holding Chloe, and the other holding Paige's hand, he walked out of the airport. But after they left, someone at the airport suddenly frowned and looked in the direction where they left. He murmured, "Why do I have a feeling that I just saw the princess of Oplen and the protagonist of the Hundred Cities Wedding?" As the man murmured, the people around her suddenly freeze, because they all had the same feeling in their hearts just now. They felt that that family felt a little familiar to them. Because just now Paige was wearing sunglasses and there weren't many photographs of Joseph at the Hundred Cities Wedding. They exchange looks with each other and they realize that their assumptions were the same as each other.

"My God, it's really them. The princess of Oplen and her husband, the God of War..." The next moment, among the crowd at the airport, someone suddenly reacted. After a loud shout, he quickly chased after her. But when they chased after her, Paige had already driven away... On the way home, Joseph sat in the back passenger seat with Chloe in his arms. He glanced at the crowd taking photos of them behind him and said to Paige, "Dear, did you feel like a star just now?" Her heart was beating fast. She answered, "Well, fortunately, we walked fast. I wore sunglasses and changed my hairstyle. Otherwise, I wouldn't dare to go outside in the future..." Joseph smiled and played with Chloe's little yellow duck toy... When the three of them returned top their home. Estella naturally prepared a table filled with delicious dishes. It had been several days since it was the Hundred Cities Wedding but she still couldn't pull herself back to her senses. She was still immersed in excitement. Because every time she went out, wherever she went, she would be surrounded by a bunch of old people and they were praising her. Thus she was still so excited. 2 As for Bethany, she did not leave either. Paige forced her to stay and insisted for her to stay for a few more days, thus that was the reason why she was still here. A day before the Hundred Cities Wedding, her dad had told her some of Joseph's identity and she hasn't seemed to be able to take it. Moreover, she always felt that Joseph wasn't just as simple as Frogua's God of War. This was due to the fact that Felix the God of War of the central region was way too respectful to Joseph. And her dad, the richest man in Apren City and Logan, Dennis, Ernie were far too respectful to Joseph. It was as if they were talking to their superior. Moreover, she had heard from Paige the day before that Joseph was heading to Usmaït City. Her father, Logan, was in Usmaït. She had received news that Dennis and Ernie had also gone to Usmaït City. The night before, Bethany's sixth sense tingled. And she suddenly go searching for Usmaït's news. At first glance, she was so scared that her heart skipped a beat. The day before, a huge incident happened in Usmaït. The largest establishment in Usmaït, the Junlin Group, changed overnight and was surrounded and killed by mysterious forces. At midnight, there was another huge change in the Junlin Group, and it recovered overnight as if nothing had happened... Although Bethany saw from the news that there was something wrong with the management of Junlin Group, and the fire was due to the worker's fault but she did not believe any of that! Because! She saw her father at the scene! Yes, it was her father Logan! And Dennis and Ernie! So at this very moment, when Bethany was watching him return to Oplen that morning and sat at the table with her to eat, she had great doubts. After Joseph sat down, she couldn't help staring at Joseph. This man was too mysterious and cool-headed as if he didn't care much about losing his title as God of War... Joseph noticed that Bethany, who was sitting opposite him, had been peeking at him. He couldn't help but ask Bethany with a smile, "Miss Parry, why are you always staring at me? What's wrong? Is there something on my face?" "No... No. I just heard that there was a huge incident in Usmaït. The largest establishment in Usmaït, the Junlin Group, had a big change. I want to ask you if you have heard of that..." Bethany pretended to ask Joseph inadvertently. When Joseph heard this, his pupils shrank, and he thought in his heart that this woman was so smart. Then he smiled and shook his head at Bethany and said, "Oh, I don't know. I went to Usmaït last night and drank with a few friends. I drank a little too much and fell asleep after drinking. I came back this morning, so I didn't pay much attention to the news... What happened, Miss Parry? Do you keep up with the news?" "Oh... No, no, I just saw something on the news. You were also in Usmaït yesterday, so I asked casually..." Bethany hurriedly answered, and then lowered her head to eat. Meanwhile, Paige said to Bethany with a smile, "Bethany, Joseph went to Usmaït this time to look for someone. Maybe he didn't pay much attention to the news. Well, let's eat..." Bethany lowered her head and hummed. However, she was overwhelmed by the doubts she had in her heart. Because when she stared at Joseph just now, she caught a minor detail. It was that Joseph paused for a moment before answering her question. Moreover, such a big incident happened in Usmaït, and the whole city was covered by smoke. How could Joseph, who had stayed in Usmaït for a day, not be aware of such a thing? This was not logical at all! Most importantly, she found her father, Logan, and Dennis, in a photo at the Junlin Group scene!

