`I'd like to see what you can give to Elin.

I doubt it would be more than rags, though.` Fraser snickered.

`All you can afford are cheap goods anyway.` Garry frowned in response to Fraser's rude remark.

At first, he didn't want anything to do with him, but Fraser took it too far this time, which made him furious.

`What if my gift is more expensive than yours?` Garry asked as he narrowed his eyes at Fraser.

`Are you willing to spend a lot of money just to buy an even more expensive gift?` Fraser clenched his jaw.

He believed that Garry was just trying to provoke him, but he didn't want to back down without a fight.

Besides, he still had several hund Read full chapter at aunovel.comight? Let me touch it just this once, please?"

`Irene, be careful with that,` Elin warned, pursing her lips.

She wanted to take the platinum bag away from her friend, but she was afraid of the possibility that it might get damaged by one of her be.

Fraser gulped when he looked at the platinum bag.

He assumed the price of the bag was no less than fifty thousand dollars.

However, he still wanted to know how much the bag was, so he looked at Frieda and asked, `How much did that bag cost?` `One million and two hundred thousand dollars,` Frieda answered.

Suddenly, everyone shot a glance at Garry as their eyes widened in disbelief.
