Bella turned to stare at Blade who nodded his head, Blade had seen her speed and it was quite surprising to see her run so quick.

“Are you comfortable letting him know about this. I trust him but a little.”

Blade said, glaring at his brother who gave him a wink.

Bella smiled lightly, this two brothers so much loved each other and they seems to be grumpy about it.

“Yes.”

Bella said, smiling at him, assuring him how much she trusted him.

“I knew she trusted me full time.”

Kurt said, throwing Bella a wink.

Blade rolled his eyes which struck Bella by surprise, she could not believe the king could ever be sarcastic. She was totally stunned for a moment, there are some parts of the King she did not know about, for example, the forbidden hall.

“She is an hybrid.”

Blade blurted out, watching as Kurt stared at him with surprise.

“A what, a hybrid. How the fuck did my baby girl turned to and hybrid.....”

“She isn’t your baby girl!”

Blade screamed at him, shutting him up, perhaps stuffing some bottles into his head will make his brother understand that Bella belongs to him.

‘Here they go again.’

Bella thought.....

“What?”

Bella heard the two brothers said at once, when she looked up, she found out they were staring at her.

“Oops, I must have said that aloud.”

Bella said, staring at the two brothers with an innocent smile on her face.

Blade turned to stare at his brother, waving his head lightly, he began again.

“She turned to a hybrid because I gave her my blood, when she became ill, there was no option for her, it was either she die or live only if she takes my blood and taking my blood came with an option, either she dies or live, she will only live if she have a strong blood.”

Blade said, staring at his mate.

He could not believe his mate was the daughter of an alpha, she was raped in her own pack, he felt his blood rose up in anger. Slowly he breathed in and out, he was going to the pack to find out every information about her and the pack and what heavy secrets they hide, nothing else.

“So she survived.”

Kurt said, turning to stare at Bella as if he had not seen her before.

“Of course she did, does she appear dead in your eyes.”

Blade said, his brother have this way of asking foolishness questions at the wrong time but then he thought, there was no right time for him either.

“I am the daughter of an alpha, not the omega I always thought I was.”

Bella blurted out, staring at Kurt as he opened his mouth in awe.

“Oh my geez, this is terrifying insane. Damn your pack is one hell of an evil pack. Well well, i got a lot of assignment to do then which is training you.”

Kurt said, staring at Bella, Bella was surprised that he said the same thing Blade has spoken about.

“You need to be a strong alpha to lead such pack. Definitely we gonna help you revenge back. But we have a problem, we havent find those people who wanted you dead, also my dear lovable brother dead. I can't loose both of you when we are fighting a battle.”

Kurt said, walking towards Blade and Bella.

“Yes about that, my men are tracking the people who kidnapped my mate, all observatories have been ordered to check.....but...why the fuck am I telling you this, I supposed not to Inform you about it, I don't trust you.”

Blade said, taking his mate hand and leading her to sit on a chair.

Kurt waved his head slowly, his brother was quite a stubborn one. He was never never going to hurt his brother or his mate or maybe he will.

He smiled lightly.

“Well I trust him. I have some vital information I got to tell you king Blade.....”

“Call him lover or honey or sweetheart instead, you guys should have fucked each other by now ”

Kurt said, interrupting their speech.

Bella turned to stare at Kurt then she stared at Blade, Blade never looked angry this time, it was as if he.....

“I am sorry mon amour but I sadly support him this time. Call me by my name both in public or within.....”

“Not In bed though....she can add seducing names like wet me so bad baby or sweet dick.....”

Kurt said, smiling mischievously as he saw a hot blush appeared on Bella’s cheeks.

“Out!”

Blade said, emphasizing more with his hands.

“But she have something to tell us right.”

Kurt said, watching as Bella waved her head slowly. Kurt was a pervert, that she has come to know. A real huge pervert just like his brother, they both possessed the same quality.

Blade closed his eyes momentarily.

“Ok Mon amour, I am sorry, you can resume.”

Blade said, watching as Bella gave him a heart blowing smile.

“Good. I saw the human got killed that morning, a human got killed in the castle.”

Bella said, watching as the two brothers stared at her surprisingly. Their quietness confirmed that she should continue with what she was saying.

“The morning after your party, when you had called for me in the morning. When I left your room I saw a passage, a strange quiet passage, I could not find any guard protecting the passage neither could I find anyone walking in the passage. So I walked into it, when I walked into the passage, I heard some voices and quickly I hid. I couldn't see their faces, they covered them selves with big clothings, I heard them mentioned about....."

Bella kept quiet, mentioning anything about the previous king's grave might trigger their emotions, so she will have to skip that and perhaps speak about it with Blade.

"They mentioned that the man failed on his task, he never killed you perhaps through poisoning or so and they mentioned a woman, her name wasn't mentioned either, but it was kept hidden. They said she was the one to take care of me and then have you all by your self. They wanted you dead by someone else but the anonymous woman wanna keep you all by your self. So they killed the human and never hid his body because they wanted to inform you that the castle wasn't safe anymore for you and the ones you love. But it seems I must have seen anonymous woman. The woman who kidnapped me is the woman that wants you and wants I dead."

Bella said, watching as Blade closed his eyes for a moment.

The Vampire Omega by Angelic Chapter 72

/ The Vampire Omega by Angelic

Blade thought, there are two people who could want his mate dead, Isabella and Azura Ashrak, but he doubt Isabella can stoop so low to try such stupid act, Isabella had some fears in her, she cared more about her life, then there was the second person, Azura Ashrak, the only woman whom has dare challenge him and whom he had disgraced infront of everyone, Azura was the one who might have been part of this, but then who could want him dead, who is working or not working with Azura. They both need different things. There was only one person who could want him dead, the man whom he cut off his arm but he was a werewolf unless there was another enemy who wants him dead. Aloric.....

Blade frozed, why haven't he noticed his expressions earlier when he had asked him about his mate.

He looked as if he knew something had happened to Bella and then his expression, that seconds shocked face was so hard not to see but he Blade was not focused on him, he had not expected him to be the king's traitor, how could Aloric not try to harm him, he disgraced him by disgracing his precious daughter.

"Fool...."

Blade hissed, quickly staring up at Kurt who looked as if he had gotten the whole idea in his head.

"Did you know who is doing this, who tried to kill me."

Bella asked, staring at Blade as if he owed her an answer.

"Yes I do. Kurt watch them closely and teach her the basic things she got to learn about protection."

Blade said, his words caught Bella by surprise. He was keeping her in the dark after revealing all this to her.

"You are keeping me in the dark."

Bella asked, staring at him in surprise.

"Yes...."

"Why..."

Bella cut him short, Blade growled slowly, he was still the vampire king, he never liked to be cut off.

Blade stood up, working towards her, when he reached a feet away from her, he frowned his face.

"Because you headed to a direction where you are supposed not to head and I do not have the guts to tell you anything. You can blow it up."

Blade said, Blade watched as her face tightened with anger which he had never seen in her before, he had hurted her and he felt his heart broke into pieces at what he had said. It was best he hurt her than let her know Who wanted her dead, letting her know will make the traitors find out they know because she will make it obvious to them and then when that happens, it will be drastic for them.

"Take her away."

