

UNEXPECTED TEMPTATION: BILLIONAIRE LOVE STORIES CHAPTER 266

Kenneth Domanco

1 week later..

"What's with the face bud?" Alex asked and I looked up to him.

"Nothing.. so have you got the information?" I asked.

"Yeah.. already send it to your email." He said as he pointed at my laptop.

"Are you okay? Do you miss Chloe?"

"No.. Why would I?" I opened my laptop and went through my email.

"That's the biggest lie that you've ever say Ken." Alex shook his head.

"Look Alex, there won't be us. Stop asking about my feelings towards her." I hissed coldly.

"She won't stop, do you know that?" I turned my head to Alex and glared at him.

"She will stop becaus-"

"Because what?" I turned to my office door to see Chloe standing there and she raised her eyebrows waiting for me to finish my sentence. Seeing her again makes my heart a little bit relieve even I still ask my team to protect her and give me information about her.

"What are you doing here?" I asked and I quickly dialed my phone to ask Cody why he didn't report this.

"I begged Cody." I turned to her.

"You begged Cody? What?" Alex asked and looked at Chloe in disbelief.

"Don't scold or fire him please, I'm the one who wants this." Chloe walked to us.

"I've told you to stay in-"

"Stay there until when? Do you think I believe that you will come to me? I'm not stupid Kenneth Domanco." She glared at me and put her hands on her waist.

"I love this side of you." Alex commented and I glared at Alex.

"Okay.. I'll guess I need to go before I get killed." Alex excused himself. He walked out and Chloe sat on the chair in front of my desk. I put my attention on my laptop not wanting to look at her.

She doesn't talk and I don't want to start a conversation. I put all my attention to my laptop until I felt weird because it's like a cold war between me and Chloe. I turned my head to Chloe.

She has her eyes closed and put one hand on her chin to support her sleeping. She put her elbow on the chair and I leaned my back to my chair.

I looked at her observing her slowly. Her dark brown hair, her long eyelashes, her pink lips and just her beautiful face. I miss her but I have to hold myself in place before I lose control.

When I said 'I rather let her be happy with someone else than she has to be with me in danger because we don't know the situation', to be honest.. I don't want to pick any of that.

1. I don't want her to be with me because it's dangerous and I might not be there with her when that time comes.

2. I don't want her to be with someone else because I don't know how to react if that happens. Seeing her marrying someone else, kissing someone else and look at someone else like she looked at me right now.

I want to be selfish but I can't.

Losing my family is enough to warn me about people surrounding me. I risked my friends in this but I promise I will protect them and they insisted too. If I ended up falling for her hard.. I won't be able to hold myself not coming to her. Risking her will be 2 times dangerous because she doesn't know anything about self defense and things like that.

"I miss you.. it's killing me." She suddenly said but she didn't open her eyes. I wanted to reply how much I miss her too but I hold it.

"I can't sleep, I was worried about you a lot. You don't even reply my texts and calls." She continued.

"Can I stay with you?" She opened her eyes. Showing me that beautiful blue eyes and hypnotizing me with it.

"No."

"I'll sleep here then."

"I'm working Chloe, go home." I said as I turned my eyes back to my laptop.

"What's your plan?" She asked but I didn't want to answer that. I'm busy checking the file that Alex send. Suddenly Chloe pulled my chin and crashed her lips to mine.

She sat on my lap cupping my face leading the kiss. I tried to control my body but it's betraying me. I kissed her back with the same hunger as her. Kissing her is one of best moments in my life, kissing her is different. So many sensation came together.

Pulling her body more to me and she circled her arms around my neck. My hands stayed on her waist. Until I realize where this will lead. I stopped and looked into her eyes. She leaned to my chest and hugged me tightly.

"I miss you a lot, it's killing me." She said and I sighed. Don't do this to me Chloe.

"Chloe get off me." I said battling about pushing her or no on my mind. She straightened up her body and looked at me. She put her hand on my face carressing my cheek.

"Marry me Kenneth." My eyes widen when she said that.

"I'll make you happy.. I pro-" I pushed her and stood up. I dialed Cody.

"Hello sir."

"Come here you, bastard! Take Chloe back to LA, do it!" I bursted angrily and ended the call immediately. I turned to Chloe and she looked at me with a sad eyes.

"There won't be us Chloe, go back to LA and don't even think about seeing me again." I said coldly.
