Too

bad, the other party set fire, and now he will be burned alive.

That is, at this moment, the fire in the room was getting bigger and bigger, the smoke was billowing, the maid couldn't breathe well, and she was too nervous, and finally passed out in the dark.

call!

In the face of this situation, Yue Feng also quickly performed the Qi-holding method, and then checked the maid's condition. Seeing that she was only in a coma and her life was not in danger, she was relieved.

That's when the fire burned to the front.

Nima!

At this moment, Yue Feng didn't have time to think about it, and quickly used the power of the red lotus of the law to deploy a protective film around him, covering himself and the maid.

Speaking of which, the red lotus of the law in Yue Feng's body can be combined with the raging fire in front of him, but when he met the Fire Temple Wolf in the valley before, Yue Feng had already used it once. , so in the face of the current situation, you can only deploy a protective film to protect yourself.

Huhuhu...

The moment the protective film was formed, the fire was immediately blocked.

However, Yue Feng once again used the power of the red lotus karmic fire, and at this time he could not tell how weak, his face was pale.

"Quick, catch the assassins!"

"Damn, they set a fire in the back wing."

"They must not be allowed to run away."

At this moment, from the direction of the palace in front, many guards shouted. Immediately afterwards, a lot of footsteps were heard.

call!

Faced with this situation, several assassins looked at each other and became anxious.

“There are more and more guards, what should I do?”

“If you don’t withdraw, the princess and that person should have been burned to death.”

“No, we must die and see the corpse. The leader has repeatedly told me to assassinate the princess this time, and we must not fail.”

Under the discussion, the leader of the assassin’s eyes flickered. Seriously, he poured all the kerosene around him on the road behind him, and then threw a fire.

Huhuhu...

In an instant, the fire burned instantly, blocking the passage.

Faced with the blazing fire in front of them, the many maids who rushed to the front all changed their expressions and quickly stopped.

That is to say, the fire on the side of the wing gradually decreased.

At this moment, several assassins looked at each other.

“Quick, go in and see if the princess is dead.”

Whoa!

After the discussion, several assassins rushed into the room immediately, covering their mouths and noses while quickly searching. Soon, they were stunned when they saw Yue Feng and the maid hiding in the corner.

What a hell.

They were not burned to death in such a big fire just now.

At this time, several assassins clearly saw that Yue Feng and the maid were fully clothed, and there was no trace of burns on their bodies, and they were a little confused for a while.

Um?

Immediately afterwards, the leading assassin saw the maid’s face, and was even more shocked: “Oops, I’ve been fooled, this is not a princess.” The voice fell, and the other assassins hurried to check closely, and they were all shocked and angry.

Swish!

In the next second, several assassins looked at Yue Feng in unison, unable to hide the anger in their eyes.

“This kid is so cunning. He even got a fake princess to deceive us.”

“What should I do? It’s too late to go back now, there are more and more guards, and the road to the bedroom is blocked by fire...”

“Damn it. , kill him.”

In anger, several assassins clenched their long knives and were about to hack Yue Feng to death on the spot.

Nima!

At this moment, Yue Feng scolded secretly, secretly preparing to attack the enemy. It’s just that this day, the power of the red lotus of the law has been continuously used, and it is very weak at this time. In the face of several powerful assassins in front of him, he was completely helpless.

“Wait...”

At this critical moment, the leading assassin suddenly raised his hand and stopped his companion: “This kid looks a little familiar.” As he spoke, he looked up and down at Yue Feng.

Hearing this, the other assassins also carefully distinguished, and then nodded.

“Isn’t this the person the leader ordered to look for?”

“It seems to be him.”

“Take him away, the assassination of the princess failed, but catching him back can be regarded as atonement.”

Before they came to the palace to assassinate, the leader simultaneously Another order was issued, asking the entire organization to find a person named Yue Feng, and inside the organization, a portrait was specially drawn.

The ultimate husband in Chinese chapter 6527

A few assassins just now, their minds were always on the princess. In addition to the darkness of the night, they didn’t pay attention to Yue Feng’s appearance. At this time, when they looked closely, they found that the man in front of them was exactly the Yue Feng the leader was looking for.

