

UNEXPECTED TEMPTATION: BILLIONAIRE LOVE STORIES CHAPTER 113

Angelia Selosvone

I looked at myself at the mirror and smiled. It's 10.50 p.m, I wore a black cropped long sleeve shirt. I wore a black leather pants and black leather jacket. I let my brown hair straight and put my make up on. I put my black boots and ready to go.

I walked downstairs slowly and walked out from my house. I walked to the garage and took out my lovely black Koenigsegg CCR, I smiled widely.

It's been a long time since I ride this baby, I drove it out from my house and I saw Alex's car outside of my house. I gave a light signal to him. He got out from his car and walked to mine.

"Hello, Mr. North." I greeted as he got inside my car. He looked at it and then looked at me. He looked at me disbelief.

"Ready?"

"Yeah." He said and I stepped on the gas to my secret hideout to race. I'm so damn excited.

"How long have you been racing?" Suddenly Alex asked.

"Highschool." I answered and took a glance at him.

"You never thought a girl like me will race right? I'm not ordinary Mr. North." I smirked.

"You can say that you surprise me." He stated and I chuckled.

"Never judge a book by it's cover Alex."

"Anything else?" He asked and I turned to him.

"I see you're quite interest in me Mr. North?" I teased.

"Oh this is our 1st date by the way." I smiled to him and ran my hands through my hair.

"Nice choice little Angel." He said and we're arrive at the place. I entered the venue, parked my car beside all the nice race cars. I got off from the car and took off my leather jacket putting it inside my car. I looked at my reflection through my car window.

I walked and saw Alex's face darkens as he saw me fully. I smirked and linked my hand with his. I lead him to the main venue to find Justin.

"Speechless babe?" I asked and I fely he put his arm possessively around my bare waist and pulled me closer to him. He gave people a killing look.

"Do your parents know this?"

"Of course no, sexy." I chuckled and kissed his cheek teasing him. He looked at me with an unreadable expression.

"Angel!" I turned to see Justin, I squealed. I ran to him and hug him tightly. I circle my legs to his hips and he kissed my cheek.

"I miss you!" I said.

"Miss you too Angel!" He laughed as he put me down and held my waist.

"Angel." I heard Alex's calling me, I turned to him and he already gave me a cold look.

"Justin this is my boyfriend, Alex. Alex this is Justin." I introduced Alex to him. Alex suddenly pulled me to him and secured me by holding my waist tightly.

"Nice to meet you." Justin smirked.

"Yeah nice to meet you man!" Alex said and suddenly Ron and Jordan appeared. I squealed wanting to go to them but Alex held me tightly.

"Ronny!" I pushed Alex's grip and walked towards Ron. I hugged him tightly and he circled his arm around my bare waist.

"You look hot today, princess." He smiled and I ruffled his blond hair.

"Thankyou Ron."

"No kisses and hugs for me?" Jordan asked as he stood beside Ron, I chuckled and gave him a kiss on the cheek and tight hug.

"Okay that's enough!" I was pulled by Alex and got back to his arms.

"Ron, Jordan this is my boyfriend, Alex. Alex this is my friend Ron and Jordan." I introduced them and they shook Alex's hand.

"Do you spare me one race?" I asked Justin.

"Honey, we always spare you one when you come." Ron answered and I chuckled.

"Good then." I smiled.

"11.45 is your race so you still have around 20 minutes to get ready." Jordan said and I smiled happily.

"I'll just go to the racing road 5 minutes before the race." I stated and they gave me a thumbs up. I held Alex's hand and pulled him back to my car.

As we arrived at the back of my car, Alex suddenly pushed me until my back kissed the back of my car. He looked at me and put his hand to my cheek. I looked into his eyes and smirked.

"I like it when you're bad." He said and he crashed his lips to mine. He held my waist and picked me up until I sat on the back of my car. His hands ran through my bare area, I cupped his face and deepened the kiss.

He started to kiss my neck and I let out a moan. I closed my eyes enjoying every sparks because his touch and loving the feeling every single feeling of it.

"Alex." I moaned.

"I have to race." I said but he put his lips to mine again. He pulled me near and I circled my legs to his hips. I started to trail kisses to his neck, I smirked as I hear he moaned.

"I have to go bad boy." I whispered to his ear and pushed him away from me. I got down and walked to the driver seat.

"Isn't it dangerous?" He asked and I turned to him.

"I love the feeling of it, no need to worry babe." I winked and got inside my car. I started it and drove backwards to take out my car from the parking lot. I opened the window.

"You have to see me race baby, find me okay." I winked and closed the window. I stepped on the gas and went to the starting line.

I saw Justin, Ron and Jordan giving me a thumbs up. I'm ready now. I looked at the steering wheel intensely. I looked at my right to see my opponent. It's a bald guy. I turned to the road again and focus to race not at the opponent. I turned to see Justin and I saw Alex already standing next to Justin. His eyes never left me and I gulped nervously.

I don't even know if I'm nervous because of the race or because of Alex staring at me?
