

The ultimate husband in Chinese chapter 6947

Chapter

6947 This.....

Faced with this situation, Yue Feng wanted to cry without tears.

If he usually encountered this situation, Yue Feng would definitely be happy, but now the situation is special, how can he be in the mood to bathe and change clothes.

More importantly, the Yi Rong Dan that Yue Feng took had a big drawback, that is, he could not see water.

As soon as it touches the water, it will return to its original appearance, and then the identity will be exposed.

“This...”

At this time, Yue Feng’s face was embarrassed, and he said with a bitter smile: “I’m afraid this is a little inappropriate.” Hearing this, several maids looked at each other, all stunned.

Hua Zhao Niangniang also frowned lightly, and her delicate face showed a little displeasure: “Your Highness, are you disgusted with my Jade Yao Immortal Garden?” “

Uh....

Yue Feng looked embarrassed, and quickly said, “Don’t misunderstand, Niangniang, I didn’t mean that.”

Seeing him say this, Hua Zhaoniang pursed her lips and smiled: “Then don’t shirk, hurry up and go to the bath and change clothes, the palace is still waiting to have a good chat with you.” When the words fell, Hua Zhao Niangniang gently pushed Yue Feng.

That’s it, let’s take the opportunity.

Faced with this situation, Yue Feng was not good to refuse again, immediately nodded, and walked out of the hall with several maids.

Soon, I arrived at the back dormitory.

“Your Highness!”

As soon as they entered the palace, the two maids walked up to them with a smile: "The slave will give you a wide robe first." With that, he prepared to untie his clothes.

The other two maids went to prepare hot water.

Groove...

Faced with this situation, Yue Feng hurriedly said: "No need, you guys get hot water, get your clothes ready, just step down." When he said this, Yue Feng's mood was very complicated.

Ma De, if it weren't for the special situation, I really wanted to feel the treatment of the God King, but unfortunately, now the situation is special, and his true identity cannot be exposed.

Hearing this, several maids were stunned again, and then they all spoke.

"How many slaves used to serve His Highness?"

"Yes, if we go out, Niangniang knows that we will definitely blame it."

Hearing this, Yue Feng's head grew for a while, and he thought about it at that time and said: "It's nothing, I just want to be quiet, you guys retreat first."

"Yes, Your Highness!"

Seeing Yue Feng say this, several maids said no more, and after a while, they prepared hot water, and then retreated.

Call!

At this moment, Yue Feng breathed a deep sigh of relief, and then quietly came to the rear window, ready to slip away quietly.

As a result, seeing the situation outside the window, Yue Feng suddenly became depressed.

I saw that the various exits around the dormitory were all guarded by divine soldiers, and it was impossible to leave quietly.

Lying in the groove, do you really want to stay and drink with Hua Zhaoniang?

Seeing this, Yue Feng was very depressed, and finally thought about it, so he jumped into the wooden barrel and bathed, of course, in order to ensure that Yi Rong was not destroyed, Yue Feng tried not to let his face get water.

After a while, Yue Feng finished bathing, changed into a gorgeous robe, and walked out of the palace.

“Your Highness!”

Seeing Yue Feng come out, several maids saluted in unison: “The wine and dishes have been prepared, and Niangniang is already waiting.”

Yue Feng nodded and returned to the front hall with several maids.

I saw that wine and food had been set up on the table in the front hall, and Hua Zhao Niangniang was sitting there, waiting quietly.

“Come on!”

Seeing Yue Feng returning, Hua Zhaoniang smiled slightly, beautiful as a flower: “Your Highness, sit quickly!”

Saying that, Hua Zhao Niangniang waved her hand and signaled several maids to leave.

Several maids understood and quickly retreated.

Faced with this situation, Yue Feng had to sit down hard, intending to wait and see.

“Your Highness!”

At this time, Hua Zhao Niangniang poured two glasses of wine, handed one of them to Yue Feng, and said with a smile: “Come, celebrate your safe return.” With that, he drank the wine in his glass.

After a glass of wine, two red halos suddenly appeared on Hua Zhao’s delicate face, making her more charming and sexy.

Yue Feng replied, took the wine glass and drank it, made a very relaxed look, and spoke: “Niangniang, how is the situation in the God Domain now?” Alas

Hua Zhao Niangniang sighed faintly: “You have been missing for so long, I thought you would never come back, ready to take power.”

“But now that you’re back, I won’t worry, it’s up to you to do the position of the Heavenly Emperor.”