What the hell!

At this moment, when he heard the words of several assassins, Yue Feng was immediately confused.

What are these assassins looking for from me?

Crash....

At this moment, there were more and more guards outside, and the shouting kept coming.

“The fire is about to go out!”

“The assassin must not be allowed to escape.”

Hearing the movement outside, the assassin at the head knew that there would be no delay, and immediately made a decision: “Take this person back to his life first.”

Ah!

As soon as the words fell, several other assassins nodded, then swarmed up and tied Yue Feng Wuhua.

Yue Feng wanted to resist, but he was too weak and had no strength at all, so he could only be arrested.

“Let’s go!”

After helping Yue Feng, the assassins hurriedly rushed out, heading towards the outside of the palace. Several companions took Yue Feng and followed closely behind.

Nima...

At this moment, Yue Feng was both annoyed and depressed.

I thought that I had used a trick of ‘stealing the sky and changing the sun’ to keep the princess’s safety and everything would be fine, but I never thought of it, and finally put myself in danger.

That’s when the fire on the road leading to the wing was finally extinguished.

“Quick, catch the assassin!”

“Chase!”

At the moment when the fire was extinguished, hundreds of guards shouted and rushed to the wing, but the wing had been burnt to ruins, where is the assassin's shadow?

At this moment, Princess Yiyi rushed over, surrounded by Nie Hongxue and several guards.

“Where's the assassin?”

Nie Hongxue's delicate face was full of solemnity when she came to the front: “Have you caught it?” Just now, in the fierce battle with the assassin in the bedroom, Nie Hongxue's strength was drained, and her face was pale now.

Swish!

Hearing the question, the surrounding guards bowed their heads in shame, and then one of the guard captains whispered: “The assassin... the assassin has run away!”

Run away?

Nie Hongxue frowned, feeling very annoyed, these assassins are really hateful, they come as soon as they want, they leave as they want...

Princess Yiyi doesn't care much about the assassins, she always thinks about Yue Feng's safety, and she can't help saying: “What about Mr. Yue Feng?” The voice fell, and the surrounding guards looked at me, I looked at you, and then all shook their heads.

“You...”

Seeing this situation, Princess Yiyi became anxious and stomped her feet: “Then why are you still standing there? Why don't you look for it?” When she spoke, Princess Yiyi's delicate face could not be concealed. anxious.

If it wasn't for Yue Feng's wisdom and let a maid change clothes with him, I am afraid that he has been captured by the assassin now. It can be said that Yue Feng saved him.

More importantly, Yue Feng is resourceful and far-sighted, and he still needs his help to deal with Nuliha, and no matter what, he can't let anything happen to him.

“Yes, princess!”

The guards responded and hurriedly searched around.

well!

At this moment, Nie Hongxue couldn't help but let out a sigh. If something happened to this Yue Feng, it would be troublesome. This man is almost omnipotent. With his help, the princess will have a chance to bring down Nuliha. With three longs and two shorts, let alone the princess sitting on the throne, it would be difficult to avenge Wang Khan.

Thinking to herself, Nie Hongxue gently comforted Princess Yiyi: "Princess, don't panic, Mr. Yue Feng is so talented, he will definitely be fine."

"There are still people here!"

Just as she was talking, she heard someone shouting. With a sound, everyone hurried over and saw that among the wreckage of the wing, the maid who had previously pretended to be a princess was lying there with her eyes closed, and she was still in a coma.

broken!

Seeing this, both Nie Hongxue and Princess Yiyi were shocked and had a bad premonition.

The maid was the only one left. Obviously, something happened to Yue Feng.

For a time, Princess Yiyi was so anxious that she was full of worries.

Yue Feng, don't let anything happen to you.

call!

Nie Hongxue reacted, sighed lightly, and said to the surrounding guards: "You all immediately search the entire royal court, looking for the whereabouts of Mr. Yue Feng, remember, do it in secret, don't disturb the people of other side!

Nuliha. " .."