"If, Joseph was the person behind all this and then he was someone truly to be feared..." Bethany's heart was thumping uncontrollably. Joseph was too confident. He was full of confidence, none of it was him pretending to be confident. His temperament and aura were too strong...

Chapter 77

When Bethany lowered her head and ate without saying a word, Joseph took a deep look at her and didn't say anything else. He was sure that Logan didn't have the guts to reveal his identity. That indicated that Bethany had analyzed herself on this. But he didn't care, if Bethany could guess all his hidden identities based on her own analysis, then it's considered he as the Lord of the Dragon Temple's lost! "Come on, Joseph. I heard from Paige that you plan to take them to Usmaït for a few days, right? I've discussed it with your mother, we'll go together. There's nothing to miss in Oplen anyway. Let's drink..." Yahir said to Joseph with a smile. "Yes, Father. Let me toast to you.." Joseph stopped looking at Bethany and turned to drink with Yahir with a smile. On the other side, Bethany still lowered her head and ate without saying a word. For some reason, the moment when Joseph looked at her, she suddenly felt a huge amount of pressure on her, which made her felt even more afraid to speak... After dinner, Joseph went out to find Chloe. He had been drinking with Yahir for a long time. At this time, Serena had already taken Chloe out to play. When Joseph found her, Chloe was holding Serena's mobile phone and making a phone call. When Joseph walked over, Chloe just hung up the phone. However, her pinkish and soft face was a little gloomy. Joseph picked Chloe up with a smile and asked, "Chloe, what's wrong? Are you unhappy? Who were you talking to just now?" Chloe saw that Joseph was asking her. She quickly said to him, "Dad, can you take me to find Ava? I just called her. She seems to be crying. Someone seems to be scolding her..." Chloe tilted her head and thought for a moment. Then she continued to say to Joseph, "That feeling is like... Oh, yes! Dad, Ava gave me the same feeling as I called you for help that night..." Hearing this, Joseph frowned deeply. Chloe was young, so she might not be able to describe it well, but she heard something unusual in her words. Then he took the phone in Chloe's hand and dialed the number she had just dialed. The phone rang for a long time before a fierce man's voice came from the other side of the phone. "Who are you? What are you calling Ava?" Joseph frowned even more deeply and asked in a deep voice, "Who are you? Let Ava answer the phone!" The man on the other side of the phone sneered and said more viciously, "Oh, boy, you are Ava's crush, aren't you? Well, let me tell you, Ava owes our boss 100,000 dollars! Today is the day to pay back the money! Boy, since you are her crush, you should hurry up and get the money! Otherwise, we can't guarantee what we would ask her to do! After all, she is very beautiful, and she is also a college student, right? The bosses of those big cities all are interested in her type, don't you think so? Haha..." When Joseph heard this, there was a flash of killing intention in his eyes, and his tipsiness was instantly swept away. He took a deep breath and said slowly, "Okay! 100,000 dollars, right? Fine, I will give you one million! I will arrive before five o'clock in the afternoon, but from now on, if you dare to touch her again, you can't get a single penny!" After Joseph finished speaking, the opposite side of the phone call was silent for a long time. It seemed that they were discussing something. About three minutes later, the voice on the opposite side sounded again. "Okay! Kid, I don't care who you are! As long as you dare to come, we dare to receive the money! Not to mention 5 o'clock, we will even give you another hour. If we can't see the money before six o'clock! You will never see