Chapter 6871

This....

Hearing Yue Feng's words, Ling Luo and Rose Wei were both desperate.

If even he can't help, then Master is really helpless...

"Ah..." At

this moment, Mother-in-law Honghua was completely enveloped in flames, and after a miserable howl, her body stopped rolling, fell motionless on the ground, and was burned into a scorched corpse....

A generation of quacks and heroes was ended like this...

"Master..."

"No..."

Seeing

this scene, Ling Luo and Rose Wei couldn't bear it anymore, kneeling on the ground and crying, tears falling down their eyes, and they were sad.

At this time, in the hearts of the two sisters, the master died, as if the sky had fallen. However, they didn't remember that Yue Feng couldn't save him when he saw death, after all, Master was bent on killing him just now...

Alas!

Seeing this scene, Yue Feng couldn't help but sigh.

Mother-in-law Honghua died tragically, Yue Feng did not have the slightest wave in his heart, but seeing the sisters so sad, Yue Feng also had some bad taste in his heart.

"Your Excellency Yue Feng!

At this moment, the dragon suspended in the sky coldly glanced at Ling Luo and Rose: "These two women, together with the old woman, do you want to kill them together?"

As

he said this, the dragon adjusted his posture and prepared to breathe fire again.

Call....

Faced with this situation, Ling Luo and Rose Wei were both delicate, and they were indescribably nervous and panicked.

The strength of this dragon is terrifying, even the master can't stop its dragon breath flame, and his sisters are not opponents.

In panic, Rose looked at Yue Feng for help.

"Forget it!

Yue Feng shook his head and said lightly: "Spare people and spare people, although they are the disciples of Mother-in-law Honghua, they are kind-hearted, and there are still some differences from their master, so spare them."

Yue Feng believed that after the events of the past two days, Ling Luo would definitely put away his previous arrogance and be humble.

As for Rose, she is already kind-hearted, and without the influence of Mother-in-law Honghua, the future will be better.

"Yes, Your Excellency! Hearing

Yue Feng's words, Jiaolong answered, and then retreated to the side.

For a while, Ling Luo and Rose Wei also breathed a sigh of relief, looking at Yue Feng's gaze, they were also grateful.

"Master!

"Whew... Master..." In the next second, the sisters walked to the corpse of Mother-in-law Honghua and cried bitterly.

Yue Feng did not stop it, but waited for them to cry for a while, and then slowly said: "Wait for you, take your master's corpse and leave first, this place is dangerous everywhere, and it is not for you to stay at all." Ling Luo and Rose nodded.

The master is dead, and they are not in the mood to explore this place, moreover, Yue Feng is right, this place is full of danger.

Well!

Seeing that they agreed, Yue Feng nodded, and then said to Jiaolong: "Trouble, send them out." "This dragon has guarded this place for nearly a thousand years, and naturally knows how to get out.

"Good!

Jiaolong answered, and then turned his head to look at the sisters in a complicated manner: "Anyone who breaks into here will not get out alive, but for the sake of His Excellency Yue Feng's face, spare your lives today, come with me." The last word fell, and the huge body of the dragon flew into the distance by leaping over the formation.

Call!

At this moment, Ling Luo and Rose Wei both took a deep breath, stood up to say goodbye to Yue Feng, and then took the corpse of Mother-in-law Honghua to catch up with the dragon in front...

After a while, the figures of Jiaolong and the two sisters walked out of Yue Feng's sight.

For a while, around the huge teleportation array, Yue Feng was left alone.

Call!

At this moment, Yue Feng took a deep breath, then sat cross-kneeled, closed his eyes and recuperated. Just now, Mother-in-law Honghua struck with all her strength, causing Yue Feng's Yuanshen power to be disordered, and he needed to recover quickly.

Time passes by minute by minute.

Ten minutes later, Yue Feng finally stabilized the chaotic Yuanshen power, slowly opened his eyes, and let out a long sigh of relief.

Airplanes!

At this moment, Jiaolong returned and respectfully said to Yue Feng: "Your Excellency Yue Feng, those two women have been successfully sent ashore by me.

"Trouble! Yue Feng smiled and spoke.

Jiaolong was flattered and hurriedly said, "Your Excellency does not need to be polite, it is my honor to be able to do things for Your Excellency." If you need my service next, please speak. "

The ultimate husband in Chinese chapter 6872

Chapter

6872 Alas!

Yue Feng breathed a sigh, and at this time, he no longer hid it, and spoke: "I came this time to find the heavenly material and earth treasure." Saying that, Yue Feng said Gu Qianqiu's affairs in detail.

