

The Three Little Guardian Angels Chapter 2326

Chapter 2326

“I won’t.”

Colton was very serious about this matter.

Something flitted across Freyja’s eyes. “Actually... There’s something I’d like to discuss with you...”

“What is it?”

Seeing how anxious he was, Freyja chuckled helplessly and said, “I’m going back to Yaramoor.”

Colton clenched at her shoulder. “You’re going back to Yaramoor? Are you going to leave Charm and me behind?”

Freyja was stunned. “When have I ever said that I want to leave you two behind?”

“I... Then why do you want to go back?”

It was only then Colton realized that he had overreacted. After all, she had said that she would leave him before giving birth to Charm. That’s why he panicked.

“I didn’t even attend the retest for the postgraduate exam. But if you don’t want me to go, then I won’t go.”

“Wait!” Colton grabbed her arm. “Retest for the postgraduate exam?”

Freyja showed him the text message on her phone and said, “I’ve been putting it off for a year, and when I wasn’t pregnant with Charm, I was going to finish the exam after I was done with the script.”

Colton turned around to look at her. “Freyja, there’s something I’ve wanted to ask you for a long time. Why did you move away three years ago? Why did you come to Bassburgh afterward?”

After that night they spent together, there was a misunderstanding. Freyja had assumed he left in the morning without saying anything because he did not want to acknowledge their relationship. However, the truth was that he was worried she would regret it when she woke up, and that was something he did not know how to deal with.

Then, she moved away, and they lost contact with each other. He did not see her anymore, even after he returned to Zlokova.

But he knew that

Freyja had been keeping in touch with Daisy. It was just that she never reached out to him.

After that, she appeared in Bassburgh, and she knew that he was in Bassburgh too.

Freyja looked at Colton. She knew that he wanted to know why she went “missing” three years ago. She pressed her lips and said, “Didn’t I already tell you? You were the one who left first in the morning. I thought you were not into our relationship. I was angry about it, so I decided to ignore you.”

“That’s why you moved away?”

No matter how angry she was, she would never move to a place where he could not find her.

Freyja was momentarily stunned and lowered her eyelids. “I didn’t move away because of you.”

Colton looked at her, and she said slowly, “After you left that morning, she came to me.”

“She?” Colton frowned. “Mrs. Pruitt?”

Freyja nodded.

Only then did understanding dawn upon Colton, including why Sandy brought Deedee to Bassburgh. It occurred to him that Freyja had moved away because of her mother.

He pulled Freyja into his arms and asked, “Then why didn’t you call me?”

She buried her head in his chest and replied, “How could I call you, and what should I say when I called you? I never thought we would be together at all.”

She was speaking the truth. She had not thought that they could be together before she came to Bassburgh. She had been under the impression he had already gotten over her.

Colton pinched her cheek and asked, “Then why did you come to Bassburgh?”

“Why couldn’t I come to Bassburgh? What if you had already forgotten about me?”

Colton chuckled and hugged her tightly in his arms again. "There's no way I can forget about you. Do you know that I was so angry with you that I wanted to choke you to death that time?"

"I'll sue you for domestic violence."

He laughed and whispered into her ear, "Does it count when we're in bed?"

Freyja beat him up out of exasperation. "What the hell are you talking about!?"

Colton ran around in the room and said, "Now you're abusing me. Freyja. I'm going to shout if you don't stop now."

She snorted angrily and threw a tissue box at him. "How can you be so shameless!?"

Suddenly, both of them heard Charm crying.

They hastily went upstairs to the baby's room and saw Charm crying while kicking.

Chapter 2327

Freyja went forward and picked her up. "Charm, why are you crying? All right, all right, Mommy is here."

However, Charm did not stop crying, no matter how Freyja tried to comfort her.

Freyja touched her diaper and lowered her head. "Oh no, she has pooped."

She hastily threw Charm into Colton's arms, stunning him. "Wait. She pooped, so why did you give her to me?"

While Freyja was opening up a new diaper, she said, "She's your daughter. How can you say no to your daughter's poop?"

Colton was rendered speechless.

Freyja gave him the diaper and said, "You do it."

He was stunned again. "I do it?"

She urged him, "Yes, hurry up. I'll guide you."

Colton put his daughter back on the bed. The disgust on his face was really evident when he undid her diaper.

Freyja could barely suppress her laugh.