Ava again in your life! You have to bear the consequences!" The chill in Joseph's heart rose. He sneered and said, "Okay!" Then Joseph hung up the phone. "Joseph, what's wrong? What happened?" Serena saw that Joseph's expression was very strange, so she rushed over and asked. Joseph then passed Chloe in his arms to her and said, "Nothing, don't tell your sister about this Take Chloe to play and I'll make a phone call..." After speaking to Serena, Joseph looked at Chloe and said with a warm smile on his face, "Chloe, I'll take you to Ava later, okay?" Looking at Joseph, Chloe was a little confused, because her father's face was cold just now, but now he was smiling again. She tilted her little head and thought for a while, but she couldn't figure it out. So she still nodded and said, "Well, thank you, Dad. If there are bad people bullying Ava, you have to help Chloe to save her, okay?" Joseph smiled and scratched her nose. He nodded and said, "Well, don't worry. I promise you. If there are bad people bullying Ava, I will help you save her..." Only then did Chloe nod with satisfaction. Although there was still a trace of worry in her little eyes, Joseph had promised her. Although she was a little worried, she still went to play with Serena. When Serena walked away with Chloe in her arms, the smile on Joseph's face gradually disappeared, replaced by coldness! That girl called Ava had done him a favor, or a favor for his family! If she hadn't secretly given Chloe her mobile phone at the risk of being beaten and asked Chloe to call him, he would regret it for the rest of his life! Moreover, when he arrived that night, Ava had been knocked unconscious by those gangsters. 1 Chloe liked Ava very much, and Joseph also planned to go to Usmit again before he went to Angela. He wanted to find the girl and see if she had any difficulties so that he could help her. But he never thought that something really happened to Ava. If it weren't for Chloe calling her just now, he wouldn't know. Joseph frowned slightly because Alpha 1 had reported to him that Ava was seriously beaten at that time. The doctor said that she had to stay in the hospital for a month. But since Ava had come out now, it meant that there was something that he didn't know... "Damn it!" Joseph muttered to himself. He then picked up his phone and called Logan. "Logan, hurry to Apren City right now, go to the Chihong County, we'll meet there. Remember to bring a million dollars cash! Someone is threatening my daughter's savior!!! The actual plan I'll tell you when we meet!" Joseph said then hung up the phone. At this moment, Logan who was in a meeting with Dennis, Ernie and Bradley in Usmit, changed his expression instantly. After saying that he was about to return to Angela, he rushed out of the office and rushed to the Usmit Airport at the fastest speed! He knew that Joseph was angry. He was really angry! Someone was threatening the savior of Joseph's daughter? He must be crazy! Logan cursed the fool in his heart. Just now, Joseph's tone scared him so much that he broke out in a cold sweat. As Alpha 1 rushed to the airport madly, he hurriedly called the person in charge of Apren City's Police Department, Samuel Clark. As soon as the phone was connected, Logan shouted anxiously, "Samuel! Damn you! You are the head of the Police department in Apren City! Is this how you do things? Huh? You are finished, you are finished!!!" Samuel who was on the other end of the line naturally had Logan's number on his phone. Moreover, after the Kennedy Family was destroyed, the Parry Family and Logan were the top leaders in Apren City. Although he was in charge of the Police Department, he also had to be polite to Logan. But now, when Alpha 1 opened his mouth and scolded him for no reason. He was also angry. He said to Logan in a low voice, "Mr Parry, please pay attention to your words! What exactly happened?"