Blade said, watching as Kurt whom he hated to come near his mate was holding his mate and comforting her.

"But my actions just revealed the lead to you and you can't tell me who they are."

Bella said, holding the tears that was about to break through her body.

"Yes it did, and I am grateful for that. But yet I will choose you not going into that passge amd witnessed murder. I would have found out who the traitors were."

Blade said, quickly turning his back towards her, he slammed his hands Into his pockets, folding his hands in fist, that was the only way he could vent his anger.

"Honey, I know you are witnessing your first romantic heart break, I will help you pass over it, Blade Is a dick, a huge dick."

Kurt said, whispering Into Bella's ears.

A ding on his phone set his eyes opened and what he saw shocked him to the core, it was a email, from the great vampire's land, they had accepted their invitation to attend his ceremony of becoming a good alpha.

"Now what is that smile on your face alpha Lucas?"

Kira said, stroding towards Lucas in a bikini, her body was wet from taking a shower, her baby bump was getting bigger and bigger, for werewolves, they take a minimum of six months and a maximum of seven months to give birth to their pups.

"The great vampire king accepted our invitation."

Lucas said, handing her the phone for her to see the message.

When Kira read the message, she felt her heart reeled with joy.

"Oh my, my plan had work, now we got to celebrate then prepare. We aren't preparing much because I have been preparing this for ages. Now I can wait for our son to come to the wonderful world we have built, soon enough you will be the werewolf alpha king because you are the first to build an alliance with the vampires."

Kira said, quickly walking to the closet.

"Inform your father about this great news. I hope this excites him just as it have excited me. I can't wait to build an empire with you."

Kira said, wearing a dress and the walking slowly towards Lucas.

"Now let's make you happy, for achieving such things."

Kira said, slowly removing the clothes from Lucas body.

"But I think you want.....hmmmm...us to celebrate with the pack."

Lucas said, Kira wasn't the one to celebrate quickly.

"But I prefer this celebration first before the other."

Kira said, sucking unto his dick slowly and bringing out heavy moans from Lucas, but if only they knew what the vampire king had in store for them. He got a full jam pack of surprise for them.

The Vampire Omega by Angelic Chapter 73

/ The Vampire Omega by Angelic

The door to the Tesla opened, a guard quickly opened the door for her.

Kira stood gently, waiting to personally receive the vampire king into their pack.

It was the day of the party, the day to bond up with the vampires and know their ways.

She knew the vampires were rich, what she had heard of them was mostly about how cultural they were, they weren't yet used to the modernized lifestyle but it seems she must have heard the wrong information about them, because the car she could see standing few feet away from her was no other than the latest Tesla Model S, the newest of it's kind.

It was an electric machine that no one, not even Lucas could afford to buy and this car have been escorted by more than twenty cars which she could not see the ending of and each cars which escorted the main car were of different fucking expensive types.

They ranges from SUVs to Limousines to Mercedes Benz.

Kira felt a knot in the stomach, she felt like fainting, this was the highest levels of richness she had ever seen.

Then she felt the door to the Tesla opened, first she saw a shoe, a bright silver fucking eight inches shoes that was fucking made of glass, the legs who wore the shoes was definitely a goddess because her legs were as smooth as anything she could ever imagine.....then slowly, the figure who wore the shoes stepped out in all her glory, she wore a bright shiny gown that have sparkles all around it. The gown brought out this mysterious woman's curves, making her so damn perfect, her gown was more like a tight skin wedding gown and the aura she possessed can be felt from where she stood.

Without thinking twice, she knew this woman was the type of woman the vampire king could have in his arms. This mysterious woman who wore a mask in a party as huge as this was the vampire king's woman. Lara will have to back off, there was no way her sister could compete with someone as beautiful as this woman.

Then she felt a figure strode towards the woman, a tall huge figure, his presence alone told her that this was the great vampire's king.

Quickly looking at them once more, she whispered.

"They are perfect for each other."

And quickly, she slipped into the party, she can't welcome them in alone. They came with something bigger than what she expected.

They came with power, dominance and talks which will be popular in the pack, especially the young woman, tied into the hands of the vampire king.

She felt her fist clench at this thought, a stranger was trying to compete with her in beauty, even in pregnancy, men still drool on her.

“They are here.”

She heard a voice said, Kira turned slowly, for the first time, she saw the vampire king’s full face in all his glory.

The vampire king was the most handsome man she had ever seen, he had the best pose and the best stature every woman would dream of seeing in their man.

Kira felt her zeal loosened to the lowest.

She could not believe what was happening to her, she was beginning to think insane thoughts about this handsome but scary man who stood in the center of the party with a very lovely masked woman in his arms.

“Let’s go welcome them Kira.”

Lucas said, smiling down at his Luna.

Kira nodded her head, she hoped she never tripped in her heels.

Bella stared at the woman who stood in the hall staring down at her, all thanks to the mask, she was able to disguise herself.

If not, she might have been killed with their evil stares of surprise and other thoughts.

She had first caught her dear sister staring at her in the frontage that leads to the party ground and she was surprised at how huge she had become, Kira was pregnant, Kira was pregnant for whom though, perhaps Ronald? That was the question that kept lacing through her mind until the jerk face Blade decided to interrupt her thoughts.

Yes! She was still mad at him, even though their mating bond still missed him like hell.

“Mon amour, I keep apologizing to you but you haven’t replied me even for once, I am sorry for saying those words to you, I want to protect you.”

Blade whispered lowly only for her to hear.

“Yeah I know, as if the trainings you made me passed through isn’t enough protection. You practically turned me to a military woman. I can now use guns and run just like a vampire. All thanks to you.”

Bella hissed lowly under her mask, immediately she said those words, she felt Blade's hands which came to rest dangerously as he squeezed her ass, a gasp escaped from her lips, quickly she turned to stare at Blade. He was a pervert even in a party.

"Back off from me. I do not wanna be close to you. You are a perve..."

Blade never give her the chance to complete his words because quickly he pushed her closer towards him, not minding the hundreds of people that was staring at them.

Bella widened her eyes, she had said the wrong words at the wrong time and place and Blade wasn't the type to mind if anyone was watching or not and without thinking twice, he slamed his lips on hers, kissing the visible flesh he could lay hold in the mask.

He grabbed on her ass, claiming her then and there..

Bella moaned at his touch, how much she miss his lips, she could not believe she could ever stay so long without tasting those precious lips of his.....

"Ehemmmmm...."

They heard someone coughed, Bella slowly stopped kissing Blade, quickly adjusting her mask, she turned to stare at the man who stood few feet away from them.

She felt Blade's hand hanged low on her hips.

"Am sorry for distracting this beautiful moment. Welcome to my pack king Blade."

Lucas said, he was an alpha, not mightier than the powerful vampire king, but there is no way he would bow down to him.

Bella felt her hands ran cold at whom she saw standing few feet away from her, she could not believe Lucas was the new alpha, of cause he would be the new alpha.

Just then, she saw a woman strode towards them, her hair bouncy as they walked up towards them, another woman followed closely, then three more men and more females, they all strode towards them. Bella felt her breath knocked off for a while.

Her fake family, that is her mother and sisters were actually standing opposite her to welcome her back to the pack without them knowing.

