

Unparalleled After Ten Consecutive Draws

- Chapter 1 -

Firmament Star, Azure Dragon Domain, Black Heaven Sect.

3

A handsome young man who appeared to be 15 or 16 years old was lying on a couch in a dusky room, illuminated by a single oil lamp.

16

The young man did not move an inch, but the faint heaving of his chest was proof that he was still alive.

2

“Where is this place?” The young man slowly opened his eyes with a perplexed expression on his face as he looked around him while his mind spun.

7

Suddenly, there was a pained look on his face. A large volume of memories surged upward in a frenzy and overwhelmed his mind.

1

After a brief moment, the young man lay on the bed gasping heavily for breath. His brow was beaded with sweat as the bewildered look in his eyes gradually cleared up.

“I never thought that something like this would happen to me.”

9

The young man laughed helplessly.

He understood everything after he took in all of the memories in his head.

The young man was called Chu Kuangren, he was an outer sect disciple of Black Heaven Sect and was very popular there thanks to his handsome appearance.

4

His face, however, brought its fair share of problems as well. A True Elder Martial Sister fancied him because of this face of his and wanted to take him in as her personal male companion.

2

Yes, she wanted to keep him.

16

She even promised to promote him to the inner sect in three years.

Even though Chu Kuangren was an outer sect disciple, he was arrogant and repulsed at these underhanded methods to achieve meteoric success in his career. As such, he sternly rejected her on the basis of righteousness.

7

Who would have thought that the Elder Martial Sister would fly into a rage out of humiliation? She heavily injured him out of anger, rendering him bedridden for two days without signs of improvement.

4

“Not like I can change anything, might as well just accept it. I’ll think of a way to survive now that I’ve transmigrated to this person’s body,” Chu Kuangren murmured.

10

Ding...

“Your plug-in [Fantasy Roulette] has arrived.”

1

“As a first-time user, you have one 10x lucky draw to use. Will you use it now?”

A robotic female voice rang out in his mind.

Chu Kuangren was baffled for a moment.

Fantasy Roulette?

Isn’t this the game plug-in I downloaded before I transmigrated?

11

Could this be my golden finger?!

11

Chu Kuangren's eyes lit up.

Before transmigrating, he was playing an online Xianxia game and the Fantasy Roulette was a plug-in his roommate introduced to him.

12

"I'll use it now," Chu Kuangren silently said in his heart.

2

Soon, a bright, rainbow-colored roulette with many boxes on it appeared in front of Chu Kuangren.

On the other hand, the names of the rewards in the boxes sounded like they would scare people very much.

Something like Miraculous Nine Suns, Immortal Body, Yin and Yang Ring...

The pointer on the roulette spun rapidly.

"Congratulations, the host has pulled the Legendary Banished Immortal Aura."

6

"Congratulations, the host has pulled one Starlight Spirit Gathering Array."

1

"Congratulations, the host has pulled the God-tier constitution, Immortal Body."

3

"Congratulations, the host has pulled the God-tier Remarkable Eye of Revelation."

7

"Congratulations, the host has pulled one Starlight Human Mountain Stamp."

4

"Congratulations, the host has pulled one Starlight Life Extension Pill."

3

“Congratulations, the host has pulled the Legendary constitution, Exquisite Nine Orifices Sword Heart.”

8

“Congratulations, the host has pulled one Starlight Treasure Map.”

1

“Congratulations, the host has pulled one Legendary Winged Soldier.”

1

“Congratulations, the host has pulled one Legendary Yin and Yang Ring.”

6

Notification sounds kept ringing in Chu Kuangren’s mind in a continuous stream.

He couldn’t help but swallow his saliva.

Never did he expect that plug-in to actually be good.

10

“The above items above have already been placed into the roulette room, please make sure to check and accept them.” The female robotic voice faded out once it finished speaking.

The roulette in front of Chu Kuangren disappeared as well.

The Fantasy Roulette was a plug-in Chu Kuangren downloaded before he transmigrated; it gave players the chance to draw prizes once a day.

The prizes were separated into the following grades: Iron, Silver, Gold, Diamond, Starlight, Legendary, God, Transcendent, and Eternal.

14

The 10 consecutive lucky draws were a privilege for new players which guaranteed pulls of Starlight grade and even above that.

Chu Kuangren opened the roulette room which was an interface that resembled an item box in a game.

He inhaled deeply and barely managed to calm himself down as he looked at the dazzling lineup of prizes he had just pulled.

“Retrieve Immortal Body,” Chu Kuangren muttered to himself.