The

Yue Feng was taken out of the bedroom by several assassins, and after avoiding the patrolling soldiers outside, he finally left the palace and reached a hillside in the north.

“Several, have you arrested the wrong person?”

At this time, Yue Feng was very depressed, pretending to be innocent, and said, “You want to kill the princess, what is the matter with me? “

Seriously, Yue Feng doesn't want to do this either, but he has no choice. Now that his strength has not recovered, he can only temporarily admit his counsel.

“Stop talking!” The leader of the assassin frowned and scolded coldly: “We have two tasks, one is to assassinate the princess, and the other is to catch you.” Having said that, the leader of the assassin walked to Cao Qiang, who was beside him, and groped. down, then pull up a chain.

Kazaza... The

next second, accompanied by a vibration, I saw a hidden passage slowly emerging from the grass surface, and there was a faint flash of light inside.

Holy crap...

Seeing this scene, Yue Feng was stunned. The stronghold of these assassins was really hidden. Who would have thought that there was a secret passage hidden on this remote hillside...

At this time, the leader The assassin gave Yue Feng a cold look: “What do you have to say, please wait until you meet our leader.” When the voice fell, he should enter the secret passage first.

“Let's go, don't play tricks for us.” The other assassins pushed Yue Feng to enter. After entering the secret passage, the last assassin closed the mechanism and the entrance was closed again.

call!

The moment he entered the secret passage, when Yue Feng saw the scene in front of him, he couldn't help but take a deep breath and was shocked.

You can see that there is a cave inside. At the end of the secret road is a hall, which is as big as two basketball courts. There are several pillars in the middle, which are painted with red paint, and the ground is also covered with woolen blankets.

There are all kinds of furniture around the hall with exquisite workmanship.

And in the innermost position, there is a chair with exquisite carvings. There is a person sitting on the chair, wearing a black robe and wearing a bronze mask on his face. Although he is sitting still, it gives people an oppressive feeling. aura.

On the two sides below, stood more than a dozen masters, all dressed in black.

The person on the chair is the leader Yan Chengying.

Swish!

The moment Yue Feng was brought in, the eyes of the entire hall converged at once.

Faced with this situation, Yue Feng did not panic. He silently observed the people sitting in the chairs, and whispered in his heart, could this be the leader of the Assassin organization?

It turned out to be a woman disguised as a man...

For so many years, Yue Feng has traveled the world, and he has a lot of knowledge. At this moment, he can see at a glance that the person sitting on the chair, who looks like a man on the surface, is actually a woman.

The leader of the Assassin Organization turned out to be a woman, which was interesting.

“Leader!”

Just as Yue Feng was muttering secretly, the assassin in the lead took a step forward and saluted Yan Chengying: “My subordinates come back and return to my life.” When he spoke, his voice trembled, unable to hide his nervousness.

Um!

Yan Chengying responded lightly and asked, “How is the assassination? Is the princess dead?”

Hearing the question, the assassin in the lead became even more nervous, and hurriedly knelt on the ground: “Go back to the boss, this assassination failed...” The last word fell, already sweating profusely.

Pfft!

At the same time, the other assassins hurriedly knelt down, bowing their heads and daring not to come out.

You must know that the rules of the organization are strict. Once the mission fails, you will be severely punished. What's more, the assassination of the princess has failed once before, and it will fail again tonight. With the leader's temperament, he will never be lenient.

What?

Hearing this, Yan Chengying's eyes suddenly became sharp, she stood up suddenly, and looked at him coldly: "What did you say? Did you fail again?"

In the past few years since the establishment of the organization, no matter how big or small the task is, it has never missed a mission. This time, the assassination of the princess failed one after another. How could Yan Chengying not be angry?

Under the anger, Yan Chengying's tone was cold: "Why did you lose?"

"Go back to the leader!"

Feeling Yan Chengying's anger, the assassin headed was dripping with cold sweat, and he carefully explained the situation again. At the end, he tilted his head and looked at Yue Fengdao. : "It was him who used a maid to pretend to be a princess and diverted our attention, but..."

