

The ultimate husband in Chinese chapter 2331-2340

Chapter 2331

Yue Feng's face is sweaty, and the blood has soaked his clothes!

After hitting dozens of whips, Yu Wenyan finally stopped. With a smile, he said, "Yue Feng, how is it? Are you going to tell me now?"

"You kill me!" At this moment, Yue Feng's breath was weak.

In Yue Feng's heart, Linglong Pagoda is naturally less important than her life, but she knows that once she speaks the opening spell of Linglong Pagoda, Yu Wenyan will not let her go.

On the contrary, Yu Wenyan wouldn't do anything to himself if he didn't say how to open it.

"You..."

Yuwen was arrogant and stomped his feet: "Okay, don't say yes, don't think I can't find the secret of Linglong Pagoda, since you're not so afraid of death, just stay here."

Yue Feng guessed right, Yu Wenyan didn't want to kill Yue Feng, after all, Yue Feng has a reputation in the Kyushu mainland, and if she kills her, she will become the target of public criticism.

When the words fell, Yu Wenyan walked over slowly, quickly unlocked Yue Feng's acupuncture point, and sneered: "You can fend for yourself here."

Yu Wenyan thought about it, Yue Feng can understand the secret of Linglong Pagoda, he himself Also can.

However, what Yu Wenyan didn't know was that when Yue Feng discovered the Linglong Pagoda, it was under the main hall of Fuyao Palace, and the Linglong Pagoda was dozens of meters high at that time, so it was easy to see the spell written on the top of the tower.

But now, the Linglong Pagoda is only the size of a finger, and the spell on it is almost invisible. In this case, even if Yu Wenyan studied for ten years, he could not find the spell on it.

"What are you doing?" Yue Feng was very surprised and said weakly.

Although the acupuncture point was untied, but he had just received dozens of whips, and almost all of Yue Feng's strength was exhausted. At this time, he was lying there, unable to move.

Yu Wenyan smiled slightly, didn't respond, but walked out of the cave.

This chapter is provided by . Visit for daily update.

Bang bang bang!

The next second, Yuwenyan raised his jade hand and slapped several palms in a row. With a roar, the gravel kept falling, and in an instant, the cave was sealed tightly.

"Yue Feng, goodbye, don't say I didn't give you a chance." Yu Wenyan sneered and left quickly, heading towards the camp.

Nima!

Yue Feng was so frightened that he finally understood that Yu Wenyan wanted to trap himself here.

At this moment, Yue Feng wanted to struggle, but when he moved, his whole body hurt so much.

At this time, Yue Feng wanted to cry but had no tears.

Nima, I didn't expect to be attacked by Zhang Jiao and Gonggong before, and survived the catastrophe, and now Yu Wenyan is trapped in this cave.

Rumble.

At this time, the direction of the Chaos Mountains, there was another vision vibration, although the cave was sealed, but the violent vibration of the world was still heard clearly by Yue Feng, shocking the soul.

Ugh.

Yue Feng sighed. At this time, he really wanted to go to the Chaos Mountains to see the situation, but he was overwhelmed and lacked in strength. In his heart, he suddenly remembered an ancient poem, and couldn't help muttering to himself: "Living in a lonely village. I don't feel sorry for myself, Shang Si is guarding the wheel platform for the country, I lie down at night listening to the wind and rain, and the iron horse glaciers come to my dreams..." I wanted to contribute to the Kyushu mainland to defend against the coming Rakshasa clan, but I was helpless. The situation, and the mood of this poem, how consistent ah.

Thinking to himself, Yue Feng gave a wry smile, extremely sad.

“I just experienced a little setback, and I feel sorry for myself here. What else are we talking about to save Kyushu?” Suddenly, from the depths of the deep cave, an old and magnetic voice came, ethereal and illusory.

“Who is it?”

Yue Feng was shocked and couldn't help shouting.

Chapter 2332

At this time, Yue Feng was both surprised and happy, and he never thought that there were others in this inaccessible deep mountain cave.

At the same time, Yue Feng still had some doubts and nervousness in his heart.

Since there is someone, why didn't Yu Wenyan make a sound when Yu Wenyan was there? Also, who is the other party?

Thinking to himself, Yue Feng couldn't help but speak again: “Who is the master inside, can you show up?”

Hehe...

A burst of laughter came, and then there was no sound.

Yue Feng shouted a few more words, but the other party still did not respond.

Now Yue Feng was a little anxious, and wanted to stand up immediately, but the pain was so severe that he had no choice but to continue lying there and slowly regain his strength.

I don't know how long it took, Yue Feng felt a little better, and then stood up tremblingly and slowly walked towards the depths of the cave.

hiss!

