Chapter 79

Chapter 79

Boom! Boom! Boom! On the distant village road, luxury cars drove crazily toward them. The price of each car was more than several million yuan, but the owner of the car didn't seem to care about it at all. Even if the speed of the car was too fast and it would scratch their cars, the owner of the car would not hesitate to speed up. They had only one purpose, which was to break into the destination at a high speed. Meanwhile, behind the dozens of luxury vehicles were fully armed war chariots. Every single one of them were full of soldiers. "Squat down and don't move! Kill whoever moves!" Several soldiers who jumped off the helicopter shouted as they rushed towards Hei Zi. One of Hei Zi's subordinates wanted to run, but the next moment, with a loud explosion, his head exploded. It was a gun fired by someone from the Police Department. They had already received a death order. If these people dared to move, they would all be killed on the spot! "How... how could that be? I'm just a gangster. This, this, this, this..." Hei Zi muttered in his heart. At this moment, his heart was about to go crazy. He was just a gangster in Chihong County. He was not even considered as a big boss in the county. He only had a small quarry in his hands. Previously, he had boasted that he had nearly a hundred brothers under his command, however that was completely bragging. It couldn't be true, there was at most a dozen of them that were following him.

But now, Apren City's City Police Department and the most elite troop was here to catch him? He... When did he, Hei Zi, become so powerful? He didn't even know. However, those people from Apren City's Police Department didn't give him the chance to react. At this time, seven or eight soldiers jumped off the helicopter above Hei Zi's head. They sent his body flying with a kick while still in the air. Hei Zi's entire body was kicked five or six meters away. Before he could stand up, a dozen of elite members of the Police Department had completely controlled him. In an instant, Hei Zi, who was lying on the ground, was almost scared to death. One of his subordinates had already been killed. At this moment, he was extremely certain that if he dared to make the slightest movement, they would definitely kill him! Hei Zi was so frightened that his entire body was trembling, and his face was completely pale.

Then, the most elite team of the Police Department walked passed by Ava's side and rushed toward the gangsters behind her. Soon, all the gangsters were controlled. Ava, on the other hand, stood there with a silly look in her eyes.

The next moment, a long, bright black luxury car stopped in front of her. Logan, the richest man in Apren City, got out of the car personally and opened the back door. Then Joseph got out of the car with Chloe in her arms. Chloe saw Ava who was in a daze in front of her and ran to her with a smile. While running, she shouted happily, "Ava! Ava! I'm here. I've brought my dad to save you. Are you okay? Ava?" Chloe yelled and threw herself onto Ava's thigh. Ava subconsciously bent down and picked Chloe up. She then stared blankly at the man standing opposite her. He was dressed in a black suit and had an imposing appearance. His body was filled with solemnness. As for Logan, he stood respectfully in front of that man. That man was Chloe's father. "Logan Parry? Isn't he... isn't he the richest man in Apren City? He is on the same level as Brandon Kennedy too? Why... why is he so respectful to Chloe's father?" Ava was extremely shocked. From what she saw now, the most powerful man in Apren City was extremely humble to Chloe's father. But the next moment, something that shocked Ava, her family, and the people of Red Stone

