

Chapter 97

At half-past six o'clock in the evening, the Yin family's courtyard was full of noise. Tonight's welcome dinner was about to begin. A top celebrity in Usmit City, a big shot, dressed neatly and entered the Yin family's gate. Leng Yijun kept shuttling inside and outside the venue. Tonight, the Yin family, the Usmit military, and the Police Department made the highest level of security arrangements. All people who entered, regardless of gender, had to do an X-ray inspection. Not to mention thermal weapons, even a small knife could not be taken in from the outside.

At 6:50 p.m., Paige, clad in a black lace dress, came to the gate of the Yin family, but she didn't dare to go in. Some top people in Usmit City and the top socialites also looked at her from time to time, with curiosity in their eyes, because some top women were shocked by her jewelry and clothes.

The necklace around Paige's neck was worth tens of thousands of yuan. The clothes she wore were also designed by the top designers in Fofluidor. Of course, she didn't know about these necklaces. Joseph told her that they were not worth much money.

The silly, adorable, and innocent Paige really thought that Joseph bought it for her casually, and he didn't spend much money. Therefore, when she saw those socialites wearing gold and diamonds, she actually felt self-abased! If Joseph saw this scene, he would probably be depressed to death. When did his woman have a sense of inferiority in front of other women?

"Oh Paige, why are you still standing there like a fool? Hurry up and follow me in. The dinner is about to begin."

When the door was about to close, she quickly went in. Just as she felt inferior and wanted to enter, she called Leng Yijun several times. Then, Leng Yijun, who was dressed neatly in a lady's suit, rushed into the venue. Then, she dragged Paige inside.

"Hey, Yijun, I..." Paige was suddenly pulled into the gate by Leng Yijun. Almost as soon as they entered, the gate of the courtyard behind them was closed. Paige grew even more nervous. She was just a woman from a second-tier small city like Oplen. She has never seen or participated in such a big event.

As Leng Yijun was running in a hurry with Paige, many people in the courtyard looked in their direction as they entered the courtyard.

Naturally, Yin Zheng, who had just walked out of the villa, also saw Paige, who had been dragged in by Leng Yijun.

"Oh my god!" The next moment, Yin Zheng's heart skipped a beat, and his eyes suddenly widened. The next moment, he couldn't help but take a big step back in fear of Paige. The speed of Yin Zheng's beating heart instantly soared to more than one hundred meridians. Paige's appearance scared him so much that his blood pressure almost went over the roof. He was so scared that he broke out in a cold sweat.

"She, she, she... why is she here? Sh-she is the wife of that Titan! F*ck!" Yin Zheng was roaring in his heart. He stared at Paige carefully and found that he was not mistaken. A few days ago, after Dennis asked him about the matter of Leng Yijun, Yin Zheng pluck up the courage to secretly go to Apren City and Oplen to investigate.

Then he found Joseph and Paige at the Hundred Cities wedding. It was like a photo that disappeared mysteriously as soon as he saw it! But even so, he still remembered Paige's appearance deeply in his heart.

At this moment, the goddess-like Paige actually came, which scared Yin Zheng so much that he didn't even dare to breathe. He knew that Paige had a very good relationship with Leng Yijun, and they were like sisters. He also had a feeling in his heart that Paige would meet his granddaughter Yin Chaoge sooner or later. So he tried his best to promote Leng Yijun to be the general manager of Chaoge Technology for this exact moment. But he never thought that this scene would be so fast? "Grandpa, Grandpa? What's wrong with you? Are you feeling unwell?" Yin Chaoge, who was wearing a white long dress and a pair of framed glasses standing beside Yin Zheng, asked Yin Zheng worriedly, because she saw a lot of sweat on her grandfather's face.

"No, no, it's okay. Let's go. The dinner party is about to begin. Chaoge, you just came back this time, so you must become more familiar with everyone, especially the younger generation of Usmit. You should make more friends! Remember! I am doing everything for your own good!" Yin Zheng said sincerely to Yin Chaoge.

Yin Chaoge nodded with a smile and said, "I know, grandpa! You've told me so many times!" But the next moment, Yin Zheng was extremely serious and even said to Yin Chaoge anxiously, "Listen to me! I know you."

"In fact, you don't like the company of girls of the same age as you, but many things are not as simple as you think! Chaoge! I'm serious! I'm not joking with you."

"Uh." Yin Chaoge was also shocked by Yin Zheng's serious look. In her impression, her grandfather rarely had such an expression, and once it appeared, it meant that the old man was really angry! Therefore, Yin Chaoge quickly put away the smile on her face and nodded seriously. "Well, I'm sorry, grandpa. I got it! Well, you can go to the stage and say hello to everyone first." Hearing Yin Chaoge's serious answer, Yin Zheng breathed a sigh of relief in his heart.

