

UNEXPECTED TEMPTATION: BILLIONAIRE LOVE STORIES CHAPTER 117

Angelia Selosvone

"Alex! Are you deaf or what? I told you th-"

"Little Angel, I'll lock you outside if you don't come in 3.. 2.. 1.." I ignored him, he really closed his door and locked it. I sighed and looked around his house. I have to find a way out from here.

I walked to his garden to find a door or.. my eyes widen when I found a small door to go out. I walked there but suddenly I felt a hand circling my stomach. Alex was carrying me inside by force, I kept smacking his body but no use.

"Can you just listen to me!" He bursted and put me down as we got inside. I crossed my arms and looked at him raising my eyebrows

"Stay with me for tonight, I have to make sure you're safe."

"Don't even make that s speech Alex, you already put me in danger and why the hell care that I'll be safe!" I bursted back.

"Angel listen-"

"Tell me what is your plan for this, so I can cooperate with you and not being a fool in this." I was beyond pissed. He gestured me to sit down and I sat down. He sat across me and looked at me seriously.

"Jonathan Crone was one of us, he was Kenneth's best friend before Ken even met us. Jonathan or Nate we use to call him, he's broken home but in a most unpredictable way. He was so broken so he started to take drugs and drank a lot." Alex sighed.

"He was one of us until I found him taking drugs, one of Gold Lifes rules are not taking one. I caught him and he knew I caught him. I didn't tell Ken at that time. We're all close to each other until one day Sebastian caught Nate using it. Sebastian was quite shocked because he didn't expect Nate will be someone like that. Nate is an introvert person so he rarely tell us about his family so we literally don't know anything about his background while we know about each others except Nate's."

"Sebastian doesn't like lying and keeping everything for himself, he will tell someone and since he's so close to Luke and Sky so he told them about it. One day I asked Nate to stop, but he doesn't. He told me not to tell Ken and anyone else, I didn't and it goes around 1.5 months." Alex ran his hands through his hair frustrated.

"One day, Ken knew about it because he heard Sky and Luke were talking and he asked Nate. Nate blamed me for it because he thought I was the only one who knew about him. He blamed me because he thought I was the one who told Ken. 3 days later, he went to me and punched me so badly until I almost die. Ken saw it and he decided to kick him out from our group. Nate was more broken after that." He sighed.

"Max always told Ken to act wisely but Ken just kicked him out without thinking twice. Ken doesn't like people messing around with people that he loves. It might sound girly but our friendship means a lot to us. We're brothers.. more than brothers." He looked at me and I just looked at him blankly.

"He's here for revenge, he has build himself back. He came to me one time and threatened me a lot of things. I was afraid that he will try to attack my friends so I decided to take someone else for him to take away from me." That made me angry.

"A month ago, I've been looking someone to take that place and your name always been on the list because you're Hollywood Princess. You're known so he won't be able to touch you because he will break into pieces again. Nate is the owner of Crone Company that produces airplane. So if he dares to do something with you, the whole world will turn their eyes to him and his reputation will go down."

"I knew you come to New York and that's my opportunity to see you in person. I knew you come to that bar so I quickly go there with my friends. I was watching you all the time, Angel. I watched you dance and talking to your friend until you saw me and walked up yourself." He stated and that got me quite shock.

"I walked down to find you because I don't want my friend to know I'm hunting you at that moment so I walked down to get you. When I first saw you, I have a feeling that you're the right girl to play this roll. I pretend that I don't know you while I know who you are."

"I was still thinking about using you until you showed up yourself to that exhibition. You made me want to use you. That's why I asked you the deal. That's the background story." He looked into my eyes and I looked away. I was completely pissed.

"You're so mean, you know that?" I asked.

"I know." He sighed.

"Can you just take me home?" I turned to him and he shook his head.

"Stay here 1 night, I'll drop you off the first thing in the morning." He said, he stood up and walked to me. He took my hand and pulled me up so I stood in front of him.

"I'll guarantee your safety, Angel." He put his hand to my cheek and caressed it.

"You won't know what will happen, Alex. You can't predict the future." I looked into his brown eyes.

"I'm sorry." He kissed my forehead and I just sighed. He pulled me upstairs and he opened one of the room. It was all gray and designed nicely.

"You can change into my shirt." He stated as he walked to his closet taking out a white t-shirt. I took off my heels and I walked to him. I took his t-shirt and go to the bathroom to change. I folded my dress neatly and walked out from the bathroom.

I saw Alex's eyes on me and I coughed uncomfortable. He looked into my eyes and smirked.

"Where do I sleep?" I asked.

"Here." He pointed at his bed.

"No.. are you crazy?"

"Come here." He gestured and I rolled my eyes. I walked the other way.

"You're naughty huh?" I froze as I felt his breath on the back of my neck. He slowly back hugging me and my breath got hitch. He always has this affect on me.

"Angel doesn't like to listen to the devil. So get off me!" I stated as I tried to wiggle out from his grip.

"She has too." He whispered, I turned my body around to face him. I put my hands on his chest and he's holding waist tightly.

"Too bad, I don't like to listen to you." I said and looked into his eyes.

"You're so beautiful." He suddenly said and I can't help but cursed to myself inside my heart. I hate the fact that he can make my knees go weak.

"Are you free tomorrow?" I asked and raised my eyebrows.

"What do you have in mind little Angel?"

"Have a picnic in Central Park." I smiled.