At the end, Yue Feng looked at Jiaolong with burning eyes: "It is rumored in the rivers and lakes that the crystal palace at the bottom of this lake has countless rare treasures, but I only saw some gold and silver treasures, and I didn't see any heavenly treasures, please give me guidance." "

This....

At this moment, Jiaolong groaned and responded, "Your Excellency, this crystal palace only has treasures, not heavenly materials and earth treasures. Those rumors are somewhat exaggerated. "

Nothing?

Hearing this, Yue Feng's expression darkened and he was a little disappointed.

Could it be that this time Bai came?

At this moment, Jiaolong thought of something, and stopped talking: "However, under the deep water north of the Crystal Palace, there is a spiritual halo, and there should be heavenly materials and earth treasures there... It's just that the place is too dangerous for me to dare to approach. "

Dizziness....

Yue Feng's eyes flashed, and he suddenly became interested: "What is Earth Dizziness?" "Since his cultivation, Yue Feng can also be regarded as well-informed, but this is the first time he has heard of it.

Jiaolong did not dare to snub, and quickly explained.

Call..

After listening to the explanation, Yue Feng suddenly became stunned, it turned out that this place of spiritual dizziness was a very mysterious place under the earth, just like the chaotic vortex, a place formed by special circumstances, and this kind of place was often the place where the spiritual energy of heaven and earth gathered.

“Your Excellency Yue Feng!

At this time, Jiaolong saw Yue Feng’s face change, and quickly persuaded: “I advise you not to investigate, the water is as cold as a knife, it is very dangerous...”

Without waiting for it to finish, Yue Feng interrupted with a smile: “As long as I can save my sworn big brother, Dao Mountain and Sea of Fire, I will also break in, but I need to cultivate and recover now, so I will trouble you to protect me.” “

This crystal palace at the bottom of the lake, the heaven and earth are rich in spiritual energy, and it is very suitable for cultivation.

Yue Feng thought about it, and after his cultivation here was restored, he would go to explore the dizziness of that place.

Alas!

Seeing that Yue Feng did not listen to the dissuasion, Jiaolong sighed and nodded, “Okay then!” Yue Feng stopped talking nonsense, slowly closed his eyes, and immersed himself in cultivation again, while Jiaolong quietly stood aside.

On the other side, the imperial capital of Dayan.

A few months ago, Ji Beiye led the rebel army to invade the imperial capital, and after some killing and looting, the most prosperous city in the Tianxin Continent was like hell.

Now that several months have passed, the entire imperial capital has gradually regained some vitality.

At this time, in a courtyard in the northwest of the imperial capital, several people stood there respectfully, one by one, with a humble expression, these people were all altar masters of various altars from the Heavenly Dao.

On the chair in front of them, sat an old man, dressed in a black robe, with a powerful aura around him.

It was Xiao Jue.

Half a month ago, after Xiao Jue controlled the Qingyun City altar, he decided to go to the main altar to control the overall situation, but when he was halfway there, he changed his mind and decided to bring the altar masters of each altar over first.

However, Gu Qianqiu has controlled the Heavenly Dao for nearly twenty years, and most of the altar masters are loyal to Gu Qianqiu, so half a month has passed, Xiao Jiao has used all kinds of means, and only then has he attracted these in front of him.

In the entire Heavenly Dao, only one-third of the altar masters supported it... That's not enough.

Thinking of this, Xiao couldn't help but feel a little irritable.

"Master!

At this moment, a crisp shout came from outside the courtyard, and then a slim figure walked in quickly, graceful and beautiful.

It was Xiao Jue's disciple, Yan Bingyu.

"Ice Talk! Seeing

Yan Bingyu, Xiao Jue showed a hint of a smile: "The affairs of Qingyun City have been done?"

Yan Bingyu nodded: "It's done."

Saying that, Yan Bingyu looked at the several altar masters next to him: "Master, how is the situation here?" Are there no other altar masters to turn to?

Xiao Jue shook his head, unable to hide his anger: "Those altar masters, one by one, are more stubborn than the other, if it is not for the urgent need for manpower, the old man really wants to destroy all those disobedient altars."