Without having anyone to inform her how far the pack must have progressed, she realized Kira was actually the new Luna.

The way she draped her hands around Lucas as if there was someone who could drag the devil with her.

She felt a snort appeared on her face.

This party felt so good.

She wasn't focused in what so ever that was going on because she was so busy observing the little changes she could find in her previous pack. It was a shame no one spoke or asked about the previous omega where about.

But she was proven wrong when she heard a voice mentioned her name in the pack.

"It's quite a pity that my sister is dead to witness this great occasion. Am quite ashamed to say my sister was the omega of the pack, and she is not here to serve you in trays and golden cups. She was good at serving others, that was the only good thing I found interesting about her."

Kira said smiling brightly, Bella folded her fist behind her dress, even in death they still disregarded her.

Blade held her hand, unwrapping her folded fist, assuring her not to loose control which she was about to do.

"And what must have happened to the omega?"

The Vampire Omega by Angelic Chapter 74

/ The Vampire Omega by Angelic

Blade asked, Bella slowly turned to stare at Blade, she smiled wickedly behind the mask that covered her entire face.

"Oooh, some of our men who tried stopping her from escaping the pack said they saw her fled to the direction of the vampire's land. Perhaps, you must have killed her your self. Which we are kinda grateful f....."

"Do not mind the Luna, sometimes her pregnancy causes her to spill alot. But perhaps, did you find a werewolf in your pack?"

Lucas asked, he was quite inquisitive to know if his previous mate had died or not and there was a problem, he could not keep his eyes off the Vampire king's woman, she was so special and exquisite.

She looked so familiar, quickly waving off the thoughts on his head.

"Nope, I did not kill a werewolf. Perhaps any werewolf that ran into my pack might consider themselves lucky."

Blade said, lightly squeezing Bella's waist.

Bella shuddered at his touch.

"But am curious though, what must have left the only omega of the pack to escape from a pack as beautiful and united as yours?"

Blade asked, Bella froze at his question, if the king comes to know that Lucas was his mate, there will be war and all her plans will be shattered, if only Blade knew this question came with a great answer.

"Please come sit down with this beautiful lady. It won't be nice if she stands up for long."

Lucas said, avoiding the last question.

Kira snuggled into the arms of Lucas, a mischievous glint appearing in her eyes.

"You do not wish to inform the king whom the omega was to you."

Kira whispered into Kira's ear, Lucas tightened his hands in anger.

"You need to keep shut, you started this by the way."

Lucas whispered into Kira's ear, Kira smiled, this party was going to go well and she will make sure the vampire king becomes quite acquainted by her.

"OK."

Kira said, nodding her head slightly, Lucas turned to stare at her, he could not believe she just accepted to be quiet, he wasn't going to believe her till the party is over.

"I will believe you till this party is over. Please Kira don't try anything funny."

Lucas said, staring at her, Kira nodded her head slightly.

"Ok again."

She said, now they were sitting on the VIP table which has been decorated for the vampire king and the few vampires who had come with him.

The werewolves had a different tables from the vampires.

The main party then started.

Blade stared at every werewolf in the party, the alpha had skipped his question and he was not happy about that.

They had been sitting in the chair, talking about business and growth for both pack but Bella never said a word all through out the party.

(How far are you in getting any documents or evidence that can lead to the previous owners of the pack.)

Blade midlinked to Carson, everything had been planned, one of the reasons why he wanted to be in this pack so badly was because he wanted to get some clues that will expose the alpha of the pack, speaking of the alpha, he had not seen the great alpha, the one that preceded before Lucas. He was quite curious to know who the old man was.

(We have entered the pack, among our men who are taking care of our pack duties are Simone and Jacob, while the rest of us are In the Air Winder Pack. Perhaps they weren't expecting us to enter the pack. We found some document which looks kinda familiar and strange. We will collect them and then replace them with other files.)

Carson said, walking into the other shelves. There were but few guards in the werewolf pack, every body must have been so concentrated in the pack party that no one was able to think about what might happen from within.

"Where is your father? the previous alpha?"

Blade asked, staring at Lucas, who stared back at him in surprise.

"Oooh my father, he will be here soon enough."

Lucas said, slowly turning to stare at the door which has just opened, revealing the previous alpha.

"Oh my, here is he."

Lucas said, surprised to see his father, he hoped his father wasn't here to cause confusion.

Vincent strode towards the table where the vampires sat. His face changed immediately to one of anger, he looked as if he had seen a long term enemy.

"Welcome to my pack vampire Blade."

Vincent said, staring at Blade, Blade stared at him in surprise, he was not expecting to see this man whom he has cut off his arm since the last previous years in the last war caused by Lucas and his pack. Bella stared at the previous alpha, the werewolf was getting older and weaker. She wondered why no one had recognized her, perhaps it was because she was no longer an ordinary werewolf, but a werewolf and vampire, perhaps her vampire scent must have masked her true scent.

"It's been quite a long time we had last seen each other. So you allowed your son to send an invitation to your enemy. I never knew you were the previous alpha. Now it all makes sense."

Blade said, throwing the man a mischievous laugh.

Vincent folded his hand in fist, this man was the reason he had lost an arm.

"I do not welcome you here...."

"Father enough, this is my pack and this is my party, you do not dare speak to my guest like that. Guards, lead my father out from the party. I hate interruptions."

Lucas said, quickly the guards walked towards Vincent, they wouldn't dare hold the previous alpha like a prisoner.

"You will regret what you did Lucas. I hope you don't bring all my hard work to the ground."

Vincent said, quickly leaving the room, two guards escorted him out from the room.

"I am so sorry over what happened, my father is quite getting older. Please let's drink and merry, for I have good news."

Lucas said standing up and working towards the stage. Picking up a glass, he hit on it gently.

Bella and everyone in the pack stared at him, Kira stood beside him, a smile adorning her face.

"Well I am so grateful that the almighty vampire king accepted my invitation to my party. It is a great honor to have you and your pack members here, it really shows we werewolves that what people have been saying about the vampire king were pure lies. We werewolves and the entire vampires in the room toast for good wills and more future alliance with the vampire lands."

Lucas said and quickly, everyone gave a toast.....Blade smiled gently, slowly holding his mate hands.

He could not believe that Lucas was quite a foolish man, he wasn't good enough to decipher the drawings on the wall..

"Since the vampires are now in good alliance with the werewolves, it is best we inform the king what and why the omega left the pack. Hiding secrets like this will make the vampires feel insecure."

Kira said, watching as the entire pack likewise the vampires stilled to listen to her, she breathed in, finally she had gotten noticed, she have gotten the attention she wanted.

The Vampire Omega by Angelic Chapter 75

/ The Vampire Omega by Angelic

Bella froze when she heard those words from the disgusting lips of her sister, she knew the game her sister was trying to play. Her sister was trying to get noticed, her big fat stomach must have gotten her reeled up.

“Please do not say this.”

Lucas whispered into the ears of Kira, but Kira already made her mind up.

“Everyone must have known what an omega was, the least valuable werewolf in the pack.”

Kira said, turning to stare at the lady on the mask, Bella felt her knuckles turned white when the woman stared down at her, the woman described her as less valuable, how dare she.

“Yes she was the less valuable member of the pack and when she grew up, everyone considered her to be wolfless because she was wolfless. Isn't that a pity.”