The ultimate husband in Chinese chapter 6529

said, the assassin continued: "But we didn't succeed in assassinating the princess, but unexpectedly discovered that this person is the Yue Feng the leader is looking for."

Yue Feng?

Because the hall was underground, although the candle was lit, the light was still dim, so Yan Chengying didn't recognize it at first, but when he heard this, he immediately walked over.

When they got to the front, Yan Chengying looked at Yue Feng carefully, and nodded silently: "It's really him."

When Nuliha entrusted him, he specially asked the painter from the general's residence to draw Yue Feng's image according to Nuliha's description. Appearance. After that, Yan Chengying rubbed dozens of copies of the portrait and sent it to the following subordinates.

Therefore, seeing Yue Feng himself at this time, Yan Chengying knew that he had not arrested the wrong person.

At this moment, Yue Feng faced Yan Chengying's scrutiny eyes, and his heart was very calm, and he couldn't help but say, "What are you arresting me for?"

However, Yan Chengying didn't pay attention at all, but turned and sat back on the chair.

I'm going, it's pretty cold.

Hit a nail, Yue Feng was speechless.

"How many of you!"

At this time, Yan Chengying looked at a few assassins with a cold tone: "The assassination mission failed, I should have died, but you have captured Yue Feng, which is considered a credit, so I will leave you alive for the time being. "

But the successive failures in assassinating the princess have a great impact on the reputation of the organization. As punishment, I will cut off a finger from each of you." The voice was not loud, but it was unquestionable.

Gudong!

Hearing these words, several assassins couldn't help swallowing their saliva, and then they agreed.

"Thank you leader Kuanren..."

Kacha... Kacha... The

next second, several assassins pulled out their daggers one after another and cut off one of their fingers. one sound.

Afterwards, several assassins picked up the severed fingers, bowed to Yan Chengying, and then withdrew.

shit.

Seeing this scene, Yue Feng couldn't help but secretly sighed that this killer's organization was so strict, if he broke his finger, he would break his finger without even blinking...

"Yue Feng?"

At this moment, Yan Chengying looked up and down. Yue Feng said slowly, "Are you the expert who helped King Shaoyang guard Qizhou City half a month ago?"

Yue Feng was stunned, it seemed that this leader had investigated me.

Thinking to himself, Yue Feng made a very humble look and smiled: "I was helping King Shaoyang at that time except for some attention, not a master."

At the same time as he spoke, Yue Feng thought to himself.

I don't seem to provoke this killer organization, why does the other party try to catch me?

"Really?"

At this time, after listening to Yue Feng's answer, Yan Chengying said lightly: "If that's the case, why did Nuliha go to great lengths to arrest you to the Hu people? Besides, he repeatedly told us to arrest you. Live?"

"You always tell me, do you have any secrets in your hands, so Nuliha will stare at you."

Nuliha?

At this moment, Yue Feng's expression froze, and he suddenly understood something.

Mad, it turns out that it was Nuriha who was secretly doing it again...

Cursing secretly, Yue Feng looked helpless, and responded to Yan Chengying: "The leader thinks too much, I'm just an ordinary person, what secrets do I hold in my hands?"

Seeing that Yue Feng was not cooperating at all, Yan Chengying frowned secretly, and suddenly didn't care. Patiently: "Okay, since you don't say it, then I have to give you to Nuliha." After speaking

, Yan Chengying raised her hand: "Take it down, and send it to the general's mansion before dawn."

"Yes!"

Hearing Instructed, the two subordinates responded and prepared to drag Yue Feng down.

What the hell!

This time, Yue Feng suddenly became anxious. This leader is too straightforward. He sent me to Nuliha so hastily....

I can still have a chance to survive here, but if it falls into Nuliha's hands, it will be a big trouble.

In anxiety, Yue Feng was about to speak, but at this moment, a subordinate next to him came out and respectfully said to Yan Chengying: "Boss, I don't think this person should be handed over to Nuliha so quickly."

"Why?" Yan Chengying said lightly.

The subordinate responded: "This person can be taken all the way to the Hu people by Nuliha, and Nuliha has always told him to be captured alive, indicating that this person must have important secrets, so let me take him down and torture him."