1

An extremely terrifying surge of power immediately erupted in his body all of a sudden. This surge of power engulfed his limbs and bones and washed over his skin, muscles, bones, flesh – every single cell in his body!

Chu Kuangren felt as though he had been thrown into a gigantic blender; his body was constantly being mixed and broken down before being regrouped again, mixed and broken down...

“F**k!!!”

Chu Kuangren almost fainted on the spot due to the excruciating pain, but a magical kind of power in his brain kept him awake.

7

Thankfully, this pain didn't last for long.

After one minute, Chu Kuangren lay on the ground drenched in sweat. “This kind of feeling... really is bloody exciting!”

26

He got up and sat on a chair as his mind received information regarding the Immortal Body. After that, he couldn't help but click his tongue in wonder.

Chu Kuangren activated the spirit energy on his right hand and condensed it to his fingertips. After which, he struck the palm of his left hand, immediately opening a bloody wound.

Immediately after that, however, the flesh on his palm started regrowing and recovered rapidly. It was reverted back to its regular form in the blink of an eye and not a single scar remained where his wound was.

1

“The Immortal Body has six states, I'm only at the first state and yet its effects are this potent? My body has already completely healed from the severe injuries Li Yao inflicted on me. How terrifying are the five other realms behind this?”

3

A smile appeared on Chu Kuangren's face as he looked at the roulette room.

What other wonderful uses did the rest of the prizes have?

"Retrieve Eye of Revelation."

3

A glimmer swirled around in Chu Kuangren's eyes. Upon closer inspection, there were countless large Daoist runes circulating around in his eyes; it was incomparably mysterious.

5

The glimmer dwindled and his eyes went back to normal.

He felt the effects of the glimmer rest within him.

Chu Kuangren nodded in satisfaction.

The Eye of Revelation could reveal all fabrications in the world and even clearly extract information about one's race, cultivation, skill and so on.

15

This was a God-tier prize so it wasn't inferior to the Immortal Body in the slightest bit.

2

"Retrieve Banished Immortal Aura."

Chu Kuangren walked over to the copper mirror in the house and looked at himself. He felt that there was suddenly a refined and pure aura around him. In addition to his handsome face, it was just as though he embodied a deity that had been banished to the world of the living.

3

In one word, he was handsome.

In two words, he was bloody handsome.

38

Once he was finished admiring himself, Chu Kuangren looked at the few prizes left in the roulette room with a speculative expression on his face.

Other than the Immortal Body, the Eye of Revelation, and the Banished Immortal Aura, the original owner of the body more or less already embodied the remaining prizes' effects.

Especially in relation to that Exquisite Nine Orifices Sword Heart.

This was ranked in the top ten out of the 3,000 constitutions in Firmament Star.

It has been over ten thousand years since it appeared in the world.

Once people were privy to the appearance of a constitution like this, all kinds of strange occurrences would follow suit. When that moment arose, the entire Black Heaven Sect would be startled.

11

Chu Kuangren muttered irresolutely to himself for a moment before a firm expression flitted across his face. "What harm would they do, even if they were alerted?"

9

"The Exquisite Nine Orifices Sword Heart is a Supreme Daoist Physique. Those who possess this physique are supreme children of the heavens that every major force would want for themselves. It would be ideal if I could astound the higher-ups; the resources of Black Heaven Sect will definitely lean in my favor then."

10

"If I let every little thing stop me, how can I reach the peak of cultivation in the future? I would be better off looking for a place where I can cultivate in a practical manner."

1

"My name is Chu Kuangren! How could I not be insane or wild?"

6

Chu Kuangren grinned. "Retrieve Exquisite Nine Orifices Sword Heart."

His body was immediately enhanced with a surge of indescribable power.

The physical transformation was extremely painful this time too; it was as though countless tiny needles were shuttling through his veins and converging toward his heart.

However, it was much better than when he was merging with the Immortal Body before.

The original owner of the body had a tenacious will, so Chu Kuangren naturally inherited his willpower when the memories of the original owner merged with him.

An anomaly arose in the external realm corresponding to the moment when Chu Kuangren retrieved the Exquisite Nine Orifices Sword Heart.

Regardless of the level of their cultivation, the long swords in the hands of countless cultivators in Black Heaven Sect started trembling inexplicably as they unleashed hums that charged into the sky.

A myriad of swords hummed and whistled in Black Heaven Sect.

1

A light beam with countless large Daoist runes revolving around it suddenly shot up into the sky in the courtyard Chu Kuangren was in. There were even waves of Daoist chants coming from it.

