

Chapter 9

Jennie's POV..

After the make out session here in my office this is the first time I felt happy and satisfied I leaned my back on my swivel chair when Lisa let the smirk flustered on my face she was the only one who made me feel like this. I sipped my coffee and stood up I went to the window glass to see the beautiful view of the entire city it's already 5:30 pm and it's getting dark outside. since I saw her I don't know what to feel. but after one week I realized that I got interested in her, thinking how can she give me pleasure earlier god I can't forget what happened earlier, I bit my lips should I try something new position like 69 position damn Jennie calmed your fucking hormones. fuck Lisa how dare you!! you make me feel like this I swear I will suck your dick till you beg for me to stop!!... aarrghhh!

You make me lovely, and it's so lovely to be lovely to the one I love....

You are all the colors in one, at full brightness. The thing I realize is, that it's not what you take, it's what you leave. We are all alone, trapped in these bodies and our own minds, and whatever company we have in this life is only fleeting and superficial. It's my experience that people are a lot more sympathetic if they can see you hurting, and for the millionth time in my life I wish for measles or smallpox or some other easily understood disease just to make it easier on me and also on them.

Having a sex with someone I didn't feel the lust or the desire but when it comes to Lisa everything I feel about her is that how she have affects me. I took a last sip on my coffee before I went back on my table. I click a few emails from yesterday on my desktop and rearrange my desk. I cross on a day on the calendar with a black sharpie. The squeaky sound it makes due to the friction of the smooth and expensive calendar paper gives me the illusion of being professional and productive. suddenly I heard the door opened I didn't bother to look who was it, I already know who's entered inside of my office without knocking.

"Hey Jen--- Yuckkk what's that fucking smell?!!." Rose yelled I look at my friend's who's now closing their nose using their hands..oh great fuck I forgot to clean and spray perfume my office!.. the hell the smell our sex still here..but smelled good ya'know I bit my lip secretly.

"What the hell Jen?!, did you eat something?!" Nayeon said she grabbed something in her bag she took her sanitizer and she sprayed around inside my office.."Better.." She added they sat down on the couch I just shook my head and went back on my work.

"Wait!, I recognize the smell earlier don't tell me? you had sex with your sugar baby here in your office?!" Rose suddenly said I heard Nayeon gasps I look at them and smirked they immediately went towards me "Did she make you satisfied and she makes you cum?." Nayeon smirk at me I hummed softly and nod to her they sat down in front of my table.

"How long her fingers?." Rose asked I look at her then I sighed I put down the pen on my table.."longer than the cocks of my ex sugar baby's!." I said confidently they gasps and giggle well 'I'm not referring Lisa's finger... thinking how long her dick is which made me feel aroused.

"Damn Jennie I want to feel it too!." Nayeon pout I glared at her When she look at me she gulp she gave me a peace sign. I look at them I noticed Irene when they enter inside my office she's quiet I look at her she's staring the window seems like she's thinking something.

"What happened to her?" I asked them while I pointing Irene they look back to see Irene. they sighed. "I don't know I noticed her earlier she's looking someone I didn't saw the person because we dragged her here." Nayeon said I nodded we stood up we walked towards her. we started to call her I snapped my fingers in front of her but she didn't respond.

"Irene,..WAKE UP!!" Nayeon yelled in front of her she slightly slapped her that made Irene back to her sense she glared at Nayeon.."How dare you to slap me!!" She yelled then Nayeon gulp we laughed..

"Okay that's enough guys!, anyways are you okay?" I asked Irene she smiled at us and nod her head.."You've been spacing out awhile ago, who have you seen earlier you can't seem to forget him." I tease her I heard Rose Nayeon giggled devilish while Irene she shook her head.

"Nothing let's forget about it, let's go home shall we?." She said in annoyed that made us nod and laugh.."We shall.." We said in unison we gave her a teasing smile that made her annoyed even more she walked away we follow her while we teasing her. until we get outside of my company all people looking at us tsks like we are weird or we are drunk..well we laughing for no reason that's why Irene she pretend she didn't know us she started to walk fast she even run towards the parking lot we just laugh and shook our heads we wear our mask and cup so people they can't recognize us.
