Chapter 94

Chapter 94

He was conferred the title of God of War? In the empty hall, Qin Xueqiao was stunned for a long time. When she came here, she was still happy about the upcoming marriage with Song Yi. But at the moment, she couldn't be happy no matter how hard she tried. Because a God of War could establish a big family by himself. Five-star masters and even Semi God of War were common, but God of War wasn't. Every God of War of the Frogua was an existence that suppressed the fate of a land. They were all the most important things in the country! For example, since the country was established, there would only be dozens of Gods of War. Of course, although this was on the surface, it can be seen how difficult it was to become God of War. Once upon a time, there was a God of War who stood in front of her and liked her so much. He said that he would take care of her for a lifetime. He would almost give her whatever she wanted. But he was gone. She abandoned him, and she even abandoned him when he most needed help. And Joseph was the God of War. He was even more powerful and had a promising future. If she could marry Joseph, how much glory would it be for her and even the Qin family? Was it a hundred times better for her to marry the current Joseph than to marry Song Yi? It was just that Joseph was sincere to her at that time, and she only valued Joseph's identity and background. She never took him seriously. At that time, she only wanted the power and status of the Dawson Family.

The countless memories of her being with Joseph a few years ago came to her mind. Years after years, she and Joseph had been together for three years. And Joseph respected her very much from beginning to end. She said that she wanted to sleep with him on the wedding night, but Joseph never forced her. He was really naive to wait until the day of marriage. Of course, it was just that their marriage hadn't started yet. In the past five years, Qin Xueqiao had been very glad for the promise she had made. But at the same time, how lucky she was at the beginning, how painful she was at the moment.

The more Qin Xueqiao thought about it, the more regretful she became. She finally understood why her grandfather, her father, and the people of the Qin family were all so depressed. Because her mood was the same, and even more regretful. The scenes of her being with Joseph involuntarily came to her mind. At that time, the two were still in college, separated by two places. Joseph was in Usmit, and she was in Vowhye. But at that time, Joseph would call her almost every night. On almost every Saturday, Joseph would go back to Vowhye to accompany her. "Fernando... Fernando... Fernando..." Qin Xueqiao murmured the old name of Joseph, and the bitterness in her heart became more and more intense. She had been in a daze in the hall for a long time and then went back. Did she love Joseph? It was not, what she, Qin Xueqiao, wanted to marry was power, such as Joseph back then and the current Song Yi. But Joseph really liked her. He really loved her. He was just deceived by her from beginning to end. But what about Song Yi? Was he really in love with her? Qin Xueqiao shook her head, and the bitterness in her heart became stronger. Because Song Yi was different from Joseph. Song Yi was very scheming. He had been in Vowhye for many years, as a top rich second generation, he had played with many women. Even if she was Qin Xueqiao, the apple of the