When she saw Colton was going to wipe their daughter's butt with a paper towel, she cleared her throat and looked at the box of baby wipes.

After Colton wiped their daughter's butt with the baby wipes, he helped her to put on the diaper.

Freyja chimed in and said, "You've got it backward."

"There is a difference?"

She chuckled. "It's okay. You'll get it after changing it a few more times."

After a long time, Colton finally helped his daughter put on a new diaper. He did not expect that raising a child was even more difficult than signing a contract.

Charm had slept a lot, so she did not go back to sleep anymore. She kept her eyes open and looked at them.

Freyja sat at the side of the bed and held out her fingers for her to grab and play with.

Charm giggled.

Colton went closer and caressed her cheek. "My daughter looks like an angel."

His daughter's skin had smoothened out and was not as crumpled as when she was born. At the very least, she was not that ugly now.

Charm raised her leg and kicked his face, causing Freyja to let out a laugh.

Colton grabbed her little feet. "Is this how you treat your father?"

Charm kicked him again and laughed happily.

#Tiffany is on a variety show.#

#Tiffany revealed there is another story to the "badger game."#

After Daisie woke up and arrived at the shooting site to get her makeup done, she saw these two pieces of news and tapped on them. It was Tiffany talking about why she had withdrawn from the shooting in a variety show.

Just as Nollace had expected, Tiffany blamed the female influencer and told everyone that she was the victim.

Even though many netizens refused to believe her and thought she was just making excuses, it still gave Tiffany a great amount of exposure.

In the entertainment industry, there were a lot of celebrities who became popular in this way. They first made themselves look like a bad person on the Internet, and then they found a way to whitewash themselves while gaining a ton of followers in the process.

Right now, the comment section was flooded with Tiffany's followers.

#Tiff is just stating the truth. She isn't a hypocrite like someone.#

#Hah, I'm sure Daisie must've done something. That's why Tiff dislikes her so much. Besides, she has the guts to admit her mistake, so I don't understand why you are all scolding her. Are you sure there is nothing wrong with Daisie? Just because she has a big family background, does everyone have to follow her? #

#I suggest Daisie's followers stop bringing more hatred to her. It's embarrassing. If it weren't for her family background, do you think she could have become so popular?#

Meanwhile, Daisie received a call from an unknown number. She answered it, and it was a call from Pierre.

After Daisie finished her conversation with Pierre, she went to look for Shannon. After she shared her thoughts with Shannon, he fell silent and thought for a while. Since they couldn't find a suitable young actor, he nodded in the end.

Just when Daisie was about to go away, she ran into Zephir. She was stunned for a moment but braced herself and walked past him. Zephir did not call her either.

He stopped in his tracks, turned around to look at Daisie, and pressed his lips tightly.

Chapter 2328

When Shannon came out and saw Zephir, he called out to him. "Zeph."

Zephir turned his head around and offered him a smile. "Yeah, Mr. Fallon?"

"Daisie wanted to bring that young actor back into the crew. Since you're the one who asked him to leave, I want to ask your opinion about this."

In the end, Shannon decided to ask Zephir for his opinion.

After all, Zephir had persuaded the young actor to quit the film because the young actor had caused problems for the crew members. Now that they were calling him back, he did not want to make things difficult for Zephir.

Something flitted across Zephir's eyes as he said with a smile, "If Daisie wants to bring him back, then I don't have any problem with it."

Shannon nodded. Then, he said, "Zeph, maybe you should try to separate personal from business affairs."

Shannon had realized something, so he figured that he should give Zephir some advice. Zephir did not say anything in return, and Shannon left after giving him that advice.

Soon, Pierre returned. After Shannon talked to him, he promised that he would do his best in the shooting.

The crew members were not prejudiced against Pierre because of what he had done. After all, everyone knew that Tiffany had manipulated him.

After Pierre finished his part, he went to the trailer to look for Daisie.

Daisie bought him a cup of milk.

Pierre felt embarrassed and apologized to her. "I'm sorry for what I did before."

Daisie chuckled and caressed his hair. "I've already forgiven you. You don't have to apologize to me."

After Pierre left, James came.

He leaned on the trailer and looked in the direction Pierre had disappeared. "I can't believe that you asked him back."

Daisie said, "Well, he just got manipulated, so I don't see the reason we can't give him a second chance."

