

UNEXPECTED TEMPTATION: BILLIONAIRE LOVE STORIES CHAPTER 189

Hailey Anderson

"Who made the cheesecake for Mrs. Asquer?" Abby asked in a really angry tone. I raised my hand.

"Fate! Are you crazy? The cake is so salty." She bursted angrily.

"I'm sorry." I said and looked down.

"Today is her daughter's birthday and when the kids ate it, it was so salty." She threw a bucket of flour to me because she's angry.

"I'm sorry Abby."

"Yesterday you put the wrong icing to our cupcakes and today this.. You're fired!" She bursted and threw a pan to me. It hit my arm and I sighed.

I opened the apron and threw it on the ground. I walked to the locker and took all of my things and walked out without saying anything. I'm fired anyway.

People were looking at me because I know I still have flour all over my face.. my whole body to be exact. I'm not in my right mind these days, the sadness was still there and it's making me not doing everything right.

I walked.. I don't know where, just following where my feet takes me. I really need a drink right now, I want to get drunk and maybe do something stupid for awhile.

I miss my princess life.. where everything already there and just enjoy everything without even think of anything. I mean Luke was right all along, I'm a spoil brat.

Just because of him , I'm willing to change in a split day. Stupid feelings.

Fine.. if he doesn't want me then I'll just be with someone who wants me. I'm beautiful and my body is already getting sexier after working out a lot. I can seduce every man I want and sleep with them like a b*. I'm out of my mind right now.. sadness was slowly killing me.

Suddenly I miss playing piano, yes.. I've been playing piano since I was 5 years old. I grew up with that and I stopped 2 years ago because I got sick of it and need a little break. I always play piano when I'm happy, sad and every ups and downs in my life.

I even got a certificate for teaching because I was already on the highest level. I used to join the opera team but I got out because I got sick and wanted to focus on my study more.

I decided to go home to shower before going to Sky's office to meet Janet again. I took a shower and decided to wear something tight. I took out my black tight jeans and my black turtle neck crop top. The crop top revealed flat stomach and the curves on my waist.

I dressed like a s but I feel like wearing these. I want to try something like this.

I curled my hair loosely and put on a bold make up. Taking out my adidas sneakers and walked out from my apartment. I walked with boys sending winks to me. I walked to Sky's office and people were staring at me.

2 weeks after got dumped by Luke sure change me a lot to be honest. I hate being sweet, people will treat me like crap. Stepping on me and use me. I became a lot stronger and acted like a b*.

I was fired from Formon's and maybe I will get fired here too. I walked into the lift and went up. As the lift opened, I saw Sky and Janet.

"Hey Hailey wh-?" Janet looked at me shock.

"Hey." I smiled to her.

"Hai- I mean Fate.. are you okay?" Janet asked.

"You work here, dress nicely. This is an office not a club." Sky said and I turned to him.

"Oh yeah right.. this is an office." I said coldly and walked out from the lift. I'm out of my mind.

"Are you okay? Did something happen?" Janet asked.

"Nothing Janet. I'm fine." I said and smiled to her.

"Let's just go." Sky pulled her to the lift.

"Let's talk after this okay? I'll be back in a hour." She said and I nodded. She got in and I turned around to enter the office.

"Fate?" I saw Jordan looked at me shock, I smirked.

"Hey Jordan."

"You look so sexy." He blurted honestly and I chuckled.

"Thankyou." I smiled and sat on my chair. I opened my laptop and started working. Suddenly I felt someone's watching me, I turned to see Jordan completely looking at me. I raised my eyebrows.

"Jordan.. close your mouth before flies goes in." I said and he closed his mouth. Suddenly my phone rang and it's Janet.

"Hey." I answered.

"Can you go up to Sky's office?" Well.. maybe I'll get fired here too. I walked to the lift to go to the higher floor. As the lift opened, I saw Luke, Kenneth and Max. I smirked and walked in to the lift. I bet we're going to the same floor anyway.

"Hey Mr. Domanco and Mr. Cesantio." I greeted them without caring Luke's presence.

"What are you wearing?" Luke asked and I ignored him anyway. The lift stopped and the door opened, I walked out first and try to find Janet.

"You need anything?" I asked as I found Janet at Sky's meeting room.

"Yeah, we got a deal with Victoria Secret to advertise their brand. You have to go to their office with Jordan tomorrow to meet the team." She said as she gave me the file. At the same time, Sky and the boys walked into the meeting room.

"Okay." I said.

"I can't come Hailey, I have to go to Swiss with Sky tomorrow."

"It's fine." I smiled and she nodded.

"Is everything okay?" She suddenly asked and I raised my eyebrows.

"Uh?"

"Something's wrong right?" She asked in a low tone and I shook my head.

"Oh yeah.. Call Jordan to come here because we're having a meeting with them for a new project." She squealed and I nodded. I texted Jordan to come up and I sat beside Janet.

"Mrs. Locason, you called me?" Jordan asked suddenly as he walked in.

"Yes, we're having a meeting for our new project and tomorrow I need you to go with Fate to the VS office." She announced.

"Will do, Mrs. Locason." He said and Jordan sat across me, I smirked to him.

"Let's start." Sky announced.

As the meeting started, I kept trying to focus on the meeting but I know there are 2 people in the room that have their eyes on me. I winked to Jordan and smirked, completely flirting with him. He's shocked but he smirked back.

"This is a meeting room not a place to flirt or to f here!" Suddenly Luke bursted and stood up angrily, I turned to him disbeliefz

"I'm sorry Mr. Hastington. I'll take that note. I'll flirt and fuck outside next time" I said in a bitchy tone.