Village happened. More than a hundred war chariots of the Police Department of Apren City also drove over. The next moment, hundreds of officers from the Police Department jumped off the war chariots and began to distribute in all directions. They wanted to control the place as soon as possible. As for Samuel, the head of the Police Department of Apren City, he stood behind Joseph nervously. He lowered his head and said, "Mr. Dawson, I'm sorry, but the situation has been under control, including the target's quarry in Chihong County, they have also been closed off, and all the people involved have been arrested..." "Mmm..." Joseph nodded with a cold face, and then stepped toward the extremely shocked Ava. Ava's heart beat faster instantly, and she looked extremely nervous. She was not stupid. She had seen Logan Parry, the richest man in Apren City on the Internet, while the officer from Police Department is the head of the Police Department in Apren City. But now, two of the prestigious persons were all so respectful to Chloe's father. What was Chloe's father's identity? She did not even dare to think about it, but she was sure that Chloe's father was definitely a big shot! At this moment, such a big shot was coming toward her... "You... you..." When Ava saw Joseph coming to her, she opened her mouth and wanted to say hello to him, but she couldn't say a complete word because she was too nervous. Because at this moment, the scene was really too shocking and frightening. Hundreds of soldiers of the Policel Department were scattered around to guard them, more than the villagers in their village. Besides, more than a dozen of bodyguards were standing quietly beside the leading luxury cars, waiting for orders at any time. Not only Ava, but all the villagers in Red Stone Village were scared out of their wits. D Joseph walked to Ava's side, he frowned and looked at her red and swollen face. He said. "I'm sorry. We were late. We came from Oplen and it was a little far away. Are you okay? Oh, by the way, I'm Joseph Dawon, I'm Chloe's father. Chloe has been telling me about how you took care of her during that 3 days. Thank you..." Hearing this, Ava quickly waved her hand and said, "I'm... I'm fine. Mr... Mr. Dawson, thank you. Thank you for coming..." Joseph nodded and looked behind Ava with a frown. At this moment, two people were helping each other out to walk towards them from behind Ava. One was an old lady, and the other was Ava's mother. When Ava saw Joseph looking behind her, she quickly introduced them. "Mr... Mr. Dawson, this is my mother, and my grandma..." Then Ava introduced to her mother and grandma, "Mom, grandma, this gentleman is Chloe's father, who is the little girl I took care of when I was working part-time..." When Ava's mother and grandmother heard this, they immediately knelt down in front of Joseph and thanked him with tears. Joseph's eyes lit up, and he hurried forward to help the two old ladies up. "Auntie, grandma, don't do this. This is what I should do. I was in Outer Resion before. If Ava didn't take care of Chloe, I might have lost her for the rest of my life. Ava is Chloe's savior, and she will be my sister in the future. You should get up quickly.." D Ava's mother kept apologizing to Joseph. As an ignorant and uncultured woman, she didn't know what to say to a prestigious person like Joseph, while her grandmother also burst into tears. Her face was pale, but there was a touch of relief in her eyes. Seeing that their situation was not good, Joseph gave an eye signal to Logan. In the next moment, more than a dozen of medical staff members carrying medical boxes rushed up. They pulled Ava's mother and grandma into the yard and did various examinations. "Are there any other wounds on your body? Don't lie to me!" Joseph looked at Ava and said. Ava shook her head and said, "No, no. Thank you, Mr. Dawson..." Joseph nodded and said, "Well, I believe we have a certain amount of fate. If you hadn't taken care of Chloe and asked her to call and inform me, I might have regretted it for the rest of my life. You can call me as your brother in the future, and you're my sister from now on.." Ava's body trembled. She looked at Joseph in disbelief and asked, "Mr. Dawson, is, is it really possible? My identity, and with you?" "I'll do as I say. Well, your face is too swollen. You can take Chloe along and let the doctor to have to worry about these things outside. I'll deal with them..." Joseph said to Ava. "Well, okay, thank you, Joseph.." Ava nodded, and then turned back to her yard with Chloe in her arms. After she entered, the door of Ava's house was closed by two soldiers from the art was beating even faster, and the shock in her heart could not be calmed down at all. After she carried Chloe back to her own courtyard, she, her mother, and her grandmother looked at each other and saw the shock in each other's eyes. The three of them were stunned, but Chloe smiled happily. "Hehe, Ava, I'm right. Dad and I came to save you. Don't worry, as long as Dad is here, no bad people will dare to bully you again in the future..." Hearing this, Ava's body trembled violently. She looked at Chloe and asked, "Chloe, can you tell me who your father is?" After Ava finished speaking, her mother and grandma also looked at Chloe. After all, a child would not lie. Other than the three of them, there was more than a dozen medical staffs in the courtyard as well as the best doctors in Apren City. They were at least the directors of any department in the hospital, and their status was very high. But at noon today, their dean of hospital gave them an urgent order to follow the Parry family's motorcade to a place. When they arrived in Chihong County with the Parry family's motorcade, they saw Logan Parry, the richest man in Apren City, and Samuel Clark, the head of the Police Department in Apren City! But what happened next made them extremely shocked. When a man with a child appeared, Logan and Samuel, the two most powerful persons in Apren City, were all extremely respectful to that person... Therefore, when Ava asked Chloe this question, they all looked at Chloe at the same time. They also wanted to know the answer. Seeing so many people looking at her and waiting for her to tell them her father's identity, Chloe was also very happy and felt very proud. So she replied, "I don't know the details. But I heard the others call my father, the God of War. And let me tell you, just a few days ago, my Dad was holding a wedding for my mother in Oplen City. It was a big wedding and countless people attended it. There were also many uncles in the army attended too. They were all there. My father was so handsome... "Boom." As Chloe finished her words, Ava immediately stood up. The medical staff also stood up in shock. The God of War! God of War!?! This child's father was actually the God of War from Frogua!!! At this moment, they finally understood why the richest man in their city, Logan, and the head of Police Department, Samuel were so respectful to him. "Chloe... you, you said that your father is a God of War?" Ava asked Chloe in disbelief. Chloe nodded excitedly and said, "Well, Mom has always told me that my Dad is a hero. Ava, do you think my Dad is a hero?" "Yes... Chloe, your father is really the greatest hero... for real!" Ava was more shocked. And such a great person just said that he would claim her as his sister! Then she would be the sister of the God of War? And she would have a God of War as her brother? The greatest hero as her brother?