When he got inside, Yue Feng couldn't help sucking in the cold air, and he saw that deep in the cave, there was an even bigger karst cave. There were many passages for dinner parties in the karst cave, but in front of him, there was only an ancient stone stair road, which continued to extend inside, as if endless.

It turns out that there is no cave in it, but Yu Wenyan caught himself in before, but he didn't investigate it well.

Yue Feng was so excited that he walked slowly along the stone steps!

The more you go inside, the dampness gradually disappears, but the air becomes more and more gloomy and cold, Yue Feng has no inner strength to resist, and his body is only shivering.

I don't know how long I walked, and finally came to a huge stone room.

Yue Feng saw that this stone room did not have four walls, but eight sides. The signs of the Nine Palaces and Eight Trigrams were engraved under the corners of the walls. The whole stone room had an ancient and desolate atmosphere.

In the center of the stone room, there is a stone platform, the stone platform is in the shape of a lotus flower, and there are dense ancient characters engraved around it.

On the top of the stone platform, an old man sat quietly.

The old man had snow-white hair and white hair, and was dressed in a black robe.

At this time, the old man quietly looked at Yue Feng who came in, showing a slight smile.

It was in the Nanyun Continent that Yue Feng released Linglong Pagoda to help Yue Feng defend against the Guiguzi of the Northern Ying army.

“Senior Guigu?”

Seeing Guiguzi, Yue Feng was both surprised and delighted, he quickly stepped forward and bowed deeply: “I thought it was an expert from He Fang just now, but I didn't expect that it was the senior talking to me, senior, more If the sun does n't see you, stay safe.”

When he said this, Yue Feng's attitude was extremely respectful.

It can be said that, in the world, the only person who can make Yue Feng so servile, apart from his former master Nangong Jue and a picture of Ouyang Zhennan, is the Guiguzi in front of him.

Guiguzi smiled and said slowly: “Yes, old man, stay safe, but you are not as good as before.”

Uh...

Hearing this, Yue Feng was very embarrassed, knowing that Guiguzi said that he had no internal strength. thing.

“Why is the senior here?” The next second, Yue Feng reacted and asked curiously, “Could it be that the senior is also here to help defend against the Rakshasa?”

At this time, Yue Feng was very excited. The Guigu senior is the most amazing person in the ages. If there is his help, even if the Rakshasa clan is powerful and has an army of millions, they will have nothing to fear.

Guiguzi shook his head, and his smile showed a bit of a genius doctor: “This old man originally planned to do this, but unfortunately, I am afraid that love can’t help.”

What?

Chapter 2333

Yue Feng was stunned, staring blankly at Guiguzi, very puzzled, that is, at this time, Yue Feng was surprised to find that Guiguzi was in good spirits, but his dantian inner strength was actually the same as his own... . Not at all.

“Senior.” After walking behind him, Yue Feng was extremely shocked and couldn’t help but ask: “You... your strength?”

Guiguzi smiled and said slowly: “Yue Feng, you are also a person who has learned the past and present. , Do you know that when a cultivator reaches the final state, it is called returning to the original and returning to the original?”

Returning to the original and returning to the original?

Hearing these four words, Yue Feng’s body was shocked, he couldn’t help taking a breath, and looked at Guiguzi: “Senior, you mean...you want to emerge...”

At this time, Yue Feng’s heart was extremely shocked. .

Because Yue Feng knew that after cultivators reached the Tribulation Transcendence Realm, there was still the Spirituality Realm, but it was very difficult to reach the Spirituality Realm. For thousands of years, very few people could reach the Spirituality Realm.

Take Yang Jian as an example, his strength is at most in the late stage of Transcending Tribulation Realm, and it is extremely difficult to break through to the Realm of Spirituality.

As Guiguzi said, returning to the original and returning to the real is the Ascension Realm after the Spirituality Realm. As the name suggests, the Ascension Realm is the Ascension of Soldiers.

According to rumors, after reaching the Ascension Realm, the strength of the soldiers will be resolved, that is to say, the strength of one body will be attributed to the heaven and the earth, while the cultivator will stay in the flesh, and the consciousness will soar to the ethereal fairyland.

Just these, Yue Feng has always regarded it as a legend. After all, there is no one in the world who can reach the state of enlightenment, even if there is no one in the past, but never expected that Guiguzi actually broke through the state of enlightenment and reached the state of ascension.

And, now it seems to be feathering and soaring.

Thinking of this, Yue Feng vaguely understood something. It seemed that Guiguzi was originally here to support the Chaos Mountains, but when he arrived here, there were signs of a breakthrough in his cultivation realm.

Therefore, Guiguzi came to this cave left by the ancients, preparing to ascend, but by coincidence, he was caught here by Yu Wenyan.

You must know that feathering ascension is the last step of a cultivator, and there can be no mistakes.

