

The ultimate husband in Chinese chapter 6561

Saying that, Yue Feng crowded Princess Yiyi out of the Golden Palace.

When I got outside, I saw that the guard of honor was already waiting, and the momentum was huge, and many people on both sides of the street also came out to watch.

Wow...

Seeing Princess Yiyi coming out, many people suddenly cheered.

"The princess is out."

"The princess is so beautiful."

"So beautiful."

Princess Yiyi smiled and waved hello to the people around before getting on the carriage.

Seeing this situation, Yue Feng nodded secretly, the princess was so loved by the people, it seemed that she had her own providence, and she wanted to take over the throne and become the queen.

Um?

With emotion, Yue Feng frowned when he saw the entourage behind him.

I saw that Nuliha was riding a war horse, with five thousand elite soldiers behind him, closely following the guard of honor. The five thousand elite soldiers were fully armed, wearing armor, and holding long swords.

In this situation, is it like escorting the princess to worship? It's like going to war.

"Nuriha!"

Just as Yue Feng frowned, Nie Hongxue was the first to hold back, frowning tightly, and asked Nuliha coldly, "What do you mean by bringing so many soldiers?"

"It is a rule that a large number of troops cannot be used for sacrifices on the day of the Moon Festival, which means peace, and Nuliha is really bold to bring so many elite soldiers."

"Ha ha!"

Faced with the inquiry, Nuliha smiled indifferently, and said, "I am in charge of the princess' safety. Recently, the princess has been assassinated continuously. Since I temporarily assume the position of Wang Khan, I must make sure that the princess is safe, otherwise, How can you be worthy of the dead Wang Khan?"

There was no doubt about what he said, and Nuliha also had a sincere look on his face, but there was a slyness in his eyes.

Yes, Nuliha's real purpose is to use today's Moon Festival to completely control the kingship and officially become king.

Langzi's ambition...

Seeing his hypocritical appearance, Nie Hongxue felt disgusted in his heart, and was about to refute two sentences, but was stopped by Yue Feng.

"Don't argue with him." Yue Feng lowered his voice and said meaningfully: "Look at the state of his soldiers. Even if something happens later, I'm afraid they won't have much combat power."

When he said this , Yue Feng teased.

call!

Hearing this, Nie Hongxue looked around and found that the thousands of elite soldiers Nuliha had brought, although they were well-dressed, looked carefully, and they were all listless, like eggplants beaten by frost.

The whole day yesterday, the camp was raided by the fire wolves, which made these soldiers physically and mentally tired, and they didn't rest well last night.

Seeing this, Nie Hongxue couldn't help but chuckle, and stopped arguing with Nuliha.

Soon, Princess Yiyi and Yue Feng arrived at the Moon Worship Altar.

Under the command of Nuliha, thousands of elite soldiers were scattered around the altar of worship. On the bright side, it was to protect the princess and to ensure that the worship went smoothly. In fact, it was preparing to control the princess and the leaders.

Immediately afterwards, the people below began to prepare the table for the sacrifice, as well as the tribute.

After everything was ready, Princess Yiyi looked solemn, walked to the altar, bowed down and began to worship, and the leaders behind also knelt down.

"The vast sky, protect my clan..."

At this moment, the priest next to him began to recite the sacrificial text aloud. Everything progressed in an orderly manner. Except for the sound of reciting the sacrificial text, the entire moon worship altar was silent and the atmosphere was incomparable. solemn.

At the same time, many people also came to the altar of worshipping the moon and watched from a distance.

You must know that the Moon Worship Festival is an annual big day for the Hu people. The royal family worships at the Moon Worship Altar and prays to the sky to bless the whole family, which is related to every Hu people.

call!

Finally, when the sacrifice was over, Princess Yiyi slowly stood up, turned to face the clansmen below the Moon Worship Altar, and said slowly: "The sky has heard our sincere prayers. May this year, our Hu people become more prosperous."

The voice fell, and the people present cheered.

"Prosperity!"

"The princess is right, our Hu people will definitely become stronger and stronger."