James looked at her. "You're so kind-hearted."

Daisie smiled and looked at him. "My part will finish next month. You need to watch out for yourself since I won't be here to take care of you."

James studied her and said, "Wow, judging from the fact that you're asking me to take care of myself, are you ready to sever your ties with your friend?"

Daisie lowered her eyes and replied, "Not yet. It's just that I don't think there's any need to maintain some friendships."

If Zephir really was the one behind Tiffany, then there was no need for her to be his friend anymore.

At Bassburgh, at Blackgold...

Leonardo brought Nollace back to the office.

Nollace pushed the door open, and Colton closed his document and raised his head. "I thought you're keeping Daisie company at Coralia? What did you come back for?"

"I want to talk about someone with you."

Nollace sat on the couch.

Colton came to the couch and sat opposite Nollace. Leonardo brought them two cups of tea and put them on the table.

"Who do you want to talk about?"

"Zephir," replied Nollace.

Colton froze for a moment and looked at him. "Why do you want to talk about him?"

"I'm sure you saw the news about Daisie and me some time ago, right?" Nollace asked indifferently.

Colton took a sip from the tea and replied, "Yeah."

After that, he put the cup down and continued. "You think Zephir is behind the incident?" Nollace leaned against the back of the couch and said, "Yeah."

Colton frowned but did not say anything.

“Daisie said that you guys have been friends since you were kids and that you attended the same school, so you should know more about him than I do.”

“I haven’t liked him since I was a kid. I don’t know why, but he feels like a hypocrite to me.” Colton looked at the tea in the cup. “If it wasn’t for the fact that he was nice to Daisie, I wouldn’t have let him have the opportunity to get close to her.”

The Three Little Guardian Angels Chapter 2329

Chapter 2329

Daisie

and Zephir had been good friends since they were young. After Lisa’s incident, Zephir and Lea were the people who helped her get back on her feet.

Nollace looked at him and said, “He sees Daisie more than as a friend.”

Colton clicked his tongue and replied, “Are you jealous of him?”

Nollace picked up the cup and chuckled. “Why should I be jealous of him? You’ve underestimated Daisie’s love for me. She’ll only stand on my side.”

Colton snorted. “Stop it. It’s gross.”

Nollace took a sip from the tea and asked, “Did Zephir do anything in the past?”

Colton thought for a while and asked, “What do you mean?”

He said, “Has Zephir ever done anything behind Daisie’s back?”

Colton fell silent for a moment and suddenly remembered something. “Do you still remember what Lisa said when she was trying to hurt Daisie?”

Nollace thought for a while and replied, “She said it’s you and Daisie who destroyed her future since you guys were the ones who made her unable to study at any school in Bassburgh.”

“Daisie thought I did it, but it wasn’t me. Still, I’m not sure if it’s his doing or not.”

They were the last ones to learn that Lisa had been expelled from the school. As for why she had been expelled, Colton had assumed it was a decision made by the school. He had not done anything and had never ordered the schools in Bassburgh not to accept Lisa.

However, other than the Goldmanns, only the Goslings could do such things at that time .

Meanwhile...

Edison arrived at the house of the female influencer. He knocked on the door for a long while, but no one came to answer the door.

Edison frowned. He had been watching the female influencer for a few days and hadn't seen her leave the house.

Feeling that something was not right, Edison kicked the door open and entered the room. The female influencer was lying unconscious on the side of the bed, and the floor was littered with a bottle of medicine.

When Nollace came out of Blackgold, he received a call from Edison. "Sir, Ms. Larson tried to kill herself by taking sleeping pills. I've already sent her to the hospital."

Nollace frowned. "How is she now?"

Edison replied, "The doctor has performed gastric lavage, and she's safe now."

"Watch her closely in the hospital. I'm on my way back."

Nollace ended the call and frowned deeply.

At Coralia, at the hospital...

Edison was standing outside the ward. After the female influencer came around, he went inside, "Ms. Larson."

The female influencer looked at the ceiling blankly. "Why am I not dead yet?"

She had lost the courage to live.

She had to suffer mean comments from the netizens and her neighbors. Whenever she went, people would look at her with contempt as if she was the worst kind of person in the world. She had to live in fear every day, and she really had enough of it.

Standing at the side of the bed, Edison asked, "Why did you try to end your life?"