It's no wonder that when Yu Wenyan was there before, Guiguzi kept silent, just because he was worried about being disturbed by Yu Wenyan.

"I'm about to leave." At this moment, Guiguzi looked at Yue Feng quietly, and said slowly: "In the beginning, you released me from the Linglong Tower, and now, when I was flying up, I met again, which is a great deal. "

On the eight walls of this stone room, I have left my own practice method 'Eight Desolate Vertical and Horizontal Heart Sutra'. After you practice, you can restore your skills."

"I hope that after you regain your strength, you will be able to help Kyushu. The mainland will benefit..."

Guiguzi's voice became softer and softer, and when the last sentence fell, he slowly closed his eyes.

hum!

Immediately afterwards, an incomparably full and powerful force collapsed from Guiguzi's body, filled every corner of the entire stone room, and then dispersed into the air.

“Senior!” Seeing this scene, Yue Feng’s eyes filled with tears, and he knelt down suddenly, sobbing.

Yue Feng clearly felt that Guiguzi had lost his breath, but he sat there cross-legged with a peaceful face, as if he had fallen asleep. Speaking of which, Guiguzi’s ascension is a great thing, but when he thinks that he will never hear his voice again from now on, Yue Feng can’t tell the sadness and reluctance in his heart.

Bang bang bang.

After a few minutes, Yue Feng reacted and respectfully gave Guiguzi a few bangs, and said seriously: “Senior Guigu, don’t worry, after my Yue Feng regains strength, I will definitely benefit the people of the world and will not let you down. expectations of the elderly.”

When the words fell, Yue Feng slowly stood up and looked towards the surrounding eight sides of the stone wall. He saw that the words were engraved with internal force. It was Guiguzi’s lifelong study of the ‘Eight Wilderness Vertical and Horizontal Heart Sutra’.

At this moment, Yue Feng was both happy and moved.

It turned out that the senior Guigu attracted him at first, but didn’t respond after that, because he was writing his exercises on the stone wall so that he could practice it for himself.

Such a great grace, I will never forget it in this lifetime.

With emotion, Yue Feng did not hesitate, sitting there cross-legged, corresponding to the mental method on the stone wall, and began to practice.

Chapter 2334 The other side.

Chaos Mountain Range, at the foot of the mountain on the other side, the Rakshasa camp.

Da Shizi’s tent.

Su Qingyan, Xu Qingyi was sitting there, drinking hot water. There was no tea in the wild and strange realm, so it was very good to be able to drink clean white hot water.

In this tent, it is covered with animal skins, with poems and songs written on it, as well as various knowledge of human geography of the Kyushu continent.

In front of them, Meng Lang sat there, without all the arrogance of the eldest prince, but with a humble expression on his face. "Two teachers." At this time, Meng Lang said with a smile: "According to you, the people of the Kyushu mainland are not savage and rude, but are striving for peace with extremely high literacy?"

After thinking for a while: "If our Rakshasa clan rashly attacked with a large army, we would be out of nowhere and would be the sinner who caused the war."

Su Qingyan and Xu Qingyi looked at each other.

In the next second, Xu Qingyi smiled lightly, nodded and said: "The eldest son has a quick mind, it is really gratifying to be able to think of this, you are right, the people of the Kyushu continent are all in peace, as long as you Rakshasa clan Treat each other with sincerity, no one will treat you as an enemy."

Su Qingyan next to her nodded in agreement.

In the past few days, after the careful teaching of the two women, Meng Lang has learned a lot about the situation of the Kyushu Continent, and what makes them happy is that this eldest son is quick-witted, well-versed in righteousness, and is a rare sage.

"I see!"

After being praised, Meng Lang smiled slightly and stood up and said, "Because my father has not ordered an attack, I have to hurry up and advise." The voice fell, and Meng Lang walked out quickly to the place where King Rakshasa was. 's big account.

In the big tent, King Rakshasa is summoning his generals to discuss the upcoming war, because more than a dozen giants have absorbed enough strength to complete the final deployment.

"Father." Meng Lang walked in quickly and said respectfully: "I think it is too reckless for us to rashly lead the army to cross the Chaos Mountains and attack the Kyushu Continent. In my opinion, it is better to send an envoy first, with The sincerity of peace, inquire about the attitude of the Kyushu Continent." After speaking

, Meng Lang looked around and said seriously: "If the Kyushu Continent can't accommodate our Rakshasa clan, then fight, if you want to coexist peacefully, it's the best, and this is also the case. It can avoid unnecessary wars."

Wow!

In an instant, the surrounding generals were discussing a lot.

King Rosa had a cold face and scolded angrily: “Menglang, what nonsense are you talking about? Thousands of years ago, our Rakshasa tribe was exiled to the wild and strange territory by the Yellow Emperor. At that time, the various ethnic groups in Kyushu attacked in groups. How could they be together? Let’s coexist peacefully? You are my heir, shouldering the future of the Rakshasa clan, and you must have the firm determination to wipe out the Kyushu, how can you be timid before a battle?”