Kira said, smiling with all her teeth opened as if she was making an advert for a toothpaste company.

Blade folded his hands, he was ready to punch that woman and stop her from speaking but it was already late because the next words she spoke made him went hard rock.

“Well, what happens when this lowly omega got mated to Lucas who is now the alpha of the pack. Well long story short, she got rejected and then escaped from the pack, perhaps she just have been eaten by the dragons or maybe she is alive. But I do not think someone like her worth to be alive.”

Kira said, watching the astonishing looks on all the vampires faces, but except one person, the mysterious woman who had not introduced her self in the party.

Bella felt her heart plummeted out from her body, she felt dizzy for a while, was this the lies they had been sharing to everyone, that she escaped because she got rejected. She turned slowly to stare at Blade. The gaze he gave her made her heart to shatter into pieces, he had heard the most important part of her life in an open party, not from her directly.

Blade looked straight forward, he was not ready to stare at her, not now, he was confused, confused by the fact that perhaps she would have told him but she wasn't ready yet, but hearing it from someone else that his mate had a first mate who without thinking was the one who had raped her broke through his veins and jolted him like an electricity.

Slowly he turned to gaze at the alpha who had invited him to the pack, the man stood beside his wife, shoulders raised up after doing such wicked act to his previous mate while his mate lay low like an ant, NO! never, he was not going to sit here and watch this happen.

Quickly his right foot moved, ready to strike.....

"And what must have caused her to run away like that, are you trying to say nothing happened. Where did he rejected her, in the entire pack or in a hidden place."

A manly voice said, making everyone in the room to turn towards the owner of the sweet voice.

Bella breathed slightly when she saw who owned the voice, it was no other person than Kurt, what was he doing here.

Kurt turned towards her, throwing her a wink.

"Who are you....."

"Sorry for coming late to the party, I was quite busy with various tasks, but I wouldn't miss a party like this. I am the Kurt Hemlock, the brother to the vampire king."

Kurt said, interrupting Kira from completing her speech.

"Oooh, welcome, welcome to the Air Winder Pack."

Kira said, she was already captivated by this new vampire who have entered the party.

"Perhaps I should introduce you to my sister, she will be so happy to see you."

Kira said, if the main vampire king is taken, then the brother wouldn't be.

"Ooh do not bother, I am not here for hook ups, also, she can't handle me taking blood from her."

Kurt said, showing them his fangs.

Kira felt her heart stopped working for a seconds, the fangs of the vampire scared her to death.

"My question, where was she rejected?"

Kurt asked, he had been in the party ten minutes ago and he have been watching his brother when everyone heard what his mate truly was. He knew if he did not take action, something might happen.

"I don't think is necessary to know."

Kurt said, he was yet to understand how this new vampire was able to cross his border alone and also was able to take over the party with his question.

"Because we would be future allies, it will be quite good to know some certain things, things should not be hidden."

Kurt said, when he turned to face the entire room, he noticed some of the vampires who had come with the king nodded their head in agreement.

"She was rejected in my personal chambers."

Lucas said, he was acting like a weak alpha, perhaps was his father right, did he made the right decision by inviting the vampires into his pack.

Bella watched Lucas through her mask, there was no way Lucas would say the truth.

"I did not want to reject her in all the entire pack because I did not want to disgrace her. So please let's enjoy ourselves and not speak about the last. The omega was a past."

Lucas said, smiling down at Blade who reciprocated back with a tight and devilish smile.

Bella held her fist together, she could not stand with this stay in the same room with this liars anymore.

Quickly she stood up, she needed some fresh air, quickly walking to a butler who was serving drinks.

"Please lead me to the rest room.

Bella said, gazing at Blade for the last time who in turn gazed back at her she followed the Butler out from the room.

The Butler led her to the rest room which previously was her duty to clean.

"Thanks, I will be back in a jiffy."

She told the Butler who bowed his head.

Bella quickly locked the door to the rest room, she turned to face the mirror, slowly she removed the mask which had hidden her face throughout the entire party. She breathed in freely for the first time, slowly closing her eyes.

Lucas had dared lied to the entire pack, how dare he lied and make him appear like the good person he wasn't.

But that wasn't her problem, her problem was how she was going to appease the vampire king. He must have gotten the idea who had really raped her and damaged her integrity.

Quickly wiping off the tears that stained her face, she left cleaned up quickly before someone caught her.

Just then she heard a knock on the door.

"Hello, are you in there."

She heard a woman's voice said, quickly Bella recognized it as her sister's voice.

She felt her heart plummet inside her, how had her sister traced her, did her sister discovered who she truly was.

The Vampire Omega by Angelic Chapter 76

/ The Vampire Omega by Angelic

Quickly Bella opened the door, as expected, Kira was standing on the door way.

"Oooh am so sorry for interrupting you, I was just passing by and I was worried because you have stayed in here for quite long."

Kira said, trying to gaze through the mask.

Bella stared at her sister, her sister had not realized who she was.

Bella stared at her then the door, quickly as if Kira understood what she meant quickly left her path.

"You haven't spoken for once. You know, since the vampires and werewolf are going to be in good alliance, perhaps it will be good if I know your name."

Kira said, this vampiress standing three feet away from her wasn't just beautiful, she was rude, who the hell does she think she was, the last she heard, the vampire king never had a mate nor had a Luna so why was this masked woman quite grumpy.

"Perhaps an handshake will be good for the both of us, we aren't enemies, are we."

Kira said, stretching her hands towards Bella, Bella stared the hands for some seconds, it will be rude if she did not shake hands with this damn sister of hers.

Bella nodded her head slightly, slowly she took hold of her sister's hand, immediately she shook her hand, she felt a stream of electricity flow through her body, she saw flashes, flashes which she had never experienced before.

Quickly she left her hold, staggering back for a minute.

'What did I just see'

Bella whispered, the images had seen blurry at first, but later on became very sharp and bright.

"Are you alright vampiress?"

Kira asked striding towards Bella, she wondered what must have happened to the vampiress, she looked lost for a while.

"Ooh no nothing."

Bella said, she had concealed her voice in a way that will make Kira not to recognize her, after all, one mysterious woman had taught her how to conceal real voices.

"How many months old are you now, your pregnancy?"

Bella asked, watching as Kira looked at her in surprise.

"Just curious, I might be a mother and I am quite curious."

Bella said, shrugging her shoulders as if her question was meaningless.

Kira gave her a smile which Bella found awful.

"Ooooh this big boy down here is five months old. Might deliver in the two months or a month and half. Because it is an alpha baby, so it might take long."

Kira said, roaming her hands all over her stomach.

"Wow that is quite a strong baby you have in there."

Bella said smiling. She had just realized her hybrid powers and she had tested it in the first person she never imagined she will taste it on.

"Ok then, have a nice time and when the baby arrives, do not fail to let me know."

Bella said, quickly walking out from the room, she wanted to leave so quickly, but before she does that, she needed to achieve something, which was, make sure she had a contact with Lucas, her enemy.

Blade kept looking at the hall way where his mate had left for the past fifteen minutes, he stood up, ready to find her where about when he saw her entered the party.

Blade could not decipher her facial emotions because she was on a mask.

