

UNEXPECTED TEMPTATION: BILLIONAIRE LOVE STORIES CHAPTER 267

Chloe Regens

"I'm sorry." I said to Cody.

"Don't worry." Cody smiled and I sighed.

"Why is he so mean?"

"He's not mean Chloe, it's for the best." I shook my head.

"He never think about himself, I'm frustrated." I hissed.

"He's really great guy Chloe, he's really kind even sometimes he's cold and demanding but he really cares to his employee and staff. He helped them a lot and everyone said that Ken is the best boss of all."

"Tell me more."

"He might be so kind and caring but he's lonely." I turned to him.

"He has girls around him that wants him but he just use them sometimes and still he's lonely. All he has now is the boys." Cody sighed.

"Since when did he ask you to check on me or spy on me?"

"Since the day you work with Angelia." My eyes widen.

"That long? Even when I didn't saw him for 1 month?" I asked.

"Yes and we always report him everyday." He's unbelievable.

"He doesn't care about me."

"He cares. He never ask me to take care a woman before." Cody chuckled.

"Really?"

"Yes Chloe, I often watch on Conard and Brad."

"Does Ken really have many enemies?" I asked because I'm curious.

"Yes.. People are trying to take him down. They don't know that he's a Lemiere yet." Conard said sadly.

"Wait?! You know?" I asked shocked.

"I was trained to protect the Lemiere Chloe, I might 4 years older but I was trained to protect them. Ken's family made a team like this long time ago. Not only him who trains but me and my team too." He explained.

"So you know him since you were both little?"

"No.. I met him when he ran to our secret place. Here's how it works Chloe. Me and my team were trained to protect the Lemiere but we never met the person we need to protect. We only see them in pictures and the Lemiere put us in so many points in America and we need to wait and ready if one day one of the Lemiere ran to us. There were so many Lemieres out there but he's the only one that survives.

"There are so many spot that the Lemiere prepare us and I was placed in Miami, until one day I heard that the Lemiere's downfall and we became unemployee but we still got money and still got a command to wait for the Lemeire because they might ran to our spot."

"One day.. Kenneth ran to our secret spot in Miami that's where the journey began." He sighed.

"Conard already got me."

"I know.. it means Conard already know and found it." Cody said the same things as Ken.

"What do you mean he already know and found it?" I asked.

"His weakness." I froze.

"Everyone is trying to find Kenneth's weakness but since he never let his guard down no one knows and no one never get the hint that he's the last Lemiere standing. Until you came and he started to change."

"Change? What change? He's still the same."

"He never let the same girl come and go more than once, you Chloe already come and go often. Wherever he's with you, he smiles and be himself. He's a guy who likes to joke around with people.. that's the real him Chloe. He has a soft spot for you and everyone around him knows that." I gulped but still looking at Cody.

"You are his weakness Chloe, that's why he's trying to push you away so you won't be in danger. He do that because he cares about you, if he doesn't care.. he won't send me and do this hurting you." He gestured and I felt guilty.

"What should I do?"

"Waiting game Chloe.. You've already done enough breaking that cold heart, all you need to do this wait. He already has his eyes on you but he hasn't settle his problem yet so now the waiting game begins."

"How do you know him so well?"

"Beside the boys.. I'm one of his trusted people Chloe. That's why he send me for you." He smiled and I nodded.

"I'm not good at waiting." I said honestly.

"Trust him, put a big trust on him because he needs it."

"Thankyou Cody." I smiled to him.

"I want him to be happy too, we all want him to be happy Chloe but all he thinks is his family and people that he care for. He doesn't care if he's lonely.. at least the people that he cares is happy." Kenneth Domanco you're unbelievable. How can a guy like you exist?

"What if he doesn't comeback to me?" I asked.

"He watches you everytime Chloe, even you're in LA now. Trust me he always watch you."

"How long? How long should I wait?" I asked frustrated.

"I don't know Chloe but all you need to do is trust him, we will let you know when he already settle everything." Cody said and I sighed big time.

"I can be your spy." My eyes widen as he said that.

"Really?" A smile appeared on my face.

"But I might not report it to you everyday but I can send you a message every once a week. Give me your phone number." I quickly gave my phone number to him and really happy that he wanted to help me.

"Thankyou Cody! Thankyou!"

"Welcome Chloe.. it might be hard for you but it will be worth it in the end."

"Uh right.. what if I miss him?" I asked.

"Hold it.. it will be worth it in the end Chloe, trust me. If he doesn't do anything. I'll let you know and let you go again freely without begging for it to me." He smiled and I chuckled.

"I'll keep that in mind!"

"I'm going to miss the girls too." I pouted as I looked at the window of the airplane.

"Of course you will.. you can invite them to LA. They will love that."

"You're right! Thanks Cody! I owe you a lot."

"Just make Kenneth happy, he has done a lot of things for me Chloe. All I want now is for him to be happy."