Meng Lang was shocked, and quickly said: “Father, I am not a war. First, I just feel that we don’t have to be so hostile to the Kyushu mainland. Now that we have the ability to climb over the Chaos Mountains, to the fertile and beautiful land of Kyushu, why not prosper and start a war?”

“Shut up.” Luo King Sha was immediately furious and scolded: “Don’t say it anymore, I think you were bewitched by those two Kyushu women.” After the voice fell, Meng Ao stood up and couldn’t help saying: “Yeah, big brother, you Don’t listen to the words of the two Kyushu women, the ancestors have a lesson, and the people of Kyushu are hypocritical and cunning, so don’t be deceived.”

“I...”

Seeing my father and younger brother, they didn’t believe their own words. The waves were sweating profusely. I want to tell the difference, but I don’t know where to start.

“Report!”

At this moment, a soldier walked in and said respectfully to King Rakshasa: “Your Majesty, a dozen giants are ready to be deployed, and the army is assembled. Please show me your majesty.”

Good!

King Rakshasa was very excited, stood up Mengdi, and said loudly: “The whole army is going.”

“Yes!” After receiving the order, the soldier responded and turned around and went out.

“Father.” Meng Lang was shocked and wanted to stop it, but it was too late.

boom boom boom...

In chapter 2335,

I heard that a dozen giants, like hills, moved quickly towards the Chaos Mountains under the control of Rakshasa soldiers.

the other side.

The Northern Ying Army, the Diyuan Continent, the Dongao Continent, and the Nanyun Continent, and other strongmen from various continents, were stationed at the foot of the mountain, and every half hour, they would send people up the mountain to check the situation.

On the top of the Chaos Mountains, there are not only volcanoes, but also hurricanes raging. Most people can't stand it, so they can only observe it on the edge.

Because of Yue Feng's relationship, the powerhouses of various continents still keep a distance from the Beiyang army. From a distance, it is completely clear.

Because they never merged with the Northern Ying army, the continents gathered together and called themselves the Alliance Army.

At this time, in the alliance camp, Xiao Xi ran out in a panic and cried, "Come on, the son is gone, gone."

Just now, Xiao Xi was worried about Yue Feng, and went to visit and found the camp empty, Yue Feng disappeared.

Xiao Xi has a deep sense of righteousness towards Yue Fengqing, and she is in a hurry.

Whoa!

Hearing the movement, everyone rushed over and panicked when they saw that there was no one in the camp.

"Quick, send someone immediately to search the surrounding area." Wen Chou Chou shouted anxiously. He understands Yue Feng, and if there is an urgent matter, he will definitely tell everyone, and he will not leave without saying goodbye.

Sun Dasheng was even more anxious, and directly summoned hundreds of Huaguoshan disciples to start a search in the vicinity.

Ugh!

However, at this time, no one in the crowd sighed and said, "Sect Master Yue failed to break through and suddenly lost his strength. Are you discouraged and walked away?"

The voice fell, and many people nodded silently.

Yes, Yue Feng was so powerful that he suddenly became a waste, and no one could accept it in his heart.

Some people said that this kind of thought, like the wind, blew through the entire alliance army camp. At first, all parties had expectations for Yue Feng, but now they all thought that Yue Feng would leave without saying goodbye, and everyone was suddenly disappointed.

“Don’t make random guesses!” Ren Yingying blushed, looked around and shouted: “Yue Feng is not the kind of person who escapes reality, he must have encountered something.” The voice fell, and Wen Chou Chou also shouted . Said: “Yes, the most important thing now is to unite as one, everyone should not be cranky.”

Boom! boom! boom! ....

As he was talking, suddenly, he heard earth-shattering roars from the Chaos Mountains. In an instant, dark clouds rolled and the earth trembled.

The violent shaking made everyone almost unsteady.

Before everyone could think about it, they hurriedly looked towards the Chaos Mountains. As a result, when they saw it, everyone’s face was pale, and they couldn’t help taking a breath of cold air, and they were stunned!

This... this...

Many people’s mouths are wide open, and in the huge shock, their faces are also unbelievable.

I saw that the top of the Chaos Mountains was forcibly blasted into a huge gap, the volcanic magma overflowed, and in the thick smoke, a dozen huge figures, stepping on heavy steps, were slowly approaching .

Each of these huge figures is more than a hundred meters tall and covered with black hair. At first glance, it looks like a huge chimpanzee, with blood-red eyes, which is very terrifying.

It is the giant leader tamed by the Rakshasa.

And behind the dozen or so giants, the army that has been black all the time is coming!