Qin family's eye, Song Yi did not spoil her like Joseph. A year ago, she was drunk. Qin Xueqiao thought that all the men in the world were as stupid as Joseph? And they would spoil her? Song Yi was not like that. In Song Yi's eyes, he valued Qin Xueqiao as much as the Qin family behind Qin Xueqiao! If she abandoned the status of the Qin family, what could she be? Not to mention those female stars in society, she even could not compare with some social celebrities. Qin Xueqiao felt extremely bitter in her heart. The next moment, she took out her mobile phone. She directly dialed Song Yi's number. After he was answering the phone, Qin Xueqiao sadly asked, "Song Yi, can I ask you a question? Do you really have feelings for me?" After a moment of silence on the other end of the phone, he sneered and said, "Oh, Qin Xueqiao, you called me because you heard the news today, right? Your ex-boyfriend, ex fiancé, Fernando, who was driven out of the Dawson Family's family is now the God of War! Why do you want to reconcile with him? Ha, don't dream about it! Firstly, he has been married for a long time. Who do you think you are! Second, in front of me, put away your ridiculous scheming! Our marriage is the combination of the Qin Family and the Song Family. If you want to break the engagement now, then wait for my revenge! Wait for the revenge of the Song Family! If you think you can bear it, then come." "Huh, what kind of romantic love story are you talking about in front of me? Do you think I'm a fool?" Song Yi hung up the phone after saying that. The moment Song Yi hung up the phone, the phone in Qin Xueqiao's hand suddenly fell to the ground. The bitterness in her heart was even stronger. Yes, in fact, before she called Song Yi, she had already known the answer in her heart. Would a playboy like Song Yi love her? Don't make a fuss. If he did, he would have to have a woman he loved. The bitterness in Qin Xueqiao's heart grew more and more. There used to be a man who loved her sincerely and was willing to give everything to her. She didn't want him. But she was going to take the initiative to marry a man who didn't take her seriously. She didn't know how she went back to her villa. As soon as she entered the door, her maid, Xiaofei, greeted her very happily. "Miss, how was your talk with Master Qin? Have you decided on the date of the wedding with Mr. Song?" Bam! As soon as Xiao Fei finished speaking, Qin Xueqiao suddenly turned around and slapped her in the face. The maid named Xiao Fei was shocked. She never thought that Qin Xueqiao would slap her. But before Xiao Fei could react, Qin Xueqiao slapped her on the other side of her face. She shouted hysterically, "Get lost! Get out of the way! If you dare to mention Song Yi in front of me again, I will kill you! Get away!" Because Qin Xueqiao was used to keeping long nails, Xiao Fei left several scratches on her face. Qin Xueqiao was very strong, and her face was disfigured in an instant "Oh!" Xiao Fei covered her face and ran away, howling miserably. But before she could run far, Qin Xueqiao signalled to a bodyguard at the door with a cold look in her eyes. The bodyguard who protected her and had the title of a semi God of War disappeared in an instant. The next moment, he appeared behind the maid and twisted her neck! The bodyguard called for the other two. After taking the maid's body away, he returned to Qin Xueqiao's side again. The whole process took less than half a minute. "Miss, it has been done," the bodyguard said respectfully to Qin Xueqiao, without any emotion in his voice. He was originally a mindless obedient servant trained by the Qin family, and there were many people like him. They only needed to obey the orders of the Qin family and did not need to think about anything. Qin Xueqiao's eyes were cold, and there was a touch of ferociousness in her heart. Looking at the body of the maid who had been sent out, she ordered, "Throw away all her things, so as not to make me feel sick" "Yes, Miss!" The bodyguard nodded respectfully, and then went to arrange it. Only then did Qin Xueqiao feel a lot of anger in her heart. Yes, she was never a good person. She was deep-minded and ruthless. As Song Yi said, did she really think that she was a pure little girl? Only that fool, Joseph, was deceived by her. Qin Xueqiao returned to her room and closed the door. Although she had just killed the maid and released a lot of anger in her heart, she still felt that she could not bear it. "Ahhh!" Qin Xueqiao screamed crazily in the room. She was so angry that she went crazy. Her life and fate had taken a wrong step back then. She couldn't imagine how important an opportunity she had lost. Until the moment, when no one was around, the regret in her heart rose to the extreme.

Chapter 95 .

On Vowhye's side, how could Qin Xueqiao regret it? Joseph didn't care about what she was thinking. He didn't care about it. Fernando back then had died five years ago. Now he was Joseph! Joseph, who had experienced countless life and death in the outer region Battlefield! Now he had grown into a peerless hero, Joseph! And now he had found his most beloved woman, married her, and had a lovely daughter. So how could he give up all this? To find the scheming woman who had abandoned him? It was impossible. Joseph would never want to see Qin Xueqiao again, let alone talk to her. In Usmit City, an hour ago, at 11 o'clock, in the headquarters building of the Yin Group, in the president's office... As the executive manager of a branch of the Yin Group, Leng Yijun was clad in a business suit with her hair tied up, standing in front of Yin Kun, the president of the Yin Group. Yin Kun was the Second Elder of the Yin family and the younger brother of Yin Zheng, the master of the Yin family. Of course, he was more than 60 years old now. Although he had white hair on his temples, he had a sharp spirit. He had a square face and deep eyes. His aura was very strong. Even Leng Yijun, a top female boss in Usmit City, had to bow respectfully in front of Yin Kun and did not dare to say anything disrespectful to him. This morning, when Yin Kun suddenly called her over, Leng Yijun was also very confused. Because under the strict rules of the Yin Group, she was far from being able to talk to Yin Kun in person. But she did not dare to ask, because at this moment, Yin Kun was reading her detailed information dossier carefully. 10 minutes later, Yin Kun looked up at the woman standing so straight in front of him. He asked Leng Yijun what level she was at since she had practiced martial arts before. Leng Yijun's heart trembled instantly. She suddenly looked up at Yin Kun. She did not understand how Yin Kun knew about that. Yes, she had practiced Taekwondo since she was very young. She had always liked it since then. Since she was a child, she had never stopped practicing martial arts. But except for the people who were very close to her, almost no one knew that she did so. She had never written anything related to that in her resume! However, Yin Kun could see it in her. The idea flashed through her mind a few times, but she still admitted it and said seriously, "Yes, Mr. Yin. I've practiced it before and my level is above average. According to the advanced technology of the Frogua's military, I should be at the peak of the five-star level, or even a Semi God of War. Of course, I'm not sure if I have reached that level." When she said this, Leng Yijun was extremely arrogant in her heart. Yes, her combat capability has always been very strong. Otherwise, it's impossible for no one to harass her when she was so beautiful. In fact, there were many who had pursued her, but they were all beaten up by her.