Bella strode towards him, slowly sitting down on a chair.

"Where were you, did you know how worried I was, I thought something bad had happened to you."

Blade whispered into her ears. Bella smiled down at him, he was still sick worried over her even after hearing all those things about her.

"I am sorry, nature called me. Also I met with the Luna of the pack and I found out something interesting about her. Well aren't you mad at me?"

Bella whispered, everyone was dancing in the party, Blade stood up, stretching forth his hands towards her, Bella took hold of his hands and they walked towards the dance floor.

Slowly Blade grabbed her waist, holding her waist firmly and drawing her closer towards him, she wrapped his hands around his broad neck.

"Of course I am, you never told me you once had a first mate, at least I got the right to hear it from you first before hearing it from someone else." Blade said, slowly touching his forehead with hers as he breathed in her scent, she was the only reason why he had not walked towards Lucas and rip his head apart.

"I know and understand how you feel. But you need to know this about me before you heard it from someone else."

Bella said, following his footsteps as they danced to the rhythm of the music.

"Your powers, You mean your hybrid powers?"

Blade asked, staring at her as she nodded her head quickly.

"Yes my Hybrid powers. I see visions and past lives of people."

Bella said, Blade froze for a while. His mate was able to see people's past lives, that meant she could see his, how he killed people brutally and his dark secrets.

The music stopped playing, slowly fading away into thin air, Blade looked up, everyone had stopped dancing, it was time for them to leave, Carson had contacted him previously that he had found some interesting fact about the werewolf pack.

"I would love to appreciate the king for accepting my invitation once more, we hope for a better future between your packs and my pack."

Lucas said, smiling broadly.

Blade nodded his head slightly.

"Yes I am quite overwhelmed with the way your pack treated me with honor, your pack is organized and quite honest about your doings."

Blade said, his eyes darkened more as he said those last words, only two people were able to understand what he meant and those two were Kurt and Bella.

"I will love to formally invite you to the birthday party of my dear mate in the vampire's land, an official letter of invitation will be sent to you soon."

Blade said, watching as Lucas nodded his head, purely excited with the whole deal.

"I will be so grateful to attend this great birthday party of your mate."

Lucas said, quickly walking towards them to give the vampire king a hand shake.

"Please have a nice ride home."

Lucas said, shaking Blade's hands.

"Thanks and please accept this little gifts of ours."

Blade said, holding unto Lucas hand as firmly as possible.

Lucas gulped when he saw the gifts, it was loads of golds and silvers and then different types of currencies which was presented unto him.

He was so engrossed in the silver that he did not noticed the hard way the king shook him.

Bella cleared her throat, it was time for her to finally speak.

"Thanks once more for giving us blood and meat."

Bella said, smiling through the mask.

Lucas stared at the woman in the mask, he wondered what kind of woman could captivate the vampire king the way she does. Definitely, she was the vampire king's mate.

Bella stretched her hands towards him, expecting to get a handshake from him, but instead, what he got from him shook her by surprise.

He took hold of her palm, pecking the back of her hands so gently.

Bella froze for a minute, she felt her breath hitched and at that moment, she felt every scene been repeated in her head all over again, how he raped her and molested her.

Slowly he let go of her hand, quickly Bella walked back, walking into the arms of Blade who caught her with ease.

Since he had unraveled her secret, he knew why she was acting in such a manner.

"Let's leave."

Blade whispered into her ears and quickly, they left the party.

The Vampire Omega by Angelic Chapter 77

/ The Vampire Omega by Angelic

The ride back to the palace was the longest that she had ever encountered, Blade had decided to be quiet all through out the entire ride making it things quite hard for Bella.

"You are gonna be mad at me all throughout our ride home."

Bella asked, staring at Blade who kept quiet for a while, he was thinking, thinking on how to end this quickly, how to end Lucas and his men. He wondered the kind of documents the Carson had found.

"Because I am thinking on how to end his life so quickly, you once had a mate and you never told me."

Blade said, staring at her as she bent her head low, she was so ashamed to stare into his eyes.

Slowly Blade rose her chin up, slowly staring into her eyes.

"What happened Mon amour?"

Blade asked, watching as tears rolled down her cheeks.

"I thought you would reject me when you found out who I was."

Bella said, watching as Blade twisted his face in pain.

"Especially if you find out I had a mate who later on raped me with a gun on my head, threatening to shoot me if I do not obey his orders. He rejected me later on and then I ran away from my pack, I couldn't stay in that pack anymore. Unfortunately I ran into your pack. But there is something else you got to know."

Bella said, how would she forget the incident that happened the day she escaped and got chased by her pack who later disguised themselves as rogues to steal from her mate pack.

"My previous pack had been the one stealing from your pack on the night I entered your land. They had been the one killing and stealing from your pack."

Bella said, few days after she had stepped into the vampires land, she had overheard some men spoke about rogues attacks and how they stole from them and without having to think much, she figured out her previous pack was the one who had been stealing from them.

"What do you mean to say, that Lucas had sent his men to steal from my land and yet had the guts to invite me to a party. How dare he?"

Blade growled, still holding his mate cheeks.

"I don't think Lucas was the one who sent them, his father was the alpha when I escaped from the pack, so I think it was under his control then. But Lucas must have had an idea what was going on."

Bella said, slowly touching Blade's chiseled face.

"How did you find out a week from now is my birthday?"

Bella said, smiling down at him.

"I found out some personal informations about you myself Mon amour."

Blade said, he had three revenge to make against Lucas and he will make sure Lucas pays with his life.

"Have I been forgiven?"

Bella asked, staring at Blade, she would be totally heart broken if Blade never forgave her.

"Yes, you have, you think I got the mind to be mad at my mate for quite long."

Blade asked, watching as she smiled intensely.

Quickly, without having to give a thought about it, he smashed his lips on hers, savoring and removing every bitterness she felt, Bella moaned at his slow paced kiss, quickly Blade pushed her body closer to his, now she was sitting on his laps while he held onto her waist and the resumed kissing her.

Slowly Bella left hold of him, deeply gazing into his eyes, all she could feel was love and pure affection towards her, no feeling of reproach and anger or pity.

She felt her heart swelled at this unimaginable love she was seeing and then for the first time in her life she opened up to him and only him.

“Make love to me!”

Blade stared at her, he was struck with surprise when he heard those words escaped from her lips.

“Are you serious.....”

Bella not giving him the chance to complete his words smashed his lips on his, kissing him so damn hard like never before.

“Now, please make love to me, I wanna know you more better.”

Bella said, looking at Blade’s stunned face for a while.

Blade closed his eyes for a while, her words was alone to make him so solid hard.

Bella not doing what she was doing but she was following her instincts rubbed her hands on his torso, Blade felt a hiss escaped his lips and quickly he grabbed her hands, allowing her to balance more on his laps, he directed her on what to do.

Bella felt a gasp escaped from her lips, even with clothes on, he felt huge. Blade noticing her sigh opened his eyes slowly, a little smile appearing on her face, he could notice the look of anxiety on her face.

“Mon amour this is what you do to me every single time I am close to you, you make me so damn hard that I always wanna fuck you anywhere I found you in. Do you know how I always wanna fuck you especially the morning after my night drunk birthday. Know this dick belongs to you and it is gonna fit to damn perfect in your pussy because we are meant for each other.”