While cheering, many people looked at Princess Yiyi's eyes with admiration and admiration. The princess was generous and decent, and acted calmly. It is the blessing of the entire Hu people.

The ultimate husband in Chinese chapter 6562

Mad!

Seeing that the people present loved Princess Yiyi so much, Nuliha on the side was a little anxious.

This princess is still young, but she is quite able to win people's hearts.

No, I am the protagonist today, and she must not be allowed to dominate the audience.

Thinking to himself, Nuliha squeezed out a smile, walked out and said to Princess Yiyi: "Princess is right, the sky will definitely bless us Hu people, it's just..."

After speaking, Nuliha turned around. : "It's just that there are some things, not just talking about it. Today's Dayan Dynasty has declined. Ji Beiye's army is sweeping the Quartet, wiping out the remnants of the royal family. I believe it won't be long before he will completely control the situation.

” At that time, Ji Beiye will definitely turn his head to deal with us Hu people, so we must take precautions in advance.”

Hehe...

Hearing these words, Yue Feng smiled secretly.

This Nuliha, seeing that the people love the princess so much, she is anxious...

hoo!

At the same time, Princess Yiyi breathed a sigh of relief and looked at Nuliha indifferently: “I naturally know about these situations, Ji Beiye rebelled and rebelled, and he was a big traitor. He launched a war, causing countless people in Dayan to be displaced, and sooner or later they will be punished. .”

Saying that, Princess Yiyi’s eyes flickered, and she added a sentence: “Any time, as long as it is a messenger and a thief, it will not end well.”

Obviously, the last sentence is about Ji Beiye on the surface, but also implicitly warning slaves. Riha.

Seeing this scene, Yue Feng nodded in approval.

What the princess said was beautiful.

Swish!

Nuliha is not stupid either. Hearing what the princess said, his face suddenly sank, but it was inconvenient to attack on such occasions, so he had to force a smile and said: “The princess is right

. With that, Nuliha turned his head: “Dayan is in a mess, we can’t keep doing nothing, but the most important thing now is to elect a new Wang Khan, so that we can unite as one to deal with foreign enemies.”

Saying these When the time came, Nuriha had a serious look on his face, no doubt about it.

Is it finally time to show the fox’s tail?

At this moment, Yue Feng smiled inwardly, looked at Xing Tiance next to him, and continued to watch the changes.

“General Nuliha is right.”

At this time, Princess Yiyi nodded approvingly, her delicate face did not fluctuate at all, she looked at Nuliha and said, "From the general's point of view, who should inherit the throne?"

"At that time, Princess Yiyi was very calm.

Speaking of which, Princess Yiyi is still young, because of her kind-heartedness, she has never been interested in doing her best since she was a child, and she has always been held in the hands of Wang Khan and loves her. She has never encountered the situation in front of her.

But with Yue Feng's secret help in the past few days, Princess Yiyi's mind has matured. At this time, facing Nuliha, her heart is still like water.

Uh...

Nuriha didn't expect Princess Yiyi to be so calm, she was stunned when she asked her back, but she quickly reacted and said with a smile: "Now the whole continent is in turmoil, the new Wang Khan must be a person with both civil and military skills, otherwise, once Ji Beiye's army attacked, everything would be over."

While speaking, Nuliha secretly winked at the lieutenant beside him.

The lieutenant understood what he knew, and came out quickly and said loudly: "Now we Hu people, who have the ability to be Wang Khan, only General Nuliha. When Wang Khan was assassinated, it was the general who stabilized the situation and Wang Ting did not break out into chaos." Later, the lieutenant glanced at Princess Yiyi and said meaningfully: "Although the princess is an orthodox royal family, she is a woman after all, and she has no military skills, so it is difficult to convince the public."

, When I said this, I was not nervous at all.

After all, in today's Hu people, as long as anyone with discernment knows that Princess Yiyi has a noble status, she does not have any prestige. The real power is in the hands of Nuliha.

The Hu people advocate force and have always respected the strong. In this case, the new king Khan is naturally Nuliha to take over.