That's right, those huge monsters knocked out a gap in the Chaos Mountains, and the world shook.

This scene, all the people present are trembling, and they will never forget it, it is simply too shocking!

The ultimate husband in Chinese chapter 2336-2340

Chapter 2336

Through the dim light, I saw this army, wearing uniform black animal skin soft armor, each soldier is about two meters long, each holding a black long knife, the sound is shocking!

At the forefront of the army is a huge chariot made of animal bones. The chariot is mounted on the backs of four giant beasts. Teeth are very ferocious at first glance.

On the top of the chariot, standing proudly stood a tall and stalwart figure, dressed in black armor, with messy hair and a shawl, flamboyant and wild, it was the Rakshasa King.

Behind King Rakshasa, there are two sons, Meng Lang and Meng Ao.

Hiss..this

...is this a call from the Rakshasa clan? !

Seeing this scene, everyone was shocked! Sensing the momentum of the Rakshasa army, many people felt their hearts tremble and their legs became weak.

Because everyone felt that the strength of each soldier in this Rakshasa army was the lowest of the Martial Saint, and the Rakshasa King standing on the chariot was even more unfathomable.

So many people, I'm afraid... I'm afraid there are millions of troops. Looking from a distance, I saw a black patch, all people, and the long knife flashed with a cold light! Shocking!

Seeing this scene, many disciples of the sect in the Alliance Army trembled.

This... this Rakshasa really exists. Moreover, the figure is so tall and the strength is so strong, how to fight this battle.

For a time, many people were not afraid to fight, and they all had the idea of turning around and running away.

“Warriors!”

At this time, seeing the beautiful scenery on the other side of the Primal Chaos Mountains, compared with the wild and strange realm, it was like a fairyland, the Rakshasa King stood up and stood proudly on the chariot, raising his arms and shouting: “A few It’s been a thousand years, we want to take back everything we lost, kill and smash the enemy army!”

“Kill!” The voice fell, and the army of millions of Rakshasa erupted in a roar, waving the weapons in their hands, and rushing to kill.

This chapter is provided by . Visit for daily update.

These Rakshasa, brave and good at fighting, come and go like the wind, and in the blink of an eye, they are in front of everyone.

Ah...

Many people haven’t reacted yet. Under the impact of the Rakshasa army, one by one screamed and fell into a pool of blood. In the blink of an eye, tens of thousands of people were killed and injured.

“Made, kill, kill me.” Seeing this scene, Sun Dasheng’s eyes instantly turned red, and he almost roared, the giant axe in his hand flipped over, and he directly rushed into the Rakshasa army!

“Everyone, don’t panic, keep the formation to respond to the enemy, and don’t mess up. For the sake of the home, everyone will kill me!” Wen Chou Chou clenched his fists, seeing how brave the Rakshasa army was, he was immediately inspired to fight.

“Kill!” The people around, Ren Yingying, Long Qianyu, Zheng Chunqiu and others, all responded.

“Kill!”

Immediately, hundreds of thousands of allied troops poured into the enemy formation like a tide, and all of them were red-eyed!

Yang Jian, who was not far away, also had an ashen face, and raised his hand at Zhang Jiao.

Without any hesitation, Zhang Jiao jumped up into the sky and shouted: “The whole army obeys the order and strikes!”

Whoa!

The voice fell, and the army of hundreds of thousands of Northern Yingmen, with a great momentum, rushed forward.

On the battlefield, a howl kept ringing!

“Ah!”

People kept falling down, and this world was completely dyed red with blood!

boom boom boom...

In the fierce battle, more than a dozen giants were particularly eye-catching. Under the control of the Rakshasa soldiers, they were like huge life harvesters. When they lifted their feet, dozens of people were turned into flesh, and they waved their arms. Hundreds of soldiers were killed and wounded, almost invincible.

These dozen or so giants, arranged in a line, almost swept across the battlefield. Whether it was the Northern Ying army or the Allied army, they all suffered heavy casualties and were mourning.

Seeing this scene, I don’t know who shouted among the alliance army, and then, many people turned around and ran away, their faces full of fear!

Chapter 2337

No one is stupid, everyone has seen it, those huge giants are even more terrifying than the legendary wild beasts, ordinary soldiers can’t get close at all, this battle can’t be fought, and in the blink of an eye, the alliance The army suffered heavy casualties, and if it continued, wouldn’t it be destroyed by the whole situation?

Many people retreated, the alliance army was in chaos, more and more casualties, the ground was stained red with blood, and the disciples of the major sects fell into a pool of blood one by one!

Seeing this scene, many sects also retreated.

The Rakshasa tribe is so fierce, to fight head-on is to hit a stone with an egg.

“Let’s withdraw.”