After Yin Chaoge left, Yin Kun suddenly asked Yin Zheng in a low voice, "Yin Zheng, the girl who was at the door just now... You looked strangely at her. You seem to be very scared. Is it her?"

"Shut up! No! Remember, you don't know anything. I didn't say anything!" Before Yin Kun could finish his words, he was interrupted by Yin Zheng in a low voice. Then Yin Zheng walked toward the guests. What he didn't know was that he had been seen by Shangguan Bo, the head of the Shangguan family, who was sitting not far away from the stage. Moreover, Shangguan Bo had already read the meaning of Yin Zheng's words in his heart.

"No?? What does he mean? The expression on that old man Yin's face just now is very strange. What on earth did he see that could frighten him, the master of a top family? Moreover, Wang Tianhai from the Usmit Military, has come to protect the Yin family. How could he be frightened? Could it be the two young girls just now? Or are their identities a little special?" Shangguan Bo, an old fox who was even more cunning than Yin Zheng, muttered in his heart. Then he picked up the teacup and stole a glance at Leng Yijun and Paige when no one was paying attention.

However, at this moment, Leng Yijun and Paige were sitting in the corner, looking very inconspicuous. Shangguan Bo was confused again. Then, he stopped thinking about it and continued to drink his tea.

Half an hour after the banquet, Yin Zheng and Yin Chaoge greeted the guests one by one.

After that, he pulled Yin Chaoge to the place where Leng Yijun and Paige were. Shangguan Bo's thoughts came up again in an instant. He widened his eyes and stared at Yin Zheng's every move in the distance.

At this moment, Leng Yijun and Paige were shocked when they saw the female lead of tonight's banquet and the head of the Yin family, Yin Zheng, coming to their table. Then, Leng Yijun quickly pulled Paige to stand up and greeted Yin Zheng and Yin Chaoge.

When Paige greeted Yin Zheng respectfully, Shangguan Bo noticed that there was a cold sweat on Yin Zheng's neck. Yin Zheng nodded to Leng Yijun with a smile and said very politely, "Miss Leng, I heard Yin Kun mention you. He thinks very highly of you and thinks you are very capable. I also believe in Yin Kun's taste. He thinks that you are good, so you are absolutely good! In the future, you need to take good care of Chaoge. Miss Leng, if you have any needs in the future, you can come to me. If Yin Kun does not want to do it for you, I will do it for you! Don't be so polite! I hope that you can become best friends with Chaoge in the future, and even close sisters. I also heard that your family is not from Usmaït, so please treat this place as your home in the future! You can come here at any time! Don't hesitate to do anything."

Although Yin Zheng said Leng Yijun should not be so courteous, in fact, the master of the Yin family was being extremely polite to Leng Yijun. Then Yin Zheng's words made Leng Yijun's heart tremble with fear. Was Yin Zheng too kind to her? Leng Yijun was very confused, and even Yin Chaoge, who was standing beside Yin Zheng, was very confused. This afternoon, her granduncle, Yin Kun, greatly admired Leng Yijun, and now her grandfather was even more.

Leng Yijun had no time to think about it. As for this old man, Yin Zheng, she felt that it was impossible that he, the patriarch of a top family in Usmaït City, lacking a woman? Moreover, she felt that Yin Zheng was already so old!

Therefore, although Leng Yijun was very confused, she was relieved. She quickly said to Yin Zheng, "Mr. Yin, you are too polite, and I am terrified. Don't worry, sir. I will definitely do well for the Yin family and the Yin Group in Chaoge Technology! I promise!" Yin Zheng nodded with a smile. Then he pretended not to know Paige and merely glanced at her. He deliberately asked Leng Yijun in confusion, "Miss Leng, who is this beautiful lady next to you?"

Leng Yijun thought quickly explained to Yin Zheng, "Sir, this is the best friend I had in college, my close sister. She has just arrived at Usmaït recently. Her name is Paige Mooney. Since she heard about Miss Yin's story, she wanted to meet her very much."

"That's why... I brought her in. I'm sorry, Sir, I..."

Leng Yijun was a little nervous because she didn't expect that Yin Zheng, the head of the Yin family, wouldn't accompany those big shots of the families in Usmaït City. Instead, he pulled Yin Chaoge to their table. Leng Yijun had told Paige before that she had been given the green light to bring guests in, but in fact, she didn't. Now she was caught by Yin Zheng, so she was very nervous.