Chloe then said to Ava with a smile, "Hehe, Ava, my dad just said that you will be his sister in the future. In that case, you will be protected by him in the future, and those bad guys will no longer dare to bully you. Ava, you don't have to be afraid anymore. My Dad is amazing..." Chloe was extremely proud when talking about Joseph. Mm hmm, that was Chloe's father, the greatest hero! Boom... Instantly, Ava's tears fell like rain. Now she had a God of War as her brother! From now on, no one dared to bully her. She took a deep breath and said to Chloe with tears in her eyes, "Chloe... thank you, thank you..." Then her tears increased. Her life was very tough, and Chloe's life was also very tough previously. Both of them had met each other during their most difficult times. At this moment, the other people in the yard, including Ava's mother, grandma, and those medical staff, were deeply in shock again when they heard that Joseph had claimed Ava as his sister. That was the sister of the God of War! Especially those medical staff, at this moment, they looked at Ava with envy... In the courtyard, Ava was so touched and tearing, and Chloe was comforting her with a smile. Outside the courtyard, Joseph walked to Hei Zi who was almost scared to death, and sat down on a chair moved by Logan. He leaned forward, looked at Hei Zi and asked in a cold tone, "You want Ava to pay you 100,000 yuan, right?" .

Hei Zi was so scared that his liver was trembling. At this moment, he felt a chill in his bones growing on his body. He didn't know the man in front of him, but he could tell from his voice that he was the one who called him this afternoon.

"No... I dare not... I dare not to do that. Please spare my life. Sir, please spare my life. Please spare my life..." Hei Zi was almost scared to death. Right now, he kept kowtowing to Joseph, wanting to beg him to let him go. Joseph ignored him and waved his hand behind him. The next moment, Logan opened a box containing one million yuan cash and threw it in front of Hei Zi. A stack of one million cash was scattered on the ground. But Hei Zi who was kneeling on the ground did not dare to pick it up when he saw the one million cash in front of him, . Joseph continued to lean forward, staring at Hei Zi, and he said in a cold tone, "Take it, one

e it and count to check if it's enough. If it's not enough, how about I give you another million?" "No... I dare not. I don't want the money anymore, Sir, I don't want it anymore. Sir, I... I'll compensate you. I'll give all my savings to Ava. I only beg you to let me go. Please let me go, Sir..." Hei Zi was even more frightened. He didn't know who Joseph was, but he could make the richest man in the city and the head of Police Department to be so respectful and stand behind him, then he must not be someone who could be offended by a punk like him! Joseph stared at Hei Zi and said slowly, "Do you know why I talk so much nonsense with a piece of trash like you?" Hei Zi, who was kneeling on the ground, lowered his head even lower. He didn't dare to speak. He didn't know why such a big shot like Joseph would talk nonsense with him. He couldn't figure it out either. Joseph continued saying, "Because Ava is my daughter's savior. You humiliated her so much and even wanted to take her away... If I simply kill you now, don't you think it's too easy for you? Huh?" "Sir, please spare my life. Please spare my life. I will not do that again. Sir, I promise that I will be a good person in the future. I will definitely be a good person. Sir.." Hearing that Joseph wanted to kill him, Hei Zi desperately begged for mercy, Joseph sneered and said, "Well, whether you want to be a good person later, or whether you want to be a good person on your next life, does it have anything to do with me? I'm not an officer in the Police Department, I'll not give you a chance to be a new person. Oh, sorry, because I won't even give you a chance to see the sunset today..." Without waiting for Hei Zi to continue begging for mercy, Joseph continued, "One million. I've given you ten times the amount of money you asked for. But isn't time for you to pay back on the part which you beat my sister and my daughter's savior,,,, Hmm?" After saying that, Joseph waved to Logan behind him. "Sir, please spare my life, please spare my life... Ah..." The next moment, when Hei Zi was begging for mercy, one of Logan's men directly smashed his hand with a steel pipe, smashing his right hand that used to hit Ava's face. "Go on." Joseph's eyes were calm, and he just spoke out two words calmly, Bang! Bang! Bang! Bang! Three more loud sound was heard and Hei Zi's left hand and legs were all broken. He also fainted from the pain, "Wake him up..." Joseph continued to say in a cold tone. There was no emotional fluctuation in his eyes. He had no sympathy for this kind of trash. He was an extreme person, and he never hesitated when he talk and do things. Soon after, Hei Zi was woken up by Logan's subordinates. After he regained consciousness, his mouth once again let out an extremely miserable howl. However soon after that, he was unable to even utter a single sound...