The runes intertwined in the light beam and turned into the shape of a heart.

There were nine orifices in this heart and sword qi shuttled back and forth whenever it throbbed. The sound of gold and metal colliding with each other could be heard amid the thumping heartbeat.

“W-what’s going on?!”

“For there to be an anomaly of this level, could it possible that some kind of Daoist physique has awakened?!”

“Nine orifices born in a heart that contains sword qi. Could this be the legendary Supreme Daoist Physique... the Exquisite Nine Orifices Sword Heart?!!!”

1

“Tch, it’s been almost ten thousand years since this Daoist physique appeared in the world, right? How could it suddenly appear, and even in Black Heaven Sect’s territory no less!?”

4

“That’s from... the outer sect courtyard.”

“Is it possible that this constitution awakened in an outer sect disciple?”

“How can it be possible?!”

3

This abrupt anomaly startled everyone in Black Heaven Sect, from the paramount Elders to the outer sect disciples.

As the fusion between Chu Kuangren and the sword heart went deeper, the might of that anomaly kept increasing too and spread outside Black Heaven Sect.

In a moment, most of the powerhouses in Azure Dragon Domain could sense this.

In a vast city.

A man dressed in white sitting upright in a tall building abruptly opened his eyes and looked in the direction of Black Heaven Sect. “This aura is the birth of a Supreme Daoist Physique!”

Supreme Daoist Physiques had only appeared a few times in written history.

6

Any random Supreme Daoist Physique had the potential to achieve the Emperor Realm.

In the history of Firmament Star, there were not many almighty cultivators who achieved the Emperor Realm at all.

“Black Heaven Sect is in that direction. Could there be a young Emperor from Black Heaven Sect in this era? That’s amusing.”

The man in white laughed softly before his eyes closed slightly, signalling his nonchalance.

2

In a dazzling main hall.

A domineering man sat on the throne and gazed in the direction of Black Heaven Sect as he muttered, “A Supreme Daoist Physique! I never thought that another Supreme Daoist Physique would appear in this era again. Heh, it really is the era of war!”

“But no matter who it is, in this generation, the imperial throne belongs to no one other than I!”

2

“Whoever fights with me will meet his end!”

8

An old man was sitting on a blood-colored lotus seat bearing a thrashing sea of blood. He looked into the distance as he sensed something and his face abruptly sank.

“The aura of a Supreme Daoist Physique!”

“Could it be from that Black Heaven Sect? Humph, it looks like I have to speed things up and incubate that Blood Spirit Daoist Fetus a little earlier.”

4

“Only then will I be able to seize the imperial throne in this lifetime.”

1

“The competition is really heating up.”

.....

In Black Heaven Sect.

The power of the anomaly increased together with the Exquisite Nine Orifices Sword Heart.

A group of swordsmen could no longer control the swords in their hands. Countless swords flew out of their owners' hands and turned into a flow of light as they flew toward where Chu Kuangren was.

2

There was a mountain peak completely stabbed full of swords in the distance.

All of a sudden, the mountain peak rumbled and shook!

Swords soared one after the other and flew toward where Chu Kuangren was as well.

“F*ck! That’s a sword from Black Heaven Sword Mountain!”

“Quickly look at that, that’s the sacred weapon, Purple Firmament Sword!!!”

“No, it’s not only the Purple Firmament Sword, there’s also the Azure Vine, Crimson Drill, Dragon’s Cry, and Tai’e... these are all saint weapons!!!”

9

“Black Heaven Sect is known for its swordsmanship. Disciples have to leave for Sword Mountain and choose a sword to accompany them when they enter the sect. Rumor has it, there are Ten Great Sacred Swords and very few disciples can obtain their acknowledgment! In this generation, only Daoist Nan Gonghuang obtained the recognition of the sacred weapon, Deep Pool Rainbow.”

6

“But these sacred weapons have all flown over on their own now. From the looks of it, they can’t wait to acknowledge their masters on their own. This is too inconceivable! Who exactly is responsible for this?!”

“The sacred weapons are acknowledging someone as their master of their own accord? How terrifying!”

It was incomparably majestic as countless swords hovered above the courtyard.

Silhouettes arrived around the courtyard one after the other. An old man with white eyebrows amongst them loudly called out, “The disciple in the courtyard, please show yourself!”

A door opened with a creak.

Chu Kuangren slowly walked out slowly dressed in the white uniform donned by outer sect disciples. It was just as though he was a Daoist sword deity with the legendary swords hovering around him on top of his handsome face and the refined aura he exuded.