"Sir, I'm sorry. I'm really sorry. I'm leaving now. Please don't punish Yijun. I'm sorry. It's all my fault. I'm leaving right now," Paige was also shocked. She immediately sorted out the whole story.

As she spoke, she wanted to turn around and leave. But in the next moment, Yin Zheng stopped her with a smile. "Oh, Miss Mooney, don't be so corteous. All the guests are guests. Besides, our Yin family is not so traditional, so we don't have to follow the rules. I just told Miss Leng that the Yin family will be her home in the future. It's no big deal for her to take you here. Come on, Miss Mooney, I just heard from Miss Leng that you want to know Chaoge, right? Come and introduce yourself to her. I hope you can become friends in the future. Chaoge has just returned from abroad. Just like you, I feel that you two are the same age and very beautiful."

"You should keep in touch with each other in the future. When you go out, you can have more friends and more paths to take care of each other."

As Yin Zheng spoke, he introduced her to Yin Chaoge. "Chaoge, you're the host today. Why don't you greet Miss Mooney?"

Hearing this, Yin Chaoge's eyes flashed, and she didn't think much. Then she smiled and reached out to Paige and said, "Paige, you can call me Chaoge in the future. I don't know why, but I feel that I have known you for a long time. Let's make friends. When the banquet is over, you and I, together with Leng Yijun, will have a good chat." As Yin Chaoge spoke, she took out his mobile phone and wanted to add Paige as a friend on her contact list.

"Uh..." At this moment, Leng Yijun and Paige were both stunned. Paige was feeling blank. Was it so easy for her to become friends with the female legend of Usmaït City?

Seeing that she was in a daze, Leng Yijun quickly touched her. Only then did Paige realize what was going on. She hurriedly nodded and took out her phone to add Chaoge's contact. "Miss Yin, thank you. Although I came uninvited today..." Paige did not know what to say for a while.

Yin Chaoge smiled indifferently and said, "Paige, don't be so polite. You just came to Usmaït, and I just came back. In the future, let's hang out together. If you have time, come and have some fun with me. I'm bored from doing research every day."

"Well, okay, thank you, Chaoge." Paige also nodded happily. She didn't expect that the legendary top woman in Usmaït City was so easy to talk to.

At this time, Leng Yijun, who was standing aside, also smiled and said to Paige, "Well, Paige, what I said is true. Chaoge is a very good person. You should come to us often in the future. Oh, by the way, haven't you got a job yet? Then don't look anymore. Come and work here."

Yin Chaoge heard that and said quickly, "Yes, Paige, come to our Chaoge Technology. We are also short of people now."

After thinking for a while, Paige said, "Well, I'll take another look. I want to get familiar with the companies first, then find a direction I like, and then do it. I'll tell you when I've made my choice."

Yin Chaoge nodded and said to Paige, "Well, Paige, you stay with Leng Yijun first. I have some matters to do tonight. I'll go first."

Paige nodded, and then Yin Chaoge supported Yin Zheng to leave. But when Yin Zheng turned around, Yin Chaoge, who was standing beside him, suddenly found that the clothes on his grandfather's back were a little soaked, and he was sweating.

At the same time, Shangguan Bo, who had been sitting in the distance and staring at Yin Zheng, also saw this scene. Shangguan Bo saw that there was a lot of cold sweat on Yin Zheng's face. When he turned to leave the table where Leng Yijun and Paige sat, he saw that Yin Zheng was greatly relieved, and then his eyes became very excited.

"Chaoge, this time you..." When Yin Zheng was about to say something to Yin Chaoge, a loud explosion came from the large door in the distance, and then the gate of the Yin family was directly blown into the courtyard.

The next moment, a mysterious expert with a black mask and the strength of an Early-stage of God of War, appeared outside the gate of the Yin family. The guards left behind by the Yin family outside the main gate had been slaughtered by him.

"The Usmaït God of War, Wang Tianhai? Why don't you come out and have some fun? Or maybe you can let me go in and have some fun." The mysterious warrior standing at the door sneered and said to Wang Tianhai, who was sitting in the first row in the courtyard. Outside the gate, there were more than a hundred security guards at the level of five stars rushing toward the mysterious man, but he was not afraid at all.

The next moment, Wang Tianhai, who was sitting on the guard, suddenly stood up. His momentum of the late stage of the God of War was released, and a murderous look shot out of his eyes. "You're courting death! The rest of you, protect Miss Yin well!" Wang Tianhai said this and chased after the fleeing God of War.

At this moment, everyone was in danger at the banquet site in the courtyard. Some people who were drinking tea calmly earlier at the banquet site shot out a trace of cold killing intent in their eyes. They raised their heads and walked in the direction of Yin Chaoge.