As

he spoke, Xiao Jue's eyes almost spewed fire.

The ultimate husband in Chinese chapter 6873

When Chapter

6873 said this, the smile on Xiao Jue's face revealed a bit of deep meaning.

Call!

Looking at Xiao Jue's smile, Feixue had a bad premonition, and immediately said: "You don't need to praise me, I won't support you as the sect master, you kill me." At this time, the flying snow, the delicate face is full of determination.

Hehe!

At this moment, Xiao Zhi smiled angrily and said slowly: "It's easy for the old man to kill you, but I won't kill you, it's still useful for you to keep this girl."

Saying that, Xiao Jue waved his hand at the several altar masters next to him: "You guys retreat first."

"Yes, Sect Master! Several

altar masters did not dare to slacken, answered in unison, and retreated.

Seeing this, Feixue was even more inexplicably panicked in her heart: "You... What are you doing?"

At this time, Yan Bingyu also guessed something, and stopped talking: "Master, are you going to give her the Heart Devouring Pill?" As he spoke, Yan Bingyu subconsciously glanced at Feixue, and his eyes showed a trace of unbearability.

Heart Devouring Pill is a kind of pill developed by Xiao Jue alone in the past twenty years of seclusion, as the name suggests, as long as you take this pill, you will become a puppet and unconditionally obey orders.

Heart Eater?

Hearing the conversation between the two, Feixue's face changed, and her delicate body trembled, subconsciously retreating.

Swish!

At this moment, Xiao never said nonsense, and the figure flashed and quickly rushed to Feixue, raising his hand to point at several acupuncture points on her body.

Snap...

In an instant, Feixuejiao's body shook and could not move.

Immediately afterwards, Xiao Jue took out a pill from her body and quickly stuffed it into her mouth, and Feixue didn't have time to react at all, so she swallowed it.

"You..." Swallowing

the pill, Feixue was shocked and angry, just said a word, his eyes turned black, and he fainted directly.

Xiao Jue looked indifferent, called two disciples, and carried Feixue down.

"Master! As soon as the front foot left, Yan Bingyu bit her lip lightly: "Isn't it a little excessive for us to do this..." In her heart, she hoped that Feixue would willingly surrender, rather than relying on such despicable means.

Xiao Jue shook his head and looked at her with a straight face: "Silly apprentice, Master Wei told you a long time ago that those who become big things are not informal, and in some cases, they have to use some extraordinary means."

"If you are afraid, nothing can be done."

Hearing this, Yan Bingyu nodded: "I know, Master." "

Whew!

Xiao Jue took a deep breath, thought for a while, and said slowly: "When that girl wakes up, let's set off and go to the main altar."

"Yes, Master! "

.....

On the other side, under the emerald green lake, in the Crystal Palace.

Call!

I don't know how long it took, Yue Feng exhaled a deep breath and slowly opened his eyes.

I have to say that this place is really suitable for cultivation.

At this time, Yue Feng clearly felt that the power of the Yuan God had recovered a lot, and at this time, his spirit was full, and the previous fatigue was swept away.

After breathing a sigh of relief, Yue Feng stood up.

At this time, Jiaolong, who had been guarding the side, couldn't help but admire when he saw Yue Feng's state: "The Red Lotus of Law is indeed a treasure of heaven and earth, and it is simply incredible that Your Excellency can recover to such a state in such a short time.

Yue Feng smiled lightly: "Okay, don't slap the horse, take me to the ground dizzy."

"Good!

Jiaolong replied and said seriously: "Since Your Excellency insists on going, I don't want to stop it, I hope Your Excellency will be careful." When the words fell, the huge body of the dragon spiraled up and slowly walked towards the north of the Crystal Palace.

Yue Feng took a deep breath and quickly followed.

Soon, when you reach the boundary of the Crystal Palace, you can see that behind the tall water wall, there is a turquoise lake that cannot be seen at a glance, and there is an enchantment between the lake and the wall.

“Your Excellency!

At this time, Jiaolong’s eyes flickered with complexity: “Through the enchantment, along the bottom of the lake, soon you will be able to reach the Dizzy, you must be careful.”
Yue

Feng nodded, there was no nonsense at that time, and he used the power of the Yuan God to pass through the enchantment and dive into the lake.

At first, it was smooth, but as he kept sneaking, Yue Feng clearly felt that the water temperature around him became colder and colder, and a trace of chill came, as if he wanted to freeze people.