Logan continued to say angrily, "I'll pay attention to your grandmother! Samuel, Apren City has been non-stop having troubles! There are so many criminal groups, how did you manage them? What happened? Well, I'll tell you now! The savior of the daughter of the Lord of Dragon Temple is being threatened, right now! The person who threatened him has asked him to bring 100,000 dollars cash to redeem her! What f*cking happened? I'm asking you, is this a problem? Huh?" "What? There's such a thing? Where's his daughter's savior? I'll gather all my strength to rush there now. Quick! Mr. Parry, tell me, please, hurry up..." On the other end of the phone, Samuel who was initially angry, was completely frightened at this moment. Half a month ago, Joseph's wife and daughter were abused in Apren City, and Joseph was so angry that he destroyed the whole Kennedy Family. But now, his daughter's savior was threatened again? At this moment, Samuel, the head of Apren City's Police Department, was on the verge of going crazy. He was really going to go crazy. That was the Lord of the Dragon Temple, and he was very likely to be the future successor of the Frogua's military department. But now, he was angry because of the incidents in Apren City... At this moment, cold sweat flowed down from Samuel's body like water... Meanwhile, Logan's voice came from the other end of the phone. "I don't know the exact location. Mr. Dawson asked me to rush to Chihong County. And I'm telling you Samuel,, you'd better not act rashly. You know his temper. He's already angry. That girl is his daughter's savior. My young master likes that girl very much! You should gather all your forces immediately to be fully armed and wait for me in Chihong country. I'll go to the airport right away. I can arrive there before four o'clock in the afternoon. Let's meet up first..." After saying that, Logan hung up the phone. In the headquarters of Apren City's Police Department, in Samuel's office, the moment Logan hung up the phone, he immediately rushed out of the office. He shouted at the main hall of the Police Department downstairs, "An emergency! All of you, assemble and get fully armed! Hurry up! Everyone, gather up!" Following Samuel's yell, Cedric, the captain of the Police Department, who was busy with his business hurried to inform all the forces of the Police Department to assemble. Immediately, following one order from Samuel, all the forces in Apren City were mobilized and quickly assembled... More than ten minutes later, in the courtyard of the Police Department of Apren City, there were waves of sharp sirens sounded one after another. The next moment, cars packed with all the officers quickly drove out. Hundreds of war chariots roared toward the direction of Chihong County of Apren City..

Whereas in Oplen City, after Paige came out, Joseph told her that Chloe wanted to see Ava and he would take Chloe to Aglela in the afternoon. Hearing this, Paige felt that since she had nothing to do anyway. Moreover, when Bethany heard that Joseph said that he wanted to go back to Aglela, she took Paige to bring her back too. So they did not hesitate and drove straight to Apren City... Then Joseph had to give some orders before Paige came out to Chloe and Serena to not say a word to Paige about Ava... "Ava, we must be fated. On that day, you protected my daughter for three days, and I, Joseph will protect you for a lifetime!" While on the way to Apren City, Joseph muttered in his heart. He was a person who would seek revenge what others did to him, but he would also do anything he could to repay others' kindness!

Chapter 78

At four o'clock in the afternoon, Joseph drove Chloe to the Chihong County of Apren City. Meanwhile Paige was dragged into the city by Bethany, Joseph did not let Paige and the others follow him. When Joseph arrived, Logan had already rushed here. After he got off the plane, he directly gathered a motorcade from the Parry family. There were more than a dozen long of Lincoln cars and one hundred of the most elite forces of the Parry family. "Mr. Dawson." After Joseph stopped the car, Logan respectfully opened the car door for him and invited Joseph to get on the longest Lincoln in the middle. The next moment, the siren of the car of the Police Department was heard. Samuel, the chief of then which Joseph was riding. "Mr. Dawson, I'm sorry. I didn't manage things well. That's why... Mr. Dawson, don't worry. I have gathered more than a thousand of my elite forces. No matter how powerful they are, I completely destroy their gang today! Please be rest assured, Mr. Dawson. I promise! I promise!" As he spoke, cold sweat continued to flow down on his back and his face.