Therefore, when she was in college, she had secretly protected Paige many times, causing many men who wanted to harass her to be terrified.

Yin Kun nodded with satisfaction and said, "Well, it's not bad. Don't be surprised. It's not too difficult to find out about my direct descendants given my status. Don't be too modest, Miss o my calculations, you have the strength of a Semi God of War a year ago." Leng Yijun nodded and asked with a frown, "Yes, Mr. Yin, but I dare to ask you, why do you ask me this? It seems to have nothing to do with my work, and I think I have been working hard in the Yin Group in recent years!" Yin Kun smiled and said, "No, it has something to do with me, and it has a lot to do with me." "Hmm?" Leng Yijun was even more confused. Yin Kun then said, "Because you will have to face a new job choice, which requires you to have some strength." "What kind of job? Please tell me, Mr. Yin. I don't know if I'm qualified or not!" Leng Yijun asked very cautiously. Yin Kun said, "Two hours later, the peerless genius of our Yin family, Yin Chaoge, will arrive at Usmait by cruise. This time, she has come back for a project. You should have heard that our Yin Group and even some high-level officials in the whole Usmait City are preparing for the return of Chaoge, and they have begun to prepare for it half a year ago. This includes the investment of our Yin Group in nearly 100 billion half a year ago, and the newly established Chaoge Technology Company. "So, you want me to work there?" Leng Yijun thought excitedly. She had long wanted to know Yin Chaoge, the peerless talent of the Yin family, and even in the whole of Usmait! Now, Leng Yijun had been chosen, and was very excited. Yin Kun nodded and said, "Well, not bad. Our Yin family has collected information about dozens of senior executives. You are the most suitable one." "Moreover, this position was not low. Your overall status would be ten times better, and would also rise to the second level in executive seniority. You would become the general manager of Chaoge Technology! You would be second only to the direct descendants of the Yin family. What you needed to do was to do your best to help Chaoge with Chaoge Technology from now on!" After hearing Yin Kun's words, Leng Yijun's mind felt a shock. She asked Yin Kun in disbelief, "Mr. Yin, are you kidding? Do you want me to be the general manager of Chaoge Technology?" Looking at the shocked Leng Yijun, Yin Kun nodded and said, "Well, yes, the reason why I chose you is that you are capable, and your skills are also very high, and you are a beauty. In this way, you can also protect Chaoge closely in the future. I only hope that you can remember, Miss Leng, the Yin family can give you everything you want! But please ensure Chaoge's safety!" After a pause, Yin Kun continued, "Of course, Chaoge's safety will not be entirely placed on you. Our Yin family has already contacted the masters of the Usmait military and the Police Department. They will also be in full charge of the safety of Chaoge, and you are just an invisible bodyguard around Chaoge. Do you understand? Besides, you are very capable and a genius. I believe that you can do it well! The reason why our Yin family has been able to keep a foothold in Usmait all these years is that we don't doubt our people!" As Yin Kun spoke, he leaned forward a little and stared at Leng Yijun, saying, "Miss Leng, tell me now, your choice! Do you want this opportunity?"

