Chapter 88

After they finished lunch, Paige went shopping with Leng Yijun. When she was tired, she went to a coffee shop to find a quiet place to chat. In the afternoon, Leng Yijun took Paige to many places. They went to the most prosperous and busy street of Usmait, and also to the headquarters building of the Junlin Group. At about five o'clock in the afternoon, when she personally stood in front of the Junlin Building, which was around four hundred meters tall, she was extremely shocked. She also admired the man of the same age as her. It was really stunning. Was... was this Junlin Group? It was really amazing. They built their headquarters on the most prosperous part of the city center of Usmait. Paige sighed with emotion. The Junlin Group gave her the feeling of a king in the business world, looking down at the whole Usmait, it was so stunning! Leng Yijun nodded in agreement and said, "Well, it's very stunning. That legend was also like a king. It's a pity that we can't meet him." As she spoke, she couldn't help but look deeply at Paige. She was thinking about the mysterious husband of Paige beside her. Was it really him? That kind of aura and confidence was definitely not something that ordinary people could have... On that afternoon, when she was shopping with Paige, she also asked Paige a lot of things. But Paige didn't know much about Joseph's life of the five years at the Outer Region. She only knew that Joseph was fighting on the battlefield in the Outer Region. At this moment, Leng Yijun looked up at the towering Junlin Tower in front of her, she was even more confused. She suspected that Joseph was not the person but on the other hand, she suspected him. Was there really such a coincidence in this world? But if Joseph was really that person, then why did he go to the military? He was absolutely a genius in the business world, why did he leave the business and join the army? It did not make sense, so Leng Yijun was also confused. Fortunately, she didn't think too much about it. At this moment, she was shopping with Paige, and it was almost night. So both of them went to the night market of Usmait and had dinner.

dinner, since she didn't have any job, and she didn't have to go to work today. She had lots of free time. Since Paige just reached Usmait, it was as if the door to a new world had been opened. She was very excited to shop on the street. Unconsciously, she shopped with Leng Yijun until 10 o'clock at night, and then reluctantly said goodbye to her. It was the same for Joseph. After listening to Alpha's report at noon, he went out to arrange

An hour later, at eleven o'clock at night, on a sparsely populated road in the eastern part of Usmait City, Joseph parked his car and began to take a walk alone. The moment he got out from the car, dozens of top killers slowly appeared in the darkness behind him. After Joseph began to walk, they quietly followed him. In fact, these killers were also perturbed, because they also got the news that Joseph, who was once a God of War in the Outer Region, was very powerful. But assassins would never fight head-on. They would just kill silently, and this time they gathered a lot of killers together, they were strong. They felt that with their dozens of killers at the Semi God of War level, they could still kill a God of War!

Moreover, these killers were all psychopaths, they were very excited about the task tonight. After all, these people were only half a step away from the God of War level. However, they would never understand that the difference of half a step was so huge. If dozens of Semi God of War killers could kill a God of War, then killers at God of War level would not have such high authority and status all over the world. Of course, those who had not reached that level would never understand the horror of the God of War. Especially when the Gods of War from different regions were different. For instance, the God of War of Frogua in the Inner Region was generally not as strong as that of the God of War in Outer Region. Dozens of extremely powerful killers followed in the darkness behind him, but Joseph, who was in front of them, was still walking forward as if he didn't notice. More than ten minutes later, there was no one on the street anymore. Suddenly, three black luxury cars stopped in front of him. The door opened, and a middle-aged man with a square face and a superior aura came out. The man was Sinclair, the second uncle of Joseph, and the granduncle of the Dawson family in Vowhye. After he got out of the car, more than ten strong bodyguards got out of the two cars behind him. Joseph looked at Sinclair. Sinclair also looked at Joseph, whom he hadn't seen for five years. After these five years, when he found out that his nephew was already a God of War, he felt very thankful. "Fernado... I'm sorry for making you suffer all these years. The Dawson family owes you. I apologize on behalf of the Dawson family..." Sinclair said to Joseph with a complicated look. Joseph looked at Sinclair. His granduncle had a good character and did not fight for power with the main branch like the other big families. His granduncle really did everything for the rise of the Dawson family. But what did the Dawson family have to do with Joseph Joseph ter hearing this. Then he looked at Sinclair and said, "I'm sorry. Please call me Joseph. Although my family name is also Dawson, please make it clear that I have nothing to do with the Dawson family in Vowhye." Hearing this, Sinclair opened his mouth slightly and wanted to say something, but he didn't know what to say for a while. After a long silence, he sighed deeply. "Alas." Then, Sinclair fell silent. After a long silence, he raised his head again and looked at Joseph with a complicated expression. However, just as he was about to speak, his face suddenly darkened and he roared at Joseph, "Be careful! There are assassins! Before Sinclair could finish his words, there were dozens of top-level assassins in the dark behind Joseph. They held sharp blades in their hands and rushed toward Joseph. They were eager for blood. They were going to kill the God of War! However, after hearing Sinclair's reminder, Joseph did not respond and did not even move. He still said to Sinclair, "Ha, is it strange? Five years ago, when you chased me out of the family, didn't you also send people to hunt me down?" Hearing this, Sinclair frowned. It seemed that he did not understand what Joseph said. But now was not the time to care about those things. He quickly shouted to his subordinates behind him, "Stop them!" But before the men behind Sinclair took action, Alpha 1, who was dressed in white, appeared behind the assassins who tried to assassinate Joseph. Then his body couldn't be seen anymore. The speed was extremely fast. Under the street lamp, one could only see blood splashing, but not Alpha 1's figure. A dozen seconds later, when the last killer, who had rushed to the side of Joseph, broke his neck, Alpha 1's figure reappeared in front of everyone. At this point, the dozens of killers hired by Lin Feiling behind Joseph were all killed! Alpha 1 was still in his snow-white clothes, without a speck of dust. He kept his knife and stood quietly behind Joseph with a smile. "It's not satisfying. They're all too weak. It'll not be fun even if they send another hundred assassins of this level. Alpha 1 was standing behind Joseph with an indifferent smile. However, his smile made Sinclair, who was standing opposite Joseph, and his subordinates felt a chill run down their backs.

“God-like warriors!” Sinclair was shocked and his eyes were wide open. His eyes were filled with disbelief and extreme shock as he looked at Alpha 1.