At this moment, in the crowd, Yu Wenyan quickly summoned the Huanyin Sect and the disciples of Xiyuan Pavilion, and at the same time said to Yuwenji: “Quick, quickly withdraw, hurry up.”

Yuwenji's tender body With a shudder, he hesitated: "All continents are still resisting, let's withdraw now, is it a bit..."

Seeing the strength of the Rakshasa clan, Yuwenji was also a little nervous, but in order to protect her homeland, she still wanted to persevere.

Yu Wenyan shook his head: "Silly sister, the defeat is set. Staying here is to die. Let's preserve our strength, and we can slowly deal with the Rakshasa clan in the future."

When he said this, Yu Wenyan looked confident.

Yes, Yu Wenyan stole the Linglong Pagoda from Yue Feng before. Yu Wenyan studied it for a day and couldn't find the secret, but Yu Wenyan firmly believed that he would find the secret and become the new owner of the Linglong Pagoda.

As long as there is Linglong Pagoda, there are countless ancient powerhouses inside, it is possible to block the Rakshasa army.

"Okay!" Seeing Yuwenyan's resolute expression, Yuwenji didn't say more, and led the disciples of Xiyuan Pavilion, cooperated with the Huanyin Sect, and quickly retreated.

"you..."

Seeing this scene, Ren Yingying was anxious and angry, and she never thought that as soon as the war started, many forces were shocked by the Rakshasa clan and began to flee without a fight.

Wen Chou Chou was also anxious, and kept shouting to make everyone unite, but it had no effect at all.

However, although the remaining forces did not flee, their morale was low, and they were not as aggressive as they were at the beginning, but fought and retreated.

Not only the Alliance Army, but the Northern Ying army was also swept away by those giants, swept to pieces and collapsed.

"Everyone!"

At this moment, Zhang Jiao was suspended in the air and shouted anxiously: "Everyone now listen to my unified command. The alliance army is divided into two groups, one detours to the left, and the other is contained on the right. , keep the formation in the center, step back slowly, hurry up..." The voice fell, and the Beiyang army moved quickly.

On the Union side, Wen Chou Chou, Long Qianyu, Zheng Chunqiu, Ye Ziyi and the others looked at each other and quickly mobilized their subordinates to cooperate with Zhang Jue.

To be honest, if it was a day ago, they could not have obeyed Zhang Jiao's orders, but now, the Rakshasa army is attacking, and Yue Feng does not know where to go. If the melee continues, in less than half a day, the alliance army is The whole army was destroyed.

At that time, the Beiyang army will be unable to support it alone, and it will be completely defeated, and finally the Kyushu mainland will fall into a dire situation.

Under such circumstances, Wen Chou Chou did not think much about it, and obeyed Zhang Jiao's arrangement regardless of previous suspicions.

Soon, under the command of Zhang Jiao, the Alliance Club and the Beiyang army cooperated with each other to form a huge formation, echoing each other and temporarily containing the Rakshasa army.

But even so, the dozen or so gigantic giants still ran rampant.

The huge formation can block the Rakshasa army, but it can't stop the giant like a hill.

what!

Seeing the arms of several giants swept across, hundreds of people flew into the sky in an instant, and some of them were caught by the giants before they could react, and they were stuffed into the mouth of the blood basin.

The defensive formation was quickly broken into several openings.

hiss!

Seeing this scene, whether it was the Alliance Army or the Northern Ying Army, they couldn't help but take a deep breath.

This... what kind of beast is this? too terrifying.

Chapter 2338

The close cooperation between the Alliance Army and the Northern Ying army did not reverse the situation, and the casualties were still increasing!

After another two hours of fierce fighting, the casualties on the Kyushu Continent had reached 100,000. As for the Rakshasa army, the casualties were only 10,000.

The remaining hundreds of thousands, gritted their teeth one by one, desperately resisted the army of millions of Rakshasa!

In this situation, the defeat is almost certain. On the Kyushu Continent, everyone felt a little panic and despair in their hearts, but thinking that there was no chance to retreat, they gritted their teeth and resisted desperately.

Each of them knew it in their hearts.

If this battle is lost, the Kyushu Continent will be over, completely over!

At this moment, the Rakshasa army is behind.

Behind the chariot where King Rakshasa was standing, two slender figures stood quietly, guarded by dozens of Rakshasa soldiers.

It was Su Qingyan and Xu Qingyi.

Meng Lang worshipped two women as teachers. Although King Rakshasa was very unhappy, he did not try to stop him. In this case, although Su Qingyan and Xu Qingyi did not have a very high status in the Rakshasa clan, they were still around. The Rakshasa soldiers did not dare to neglect.

“What should I do?” Looking at the scene in front of her, Xu Qing’s body trembled.

She saw that the coalition forces in the Kyushu mainland fell into a pool of blood one by one, and they were all her own compatriots.