The ultimate husband in Chinese chapter 6874

Chapter

6874 seems to be in the right direction.

Feeling the coldness coming from the surroundings, Yue Feng did not panic at all, but was a little inexplicably excited.

Because that dragon said that near the halo of the earth, the water is as cold as a knife, and the colder it is, it means that the halo is in front of you.

Woohoo... .

After sneaking for another ten minutes, Yue Feng saw the bottom of the water in front of him and became turbid, not only that, but underwater whirlpools also appeared around him.

Not only that, the water also became colder, like an ice pick, constantly invading, and by this time, even Yue Feng was a little unbearable.

However, Yue Feng did not panic in the slightest, and quickly urged the power of the Red Lotus of the Law Industry to form a protective film around his body to isolate the cold invasion around him. Afterwards, Yue Feng continued to move forward.

Airplanes!

A few minutes later, the turbid water in front of me changed again and became a white expanse.

At the same time, Yue Feng clearly felt that there was a strong force in front of him, constantly sucking at him, as if to involve him.

This powerful force seems to be able to crush people.

Feeling this power, Yue Feng couldn't help but muttered secretly, this place is really dangerous, no wonder that dragon has been persuading me not to come, if it were not for the protection of the Red Lotus of Law, I am afraid that I would have died here.

Muttering, Yue Feng gritted his teeth and continued to move forward.

I'll go!

Passing through that white water, seeing the scene in front of him, Yue Feng was immediately stunned.

I saw that in front of me was a huge vacuum space, in this space, there were white flames floating everywhere, these flames were like lotus flowers, seemingly beautiful, but inexplicably palpitating...

However, when Yue Feng saw these white flames, he showed a hint of a smile.

Yes, these are the White Lotus Cold Fire.

Back then, Yue Feng fell into the crater of the Heaven and Earth Continent, and under the witness of Su Qianyan and Xiao Xi, he smelted the white lotus cold fire, and then opened a generation of legends of rivers and lakes.

Later, Yue Feng obtained the Dharma Red Lotus, and the white lotus cold fire in his body was also reborn and turned into a red lotus karma fire.

However, seeing the white lotus cold fire at this time, Yue Feng still felt extremely cordial.

Call!

Soon, Yue Feng slowed down and looked towards the position in the center of the space, and saw that there was a white disc suspended there, which looked like a piece of white jade from a distance, but after careful identification, he found that there was a faint halo like a stream of water on it.

Not only that, the aura of the entire space continued to converge towards the white disk, forming a kind of starry arching moon...

Got it...

Seeing this, Yue Feng was indescribably excited and excited.

It seems that this white disc is the heavenly treasure that was bred in the dizziness of the earth.

Sou!

Excited, Yue Feng did not hesitate in the slightest, and immediately urged the figure to rush towards the white disk, at this moment, the surrounding white lotus cold fire quickly floated in, as if to stop Yue Feng, but as soon as he approached, he was fused by Yue Feng's Law Red Lotus.

In the blink of an eye, Yue Feng arrived in front of the white disc, and he was extremely excited at that time, and he was about to reach for it.

Airplanes....

However, at this moment, Yue Feng clearly felt that there was a powerful power fluctuation behind him, and then a voice came coldly: "Where is the brat, dare to rob my Water Cloud Xuanjing?" "

Water Cloud Xuanjing, it is the white disc in front of Yue Feng's eyes, the heavenly material and earth treasure in this spiritual halo.

Groove, there are people here?

Suddenly hearing the voice, Yue Feng was taken aback, and immediately looked back and saw an old man in a white robe, who didn't know when, suspended behind him.

This old man with silver hair could not see his age, and his immortal wind was extraordinary.

Seeing this old man, Yue Feng was suddenly stunned and frowned secretly.

Who is this old man? When did he come, he didn't even notice it just now....

"The kid is not afraid of the cold fire of the white lotus.

Just when Yue Feng was secretly surprised, the old man also looked him up and down, very surprised: "Huh? He even has a Dharma Red Lotus? Interesting. When the words fell, the old man's gaze locked on the Water Cloud Xuanjing in front of Yue Feng: "Boy, I have been eyeing this Water Cloud Xuanjing for a long time, but I can't let you take it away." "

Whoosh!

When the words fell, the old man's figure flashed, quickly rushed over, and grabbed towards Shui Yun Xuanjing.