Chapter 98

Yin Kun's face changed dramatically, and he rushed to Yin Zheng and Yin Chaoge as fast as he could with several warriors of the Yin family.

He shouted frantically, "Yin Zheng, Chaoge, hurry up and go to the underground fortress! You go, I'll take care of the rear."

Yin Chaoge also looked anxious. Yin Zheng was not much better. When he was about to run wildly with Yin Chaoge, he suddenly heard a voice that only he could hear. "Don't move. Let's continue the banquet. Don't leave a trauma on Madam Mooney. We will deal with this matter. Don't worry, we are all here tonight. You take charge of the overall situation! If you scare her, it would be your fault!"

Yin Zheng, who was running away in the distance, suddenly trembled. Then he gritted his teeth and looked back quickly.

Then, he saw Alpha 1, who was standing next to Paige, and a few people, who were had killed Fu Junlin. They were all experts at the peak of the God of War level. When Yin Zheng saw this scene, he opened his mouth wide and instantly calmed down. Then, Alpha 1 winked at him, signaling him to look at the scene of the banquet.

Then, Yin Zheng saw that as the figures of several people flashed, the fierce-looking people who were about to get up suddenly stood up. As soon as they stood up, their bodies froze on the spot, and the light in their eyes quickly dimmed. There were more than a dozen people like them. After the death of those killers, soon someone in the field dragged their bodies down.

During the whole process, those mysterious people did it very secretly. The guests present almost did not realize that the dozen or so killers who sneaked into the venue were all dead.

Only a few senior executives of the Police Department, such as Lu Tianxun and Shangguan Bo, noticed this scene. Then they were all shocked. They had never expected that the Titan's subordinates would be here. The figures that flashed just now were all at the God of War level. They had never thought that Yin Zheng would actually have something to do with that big shot.

At this moment, they were all at ease.

"Yin Zheng, why are you still standing there like a fool?" Yin Kun, who was beside Yin Zheng, shouted anxiously. Yin Chaoge, who was standing beside him, was also very anxious. She was not only afraid for herself, but also worried about her grandfather and the Yin family. At this moment, Yin Zheng and Alpha 1 looked at each other, and Alpha 1 nodded to him. Yin Zheng was covered with cold sweat, but he had infinite confidence in his heart.

"F*ck! I'm scared of nothing! I have ten experts at the peak of the God of War level here! I'm not afraid of anything!" Yin Zheng roared to himself. Then his momentum spread wildly. He opened his mouth and shouted to the crowd at the banquet, "Please, take your seats! Please be quiet! Just now, the Usmait God of War just went to have a spar. It's not a big deal! Tonight's banquet is very safe! I, Yin Zheng, will be responsible for everyone! Please rest assured! Please sit down!" When Yin Zheng finished speaking, Yin Kun was shocked, but he hardly waited for him to ask. Shangguan Bo, who was sitting in the front row, also stood up and said to the guests, "Don't worry, everyone. Tonight, both I and the head of the Yin family are here. If there is any real danger, it will be us who will suffer first. Now everyone, sit back and believe in me. I believe in the head of the Yin family. I believe that the head of the Yin family can guarantee the safety of the banquet."

Shangguan Bo's words also surprised Yin Zheng. Then he looked at Shangguan Bo gratefully and kicked Yin Kun, who was standing beside him.

Although Yin Kun was not stupid, he felt that something was wrong. He didn't know what had happened just now. Then he seemed to remember something and quickly looked at Paige. Then he saw a few people standing behind her. He couldn't fathom the background of those people, but everyone made his heart palpitate.

"Could it be that those people are all the experts in the God of War under the command of that mighty lord?" Yin Kun muttered in his heart. Yes, how could the wife of that lord have no strong people to protect her? Later, after understanding everything, Yin Kun felt relieved. He said to the guests with a smile, "Sit down, everyone. We haven't finished our meal yet. Come, let's continue to drink. It's just a small episode. Don't worry, don't worry."

After that, the hundred or so guests calmed down. If there was really a killer coming, they would not be their targets at the beginning. Yin Zheng and Shangguan Bo were not afraid, but what were they afraid of? However, after many guests returned to their seats, they felt that there seemed to be a few people missing around them.

The banquet continued. When Paige was about to turn around and sit down, she suddenly saw Alpha 1 behind her. Of course, she knew Alpha 1. When she saw Alpha 1 standing here, she asked in surprise, "Alpha 1, why are you here as well?"