"I can't keep it going anymore. I'm scared..." Tears were trickling down from the corner of her eyes. She had been under the impression she just needed to stay low profile for a while, and people would forget about this matter after some time.

All she had done was just put on a show. She thought she would have nothing to do with it after getting the money, but she did not expect that she would end up being somebody else's scapegoat.

She wanted to tell the truth. She wanted to tell everyone that things were not as Tiffany said.

But she was scared...

She was scared that Tiffany might come and look for her.

Edison looked at her and said, "If you die, then Tiffany will get what she wants. I'm sure you know who put you in this situation. Are you really willing to die just like that?"

The female influencer was stunned.

'Yeah, he's right. I can't just die like that. Why must I be her scapegoat?'

After she calmed down, Edison asked, "What does Tiffany have on you?"

The female influencer clutched tightly at the duvet. She still didn't trust Edison completely so she asked, "Who are you? Why are you helping me?"

The Three Little Guardian Angels Chapter 2330

Chapter 2330

Edison replied, "I work for Mr. Knowles. Mr. Knowles is going to give you a chance to prove your innocence. I'm sure you know who's the mastermind behind this incident, right?"

The female influencer's face turned pale.

She fell silent for a moment before spilling the truth, "Tiffany and I were college friends. We graduated from the same film academy. However, after I graduated, I could only work on some web series. I couldn't make a name for myself, so I decided to become an influencer. As for her, she did better than me in the entertainment industry..."

She was far behind Tiffany in terms of her fame and status in the entertainment industry

Even though Tiffany was not an A–lister, she was a C–list actress at the very least. However, Sophie was an F–lister, still living in straitened circumstances even after becoming an influencer.

Sophie told her fans that she was a socialite, but the reality was that everything she owned, including her luxury house and sports cars, was not hers. She rented from other people. Therefore, she owed a lot of money, but luckily, her income as an influencer was able to pay off the installment. 1

Later, she slowly started losing her followers. She couldn't pay off the installment anymore with her salary, so she had no choice but to borrow money from Tiffany.

Tiffany lent her $40,000 without any hesitation, so Sophie was very thankful for her at that time.

After that, Tiffany asked her for help in setting up Nollace.

She had hesitated for a long time but couldn't say no to Tiffany because she still owed her money. In the end, she had no other choice but to help Tiffany.

After Edison learned the whole thing, he said, "So, you helped her to set up Mr. Knowles because you owe $40,000?"

Sophie lowered her head and said, "There's nothing I could do. She wanted me to pay her back the money in one go if I refused to help her. I don't have that much money. She knows that I owe a lot of debts, and everything I have, including those luxury bags, sports cars, and the luxury house, is rented. If she exposes me on the Internet, my career will be ruined."

Tiffany knew all her secrets. She was not a socialite who came to experience life but an ordinary model.

She initially gained a lot of fans by telling everyone that she was a "socialite" who came to experience life, and everyone believed in her. If Tiffany exposed her, then she wouldn't be able to continue to be an influencer anymore.

Sophie covered her face and cried.

She was just doing Tiffany a favor. She did not expect things to turn out this way. Now she had become the street rat that everyone despised. She had had enough of facing cyber violence and the glares of her neighbors every day.

Edison sighed. "You still have your hands and feet, so I'm sure you can find a way to feed yourself even after you stop being an influencer. You're just trapped by your fake persona. You can't let go of the life of standing under the limelight and being adored by other people. Fame and fortune are a double-edged sword. When you're enjoying your life, you should consider the consequences of exposure. What you lack is the courage to face it. Otherwise, Tiffany's threat wouldn't be able to work for you.

"On the contrary, the one who should be wary of you is her. You're not even afraid of death, so why do you have to be afraid of her threat?"

It was already 7:00 p.m. by the time Nollace returned to Coralia.

He received a message from Edison.

[All done.]

After reading the message, he stored the phone in his pocket. When he returned to the suite in the hotel, Daisy was drying her hair in the bathroom.

She was wearing a very thin nightgown that accentuated her figure.

Nollace stepped into the bathroom and hugged her from the back. As he sniffed her hair, he commented, "You smell so good, Daisy."

She blinked and said, "Help me to dry my hair."

Nollace chuckled and took over the hairdryer. While he ran his fingers over her soft and silky hair, he asked, "Are you not going to ask me where I've been?"