Of course, more importantly, this deputy was picked up by Nuliha, and naturally he wanted to help him speak.

The ultimate husband in Chinese chapter 6563

Wow!

At this moment, the deputy general's voice fell, and the entire Moon Worship Altar was in an uproar.

Whether it was the leader present or the people around the Moon Worship Altar, their expressions changed and there was a lot of discussion.

"This lieutenant is really bold, and even proposed to let Nuliha succeed the throne." "

That is, although Nuliha has great military achievements, but he is not a royal family, how can he be a king? " Come on, Nuriha's face was calm and not panicked at all. He knew that many people would be dissatisfied, but he didn't panic at all, because he had already made a plan, and he would convince these people in a while. interesting! Seeing the situation in front of him, Yue Feng couldn't help but chuckle. In order to compete for the throne, this Nuliha is already in a hurry. He even secretly instructed his subordinates to say it in public. He is so thick-skinned that no one can match it. At the same time, Nie Hongxue's delicate face was instantly covered with frost. This traitor is really ambitious, and just after the sacrifice, he can't wait to snatch the throne. "Bold!" At this moment, Nuliha shouted angrily, pretending to be very angry, and said to the lieutenant: "How can I say such a rebellious remark? I, Nuliha, have been loyal to the royal family all my life, and I assassinated him. Wang Khan's murderer has not been caught yet, how can I succeed to the throne?" When he said this, Nuliha looked angry, but his heart was not at ease. Ha ha...

It is inevitable to win the throne today, but it is still necessary to pretend.

"General!" In the face of the anger, the lieutenant looked terrified, but still said seriously: "The last general said this for the sake of our Hu people. Now our Hu people have no leader, only you can stabilize the situation.

" Shi's lieutenant did not panic at all, because this was all negotiated with Nuriha in advance.

Seeing this, Princess Yiyi did not speak, but quietly watched them act.

"This..."

At this time, Nuliha still looked embarrassed: "This matter, let me think about it..."

Saying this, Nuliha looked at the lieutenant's eyes, but there was a trace of it. Silk's thumbs up. This deputy general played well, and when he sits on the throne, he must be promoted well.

The lieutenant said with a straight face: "General, don't delay, I believe the princess will support it for the sake of the overall situation."

After speaking, the lieutenant pretended to think of something, and suddenly stood up and said loudly: "General, it's not the end. Will be stubborn, but the general succeeds the throne, it is the arrangement of heaven."

"Really?" Nuliha said excitedly.

"Yes." The

lieutenant nodded vigorously, then looked around, and shouted at everyone present: "Two days ago, a fiery wolf came to the camp, and when he got to the general's tent, he didn't leave, and has been with the general since then. Left and right."

"Everyone, the Fire Temple Wolf is the totem divine beast of our Hu people. Now the divine beast has taken the initiative to come to the general's side. What does this mean? It proves that the general is the chosen one."

What?

Hearing these words, the people and leaders present were in an uproar again.

"Is there such a thing?"

"If it's true, then it's really God's will."

"But, last night, I heard that Nuliha's camp was attacked by the fire wolves... The death is heavy..." The surrounding discussion, You sent me a sentence, Nuliha's face was calm, and a smile appeared on the corner of his mouth. The real good show should be played.

Thinking of this, Nuliha cleared his throat, made a humble look, and said slowly: "Yes, two days ago, a fire wolf did come to my tent, and has been with me since then."

Said With that, Nuliha said with emotion: "When I think about it now, I'm still flattered. Maybe the heaven sees my military achievements, so I sent a beast to protect me. Seriously, how can I Nuliha, and from now on, I will definitely Do your best to protect the Hu people and never give up." The last word fell, and Nuliha knelt on the ground and bowed to the sky.

Hehe...

Seeing this, Yue Feng laughed secretly, this Nuliha can really act, I don't know, I really thought he was a hero with loyalty and courage.

Hypocrisy!