Leng Yijun took a deep breath. After a while, she stood straight and said to Yin Kun with firm eyes, "Thank you for your kindness, Mr. Yin! I will definitely complete the task! I accept it! Yin Kun smiled and said to Leng Yijun, "Go to the personnel department to sign the contract again. In addition, I have prepared two million yuan for you as a reward in advance. You can do it. I trust you!" Yin Kun said as he looked at Leng Yijun profoundly. "Thank you for your trust, Mr. Yin! I will do a good job!" Leng Yijun said to Yin Kun again, and then left. After that, Yin Zheng, clad in a traditional suit, walked out from behind a screen in Yin Kun's office. Looking at Yin Zheng, Yin Kun frowned and asked, "Yin Zheng, is it appropriate to give such a high position to Leng Yijun? What are you thinking? Even if she is a Semi God of War, she has never been to the battlefield. She is not as powerful as the masters of the military or the Police Department. Why do you want to hire her?" But Yin Zheng smiled and said with a deep look, "Haha, who told you that what I value is her skills and ability to work? Have I ever said that? "Huh?" Yin Kun was also confused. He looked at Yin Zheng in confusion and asked, "Then why do you still have to personally select Leng Yijun? Oh, by the way, she is just a mere manager. How did she attract your attention?"

Yin Zheng took a deep breath and the smile on his face disappeared. He said seriously, "Yin Kun, have you forgotten the Titan who has settled down in Usmit?" Yin Zheng's face became extremely serious. Yin Kun suddenly stood up and said with a very serious face, "Yin Zheng, do you mean that this Leng Yijun has something to do with that Lord? Yin Zheng nodded heavily and said, "Yes. And it's an important relationship. Yesterday, our little manager was having dinner with that Lord. This is a chance that neither of us can get. Yin Zheng paused for a moment and continued, "I'll only say it once. Listen carefully, and after you hear it, keep it in your heart and don't tell anyone! Leng Yijun still has another identity! Yes! She is the senior of the lord's wife back in college! They are close friends! Now that the lord's wife has come to Usmit, Leng Yijun has a very close relationship with her! Now that Chaoge has come back, those foreign hostile forces are bound to come to find her. Perhaps we can help her now. But when Chaoge is in trouble in the future, the lord will probably take action." Yin Kun took a deep breath. He finally understood why his brother had to eliminate the other most suitable candidates last night, and why he had to promote this Leng Yijun! It turned out that everything was related to the wife of that terrifying lord! "Yin Zheng, you're really amazing. You've looked so far ahead. I was wrong. It seems that our Yin family still relies on you." Alas, Yin Kun sighed, feeling impressed by Yin Zheng's shrewdness. Yin Zheng waved his hand, and then there was a trace of worry deep in his eyes. He sighed and said slowly, "Don't flatter me like that. When Chaoge comes back this time, our Yin family may be in big trouble because many people have died on her way back. However, Frogua needs her back! Our Yin family can't be too selfish! I only hope that our Yin family can successfully get through this time."

"Well... our Yin family can definitely do it. The God of War Mr. Wang of the Usmit military has already left for the port. He also promised me that he would send out 100 of the most elite soldiers to secretly guard Chaoge in the future! Besides, he would also take action if necessary," Yin Kun said to Yin Zheng with a serious face. Well, I hope so. Yin Zheng nodded, but deep in his heart, he was still extremely worried. His granddaughter, Yin Chaoge was the peerless legend of the Yin family, and a world-class technology genius. Such a person would not let go of her easily. But now that Yin Chaoge was turn to Usmit City, no matter how worried he was, it was useless. Yin Zheng just tried his best to protect his granddaughter. This time, he desperately tried to improve his skills and even asked dozens of senior executives under his command to resign. He did not hesitate to do so! He just hoped that if that day really came that the Yin family, including the Usmaite Army could not resist the enemy, on account of the present friendship, he could help ask that Lord for help. Time passed by slowly. Two hours later, after finishing all the procedures, the beautiful and brave Leng Yijun, with the senior officials of the Yin family, as well as the high-level officials of the Police Department and the Usmaite military, stood at the port facing the sea, waiting for Yin Chaoge's return. Five minutes later, on the sea in the distance, a huge cruise ship with tens of thousands of containers broke through the sea and drove into the dock. The next moment, a tall, beautiful girl, Yin Chaoge, wearing glasses, slowly walked down from the massive cruise, with a small box in her hand.

