Chapter 47 Poaching Her

Celia was taken back on the spot. She knew that Bras was a straightforward person. But she didn't expect that Brea would say such a thing in front of Wayne. Sure enough, Wayne exploded. "What the hell are you talking about? How dare you poach my designer right in front of me! And who told you that Evans Group is a shabby company? Is this how your parents raised you? Where are your manners?" But Brea didn't waver at all. She just snorted coldly, still looking very arrogant. "What? Am I wrong? Since the heir of Evans Group isn't a decent guy, the company's prospects are rather dim." Wayne was hopping mad now. "If I had known this earlier, I wouldn't have allowed Cke to altar your dresy. Even amadhan von't like . voman like you."

At this moment, area was trembling with ager too. She couldn't help but want to fight with him again, Calia immediately covered her ears and persuaded them. "Guys, please stop bickering. Have some peace. You are both big shots. Why can't you sit down and talk it out?" She couldn't stand to continue watching Brea and Wayne quarrel like primary school students in front of her, She didn't expect that such a glamorous star and a rich young man would be so childish. It was only then that Bree restrained her anger. She glared at Wayne and snorted coldly. "For Cace's sake, I will let you go for the time being." Wayne also glared back at her and said, "Some here."

The fight subsided temporarily. After a while. Braa vaid again. "Just think about what I said. I am very sincere about it. You must have heard about me. I have never met . designer like you who can read my mind. Don't you want to make the most out of your talent?" Colie looked at Wayne and said hesitantly. "But the Evans Group has already interviewed me." Bree didn't consider this problem. "It's just an interview. It doesn't meen mything. You haven't signed the contrat yet, right? Besides, even if you are officially hired by Evans Groups, I'm still capable of poaching you." Celie was little embarrassed. "It's not good..." Before she could finish her words, Brea interrupted, "Whatever the Evans Group's offer is, I'll make it double." Calia's eyes lit up, indicating that her mind began to waver. After all, she was rully short of money at the mormant. Wayne noticed that she sumed tempted by money, so he also offered, "Cuce, I will triple your pay." Seeing that the two were arquing again, Colia was in a dilema. She covered her cars with her hands. Fortunately, Foley knocked on the door. "Bre, are you ready? Can you go back to the red carpet now?" "Yes, I'm ready." Foley pushed the door open and walked in. But when he saw Brue and Wayne arguing and seed the tension between them, he hesitate to come closer. "I want to hire Coca, but Wayne refuses to let her go. Go call Mr. Rayes for me and ask him to help me out. Sanshy Group can get anyone they want."

Chapter 48 A Film Festival

It was only when Brea mentioned Semshy Group that Wayne remembered that she was an artist of Semshy Group. That was why the designer of Evans Group was willing to work with her this time.

Semshy Group was owned by Tyson. But except Wayne, no one else knew that Nolan Rayas, the mysterious CEO of Semshy Group. was actually the pathetic Tyson from the show family. If Brea hirad Celia as her designer, then Calia had to join the Semshy Group, right? If Tyson found out about it, it would be very interesting. The corners of Wayne's mouth curved into a sly smile. He foresaw a good show coming up. And it was a good chance to reinforce Tyson and Celia's love, right? He stopped Foley, who was about to make a phone call "No need to call Mr. Reyes. I agree to let Cece go, so she can work for Brea." Although Brea was a little surprised, she quickly put on a complacent smile and said, "Smart move." She was happy that Wayne was finally willing to let Celia go. But of course, she still wanted to ask Celia about it. Brea didn't want to twist Calia's arm and drag her to Semshy Group. "Cace, would you like to work for me in Semshy Group? I will respect your decision." Calia was shocked by the sudden change in the situation. She didn't expect Wayne to change his mind so quickly. So she thought about Brea's question carefully.

Calia had heard of Semshy Group, the largest entertainment company in Hosworth. It was said that Wolan Reyes, the CEO of Semshy Group, was very mysterious. Only a few people had seen him. But this company was like legend in the entertainment industry. Its reputation was even higher than Evans Group in the fashion industry. She never thought that after quitting her job in Davina, she would get a job in Semshy Group. If she went to Semshy Group, she would have the chance to meet many stars. Perhaps she would even have the chance to design clothes for them. To be honest, she would have better prospects working in Semshy Group than in Evans Group. But what about Wayne? He had helped her a lot. She couldn't just leave him like this and work for others, right? She was not an ingrate..

While Calia was still considering it, Wayne comforted her with a smile, "Don't worry, Cace, There may be a surprise waiting for you in Semshy Group." Calia was a little surprised. She felt that Wayne was acting strange. It was as if he was plotting something.

But considering his intelligence and morality, she felt that he was not capable of any evil scheme.

Brea's smile got more complacent. "Cec., don't worry. I will help you get a higher salary. If you are not satisfied with the salary that Semshy Group will offer you, I can pay you with my own money." Calia was touched and relieved at the same time. It turned out that Brea's offer was unreasonable as they said in the news. Finally, she nodded and accepted Brea's invitation. "Mr. Evans. I'm sorry. I really want to work in Evans Group. But Miss Duffy's offer is really tempting." Calia sincerely apologized to Wayne and honestly told him how she felt about the offer. Wayne suddenly burst into laughter, waved his hand, and said, "It's okay, Cace. I understand. But seriously, you are very talented. Wherever you go, you will shine like a diamond."

When Foley saw that the atmosphere had become lively, he whispered in Brea's ear, "Brea, can we go to the red carpet now? We are a bit late already." Since Brea was satisfied that she had convinced Celia to be her designer, she agreed happily to set out for the red carpet. She was about to walk out of the VIP room when she suddenly remembered something. So she turned around and waved at Celia, motioning her to come over. "Have you been to a film festival? I'll take you there, so you can get more experience for your future work." Brea then asked Foley to prepare a decent dress for Celia. Then they went all the way to the film festival.