Everyone couldn’t take their eyes off him when they saw him.

“Who is this person? He looks very proper and handsome.”

“He’s too handsome, and with a refined aura like this, I would believe you if you said he was the reincarnation of some immortal. There is actually a person of such outstanding talent in the outer sect?”

2

“If this person was a girl, they would be as beautiful as a jade; if this person was a man, they would be an elegant son of a noble.”

6

“It’s him, Chu Kuangren.”

“It can’t be, it really is Chu Kuangren. He was handsome in the past, but not to such a ridiculous extent, right? How could he change so much in the two days that we haven’t seen him. Is he also the one who awakened a Supreme Daoist Physique?”

“I heard a True Elder Martial Sister wanted to keep him, but he rejected her. Elder Martial Sister seriously injured him out of anger, so he should be lying on the bed now. I never thought that he actually caused this disturbance.”

“Shoot, it’s no wonder why that True Elder Martial Sister wanted to keep this person for herself. If I were in her shoes, I wouldn’t be able to help myself either.”

1

“Wake up, you’re a man.”

24

The disciples’ tongues were wagging, some were amazed while some were shocked whereas others were infatuated. Evidently, Chu Kuangren’s Banished Immortal Aura had shocked many people.

3

A female Elder with outstanding good looks inevitably had a strange expression on her face after she saw Chu Kuangren high up in the air. A hint of a ripple surfaced in her mental state, which was one that resembled an ancient well devoid of ripples. “Isn’t it against the rules for him to have an aura and face like this?”

9

At this moment, Chu Kuangren had already finished merging with the Exquisite Nine Orifices Sword Heart. The anomaly in the sky above the courtyard disappeared as well, but those innumerable swords were still hovering above him and did not disperse for a very long time.

There were a few swords that stood out the most amongst them; jeweled light swirled around the bodies of the swords which also had large prominent Daoist runes on them. The remaining swords didn’t dare to get too close at all under the pressuring might of these few swords.

'Do they want to acknowledge me as their master???'

Sacred swords had spirits. Chu Kuangren seemed to be able to perceive the thoughts of these swords and he couldn't help but feel amazed. Who knew the Exquisite Nine Orifices Sword Heart was this charming?

2

Perhaps it is to say that this was the overlapping effect of the Sword Heart and the Banished Immortal Aura?

Nevertheless, Chu Kuangren did not dare do as he pleased now no matter what. These sacred weapons were Black Heaven Sect's most valuable treasures. What would the other disciples, and even the Elders, think if all of them acknowledged him as their master?

3

A Daoist physique had just awakened in him and he was itching to take the sacred weapons for himself.

It would be difficult for him to put himself in a powerful position with a temperament like that.

Chu Kuangren ignored the sacred weapons around him and walked directly toward the old man with the white eyebrows. He bowed and made his salutations.

"Outer sect disciple Chu Kuangren pays his respects to all the Elders."

1

The old man with white eyebrows nodded in satisfaction. 'He can resist the temptation of the sacred weapon. Not bad, not bad, this boy really does have somewhat of a heart.'

Chu Kuangren immediately guessed what the other party was thinking when he saw the expression on the old white-browed man's face. 'Heh, all in a day's work.'

"Chu Kuangren, were you responsible for this anomaly?"

"It is probable."

Chu Kuangren put on a look of hesitation.

"What do you mean, probable?"

“Elder, I was resting in the house today but all of a sudden, my body was in unbearable pain as though I was being hacked to pieces. Immediately after that, a beam of light shot out from my body, and then this happened,” said Chu Kuangren.

He couldn't reveal the Fantasy Roulette, so he could only pretend that the Daoist physique suddenly awakened in him for the time being.

“Oh.” The old man with white eyebrows was right in front of Chu Kuangren in a flash. He grabbed Chu Kuangren's arm and injected a whiff of spirit energy into him to examine him.

Chu Kuangren let the other party do as he pleased and did not move an inch.

A moment later, the old man with white eyebrows looked ecstatic as he burst out laughing and excitedly said, “It really is the Exquisite Nine Orifices Sword Heart! The heavens really are protecting my Black Heaven Sect! We actually have a Supreme Daoist Physique in this generation!!!”

8

Exquisite Nine Orifices Sword Heart, Supreme Daoist Physique!

1

The utterance of these words was like bombs falling onto the crowd of people. It set off a huge commotion and a group of Elders ran up to Chu Kuangren one after the other.