Blade said, staring deep into her eyes. Bella was struck with his words for a while, he knew what to say and when to say the perfect thing at the perfect fucking time.

“Make me yours.”

Bella whispered, this time, she was making love to a vampire who loved her and would do anything for her.

Blade nodded his head, he could not deny her what she wanted. He want her so badly and he was gonna treat her like a queen and show her how much he loved her.

Finally the vehicle arrived and quickly they stepped down from the Tesla, Blade without giving her a warning carried her in his huge arms in a bridal way, her long gown sweeping through the floor.

Bella smiled down at him, there was no need to be surprise over his actions, Blade was someone who could do this a thousand times to prove a point.

The Vampire Omega by Angelic Chapter 78

/ The Vampire Omega by Angelic

It was as if they ran through the castle because the next seconds she found herself in his chamber. The door closed on its own accord.

Slowly Blade kept her on her feet, he could feel the anxiety that flew off from her body.

Slowly Blade strode towards her back, standing so close to her, he bent his face to her bare shoulders and slowly he kissed her bare shoulders which smelt like vanilla and wine.

Bella gasped at each kisses he gave her, finally she was about to break her already broken pride to the king that appreciated her.

“Relax honey relax. Allow me show you how much I truly adore your fucking body. I will make you never to think about anyone or anything but me. I will make you not to work on you feet for weeks and I will fuck you in every place, in this room, in this shower, on the table, on the balcony, in my office and on the hallway. I will show the world that you are fucking MINE!”

Blade hissed and slowly like a man who was handling an egg, he unzipped he gown, making her gown fall on her feet and formed a ball on her feet.

Bella shuddered when she felt the cold breeze from the opened huge window blew on her body, she could not believe she was fucking naked in front of a fucking greek god.

“What are you doing to me mon amour.”

That was the last words she heard from Blade because in the next seconds, he carried her up into his arms, taking her in his bed, a bed which she always found to be ordinary was going to bring a massive change in her life

Slowly Blade laid her on the bed, walking back to her feet, he removed his clothing completely, Bella opened her eyes wide in shock, he was so damn huge, his dick was curved at the tip, he had the nicest dick anyone could imagine of. She wondered if truly she was gonna be enjoying this secret parts of him all through out her life.

She looked at her body, she was still on her underwears, she was so legit ready to feel him and understand him In a manner only her could.

Slowly she stretched her hands about to remove her panties, but Blade stopped her, he kissed her knuckles gently, staring into her eyes through out the process, damn! He was so good at keeping eye contact.

“Allow me undress you mon amour.”

Blade said, his voice was sounding so damn husk and his smiling dark eyes was getting darker every seconds.

Bella nodded her head, she was going to allow him teach her how to make love in magical way.

Blade went back to her feet, slowly bending down, he kissed her toes, Bella felt her toes curled up at his touch, she could feel a heavy mind blowing sparks anywhere he kissed her.

Slowly he kissed her legs, he was gonna kiss every inch of her body, he kissed her slowly going upwards, Bella shuddered more and more and more at his kisses, he was blowing her mind away. Slowly his kisses moved upwards to her thighs, Bella could feel a familiar feeling which was beginning to build up in her every single time he went upwards to her crotch.

Blade could perceive her wetness even right from when he started kissing her feet, she was so damn wet for him.

Slowly he kissed her thighs, she had a thick thighs and he loved it, quickly he grabbed i

Unto her ass, jolting her with surprise as he brought her crotch closer to his face, slowly he sniffed her crotch, the erotic juice that oozed out from her crotch made him close his eyes tightly as be inhaled on it.

Bella bit her lips so damn hardly as she grabbed his shoulder, he was doing insane things to her and he was making her think nuts.

Quickly Blade left her crotch, slowly kissing her stomach, he wanted to show her how special she was.

Bella moaned at his touch, quickly like a flash, he ripped off her remaining garments apart, Bella quickly covered her breast, she was not used to leaving her body bare.

Slowly Blade kissed her covered hands, slowly detaching her hands from her breast and when he stared after her breast, he could not believe how lucky he was to have someone as perfect as her in his life.

“You got beautiful boobies.”

Blade said and quickly without waisting any further time, he smashed his mouth on her breast, causing her to moan so loudly.

Blade had figured out alot about a woman’s body, first they love when going concentrate on each part of their breast.

Slowly he sucked on her areola, making her groan with excitement, quickly using the other hand to fondle on her left breast, Bella was blown with excitement and pleasure, her arousal was beginning to smell in the room.

Slowly sucked her nipple, this was the best feeling she had ever felt, every feeling was the best so far for her.

Quickly he diverted to the other breast, giving her left breast attention just as he had given the right breast.

Slowly his hands went down to her crotch, Bella raised her butt a little high, she wanted to feel his hands and head down there, Blade smiled when he saw how wet she was dripping for him, slowly, still sucking her breast, he inserted on finger into her v@gina.

Bella moaned so loudly because she was been treated and showed love in different ways.

Again, he inserted another fingers into her v@gina, each act was a big wet on for her.

“Fuck!”

Blade whispered in her breast and slowly but fast, he left her breast, slowly kissing her body downwards and when he kissed down to her crotch, he pulled her waist over to his face, Bella held unto his shoulders, she felt her body tremble from her toes up to her face.

Blade kissed her crotch, kissing every holes in within, slowly he brought out his tongue and just like someone who was about to take an ice cream, he sucked her so damn hard.

Bella screamed when she felt his mouth In her, she shooked and wobbled in excitement, this was the best feeling ever.

Blade sucked, flapped and licked her clit, quickly adding a finger into her hole while his tongue worked on her clit.

Bella couldn't contain it anymore as she felt the need to release.

The additional fingers into her hole and a long heavy sucking of her clit sent her withering under his hold as she had her first orgasm ever, the feeling was indescribable, she felt as if she had been pulled out from this world and then taken to a world filled of bliss and immense joy.

Slowly she opened her eyes, staring at Blade who stared back at her in return, slowly he dipped his fingers into his mouth, Bella gasped slowly, he looked insanely edible and she could not wait to get her hands on what is below his abdomen.

Blade's eyes darkened the more he stared after her naked body which was so damn perfect, slowly he sat up on her, making sure not to put his full weight on her, without thinking twice, he smashed his lips on hers, causing her to moan on his lips, it was a slow and gentle kiss.

"Are you ready, because soon enough, you are gonna feel the whole of me, please open your legs wide for me sweetheart, because once I am in, you are completely mine."

Blade whispered in his kiss, Bella nodded her head, she was not going to think of anyone but him, she was only going to think of Blade and this moment to make this moment special to her and cover up all those moments she was.....

"ahhhhhhhh....."

Bella gasped as she could feel his huge length inside her.

Blade smashed his lips on hers, kissing her slowly and tenderly, slowly but steady, he pushed his whole length inside her, she was so damn tight, withdrawing his dick for a while, he could hear her heavy breathing and how she closed her eyes tightly, probably shy to stare into his eyes.

"Breathe, and open your eyes"

Blade said, watching as she opened her eyes,

"Good girl, I love you."