The window of the Lincoln was slowly lowered and stopped halfway. (This novel will be daily updated at) Joseph sat in the car and did not speak. He just looked at Samuel coldly. After looking at him for a long time, the window was rose up again. Samuel was stunned for a moment, and then he ran back to his car. He shouted into the walkie-talkie, "Hurry up, everyone, go to the Red Stone Village in Chihong Country as fast as you can! The military helicopter will be launched first, and the special forces will go first! Remember, if they dare to resist, kill them on the spot!!! Hurry up!" Samuel glanced Logan's motorcade, and when he saw that they moved, he became even more anxious. As soon as Samuel finished speaking, eight military helicopters belonging to Apren City's Police Department rose into the air from several huge open spaces around Chihong County. The most elite soldiers of the Police Department were all sitting on them with cold and fierce auras. At this moment, the eyes of those warriors were all looking serious. Their eyes were full of killing intention. The next moment, eight military helicopters flew toward Red Stone Village, which was 80 miles away like goshawks... Whereas on the ground, Logan's motorcade were all driving at the maximum and sped towards Red Stone Village. The road had long been blocked for them, so their cars' speed had been directly raised to the maximum. In the longest Lincoln in the middle of the motorcade, there was Joseph who was holding Chloe calmly and said, "Chloe, don't worry. We will see Ava soon. Don't worry, I promise you that she will be fine..." "Yes, Dad, Ava will definitely be fine. She will definitely be fine..." Chloe clenched her little fists and nodded to Joseph. On the road, Logan's motorcade was speeding in the direction of Red Stone Village. Even on this small county road, they drove at a speed of more than a hundred km/h. While they're at the front, the military troops from the Police Department led by Samuel were followed closely behind. In the sky, there were eight military helicopters coming from the rear. Then, they surpassed the motorcade below and rushed straight to Red Stone Village... An extremely chilling atmosphere began to spread across the county road of Chihong County... As they got closer and closer to Red Stone Village, Joseph's eyes looked even more serious and solemn. His daughter's savior, whoever dared to hurt her would die!

Red Stone Village was a small village located on the east side of the big mountain of Chihong County in Apren City. As the name suggested, there were some red stones in the depths of the big mountain in the village, so the village was called Red Stone Village. Moreover, Red Stone Village was very poor, and it was a faraway village. In addition to the mountains in the village and the rugged mountain roads, there were no daily necessities in the village. If it only depended on planting crops, the profit of the harvest that were collected every year was only about 2 to 3 thousand yuan. Therefore, the young people of Red Stone Village could only go out to work. Ava was one of the few college students in Red Stone Village. She was the only girl who had left the village and went to university. Therefore, even if Ava was a girl, her parents were still willing to work hard for her to go to college. The tuition fee was too high and the cost in the city was too expensive, so Ava was working hard in college, and her parents were also working hard outside. But it was very unlucky that her father died in a car accident in the town after she went to college. (This novel will be daily updated at)They used a large amount of money to settle down for his father's death. As for the driver who caused the accident, he had already run away. Her mother took all the responsibility alone, so she worked hard in Apren City to earn money for her daughter's tuition fee. It was absolutely impossible to believe that a female college student who came from a village could score top in the universities outside, and she even received a full scholarship. In real life, there were indeed such examples, but there were very few of them. The college students who came from the countryside did not have good mentality because the education they received since young was very limited.. Therefore, most of the college students who came from the countryside were good at studying in college, but not all of them could get on the top list. Therefore, Ava needed to work hard and study at the same time. However the money was still not enough. The little amount of money left in her family which was prepared for her to go to college, was already used for her father's passing. So her mother could only borrow money from the town's quarry. Of course, she didn't borrow too much, she only borrowed forty ousand yuan, ten thousand yuan to return to their relatives, and the remaining thirty thousand yuan was for Ava to go to college. By the time Ava was about to graduate from college, the money owed had already reached one hundred thousand yuan! Ava's family only had her and her mother left, as well as her 70-year-old grandmother! At this moment, as time went by, it was already half past four. There was only half an hour left before five o'clock that Joseph had mentioned. Right now, Ava and her family were surrounded by a group of gangsters in fear. Ava's mother had been kneeling on the ground and in front of those gangsters, begging them to give them more time. Ava's face was also swollen and her eyes were red. Her old grandma was lying on the ground in despair. Her grandma had already made plans. If these douchebags really wanted to take her granddaughter away by force, she, the old woman, would die in front of them today. She would die in exchange for the investigation of the Police Department... Ava naturally knew what her grandmother was thinking. Her heart was filled with grief and indignation. At this moment, she looked at the gangster named Hei Zi who was the leader with cold eyes, and said, "I just returned twenty thousand yuan to you a few days ago. My mother has only borrowed thirty thousand yuan from you. Now you're asking for 100,000 yuan? Are you still a human? Huh?" Yes, the twenty thousand yuan was asked by Ava from the hospital. Because Alpha I gave her 100,000 yuan for hospitalization, she got the best single ward. She was in urgent need of money, so before her wounds completely healed she forcefully left the hospital. And she also asked the hospital leader to give her some money. At this moment, the gangster leader called Hei Zi was playing with a shining knife in his hand. He said, "Hehe, that's not enough. Did I force you to borrow the money? Ah? Don't forget that your mother signed the black and white. I didn't force you to..."