After waiting for another three minutes, Joseph finally ended his life. He also settled a malignant tumor for Red Stone Village and even for Chihong County. When he was in the car, Joseph had read all the information about Hei Zi. In recent years, he had committed many evil deeds, and three people had been forced to death by him. There were three families! While everyone else who had witnessed the cold-bloodedness of Joseph, they felt a chill in their heart. That was the style of the Lord of the Dragon Temple! Logan and Samuel could not stop the cold sweat on their backs... "Mr... Mr. Dawson, how should we deal with the rest of the gangsters?" Samuel asked Joseph cautiously. Joseph looked at him coldly and asked, "Are you from the Police Department, or am I? Do you need me to teach you how to do things?" After that, Joseph walked toward the Ava's house. When he passed by Samuel, he paused for a moment and whispered in Samuel's ear, "Samuel, it's been two times! I don't want to see it happening again in Apren City! You know what I mean." After Joseph finished speaking, he continued to walk forward. On the other hand, Samuel who was standing in the same place, shivered. His clothes were soaked with sweat. Yes, it had happened twice! The Apren City that he was in charge of had continuous malicious incidents happening. Coincidentally, it all happened to the people around Joseph. At this moment, Samuel was really scared because he had heard the intense in Joseph's voice when he spoke just now! "Cedric! From now on, do your best to wipe out all the dark forces in Apren City! Kill them all! Leave no one alive! No one can f*cking plead for mercy in this operation! Just say that it's r! Go do it immediately, now! Right now!!!" Samuel shouted at Cedric, the captain of the Police Department. Then he began to retreat and cleaned up the scene, and forced the remaining gangsters to leave Red Stone Village. After Samuel left, it then happened the most unprecedented and most strict crack down operation in Apren City. This time, Samuel was really angry. Anyone who committed a crime would be punished double. Whether it was a rich or powerful family, a listed enterprise or a powerful person, he did not care about it. Damn it! If there was no other way, he would go to find Felix Stokes to bring in the military from the Central Region to help. Either way, he had made his mind this time, because if something happened in Apren City again, he would be finished. Joseph would not let him go so easily... "Get in touch with the military of the Central Region! Ask Felix Stoke the God of War for help! This time, I will completely turn the sky of Apren into a blue sky!" While on the chariot back, Samuel ordered Cedric in a fierce tone! Joseph had no interest in what Samuel wanted to do. Anyway, he had already expressed his intention to him, which meant no matter what reason he had, if he had to come to Apren City again due to some bad things happening here, then Samuel would be finished. Well, it was just so simple... For example, when he was buying equipment in the Outer Region, Joseph had shown the same attitude toward those suppliers. If the equipment was faulty and it caused the soldiers of the Dragon Temple to get injured, then the weapon suppliers would be finished. It was so simple, but the effect was often the best.