Alpha 1 said with a smile, "Madam, the Yin family held a banquet for Yin Chaohe today. They were worried that something would happen, so they asked me to follow them. Don't worry, everything will be fine tonight. The Yin family will handle it well."

Paige nodded. A hint of warmth flashed through her heart as she said, "Okay, thank you very much. Then you can work sit us. Oh, right, this is my good friend, Leng Yijun. As she spoke, she also introduced Alpha 1 to Leng Yijun.

Hearing that, Alpha 1 smiled and nodded to Leng Yijun. "Hello, Miss Leng. I heard my boss mention you before. You are smart and beautiful.

Alpha 1 smiled and greeted Leng Yijun, but she frowned deeply. She stared at Alpha 1, who was standing in front of her. She always felt that Alpha 1 was very familiar. He was very handsome and had a temperament that she couldn't see through. His eyes were full of confidence like that of Joseph. He had the kind of confidence, like he didn't take anyone seriously. He was born to be superior.

Leng Yijun looked at Alpha 1 and asked, "Mr. Alpha 1, have we met somewhere before?"

Alpha 1 shook his head with a smile and said, "No. It's the first time I've seen you, Miss Leng. You must have remembered wrongly."

After looking at Alpha 1 for a while, she nodded and hid the doubts deep in her heart.

In fact, a thought flashed through her mind before. That night, she saw Joseph and the man beside him on the road. That person seemed to be this Alpha 1.

"And his name is Alpha 1? What kind of name is that? It's more like a code name. What does it mean?" At this moment, she was even more confused. The silly Paige's husband even had a subordinate like Alpha 1. She could feel that Alpha 1's aura is very strong. Although he's extremely reserved, she felt that Alpha 1 was not weaker than herself at all. At least he's at the same level as her. Since Joseph's subordinate has the same aura as Leng Yijun, what about Joseph?

She remembered that Paige's husband, who had returned from the outer region battlefield, should have some strength. However, when she had dinner with Joseph that day, she did not feel the fluctuation of Joseph's aura at all. Leng Yijun thought to herself, "I must test Joseph again in the future."

At the same time, Joseph, who was coaxing Chloe to sleep at home, suddenly received a secret message from his mobile phone. With a bitter smile on his face, Joseph gave Chloe to Serena and then went out alone.

Walking out of the door, Joseph looked in the direction of the Yin family and shook his head speechlessly. "Why do you have to hold a dinner party? Do you really think those people from the outer region will have scruples? How can you be so sure that they will only send a God of War-level killer? Alas, it's too naive, really."

Joseph was depressed because he had just received a message from the person in charge of the intelligence of the Dragon Temple. This time, there were not only Team 10 who came to assassinate Yin Chaoge, but also Team 9 that Team 10 was not aware of. Yes, Team 9 also came. And in Team 9, there were two God of War level killers. This time, they also sneaked into Usmaït. In the eyes of those from the outer region, what was Team 10? They were just a distraction. Team 9 who would complete the task of killing Yin Chaoge were hidden in the dark, even unbeknownst to Team 10.

On the outer region Battlefield, these simply ranked assassin groups never belonged to any single faction. Every single one of them was independent and operated independently. There were no fancy organizations, and they were simply and roughly ranked according to the strength of the assassin group. The smaller the number, the stronger the assassin group was. For example, Team 9 on the outer region Battlefield was far stronger than Team 10. Naturally, there were the stronger Team 8 and then Team 7, rumoured to have Divine King level experts.

At this moment, the reason why Joseph wanted to go out was that Alpha 1 and the others had been ordered to stay in the Yin family. Moreover, there were two God of War level killers in Team 9, and there were more than 20 killers at the peak of the Semi God of War level. They were very strong. If Alpha 1 and the others went out, they might be injured, and it was very likely that Paige would be in danger, so he went out.

More than ten minutes later, in a dark street not far from the Yin family's courtyard, more than 20 killers with strong auras were standing there quietly. The two leading them had the strength of the God of War Middle-stage. At this moment, they were all waiting for an opportunity.

One of the God of War assassins said to his companions, "The one in Team 10 has already lured Wang Tianhai out. He is only at the early stage of the God of War and is no match for Wang Tianhai. He should not be able to hold Wang Tianhai for long. We can take action now."

"Well, okay, let's take action." The other God of War killer nodded and said.

However, just as they were about to take action and attack and kill Yin Chaoge and the others, clear footsteps suddenly came from the end of the dark street in the distance. The next moment, a handsome man in a black suit appeared in front of a group of killers. The person was naturally Joseph.

