

A Twist Of Fate: Heir To The World's Wealthiest Man
Chapter 65 The Happiness Of The Rich

Summary

And the car Garry parked must cost at least 5 million!

For a poor girl like Frieda who just graduated from school, owning a car and house is a dream. "

She wanted to spend more time with him, so she decided to take the opportunity to be with him.

Frieda had some romantic feelings for Garry

So she He said in a soft, grateful voice, "Mr

Garry thought for a moment and agreed.

When he reached the door, Garry was still shaken by the effects of the alcohol.

Garry politely rejected them.com

he is a person really rich men.

He quickly asked, "Would you like to come in and have a seat?"

*****

Frieda had some romantic feelings towards Garry.

What was more, she had just made a deal worth eight hundred thousand dollars thanks to him.

Thus, she said in a soft and grateful voice, `Mr.

Smith, you'd better not drive after drinking.

I'll drive you home personally.`She wanted to spend more time with him, so she decided to seize the opportunity to stay with him.

Garry thought about it for a while and agreed.

After the incident had passed, a number of beautiful women went over to his side and asked for his username on Facebook Messenger.

Garry declined them politely.

The way they had mocked him was still fresh on his mind.

Read full chapter at comhe was a really rich man.

The average price of a house in that area was at least two million.

And the one where Garry parked had to be worth at least five million!

For a poor girl like Frieda who had just graduated,

it was a dream to have her own car and house.

A mere fantasy.

With an envious look on her face, Frieda asked, `Do you really live in this building?` `Sure.

I do.` At this time, Garry was a little drunk, so he asked Frieda to help him get up the stairs.

When he arrived at the door, Garry was still in a daze because of the effects of the alcohol.

He quickly asked, `Would you like to come in and have a seat?`.