“Ha, Mr. Sinclair must be joking. I’m just a guard of Mr. Dawson. I can’t be the God of War of Frogua and Mr. Sinclair, your Dawson family in Vowhye chased Mr. Dawson out of the Dawson family five years ago and sent people to hunt him down all the way. Now you know that Mr. Dawson is the God of War in Outer Region, so you want him to go back? Let me ask you, is there such an easy thing in the world? Or, where do you get the confidence to think that Mr. Dawson will return to your Dawson family? Huh?” Alpha 1 said sarcastically to Sinclair with a cold and indifferent smile. “Thump, thump, thump...” Hearing this, Sinclair couldn’t help but took a few steps back. Just now, he saw Alpha 1 kill dozens of top assassins with his own eyes. With such combat capability, he was definitely a God of War. Such an expert with the strength of a God of War was just a guard of his nephew! A mistake! The news is definitely inaccurate! Joseph was definitely not an ordinary God of War! Absolutely not! How could an expert who had a God of War as subordinate an ordinary God of War? Even the first head of the Dawson family, Charles, didn’t have a God of War expert under his command! For a moment, he looked at Joseph. Looking at this nephew whom he had not seen for five years, he felt so unfamiliar. Joseph saw that Sinclair was too shocked to speak, so he nodded and said, “Sir, what my brother said is right. Why should I go back? Or can you give me a reason?” Hearing this, Sinclair opened his mouth and said in a weak voice, “Joseph, my father said that as long as you go back, he will help you to deal with the military and let you return to the military. He wants you to be the God of War of Frogua again.” Sinclair’s weak voice told him what the Dawson family could offer unconfidently. But when Joseph heard this, he smiled disdainfully. Then he took out his mobile phone and video call Terrance in front of Sinclair. Soon after the video call was connected, the face of Terrance appeared in front of Joseph and Sinclair. Sinclair’s expression changed when he saw Terrance. He quickly bent down and bowed. Just as he was about to pay his respects, Joseph stopped him. “No need to rush. Let me talk to Terrance first.” Joseph stopped Sinclair and said. Then, Joseph said with a smile under Sinclair’s shock, “Haha, Terrance, I’m sorry to disturb you so late. Just now, someone told me that he wanted to help me to deal with military so that I can return to the position of God of War and regain the power of God of War. So I want to ask Terrance, do I need someone to deal it for me?” Hearing this, the Terrance on the other side of video call was also stunned. Then he saw Sinclair standing beside Joseph. Then he smiled and said, “Joseph, the God of War, what you had done in Aglela was a small matter. Those people should be kill, it didn’t matter that you killed them. In military of Frogua, several leaders and I don’t blam to punish yourself anymore. As long as you want to come back, the gate of military is open for you at any time. You are welcome to come back at any time. Naturally, you don’t need others to help you to deal with it, haha. “Well, sorry to disturb you, Terrance. You should rest early.” Joseph thanked him and hung up the phone. After he hung up the video call, he looked at Sinclair with a faint smile and said, “So, sir, do you think I need you to deal it for me now?” “Er... you, me.” Sinclair’s mouth was wide open, but he was already extremely shocked deep inside. It seemed that Joseph left the military not because he was fired, but because he chose to leave by himself? Moreover, the number one commander of the military of Frogua was waiting for him to go back at any time! Did he f*cking need his father’s help? Did he need their help? Is this a joke? As long as he agreed, he can go back at any time. Although Sinclair was shocked, he still wanted Joseph to go back. So he said cautiously, "Joseph, even if you can return to the military at any time, you still need money to live your life now. I heard that you have just got married." "Joseph, as long as you go back, I will give you a quarter of the Dawson family's shares! What do you think?" "Hahaha." Joseph laughed without saying anything, while Alpha 1 laughed out loud.

The next moment, Alpha 1 pointed to the Junlin Building, which was brightly lit and around four hundred meters high in the distance. He said to Sinclair, "Sir, how much is a quarter of your family's shares? Is it more than the Junlin Group? Oh, by the way, the news about your Dawson family is really inaccurate. Let me remind you. Do you really not know that the entire Junlin Group belongs to Mr. Dawson?" "What? How, how could this be possible? The Junlin Group?" Bang! The next moment, Sinclair fell to the ground. He was about to be struck dumb. Joseph could return to the military of Frogua at any time, and he had the Junlin Group, which was richer than his whole family. What could Sinclair and the Dawson family do to gain Joseph's favor? At this moment, Sinclair was too stunned and surprised.

"But Mr. Sinclair, there is nothing impossible in this world. Boss, as the first successor of the Dawson family, was abandoned by your family and expelled from the family, wasn't he? To expel a young master, who could be called the expert of God of War from Outer Region, from the family, your Dawson family is really powerful." Alpha 1 sneered with sarcasm. Dawson family was an eye-opener for him. Because even when Joseph didn't go to the Outer Region battlefield five years ago, he also had the Junlin Group, which had infinite potential in Usmaït. The Junlin Group was going to be listed. Besides, if the Dawson family hadn't expelled Joseph from the family and sent people to kill him, Fu Junlin wouldn't have dared to betray him. He wouldn't have the courage to do so. In that case, the Junlin Group, which was about to be listed, would have succeeded. However, the Dawson family was short-sighted and didn't care about it at all. Now that the Dawson family saw the success of Joseph, they wanted him to go back? Ha, how could there be such a good thing in this world? Seeing that Sinclair was still silent, Alpha 1 continued to provoke him. "Mr. Sinclair, have you forgotten what the Dawson family has done to boss? Five years ago, you sent killers to kill him for three days. Even tonight, your Dawson family sent you to negotiate with boss while sending people to assassinate him? Dozens of top killers. Your Dawson family is really generous! Do you really think boss is a pushover? Well. "Buzz!" As Alpha 1 spoke, an ice-cold murderous intent suddenly released out from his body and instantly locked onto the pale-faced Sinclair. On the other hand, Joseph, stood quietly by the side and did not say anything else. He was too lazy to say anything to the Dawson family. Even though his second uncle had a good character, that was for the benefit of Dawson family! It was not that his second uncle was really a good person. He had not forgotten it. When he was chased out of the family five years ago, his second uncle and the others all acquiesced. At this moment, when he heard Alpha I's words and the phone call between Joseph and Terrance, Sinclair's heart was suddenly filled with infinite regret. Joseph was the Outer Region God of War. Moreover, in the most developed city of Frogua, Usmaï, he owned the top group, Junlin Group, which was even better than the whole Dan family! If Joseph could return to the Dawson family, the Dawson family would be able to revive, or even go further. At that time, the Dawson family would have two powerful Outer Region God of War. The Dawson family, which had only been established for a few decades, could even compete with those aristocratic families, which had been passed down for hundreds of years. But now, it was gone. There was nothing left. Initially, the Dawson family had a true talent! And at this moment, Joseph had been chased out by them five years ago! Sinclair felt extremely regretful and had a complicated feelings. He looked at Joseph with a complicated expression for a while, and then said painfully, "Joseph, I really didn't know that the Dawson family sent people to kill you five years ago. It should be done that b*tch, Lin Feiling. I believe that no matter how your father cut off his relationship with you, he will not send a killer to kill you... Joseph, don't misunderstand." "But..." Joseph sneered when he heard that. He looked at Sinclair as if he was looking at a fool and said slowly, "Mr. Sinclair, do you really think that everyone else is a fool? Have you forgotten that Lin Feiling was only a dancer? Now tell me, with her strength and connection, how could she send a group of killers to kill me five years ago? And tonight, many of these killers have achieved the Semi God of War level. Tell me, if it weren't for the power of the Dawson family in Vowhye, how could a dancer find so many powerful killers?" Mr. Sinclair's face suddenly changed. Subconsciously, he tried to refute, but when he was about to say something, he couldn't say anything. He could only stare blankly at the corpse of the killers behind Joseph. They were now being cleaned up by a group of mysterious people. That's right. With Lin Feiling's strength alone, it was impossible for her to hire so many killers. She must had helped by the Dawson family in Vowhye. At this moment, Sinclair, the second head of the Dawson family who tried to persuade Joseph to return to the Dawson family, had nothing to say.