After Joseph appeared, those killers stopped moving. Because Joseph's aura was very strong in their perception. He was an expert. The two killers looked at each other and looked at each other with shock and seriousness. Their information was exposed! "Who are you? We have nothing to do with you. I hope you don't meddle in our business!" A God of War-level killer said in an extremely serious tone.

Joseph smiled helplessly and said, "Well, you are right. You have nothing to do with me. In fact, it has nothing to do with me if you want to kill the people of the Yin family. I don't care about you. But my wife is at the Yin family's banquet. I don't want to interfere in your business. And you shouldn't have come!" What Joseph said was true. He really had no interest in dealing with the affairs of the Yin family.

Another God of War-level killer was rooted to the ground. He stared at Joseph and said, "Then we promise that we will only kill the people of the Yin family tonight! We will never hurt your wife! You can rest assured.

Hearing that, Joseph shook his head. "No, even if you don't touch anyone else, what if you scare my wife? So, you'd better go to hell!"

The first person to speak was the God of War expert. With a cold voice, he said, "Oh, Your Excellency, do you really think we are good people? Since you don't want to discuss this peacefully, I'll just kill you and then kill her!" As soon as the killer at the peak of the God of War finished speaking, the other dozen killers rushed toward Joseph. They wanted to kill him, and moreover, he was a God of War. But with so many of them and two masters at the God of War level, it was not difficult for them to kill him.

But the next moment, with a loud bang, the bodies of more than a dozen killers who rushed to Joseph suddenly flew back. Their heart meridians had been shattered in the air, and they died instantly. The killer at the God of War level also spat out a mouthful of blood, and then blood spurted out from all the pores of his body. He was seriously injured and was on the verge of death.

Joseph took two steps forward again and stared at the God of War killer who had attacked him, and then killed him with one punch. He said, "I've told you that you shouldn't have come." Joseph then broke his throat with a kick.

In an instant, in Team 9, the killer organization that was famous in the outer region, more than half of its members were killed. There were only three killers below the God of War level, and only one of the Gods of War left.

As Joseph continued to move forward, with a wave of his hand, some of the debris on the ground floated up, and then shot toward the remaining four people in TEam 9. In an instant, the killer at the peak of the Semi God of War level died, and the last killer at the God of War level also seriously injured and vomited blood. He was stabbed with more than a dozen pieces of debris, and could not run away.

The remaining God of War level killer looked at Joseph, who was walking toward him step by step, and the horror in his eyes had risen to the extreme. His lips trembled as he said, "You, you, you, you are at the Divine King level? You are definitely not a God of War! You are not a God of War! You, you, you, who are you? Who are you? Who on earth are you?"

Joseph walked to the last God of War-level killer, who was stunned and immobile. Joseph sighed and said, "Huh, Divine King-level? No, since you are dying, I can tell you... My name is Joseph Dawson. Maybe you don't know my name, but you must have heard of the Dragon Temple under my command."

"What? You, you, you, you, you are from the Dragon Temple, the Lord?" The God of War was scared to the extreme.

Because of their fame, there were four Divine Kings whose battle strength was far beyond that of the Gods of War under the command of the lord of the Dragon Temple! And according to the rumors in the outer region Battlefields, the strength of the mysterious lord of the Dragon Temple was even more unfathomable.

Half a year ago, the Lord of the Dragon Temple personally killed a Titan level expert from the Ironclouds Organization. He seriously injured another Titan level expert and slaughtered the colossal Ironclouds Organization, which had dominated the outer region Battlefield for many years! And now, the legendary Lord of the Dragon Temple, whose reputation had shocked the entire outer region Battlefield, was in front of him. In an instant, the God of War assassin was scared out of his wits.

Joseph sighed deeply and said, "In fact, I have retired. More than half a month ago, you should have received the news that I left the battlefield. Since you know that I am from the Frogua, why do you still come to the Frogua to court death?"

Chapter 99

After Joseph finished speaking, he reached out and pinched the heart of the God of War assassin. In an instant, the heart of the God of War assassin exploded and he died on the spot.

When Joseph killed the last God of War, his eyes gradually became cold. He was here, with his wife and child in Usmit, but the headquarters of the Frogua's military allowed these warriors to enter?! It was not that the headquarters of the Frogua's military didn't have high-end combat power. Sebastian's strength was equal to Joseph's after all. As a commander of the Titan level war department, how could it be possible that there were only a few Divine King level experts? However, Frogua had already been invaded by foreign forces.

Therefore, the only explanation was that the people of the military of the Frogua knew about the situation in Usmit, but they did not choose to send experts to stand guard. Even an expert at the Divine King level did not come. As for the reason? It was very simple, because Joseph was here! The Lord, whose combat capability was far beyond that of a Divine King, was there in person. To some extent, Joseph was better than Sebastian because Sebastian had a certain status, and hence had to stay in Vowhye for a long time, and was unable to deal with many things.

