

UNEXPECTED TEMPTATION: BILLIONAIRE LOVE STORIES CHAPTER 338

Valentine Regens

I got out of Joey's car and waited for him to get out from his car. He slings his bag and takes my hand. Students starting to look at us and yes I never been this nervous entering school

"Why are you so tense?" He asked and kissed my cheek

"People are looking at us weirdly" I whispered

"Because we're hot" I elbowed his stomach and he groaned

"Geez don't be savage Valentine" I glared at him

"Be serious Joey" I said and he chuckled. We entered the building and yes.. all eyes on us. They're glaring to be exact

"I'm here" Joey whispered

"I think they're going to kill me because I dated their guy"

"Correction Valentine.. I'm your guy not them" He smirked

"Of course you're mine" I said and I went to my locker first. Putting my bag and take the books that I need for the first period. After that we walked to Joey's locker

"There's the love birds" I turned to Leah and Joseph

"I felt this building is turning into hell" I said

"Of course.. you both used to curse and kill each other but suddenly you both eating each other" Joseph said

"You both too" Joey said to Joseph

"A* so happy for you guys" Leah hugged me

"Thanks Leah"

"Leah let's go.." Joseph pulled her away , she waved at me. I turned to Joey who is still taking out his books

"We don't have class together today" I said sadly

"Yeah.. hey we have lunch and breaks" Joey smiled

"I used to love when you're not in my class but not now" He chuckled and ruffled my hair

"What's your first period today?" He asked

"Chemistry"

"I'll walk you there then" He said taking my hand and closing his locker

"Wanna hangout after school?" He asked and I raised my eyebrows

"Depends.. what are we doing?"

"Trust me" He smirked evilly and I shook my head

"No"

"Oh come on , it will be fun"

"Oh because I don't trust you with that evil eyes" I pointed at his eyes

"It will be fun babe"

"Your definition of fun is my definition of hell" I said , we walked to my class first. He sits on my table and I sit on my chair. I closed my eyes because I'm little bit sleepy.. We talked on the phone until 3

"You're sleepy?"

"Yeah" He kissed my forehead and I opened my eyes

"Should I pour you cold water?" My eyes widen and I smacked his arm

"If you dare prank me again , I'm not talking to you or you won't get my kiss for one month full" I said coldly

"Hey! That's cruel Valentine , I can't survive without your kisses that long"

"If you dare prank me.. I'll kill you"

"Are you guys dating?" I turned to my classmate Vella , she eyes me and Joey suspiciously

"Do you think we're fake?" Joey asked her

"It's weird to see you both like this when you guys are usually trying to kill each other" She said suddenly the girl who bumped into me when I bought Joey his drinks walked to my class.

Her looks describe it all.. she wants to kill me

"You said you will never date him" She bursted angrily to me

"Yell to me not to her.. I'm the one who asked her out" Joey said coldly and the girl turned to Joey. Her eyes become teary

"Why?" She asked.. oh drama

"If you try to do something to her , you're facing me whoever your name is" Joey said seriously and she stomped her feet. She walked out crying

"She's crazy" I commented and suddenly the bell rings

"Have to go babe" He gave me a peck on my lips

"Bye.. see you at break" I whispered and winked , he smirked and walked out from my class

"I hope nothing breaks because of Joey and Val-" My teacher stopped as she sees everything is clean. She landed her eyes on me and raised her eyebrows

"Huh?"

"Don't tell me Joey decided to prank me right now?" She said and I laughed

"He won't prank you , it's like committing suicide" I said

"Valentine!" I shut my mouth

"Joey and Valentine are dating miss , there won't be a war anymore" Someone said and I sighed big time

"Really?" Ms. Glory asked disbelief

"Really Valentine?" She asked me and I nodded

"Did the hell freeze? That's what you said when I said you both will fall in love one day" Oh yeah I remembered when I said that

"Yes the hell turn frozen now" I said and she clapped her hands

"Let's celebrate for this peaceful future" She announced and clapped her hands. The annoying thing is that all my classmates clapped their hands too.. wow

After learning Chemistry , we walked out and had a 15 minutes break before we go to another class. I walked to my locker and suddenly someone back hugged me.

"How's my Valentine? Did you learn about the chemistry between us?" Joey whispered and I laughed

"Ms. Glory literally so happy and even give us a standing applause for dating" I said and he laughed

"That's crazy.. I have her class tomorrow"

"She's unbelievable.. she said.. let's clap for our peaceful future" I imitated her and Joey laughed his ass off

"We bumped into each other outside and she eyed me suspiciously and I only said be careful Ms.G"

"So that's why she thought you pranked her.. she literally checked her table , chair and everything before she starts teaching" I laughed and so is Joey

"Instead of pranking each other.. let's prank our teacher"

"Don't be evil Joey" I smacked his arm

"You love this evil boy"

"That's the point!" I glared and he laughed