Chapter 96

When Yin Chaoge returned, the whole Yin family was in an uproar, and the entire Usmaite technology industry was also in an uproar. All of them were clamoring to hold a grand welcome feast for Yin Chaoge. The Yin family knew that they could not refuse, so they agreed to host it. Moreover, they thought that there should be no problem for Yin Chaoge given it was the first day of her return. Wang Tianhai, the God of War of the Usmaite military, was here. Those foreign hostile forces would definitely not choose to assassinate Yin Chaoge when Wang Tianhai was present. Therefore, even if Yin Zheng and Yin Kun were still a little worried, they did not stop the feast from going ahead. After all, apart from being a research genius, Yin Chaoge was still a girl, who had never had a boyfriend so far. It was impossible for her to be locked up in the office every day. If that were the case, all the scientists in the Frogua would not want to live anymore. It was basically impossible. At the dock, there was a sea of people. There were countless reporters taking photos of Yin Chaoge in a luxury car that could not be seen at a glance. At this moment, the return of Yin Chaoge caused a sensation, which was no less than what had happened in Junlin Group a few days ago. Yin Chaoge walked down from the cruise step by step. In the front row below, there were the Yin family, the Tianhai military, and the big bosses of the Police Department. Leng Yijun who was about to cooperate with Yin Chaoge, was also in the queue. While she was looking at Yin Chaoge, Leng Yijun was also listening to the voices of the guards outside and paying attention to the surrounding situation. After Yin Chaoge came down, she first greeted the Yin family, and then looked at Leng Yijun, saying, "Well, Miss Leng, nice to meet you. Please take care of me in the future. I will trouble you in the future..." When Yin Chaoge was on the ship, she received the information sent by Yin Kun. In fact, Yin Chaoge felt it was also a little strange. (This novel will be daily updated at ) As the second-largest family in Usmaite City, the Yin family had countless talents under their command, but they arranged Leng Yijun for her. After all, Leng Yijun's work experience and all aspects were not very strong. Although she was excellent, there were many more outstanding people in the Yin family than her, but Yin Chaoge would not say anything because she believed that since Yin Kun and Yin Zheng had arranged Leng Yijun to be her partner, Leng Yijun would naturally have her outstanding points. Besides, she was also very beautiful.

Yin Chaoge would also be in a good mood when working with beautiful people. Leng Yijun also reached out to Yin Chaoge and said with a smile, "Miss Yin, you're being too courteous. If you have any orders in the future, just let me know." The moment when Leng Yijun shook hands with Yin Chaoge, she was also very excited. The woman in front of Leng Yijun was a famous lady in Usmit City. She thought that she would work with Yin Chaoge in the future, and she was even more excited while standing on the dock. The staff arrangement was complicated and there were too many people. So the people of the Yin family arranged for Yin Chaoge to get in the car quickly, and then Yin Chaoge drove to the Yin family under the protection of the Yin family, the Usmit military, and the Police Department. Of course, Joseph would not pay attention to Yin Chaoge's return to Usmit. He was not interested. After all, no matter how powerful and beautiful Yin Chaoge was, it had nothing to do with him. Therefore, Joseph stayed with Chloe in the morning and took his daughter shopping. Paige went out for an interview early in the morning. She worked very hard. In the morning, she had traveled more than half of the city. She was either on the way to interview or on the way. She planned to get familiar with the companies in the city first. Therefore, regardless of whether it was the big or small company that invited her to an interview, she went to have a chat. At noon, she finished her meal in a hurry, Paige went to the interview again. At four o'clock in the afternoon, she just came out of a company's interview and called Leng Yijun to ask for some information.

"Yijun, I just interviewed a company that is in charge of business management. I want to ask you about it!" After the call connected, Paige started to talk. But before she could finish, she was interrupted by Leng Yijun. "Paige, stop talking. Let's put your interview aside for now. Listen to me first!" The words of Leng Yijun were full of excitement. She paused for a moment before continuing with excitement, "Paige, I've been promoted greatly. I'm now the general manager of Chaoge Technology. Hahaha, I'm so excited. I haven't recovered yet.