However, the feeling of being used as a weapon was very displeasing. The next moment, Joseph took out his mobile phone and called Terrance on video. When the line was connected, Joseph scanned all the corpses of the killers in the alley with his mobile phone camera. Then he looked at Terrance and said, "Two Gods of War, more than 20 foreign Semi God of War killers. Maybe there will be another batch later. Are you satisfied?"

On the opposite side of the video, Terrance, who was far away in Vowhye, smiled and said, "Thank you for your help, Lord. With you here, Frogua, will have nothing to worry about! If you have something to ask for in the future, Frogua's military will definitely not refuse and will even give you the whole department to command." Listening to the disgusting words from Terrance, Joseph couldn't help but jerk the corners of his mouth. Then he snorted and hung up the phone.

He sent another message to Qian Man, asking her to locate the location of Team 10 who had sneaked into the Usmit Sea. Five minutes later, Joseph disappeared in the dark for another eight minutes or so. When he was in front of the leader of Team 10 were fleeing wildly in the western suburbs of the Usmit Sea, Joseph's figure suddenly appeared. Without any nonsense, he directly tapped on the forehead of the leader.

Pu... With a soft sound, the eyes of the leader of Team 10 widened in despair, and then a big hole appeared in the middle of his head, and his body fell powerlessly to the ground. It was not until one minute later that the anxious Wang Tianhai, the Usmit God of War, rushed over. When he saw Joseph kill the God of War level killer, he was extremely surprised in his heart. Although Wang Tianhai's strength was stronger than that killer, the killer had been fast and difficult to deal with. Therefore, Wang Tianhai was delayed for more than half an hour and failed to kill the other party. But now, he was killed by Joseph in an instant!

Wang Tianhai was excited in his heart, and his fear and awe of Joseph deepened. He walked to Joseph and bowed respectfully. "Your honor!" Joseph scolded Wang Tianhai angrily in his heart. Then he turned around and disappeared in a flash.

Wang Tianhai's whole body was instantly drenched in cold sweat. He had just felt that the hostility on Joseph was very strong as if he was angry. Who had provoked the lord of the Dragon Temple? Wang Tianhai's heart was in turmoil.

But the next moment, he looked at the corpse of the Team 10 leader, as if he suddenly thought of something. He quickly took out his mobile phone to contact the subordinates of the guards of the Yin family. But before he could make a call, Lu Tianxun, who was in charge of Usmait's Police Department in the Yin family, gave him a video call.

Wang Tianhai answered the call in confusion, and then he saw Lu Tianxun leading more than a hundred Police Department experts to surround a dark alley. In front of Lu Tianxun, there were dozens of killer corpses lying on the ground. After letting Wang Tianhai take a look at them, Lu Tianxun found a place where there were fewer people. He said to Wang Tianhai in an extremely solemn tone, "All of the Team 9 assassins in the outer region Battlefield, including two God of War and more than 20 Semi Gods of War, are all dead." When Lu Tianxun was talking, he was sweating in fear.

Because among these corpses, even the weakest could be on par with him. But now they all died here silently. If it weren't for an old servant from the Yin family who transported garbage from the back door, they would not be aware of the situation.

Wang Tianhai was also stunned. After a long while, he said hoarsely, "The God of War assassin on my side is also dead. It was the Lord who did it. How is the Yin family doing?"

Lu Tianxun was also shocked and said, "Nothing. The Lord's subordinates are at the dinner party."

"The Yin family... the Yin family is really lucky to have gotten the Lord's wife to the dinner party. Mr. Wang, do you think the Lord will be angry this time? Why do I have the feeling that he has been used by those big shots?"

After hearing Lu Tianxun's words, Wang Tianhai's heart also trembled. After a long time, he nodded and said, "Well, I, I also have this feeling. Let's not talk about it. You deal with the scene. I will report it to the higher-ups."

After Wang Tianhai hung up the phone, he made a call to the Wang Family. However, before he could say anything, the latter said, "Huh... Mr. Wang, you don't have to report it to me. We all know what happened in Usmait. You just need to stay in the Usmait military. You don't have to ask Terrance about the rest." Then, the line disconnected, and Wang Tianhai didn't get a chance to reply.

Wang Tianhai, who was still standing in the western suburbs, looked dull for a long time. He looked at the body of the God of War assassin in front of him and said to himself, "Forget it, let's not bother about it!" Then, Wang Tianhai ran back to the Yin family.