6948 –
I'll Go!

Hearing this, Yue Feng couldn't help but muttered secretly.

This Hua Zhao Niangniang is really generous to Hao Tian, the position of the Heavenly Emperor, let it go.

Thinking so in his heart, Yue Feng made a flattered look, and waved his hand:
“Niangniang must not, I am the Heavenly Emperor, I am afraid that many people will be dissatisfied.”

As
he spoke, Yue Feng quietly paid attention to Hua Zhao Niangniang's expression.

“You think too much about this!”

Hua Zhao Niangniang chuckled, and a little disdain appeared on her beautiful face: “As Your Highness the God King, you have made great achievements in battle, and in terms of seniority and status, who can compare with the entire God Domain?”

“Besides, with the support of the main palace, who dares to oppose it?”

The tone is soft, but it exudes a powerful aura that makes people surrender.

Call!

Hearing this, Yue Feng secretly exhaled and said with a smile: “That being said, this God Domain is not the final word of the mother, if this matter is known to the ancestors of the Hong Wilderness, I'm afraid...”

At the end, Yue Feng's face showed a bit of jealousy.

In the end, Yue Feng was also very curious in his heart at this time, although the Hong Barren Old Ancestor was still in retreat, he had great powers, and it was impossible not to know the situation in the God Domain.

At this time, Yue Feng wanted to know what Hua Zhao Niangniang had planned, and actually ignored the existence of the Hong Barren Old Ancestor.

Poof!

Seeing Yue Feng's cautious look, Hua Zhao Niangniang couldn't help but purse her lips and smile: “I have thought about this for a long time.” Saying that, Hua Zhao Niangniang put her jade hand on her cheek, got a little closer, and said softly at Yue Feng: "I have long deployed an enchantment in the place where the Honghuang Old Ancestor retreats, and now he has no idea about the situation in the God Domain.

"After he gets out of customs, we have already controlled the situation, and the old ancestor will definitely not treat us with the overall situation."

After saying the last sentence, Hua Zhao Niangniang's delicate face was full of pride.

Groove!

After hearing these words, Yue Feng's heart secretly shook.

I really underestimated her before, it turned out that the deployment had been made a long time ago, no wonder she was so unscrupulous.

Muttering in his heart, Yue Feng's face was full of admiration, and he raised his glass and said: "Niangniang's strategizing, it's really admirable, come, I toast Niangniang with a glass." Saying that, Yue Feng filled Hua Zhaoniang's wine glass with wine.

At this time, Yue Feng could see that Hua Zhao Niangniang was invincible to drinking, and planned to take this opportunity to pour more wine into Hua Zhao Niangniang and find out more secrets.

Yue Feng thought about it, and waited until Hua Zhao Niangniang was completely drunk, and then found an opportunity to leave.

Well!

In the face of Yue Feng's courtesy, Hua Zhao Niangniang was very useful, and took the cup and drank the wine.

For the next hour or so, Yue Feng looked for a topic and chatted with Hua Zhao Niangniang, while constantly persuading him to drink.

Yue Feng's guess was good, Hua Zhao Niangniang was invincible, and her face turned red and drunk after a while.

"Don't drink it."

Finally, Hua Zhaoniang waved her jade hand: "The palace is so sleepy, take a rest first." After that, he fell on the table and fell into a deep sleep.

Call!

Seeing this scene, Yue Feng breathed a sigh of relief.

Finally got it.

Muttering, Yue Feng tried to shout: "Niangniang? When the words fell, he saw Hua Zhaoniang lying there, not moving.

Seeing this, Yue Feng completely relaxed his heart, stood up cautiously at that time, turned and walked out of the hall.

At this time, Yue Feng was in a very happy mood.

Although the situation just now was a little thrilling, it was also a thrill in the end.

On the other side, the Kyushu mainland.

Tian Buyou was cunning and cunning, and with despicable means, he guided Zhu Xiansheng and Danzong to fight, deliberately provoking a grudge between the two sects, and after the truth of the matter was revealed, each sect was angry.

For a time, various sects issued chase orders one after another, vowing to arrest Tian Buyou.

At this time, in a mountain forest located in the southwest of the Xicang Continent, a figure was sweating profusely, moving forward rapidly, running while looking back without stopping, very embarrassed.

It was Buyou Tian.

Dozens of meters behind him, dozens of sect masters were in hot pursuit.

Half a day ago, these sect masters discovered Tian Buyou's whereabouts and chased after them all the way, which made Tian Buyou secretly scream.