"Bah! You b*stards will get karma! You'll definitely get karma!" The old lady, who was lying on the ground, gritted her teeth and scolded Blackie. Hei Zi sneered and looked at the old lady indifferently, "Heh, old hag, I know what you're thinking. You want to die, right? Hehe, don't worry. In front of us, you can't even kill yourself. You'll have to wait until we leave to die. If that happens, your death will be suicide and it has nothing to do with us..." After saying that, Blackie looked towards the distant area outside the courtyard. The villagers who were watching sneered and said to the old lady, "Hehe, old lady, do you really think that the timid villagers in your village would stand up for you? They don't exist. They are just here to watch the fun. Who asked your son was such a show off last time? His daughter was admitted to university, so be it, was it necessary to show off in the village every day? Isn't it hateful? People like to show off. Hehe..." "Don't you dare talk about my father! If you dare to touch our family today, I believe that the villagers of our village will definitely report it to the Police Department! I believe that!" Ava, wearing an old, second-hand dress, clenched her fists and shouted at Hei Zi. "Hehehe... Hahahaha.." Blackie suddenly burst out laughing.

The next moment, he looked deeply at Ava and said, "Oh, that's great. Although your village is poor, but it's a different era now. Everyone has a mobile phone in their hands, you can ask them to report it to the Police Department now, can't you? I won't stop you. See if those people will help you..." After saying that, Hei Zi licked his lips. Hearing this, Ava's eyes lit up. The next moment, she stood up and shouted at the villagers outside the courtyard wall, "Please help me.(This novel will be daily updaed at) Call the Police Department now. Is anyone willing to help our family? I, Ava, will remember your kindness for the rest of my life..." However, after Ava finished speaking, all the onlookers outside the courtyard did not respond. Some people were still smiling, and some of the old bachelors in the village even said to her, "Ava, it's natural for you to repay your debts. Besides, it was your mother who took the initiative to borrow money back then, they didn't force her to borrow money. If they hadn't lent you money, you wouldn't have the money to bury your late father, right?" "That's right Ava, you're quite good-looking. A while back your mother also said that you're going to baby-sit the kids of the big boss in the city, aren't you? You can ask money from the big boss..." "Yes, I heard that rich people in the city are like that, they like to keep a mistress at home."

The villagers said one after another. Regardless of men or women in the village, at this moment, they were all gloating, which shocked Ava.