At this moment, in the headquarters of Vowhye's military, Terrance was in a secret room with Sebastian. Terrance said to Sebastian with a strange expression, "Mr. Sebastian, that kid seems to be angry. He is very smart. He immediately guessed our intentions."

Sebastian lowered his eyes and said, "It doesn't matter. I didn't intend to hide it from him. It's not very peaceful in Vowhye recently. Some guys who have been hiding for many years want to emerge. I can't leave. At worst, I can give him Frogua's military, if Usmait's doesn't work."

At this moment, Sebastian was smiling amicably at Terrance. Although Joseph was a peerless genius and had great power, he was not smart enough for the two old foxes. In the end, he was defeated by these sly old foxes of Vowhye at this moment. They laughed happily. It was much easier for them. Frogua had an extra Titan level expert. From now on, they would have the power to go anywhere. When many things were dealt with, they would no longer have to be restrained and could drag the Lord over to settle matters.

Yes, if the Lord wasn't willing, they knew that his wife, the main bride at the Hundred Cities Wedding was very kind! When the time comes, they, who had been fighting for the Frogua for the entire of their lives, could beg her.

"Hehehe..." Sebastian and Terrance looked at each other. Both of them instantly understood each other's thoughts and plans. In their hearts, it was not easy to deal with Joseph. They didn't need to suppress him. They just needed to show kindness to him constantly. It was enough to show kindness to Joseph, as well as to the important people around him. After several times, how could the Lord get away?

At this moment, in the distant Usmait, Joseph, who had just returned home, could not help but feel a chill on his back and sneezed. He frowned and then looked in the direction of Vowhye. He felt that there were two old foxes plotting against him, but he had no evidence.

"Sebastian! Terrance! If it weren't for the fact that you two are elderly, I would have beaten you up!" Joseph's heart was itching with hatred. This was an open scheme! They didn't use it against him at all. They just wanted him to know that he might have been used as a tool, but he had to do it.

At the same time, in an ancient hall in the outer region Battlefield, which was thousands of miles away from Usmait, a group of strong experts at the God of War level were watching a red dot. The next moment, the red dot disappeared at an extremely fast speed. In a flash, the three biggest red dots also disappeared.

Boom! Everyone in the hall looked extremely serious. These people were all the foreign forces that had spent a lot of money and a great deal of money to hire killers to kill Yin Chaoge. But now, the killer organization they hired were all dead in the Usmait Sea! More than 30 outer region Semi God of War experts and three God of War experts! All of them were killed! None of them survived! These people looked extremely gloomy.

"Everyone, the waters of the Usmait Sea are very deep. It seems that the military of Frogua has attached great importance to the Usmait. I would like to ask for your opinion. Do you think that Sebastian has made his move? Or that the military of Frogua has sent a Divine King level expert to Usmait?" One of the foreign experts with blue eyes asked.

After he spoke, all the representatives of the forces fell silent. After a long silence, an expert said in a serious tone, "We have exact news that Sebastian is still staying in Vowhye and has not left."

However, Team 10 was dead in a flash, and even the stronger Team 9...

The foreign expert who had previously asked nodded and said, "Okay, not bad, then what is everyone's next intention?"

"I'd like to remind you that it's our aim to kill Yin Chaoge, the top industry talent in Frogua. Therefore, I've decided to send more powerful Divine King level experts to enter the border."

As soon as the man finished speaking, someone snorted and said, "A Divine King level expert? Are you kidding me? A Divine King level expert can dominate an area in the outer region Battlefield! He would be second only to a Titan level! You can easily ask him to come? Not to mention going to the unfathomable Frogua. Don't forget that the Lord of the Dragon Temple, who rose half a year ago, is said to be a peerless expert from Frogua! Who told you that there is only a Titan level expert in Frogua? It doesn't matter if a God of War enters the country, Frogua won't care too much about it. But a Divine King level expert? Well, don't be silly. Do you really think the Frogua military are fools? Are they pushovers?"

The next moment, another expert frowned and said, "Then should we give up? It's okay if we give up. Anyway, I have little power, so it doesn't matter."

At this time, an old man wearing a black cloak and a mask said, "Send a Divine King level expert to enter the border! We'll pay half of the price, and the other half will be from you."

After the old man's old voice emerged, everyone's faces changed, and a trace of fear appeared in the depths of their eyes. Because the old man in front of them was a Divine King! He had emerged from the battlefield in the outer regions! "Great! But a God of War has to be sent as well. Let's gather a group of Gods of War to enter together..." The blue-eyed expert who spoke first continued.

The old man nodded.