The next moment, Joseph took a deep breath and looked at Sinclair coldly. He said, "Mr. Sinclair, please go back. The Dawson family has sent people to kill me again and again. Will I continue to endure it? Go back and tell William that I don't want to have anything to do with him and the Dawson family this time, but since you forced me, I may go to the Dawson family soon." After Joseph finished speaking, he didn't say anything else. At this moment, Alpha 3 appeared behind Alpha 1. He handed Alpha 1 an USB and nodded at him. Alpha 1 then threw the USB stick into Sinclair's hand with a smile and said, "Since the Dawson family is useless, we'll help you to check it out. There's some information about the current mistress of the Dawson family. Of course, it's incomplete. Mr. Sinclair, the mistress of the Dawson family, had sent people to assassinate my boss again and again. This matter will not be settled so easily. You go back to the Dawson family now. I want to see how your Dawson family deal with this matter on the news in three days! Otherwise, I'll bring a few of my brothers to the Dawson family in Vowhye. I'll also find dozens of powerful Outer Region brothers to see if your Dawson family can stop us." Alpha I continued with a disdainful sneer, "Of course, your Dawson family can set up traps for us at any time. If you don't deal with that woman in three days, I will kill you all. You have three days to prepare, and you can also ambush and kill us. You can use any means you have. If I can't deal with it, I lose!" The sneer and disregard of Alpha I were stronger. Not to mention that Charles was not there now, so what if he was there? The Four Divine Kings of the Dragon Temple didn't even need to make a move. Even if he took Alpha 9 and the other ten Gods of War to go there, the Dawson family would also be destroyed completely. Mr. Sinclair was shocked. At this moment, he really felt the killing intent of Alpha 1 and the coldness of Joseph. Yes, at this moment, he understood. If he didn't give an explanation to Joseph about this matter today, the real dragon of the Dawson family, who was chased out by them, would attack them back! No mercy! Because they had sent killers to kill them again and again. Was it possible that they didn't fight back? There is no such good thing in the world! "Lin Feiling! You ruined our Dawson family's long-term plan! You deserve to die! You deserve to die, ah!" At this moment, Sinclair's heart was filled with rage. It wasn't that he was furious because he was threatened by Alpha 1. He was furious because Lin Feiling had destroyed the future of the Dawson family! "And William, you big fool! F*ck, you forced your own son to leave because of a sl*t! You're a good-for-nothing! You're a trash!" Sinclair was roaring wildly in his heart, and the depression in his heart was getting stronger and stronger. At the next moment, Sinclair knew that the chance had passed, and it was impossible to persuade Joseph tonight. So he could only look at Joseph seriously and said, "Joseph, I'm sorry, on behalf of the Dawson family, I apologize to you. We are not aware of many things as well. But don't worry, we will certainly admit some things! I will rush back to Vowhye tonight! Three days? No! I will give you an explanation tomorrow!" After Sinclair finished speaking, he got in the car with a group of subordinates. The car turned around and then rushed in the direction of Usmait Airport. Sinclair had already made up his mind to rush back to the Dawson family as soon as possible. Before the sun rose tomorrow, he would definitely kill the bitch who harmed the Dawson family. "Boss, you're still too kind. If I were you, I would bring ten God of War with me tomorrow and block their gate." Alpha 1 watched and said depressingly as Sinclair and the others got into their cars and left. He really felt that it was not worth it for Joseph! The Dawson family had sent two groups of killers to kill him. Moreover, over the five years when Joseph was in the Outer Region battlefield, they didn't show up at all, as if Joseph had died. Now that Joseph had come back, he had only exposed a little of his identity in Oplen. The Dawson family was like a shark that had smelled blood and pounced on him. It was really disgusting! Alpha 1 thought of killing them directly. Joseph frowned slightly, took a deep breath, and said, "Forget it, this is the last memory of my mother and I. Let's do it for one last time, and I don't want to let them go completely. I also understand that there are some things that I can't just let it pass. If you don't fight for it, they won't keep it for you, even a little bit. Since that's the case, when I go back to Vowhye, I'll go to the Dawson family. Some things should belong to me. I want to take them back. For example, the place where my mother lived..." As Joseph spoke, there was a trace of pain in his eyes. His mother was no longer alive.

Seeing that Joseph was sad, Alpha 1 didn't say anything else. He couldn't bear it. Yes, those who knew the identity of Joseph envied him very much and felt that he was very powerful. However, few people knew that Joseph suffered a lot. When he was fighting at the Outer Region, Joseph liked to fight alone, or even crazily, he attacked a top organization alone. When he was quiet, he was completely silent, but when he showed his claws and teeth, he was a nightmare of the enemy! A nightmare that would never wake up! To some extent, Joseph was an extremely contradictory person. For example, when he returned to Frogua this time, he would give everything he had for Paige and Chloe. He would bear everything by himself. No matter how close he was to death at the Outer Region Battlefield, no matter how hard he tried to escape from death, he would not reveal anything to Paige. That was because he could only see how much Paige had suffered, he had never thought that he went through a lot these years too.

After a while, just when Alpha 1 was about to say something to Joseph, a black BMW suddenly came from distance. The lights were very bright, and Alpha 1 subconsciously tilted his head. "Hmm?" When Joseph was illuminated by the lights, he couldn't help but look over there. The lights were very strong in the middle of the night. However, just as Joseph turned his head to look, a beautiful woman with an unique temperament on the driver's seat of the BMW also looked at her. Coincidentally, the woman who was driving the BMW was Leng Yijun who had just had lunch with Joseph at noon. She had seen several cars parked there from distance, and some people were discussing something. When she was close enough, she saw several Bentley that rode by Sinclair and the others. But these were not the most shocking things for her. At this moment, the most shocking thing in her mind was that she saw Joseph here! What was his identity? Why did those people who drove luxury cars seem to be very respectful to him? At this moment, when she drove past Joseph, she was very confused. She couldn't stop the car directly so she drove past Joseph. One or two minutes later, she turned around and went back. However, she couldn't see Joseph anymore. "Did I see it wrongly?" Leng Yijun thought and got out of the car. She stood where Joseph had stood earlier and frowned deeply.

In five minutes, after Leng Yijun drove away again, Joseph and Alpha 1 emerged from the darkness. When Alpha 1 saw Leng Yijun's car leaving, he said, "Joseph, do you know her?" Joseph nodded and said, "Well, I kind of know her. Her name is Leng Yijun, Paige's senior and good friend. We had lunch together at noon as well. You may run into this woman later, but be careful, this woman is very intelligent. She may have suspected something, but it doesn't really matter. Alright, let's go..." Alpha 1 nodded and left with Joseph without saying anything. Meanwhile, Sinclair, who was on his way to Usmaït airport, was already giving a disapproving look. He was also suffering from a great deal of regret. After he had read the flash drive Alpha 1 threw at him, he had discovered a lot of information about Lin Feiling's cooperation with the Killer Organization. There were even videos from five years ago! (This novel will be daily updated at)The moment Sinclair saw this information, he understood that reuniting Joseph with the Dawson family was almost impossible. To be fair, he would never go back if he were Joseph. However, that was a real God of War from the Outer Region, who was less than 30 years old! He was also followed by other Masters of God of War! He was even more powerful than Eason, the grandson of Sebastian, who was in charge of Vowhye! With all his power and authority, Joseph has surpassed the Dawson family's Mr Charles! Not to mention the Dawson family, even placing him in the Vowhye, or in those gentry that have been inherited for hundreds of years, Joseph was undoubtedly a real dragon! This real dragon has now been driven away by the Dawson family. Sinclair sighed deeply, and felt that the depression in his heart was about to drive him crazy. It was an endless regret, as if Joseph was still a part of the Dawson family, then they would definitely rise again in the future and even be promoted to a gentry family within ten years! However, everything was gone. Joseph was favored by Terrance and other leading commanders in the Frogua Military, and they were waiting for his return at any moment. "As for money? Was Joseph still in need of money even though he owned the Junlin Group, which was ranked the top in Usmait? Oh no, I really did something wrong. Am I really have no chance at all? Even a little bit, just that little!" Sinclair was deeply regretful at the moment. His subordinates were equally shocked and confused. If Joseph could return to the Dawson family and serve as the head of the family, how prestigious would the Dawson family be in the future? Surely they would also be able to enjoy a lifetime of glory. Ten minutes later, Sinclair arrived at Usmait Airport as fast as he could. Without any delay, he got on a plane and flew back to Vowhye overnight. While seated in the first-class cabin, Sinclair took out his cell phone and called his father, Timothy, "We're all wrong. All of us in the Dawson family did something wrong five years ago. You can now gather all the top brass and wait for me in the family hall, as I'm already on a plane heading back to Vowhye. Also, please do not ask me why, I will be right there soon, we will discuss everything when I get back." "Alas." Sinclair ended the call after completing his message, instead of waiting for his father to reply. Timothy also appeared to have aged ten years older in a flash. (This novel will be daily updtaed at)When Sinclair hung up the phone, Timothy was sitting in the study of the Dawson residence in Vowhye, frowning more tightly. He suddenly felt uneasy. In fact, before Sinclair called him, he went to contact Charles. Sadly, he was unable to reach Charles's dedicated phone line. Following a dozen consecutive dials, Charles's personal guard answered the phone. However, he was informed that Charles had been seriously injured a few days ago. He went unconscious last night after the injury suddenly backfired. Despite being in a coma, there is no imminent danger of death. As he was seriously injured this time and the hidden injury that he had left in his body last night had been triggered, so he fainted.

