Yan Xi stared at the girl for a moment. Her memory was very good, so she instantly matched the short-haired girl's face with one of the girls who had attended Chen Xiangxiang's birthday banquet the other day.

Her cherry lips moved slightly, and she apologized very perfunctorily. "Ah, sorry. I'm not used to people getting close to me. I got scared when you suddenly rushed over."

The onlookers who were waiting for a huge drama to unfold were speechless.

You're such a fearless person, how could you be afraid of that? Who are you kidding?!

Yan Xi said, "By the way, your eyesight doesn't seem to be good. I'm at least ten centimeters taller than Chen Xiangxiang. How did you mistake me for her from the back?" Her gaze landed on the top of the short-haired girl's head, and her beautiful eyes were smiling. "Oh, maybe it's because you're too short, so you don't have a concept about the difference in height of people that are taller than you."

"Y-you... Why are you attacking me like that?!" The short-haired girl's face flushed red in exasperation. "It was just that you look too much like Xiangxiang, so I mistook you for her!"

"Then why don't you mistake someone else as your mother?" Yan Xi suggested calmly. "If you have nothing to do, drink more milk and eat more walnuts so that you won't make such a low-level mistake again."

With that, Yan Xi left unhurriedly. The way she spoke was really good. Her tone was gentle, and her voice was clear and pleasant. The short-haired girl only understood what Yan Xi meant a long time after Yan Xi had left.

Was she saying that I'm short and brainless? I'm so angry!

Luo Wanrong witnessed the entire incident and muttered, "Why do I seem to like this eldest daughter of the Xi family?"

Zhan Xinrong and the others had set this up because Chen Xun had revealed to them that Yan Xi was having an allergic reaction to the medicine she was taking and that her face was covered in red rashes.

So now, there were rumors everywhere in school that Yan Xi looked like Chen Xiangxiang. Aren't they just trying to forcefully say that the two of them look similar, although that's far from the truth?

Moreover, some people thought that Yan Xi was a great beauty that was not inferior to Chen Xiangxiang because her eyes were extremely beautiful.

Moreover, her temperament and speech were even better than Chen Xiangxiang's.

Thus, Zhan Xinrong wanted everyone to see what the 'great beauty' actually looked like, thinking that it would definitely be a big surprise.

"Is there something wrong with you?" Zhan Xinrong was furious. "Whose side are you on?"

Luo Wanrong rolled her eyes and left. How should I put this? I feel like Zhan Xinrong and the other people in that group are a little abnormal.

It just seems as though liking Chen Xiangxiang and standing on her side has become the politically correct answer.

I don't want to argue with these lunatics at all.

Yan Xi had also heard a lot of rumors recently. Some said that she looked like Chen Xiangxiang, while others said that she was an ugly freak.

It wasn't surprising that Chen Xiangxiang's fans were making moves on her.

But according to how the plot developed in the novel, she had entered the school as a freshman before rumors were spread throughout the school that Chen Xiangxiang looked like her, which then placed her in a relatively high position.