Su Qingyan also frowned, and she was too anxious, but she calmed down and said softly: “Since the war has broken out, we can’t stop it, the only way is to wait for the battle to end and continue to let the prince persuade Rakshasa. King.”

Alas!

Hearing this, Xu Qingyi sighed softly and stopped talking.

On this side of the battlefield, seeing the army retreating steadily, many soldiers fell in a pool of blood, Yang Jian’s face was extremely ugly.

“Master, do you know what kind of beast this is?” In a panic, Yang Jian stared at the dozen or so huge giants and asked Zhang Jiao.

Zhang Jiao frowned and said slowly, “It’s like an ape but not an ape. It is extremely powerful, and it can grow to such a huge body. This should be the giant recorded in ancient books.”

Giant?

Hearing this, Yang Jian's eyes flashed coldly, and he said coldly, "Look at me destroying them!"

Om!

The voice fell, Yang Jian slowly raised the three-pointed two-edged sword, a powerful breath swept out, and in an instant, the whole world was surging!

Erlang Zhenjun, domineering and unparalleled.

One place of anger, the world changes color!

Immediately afterwards, Yang Jian's body flashed, holding the three-pointed two-edged sword tightly, and flew up! At this moment, Yang Jian's internal force exploded, and the sky was about to shatter!

"Batian Slash!"

At this moment, Yang Jian locked onto the nearest giant, and when he was still 100 meters away, Yang Jian roared and raised his hand suddenly. A terrifying force erupted from the three-pointed, two-edged sword, forming a terrifying blade shadow, and suddenly slammed into the giant!

This sword shadow is more than 100 meters long. It is entirely formed by Yang Jian's fighting spirit, and its power is amazing and terrifying.

Batian Slash is Yang Jian's unique skill. Back then in Beiyong Imperial City, Yang Jian used this trick in order to capture Zhu Bajie.

In an instant, as soon as the sword shadow appeared, the temperature of the surrounding air seemed to drop by more than ten degrees, and the soldiers on both sides of the battlefield felt a chill.

Many Rakshasa soldiers stared closely at Yang Jian's figure, and their hearts were extremely shocked.

Chapter 2339

What a powerful breath, who is this?

Wen Chou Chou, Long Qianyu, Zheng Chunqiu and others were also shocked.

As expected of True Monarch Erlang, this strength is almost unmatched in the world. He finally made his move. It seems that there is still a turning point in this battle.

And the soldiers of the Northern Ying army were even more excited.

“Batian Slash! Your Majesty finally made a move!”

“Your Majesty’s action will definitely turn the tide of the battle...”

“Look at how Your Majesty kills these huge beasts...”

Under the horrified gazes of everyone, finally, that sword Shadow, falling from the sky.

“Boom!” The

shadow of the blade is like a meteor and lightning. Wherever it passes, a crack is drawn in the air. From a distance, the entire world is drawn, and finally slashes on the giant’s body! Suddenly, a roar shook the world, and this land was filled with dust!

The gigantic leader let out a dull wailing, his body more than 100 meters high, staggered back, and saw that from its left shoulder to right crotch, a terrifying blood was torn out, spraying like a rain of blood. , and finally fell to the ground.

Not only that, but the name of the sword glow is that behind the giant, a ravine nearly a thousand meters long and a hundred meters wide came out. Within the range of this gully, all the Rakshasa soldiers, All the bones were shattered and fell into a pool of blood! Dead without a corpse!

hiss!

Seeing this scene, everyone felt chills down their spines and buzzed in their heads!

In particular, the Rakshasa army stared blankly at Yang Jian, like a god descending from the earth, originally morale was like a rainbow, and the fighting spirit was high, but at this moment, it was suddenly drowned out a lot.

The Northern Ying Army and the Alliance Army cheered.

Wen Chou Chou, Long Qian Yu, and Ren Ying Ying looked up at Yang Jian in midair, all excited.

As expected of True Monarch Erlang, he killed a giant with just one move.

If they continue to take action, wouldn’t these behemoths, which have been a headache for everyone, will soon be eradicated?

Although Yang Jian is a hypocrite, he does one thing on the surface and one thing behind his back, but at a critical time, he is still worthy of respect.

Swish!

At this moment, at the rear of the Rakshasa army, King Rakshasa, who was observing the battle situation on the station bus, stood up suddenly, locked Yang Jian tightly, and said coldly, "Who is this, who can kill Jukui with one move?"

Luo The Sha clan has been trapped in the wild and strange realm for thousands of years, and they know very little about the situation of the Kyushu mainland, so the Rakshasa King has no idea who the person in front of him is, but he can feel that this person is one of the people who conquered the Kyushu by himself. Great rival.

Hearing the question, Meng Ao, who was beside him, and the other generals all looked at each other and remained silent.