Timothy's heart sank. His brother was in a coma after such a big thing happened to the Dawson family. His son had just called him, and his son's tone was filled with endless decadentness. The bad feeling in his heart became more intense. Sinclair, in his call the day before, said, "Fernando was not in Oplen but went to Usmait. So, Sinclair went to find him. It's so strange that he's back so soon and is so disheveled. What happened to him in Usmait? What did he encounter?" Timothy's heart was sinking deeper.

Timothy felt that something was wrong the more he thought about it, and his eyelids started to jump. It was like that bad premonition would never leave him. His inclination had always been that something terrible might happen to the Dawson family. He no longer felt comfortable sitting at home at the moment. He got up and dressed and had someone drive him to the airport. He could not wait anymore, he had to see his son right away. He wanted to know what had happened. It was three o'clock in the morning when he arrived outside the airport in the western suburbs of Vowhye. Timothy finally waited for his son. He was shocked as soon as he saw Sinclair who was usually sharp and confident, was filled with a deep sense of decadence at the moment. "Hey, Dad. Let's talk in the car..." Sinclair took a deep breath, wanting to talk about Joseph's matter. His gaze then fell on his gray-haired and aged father. In the end, he just took a deep breath. (This novel will be daily updtaed at)"Well, okay... There's something I need to share with you too, something important." Timothy nodded in a confused way, and then he got into the car with Sinclair. Both of them had many things on their minds but they did not return to the Dawson family place. Instead, after leaving the airport for a few kilometers, they found a secluded and unoccupied place to stop. The decadence on Sinclair's face intensified as he lit a cigarette and took a deep drag inside the car. He looked at his father with an incomparably complicated expression and said: "Dad, my matter is more serious, it's better for you to speak first. What's happening on your side? Have you gotten in touch with Uncle Charles? Did something happen to him?" Timothy also took a deep breath, nodded, and opened the car window, saying: "Your uncle was seriously injured while on a mission a few days ago. That ended up making the hidden injury worse for him. He is now unconscious and is receiving treatment. Therefore, your uncle cannot return in a short time. Sinclair, you have to be prepared for the collapse of the Dawson family. Your uncle is too old and has been out on the battlefield all his life. I'm afraid that his painstaking efforts will be exhausted." "What? Dad, Uncle... He's... You mean he can't hold on any longer?" Sinclair dropped his cigarette and stared at Timothy with shock. Timothy nodded with a deep sigh and said: "It's inevitable that this day will come some day, won't it? Your Uncle Charles is almost in his 70s. If his strength of being God of War was not at its peak, I'm afraid he wouldn't have made it until this moment. This time, however, he was seriously injured and in a coma." Hearing this, Sinclair was stunned. He sat across from Timothy in a daze. After a long time, Sinclair opened his mouth and muttered, "Dad, do you think Dawson Family is going to disappear?(This novel will be daily updated at)" Hearing this, Timothy raised his eyebrows and looked at Sinclair and asked, "Dawson family won't die! Why did you say so?" "Fernando, no, now he is called Joseph." Sinclair said slowly. Timothy nodded and said, "Well, you went to Usmaith this time to find him, didn't you? What did he say? Will he return to the Dawson Family?" "Have you told him that as long as he agreed, I would help him to run the military even at the cost of my life and help him reclaim his position as God of War. Sinclair looked at his father in an extremely complicated manner and said, "Dad, do you know Terrance? The first commander of the Frogua military, who is in charge of Vowhye's military. Do you know that?" Even though Timothy did not know why Sinclair mentioned that person, he nodded and said: "Well, I know him. He is the second most powerful people in the Frogua military, just behind Sebastian. Since he has such high status it is nearly impossible to see him, no matter how hard I try." Sinclair nodded and said: "Yes, the truth is, even if we wanted to meet him, it was really not easy. But what if I said that three hours ago, Joseph started a video call with Terrance right in front of me? Terrance said that Joseph could return to the military at any time, ready to take on the role of God of War. Do you think that's true?" "What? How is this possible? Wasn't Joseph fired from the military?" Timothy looked at Sinclair with disbelief. Sinclair nodded bitterly: "Yes, Dad. That's why I called you earlier and told you we made a mistake. There was a problem with the information. Rather than Terrance and a few chiefs firing Joseph, it was Joseph himself who decided to leave the military from the beginning. He made this decision because he wanted to return to his family. The headquarters of the Frogua military never meant to let him leave! Including those people he killed in Apren City more than half a month ago, and they deserved to be killed."

Timothy is still a bit incredulous and said: "How is this possible? Even though Joseph is powerful, he's only 29 years old. Why is Terrance so impressed with him?" After Sinclair heard this, the bitterness in his eyes intensified. He shook his head bitterly and said: "No. You don't know how strong Joseph really is now! While he himself is an Outer Region's God of War, he still has subordinates that have the same God of War's strength as he does! Despite the fact that Uncle Charles is so strong, he doesn't have God of War-level subordinates under his control, does he? How could Joseph possibly not be appreciated?" "How could it be possible? Are you sure it is true?" Timothy's heart was in turmoil at the moment. Sinclair nodded bitterly:(This novel will be daily updaed at) "Well, it's true. Thus, people do not need help from us. He can go back whenever he wants. Still, I am certain that Joseph still has God of War-level authority in his hands, even now! Joseph's strength has now reached such a point that it is frightening. Do you know the Junlin Group, which ranks number one in Usmit? That belongs to him too!" As soon as he heard this, Timothy's head exploded like a thunderclap. When he suddenly stood up, he hit his head on the roof of the car. However, he did not feel any pain and did not pay much attention to it. Sinclair heaved a heavy sigh and said in agony, "That's why we're in the wrong, Dad. Joseph was thrown out of the Dawson family five years ago by a bunch of our family's senior executives. Many of us even agreed with them. We were wrong. Had we not been wrong, we would have been promoted to a powerful family. That was all gone. I'm afraid that we won't have another opportunity in the future. We've lost him." Bang! Timothy's brain went blank, and he fell to the seat feebly... His heart filled with regret.