The ultimate husband in Chinese chapter 6875

Chapter 6875 Of course, Yue Feng would not let him take it, and without hesitation at that time, he raised his right hand, waved a palm, and hit the old man.

"Oops? Seeing

Yue Feng's palm slap, the old man in white dodged smartly, not very angry, very smiled and said: "The kid wants to do it?" Well, the old man accompanies you to practice. "

Buzz!

The last word fell, and a powerful force burst out from around the old man in white, and his figure was as urgent as lightning, fighting fiercely with Yue Feng.

Seeing this old man in white, his body was flexible and flowing, while fighting with Yue Feng, he could also dodge the cold attacks of the surrounding white lotus, which made Yue Feng very surprised.

In the rivers and lakes of the Tianxin Continent, when did such a number one figure appear?

But no matter what character the other party is, no matter how much he does today, he can't let him snatch this heavenly treasure away.

The other side.

A hundred miles southwest of the imperial capital of Dayan, there is a mountain range, which is surrounded by clouds and mist all year round, like a fairyland, and the highest peak is even more precipitous, called Yunyi Mountain.

At the top of Yunyi Mountain, a magnificent building is faintly visible, staggered and quaint.

This is where the main altar of the Heavenly Dao is.

At this time, on the mountain road below the mountain, a group of people were slowly coming, one by one, their auras were powerful, and it was Xiao Jue who was the leader. In the middle of the team, there were two slim figures.

It is Yan Bingyu and Flying Snow.

I saw that Feixue at this time looked indifferent, could not see the slightest mood fluctuation, his eyes were slightly empty, and he lacked a little radiance.

Yes, the flying snow has been completely controlled.

Call!

On the stone staircase leading to the main altar, Xiao Jue looked up at the looming building complex among the clouds on the top of the mountain, and his heart was full of emotion.

“Twenty years... Twenty years later, I finally came back.

When

he said this, Xiao Jue’s eyes were calm, but he couldn’t hide the excitement and excitement in his heart.

At the same time, Yan Bingyu looked at the building complex on the top of the mountain, and was shocked in his heart: “Is this the main altar of the Heavenly Dao, it really looks magnificent...” Although Yan Bingyu is Xiao Jue’s disciple, he has been living in seclusion for more than twenty years, and he has never been away from the Heavenly Dao Altar, and when he comes here for the first time, his heart is naturally excited.

Crash!

At this moment, there was a sound of footsteps ahead, and immediately after, I saw several patrol disciples quickly coming.

“Stop! When

they arrived, several patrol disciples shouted one after another.

“What people? Dare to trespass on me and leave the Heavenly Dao? “

Huh? It’s a few altar masters...”

Under the angry drink, seeing several altar masters in the crowd, these patrol disciples were stunned, but when their eyes fell on Xiao Jue and Yan Bingyu, they were a little wary.

At this time, one of the altar masters stepped forward and said coldly: "You are blind, can't you see who we are?" "

Uh.....

Several patrol disciples glanced at each other awkwardly, and then saluted one after another: "The disciples have no intention of offending, and I hope that several altar masters will not be blamed."

Saying that, one of the disciples, looking at Xiao Jue and Yan Bingyu, couldn't help but ask: "These two are..."

Without waiting for him to finish asking, the altar master said coldly: "This is our new sect master, don't be rude, get out of the way quickly!" "

What?

The new suzerain?

Hearing this, several patrol disciples were stunned.

At this moment, Feixue took a step forward, and her delicate face was full of indifference: "You guys quickly go and pass on the order, all elite disciples, gather in the main hall." "

The tone is soft and nice, but there is no doubt.

"Yes! Seeing

Feixue speak, several patrol disciples did not dare to slacken, and after answering in unison, they left quickly.

Speaking of which, these patrol disciples were very puzzled in their hearts, but they did not dare to ask more, after all, Feixue was a personal disciple of Qianqiu, and he had a special status in the Heavenly Dao. Even if the elders saw it, they would give three points of courtesy.

Half an hour later, the main altar hall.

The main altar hall away from the Heavenly Dao was magnificent, not at all inferior to the imperial palace, and at this time, in the hall, as well as on the square outside the hall, nearly 10,000 elite disciples stood neatly.

The forces of the Heavenly Dao spread throughout the Tianxin Continent, and the disciples who could stay in the main altar were all elites among the elites.