Joseph was in the frontline while Logan was in the back. The two of them walked into the courtyard of Ava's house. At this moment, Ava and her family were still unresponding, Joseph then said to Ava, "Ava, Chloe and I have to go back to the city. Do you want to go back with us or stay here for a few more days? Anyway, there are enough cars. You can take your mother and your grandmother with you. We can go back together..." Hearing this, Ava thought for a while and said to Joseph, "Joseph, I, I want to clean up the house before I leave..." Joseph nodded and said to Logan behind him, "You arrange appropriately for my sister's family." Logan then replied respectfully, "Don't worry, Mr. Dawson. I will arrange everything. I will arrange a villa with a yard in Aglela so that her grandmother can live in a stable place. I will also arrange the money. Don't worry..." Hearing that, Ava quickly waved to Joseph and said, "Joseph, there's no need for that. It's really not necessary. That's too extravagant for us. We can't afford it..." Joseph then waved his hand and said, "It doesn't matter. Those things are nothing to Logan and me. You should work hard in the future. When you could stand at the peak one day, you will find that certain things are just a number. They are nothing. You should be filial and take good care of your mother and grandma. They are old..." Ava nodded. When she was about to speak, her mother trembled and walked to Joseph, her eyes filled with endless gratitude and she said to Joseph, "Mr... Mr. Dawson, it's time for dinner. Why don't you and your child have dinner before leaving? There's nothing delicious in our village, but there's a taste that the city doesn't have. I've already killed an old hen and stew it..." "Er..." Joseph paused for a moment, then looked at Chloe and asked, "Chloe, what do you think? Do you want to go back after having dinner here at Ava's house or do you want to go back now?" Chloe thought for a moment, then pouted and said to Joseph, "Dad, I'm hungry... I want to eat the chicken cooked by grandma..." Chloe looked pitiful and rubbed her belly cutely. Joseph then scratched Chloe's nose and then said to Ava's mother awkwardly, "Then we might have to trouble you, Auntie. Chloe and I will leave after dinner..." When Ava's mother heard that Joseph was going to stay for dinner, she was very happy. She nodded excitedly and said to Chloe, "Well, Chloe, you should eat more later. Grandma's stewed chicken is delicious..." Joseph and Chloe then finished their dinner in Ava and her family's enthusiasm. After having dinner, they left. Before Logan left, he left a sum of money for Ava and a dozen bodyguards and four cars. After Ava and her family cleaned up in two days, he took them to live in the city. Even after a long time since Joseph and the others left, Ava and her family still did not come to their senses. Later that night, all three of them cried for this life changing point. Whereas the villagers from Red Stone Village who were laughing at Ava and her family were shocked and frightened. Some of them wanted to visit Ava and her family at night, but they were rejected by Ava. She had nothing to miss in this village... Next, she would wait until her mother and grandmother were settled down and then she would go to the big city to work hard and also to follow Joseph's footsteps. In this way, she could visit and play with Chloe more often. On this night, Ava was only grateful to Chloe and Joseph. At 10 o'clock that night, Joseph and Chloe got back to the Parry family. After Paige took Chloe out of the car, Chloe soon fell asleep. After changing Chloe's pajamas and covering her with the quilt, Paige went to the balcony and chatted with Joseph. "Honey, when are we going to Usmit?" On the balcony, Paige and Joseph stood side by side. She asked while enjoying the comfortable night wind. Joseph thought for a moment and said, "It's up to you. I'm not in a hurry. When you have settled everything then we can go, or we can go back to Oplen. Didn't your parents and Serena want to go too?" She looked at Joseph affectionately and said, "Then let's go tomorrow. There's nothing to settle..." "Tomorrow?" Joseph looked at her in surprise and asked, "Er, why are you in a hurry more than me?" She took a deep breath, closed her eyes, and raised her head, saying, "Because I don't want to just be your pretty wife. I also want to work hard, work harder, and try to be a good wife too..." Joseph smiled and said, "You are already my good wife now. Paige, I won't have high requirements on you. You can go to work if you like. I won't ask you to do much, I just want you to be happy." Paige nodded, then pouted her tiny mouth and said, "Yes, but I will definitely work hard. Usmit is the most developed city in Frogua, there are too many beautiful women there. If I am not outstanding enough, what should I do if you are taken away by another woman?" "Er..." Joseph rubbed his temples speechlessly and said, "Haha, Paige, you know, I am not that kind of person. We are married and I am your husband. And I only love you in this life..." Paige burst into laughter and looked at Joseph, who was a little anxious. Then she took a deep breath and said, "Forget it, I won't tease you anymore. But Joseph, in fact, even if you don't tell me that we are going to live in Usmit in the future, I intend to go there as well..." Joseph frowned and asked, "Hmm? What do you mean?" The smile on Paige's face disappeared, and a trace of reminiscence appeared in her eyes. She said, "Because before you, there was another person who told me the same thing. Usmit is a city where you pursue your dreams. That person is my senior. She is one year older than me. Her name is Leng Yijun. Back then there were two recognized goddesses in our university, she was the other one, other than me. Perhaps it was because we were both goddesses in university, so our relationship was very good. She also took good care of me..." Paige paused for a moment before continuing, "When she was doing her internship during her fourth year, she went to Usmit. At that time, she always told me about all kinds of things in Usmit. Gradually, I fell in love with that city. However, when I had Chloe, I gave up dream. Last night when you went to Usmit, I called her because I was worried about you. She's still at Usmit and has fulfilled her dream..." After saying that, she turned around and looked at Joseph seriously. She said in a serious tone, "So, honey, I don't want to lose to her. I also want to try my best to see the scenery on the higher ground on my own, instead of standing behind you forever. I also want to let the just a pretty woman, or some girls that kidnap you with a child!" "Joseph, I don't want that. I really don't want..." Ya Yun looked at Joseph with a complicated look in her eyes. The man in front of her, her husband, was so powerful that she felt inferior when standing in front of him, because she didn't know anything at all. She didn't want to stay in Oplen City anymore. Everyone there knew that she was the hostess of the Hundred Cities Wedding. She wanted to go to Usmait City, where not many people knew her and her identity... She wanted to become stronger and better so that she could match Joseph...