As time passed, Timothy and Sinclair were silent in the limousine. Somehow, they both seem to have a feeling the Dawson family, which has been in Vowhye for decades and ranked among the top ten families, may collapse at any moment. Mr Charles, an Outer Region's God of War with powerful combat power, was seriously injured now. As for the new generation, Joseph, who was even categorised as the God of War, was driven out of the family by them. The Dawson Family's high-level officials who were still in Vowhye showed signs of separation now. Lin Feiling, a scheming wo mess around. If these situations went on, the Dawson family would soon sink. As Sinclair returned from Usmit, his heart had been desperate. Especially after hearing that Charles was seriously injured and unconscious, and that Lin Feiling, who had sent someone to assassinate Joseph, Sinclair felt that there was no hope for the Dawson family. In the end he really has nothing more to say. After a long while, Timothy took a deep breath. In a clenched fist, he looked out the window in the direction of the Dawson family and said: "50 years ago, the Dawson family arose from Frogua. We cannot compare to those who have inherited centuries of experience, hundreds of years of the gentry. Yet, we still have a shot at being one of Vowhye's top ten families! Our Dawson family unity is essential to this, and not internal strife! Currently, a b*tch is acting up in the Dawson family, Charles is in a coma, and the best young generation is driven out! How am I going to explain to Charles if he comes back? How can I not let him down? Timothy got out of his car and took a deep breath. In an instant his old body felt as if it had more power. His eyes also became incomparably sharp and firm. He said slowly: "The Dawson family will survive! Sinclair, notify all the elders of the Dawson family to assemble immediately. In addition, tell Dawson family's guards to surround the gate! Send some secret guards to go with me to kill someone!" Timothy's stuffed intent was overwhelming at the moment! Since Charles Dawson was not present at this critical time, he would be the one to stand up for the Dawson family! "Is dad gonna settle all the troubles and messes that happened in the Dawson family?"

Sinclair sat in the car, still in an extremely dejected mood. Having heard Timothy's fervent words, his heart was filled with a glimmer of hope. Yes, the Dawson family will live! How could it die? Sinclair thought to himself. Timothy continued to ask Sinclair: "Do you know why Joseph gave you the evidence that Lin Feiling was looking for someone to kill?" Sinclair had just told Timothy what had happened regarding the flash drive. Then, when Timothy asked him about it, he replied confusedly: "Joseph wants us to kill that b*tch?" Timothy nodded and said: "Yes, but not really! As you mentioned, Joseph has God of War level by his side now."

"If he wanted to kill Lin Feiling, how could it be that difficult? He is giving our Dawson family a face or a chance, a last chance!" Sinclair's body shuddered hard when he heard that. He raised his eyebrows to Timothy and asked, "A chance? Do you mean that there is a chance that Joseph will return to the Dawson family in the future?" Timothy shook his head and said, "I don't know. Many things aren't absolute in this world. Future events, in particular, are full of uncertainty. Nevertheless, even if there is no glimmer of hope now, it does not mean that it won't be there in the future! What we need to do now is to remove the thorn from Joseph's heart and let his concerns subside. As for his return, we'll talk about that later, after all, Dawson family owes him too much. Moreover, Charles will return some day." Hearing this, Sinclair took a deep breath. His eyes finally regained some vitality and his body restored some strength as well. He nodded heavily, and then began to quickly take out his mobile phone and mobilize the Dawson family's secret guards. 10 minutes later, the Dawson Mansion was surrounded by hundreds of the Dawson family's secret guards. As soon as they entered Dawson family, they surrounded William and Lin Feiling's rooms. Half an hour later, Timothy, Sinclair, with more than 300 powerful five-star secret guards, arrived at the entrance of an old nest of the Killer Organization that Lin Feiling came into contact with. As they approached the building, they discovered that all the assassins had already been killed. They were all dead, no one was left alive. So they rushed to another headquarters of Killer Organization's. The Dawson family has been operating in Vowhye for many years, and they still had a good grasp of where the killers were hiding. But when they arrived at the gate of the Killer Organization's headquarter where Lin Feiling came into contact with, they only saw the monstrous fire, as well as the corpses that were burned by the fire. "Let's go back to Dawson Family!" Timothy turned around and left after standing in front of the big fire for a while. Sinclair followed behind him. But at the moment they both turned around and wanted to leave, they both suddenly felt a burst of sorrow in their hearts, and the hair on their bodies stood up instantly. At the moment, Alpha 7 and Alpha 9 were standing at the top of a building behind them, wearing half white masks and clad in all white. The two of them narrowed their eyes and looked at Timothy and Sinclair, who were far away downstairs. Their eyes brim with a trace of murder. Yes, both labelled as God of War, Alpha 7 and Alpha 9, intended to kill the Dawson family. "It's unnecessary for the Dawson family to stay." Alpha 9 stared intently at Timothy and Sinclair, wanting to run straight to them and kill them. But in the next moment, Alpha grabbed his arm and said while staring at Timothy and Dawson, "Hold on. You know that Charles values friendship and loyalty. I admit that I also want to kill them, but it may let boss down. Don't make it difficult for Charles. Let's wait for a while. If these people don't attack Lin Feiling tonight, we will make a move then! The worst that could happen to us is that we could be punished while returning! Surely we must avenge Charles!" Alpha 9 took a deep breath and suppressed the killing intent in his heart. He nodded and said, "Okay, let's wait for another night! In the event that Dawson Family continues to be ungrateful, then we, the God of War, will go to them, who are rated as one of the Top Ten Families of Vowhye.” “Okay.” Alpha 7 nodded and continued to stare at Timothy and Sinclair.” At the moment, Sinclair and Timothy’s backs were covered with cold sweat. Sinclair felt that an aura of death surrounded him. He could not resist turning around and seeing what it was. However, his father grasped his hand immediately. Timothy shouted gruffly, “Don’t look back! Go forward! Go!!!” The next moment Timothy finished, he dragged Sinclair and continued walking forward. They walked quickly until they reached the front of the car and got into it. However, Timothy still did not dare to look back. Instead, he simply told the driver to hurry up and drive away. After being miles from the place, Sinclair asked Timothy with a pale face: “Dad, what was that? I feel as if someone was staying behind us and was about to kill us. It was very strong and powerful.” There was a hint of relief in Timothy’s turbid eyes. He said with fear, “Well, I just noticed that there were two God of War-level Masters who were staring at us and wanted to kill us.” Sinclair’s face changed dramatically and he said in horror, “Dad, who are they?” Timothy’s eyes gazed to the extreme and said, “I don’t know and I’m not sure. Maybe it’s someone from that Killer Organization, but it may also be Joseph’s people... Didn’t you say that there was a God of War under Joseph’s command? How can you be sure that there is only that one under Joseph’s command? Since he can take in one God of War, can’t he take in a few more in the Outer Region?”