King Rakshasa didn't know him, and they didn't know him even more.

"Father!"

At this moment, Meng Lang walked out quickly and respectfully said to the Rakshasa King: "This person should be Yang Jian, who is respected by the Kyushu Continent as Erlang Zhenjun, and is now the emperor of the Northern Ying Continent. With that said, Meng Lang stared at Yang Jian, who was floating in the air, and continued: "It is said that this Yang Jian has practiced for thousands of years. His strength should not be underestimated. We should not underestimate the enemy."

There, Qingyi learned a lot about the Kyushu Continent, and got to know a lot of famous people. Yang Jian was one of them. When he saw it at this time, Meng Lang recognized it at once.

Wearing golden armor, holding a three-pointed two-edged sword, and a big black dog beside him, that is Yang Jian! Can't go wrong.

Chapter 2340 True Monarch

Erlang?

Hearing this, King Rakshasa turned gloomy and said coldly: "Bring me my weapon."
The

voice fell, and a few soldiers next to him brought a huge weapon, three meters long and white in color. Huge bone knife.

This bone knife was an ancient beast that King Rakshasa killed in the wild and strange realm a few years ago. It was a weapon made of its spine. The beast lived for thousands of years, and the bone knife made of its spine , is extremely tough, comparable to a magic weapon.

hum! Rakshasa

King clenched the bone knife, his figure rose into the sky, and shouted at Yang Jian: "You are Yang Jian? Dare to kill my Jukui, and suffer death."

The fog made its figure looming, making it very illusory. The cultivation methods of the Rakshasa tribe are fundamentally different from those of the Kyushu Continent.

Um?

Sensing the other party's powerful aura, Yang Jian's expression was solemn, holding the three-pointed two-edged sword tightly, and asked coldly: "You are..."

"Haha..." King Rakshasa sneered and looked at Yang Jian closely: "I It's the Rakshasa King, if you die in my hands, you will die without any regrets!"

Haha...

Yang Jian laughed loudly, his expression extremely cold and arrogant: "Kill me? Who kills who is not necessarily.

" Die!" King Rakshasa stopped talking nonsense, roared wildly, clenched the bone knife, his figure was like a god of death from hell, and charged directly towards Yang Jian.

With such a fast speed, seeing King Rakshasa approaching him in the blink of an eye, Yang Jian became serious, and without thinking too much, he quickly clenched his three-pointed two-edged sword to resist!

clang!

The bone knife and the three-pointed two-edged knife collided, and there was a loud noise. I saw King Rakshasa and Yang Jian, each of which was knocked back 100 meters away.

"Not bad!" The Rakshasa King stabilized his figure, looked at Yang Jian and nodded his head in approval: "I heard that you are famous in the Kyushu Continent, and you have practiced for nearly a thousand years. You are indeed well-deserved, but you are not this king's opponent." The voice fell, the Rakshasa King He rushed towards Yang Jian again, the whole body filled with suffocation, causing the whole sky to be turbulent.

Looking at the Rakshasa King who was rushing again, Yang Jian frowned and said coldly: "You are just like this, watch me take your head!" Just now in the fight with the Rakshasa King, Yang Jian clearly felt that the Rakshasa clan His cultivation is very special, but Yang Jian didn't panic at all. As the world's honorable title of Erlang Zhenjun, he didn't blow it out.

The voice fell, Yang Jian clenched the three-pointed two-edged sword, and fought fiercely with King Rakshasa.

For a time, the two figures were in the high altitude of the battlefield, constantly shuttled back and forth, with thunderclouds rolling around, and the scene was indescribably shocking.

Huh..

This scene made everyone stunned. You must know that this kind of battle is rare in ancient and modern times, and many people are dumbfounded!

...

At this moment, in a deep mountain cave dozens of miles away from the Chaos Mountains.

Yue Feng sat cross-legged in the stone room, and as he practiced, the strength of his body continued to rise.

Military generals, Marquis, Martial Saint... I have to say, Guiguzi's Eight Wilderness Heart Sutras are broad, profound, and incomparably mysterious. After Yue Feng practiced, he couldn't help but regain his internal strength, and his realm level also recovered at a very fast speed.

Yue Feng has been sitting cross-legged here for a day and a night, and has recovered from no inner strength to the current state of Martial Saint.

At this speed, by noon tomorrow, the strength will be fully restored to the fifth stage of the Martial Emperor, and at that time, he will be able to break through the Tribulation Transcendence Realm.

However, at this time, Yue Feng was unable to cultivate with one heart, because just now, Yue Feng clearly felt that there was a vibration in the direction of the Chaos Mountains, and as his strength became stronger and stronger, Yue Feng felt more lightly that the sky filled the sky. The sound of fighting everywhere.