At this moment, Nie Hongxue finally couldn't stand it anymore, and immediately took a step forward, looked directly at Nuliha and scolded: "Nuriha, don't be hypocritical here. You and your subordinates sing together, trying to snatch the throne, I tell you. , you will not succeed."

At this time, Nie Hongxue was very angry.

This Nuliha is really hateful. He is obviously a traitor, but at this time, he pretends to be a loyal minister in front of everyone. It is really disgusting.

Swish!

Hearing this, Nuliha's face instantly turned cold, but because everyone was there, he suppressed his anger and smiled at Nie Hongxue: "Guardian Nie, where did you say this? I know you have always had opinions on me. , but it can't be slandered out of thin air, I, Nuliha, are loyal and never delusional to fight for the throne."

Speaking of which, Nuliha looked at Princess Yiyi, who had been silent, and changed her words: "But if the sky intends to This great responsibility is entrusted to me, and I can only be respectful rather than obedient."

Shameless...

Seeing his face, Nie Hongxue was so angry that he even scolded him, but at this moment, the surrounding crowd erupted in exclamations. , everyone's eyes turned to look behind Nuliha.

Nie Hongxue frowned, subconsciously following everyone's gaze, she was stunned for a moment.

I saw that the lieutenant did not know when to leave the Moon Worship Altar. At this time, he was holding a fiery temple wolf in his hand and slowly walked towards Nuliha. The sense of oppression from it.

As a totem beast of the Hu people, the Fire Temple Wolf has a hot personality. For thousands of years, no one has ever tamed it, and no one dared to tame it. However, this Fire Temple Wolf is not at all violent, with a rope tied around his neck. Appears very gentle.

wow....

In an instant, when everyone saw the fire temple wolf, they all boiled.

"The fire wolf, the totem beast, it's really the totem beast!"

“So what they said just now is true, there really is a fire wolf beside General Nuliha, is it really God’s will?”

In amazement, the people around the Temple of Worshipping Moon knelt down and worshipped the fiery temple wolf, and many leaders also bowed and saluted. After all, the fiery temple wolf is a totem beast and has a lofty reputation among the Hu people. status.

Haha...

Seeing this scene, Nuliha showed a smile, indescribably excited.

With the fire temple wolf, who dares to question my status?

“General!”

At this moment, the lieutenant took the opportunity to kneel at Nuliha and said loudly: “The totem beast came uninvited. It seems that this is the will of heaven. If you want the general to succeed the throne, the general should not refuse.”

With that said, the lieutenant bowed: “Last General, see Wang Khan.”

Crash....

The last word fell, and the elite soldiers around the altar of worship also knelt down one after another, shouting in unison, and the momentum was overwhelming.

“See Wang Khan!”

Seeing this scene, Nuliha couldn’t be more excited, and immediately laughed: “Okay, let’s all get up.”

Shua!

At this moment, Princess Yiyi finally couldn’t bear it anymore, and said coldly to Nuliha: “Nuriha, you brought so many soldiers to worship the Moon Altar, the main purpose is this.”

After the words fell, Nie Hongxue also looked around, and scolded the lieutenant and the soldiers, “You bastards, how dare you openly rebel, and have you put the princess in your eyes?” Trembling, if Yue Feng had not already deployed a plan, he would have been unable to help himself.

“Bold!”

Hearing Nie Hongxue's scolding, the lieutenant stood up abruptly and shouted angrily, "In front of Wang Khan, you dare to let him die like this, do you want to die?"

In the lieutenant's mind, Nuliha was already a Wang Khan was gone, and Nie Hongxue was just a bodyguard. Even if there was a princess to bless her, it would only be a matter of Wang Khan's words.

"A bunch of scoundrels and thieves, I'm afraid you won't succeed?" Nie Hongxue drew out her long sword, and her delicate face couldn't hide the killing intent: "I didn't recognize him as Wang Khan!"

Hearing this, the lieutenant was furious and immediately waved his hand. The surrounding soldiers drew out their long knives and surrounded Nie Hongxue.

The ultimate husband in Chinese chapter 6565

"Dare to be presumptuous in front of Wang Khan, I think you are really tired of living." The lieutenant said coldly.