“What? This is impossible, isn’t it? Dad, that’s God of War, not a cabbage! How can a God of War be subdued so easily? How could he be willing to be controlled by others?” Sinclair’s lips were trembling with fear as he spoke, Timothy took a deep breath and said, “Nothing is impossible in this world. All right, let’s not talk about anything else. These two God of War, regardless of who they belong to, we can’t resist them. Hurry back and kill Lin Feiling! Make sure she never sees the sun again! This is also to give Joseph an explanation! We, the Dawson family, should be decisive whenever we act!” “Alright!” Sinclair also took a deep breath and nodded. At that point, the vehicle was driven towards the Dawson family at an incredibly fast speed. At the moment, William, the second head of the Dawson family, was staying in the courtyard of the Dawson family Mansion. William cursed at the Dawson family’s secret guards who surrounded him and Lin Feiling, “Who gave you the guts? How dare you surround my mansion? Get out of here!” But no matter how angry William was, those Dawson family’s secret guards, still did not move. Moreover, all the secret guards’ eyes were full of hatred and murderous intent as they stared at Lin Feiling, who had dressed and came out. “William, their eyes are so scary, I’m scared. What are they going to do? Ye Su, I’m so scared...” Lin Feiling was really scared and hid behind William. She did not even dare to look into the eyes of those secret guards. “Get out! Do you hear me? I said get out! Get out now!” William became even more furious and yelled while smacking the guards, and he even kicked them a few times. However, the guards were still did not move at all. They knew they were the Dawson family’s secret guards! The person in front of them was the second head of the Dawson family! They could not fight back even no matter what.” “Get out! Otherwise, you will die! Boom...” In the next moment, William punched on the chest of a five-star secret guard. After a loud bang, the secret guard vomited blood and flew backward. That secret guard’s chest was broken by William’s punch, and a large mouthful of blood spurted out of his mouth. However, his eyes were still fixed on Lin Feiling, and the killing intent in his eyes became even stronger! “Do you guys want to die too? Well, then I will help you!” In the next moment, William, who was in a rage, punched and kicked the secret guards once again. One, two, three, five. Boom... In the next moment, all the remaining secret guards unloaded their weapons and knelt down on one knee. They didn’t care if William hit them or even killed them.

They all still stared at Lin Feiling! They were filled with rage, hatred, and murderous intent! "You guys." Finally after William had wounded a dozen secret guards, his heart trembled fiercely. He was frightened by the eyes of those dozens of secret guards in front of him. Those were the eyes that they would rather die than let Lin Feiling go. "No, don't." A sudden hint of despair rose in William's heart. The gazes of these secret guards were just too terrifying. In regards to the Dawson family's secret guards, who were their most loyal and last line of defence, they could only be mobilized if all of the Dawson family's elders agreed. Suddenly, it dawned on him what was happening As for Lin Feiling, who had been hiding behind him, she changed her face at this moment. Her face turned pale in an instant and her body began to tremble with fear. The next moment, filled with killing intent, Timothy, Sinclair and and seven or eight elders with the highest authority in the Dawson family walked in quickly. Timothy's eyes were incomparably cold as he stared at Lin Feiling. He yelled to those secret guard masters, "Beat this b*tch to death! Beat her into meat paste and feed her to the dogs!!!" Lin Feiling was so terrified that she fell to the ground. Her heart was filled with endless fear

"No, no, Timothy, you are crazy! Are you crazy!!!" William saw Timothy break in with a group of elders and wanted to kill Lin Feiling, William immediately got angry and quickly stood in front of Lin Feiling But the next moment, Timothy suddenly moved and appeared in front of William in an instant. He slapped William's face with all his strength. William had never thought that Timothy would dare to attack him, so he was unguarded and slapped away by Timothy. His body hit heavily on the wall. But before his body fell on the ground, Timothy moved again and reappeared in front of William. Then, he slapped William again. Timothy was full of hostility, and his fighting spirit was overwhelming. It seemed that he had returned to the moment when he followed his elder brother Charlesto fight on the battlefield decades ago. William was also stunned. Not only did Timothy attack him, but he also showed no mercy! Timothy grabbed William's collar and shouted at him, "Today, I am not saying to you as an elder of the Dawson Family, but as your uncle! Your father is seriously injured and unconscious. You are still protecting this b*tch! Do you want to destroy the Dawson Family? Huh? Open your f'cking eyes and see what this b*tch has done!" Boom! The next moment,

Timothy grabbed William's collar and smashed him to the ground in an instant. Then Timothy grabbed William's clothes and let him face the wall in front of him. At this moment, a projection appeared on the wall. It was the image of Lin Feiling looking for an assassin organization five years ago to kill Joseph. On the projection, Lin Feiling's face was extremely ferocious, and her eyes were full of resentment. He was holding an unknown black gold card and making a deal with an assassin organization. "Boom!" When William saw this scene, he felt as if he had been struck by lightning! His mind blanked because Lin Feiling had always been a delicate woman in front of him, and he needed to protect her. However, he never thought that Lin Feiling would actually find an assassin organization to kill his son! At this moment, Timothy looked at the projection on the wall and was furious. He pressed hard on William and shouted, "Have you seen it clearly? The b*tch you married was looking for killers to kill Fernando five years ago! No, he is called Joseph now! This woman sent someone to kill the heir of the Dawson Family five years ago!!! Have you finished watching it? Then let us see the next part! As soon as Timothy finished speaking, another image appeared on the projection. It was the scene where Lin Feiling went to the killer organization to assassinate Joseph a few days ago. On the screen, Lin Feiling's face was as ferocious as five years ago, and her eyes were as vicious as five years ago. William's body trembled violently as tears rolled down his cheeks. He looked as his entire body suddenly lost all of its strength and fell to the ground.

Timothy took a deep breath and suppressed the anger in his heart. He said to William, "William Dawson! Then tell me, where did that b*tch get the money to look for the killer organization? The weak woman in your eyes, the poor woman. Where did she find those killer organizations? Come on, tell me where did the b*tch get the information and a large amount of money from? Tell me, tell all the elders present, and we will listen. At this moment, when the two images on the wall were played, Lin Feiling, who was sitting on one side, looked extremely pale, and her heart was full of horror and fear thought that when she went to deal with the killer organization, the other party would leave a record. This was beyond her expectation. The evidence was there, and it was useless for her to say more. The next moment, William suddenly turned around and stared at Lin Feiling with bloodshot eyes. "Tell me, is this true! Did you do it?" Lin Feiling was silent. After a while, she gritted her teeth and shouted at William, "Didn't you see it? It's what you saw. Over the years, I have been with you..." "Bang!"

The next moment, just as Lin Feiling was about to fool William to relieve her, Sinclair, who was standing by the side with a baseball bat in his hand, suddenly roared and rushed in front of Lin Feiling. Then he slammed the baseball bat on the right side of Lin Feiling's face and chin. Puff... blood and teeth splashed. Half of Lin Feiling's face was smashed in an instant, and most of the teeth in her mouth flew out. In an instant, Lin Feiling's beautiful face was completely disfigured. Ah, ah ah ah ah. The next moment, Lin Feiling howled miserably. But at this moment, when her beautiful face was disfigured again, everyone looked at her with disgust. Sinclair stared at Lin Feiling with a cold smile and said, "You're just a hooker. How dare you try to shake William's mind when you're about to die? Hmm? Now that your face has been disfigured, why don't you try to seduce him again? Go on!!" "Heh! I'll kill you!!!" Lin Feiling's face had been disfigured by Sinclair. Her hatred of Sinclair had already reached its peak. She roared like a wild beast and charged at Sinclair.