“It really is the Exquisite Nine Orifices Sword Heart, this really is splendid.”

2

“The heavens really are protecting my Black Heaven Sect!”

“Black Heaven Sect can fight for the imperial throne in this era with this Supreme Daoist Physique!”

2

“Out of 3,000 physiques, the Exquisite Nine Orifices Sword Heart is ranked in the top ten. It's a supreme physique for the cultivation of swordsmanship, and what's more, my Black Heaven Sect is established in this world for its cultivation of swordsmanship! Hahaha, what is this if not the will of the heavens?!”

5

“Even though this boy is from the outer sect, we need to nurture him vigorously since a Supreme Daoist Physique has awakened in him now. Why don’t we make him a True Disciple?”

1

“How is True Disciple enough? We must bestow the title of Daoist upon him!”

5

“There is going to be one more Daoist amongst the nine great Daoists in my Black Heaven Sect.”

2

At this moment, the Sword Mountain located in the distance suddenly rumbled.

The swords hovering in the sky flew back one by one as though they were being summoned.

On the other hand, those few sacred weapons were reluctant to part with Chu Kuangren as they spun around beside him. However, they still flew back in the direction of Sword Mountain in the end.

Chu Kuangren was stunned for a moment.

‘Hey, don’t go!

‘One of you should stay at the very least, right?

‘You came willy-nilly and you’re leaving as you please, are you guys toying with me?

‘You guys were even behaving as though you wouldn’t acknowledge anyone else but me just now, now you’re gone.

1

‘Humph, sword scum.

1

“The Sect Master prompted the Sword Mountain and retrieved the swords,” said the old man with white hair.

“Bring the boy to see me.” A magnetic middle-aged voice that was deep and low could be heard coming from a distance.

The old man with white eyebrows smiled at Chu Kuangren and said, "Follow me."

"Yes, Elder."

The old man with white eyebrows flicked his sleeves. An invisible power enveloped Chu Kuangren's body and he actually rose high up into the air involuntarily.

Several Elders took Chu Kuangren and turned into a stream of light before shooting into the distance. Soon, they arrived at a sumptuous main hall.

A middle-aged man dressed in white robes stood in this large hall.

The young man had a pure and handsome face with graying hair on both sides of his temples. He exuded a kind of immortal elegance paired with the spirit of a Daoist cultivator. This person was the present Sect Master of Black Heaven Sect... Honorable Xuan Qi.

5

"We pay our respects to the Sect Master."

A few Elders went up to him and bowed at him.

Honorable Xuan Qi nodded slightly before his gaze fell on Chu Kuangren. He sized the other party up with a strange look in his eyes.

2

"As expected, a Supreme Daoist Physique really moves one with its elegance."

1

"You're flattering me, Sect Master."

"Heh, you don't need to be modest. I want to take you in as my disciple, so you'll be the Lead Disciple of Black Heaven Sect from now on. I wonder whether you'd be willing to."

Not only was Chu Kuangren somewhat shocked when he heard this, but the rest of the disciples were gobsmacked too. They never thought that the Sect Master would place such great importance on Chu Kuangren.

3

He was actually granting him the position of Lead Disciple immediately.

However, on second thought there was nothing out of the ordinary.

This was the first time in the history of the Black Heaven Sect where a Supreme Daoist Physique had appeared.

“My utmost respect to you, my master.”

Chu Kuangren immediately bowed down to him.

6

He had no reason to refuse because he initially thought that it was pretty good if he could pass for a Daoist. He never thought that Honorable Xuan Qi would be so generous and make him everyone’s Eldest Martial Brother right away, so he shouldn’t refuse such a fine thing.

“Good! Good!”

Honorable Xuan Qi laughed elatedly.

By taking in a Supreme Daoist Physique as his disciple, he would share in the honor as well when Chu Kuangren grew up in the future. If Chu Kuangren became the Heavenly Emperor, he would be the Emperor’s Teacher. How many people have had such an honor since ancient times?

8

“You will follow me and cultivate with me from tomorrow onwards.”

“Yes, master.”

After becoming Honorable Xuan Qi’s disciple, the treatment of Chu Kuangren’s social status practically jumped by leaps and bounds. He immediately moved from a small courtyard to a vast Daoist palace and he even had a few personal maids waiting on him.

The next day.

Chu Kuangren woke up on the huge bed in his room. He opened his eyes and surveyed his surroundings. “I wasn’t dreaming, it looks like I really transmigrated.”