He said, kissing her, and without giving her a sign, he plunged his dick again inside her, staying for a second, watching as a low scream escaped her lips, he kissed her more, now moving gently inside her, groaning, as he felt his manhood all inside her.

"Damn, you are so fucking tight"

Blade said, as he groaned with pleasure. Bella felt her heart bubbled with intense emotions, her pain now had been replaced with absolute pleasure, as she felt him hitting something in her, which she could not place her hands on.

"Faster, damn..faster"

Bella moaned, the sound of flesh hitting against flesh, gave her more intense pleasure, and he moved more faster inside her. Their moans filled the room, filled with intense pleasure and with a loud groan from Blade, Bella followed after him, shouting as he hit her right spot and quickly, Blade turned her over, he wanted this night to be a long one, Bella looked back at him, she was ignorant of what he was about to do next, but what ever he was about to do excites her more. Blade placed a pillow below her stomach, bending her over, he slide his dick into her hole, Bella opened her mouth in awe, all she could see were stars because first she was not expecting love making to be so damn beautiful and sweet. Blade grabbed unto her huge ass and quickly he began thrusting into her from behind, he plunged into her deeper and deeper, quickly he gave her ass a spank that sent Bella howling and screaming his name out, she felt at the edge of no return and definitely she did not feel like returning back, all she wanted was to enjoy this feeling for ever.

"Bladeeeee....."

Bella groaned, still feeling the intensity of his thrust which was about to lead to a second orgasm. His thrusts became more faster and stronger and deeper, he was hitting her g-spot, the continuous sound of his flesh against her ass sent her to have another orgasm.

"Blade....."

Bella screamed, Blade groaned in reply, still thrusting deeply into her, feeling as his manhood tightened at each thrust and with the last thrust, he groaned deeply as he released inside her.

"I love you....."

Blade said, as his semen released inside her.

Bella screamed again as she cummed after him, her wetness dripping down his shaft.

Slowly Blade withdrew his manhood from her, gazing down at her as she slumped on the bed, closing her eyes, still overwhelmed at their love making.

Blade fell beside her, as he breathed slowly, slowly turning toward her, he wrapped his arms around her as he cuddled her in his arms, she smiled, the aftermath of what they did, was not something she could ever forget, not in a lifetime.

"I love you mon amour."

Blade said, kissing her tenderly on her forehead.

Bella closed her eyes as she hummed with satisfaction.

The Vampire Omega by Angelic Chapter 79

Bella opened her eyes to feel the sun on her face, when she turned, she was surprised to find Blade lying on the bed with her, his huge arms holding her so tightly.

Bella stared down at their naked bodies, she felt a blush appeared on her face, for the first time, she felt like a woman, she never felt disgusted with her self anymore, she could not even think about all those bad things that her mate had done to her, she was happy and she was happy to be in his arms, slowly she looked up to stare at his face fully for the first time, he looked more handsome while sleeping. A smile appeared on her.

“Why are you smiling like this, what must have caused you so much joy.”

Blade asked, staring down at her as she waved her head slowly. She have been so lost in thought that she did not see him wake up and was staring back at her.

“Oooh nothing.”

Bella said, hiding her self in his chest.

“Hahahaha, you don’t need to be shy, I have seen everything in you likewise you too, you must have seen my tatoo and everything right.”

Blade said, watching as his mate raised her head up, she shuddered at his intense gaze.

“My night was great, you know I am not used to staying totally naked in front of anyone.”

Bella said, she was saying the truth, only Blade was able to change her and she wondered why.....perhaps could it be.....her heart froze at her sudden realization.

“I need to tell you this.”

Bella said, quickly turning to face him completely, her breast was totally open for Blade to behold and this kind of distracted him for a while.”

“Is there a prob.....”

“You don’t have to wait for twenty one days anymore.”

Bella said, interrupting his speech.

Blade stared at her in surprise, is this a dream or is this reality.

"What do you mean?"

Blade said, his intense dark eyes which had this way of exploring her mind, at the end making her insane with a strange but familiar need.

"I love you."

Bella said, the expression she saw on his face was unrecognizable, it was first blank and quickly it was replaced with the mind blowing emotions she had never seen. It was filled with love and disbelief.

"I cannot stay for twenty one days anymore. I started loving you the day you caught me in the forest when I was about to escape. When you declare me as your mate, you can not believe how happy I was. But I was filled with insecurities plus the thing that has happened to m....."

Blade smashed his lips on hers, quickly mounting on top of her, slowly leaving her lips, he stared into her eyes.

"Say it again!"

Blade said, this was the most happiest moment in his life.

"I love you my love, mon amour."

Bella said, smiling down at him.

Blade smiled so widely, for the first time, she was able to see his full set of white teeth.

"I love you too Mon amour and please do not stop telling me how much you love me, It gives me an assurance that everything will be alright."

Blade said, giving her another mind blowing kiss.

"Mark me, drink from my blood, you are a vampire and I wish to give you my blood. I want to be your Luna who will stand fully by you. I don't wanna be a werewolf anymore, is that possible?"

Bella asked, watching as his eyes darkened more and more at each words she spoke.

"Do you know understand every single words you say?"

Blade asked, staring at her, he was ready to mark her any seconds from now and he was ready to show the world that she was his mate.

"Yes I am sure, I am very sure of this."

Bella said, she did not want a wolf in her or perhaps she felt more safer been a vampire. Her wolf had been killed right from the start, it was more better she turned to a vampire and maybe rule her pack, she could have the attributes of a werewolf but she could not turn to a werewolf.

"You can change to a vampire but not loose your wolf attributes, Is that what you want."

Blade asked her, staring at her.

"Yes I want to be different and a whole new being. I don't wanna be the weak wolf everyone knew me to be. I wanna be strong and powerful and I wanna protect my pack and weaker pack members from people like my previous mate."

Bella said, watching as his eyes darkened when he called her previous mate.

"Was that the night you ran into my pack that he raped you."

Blade asked, he did not feel like asking her this question, but he had no other option than to know everything about her pack.

"Yes."

Bella breathed in slightly, there was no need of hiding anything.

"It was just a normal night of celebration and dancing among pack members. I was the omega, the one who serves the pack. So I was in the party....."

Bella stopped, the events of that night reflected in her eyes and she felt her self shudder at each image she saw.

"When everyone turned their attention towards me. When I realized what was happening, it was late, Lucas was so fast to accept me as his mate. Everyone wondered why he was accepting the poor omega but my spirit told me he has something in store for me. That same night, he dragged me to his room, closed the door and forced himself on me with a gun beside my head. Hahahaha for anyone they could have died out of fear but I was determined to stay alive and make sure he had a sweet death."

Bella said, surprisingly she never folded her hands in fist unlike before when ever she spoke or thought about that awful night. She smiled lowly, this was a big positive healing for her. She never felt pain because her pain have been replaced with happiness and pity for Lucas and his family.

"He rejected me afterwards and then that same night, I ran away from your pack."

Bella said, slowly sitting up on top of Blade, she whispered.

"Now make me yours."

Bella said.

Blade growled lowly and with a gentle force, he rolled her over, making her lay beneath him.

"Mon amour, marking you means taking your blood, not just once but every time we mate and it instantly connects you to me, I can hear your thoughts so well and you can hear mine."