The next moment, Sinclair's stick strikes broke her limbs. Sinclair, the Second young master of the Dawson family, who was in charge of external affairs, would not spoil her... Lin Feiling lay on the ground with a heart-wrenching pain and kept howling. However, Sinclair did not stop. The next moment, he waved his hand behind him. Immediately, a bucket of corrosive liquid poured on Lin Feiling's face and skin. Lin Feiling lay on the ground, rolling in pain. Bursts of pungent gas came out of her. Her appearance and skin were all disfigured at this moment. Without the appearance, her most proud thing was gone. Sinclair was extremely cruel and merciless! Lin Feiling's face and body had been destroyed. What else did she have left? It was just an incomparably vicious heart. He didn't believe that William would be fooled by such an ugly woman! You, you, you, William pointed at Sinclair with his trembling finger. However, Sinclair remained unmoved. He threw away the baseball bat in his hand, he walked up to William and said slowly, "William, I've investigated this b*tch. She's innately seductive. It seems that she's learned some vicious prescriptions from other places. That's why you've lost your mind. Now I'm asking you, William, tell me the truth. Do you really like this b*tch, or do you only like her face and body?" "If it's the former, I can persuade my father to let this b*tch live. I won't kill her today! But how about you spend the rest of your life with her?" William looked at the extremely horrible and ugly Lin Feiling in the distance, and his body couldn't help shivering. His body's reaction had already explained everything. At this time, Timothy sighed deeply and said to William, "William, I know your thoughts very well. You are blaming us, your father, me, and the elders of the Dawson Family, right? You are blaming us for forcing you to marry the mother of Joseph, whom you don't like. To put it bluntly, this Lin Feiling is just your dissatisfaction with us in your heart. It's like this. Maybe we did something wrong that year, but the Dawson Family put down root in Vowhye. Without the support of the local families in Vowhye, we couldn't do it at all. Alas." William was silent. Yes, Timothy was right. He had resentment in his heart. He didn't love Lin Feiling too much. He was in his forties or fifties, so there was no love between them. "William, make a decision... There are some things that should be settled. Joseph is still waiting for the result." Timothy patted his shoulder and said. William asked subconsciously, "Why? Why do you have to do this? Is that unfilial son worth it?" Timothy nodded and said, "It's worth it, because he is now a God of War, and there are experts at the God of War level following him. He is the true dragon of the Dawson Family, I'm not sure if he will forgive the Dawson Family if we do this. But there are some things that we still have to do, don't we?" "Alright, I got it. At this moment, William understood that the son that he had expelled from his family back then had grown into a towering tree. He was powerful enough to make all the elders of the Dawson family, and all the secret guards had to give way to him. He was only showing off his identity in Usmaït, and he didn't even need to return to Vowhye. Those people in Vowhye would work for him. At this moment, William's heart was extremely complicated. When he saw Lin Feiling's true face, he also felt a little regretful that he had driven Joseph out of the family. "Jo... Joseph!!!" Lin Feiling also heard what Timothy said, and endless despair and hatred rose in her heart. She had never thought that Joseph was so powerful that the whole Dawson Family would kill her for him! They even ignored William! But no matter what Lin Feiling thought, she had no chance. The next moment, with William's nod, several secret guards of the Dawson Family dragged Lin Feiling to the courtyard where the dogs were raised. Timothy said that he would kill her and feed the dogs. Lin Feiling looked at the dogs who were staring at her in the courtyard, and the fear in her eyes rose to the extreme. However, the secret guards looked at each other and made a decision in their hearts at the same time. The next moment, they threw Lin Feiling in and left directly. Because they felt that if they killed Lin Feiling directly, it would be too easy for her. The secret guards closed the door and left. Lin Feiling was so frightened that she could only watch the dogs in the courtyard rush to her while smelling the smell of blood. Three minutes later, just when Lin Feiling was dying, Alpha 7, who was playing a video on his mobile phone, appeared in front of Lin Feiling. In the video, it was the figure of Joseph. Joseph looked at Lin Feiling, who was about to die, and smiled. Lin Feiling's eyes were wide open. She wanted to say something, but she couldn't. The next moment, Alpha 7 reached out and directly broke her neck. Since Joseph had made a move, he had forced Timothy and Sinclair to take action.

Therefore, since he had done this, he would do the last blow. This could also be regarded as dissipating the resentment in his heart.

On the balcony of Joseph's house in Usmit, he turned off his mobile phone and looked up at the starry sky in the distance. There was a smile on his face. For a moment, he felt that his mood was much more cheerful, and the depression that had been suppressed in his heart for many years had also dissipated. "Joseph, what are you doing? Why don't you go to bed at such a late hour?" The next moment, Paige was wearing white lingerie with barefoot walked up to Joseph. She had already fallen asleep, but somehow, she woke up again. She opened her eyes and found that there was no Joseph beside her, so she came out to look for him while Chloe slept in another room. Joseph turned around with a smile and reached out to hold her in his arms. He snorted softly and asked, "Nothing, I just want to hug you. I feel very happy with life now..." Joseph whispered in her ear. "Well, I also feel very happy. I hope that we can continue to be so happy in the future." Paige put her face on Joseph's chest and hugged Joseph's waist with her fair arms. When Joseph came back, Paige had already fallen asleep, so he did not disturb her. But when he saw that Paige had woken up, Joseph whispered in her ear, "Honey, Chloe is not in our room tonight." Hearing that, Paige couldn't help but move. Her face turned red. She didn't know what was going on. Every time, her body reacted very strongly. Sometimes, even a word from Joseph could make her blush. The next moment, Paige blushed, with some expectation in her eyes. She nodded shyly and said, (This novel will be daily updated at) "Well, Chloe is not here." Joseph smiled and said to Paige, "Then let's go?" "Well, but you should keep your voice down. Mom and the others are all asleep. Don't wake them up..." Paige said with a low voice to Joseph. Joseph smiled, bent down and picked up Paige, and then walked into the bedroom... At the same time, in the Dawson Family's mansion in Vowhye, Sinclair, who was outside the gate of where imprisoned Lin Feiling, suddenly changed his expression. He glanced at Timothy and whispered, "Father." Timothy nodded to him. Then they turned around and walked to the courtyard where Lin Feiling was. When they opened the door, they saw Lin Feiling, who was dead. Her neck had been broken. "Father, someone came," Sinclair looked at Lin Feiling's corpse and said. Timothy looked at him seriously and said, "No one came just now." "But, Father, Lin Feiling's neck." Sinclair wanted to say something more. Timothy interrupted him before he could finish. "Remember! No one came just now." "Lin Feiling was killed by me! She was bitten to death by the dogs! Understand?" Sinclair's body trembled fiercely. Then, an idea suddenly flashed through his mind. He thought of the two mysterious experts in the God of War he had felt at the scene of the sea of flames. His expression changed once again, and there was a hint of fear in his eyes. He nodded and said seriously, "Yes, no one has been here."

Timothy was also in a cold sweat at this moment, and then fear and relief rose in his heart. Fortunately, they dealt with it decisively, and their attitude of killing Lin Feiling was firm enough! Otherwise, the Dawson Family would be in danger.

They were two Gods of War! Now he was very sure that the person who just killed Lin Feiling, who could secretly hide from all the secret guards of the Dawson Family, was definitely a master at the God of War level. When Timothy came to his senses, he sighed deeply in his heart. Because at this moment, he felt that Joseph had more than one God of War. He and Sinclair had discovered three Gods of War! If Joseph could return to the Dawson Family, how glorious would the Dawson Family be? The regret in Timothy's heart rose again. After a long while, Timothy sighed and said with a stern face, "Let's spread the news now that Lin Feiling has been divorced by William and has been expelled from the family!" "Yes, Father!" Sinclair understood that Timothy meant to show it to Joseph. The memorial tablet of Joseph's mother was placed in the ancestral temple of the Dawson Family, but even if Lin Feiling died, she was not qualified to do so. What's more, not long later, Lin Feiling's body would no longer exist in this world, and it would be eaten by dozens of dogs! At about four o'clock in the morning, the news of the Dawson Family expelling Lin Feiling was shocking to the families in Vowhye. After all, Lin Feiling was the top family in Vowhye, the wife of William! But she was expelled from the Dawson family. For a while, the whole top circle in Vowhye was shocked, and then they began to send people to investigate the reason. (This novel will be daily updated at) As soon as they investigated, they found something more shocking, because they found out that the child who was expelled from the Dawson Family at that time, had come back now and was also titled the God of War! The God of War at the age of 29 was too young. For a time Joseph's reputation in Vowhye was close to that of Sebastian's grandson, Eason, who also broke through to the God of War at the age of 29! In the top circle of Vowhye, Eason was recognized as the peerless talent of the young generation and the leading figure. All the major families in Vowhye also recognized him. Eason's achievements were even more admired by countless young people in Vowhye. No one would believe that there were young people in Vowhye, or even in the entire Frogua who could surpass Eason! Of course, there might be some among those ancient sects, but they kept a low profile and never showed anything to others. But no matter what, Eason was the strongest among the younger generation in Vowhye. However, the Dawson Family had Joseph! Moreover, the Master Dawson, Charles, who also had the title of the Outer Region God of War, was still alive! At this moment, the Dawson