He got up and summoned the Fantasy Roulette in his heart.

“Begin today’s raffle.”

1

Bright rays of light spun in his field of vision and an enormous roulette appeared.

1

At this moment, someone knocked at the door.

“Come in,” Chu Kuangren said in a dull tone.

A young lady with a graceful physique, red lips, and white teeth walked in carrying a basin of water. “Young Master, it’s time to wash up.”

3

The young lady glanced at Chu Kuangren with a slightly reddened face. She was also an outer sect disciple in Black Heaven Sect and was chosen to wait on Chu Kuangren yesterday.

She did not mind it in the slightest, though.

After all, things were very different for Chu Kuangren now. He was a disciple directly under the Sect Master’s guidance and the Lead Disciple of Black Heaven Sect. His position was even above that of a Daoist.

To her, following Chu Kuangren was no different from reaching the heavens in a single bound.

‘What’s more, this Young Master Chu is so handsome.’ The young lady secretly thought to herself.

“What is your name?” asked Chu Kuangren.

“I am Liu Bing.”

“Liu Bing... then I’ll call you Lil Bing from now on.”

12

“If the Young Master so wishes.”

Chu Kuangren could confirm that Little Bing didn’t see the Fantasy Roulette because it seemed like no one else could see it but him.

He said the word “draw” within himself and the roulette started spinning.

1

“Congratulations, the host has obtained the Iron grade Spirit Gathering Pill.”

4

Spirit Gathering Pill?

An Iron grade one at that too?

The corner of Chu Kuangren's lips twitched twice.

Compared to the ten consecutive lucky draws yesterday, this Spirit Gathering Pill was simply nothing to shout about because his current self could get as many of them as he wanted.

1

Forget it, this was an inherent issue of chance anyway.

Chu Kuangren placed the Spirit Gathering Pill in the roulette room and didn't bother with it for the time being. He washed his face and put on an entirely new set of clothes.

"Young Master looks really good in this set of clothes."

Little Bing couldn't help but have a look of admiration on her face as she looked at Chu Kuangren.

4

He wore a jade cap on his head and was donned in a set of long, wide-sleeved white robes with golden embroidery on it in the image of a qilin<sup>1</sup>.

10

Adding that refined aura on top of all that, Chu Kuangren was currently no different than a banished immortal. Little Bing couldn't find any words to describe him.

3

"It's okay." Chu Kuangren smiled in satisfaction.

After he tidied up his appearance, Chu Kuangren went to look for Honorable Xuan Qi.

Black Heaven Sect, Longevity Hall.

Honorable Xuan Qi was sitting on a praying mat.

Chu Kuangren arrived and gave a small bow, "Greetings, master."

“Ah, you’ve come. Sit.”

Honorable Xuan Qi pointed at the praying mat beside him and taught Chu Kuangren what to do. After which, he said, “Kuangren, you were an outer sect disciple before so you could only learn the basic techniques in Black Heaven Sect. You now have the honor of being the Lead Disciple so you already have the right to learn Sage Techniques. My Black Heaven Sect has Three Great Sage Techniques...

You can cultivate tyrannical sword qi beyond compare with the Heavenly Crepe-myrtle Sword Art.

7

Once you’ve successfully cultivated the Golden Time Immemorial Light Art, you will have an endless flow of spirit energy. What’s more, there will be a golden light protecting your body and no attack can destroy it. This technique is an offensive and defensive one.

4

There is also the Divine Nine Suns Art which will strengthen your spirit energy, making it ferocious and tyrannical. Once you’ve cultivated it to perfection, you can create a vision of there being nine suns in the same sky and draw on the power of the sun.

8

I wonder which type you want to learn out of these three?”

“I want to learn the Heavenly Crepe-myrtle Sword Art.”

7

Chu Kuangren chose his target almost without any hesitation at all.

He had the Exquisite Nine Orifices Sword Heart which was an incomparable gift along the path of swordsmanship cultivation. There was no need for him to reject what was near and to seek what was far away by learning other techniques.

Among the three great Sage Techniques, the Heavenly Crepe-myrtle Sword Art was the most suitable one for him.

“Yes, your choice is as expected.”

Honorable Xuan Qi nodded and retrieved a jade scroll after that before handing it to Chu Kuangren. “The Heavenly Crepe-myrtle Sword Art is recorded within this. The amount you can comprehend all depends on your fortune. If you encounter anything you don't understand in the process of cultivation, don't hesitate to come and find me.”

“Yes, Master.” Chu Kuangren took the jade scroll offered to him.