Yes, she had never thought that the villagers' human nature would be so bad! In the past, when everyone had no money, they would help each other. But now, as everyone was rich, it was even worse. They began to boycott those who left the village. Ava was stunned, while Hei Zi nodded his head as if he had already known it. He sneered at Ava and said, "Hehe, did you hear that? Did you hear what those people said about you? No one will save you. If you were to become a mistress, maybe they would be happier in their hearts..." Ava's face was extremely livid. Hei Zi then looked at Ava and said, "Why don't you follow me? Then you don't have to pay me back. After all, I'm still quite a famous person in Chihong County. I have a total of eighty to hundred brothers under my command. Mmm, the town's quarry is also mine. You've been to university and you're pretty. If you follow me, I won't treat you shabbily for the rest of my life. As for those people who gossip about you and slander you behind your back, I'll beat them up for you. I'll free you, how about that?" Finally, Hei Zi spoke out the real thoughts in his heart. Yes, from the very beginning, what he wanted was not money, but forcing Ava to surrender to him! Because Ava had gone to college, and she was beautiful and kind-hearted. Ava's vibe was very attractive to him. In fact, from the moment Ava's mother borrowed money from him four years ago, he already had this plan. Otherwise, he would not have waited until Ava graduated from college, then only he came to find them for money, in order to force her to surrender! As for the man who said that he would come with the money later, he did not take it to heart. When the money came, he would take it, but he would also take her away. Ava clenched her fists and stared at Hei Zi with reddened eyes and said, "In your dreams! Impossible! Even if I die, I won't marry you!" Hei Zi raised his hand to wipe the saliva from Ava's face. His face then became extremely gloomy. He slapped Ava's face and said fiercely, "I gave you face. Who do you think you are? You want to marry me? I'm afraid that there's something wrong with your understanding. I said that you will follow me like a pet. You want to marry me? Haha..." The more Hei Zi spoke, the angrier he became. He grabbed Ava's wrist and walked out. "Don't waste any more time. I've been in this rundown place for half a day. Hurry up and follow me!" Ava was anxious. She struggled and said, "Wait, that man said he would pay for me. He will pay for me..." Ava thought of Chloe. Chloe told her that she would tell her father to help her pay back the money. Now Chloe's words became the only hope in Ava's heart. Would he come? Would he make it? Chloe's father had offended the Kennedy Family in Apren City. That was the Kennedy Family... Ava, who had been staying in the hospital all the time and was only at the bottom of society, naturally didn't know that the Kennedy Family had been destroyed half a month ago... Hearing this, Hei Zi sneered and said, "Heh, it's already five o'clock. Oh, no, there's still two minutes before five o'clock. That person said he'll arrive before five o'clock, but he's not here yet. Hehe, do you really think that he'll come and save you? At this poor and run down place? Hehe, don't even think about it... Hurry up and follow me. You should serve me well tonight. To tell you the truth, I've been waiting for this day for four years already..." As he spoke, Hei Zi's eyes gleamed as he stared fiercely at Ava's thigh. His heart was about to beat out of his chest, and he dragged Ava out. Ava's mother and grandmother wanted to stop him, but they were kicked back by Hei Zi's subordinates.. Just as the hopeless Ava was about to be dragged onto the black SUV by Hei Zi, eight military helicopters of the Police Department suddenly appeared in the distant sky of the village. The eight military helicopters instantly flew above Hei Zi and the rest of the gangsters.(This novel will be daily updaed at) The next moment, the soldiers on the eight helicopters all aimed their machine guns at Hei Zi. Then, eight ropes hung down from all the helicopters. In the next moment, hundreds of fully armed soldiers followed the ropes and descended... At the same time, far off in the distance, a row of Lincolns appeared at the entrance of the village. They sped in the direction of Ava.... "This... they're here to catch me?" With a 'bang' sound, Hei Zi was scared to the ground by the scene in front of him. Meanwhile, Ava's eyes and her mouth was wide open... "How... how is this possible?" Ava muttered in her heart. Her mother and grandmother in the yard were also looking at the scene in front of them in disbelief. Hundreds of villagers in Red Stone Village were also shocked by the scene in front of them...