Blade said, watching as he nodded his head quickly in understanding.

Bella nodded her head, she understood how it works, she understood she was going to be totally his and he was going to be totally hers after that.

"Yes I under...."

Blade never gave her a time to complete her words because quickly, she smashed his lips on hers, kissing her so damn slow and tenderly. Bella moaned with excitement.

"Mine."

Blade whispered, quickly he slipped in his manhood into her hole which was waiting for his attention.

Bella gasped as she felt his dick inside her.

Slowly he increased his speed, gently giving her deep thrust that shook her womb.

He did not want her to feel the pain of his bite, the pain was only going to be for a moment and then replaced with pure emotions which he felt for her.

"Mine"

Immediately he said those words, he licked the flesh below her neck.

Bella shuddered when she felt his lips on hers, she moaned with pleasure at each thrust and kiss he gave her.

Quickly but gently, Blade bit her neck with his long canal which was longer than normal.

Bella gasped, the pain she felt was unimaginable, it was as if they ripped her head off, but the pain never stayed for long because what she felt next was nothing closer to pain. All she could feel was emotions and pure love and affection. But it was unusual because the emotions never belonged to her.

His thrust, his bite overwhelmed her to have climax heavily.

Bella breathed out slowly after their short love making. It was the best she had ever encountered.

"I love you."

Bella whispered, Blade smiled down at her.

"I love you too!"

Blade said, bending down to the new mark on the crook of her neck.

Bella gasped when she felt his lips on the particular spot he bite her.

Slowly detaching himself from her body, he laid down beneath her.

"You are happy."

Bella said, smiling down at him.

"Yes I am, I feel so damn blessed for having you. You are now totally mine."

Blade said, bringing her closer to his body.

"I know right. I can feel your emotions and likewise you, you can feel mine."

Bella said.

The Vampire Omega by Angelic Chapter 80

/ The Vampire Omega by Angelic

Suddenly she saw a mark beneath his stomach, it was the first time she was seeing such mark.

"What is this?"

Bella asked, touching his mark.

Blade looked down at the mark, a slight frown settled on his face, how could he forget the mark.

"I think is high time i tell you about my self and no more hiding secrets."

Blade said, looking at Bella who gave him a reassuring look.

"My father king Hemlock was the most powerful king, he feared no one. He thought me how to fight and how to win wars. He was the best father figure for both me and my brother. He also was no mate to my mother."

Blade said, Bella looked stunned at what he said, queen Selene wasn't the king's true mate.

"My father fell in love with my father. He married her, it was possible to do that, especially if you had no hope of finding a mate for yourself. Things were going great, the werewolves and the vampires were in good tides, but things changed when an alpha made the other werewolf pack be against the vampires, that was the first war, we vampires won against those wars, I was little, perhaps five years old when that happened. It was a fairytale for we youngsters, how my father, the great king won wars against a whole werewolf pack. After some decades, the werewolves and vampires reconciled and became one, but we thought things were going to be the same, not knowing that in the nearest centuries, there will be a new pack who will create another war with the vampires. It was from the pack we never expected it to be, the pack who have much fondness for the vampires."

Blade said, staring down at her.

"The alpha who had started it all was the previous alpha of the Air winder pack Vincent. Before he started the war, alpha Vincent was the beta of the pack and now that I looked into it. You are the daughter of the alpha, I cannot remember his name but the previous alpha had a brown hair, I could vividly remember him, he was a joyful man always smiling and quite entertaining."

Blade said, pecking her on her forehead. Bella felt her heart bubbled with joy. She knew he was referring to her father, her father was betrayed by his beta who took over his title.

"We never knew what had happened to the previous alpha, all we had in mind was that there was a war between the both packs. All we needed was to defeat our enemies who had betrayed us."

Blade said, Bella was disappointed that they never found out what must have happened to the previous alpha, but there was great war at hand plus it was not part of their business to ask questions.

"They attacked us in the mid night. The hall where you had previously entered was the king's chamber. He was killed in his room. I don't know how they had entered into the room, but they came in as a surprise, we were but preparing for war when they attacked that night. I was in my chambers, about to lay my head on the bed to prepare for the war which will occur the next day when I heard a scream from the king's chamber. I ran to the room only to find my mother with a dagger on her hands, blood dripping out from the dagger she held, she wasn't alone, she was alone with a werewolf and when I looked down on the floor, I saw my father, lying down in the pool of his own blood. His neck butchered and stabbed severely by my mom."

Bella gasped at what he said, there was no way the queen must have killed her king, no fucking way.

“My mother have been forced to kill him by the werewolf who was holding the most powerful star dust, a silver which he held on his gloves hands and then a part of the sun, I don’t know how they were able to lay hands on things that could make even the most powerful vampire tremble on their feet and do according to what they said. The last words I heard from my father was ‘I forced her to stab me, my time is up’”

Blade said, slowly a single tears slipped off his face. Quickly Bella swiped off the tears from his face, kissing his face tenderly.

“The werewolf was kind enough to allow my father have his last moment before he tried attacking my mother. I would have allowed him killed her because at that moment when I saw her with the dagger I her hands, I termed her to be the murderer. But I got to save her life, my father had decided to allow himself get killed just to save her and I won’t allow her die, not so quick.”

Blade said, heaving slightly.

“I killed the werewolf, the pain in me was greater than any silver or dust or sun. I ripped his head apart and drew danger with the werewolf blood. I made sure not much werewolves was left out but some escaped, but before they escaped, I had a final battle with the alpha, who had planned everything, we fought on top of dead bodies and then I cut off his arm, he wasn’t the type to give up so quickly so he paid me back by shooting me with a gun, a silver gun. This mark is caused by the bullet which went deep into my flesh. I went unconscious for three years without blinking my eyes. My brother Kurt who never sustained much injuries, because he fight just as he joke, he is quite ruthless like me but he knew not to fight with pure anger than me. I jealous him for that, he ruled the entire werewolf pack for the three years I was unconscious and he made my company grew. I owe him but I don’t think I do that anymore. Allowing him to hug you and talk to you anytime he felt like, is enough gifts already.”

Blade said chuckling heavily.

Bella stared down at him, after saying this heartbreaking story he still has some energy left to laugh. She waved her head, her mate passed through some heavy hell and even became unconscious, yet he survived. Right now, he wasn’t just a mate to her, he was her role model.

“And also, I decided to bury my father in his chambers. That was the perfect place to bury him, his chambers must have contained sweet and bitter memories for him.”

Blade said, staring down at her, he felt his heart which have been heavy instantly became light.

“Is that why you never allowed anyone in there?”

Bella said, for the first time, she saw his pupils turn grey, it wasn't dark black as it used to be.

"Yes, for him to have a little peace."

Blade said, kissing her again on her forehead.

"You know, your mother should be showered with the best love ever, killing the man she loved was the most traumatic thing for her. I think you should forgive and accept her as your mother again. Your father allowed himself to die just to save her. He knew her worth, he knew she could look after you better than he could look after you and your brother."

Bella said, kissing his head gently.

"Well I have a plan on how to bring Lucas and his father down."

Bella said, now she was going to take action than allow the king do it all alone.

Blade stared up at her as she stood up from the bed.

She picked up a short shirt and threw it over her body.