There was a hint of gloom in the depths of Paige's eyes. She was still looking for work as a common employee, while Leng Yijun had been promoted to general manager. What a huge disparity. "Congratulations, Yijun. You're too amazing. I haven't even decided what I'm going to do next." The disappointment in Paige's heart has only lasted for a brief moment. "After all, I'm her good friend. I should be truly happy for Yijun. After all, she's worked too hard..." Paige thought. "By the way, Paige, I'm afraid you don't know what Chaoge Technology is, do you? Hahaha! Chaoge Technology, Yin Chaoge! Do you understand? Yin Chaoge is the amazing talent of the Yin family. That peerless genius has come back. I have met her and just had a meeting with her. She is not only talented, but also very beautiful. To be honest, Paige, I think Yin Chaoge is too powerful. She is super beautiful, not any worse than us, and so talented." Paige also asked curiously, "Yijun, is that Yin Chaoge really that powerful?" The reason why Paige asked this question was that she had been listening to Leng Yijun talking about Yin Chaoge these days. She also knew that Leng Yijun had always wanted to meet Yin Chaoge. Yin Chaoge was a female legend in Usmit City. In the hearts of the people in Usmit City, Yin Chaoge was at the same level as the legend who established the Junlin Group. For such a legendary woman, let alone Leng Yijun, even her Paige wanted to meet Yin Chaoge. Without waiting for her to think further, Leng Yijun on the other side of the phone said with a smile, "Why, Paige, would I be lying to you? By the way, don't you want to see that legendary woman?"

Paige said without thinking, "Yes, it's just my identity... How could she see me? Alas." Paige sighed as she spoke. "Perhaps it was impossible before, but now I'm here, isn't it? Haha, your senior is now a partner of Yin Chaoge's, helping her take care of the company." Leng Yijun continued with a smile, "Besides, Paige, the Yin family is going to hold a large-scale dinner party for Yin Chaoge tonight. You can also come then. It will start at seven o'clock in the evening. Don't be late." "Er... me? Can I go too?" asked Paige in disbelief. In her opinion, the banquet held by the Yin family would be held by the big shots in Usmit City. (This novel will be daily updated at )Any one of them would be the dominant existence in her hometown, Oplen. At such a high-level banquet, Paige was afraid that she would not be able to get in, so she would lose face at that time. Leng Yijun said, "Of course, I am now arranging the venue. I am the general manager of Chaoge Technology. Of course, I have the right to bring people in. And Paige, you are my best friend. You must come tonight. I will introduce you to Yin Chaoge. Well, let's not chat so long about it. I am busy. Remember, you will arrive on time before seven o'clock. Call me when After saying that, she hung up the phone. It seemed that she was really busy at the moment. As for Paige, who hung up the phone, she was a little flustered. She quickly took out her mobile phone and looked at her clothes. For some reason, she suddenly felt not confident. At the same time, in the underground garage of an abandoned factory in the western suburbs of the Usmit District, the huge underground garage was dark at the moment, and there was almost no light. The next moment, footsteps came from all directions of the garage. A minute later, in the middle of the underground garage, more than a dozen people wearing masks and black windbreakers gathered. These people's auras were cold and their eyes were sharp. Each of them was a top killer, and each of them had the aura of at least a Semi God of War. But at this moment, when these people gathered together, they were all silent and waiting for something with their heads down. After waiting for another two or three minutes, a man with a mask on his face and an actual God of War came in with a big box in his hand. The next moment, the box was opened, and there were extremely delicate human skin masks inside.

These are the faces of some of the people who attended the Yin family's dinner party tonight!. Under each mask, there was a copy of the identity of the person you will be disguised as. Tonight, I will draw Wang Tianhai away. You kill Yin Chaoge and all the high level officials of the Yin family! Do it neatly. But if you can't do it, everyone must try to assassinate Yin Chaoge! Do you understand?" "Yes!" The group of top killers bowed their heads in response, much stronger than the killers that Lin Feiling had found to assassinate Joseph. These killers, who were Semi Gods of War, did not have the ordinary level of skills as common Semi Gods of War. They were all the most elite and top killers who had lived in the outer region Battlefield for decades. (This novel will be daily updated at )Each of them could create destructive power far beyond their own combat strength. Even these people, when they were in the outer region, had all killed a God of War expert from a small foreign country! Their code name was Team !0! It was a very plain name. They were in the outer region Battlefields, ranked tenth amongst the top-notch assassin groups, and they could hunt the weak Gods of War! There was no organization behind them. Their leader was the true God of War in front of them! At this moment, when the killers took out the human skin masks from the boxes, some of them had a trace of warmth on them, as well as a trace of blood! Yes, the material of these masks was the face of those who went to the Yin family's banquet tonight! These were real human faces! The group of killers, holding human skin masks, did not move at all. There was only endless coldness in their eyes. They did not speak, but just quietly checked the human skins' owners' information. The group of top killers who came from the outer region battlefield were all standing in the dark underground garage, quiet.
