Jaime sighed as he added, "You know that our family business is part of the Smith Corporation , right?

"If you don't already know, the bigwig I'm meeting today can make you a tramp with just one command if he wants."

Fraser rolled his eyes as he heard his father speak.

When Fraser reached the entrance of Joy Restaurant, he slowly stepped inside.

A mature, hoarse voice came from the other end of the line as Jaime asked, "Fraser, have you come yet?

When Fraser arrived at the Joy Restaurant's entrance, he slowly stepped inside.

He pressed his phone against his ear while talking to his father, Jaime Reed.

A mature, husky voice came from the other end of the line as Jaime asked,

`Fraser, have you arrived yet? I thought I told you to come earlier? Bruce offended Mr.

Smith this time, so I took that opportunity to kick him out and invite Mr.

Smith to lunch to apologize.` Jaime heaved a sigh as he added,

`You do know that our family's business is part of the

Smith Group, right? If we can get along with Mr.

Smith, we can get all kinds of benefits from them.

You have to remember that this is an opportunity, Fraser.

Don't you dare mess up!` Fraser rolled his eyes as he listened to what his father was saying.

In his perspective, Garry was simply a countryman who suddenly became rich because he managed to run a department store or a shopping mall in the countryside.

`If you didn't know yet, the bigwig I'm going to meet today can make you a tramp with just one order if he wants to.

That's the difference between you and me,` Fraser mocked as he pulled Garry closer to him, forcing him to come along.

`But if you leave Elin and be my henchman, I can help you if things get rough.

`Garry knew that Fraser's words were laced with threats, but he didn't let that get to him.

Instead, he smiled when he followed Fraser inside the private room.

When they got there, Garry's eyes lit up in amusement.

That room was the exact place where the Gentleman Restaurant's investor invited him for a meal.