Chapter 81

Paige stood on the balcony, standing quietly against the night wind. Her long hair fluttered in the wind, making her exceedingly beautiful. Joseph stood opposite her, turned around, and looked at her. He couldn't help but feel touched. It turned out that this woman was so ambitious in the bottom of her heart, but a strange smile appeared in his heart. It would not be easy for his wife to catch up with him. At the same time, at the borders of the biggest countries in Smiycia, it was completely a deser. The desert was thousands of miles long, extending from Smiycia to the coastline of the ocean. Since this was the borderline of the two big countries, its management was not strict in many places. And this vast desert had always been a place where the desperados are active.

There were many dirty and illegal transactions carried out here, all were earning ten times or even a hundred times more profit. Right now, an armed yellow Hummer rushed into the road from the desert in the distance. As soon as it appeared, it sped toward the western coastline. (This novel will be daily updtaed at)There were eight armed Hummer, the front and rear of the vehicles were guarded by the most elite forces of the Outer Region of Frogua. Every soldier was covered with a sense of solemn discipline, and the aura on their body was at the level of a Semi God of War. While in the Hummer in the middle of the motorcade, a man and a woman were sitting inside. The man was a white-haired old man with a square face and his body was always full of high fighting spirit. But currently his face was a little pale and there was a trace of dried blood on the corner of his mouth. Because yesterday night, he personally killed an assassin that was at the level of God of War and he was seriously injured. At this moment, he would groan from time to time even sitting on the chariot. And this old man, who also had the strength of the God of War, was Charles Dawson who was in charge of the Outer Region in Frogua! He was ordered to come from Fofluidor to escort a person a few days ago.

The person escorted by Charles was a tall woman who was sitting opposite to him, holding a notebook tightly in her hands. The woman was dressed in a suit, with long hair, an oval face, and fair skin. She was very beautiful. However, the most extraordinary part of this women was not just her beauty but her brain. Yes, she was the beautiful and genius scientist that was currently famous in the technology field in Smiycia, her research expertised in artificial intelligence and integrated chip and she personally owned hundreds of international patents. She was Yin Chaoge from the Yin family in Usmait of Frogua. A year ago, after Yin Chaoge made a breakthrough in some specific field, she was determined to return to the Frogua and make some contributions to her own country. However, her return to the country was full of obstacles. The forces in the Outer Region would not allow a genius like her to return to Frogua so easily while she held hundreds of patents. The forces in the Outer Region first tempted Yin Chaoge with all kinds of benefits, such as giving her various privileges, providing her permanent residence, investing millions of money for her to build a research laboratory and so on. However, Yin Chaoge was not moved at all, and she was determined to return to her country. Then the foreign forces finally tore off the mask of hypocrisy and began to imprison her. She was locked up in her own villa. And of course due to a certain reason, they only used ordinary people to guard her. However, they arranged a God of War-level killer to watch over the villa where Yin Chaoge lived. It showed the significance of Yin Chaoge to the Outer Region forces. However, the military of Frogua did not ignore this at all. After many preparations, they made a rescue plan for Yin Chaoge. Originally, there was a God of War in Smiycia, and a few days ago, they even arranged the original God of War from Fofluidor, who was among the top of the God of War, Charles Dawson to support them too.