"Tian Buyou, you can't escape."

"Hurry up and grab it."

"Give up resistance and leave you with a whole corpse..."

6949 The shouts kept coming, Tian Buyou's face was very ugly, and his heart was also furious.

Ma De, these sect masters, are really haunted.

Crash!

Just as Tian Buyou was secretly cursing, dozens of sect masters had already chased after them, and the few at the head were full of excitement.

"Tian Buyou, see how you still run this time?"

"Shameless scum, suffer death."

Buzz

Everyone shouted, urging their internal forces one after another, and burst towards Tian Buyou.

Call!

Faced with this situation, Tian Buyou was a little flustered, but quickly calmed down, gritting his teeth and shouting: "Just because of you people, you still want to capture me alive?" What daydream?

"Blood poison!"

Under the heavy drink, the cold four words came out coldly from Tian Buyou's mouth, and I saw him quickly bite his finger, chant a mantra in his mouth, and then flick his fingers.

Wooohoo!

In an instant, blood splashed into the air, and in the blink of an eye, a poisonous mist came out, quickly spreading around.

Yes, this is one of the stunts in "Poison Divine Codex".

Hiss!

At this moment, the sect masters who rushed up, seeing the poisonous mist pervasive, were all shocked, gasped, and then shouted and retreated.

"Flash!"

“Don’t smoke the poisonous mist.”

When they shouted, the eyes of these sect masters were full of jealousy.

They all know that Tian Buyou’s poisonous skills are very terrible, and before Wen Ugly and ugly, Sun Dasheng and other sect leaders, all of them have suffered losses at the hands of Tian Buyou, and they dare not take risks at this time.

Hehe!

Seeing that everyone was blocked by the poisonous mist, Tian Buyou sneered and took the opportunity to leave.

It’s just that he has been running for his life in the past few days, Tian Buyou is already a little tired, and just now he performed a blood poison stunt, and at this time, he is even weaker.

Marde!

After escaping for a while, Tian Buyou looked back, and did not see those people catching up, and there was not the slightest ease in his heart.

If you can’t go on like this, you have to find a hiding place.

Just thinking about it, Tian Buyou saw several families on the hillside in front of him, and immediately rolled his eyes and had an idea. This place is not far from the Western Canghuang Imperial City, it is better to pretend to be a mountain man first, and then make plans after mixing with the Imperial City.

Making up his mind, Tian Buyou quietly touched it, took a few clothes to change in the mountain people’s yard, and after dressing up in disguise, he went on the road again.

Along the way, Tian Buyou encountered several waves of chasing experts in the rivers and lakes, but he was disguised, and those pursuing sect masters could not recognize them at all.

In this way, Tian Buyou went all the way unimpeded and arrived at the Western Canghuang City.

Call!

Looking at the lively and prosperous Huangcheng Street, Tian Buyou took a deep breath, and his mood was indescribably comfortable. Immediately, I strolled around slowly.

Walking to an intersection, I saw many people around the billboard, and Tian Bu walked over curiously.

“Looking for a famous doctor, it turns out that the old lady is seriously ill...”

“I heard that the old lady suffered from a very strange disease, her feet were swollen, she couldn’t walk at all, and the general found many famous doctors, but they couldn’t eradicate it, so she posted a notice out...”

When he arrived, Tian Buyou looked at the content on the notice, and then heard the discussion of everyone around him, and immediately understood. Immediately secretly rejoiced.

Great, now there is nowhere to go, it is better to hide in the Great General’s Mansion.

Thinking about it, Tian Buyou stepped forward and took down the notice.

Swish!

In an instant, the eyes of everyone around looked at Tian Buyou, one by one, surprised.

“Someone has revealed the notice.”

“It wouldn’t be a liar, would it...”

“Yes, this person’s dress is a mountain villager, how does it look like he can heal?”

During everyone’s discussion, two soldiers from the General’s Mansion strode over and looked Tian Buyou up and down: “Is it the notice you unveiled?”

“It’s me!” Tian Buyou nodded.

One of the soldiers immediately sneered: “I tell you, deceive the general, but you want to behead, you have to think clearly.” Like the people around him, this soldier also thought that Tian Buyou was a liar.

Ha ha....

Faced with doubts, Tian Buyou laughed loudly: “If you can’t cure the disease, I will let you take the head.” “The Poison Divine Code he cultivated can not only perform poisonous skills, but also treat various incurable diseases, which is why he is so confident.