Nie Hongxue snorted coldly, not panicking at all.

Hiss...

Seeing this scene, the surrounding leaders all looked complicated, and then many people gasped and retreated quickly, for fear of being affected by the fish pond.

For a time, the people below the Moon Worship Altar also sweated for Nie Hongxue.

"Nuriha!"

At this moment, Princess Yiyi's face was full of frost, and she shouted at Nuliha: "What's wrong with Sister Hongxue today, I will make you doomed."

Hehe...

Nuliha He smiled slightly: "Princess, you also saw that it was Nie Hongxue who slandered me for no reason. If I allowed her to slander, how could I be Wang Khan and command the Hu people?"

"You..."

Princess Yiyi was so angry that she wanted to scold a few words, but she was kind-hearted, and some words could not be scolded.

For a time, the atmosphere was tense and the situation was dignified.

“Oops!”

At this moment, Yue Feng walked out slowly and smiled at Nuli: “The general became Wang Khan, and he really became big, and he was courteous to the princess before, this blink of an eye, I just want to stand up.”

Shah!

In an instant, both Nuliha and the eyes around him all focused on Yue Feng.

Especially Nuliha, at this moment, his anger was rushing up, and he glared at Yue Feng: “Do you want to die?” Even a small guard dares to mock me? It’s really boring to live.

At this time, Yue Feng, dressed as a guard, also changed his appearance deliberately, so Nuliha didn’t recognize it at all, thinking it was just a guard beside the princess.

“I don’t want to die.” Yue Feng said with a smile: “I’m just curious.” With that, Yue Feng pointed to the fiery sideburn beside Nuliha.

“What are you curious about?” Nuliha held back his anger and said coldly.

call!

Yue Feng breathed a sigh of relief, walked over slowly, and commented on the Fire Temple Wolf: “What I am curious about is that the Fire Temple Wolf, as the totem beast of our Hu people, has a solitary and violent personality, why is it so docile?”

When the words fell, the lieutenant scolded loudly: “Bullshit, this fiery temple wolf is heaven, and it was arranged by Wang Khan’s side, of course it is docile.”

Haha...

Yue Feng smiled: “Really? , I don’t have the slightest bit of energy, it’s like someone took medicine.”

Wow!

The voice fell, and there was an uproar around the Moon Worship Altar.

“It seems like it’s true..”

“Is it really what the guard said, that this fiery temple wolf was forcibly taken medicine?”

When the surrounding discussions came, Nuliha couldn’t calm down any longer, and glared at Yue Feng: “You are so bold, dare to speak nonsense to slander this king..”

Before he could finish, Yue Feng shook his head: “It seems that the princess said it right before, you are too hypocritical, He clearly wants to snatch the throne, but he still doesn’t admit it..”

“I used to pretend to refuse, but now I open my mouth to this king, and close my mouth to this king, hehe, it’s really hypocritical.”

Hearing this, Nuliha was unforgivably angry and shouted: “You are talking nonsense..”

However, Yue Feng was completely Without giving him a chance to speak, he chuckled lightly and continued: “Also, I also heard that this fiery sideburn wolf was caught in the valley of the grassland with your troops, and because of this, yesterday your The big camp was raided by the wolves.”

“And you, in order to cover up the facts, you even ordered people to post a notice at the Wangting intersection to prohibit people from spreading it.”

As soon as these words came out, the audience was restless again.

“I also heard about the raid on the main camp!”

“I also heard about it, is it true?”

Hearing the surrounding discussions, Nuliha couldn’t calm down any longer, and his eyes locked on Yue Feng. I was astonished.

How did this guard know so clearly about my affairs?

A few seconds later, Nuliha reacted and roared: “It’s complete nonsense, you slandered this king so much, and if you don’t kill you, it’s hard to vent the anger of this king.”

With that, Nuliha was about to give the order.

“Ow, ooh..”

However, at this moment, on the hillside north of the Moon Baiting Altar, there was a burst of wolf howling, and the wolf howling was getting closer and closer.