Charles didn't disappoint everyone. After he arrived in Smiycia, he quickly cooperated with some local forces in the country and rescued Yin Chaoge last night. Then he took Yin Chaoge and escaped for more than a thousand miles overnight. However, in the battle last night, he was seriously injured because he wanted to end the battle quickly... At this time, Charles's face had begun to turn pale, and his aura had begun to decline... Yin Chaoge who was sitting opposite of him looked at Charles with a worried expression. She looked at the old War God who had fought for Frogua for this whole life. There was a hint of pity in her eyes as she worriedly said, "Mr. Dawson, how are your injuries? Why don't we find a place to rest?(This novel will be daily updated at) Your injuries can't be delayed any longer..." The concern in Yin Chaoge's heart grew even more intense. Other than concern, she was also deeply shocked. She was astonished by Charles's rescue last night. In order to save her, he had sacrificed dozens of most outstanding soldiers last night, while he himself as the commander-in-chief was also seriously injured. However, whether it was Charles or those soldiers who sacrificed their lives, they did not retreat at all while facing strong enemies. Even if they had to die, they had to clear the way for Yin Chaoge! All of them were extremely outstanding, some were even very young, they could have had a bright future as a soldier, but they had sacrificed in front of her one after another... This made her deeply moved... At this moment, Charles waved his hand and said, "There's no need for that! I'm fine, I can still hold on. Two hundred miles later we'll reach the coastline. There's a boat waiting for us there. When we get there and leave Smiycia, then only we're considered safe. I hope that nothing will happen to the last part of the journey..." Charles frowned and looked outside. Before coming here, he knew that this mission was not simple and would be very difficult. In fact, he had been mentally prepared. But when he was rescuing Yin Chaoge last night, he found that things were not as simple as he thought. The forces at the Outer Region showed very high importance to Yin Chaoge. Right now, there of fighters chasing after them, there was also a God of War from Frogua Kingdom who was blocking them and giving them time to escape. "Increase the speed! Hurry up..." Charles looked at the golden sand all over the sky outside, and his eyelids were twitching. In fact, the speed of the motorcade had reached two hundred kilometers per hour, it was already very fast. However, he still felt that it was slow, because of their opponents, they had sent out one after another fighters that were at God of War level. (This novel will be daily updated at)Now there were only two hundred miles from the safe place. According to the current speed, it would take an hour to reach there, but he always felt that something bad would happen. As they were approaching closer to the safe place, the bad feeling in his heart became stronger and stronger... "I hope that there will not be any accidents during this final part of the journey.." Joseph muttered in his heart. As his voice fell, the entire motorcade sped up wildly again. 2

The next moment, just as the motorcade was about to speed up, a violent explosion suddenly happened on the road ahead. The road that was dozens of meters long was directly blown up into the sky. Then, around the explosion, numerous foreign killers with powerful and fully armed auras appeared. Among them, there were two strong men at the level of God of War, who were now staring at the motorcade where Charles and Yin Chaoge were at with cold and bloodthirsty eyes! "Turn! Turn around! Quick!" When Charles saw this, he immediately roared. Then the whole team turned and went into the desert next to them. But in the desert, the car couldn't drive at all and soon they fell into it. Moreover, the vehicle at the forefront of the team was too close to the explosion point, so it didn't have time to turn around and directly went into the sea of fire. While the chariot was passing by the two God of War level killers, they drew out their sharp alloy long knives and slashed them directly at the waist of the chariot. The soldiers on the chariot instantly died, and then their bodies were thrown into the sea of fire. The explosion sounded again from a distance, and the soldiers on the first chariot were instantly killed, without leaving any body behind. While the long knives of the two foreign God of War level killers were dripping with blood, the blood of the Frogua's soldiers. "No... Yin Chaoge, who was sitting in the middle of the chariot, looked at the tragic scene. Her eyes were red and her tears fell instantly. At this moment, the two God of War killers standing on the road yelled at Charles, "Mr. Charles Dawson, the seventh commander of the Outer Region of Frogua, please accept our battle challenge!" Charles's eyes narrowed and he took a deep breath. With a solemn expression, he grabbed the saber beside him and was about to get out of the car. However, he was stopped by Yin Chaoge in the next moment. Yin Chaoge shook her head at Charles with tears streaming down her face. "Mr. Dawson, I don't want to leave anymore. You can go. (This novel will be daily updated at)Take the soldiers who are still alive with you. You have done too much for me. Don't go out to fight anymore. No..." What Yin Chaoge said was true. Charles was seriously injured, and he really couldn't fight anymore. Charles paused, looked back at Yin Chaoge deeply, and said solemnly, "Don't be afraid, kid. I am a person who has been buried in the grave. The current Frogua is different from ours back then. The current Frogua needs juniors like you more. Kid, you must be strong..."