The ultimate husband in Chinese chapter 6530

Well!

Hearing this, Yan Chengying thought for a while, then nodded and said, "Okay, I'll leave it to you, as long as you don't kill anyone." The words were full of indifference and ruthlessness.

After saying this, Yan Chengying slowly stood up and prepared to leave.

Holy crap...

In the face of this situation, Yue Feng was taken aback.

It's okay if you can't die... This leader is too ruthless... No, you can't sit still like this!

Thinking to himself, Yue Feng is about to break the rope. Although his strength has not recovered, he is very weak, but it should be no problem to break the rope!

Pfft...

But at this moment, Yan Chengying suddenly trembled, her steps staggered, and finally fell down on the chair again. Because she was wearing a mask, she couldn't see her expression, but her eyes were flickering. , with pain.

Seeing this, everyone around was shocked.

"Leader..."

"What's the matter?"

“Boss, how are you?” In the exclamations, everyone stepped forward to check.

Yan Chengying breathed a sigh of relief, endured the pain, and waved her hand: “I’m fine, don’t make a fuss.” This old problem occurs once a year, and she is used to it. call!

Seeing her say that, the surrounding subordinates were secretly relieved.

But Yue Feng frowned secretly.

The meridian of this leader is a bit strange, it turned out to be walking backwards...

Just when Yue Feng was muttering in secret, Yan Chengying glanced at him and said to his subordinates, “Take him down and torture him. It’s best to ask some secrets.”

“Yes, chief!”

Hearing the order, Several subordinates came over and they were about to take Yue Feng down.

“Wait!” In the face of this situation, Yue Feng hurriedly called out, and then looked closely at Yan Chengying: “I can cure your situation, but let’s talk about conditions first!”

When he said this, Yue Feng A serious look.

Um?

Hearing this, Yan Chengying frowned and was stunned.

At the same time, the surrounding subordinates also focused their attention on Yue Feng, each with a puzzled look in their eyes.

What did this kid just say? To heal the leader?

Soon, Yan Chengying was the first to react. He laughed lightly at that time, too lazy to talk nonsense with Yue Feng, but signaled his subordinates to take him down quickly.

He knows his own old problems best. Even the legendary doctors in the rivers and lakes are probably helpless, but this person in front of him even brazenly said that he can cure them.

“Shut up!”

At this time, a subordinate walked over quickly, kicked Yue Feng and scolded: "What kind of person is our leader? Also need you to heal? I warn you, don't play tricks with me. "

As he said that, he grabbed Yue Feng's collar and prepared to take him down.

Nima!

After being kicked, Yue Feng was very suffocated.

He was a dignified teacher of the Heavenly Emperor and a direct disciple of Guiguzi and Shennong, but at this time, in front of these assassins, he turned out to be a liar.

Seeing that he was about to be pulled down, Yue Feng couldn't help shouting at Yan Chengying: "The meridian of the leader is different. If it drags on for a long time, it will be more dangerous."

What?

Hearing this, Yan Chengying's body trembled, and his eyes were fixed on Yue Feng, full of incredible writing.

How could he see that his meridians were different?

"Ma De, are you still calling?"

At this moment, the subordinate scolded and wanted to teach Yue Feng a lesson, but Yan Chengying stopped him in time.

"Stop!" Yan Chengying waved his hand: "You all step back first."

"Yes, chief!"

Upon hearing the order, the subordinates present did not dare to disobey, and they all responded, and then exited the hall.

For a time, in the hall, only Yan Chengying, Yue Feng, and two cronies were left.

call!

At this moment, Yan Chengying sat slowly on the chair and looked at Yue Feng complicatedly: "How do you know my situation?" The tone was indifferent and doubtful.

Yue Feng showed a smile and said slowly: "I have studied medicine, and naturally I can see it. The reversal of the leader's meridians is rare in the world. It's just that there are some problems with your cultivation technique, so you will be hot and cold all over your body just now, and your breath will be disordered. ..”

For a while, Yue Feng talked eloquently and pointed out the key.

Hearing this, Yan Chengying’s eyes became solemn.