Family had another God of War, how far would the Dawson Family go in the future? Everyone was shocked. But then, some people began to sneer in their hearts. Because they suddenly thought that the Dawson Family had abandoned Joseph five years ago and driven him out of the family. Huh! The families and leaders of many top circles in Vowhye were all happy. Everyone was laughing in their hearts. As time went by, they found the information about the Dawson Family expelling Joseph. The Dawson Family abandoned Joseph's identity as an heir to the family, then expelled him from the family, and then sent people to hunt him down... All of a sudden, the families in Vowhye, who were frightened, were no longer afraid of the rise of the Dawson Family. Because the Dawson Family could no longer rise again, and they wanted to bring their true dragon back? Ha, it depended on whether Joseph agreed or not. The Dawson Family had been so cruel that year. How could Joseph come back? In a day, the Dawson Family became a joke in the top circle of Vowhye. At the same time, in addition to the Dawson Family, there was also another family that became a joke. It was the Qin Family that had been arranged to marry Joseph. The Dawson Family lost a true dragon, so was the Qin Family. They would have a son-in-law at the God of War level, but now there was nothing. At noon, in the villa group of the Qin family, in Qin Xueqiao's villa, Qin Xueqiao, who was dressed in a long purple dress, looking tall and beautiful, was having a chat with her boyfriend, Song Yi, who was also the heir of the Song Family, one of the top families in Vowhye. The two of them had been in love for two years. At present, the Qin and Song families had reached the point of discussing marriage. Qin Xueqiao and Song Yi were also very satisfied with each other. That was how the big families would arrange marriages for their descendants. Their main choice was to arrange a marriage with people of the same level. At this moment, Qin Xueqiao drank a cup of coffee and said to Song Yi with a chuckle, "Dear, my dad told me that he wanted us to get married at the end of the year. How do you feel?" Song Yi also nodded and said with a smile, "Okay, let's get the marriage certificate in a few days. As for the wedding, we will hold it at the end of the year.

Qin Xueqiao nodded with a smile. "Well, I won't go out with you today. Just now, my grandfather called me and it seemed that he was very anxious. I will go to my grandfather first. I will also tell him about our marriage to my grandfather." Song Yi nodded and then went out. After Song Yi left, a very delicate maid came from behind Qin Xueqiao. The maid was arranged by the Qin family to help her. At this moment, the maid looked at Song Yi, who had left, with her eyes full of stars, and said to Qin Xueqiao, "Congratulations, Miss. Mr. Song is excellent. I heard that he is the heir of the Song family. You are the princess of our Qin family. If you want to marry someone, you have to marry an excellent man like Mr. Song. Mr. Song is much better than Fernando, who was driven out of the family... When Qin Xueqiao heard the maid mention Fernando, she also shook her head indifferently and said with a hint of sarcasm in her eyes, "Well, Xiao Fei, don't mention that person anymore. He is just a fool. He still believes that there is real affection between us. There is no affection between the families." "That's right. He aimed at the moon! He didn't look in the mirror. After being driven out of the family by the Dawson Family, he still looked for you and asked you to help him. Ha, it was so disgusting," after Qin Xueqiao finished speaking, the maid named Xiaofei also quickly said with contempt. Qin Xue waved her hand and said, "Well, don't talk about him. When you mention him, he will affect my appetite. And I will never see him again in the future. The difference between our status is too big. I will never meet him again in my life. Well, you can pack up. I will go to my grandfather's house." "Okay, Miss." The maid nodded. Qin Xueqiao stood up and walked to her grandfather's villa. However, ten minutes later, when Qin Xueqiao walked into her grandfather's villa, she was surprised to see that her father, uncle, and some other high-level members of the Qin family were gathered there, and all of them looked terrible. Looking at this mess, Qin Xueqiao couldn't help but say, "Grandpa, are you in a meeting? Then you can continue first, and I will come in later. Qin Xueqiao was about to walk out after finishing her words. There was a smile on her face. She was her grandfather's favorite granddaughter. However, her grandfather did not smile this time. Just as she was about to turn around and leave, his grandfather stopped her and said, "Xue Qiao, wait a minute. You don't have to avoid it, because today's meeting is related to you. Qin Xueqiao looked up and said to her grandfather with a smile, "Grandpa, is it related to me? Is it about my marriage with Song Yi?" When Qin Xueqiao's grandfather heard this, his face became even more livid. For some reason, he looked at his granddaughter, who he used to like very much, but he suddenly felt very disgusted. "Er, Grandpa, why are you looking at me like that? Did I do something wrong to make you angry?(This novel will be daily updated at) Then tell me, Grandpa, I will definitely change it" Qin Xueqiao to feel that there is something wrong with her grandfather, because there is a trace of disgust in his eyes." So she quickly put on a very well-behaved look and said. Master Qin leaned forward and stared at Qin Xueqiao, asking, "I ask you, five years ago, Fernando was driven out of the Dawson Family. What did you do when he came to you for help? Qin Xueqiao was stunned, but then she felt relieved. So she said proudly, "What else to do?" "He was driven out of the family by the Dawson Family, and he didn't even have the qualification to inherit the Dawson Family. Of course, I didn't see him. Grandpa, don't worry. I've cut off all contact with him. Grandpa, are you worried that what happened between me and Fernando in the past will affect my marriage with Song Yi?" Master Qin looked at his granddaughter's proud expression and immediately felt disgusted. His granddaughter was really like her father, only concerned about profit. The next moment, Master Qin looked at Qin Xueqiao's father with a sneer and said, "Oh, look at the daughter you have taught! Now when she talks about what happened in the past, she is so proud. Haha, it was an eye-opener for me today!" Master Qin finished his words, snorted angrily, and turned to leave. As Master Qin left, all the high-level members of the Qin family immediately left, leaving only Qin Xueqiao's father in the living room. "Uh." After Master Qin left, Qin Xueqiao was shocked. She hurried to ask her father, "Dad, what's wrong with Grandpa? Why would he suddenly ask me about Fernando?" The next moment, Qin Xueqiao's father looked up at his smart daughter with a complicated expression and said that it was because Fernando was back. Oh, he was now called Joseph. Qin Xueqiao frowned and continued to ask, "Dad, I don't understand what you are saying. I don't care what he is called now! Well, Joseph is back now. So what? What do he want? Does he still want to come to our Qin family and pester me?" "Pester you?" At this time, Qin Xueqiao's father was amused by his daughter's words. Of course, he smiled speechlessly.

Qin Xueqiao's father said slowly, (This novel will be daily updated at) "He is titled God of War in outer space! A God of War who is less than 30 years old! Will he pester you? But, you will never understand what you missed back then." Qin Xueqiao's father left after he finished speaking. When there was only Qin Xueqiao left in the hall, she felt completely stupefied. He has become a God of War? A God of War in the Outer Region? How could it be possible? Suddenly, Qin Xueqiao only felt that she seemed to have lost something very important to her. She felt a huge regret.