Then, Charles got out of the chariot, closed the door, and said in a low voice to the soldiers on the motorcade, "Later, I'll kill one of them with all my strength and try to hold on to the other one, you'll need to break out of this situation with all your strength! There's only one hour left. You must send Miss Yin to a safe place and retreat! You must, at all costs, even if you all die, you must complete the task for me! Do you hear me?" "Yes! General!" The remaining soldiers' eyes were all red. They surrounded the chariot that Yin Chaoge was riding, waiting for an opportunity to break through! While Charles held his long saber tightly and walked towards the two foreign God of War assassins with a pale face... "Haha.. Mr. Dawson, you're old. This is no longer your era, and you're also seriously injured, so you're no match for us. I didn't expect that we would be able to kill another God of War from the Outer Region of Frogua today! Haha... I'm so excited even just by thinking about it..." One of the God of War assassins sneered at Charles and said. "Cut the crap. Kill him!" The other God of War killer shouted coldly. With a long saber in his hand, he rushed to Charles in an instant and rushed to kill him. The other God of War killer joined the battle in an instant.

*Bang, bang, bang..." Charles wanted to kill one of them with all his strength, but he found that he couldn't do it. Two of them were more powerful than he had imagined, and they were also at the peak of the God of War. Such a person would be difficult for him to kill even on his heyday, let alone now he's seriously injured.

The next moment, Charles was kicked away by one of the assassins. He spat out a mouthful of blood in the air, it was even mixed with pieces of flesh and blood. His aura also dropped instantly... *Break through! Go! Let's go..." When Charles was fighting, he knew that he might not be able to hold off these two assassins today. But the task had not been completed, so he planned to use his last body to hold off them for a period of time, and then buy time for Yin Chao... "Ha... could you leave?" One of the assassin shouted coldly. He raised his saber and once again charged toward Charles. Bang... A light sound was heard, and Charles's alloy saber was cut into two pieces. There was also a deep wound on his chest. When he wanted to fight back, the second assassin had rushed over and struck him with all his strength again... Puff... Charles spat out a mouthful of blood and retreated backwards.. (This novel will be daily updated at)"Mr. Dawson!!" Yin Chao screamed desperately in the chariot. The tires of the chariot under her began to rotate wildly in the same place, but the chariot was too heavy and the sand was too deep. They couldn't move at all... "Sigh..." Charles, who had been sent flying again and vomited blood, was half kneeling on the ground. He let out a heavy sigh in his heart. He failed in the end. His injuries were too severe and the opponents were two killers at the same level as him. It seemed that he and Yin Chao both would not make it to leave... "Sigh, I hope I can take one of them with me before I die." Charles suddenly pointed at his body a few times. He wanted to make the final attack and the last ultimate strike before he died. The next moment, suddenly there was a sound of a long sword piercing into flesh. Just ten meters away from him, one of the assassins who was at the God of War level looked at him coldly, but his body had been cut into half by the sword... "What! How is this possible!(This novel will be daily updated at)" Another assassin saw his partner suddenly being killed. He retreated instantly and frantically. At this moment, Charles who was half kneeling on the ground and was about to finish his last breath, was also shocked. Such an expert at the same level as him and also at the peak of the God of War was being cut into half by a sword? In the next moment, a strong figure with a height of nearly two meters, whose aura was far beyond that of a God of War, slowly walked out of the desert from the distance. Before he arrived, the monstrous aura on his body had already swept over. "Who... who are you?" The remaining assassin was incomparably shocked as he asked the mysterious expert who had just appeared.

The mysterious expert was dressed in a black robe. He was nearly two meters tall and had half a mask on his face. "I'm one of the four kings of the Dragon Temple. My name is Slaughter!" The mysterious expert said slowly. Then, his aura, which was far beyond that of a God of War expert increased again...
